ELECTIONS

A ballot is enclosed for each member to express his/her choice in the election of the representatives on the Board of Directors. An envelop addressed to the Congress is also included for your convenience. Please make your selections promptly and send them to the office of the secretary as soon as possible. All ballots must be returned no later than June 15, 1984 in order to be counted.

The following biographies were submitted for your consideration by the nominees named by the board of directors nominating committee:

DELYNN COLVERT - MISSOULA, MT

I am director of the Montana Open and Montana championship tournaments. I authored a book "Play Winning Cribbage", representing a 20 year study of data resulting in my "26 theory" presented in this illustrated book. I was the first Congress member from Montana.

Delynn Colvert

ROBERT B. EINHORN - MELROSE PARK, PA

I have been a practicing lawyer for over 31 years and have been a cribbage player since college days. My wife and 2 grown children are all cribbage players. I am founder and president of the Middle Atlantic Cribbage Society (MACS), a growing group of cribbage players, now in its sixth year. I have judged in the National Open for two years and was the dealer in the 1983 championship match.

Robert Einhorn

DICK GRAHAM - ENGLEWOOD, CO

I am a 56 year-old lawyer, primarily in probate and real estate law. I have been an ACC director for 3 years. I was co-ordinator for the ACC Las Vegas Tournament of Champions and annually direct three tournaments which benefit the Sertoma charities.

Dick Graham

SYL LULINSKI - LAGRANGE PARK, IL

My wife and I will be celebrating our 25th wedding anniversary in 1984. We are both registered pharmacists and have lived in Chicago, Washington, D.C. and NewYork. I have played cribbage in 6 states and was ranked 11th nationally last year. Seven relatives including our daughter Darice have joined the ACC.

Syl Lulinski

ROBERT "MICK" MICHAELIS - MARINETTE, WI

Charter member American Cribbage Congress Director of Tri-Cities Open Cribbage Tournament. Active participant in many cribbage tournaments. Believes in strong playing rules (mandatory cut etc.)

Robert C. Michaelis

DALE MUNROE - UNIONVILLE, CT

I am a self-employed partner in an engineering consulting firm. I have the time, energy and interest to devote to the obligations and responsibilities of a member of the ACC board of directors. Your vote would be appreciated. Dale Munroe

JOE SEIGLE - MANSFIELD DEPOT, CT.

I staged the first ACC-sanctioned open cribbage tournament in New England; I am the Asst. Supt. at the Mansfield Training School, an 800-bed facility for retarded citizens; and I am seeking twenty sponsors to put up $2,000 each to sponsor me on the tournament trail when I retire. Joe Seigle

JOHN WILLIAMS - MINNEAPOLIS, MN

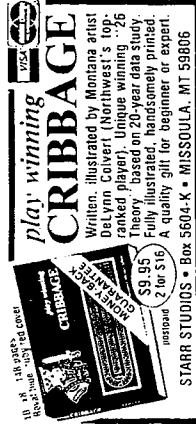

Assistant Director Minnesota Open and largest recruiter of members in Minnesota. My hope is to increase A.C.C. membership greatly and enlarge the fellowship of the game.

John Williams

FIRST GEORGIA OPEN CRIBBAGE TOURNAMENT
JAN. 28-29, 1984 AUGUSTA, GA

It was a small world indeed when Luis Lizarribar, Georgia Open Tournament director, found that Earl Themze and Paul Colbenson had recognized each other as they were checking in to play at the Georgia Open, as advertised in "Tournament Trails" in the Cribbage World. Earl and Paul had not seen each other for 40 years, after having gone to school together. Kind Luis helped them celebrate their reunion by awarding them dinner certificates at the Town Tavern, one of the sponsors of the tournament.

This first time event drew 62 players from 7 states. Top honors were won by Robert Gombatz of Raleigh, NC in first place; Richard O. Ricke of Greenville, SC taking second; Earl T.Henze from Rushford,MN placing third and Joe Kirchgassner also of Raleigh finishing fourth.

There were three 28 hands reported. They were held by Frances Wade, Chesapeake, VA; Luis Lizarribar, Augusta,GA and Paul Woytovich, Hickory, NC.

A consolation event was held on Sunday with 40 players participating. First place was captured by Georgian, Charles Doman of Atlanta with second being won by Luis Lizarribar, Sr. of Augusta, GA. George Burwell from Warrenton, NC came in third over Paul Colbenson, Atlanta in fourth.

COMPANIONS OF ALAMEDA COUNTY CRIBBAGE TOURN.
FEB. 25, 1984 - HAYWARD, CALIF.

This benefit tournament drew 50 players to Alameda county for their second effort to raise funds for "The Companions". Due to the protracted length of the event it was mutually agreed to cancel the final round play-off. First place was shared by R. E Kirk and Robert Kirk from Saratoga, CA. while third was shared by Mel Carrera of Reno, NV. and James H. Kendall of San Mateo, CA. Joe Kawiaka of San Lorenzo, CA won fifth place over Jan Willis, Hayward, CA. Seventh place was captured by Jarrel James of Quincy, CA with eighth place taken by Jerry Sullivan also from Hayward.

