President's Column

by David Campbell

"The only thing you take with you when you are gone is your reputation."

—Bill Medeiros

Over the years when I traveled with Bill or listened to him on the phone complain how he had lost his last game at Grass Roots, he nearly always included many thoughts and stories about life. I heard many of the stories countless times, but he loved telling them. The quote above is one of the things he would say over and over—and it is something that will stick with me forever.

When I play at muggins tournaments I never mug anyone. I do this for several reasons. I feel you are already rewarded by people missing points. I do not want to embarrass them. And usually when you mug someone, they slow down drastically.

Many times I have not qualified because I would not let people false claim a game, thereby giving me a game that I deserved to lose. I am not saying that everyone should do as I do. I am merely stating how I handle these situations.

I learned this lesson the hard way a few years ago when I was playing Beatrice MacAulay (Dorchester MA) at a New Hampshire tournament. Beatrice is Rob Medeiros's ninety-nine-year-old nana. Sadly Beatrice passed away a few weeks ago, and she will be missed by all of the players who ever had the pleasure of playing her.

On this Sunday, while playing Beatrice in the last game of the day, I was one of the last people to finish. I knew that if I won the game I would win all of the side pools.

Halfway through the game I am leading by twenty or so holes. All of a sudden Beatrice's grandson walked up behind her to watch, and he shared some of the famous Medeiros luck with her. She got a 24-hand, followed by a 20-hand. We get to the end of the game, and Beatrice had 12 points but was 13 out. She accidentally counted it as 14, and I said, "Recount it, Beatrice; don't take 14." She recounted and said, "I don't care. I get 14 so that is what I am taking"—and she pegged out.

This is now a nightmare because there are ten people watching us and because I know that by winning the game I am going to win a lot of money in side pools. I call for a judge and they move her back 15 holes, so she is now 16 out.

I deal the next hand from 7 holes out. I easily have enough to go out with my hand and crib. Then karma took over, and Beatrice was dealt A-A-2-3, and we cut a 3. So not only did I lose once to Beatrice, I lost twice to her in one game and got exactly what I deserved—a loss. CW

Winner of ICD poetry contest!

Happy birthday, Sir John Suckling.
You designed a game that needs that luck thing.
It's not a breeze—like Spades or Hearts.
Your game requires a lot of smarts.

You made us count and add and think and even made a hole of stink.
And who thought up this thing called pegging that involves both prayers and begging?

The silliest thing I've ever seen—creating a game without nineteen.
I can't imagine anything dumber than making a game with a missing number.

And 'tween twenty-four and twenty-eight—(let's make sure I've got this straight)—
You think it takes a chart or map to see you had a monstrous gap?

And even worse—whodathunk—
you'd make a game that had a skunk?
No bear, no cat, no dog, no bird—
just a skunk—that's quite absurd.

And when that dreadful skunk thing comes,
and we've totaled all the sums.
We whine, we growl, we scowl, we moan,
we snarl, we grieve, we mourn, we groan.

But overall, I have to say,
we love to play this game today.
In words so plain, in words concise,
I offer this, my best advice.

In times of fear, in times of doubts
it's who you are inside that counts.
You strive for right and shy from fame.
It's always how you play the game.

Keith writes poetry for an hour every morning at his cribbatorium in Waynesville NC.

The Inside Track

by Rob Medeiros

Sometimes little things can be the difference between winning and losing. There has been much talk lately about pace of play. If you are playing a slower player and they suddenly take only two seconds to make their discard, it's pretty safe to assume they have a pat hand. If they lead a picture, you can assume they either have a double run of pictures or a combination of pictures and 5s. Then peg your hand accordingly with this information. Obviously in some cases, your hand will not mesh with your opponent's, so this info will not benefit you. But sometimes you might be able to trap a 5, and those three points could be the deciding factor. If you are the slower player, take a few extra seconds to make your discard so your opponent will not gain this added advantage. Little things matter!

Life Master (2★) Rob Medeiros is leading the Eastern Region because he always traps your 5. Send questions and comments to him at mrob2199@aol.com.

