GRASS ROOTS CLUB MEMBERS MAY RECEIVE A NATIONAL RATING

At the Illinois State Tournament August 28th, President Joe Wergin announced that plans are being completed for competition this winter between players of organized clubs which play once a week or twice a month.

"The Congress will be making a special effort to develop a Grass Roots Program" declared the leader who is known for his 'Big Thinking', "and now is the time to organize cribbage activities in all communities thru-out the country." Charters will be issued to those clubs interested and National Club Points will be established. 7 charters have already been issued and more keep coming in all the time. If anyone is interested in getting involved in this program please contact Joe Wergin, Box 5584, Madison, Wi. 53705 or call him at 1 (608) 231-1626.

In his report, Joe tells us that as of the final week of September Priscilla Gronli of Waunakee, WI is leading everyone in the National Grass Roots Program. She is followed by Don Doyle Of Madison, WI, Bill Christofferson of Deforest, WI and in 4th position is Norm Wright also of Madison, WI. The Western New York Club has not played their first match yet but when they do Hargy will be giving him a report. The other clubs are just beginning and their reports will alter the National standings when they get going. We are looking forward to seeing new names entering these clubs. Good luck to all you Grass Rooters.

CHRISTMAS IS COMING!

Bill Campbell of Shalimar, FL. sent us a great idea. Why not buy an entry into the A.C.C. for a friend for Christmas. It is an excellent gift and will be a lasting thought. A special letter will accompany his or her membership card with your name enclosed. Do it!
