ELECTION RESULTS

SMALL TURNOUT DECIDES THE WINNERS

Only 446 ballots were returned to be tallied in this years' election but we do thank all who took the time to express their preferences. Perhaps a return envelope would have been helpful since last years' response was somewhat higher. This secretary is still learning and trying to improve processes and asks your kind indulgence when some of the decisions that are made do not bring about an improvement.

Our thanks to all the candidates who graciously agreed to run for the Board of Directors. They are all well qualified and have shown their interest and willingness to work for the advancement of the Congress and the game of cribbage.

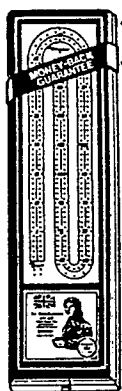

Normally, this is the year that 12 directors would be elected as opposed to 13. However, a 3 way tie developed for the 11th slot. As allowed by Congress rules a thirteenth member of the board was appointed by Pres. Wergin to resolve the dilemma. Those elected are listed on page 2.

1.	Joe Wergin	Madison, WI	278
2.	Nick Pond	Raleigh, NC	194
3.	Mary Cornwell	Sunnyvale, CA	167
4.	Jim Fabian	Naperville, IL	148

	Ken Cambell	Modoc, SC	119
11.	Arnold Crews	Jacksonville, FL	119
	E. Hargesheimer Jr.	Hamburg, NY	119

These members will join with the current board members including:

Scott Kooistra	Brooklyn Park, MN
Bob Michaelis	Marinette, WI

2ND INVITATIONAL CRIBBAGE TOURNAMENT
JANUARY 19, 1985 FAIRFIELD, CA

This is a correction of the report published in the May issue of CW. We received an incorrect report of the winners and would like to take a moment to impress on all tournament directors to make every effort to insure that the news we receive is correct. It is also important for all players in every tournament to note the results that are published since it was a participant who brought the error to our attention so that we can keep the record straight.

The top finishers were all Californians, Joseph Lusignan, Salinas, in first, Anthony Haag, Concord, second followed by Butch Reynolds, Santa Maria, third and Harold Sontag, San Jose in fourth.

THE WINDJAMMER CHALLENGE
MAY 11, 1985 ANTIOCH, IL

Tournament directors Jeff Clark and Judy Mueller were pleased to log another smooth sailing for the 2nd annual Windjammer Challenge which was held at the Antioch V.F.W. hall. Judy didn't get a chance to participate but she, and Jeff's wife Sarah, Judy did a tremendous job of officiating and score keeping and keeping the tournament running smoothly.

A speechless Ken Capodagli of Bensenville, IL floated home with 1st place honors as well as a handsome plaque. Another of the Illinois crew, Ron Gurschke, of Antioch, finished 2nd. Mike Munro of Marinette, WI edged past Nick Leon of Slinger, WI for 3rd place.

In the consolation, Rusty Hodgskin of Appleton, WI outpegged St. Charles, IL's Joe Brown in the final match. Dick Foster from West Allis, WI took 3rd from Jim Lepow of Racine, WI. No 28 hands were reported.

SNAKE RIVER OPEN

MAY 11-12, 1985 ONTARIO, OR

The Charlois Restaurant in Ontario, OR, was the site of the 2nd annual Snake River Open and Tournament director Gary Moran reports that 46 cribbage players showed up for this event. First place was captured by Wendell Russell from Baker, OR. He beat out a visitor from Missoula, MT whose name is DeLynn Colvert, the director of many Montana tournaments. DeLynn has been a bridesmaid in several tournaments this year. Dan Capper from Nyssa, OR finished 3rd over Bill Dunn Of Prineville, OR.

The consolation was won by one of Oregon's most active ladies, Jeanie Hill of Hermiston. She nosed out Murv Scarbrough from Baker. Not to be outdone, Bill Hill, Jeanie's husband, took 3rd over Betty Sissel. There were no 28 or 29 hands. A good time was had by all.

VERBS AND NUMBERS

by TOM HAIGHT

"Fifteen two and two is four."

"Fifteen two and two are four."

There are no grammatical errors in these statements. The sentences are correct for you can regard two and two as a single idea and modify the single idea with the singular "is" or you can also regard two and two as separate units and use the plural verb "are." In all other forms of rhetoric, except the use of number operations, the form of the verb must reflect that of the subject it modifies. Which form of the verb do you use in the pegging and count of your cribbage hand? Remember, either, way, you can be correct grammatically if not numerically.

Every attempt possible is being made to break the attendance record of 354 set in 1983. For information contact Nick Pond in Raleigh by July 12th at 919 890-6063. Be sure to attend.

Plan to attend the 4th Annual American Cribbage Congress Grand National Tournament, and Rocky Mountain Fun Fest, September 21st and 22nd at Denver. Colorado Septembers are the most beautiful time of the year, with all services available, and just enough tourist traffic to allow full enjoyment. Plan a few extra days for golf, trout fishing, or picture taking -- we'll have it worth your while, at a reasonable price.

ABOUT THE DELAY

As you can tell as you read this the July issue of CW has gotten into your hands a little late. The incapacitation of your dauntless Secretary led to mass confusion about midway through the extensive process involved in producing a monthly newsletter. Following Bob Madsen's open heart surgery on July 1st, this month's CW was far enough along to complete. With the obviously hectic nature of such a situation errors and the resulting inconveniences were downright unavoidable. So, before you dash off any letters of protest or complaint remember the situation and we'll reorganize A.S.A.P. Any NECESSARY correspondence should be directed to Pres. Wergin PO Box 5584 Madison, WI 53705. Personal correspondence with the recuperating Bob can be sent to 7441 N. Osceola Ave. Chicago, IL 60648. At this writing Bob's doing fine with a fairly lengthy recovery ahead so any small note of encouragement would be welcome both by Bob and the members of his family to be sure.