Ron learned to play cribbage from members of the Quincy CA Volunteer Fire Department. He joined the ACC in the late '80s and traveled to tournaments with DeLynn Colvert—cribbage mentor extraordinaire!—when he lived in Missoula MT in the '90s. Ron evidently learned well from DeLynn, as he now holds the ACC record for best twenty-two-game scorecard—an amazing 46/21 +388 (see February 2017 Cribbage World). Now a member of Sierra Nevada Club 11 (Reno NV), Ron has been club champion five times and earned his Bronze Award. His first tournament win was the Montana Championship in 1992 (after being low qualifier with a 26 card); he now has won thirty-two sanctioned tourneys. His favorite tournaments are Reno, Topaz, and Alta. His toughest opponents are Peggy Shea, Bob Bartosh, Duane Toll, and Pete Jackson. Ron was in the Air National Guard at the Reno/Tahoe International Airport for twelve years during the '70s and '80s. As part of a recruiting drive, he got to fly in the back seat of an F-4 Phantom II fighter jet on a reconnaissance mission. The pilot gave him one helluva ride, including barrel rolls, loops, and Mach 1 eighty feet above Honey Lake near Susanville CA! Ron's non-cribbage interests are traveling, hunting, fishing, and antiquing.

Margaret learned to play cribbage when her parents were being taught by a friend. However, with a family of seven, they rarely played cribbage (Hearts and Uno were the family card games). She joined the ACC in 2011 and was Rookie of the Year in 2012–13. Her mindset is to try to learn something during every cribbage game, and so she appreciates the many accomplished cribbage players who are willing to answer questions. Here's how Margaret earned her Grand Master at Topaz in November: at the lunch break she had 8/4; and in a peerless example of the never-quit mentality, she won every game after lunch except one and finished with 33/14 to become high qualifier. Never give up! Margaret is learning golf (the card game)

Oh, the People You'll Meet!

by Tammy Gibbons

Michael O'Brien's cribbage story starts out very similar to many others. He learned to play when he was about ten years old during summer vacations spent with his uncles at a lake cottage in New Hampshire. His uncles were enthusiastic teachers who taught him to love the game, and now Michael has a wonderfully supportive spouse, Nanci, who also enjoys playing cribbage. Michael joined the ACC seven years ago and plays Grass Roots in Baltimore and tournaments across the country, including the granddaddy of them all in Reno.

But Michael does not let cribbage or his success/failure at the game define him. No, he has far too much going on to be defined by a game—no matter how grand! In addition to being a Doctor of Veterinary Medicine, Michael has developed into a highly accomplished woodworker and all-around builder extraordinaire. And that is where our story truly begins.

After graduating from Purdue University Veterinary School in 1981, Michael worked for four years with another doctor. He then bought an existing practice when its owner retired, and he moved it to his newly purchased home. He has meticulously restored this circa 1909 home from top to bottom over the course of many years. He is the proud holder of the longest-standing building permit in Carroll County history—seventeen years! There isn't a room in his house that hasn't had his handiwork brought to it. If wood were an orchestra, Michael O'Brien writes the music and produces the concert for all to enjoy.

His home is in Mount

Airy, Maryland, historically a railroad town of about 9,000 people that is part of both the Washington and Baltimore metro areas. The citizens are very proud of their town and are always looking for new ways to showcase their history. Anyone who has ever played Monopoly has heard of the B&O Railroad. As America's first commercial rail service, it originally served thirteen states and covered thousands of miles.

BEFORE . . .

This story involves the restoration and showcasing of the Mount Airy Caboose, affectionately called MAC or Mackenzie. One of four hundred type I-5d cabooses built by the B&O around 1925, this caboose served proudly until 1978. Most of the retired cabooses were scrapped for parts, but a more interesting fate awaited Mackenzie. After many temporary stops, in 1999 it came to rest on a family farm near

Mount Airy as a playhouse for the owner's children. In 2014 the family generously donated it to the town of Mount Airy, and it was taken to Baltimore for a complete exterior renovation at the B&O Restoration Museum. A restoration such as this would easily cost $100K, but Michael and a team of volunteers secured donations of all the materials—wood, windows, HVAC, and more—reducing the exterior renovation costs by at least 30%.

