New England Winners

South Shore Open: Rit Alkas

Boston Classic: Roger McGillicuddy

Miller Lite Classic: Stu Stromberg

Cribbage is alive, well, and growing in New England. The recent South Shore Open drew a sizeable crowd of 188 peggers, while the Boston Classic had an increase from last year to 113 players. Pawtucket's Miller Lite Classic drew 192 players...a new high! The Central New England Open (reported in April's issue) had a large crowd of 192 peggers, while the Rhode Island Open shows promise of breaking last year's record crowd of 294 players. The American Cribbage Congress's growth in the Northeast has been accelerating, attesting to well-run tournaments, and a large group of avid players.

In the South Shore Open played March 18, Rit Alkas, Manchester, CT, outlasted all 188 peggers to win the championship. Paul Gallagher, Avon, MA, took a strong 2nd, followed by Ramon Correa, Barrington, RI, third, and veteran Joe Ramos, W. Warwick, RI in 4th. Joe's 169 Master Points will boost him higher in the Eastern Region's top 50 standings. John Rooney, Randolph, MA, took the sizeable (124 players) consolation, and the Lynn, MA, flash--John Musto--garnered 2nd.

The Boston Classic played to a good field of 113 players, despite a snow storm for the 2nd year in a row. Roger McGillicuddy, Stoughton, MA, walked off with the honors. Emil Chrabaszcz, Ware, MA, also will advance in the Eastern Region's top 50 by finishing 2nd, garnering some 125 Master Points. Butch Reynolds--2-time National Champion--making an effort to play in all 50 states, won the consolation, picking up enough Master Points to put him back in the thick of the race for the 1990 National Championship. Butch is making an outstanding effort, following 2 consecutive national titles in 1988 and 1989. Charlie LePage, New Milford, CT, finished 2nd.

The President's Column

Joseph Petrus Wergin

Another addition has been made to our faculty of the CRIBBAGE SCHOOL FOR KIDS. Shirley Fitzpatrick, a Milwaukee veteran of many Congress tournaments, has retired and is now dedicated to teaching children to play cribbage. The Madison Public School brochure is being mailed to her for a guide. It was also suggested to her to prepare a set of flash cards as a teaching aid.

My attention has been called to the books written by several educators who point out "what children need to know" to be successful in school. They go on to state that all these components are learned by children through card games.

Some of the lessons learned deal with sit and listen, behavior, following rules, conversation, explanations, relationships with adults, motor skill of shuffling and dealing, mathematics, memory, and a host of other skills.

This writer has always believed that the Congress's Youth Program should deal with teaching children hope to play cribbage rather than conducting tournaments for kids who already know how to play.

Donald Doyle and Jim Love have helped the writer in teaching fifth graders in five different schools how to play.

Everyone associated with teaching cribbage in the schools or to youth groups, should send their names in, as we will be embarking on an organized national program. We have our cribbage game being accepted by leading educators.

A Maryland cribbage player is involved in publicizing all games. He is Michael Keller of Ellicott City who is the publisher of WORLD GAME REVIEW. His magazine deals with card games and puzzles in general. The magazine has been published since 1983 at irregular intervals. All readers of the CRIBBAGE WORLD interested in the analysis of certain card games or who enjoy puzzles, may contact Michael Keller at 3367-I, N. Chatham Road, Ellicott City, MD 21043.

Dedicated card players play several different games. At the tournament breaks, cribbage players indulge in sheepshead, poker, gin rummy, etc. At the national level, one card organization can help another. Officials are exchanging tournament ideas and promotions. Our latest is the dialogue with the U. S. Gin Rummy Association.

Don McLaughlin is secretary of the Gin Rummy group, with headquarters in Oklahoma City. The mailing address is 10801 N. Quail Plaza Drive, Suite D, Oklahoma City, OK 73120.

His people have also conducted tournaments at the Sands in Reno. They also have the same ideals as we do, such as standardizing the rules and promoting the play of the game. It would be nice for our avid gin fans and their cribbage addicts to be members of both groups.

The Congress is deeply interested in getting a Grass Roots club organized in the state of Oklahoma.

The Madison Masters celebrated its 12th tournament on April 21st with three 29-point hands. Two were in sanctioned play while the other one was in extra-curricular play. The tournament was first staged in 1979 before the Congress was organized. It introduced the format that we are now using and it sparked the great cribbage movement.