Tournament director, Betty DeForest, and her committee assure us that future tournaments will be scheduled differently so that this unfortunate circumstance will not be repeated.

June Powell of San Jose, CA was the recipient of a 28 hand during this event.

NORTHWEST OPEN CRIBBAGE CHAMPIONSHIP MAR. 10-11, 1984 BAKER, OR

Tournament director Rob Palmer reported that his seventh annual tournament drew 88 players from four states. These northwesterners played hard and heavy with Gus Garrigus from Oxbow, OR coming out the winner. The host Rob Palmer took second with Otto Bartholow of Boise, ID third and in the fourth spot Brad Scott of Galdstone, OR. Notable to the event was the significant turnout which shows a growing cribbage interest in the northwest.

WESTERN NEW YORK OPEN CONSOLATION MAR. 17-18, 1984 HAMBURG, NY

Tournament director Albert Hargesheimer reports the following results of the consolation event following the Open. First place was Bob Madsen, Chicago, IL followed by Mike Brown, Buffalo, NY in second, Marian Quackenbush, Lawrenceville, PA in third, and Dick Graham, Englewood, CO in fourth. Main tourney results appeared in April CW.

SOUTH SHORE OPEN CRIBBAGE TOURNAMENT
MAR. 25, 1984 MARSHFIELD, MA

In this second year event there were 126 entries representing three states. Directors Eddy Bowes and John Marsten were very pleased to present to the winner and runner up two beautiful trophies and awards. John and Ed were additionally pleased that they had two 28 hands during the tournament by A.C.C. members Richard Fitzsimmons and Stanley Graham. The top four winners were:

Don Devereaux	Newton, MA
Julie Kiernan	Warwick, RI
Al Dinwoodie	Slocum, RI
John Marshall	North Providence, RI

Secretary Madsen is pleased and grateful to announce Robert McCabe of Brown Deer, WI has accepted the position of Assistant Secretary and Statistician for the A.C.C. His background in statistics and the congress will be most helpful. Our thanks.

The State of Wisconsin

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Mr. Joseph Petrus Wergin was the moving spirit in having cribbage players of the United States band together in 1979 to form the American Cribbage Congress and to promote play and tournament competition; and

WHEREAS, this Wisconsin resident has served as president of the organization since its beginning; and also organized the World Masters' Classic for the purpose of bringing together people from all walks of life, irrespective of their race, creed, sex or nationality, in the best tradition of egitarianism; and

WHEREAS, several Wisconsin people have received national recognition for their play and association in national competition including the selection of Leo and Dottie Schwedrsty, Lyndon Station, as Mr. and Mrs. Cribbage USA for 1984; the winning of the national individual championship of 1983 by Norman E. Wright, Madison with Robert Michaelis, Marinette, second, and Larry Rowley, Madison, third; and

WHEREAS, the World Masters' Tournament, in addition to providing mental stimulation, physical exertion and healthful relaxation, did benefit the economy of the State through the attraction of players and tourists; and

WHEREAS, the Sixth Annual World Masters' Cribbage Classic, is to be staged on the week-end of May 18th in the community of Mount Horeb and all winners are to be regarded as Masters in their divisions; and

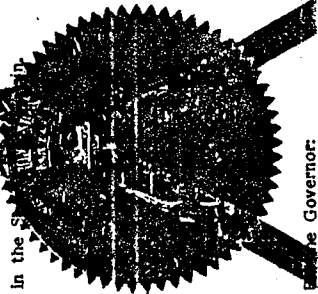

WHEREAS, the World Masters' Classic is so esteemed by citizens of our state that legislators, public officials, businessmen and men of the cloth feel duty-bound to participate; and

WHEREAS, the Governor of the State of Wisconsin recognizes the social and economic benefits that have been derived from six years of Masters' competition; and

WHEREAS, the State of Wisconsin recognizes Joseph Petrus Wergin as the founder and first director of the Masters; Charles Steinbauer, the present Chair, Leo and Dottie Schwedrsty, Mr. and Mrs. Cribbage USA; the championship competitors Norman E. Wright, Robert Michaelis, Larry Rowley and all the participants in the World Masters' Classic;

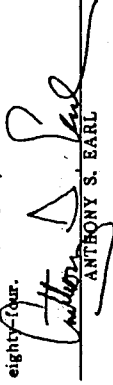

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ANTHONY S. EARL, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, do hereby proclaim the week of May 14 through 20, 1984 as

WISCONSIN CRIBBAGE WEEK

In the presence of me,

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Wisconsin to be affixed. Done at the Capitol in the City of Madison this twenty-sixth day of April in the year of Our Lord, one thousand nine hundred eighty-four.
