SANDS REGENT HOTEL

AGAIN HOSTS ACC OPEN TOURNAMENT OF CHAMPIONS

Hundreds of cribbage players will meet and compete in Reno, Nevada, at the Sands Regent Hotel & Casino on February 3-4, 1990, in the ACC Open.

Tournament Directors Jeff Shimp of Allegan, Michigan, and Syl Lullinski of La Grange Park, Illinois, have been working closely with the personnel of the Sands Regent to make this an event to remember.

The Sands Regent is a 670-room casino just 10 minutes from the Reno airport. It has 2 restaurants open 24 hours a day, 3 casinos, 5 cocktail lounges, beauty and barber shops, a health club and a poker room -- in other words, something for everyone.

For those of you who will be flying to Reno, be sure to make your flight reservations early enough to gain the benefit of advance reservations savings that may be available. Plan ahead and have a great time. (For more information, see enclosed tournament insert.)

The INVITATIONAL TOURNAMENT OF CHAMPIONS ... is being directed by Joan Rein of Carver, Minnesota, and will be held on Friday, February 2, 1990. The concept of the Invitational is to bring together in the spirit of competition and good "sportsmanship" those players who have done well and have been fortunate on the tournament trail. Invitations were mailed in November, and the criteria were outlined in October's CRIBBAGE WORLD.

If you consider yourself a qualifier and would like to attend and you have not been extended an invitation by the time you receive this issue of CRIBBAGE WORLD, please contact Joan Rein, Box 306, Carver, MN 55315, 612-448-2459.

Let's get behind Jeff, Syl and Joan to make this February 1990 weekend the best ever. These three individuals are working extremely hard to make this a pleasurable winter weekend for all. Last year over 600 persons attended the Open -- be one of them this year.

ACC OPEN

THE PRESIDENTS COLUMN

Joseph P. Wergin

The CRIBBAGE ANYONE brochures have crossed the high seas, and Israel now has two Congress members. A software company includes our brochure in all its advertising mailings. In fact, the company paid the cost of printing 60,000 of these brochures per our agreement.

This arrangement resulted in a contact with Stan and Tsjipi Kimmel. They not only took out memberships for themselves, but they enrolled Stan's brother Marvin and his wife Marilyn of Miami. The Israeli couple are planning to spend the holidays in Florida and are looking forward to playing in several Grass Roots clubs.

Jerry Dickinson, Commissioner of Grass Roots, is all excited about the possibility of having a club in a foreign country. This could be the first in the program.

Oregon's Hermiston Club #2 gave the President a $200 check to be used in the promotion of Grass Roots. Ohio was listed in the September membership report as having 18 Congress members. That figure represents 10 years of Congress activity.

The Public Relations Committee decided to make Ohio the No. 1 target of a drive for new members. A total of 227 releases was sent to the weekly newspapers in an attempt to make contact with dedicated cribbage players. Congress programs and ideals were extolled in the releases, and players were invited to write for free brochures.

In addition, letters and copies of the release were mailed to all 18 members, requesting them to make personal contact with the various editors so that the releases would be published. So far, $110 has been spent on this project. Mailing labels have been ordered to cover a nearby state with a low membership in the Congress.

The President's Public Relations Committee will now be an ad hoc committee pending an amendment to the Constitution. Although this committee has been operating over 10 years, the Constitution does not spell out the President's right to name the members of a Public Relations Committee. And it does not give anyone else the right to name members. In fact, the Constitution does not even mention a Public Relations Committee.

In order to act legally, our official title is President's Ad Hoc Public Relations Committee. On the ad hoc committee are the President; George Webb, Avon, Massachusetts; and Karl Grube, Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Webb's chief assignment at the present time is to accept and dispense brochures to members who wish to distribute them. His address is Box 516, Avon, MA 02322.

Karl Grube distributed about 5,000 of these brochures during the past tourist season to people making the tour around Lake Superior and to people purchasing the board game, Lake Superior Cribbage. Grube is working with school administrators on a project that will bring cribbage into public schools. In a later issue of this magazine, his plan will be unveiled. Great things are being worked out by this ad hoc committeeman.

A second Grass Roots club is being organized in Madison by this writer, as this column is being mailed to the editor. The first meeting was on Saturday, November 11, and application was made for Charter #99. The #1 charter is held by Madison Metro Grass Roots Club.

It is very interesting to note that this new club is sponsored by the Madison Recreation Department, which is a branch of the Madison Board of Education. Cribbage is being accepted in the educational system.

ATTENTION 1990 TOURNAMENT OF CHAMPIONS PARTICIPANTS

If you have returned your entry for the 1990 Tournament of Champions Invitational to Joan Rein and you have not received your acknowledgment by January 20, you must contact Joan Rein immediately at P.O. Box 306, Carver, MN 55315 or 612-448-2459 (home) or 612/448-2801 (work).

NIAGARA FALLS EASTERN REGION CHAMPIONSHIP

Garry Snider from Franklinville, New York, went undefeated in match play to win over Alice Butting of Buffalo, New York, in the final playoffs of the Niagara Falls Championship.

Garry Snider qualified number one in the main tournament and went undefeated in "double elimination" playoffs. Alice Butting gave Garry a run for his money, but in the end it was Garry's day.

The Niagara Falls Eastern Region Cribbage Championship is turning out to be a very productive tournament in more ways than one. First, we increased our attendance by 25% from last year, and we expect our tournament to grow by another 25% next year. With all the things to see and do in Niagara Falls, this should be one of the best tournaments of the future.

Second, John Marchand, Jr., of Rochester, New York, showed up last year with his wife Catherine 8 months pregnant. Well, this year John and his family came back to Niagara Falls to play again and -- you guessed it -- Catherine was in a family way again. Congratulations to John and Catherine. With your help and others, the Niagara Falls Eastern Region Cribbage Championship is going to grow 25% one way or another.

Tournament Director
William Kraatz