Gaylord Matti, the director, will report the event in next month's magazine.

Pawtucket's Miller Lite Classic title was won by Master Player Stu Stromberg over a tough field of 192 players. Frank Gallo, Cranston, RI, finished 2nd, while 3rd and 4th went to Walter Swanson, Warwick, RI, and Corinne Moore, Westminster, MA. The consolation was won by Herb Boreham, Raynham, MA. In 2nd was hot-handed George Bickford, Agawam, MA. George picked up 65 Master Points to add to his 232 he won in the recent Central New England Open, giving him a run at the 1990 national title, and maintaining his Master Point lead in the Eastern Region.

Chuck Clark Wins Montana Open

Chuck Clark, Missoula, MT, won the Montana Open with a tough 3-2 win over Arnie Schill, Helena, MT. Chuck is one of the toughest peggers in the Northwest, and a consistent winner, but it took a 14-point hand, needing 13 to win on the final hand of the match. Arnie celebrated his 51st birthday with his 2nd place finish, picking up a sizeable check and 124 master points.

Veteran pegger Milo Roinstead, Missoula, MT, took 3rd place and some 106 master points to edge closer to his Master rating. I. V. Graham, Anchorage, AK, finished a strong 4th.

Louine Lyda, Portland, OR, won the consolation match, while Shirley Schill took 2nd...following her husband's example in the main event. In winning, Louine continues to prove she is one of Oregon's finer players.

Cribbage Anyone?

Pennsylvania cribbage players are invited by Joseph P. Wergin, President of the American Cribbage Congress, Inc., to organize a Grass Roots club in their home communities and play a schedule of 9 games either weekly or twice a month. The season ends June 30th, 1990, and clubs may enter anytime.

After each night's play, the results are sent to computer headquarters, Napa, CA, where earned rating points are recorded. Each year the top 10% of the rated players are invited to play in the Tournament of Champions at Reno--the Cribbage Super Bowl!

Luck 'O the Irish Rare Double-Double at St. Paul

Winnie Rude & Ron Rose Both
Qualify First & Win Playoffs

St. Patrick's Day was kind to local Winnie Rude at the Capital City Classic in St. Paul, MN, March 17 and 18. He qualified first and then proceeded to win the playoffs and the championship.

Not to be outdone, Ron Rose, Duluth, MN, was top qualifier in the consolation match, and also proceeded to win the playoffs, to score a rare double-double in qualifying and playoffs.

Russ Nelson, Phoenix, AZ, finished a strong 2nd in the main event, and Bev Jahn took 2nd in the consolation.

Director Ron Hamilton's tournament drew 152 players, and with the excellent playing facilities, made this one of the better Central Region's tournaments.

Larry Samet Scores a "29"

While preparing for the Boston Classic, tournament directors Harry Molloy and Larry Samet did a little pegging. Alas, a day too soon, Harry dealt Larry a 29-hand! Larry says he's out of the groove lately. Perhaps this 29-hand will restore his good fortune and confidence.

Samet is a 1987 All-American and a hard-working member of the ACC Board of Directors.

Regionalization?

Should the American Cribbage Congress continue to be operated in 3 loose-knit regions? Should it be divided into 5, 8, 10, or 50 regions? Or are we doing just fine as we now exist?

Those are the questions that will be studied by a Regionalization Committee appointed by VP-Policy Ev Bey, with concurrence of the Executive Committee.

The committee will be headed by Syl Lulinski, with two appointees from each of the present regions: East--Dale Munroe and George Webb; Central--Jerry Dickinson and Bob Madsen; West--Butch Reynolds and Bernie Nelson.

In considering the problem, they will be asked to consider the future size of the Board of Directors (now 30) and how it is selected (now 25 at large and 5 appointed by the President). Also, should regions be established on a geographic basis or an area's number of members? Other pertinent ideas will also be considered.

Currently, the ACC's Grass Roots clubs have split themselves into four regions for record keeping (II, IV, IX, and XII, Northwest, Southwest, Central and East Coast, respectively, each with a Commissioner at its head).

Similarly, ACC Master Point records are maintained on an East-Central-West regional basis.

Any members with input or suggestions about Regionalization should write to Syl Lulinski, 1429 Scotdale Road, LaGrange Park, IL 60525.

