

CRIBBAGE WORLD

OFFICIAL PUBLICATION OF
THE AMERICAN CRIBBAGE CONGRESS

Vol. 5 No. 6

June, 1984

THE GRAND NATIONAL

The 3rd Grand National Cribbage Tournament will be held in Chicago on the 29th & 30th of September at the Chicago Ohare Ramada Inn. We will be publishing more information in next months CW.

We are trying to organize a Junior Tournament that will run during the Grand National on Saturday, Sept. 29. It will be open to all Junior ACC members under the age of 18. There will be no entry fee, but prizes will be awarded. We would like a "show of hands" if you have a Junior member that might be able to participate. Contact: Ralph Madsen; 78 North Williams St; Crystal Lake, IL 60014. If you have a young cribbage player in your family who is not a member of the ACC, that youngster may join the congress and become eligible for the Junior tournament. Let us hear from you.

1984-1985 DUES

Your 1984-85 dues will be coming due on September 1st. You will be billed for those dues this year and will be receiving your notice sometime in July or August. We would appreciate your co-operation in holding your new dues until you receive your notice. Several people have sent new dues in already for next year. The dues have been increased so that all mail, including the Cribbage World, will be sent out first class to all members. We have had to many complaints from members who have not received there CW because of the bulk mail system we used in the past. We have been experimenting the past few months with first class mail and have found it to be totally successful. Dues for next year are as follows:

ANNUAL DUES	$5.00
MARRIED COUPLES DUES	7.00
LIFE MEMBERSHIP (OVER 60)	40.00
LIFE MEMBERS SPOUSE	2.00
CRIBADIER GENERAL COMMISSION	25.00
JUNIOR DUES (UNDER 18)	2.00

DON'T FORGET TO VOTE

If you have not voted for candidates for the Board of Directors, you still have until June 15, 1984 to get it in. If your ballot is postmarked June 15, 1984 it will be counted. It is important for everyone to vote.

WARREN SWETT MEMORIAL TOURNAMENT
MARCH 10-11, 1984 CRYSTAL LAKE, IL

American Legion Post #171 played host to this third annual tournament under the direction of John Swett and Ralph Madsen. There were 146 players from 6 states in the competition. Bob "Mick" Michaelis of Marinette, WI. must love to come down to Illinois. It seems he can't lose in the land of Lincoln. He took 1st place over Jim McManus of Milwaukee who has also done well south of the Wisconsin border. Two Illinois players took 3rd and 4th. Dale Dewar of Mundelein beat out Ted Kliora of No. Chicago.

The consolation tournament was won by Betty (what's her name) Ward from Menominee Falls, WI who eked out 1st place from Bob Madsen of Chicago who graciously accepted defeat. Frank Schweig of Carpentersville, IL. took 3rd from Richard Kasprovicz of Union Grove, WI.

Two participants held 28 hands at this event. Lloyd Behrens, Woodstock, IL and John Mayer, Port Washington, WI.

SONTAG'S CRIBBAGE CLASSIC
MARCH 24, 1984 SAN JOSE, CA

Harold and Helene Sontag welcomed 78 cribbage enthusiasts to the Santa Clara Elks Lodge for this annual event. Only three entrants were non-Californians but one of these snatched first place at this tourney. Ray Meade came from Las Vegas, NV to win top honors over Lindsey Shears of Cupertino, CA. Third place winner Al Wigger, also from Cupertino, held a 28 hand during this competition. Mary Cornwell, a member of the Board of Directors, took fourth.

TRI-CITIES OPEN
MARCH 31-APRIL 1, 1984 MARINETTE, WI

Tournament director, Robert "Mick" Michaelis, was pleased to welcome 188 eager competitors to the "Dome" for this two-day event. Players from 6 states were represented with two Wisconsin entrants vying for first and second places. Tom Green from Milwaukee was victorious over Don Tofte of Madison. Warren Orrick from Brooklyn Park, MN captured third place from Rudy Rauhen, another "Badger" from Milwaukee. The highest finisher from Illinois was Joe Brown of St. Charles coming in fifth over Roy Lass, Pembine, WI who had to settle for sixth.