... AFTER

Once the exterior was completed,

MAC was grandly transported with much fanfare to Mount Airy and its new permanent home, where the interior restoration could begin. Michael volunteered to spearhead the refurbishment, and the town accepted without even knowing his true woodworking skills. It took six months to make the interior the beautiful showcase that you see in these pictures.

Today Mac is open for public events. A beautiful commemorative book written by Nanci and Michael details the entire amazing journey (available from the Historical Society of Mount Airy for $15). Michael and Nanci will be in Reno in March and would love to talk to anyone who has an interest in this amazing project.

As for Michael, well, he has already moved on to his next project—helping to refurbish the original late-1800s Mount Airy Train Station that sits just across from Mackenzie’s new home. CW

Cribbage Board of the Month

BY JAY FULWIDER

These two boards were given to me by Bill and Lauree Urlevich. Bill is an ACC member and plays with the Sea-Tac Peggers in Federal Way WA. Lauree found the boards at an antiques show.

There was no history with the boards, so I did some research. It is obvious that they are Japanese souvenir boards featuring Mount Fuji. Most people would say they were made of Bakelite. Patented from 1907 to 1927, Bakelite is a type of plastic made from phenol formaldehyde resins and fillers. Bakelite products are heavy and either black or dark brown.

In 1927 the American Catalin Co. took over and used the same process but eliminated the fillers. That allowed for bright colors to be introduced.

Catalin products were made from 1927 through World War II.

These two boards are from that era. However, the larger board (top photo) was not completed until 1963 at the earliest. That is because it features the Fuji Five Lakes Chureito Pagoda. The pagoda was built as a peace memorial that wasn't completed until 1963. It is, of course, possible that the board was made earlier, with the etching added later.

Whether Bakelite or Catalin, these boards are works of art.

Jay Fulwider collects cribbage boards from his home in picturesque Washington State, where he also enjoys golf, fishing, and racquetball. ACC Cribbage Code of Congeniality

During a new player's trial period (four weeks or until they earn points—whichever is longer) . . .

- We pledge to welcome new players warmly and make them feel wanted.
- We pledge to not penalize new players for violating tournament rules. (We will, instead, gently tell them what the rule is and what the penalty would be.)
- We pledge to not let new players underpeg points or undercount hands. (We will, instead, explain errors and then allow new players to take all points they are entitled to.)
- We pledge to not make new players feel inferior if/when they miss points or make a bad play. (We will, instead, let them know that all cribbage players do this and that it is part of the learning process.)
- We pledge to not force new players to play a game in fifteen minutes. (We will, instead, be tolerant and not complain, remembering that we, too, started slow.)
- We pledge to allow new players to play for free or at the minimum cost of club expenses.

After the trial period is up . . .

- We pledge to continue to make all players—new and existing—feel welcome and comfortable at our club.

25 Years Ago in the ACC

The cover of the March 1993 Cribbage World announced that David Clemmey (Mansfield MA) won the ACC Open and Dick Graham (Englewood CO) won the TOC.

Elsewhere we read that Duane Toll, than a lowly Life Master without a single star to his credit, suffered sixteen skunks in thirty-one qualifying games at the Belle City Classic in Kenosha WI. Oh for the good ole days!

IN MEMORY OF CRIBBAGE FRIENDS

Allan Booth

Al Booth (Coon Rapids MN) passed away on December 26 at age eighty-one. A Navy vet and career Ford employee, Al was a longtime member of Club 240 and was involved with Jerry Gruber in numerous Minnesota tournaments. Al had earned both his Bronze Award and Grand Master rating, and he received a Turtle Lake tournament trophy for two 29-hands. He loved his cribbage family and could name them by sight. Al was an avid cribbage teacher who made sure all his family played cribbage. One grandson won two junior tournament scholarships. Al will be missed.