Record 28-Hands Scored in ACC Open

The recent record-breaking American Cribbage Congress Open (634 players) also set a new mark for scoring 28 hands. According to the old law of averages, this is no surprise. The following players can write to the Guinness Book of Records to have their names included:

Marsha Nelson
Vada Stevens
Charlotte Straub
Al Whitsett
Paul Gallagher
Jerold Montgomery
Marlene Ault
Liz Brandon
Frank Trojan
Diane Little
Veryl Stromstedt
Gloria Welch
Robert Winter
Leroy Ladish
Thomas Koncan

All in all, some 15 28-hands were scored, soundly breaking the old mark of 10 28's in a sanctioned match.

Pox on ACC Life Masters

Scott Kooistra, recently crowned Life Master and 5-time All-American is finding pegging a little tough lately. At the Tri-Cities Open in Marinette, WI, Scott managed to win 3 of 22 games in the qualifying round. Then in the consolation match, he managed another 3 wins, bringing his weekend total to 6 wins and 25 losses. His net spread point total was a minus 370. Ouch!

The ACC's other Life Master, DeLynn Colvert, suffered his lumps, too. As a tournament director, he witnessed Monica Hunt (Billings, MT) score a 29-hand, winning $681 in their "29" pool in October. Wanting to begin a new "29" pool, DeLynn added $100 from his own pocket, figuring the old law of averages, it should be about 4 years of play before the pool was won. Four years? How about 4 games! Donna Strand, Bozeman, MT, plunked down a 29-hand in the 4th game of qualifying to take DeLynn's $100 and the rest of the pot! Life Master anyone? Beware!

Gary Motley Scores 139 MRP's in Hermiston

Scott Kooistra Takes Lead in National Title Race

Scott Kooistra, Yankton, SD, has surged into the lead in the race for the 1990 National Championship. Scott, a perennial All-American (5-times) and recently crowned Life Master, has never won a national title. Perhaps his 6th try will be the charm. Scott recently won the Masters Classic in Madison, WI, picking up another 250 MRP's or so, running his 1990 total to well over 1,500.

Hot on Scott's heels is Gary Motley, Gresham, OR. Gary has been scoring well this year and recently picked up 139 MRP's in Hermiston, OR (finishing in the 9-16 bracket in a field of 194 players), maintaining a grip on 2nd place.

1988 and 1989 National Champion Butch Reynolds, and 1988 and 1989 runner-up Jesse Jarrell--the two top-ranked California players--are hanging close, in position to move to the top with a win, or if other players falter. Butch recently won the consolation in Boston to go over 1,100 points.

Also in the hunt are Helen Railsback, the Nebraska flash, with 1,100+ points, and Anna Abbott, the Nevada Queen of cribbage (1,000+ points). These two ladies have a shot at winning the national title--which would make either of them the first of the fair sex to win the championship.

Other players with 1,000 or more points are 5-time All-American DeLynn Colvert, Missoula, MT (1,144 points) and Bill Christoffer-son, Deforest, WI (1,000 points).

With one-third of the 1990 cribbage year remaining (and a few large tournaments yet to be played), a great many other players are still in the race...with the top 10 earning All-American honors.

New Judges

Frank Zabrowski, Testing Examiner, has certified the following judges:

Bob Deeds, Elgin IL
Teri Deeds, Elgin, IL
Patrick Barrett, Wisconsin Rapids, WI
John Groz, Kissimmee, FL
Michael Barendse, Astoria, OR
G. Russell Fisher, Orange City, FL
R. W. Stark, Sandpoint, ID
Kenneth Cook, Agawam, MA
Steve Reynolds, Concord, CA
Larry Lee Hassett, Roseburg, OR
John Jansky, St. Cloud, MN

Ed Gemmer makes 29-Hand Pay Off

Ed Gemmer, Hermiston, OR, scored a 29-hand in the "Hi-Roller" special event at the Greater Hermiston Open...and he needed the extra spread points. Without a "29" (or a "28"), he would have failed to qualify for the playoff, and would NOT have collected his $360 in winnings. He made the playoffs by a mere 4 spread points! This was Ed's first 29-hand.

3-Person Team Competition, Anyone?

The Fifth Annual National Team Cribbage Championship will be played on Sunday, June 3, 1990, in North Windham, CT. The three person teams compete basically in a winner-take-all. This year the winning team members should each receive $1,000. Entry fee is $105 per player. For details write or call Joe Seigle, 825 Flanders Rd., Coventry, CT 06238, (203) 742-7234.

This is not a sanctioned event.