In the consolation tournament on Sunday, first place was won by Chet McCafferty of Madison over Bill Nowak from Green Bay, WI. Jim Ringenberg of Neenah, WI was third with Pat Kufahl, Merrill, WI taking fourth.

Dennis Mattson of Iron Mountain, MI and Norm Wright from Madison, WI held 28 hands at this event.

2ND ANNUAL N.C. OPEN CRIBBAGE TOURNAMENT
MARCH 31- APRIL 1, 1984 SOUTHERN PINES, NC

"This tournament was a huge success attracting 82 entries for the Open, 42 players for the Early Bird Tournament and 56 players for Sunday's consolation event", reports tournament director Howard Baum. Competing with entrants from 6 states, Jay DeJaynes from Fayetteville, NC was the second high qualifier after the 20 game opening round. He then won five straight single elimination matches to win the title. In the championship match he won four straight games against second place winner Frank Abernathy of Clayton, NC. Tied for third and fourth were Neil Freits from Keene, NH and Jim Townsend, Raleigh, NC.

Nick Pond also of Raleigh, led the qualifying in the consolation tournament and beat four straight opponents to earn first honors over Arnold Crews from Jacksonville, FL who placed second.

AMERICAN LEGION INAUGURAL TOURNAMENT
APRIL 7, 1984 SPARKS, NV

Tournament director Bill Irons writes to tell us he was pleased with the turnout of 44 players for their first tourney. Many of the cribbers from Nevada and California were first time tournament participants. We welcome our western friends to the tournament trail and look forward to meeting them at future tournaments.

Jerry Olsen of Sparks came out the winner over Jim Hartle from San Jose, CA. Stan Werre from Nice, CA defeated Mary Gladish of Concord, CA for 3rd place.

Thelma Weber of Isleton, CA came away from the contest having held a 28 hand. Her certificate will be on its way shortly.

SERTOMA CRIBBAGE CLASSIC
APRIL 28, 1984 LITTLETON, CO

The Sertoma Charities were benefitted once again due to the loyal efforts of Dick Graham. 54 peggers gathered for the event this spring with Coloradans Jim McCorkle of Denver gaining victory over second place winner Kenneth Ehrich of Morrison. Third place honors went to Jack Larson of Littleton and 4th was taken by Eileen Lynch from Parshall.

The consolation event was captured by Al Page from Denver while Vaughn Trolinger of Boulder had to settle for 2nd place.

3RD ANNUAL CORNBELT CRIBBAGE CLASSIC
MAY 5-6, 1984 DES MOINES, IOWA

The 3rd annual Cornbelt Classic was held in Des Moines, IA May 5th and 6th and although attendance was down, enthusiasm was high.

1st place Sunday went to Marlene Frank of Mound, MN in a close contest with Ralph Werners of Mitchell, SD who finished 2nd. Bob Shetterly of Hartford, IA was 3rd over Michael Smith of Dorchester, NE.

In the consolation on Sunday Greg Trytten of Albert Lea, MN came out on top beating Mark Kacer of Altoona, IA. Third place was taken by John Mentzer of Carlisle, IA who defeated Larry Kacer also of Altoona.

There were three 28 hands during the Iowa weekend, John Williams of Minneapolis, Greg Trytten, the consolation winner, and Jim Godfrey of Des Moines.

FIRST ANNUAL WOLVERINE CLASSIC

This first time tournament is being held at the Comfort Inn in Ann Arbor, MI on June 23 & 24. You can contact Harriette Haight at (313)426-3212). It is important that first time tournaments be supported by people in each of the areas of the country where tournaments are being held. These new tournament directors need your presence. We hope to see you Midwesterners in Ann Arbor.

DIAGNOSIS GOOD FOR "NOBS"

From Albany, we got word on Nelson Ira "Nobs" Pendergast. After a ten hour bypass operation on his leg he was discharged on May 10th from the VA hospital in Buffalo with things looking up. Glad to here you're up and about and keep on peggin'.