Jerry Hearsum

Our friend Jerry Hearsum (Albany, Cove, and Salem OR) passed away in Salem on November 13. He was 74. Jerry was a VISTA volunteer, worked for the Department of Defense in Vietnam, and had a career in special education for twenty-five years. He then found his passion—breeding and raising alpacas. Jerry was not able to play tournament cribbage for the past ten years due to physical issues but he continued to love the game, and he very much missed the friendships he had made. Jerry was a difficult player to beat, but you always enjoyed playing him because, along with his competitiveness, he helped make the game fun—win or lose. Our friend will be missed by many.

Karen Johnson

Karen Johnson (Orting WA), a longtime member of Sea-Tac Peggers Club 148, passed away unexpectedly at age seventy-six on December 26 while undergoing a medical procedure to implant a pacemaker and defibrillator. Karen was one of those people that every cribbage club should have. Whenever cribbage and food were mentioned, Karen was involved. She coordinated the program to provide snacks for weekly club tournaments. Karen, along with her husband, Ed, hosted the annual club picnic at their house, which consisted of a potluck dinner, nine games of cribbage, and lots of socializing. She also helped plan and run the annual club Christmas party. Karen was instrumental in planning and running the raffle at our club tournament, the Mount Rainier Open. She also collected items for the 24-hand table and assisted in providing snacks. For her it was a yearlong project, and she did a fantastic job.

Richard Orff

On January 24, Club 161 lost the perfect gentleman of cribbage. Richard Orff (Hopedale MA) was not only eighty-nine years wise, he was also very courteous and kind to other members. He was patient

Youth Teaching Tip

When we start teaching cribbage to youth, we get so focused on presenting lessons on the rules of the game, pegging strategies, how to count your hands, and so on that we overlook a basic skill that needs to be practiced by most kids—shuffling the cards. Without the ability to shuffle proficiently, it can waste a lot of time, thus a game of cribbage can take well over thirty minutes. I encourage you to incorporate a warmup session of five minutes into your first few lessons, to allow everyone to master the art of shuffling. You can also give everyone a deck of cards to take home and assign shuffling practice as homework. Also, remind your students that four to five good shuffles is adequate to mix the cards. Sometimes kids overshuffle, which can slow down a game as well.

Grass Roots

Corner

George Lozy might look like a familiar name. For those in the locale of Club 130, where he is the statistician for the group, they know him well. His name should be a little more familiar now since he won the Eastern Grass Roots Regional Tournament two years in a row! Congratulations to George, and good luck defending the title again next season.

Club 120 (Wisconsin Rapids WI)—Ken Gronski pulled off the elusive grand slam on January 25, soundly beating all opponents but one by double digits.

Eric Akse was fortunate enough to score a 29-hand at Sno-King Peggers Club #108 (Lynnwood WA) on February 13—the first 29-hand at Club 108 in over five years. Some players (with tongue firmly planted in cheek) questioned whether Eric's shirt was legal by ACC rules.

After fifteen minutes of playing him, they found it difficult to focus on the cards!

Club 190 (Auburn CA)—Dianne Wil- ford has been with the club

for several years and got her third 28-hand.

Club 215 (Chaska MN)—Lyle Lund scored a 28-hand in game one on January 24, the first at this club in more than a year. Feeling left out, Todd Bullock pulled a 29-hand the following game! Club director Bob Joslin says that this is the first 29-hand in the fifteen years that he have been running the club.

Club 224 (Grand Junction CO) started Bill Richards off in fine fashion with a grand slam!

Club 261 (Edmonton AB) is making 2018 one of their best years yet. Dennis Wagner scored a grand slam on January 17, and new player Jerry Moore grabbed one on the 31st, on the same night that Rob Voysey scored a 28-hand!

Club 356 (La Grande OR) has seen Tom Anderson score two 28-hands so far this season!

Club 426 (Battle Ground WA) has had a run of 28-hands—three in five weeks! Congrats to Kathleen Hanson, Howard Hanson, and Darrell Deschand.

On February 8, the top five players at Club 288 (Collinsville IL) all scored 13/6. Ken Blumberg had the best spread points (100), followed by Jack Van Barneveld (85), Dennis Thebeau (73), Donald Phillips (59), and Cynthia Stemm (3).