Union County's Skunk Bucket Cleaned Out!

This letter is better late than never. Our club had its first 28-hand this year on Nov. 7, 1989. The lucky person to receive the hand was Murray Council, dealt to him by Ed Lovely. Murray was awarded a big round of applause and the contents of our "SKUNK BUCKET" which had $48.50 in it. The pot had been building for about 1 1/2 years (which means 194 skunks occurred during club play at 25 cents each).

On March 22, 1990, Coy Council, Murray's son, had our first Grand Slam card this season. That is great for Coy since he has never placed in the top 4 cards all year. Congratulations Coy!

I would like to take this opportunity to thank Greg Van Metre for starting and keeping Union County Crib Club going up until this fall when he moved to go to school in Klamath Falls. We miss you.

No Smoking

When I first attended a sanctioned cribbage tournament, the percentage of non-smokers to smokers was approximately 50-50. At the latest tournament in Reno, the percentage there among 650 participants was 75-25. Nationwide, more and more governments, companies, shopping malls, and anywhere people congregate, smoking is being restricted or eliminated. The most recent example is the banning of smoking on all domestic flights, even the six hour flights from Boston to Los Angeles. A large employer in Portland has just announced that it will not hire employees who use tobacco products at all, even on their own time, since it adds significantly to the company's health costs and lost productivity. A Colorado city's ban on smoking was extended to city vehicles, even if the smoker was the only one in the vehicle.

It's time for the directors of the cribbage tournaments to take note of the nationwide trend. It has been shown that secondhand smoke is almost as dangerous as smoking itself and just dividing a room between smoking and non-smoking, while it does help, does not eliminate the problem. It is especially dangerous to those with allergic reactions to cigarette smoke.

It is time to ban smoking from all tournaments unless completely separate rooms can be provided for the smokers. At a minimum, non-smoking sections should be required and smoking should absolutely be prohibited from the playoffs, especially since a majority of the players don't smoke. Also, since the typical play-off match lasts under two hours, even with a best of seven series, it will not be that great a hardship on the smoker who can find an opportunity and location to light up between matches.

Last year, the Colorado Open tournament had so few smokers sign up that smoking was banned during the tournament with an area set aside for smoking during breaks or when slow play allowed a few minutes between games for some players. It's time for all tournament directors to recognize the trend and help protect people's health.

Be Considerate to New Players

Once again, rudeness by veteran players towards novice tournament players has reared its ugly head.

Thomas Gilbert, Sr., Buffalo, NY, writes that his daughter was urged to play faster by a veteran player, causing her much discomfort and taking her enjoyment from the game.

Experienced players must have patience with new players if we expect the American Cribbage Congress to grow and prosper. Be considerate!

The editor

New Cribbage World OK

The new Cribbage World is marvelous. My only suggestion regards "Down the Road..." Unless self explanatory, please list the location as well as the name of the tournament. Keep up the good work. You have truly created a professional looking publication.

I think a previous letter to Cribbage World asked for a roster of members. I certainly would be in favor of securing one. Or at least to know of some cribbage players up here in Nevada County, CA. Surely there must be others in the Nevada City/Grass Valley area.

*Virginia Brier
Grass Valley, CA*

Thanks for the compliment, Virginia. We will clarify the location of tournaments in the future. Also, we are planning an issue (probably November or December) that will list all the players who have scored a Master Point, and list them by their accomplishments in scoring. Many players have asked for their Master Point total (lifetime), so if Bob McCabe and I can work out the logistics of the computer world, and transfer his data to a laser printer, we hope to have this list printed once a year. You may have to get out your magnifying glass, as the list is quite long, and the type will necessarily be small. Keep your fingers crossed! Of course, this will not solve the roster, by state, problem. We will put that in the old "think tank!"

The editor

Address Changes/Corrections?

Cribbage World receives changes of addresses, or spelling corrections for address labels. These changes are made by Jeff Monroe in Napa, CA. His address is on the back cover. Jeff maintains the membership files via computer, and mails Cribbage World the printed labels...so any address problems, contact Jeff.

Kudos, Judges

All tournaments should take a minute to thank a very special group of volunteers...judges. They have all taken the time and responsibility of taking the judges test, which is an investment of several hours of their own time. Then they are subject to constant interruptions of their own play during tournaments. Add to this the fact they sometimes don't always please people with their rulings. I think they are outstanding people who deserve a pat on the back from everyone who plays in tournaments.