Platinum#4

Patrick Barrett (Wisconsin Rapids WI)

Patrick's parents, Jack and Arlene, taught him and brother Michael to play cribbage when the boys were around six years old. Patrick joined the ACC in 1980. Early on, he watched Mick Michaelis and Duane Toll as much as he could and learned quite a few things from them. He founded the Central Wisconsin Club 120 in 1990 and still plays there every Thursday. A nine-time club champion, Patrick has also received his Life Master (★) rating. After earning less than 12 GRPs on three consecutive weeks, on December 14 Patrick goes into the final game of the night with 11/5 against Jerry Schiessl, who has only two wins. On the final deal of the game, Patrick is dealer from 23 holes out, while Jerry needs only 9 points with first count. Patrick holds 4-5-6-6 and gets a 5 cut. He figures he will never get to count this hand, but here is how the pegging went:

Jerry	4		10		A		A
Patrick		4 (for 2)		6		6 (for 2)		5 (for 1)

Jerry counts eight points and ends in the dead hole, and Patrick counts his 24-hand to win the game, earn 13 GRPs on the night, and become the fourth Platinum Award winner! Patrick plays ten tournaments a year and always goes to Grand National, TOC, and ACC Open. He considers his club players and Midwest players some of the best out there. He always says, "If you can win at the club you can win anywhere!" Patrick is a former NASCAR official and stills work at two local racetracks. He and wife Linda love to travel and take their three Shih Tzu dogs with them whenever they can.

Walter Howell (Newport OR)
Gold #99

Walter learned to play cribbage in 1954 when he was in the National Guard. He joined the ACC in 1993 and looks to Rollie Heath as his cribbage mentor. A member of Newport Club 127, he has been club champion four times. He earned his Gold Award on November 14. He needed a single point to reach the 6,000-point plateau—and scored 17/8! Walter's biggest win was the 2002 JPW/ACC Open consolation. His favorite cribbage moment this season was qualifying four times in Grand National at Lincoln City. Walter enjoys traveling and cooking.

On February 10 the server hosting the ACC's Grass Roots website crashed. Our options were either to reconfigure a new server or move the Grass Roots program over to cribbage.org, which is hosted by Network Solutions. We decided to move the Grass Roots site over to cribbage.org server. By moving the site, the ACC is now paying only one company to host its web pages instead of two, and in time we can work toward having a single unified ACC site where members can access everything. You can now get to the Grass Roots website by going to cribbage.org/grassroots or going to cribbage.org and clicking the Grass Roots link on the right-hand side.

Jim’s grandfather taught him cribbage at an early age. By age eight Jim was playing offense and defense and counting his hands. He has now been playing for over sixty years. He first became aware of the ACC when Joe Wergin and Jeff Shimp ran a nonsanctioned tournament in a strip mall in Grand Rapids in the late 80s. Jim joined the ACC, became a judge, and started Club 71 that fall. His first tournament win was Niagara Falls in 1991; he has now won four tourneys and reached Grand Master. Jim never had a cribbage mentor, but he tries to learn from everyone. Books by DeLynn Colvert and Dan Barlow and Hal Mueller’s cribbage programs have also helped. Duane Toll let Jim watch his long match when Duane won the national championship; the discussion afterward was a great help. Jim has been club champion many times over the past thirty years; he has been club director, statistician, treasurer, and judge and has averaged 200 GRPs each year to reach the 6,000-point level. Jim’s toughest opponent is Wayne Steinmetz. One favorite cribbage moment was mugging DeLynn Colvert at the TOC (DeLynn won the game) when DeLynn informed Jim that he was in a very select group! Jim’s other favorite was when his wife, Kathy, beat him in the first round of the playoffs at Niagara Falls. Shamus O’Connor then beat Jim in the first game of the consolation and said: “See you in the finals!” Kathy beat Rit Alkas and Duane Toll on her way to the main championship, while Jim met Shamus in the finals and won! Besides cribbage, Jim’s interests are woodworking, fishing, and hunting. He is currently training a pointing Labrador Retriever for field tests.