Variety in Scoring OK!

You can't please all of the people all of the time, that's for sure. Some people want every tournament to be exactly the same, right down the line, from start to finish. I think that some variety is better and more interesting. If we never try something new, we get in a rut and get bored. While it is very important and necessary that tournament rules be followed, I think areas where some latitude is given, such as in scoring systems, that experimentation is good. I personally like the system where game points (3-2-0) are first priority, with games won as second priority, and then spread points. But I play in a lot of tournaments that use the system of game points/spread points, then games won. In June, there is going to be a tournament in Redmond, Oregon, that is using the system of one point for any win, including skunks, with spread points as second priority. I think it's going to be a very interesting tournament, and I applaud them for trying something different.

Roy Hofbauer

Oops...old Sir John Suckling is turning over in his grave. He put the "skunk" in the game as a reward for a sound thrashing. I certainly feel that the skunk aspect of the game makes it much more exciting...both for the skunker and the skunkee. And secondly, the members of the Board of Directors of the American Cribbage Congress have tried long and hard to standardize scoring and tournament formats nationwide, to enable players from all parts of the country to compete on equal footing.

Barlow is a Poet, too...

"Ode to the Cut"

I've been playing cribbage for thirty-two years,
and one thing has always held true:
Whenever I throw my opponent King-3,
I'm certain to cut him a 2.

Whenever I throw my opponent King-Jack,
I can't help but cut him a queen.
And of course he just happens to throw King-Jack too,
So the guy ends up getting sixteen.

When I throw two 5's in my own crib, two points
Is the most I can ever find.
But if I threw those nickels to somebody else,
He'd score at least twenty-nine.

If I throw him a 7, the cut is an 8.
If I throw him a 6, it's a 9.
Why does it happen whenever it's his crib,
and never when it's mine?

I think when I first learned to play this game,
The card gods must have laughed,
And decided to give my opponents great cuts,
while giving me the shaft.

Barlow's Cribbage Ticklers...

You're playing doubles against Nick and Joe, two guys who know nothing about cribbage strategy, and thus make their discards and plays at random. Nick and Joe win the cut, and deal the first hand. What's the farthest you and your partner, Millie, can travel on this hand?

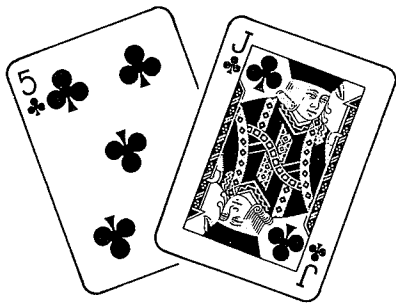

To enter: show each player's 5-card hand, circle the discard, and give the exact order of play. No muggins. All players count and peg correctly, but Joe and Nick may play as stupidly as you like. In case of a tie, the winning entry will be the one in which Joe and Nick are behind by the widest margin at the end of the hand. Further ties will be broken by random draw. Entries must be postmarked by June 1, 1990.

Prize: 1 copy of each of "Miracles On Fourth Street" and "Crib Notes: the Comedy of Cribbage", by Dan Barlow.

Mail your entry to Cribbage Ticklers, 4114 Livingstone Place, Durham, NC 27707.

New Rule Books

New ACC Rules Books are now available, at $2.00 each, postpaid, from Jeff Monroe, Membership Secretary, P.O. Box 10486, Napa, CA 94581.

Advertise in Cribbage World

Cribbage World now has the capacity to expand its advertising, thanks to our 3rd class bulk mailing.

Our advertising rates range from $85 for a full page to $20 for 1/3 column. And if the ad is for a sanctioned tournament, the rates are discounted. Write to Cribbage World for a rate brochure and a layout guide:

Cribbage World can also print your flyers, fold, insert, and mail for only 9 cents per copy. This service is for complete states only. You may also choose to mail to multiple states. For example, you wish to mail to all Wisconsin players. Wisconsin has 508 members $\times .09 = $45.72$. Now subtract 10%, since many members are married, and the two receive only one CW. $$45.72 - $4.57 = $41.15$. So for $41.15 you have reached all Wisconsin players with your flyer. Your printing and mailing costs are greatly reduced, to say the least!

You must have your camera copy to Cribbage World by the 25th of the month to be inserted in the next month's issue. All copy must be 8½ x 11.

Make your check payable to the American Cribbage Congress.
