Records Fall in Western Region 1991 Cribbage Year Begins With a Bang! Memberships at All-Time High

Newly elected Executive Vice President Bob McCabe takes over his new duties with the American Cribbage Congress on a roll. Three attendance records have fallen in sanctioned tournaments in the Western Region, and the 1991 season is barely a month old. And nationally, the ACC is at an all-time high with some 5,624 members as of September, 1990.

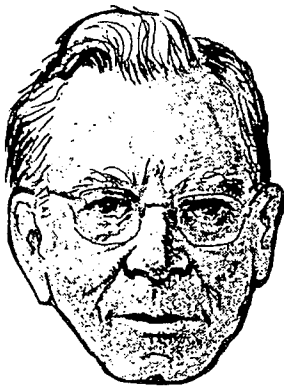

California is leading the "charge" with 926 members on the roster, followed by Oregon's 712 peggers. And in California, the 9th Annual Wine Valley Open in Napa, set a new high for that tournament with 208 players, while two Oregon tournaments also set new highs to begin the new season. The Blue Mountain Open in LaGrande drew 150, while the Capitol City Classic in Salem had 198 (see stories, this issue).

Players are now able to pick and choose tournaments, as sanctioned tournaments are also scheduled in record-setting numbers.

With 1991 being a "short" 11-month year, due to a unanimous vote of the Board of Directors to begin play every year on August 1, instead of September 1 (allowing time to organize the Grand National programs, awards, etc.), the new year, nevertheless appears to be on a banner course.

Cribbage Clinic at the Mall

The two Madison Grass Roots clubs, Metro #1, and the 99ers, staged a "Cribbage Clinic" at the Hilldale Mall for the purpose of contacting new players. The clinic was held on Friday and Saturday, the week before the Grand National.

Places for six games were set up in the mall, and the public was invited to play the club members one game. If a newcomer won, the Chocolate Shoppe gave a free chocolate sundae. In addition, the guests registered for a drawing for gifts donated by the clubs and by merchants. A pamphlet of 12 pages containing tips on cribbage and schedules of Grass Roots clubs were given to everyone.

About 100 newcomers registered for the drawing and most of them had the time to play a game at the busy mall. They learned that there is a national organization and that they are welcome to join a Grass Roots club.

Officials of local clubs who desire a sample pamphlet should write to this editor (address on back cover).

"Always remember that cribbage is a gentleman's game and a lady's game."

Sir John Suckling's Numbers

Sir John Suckling, the great gamester, had to be a keen student of the magic of numbers. Why did he choose 15 as the spot where 2 holes were awarded?

In our research of card games, there has been no explanation of why certain numbers were set as goals.

Let's take a look at the single digit numbers of a deck of cards--9--8--7--6--5--4--3--2--1. Sir John had to be aware of arranging the numbers in a square which, when totaled horizontally, vertically, and diagonally, add up to 15.

1	2	3
4	5	6	= 15
7	8	9
	=15		=15

Every result obtained adds up to 15. Hence, this number was accepted as the mark where 2 points are awarded for this accomplishment.

In the case of the 31-point count for the "go," it was probably derived from the game of Noddy, the forerunner of cribbage. The scoring mark for Noddy was 21. The early cribbers determined that 31 should be the "go" point. The original game of cribbage was played with five cards. In fact, the five-card game is still popular in England.

With the advent of six cards being dealt to each player and the crib making up an extra hand for the dealer, innovators set the "go" mark at 34 instead of 31. This change failed to get much support and was soon dropped.

Record 208 in Napa Wine and Cheese Propel Buzz Railsback to Title

1st year Helen Railsback won everything in sight and earned All-American honors. This cribbage year, it appears her husband will take over the scoring, as Buzz won the record-setting Wine Valley Open in Napa, CA, besting some 208 peggers.

Bob Padgett, Carmichael, CA, finished a strong 2nd, followed by the pride of Quincy, CA, Nick Ayoob in 3rd. Nick is a multiple winner of the huge World Championship meets in Quincy. 4th place was captured by S. Dean Wooldridge, Rohnert Park, CA.

A consolation tourney was played, but not according to ACC format, therefore no Master Points were awarded.

Pat and Milley Coffey won the early bird doubles...and it took them into the wee hours...finishing at 1:15 AM.

One of the unique features of this tournament is the wine and cheese tasting of the region's many varieties.

And as usual, Jack Monroe ran a fine tournament, ably assisted by our membership secretary, Jeff Monroe.

Geri & Bob Deeds, Frank & Roberta Schweig Take Over Illinois Last Chance...And Move It!

Tournament Director Bob Madsen is passing the torch to Martha Fingleton, the Deeds duo, and the Schweigs, for next August's Illinois Last Chance tourney. And the site will be moved to Elgin, IL.

So mark your calendar...Elgin next August.

Richard Zup Zips to Montana Title

Richard Zup, veteran pegger from Billings, Montana, zipped to the Montana Championship at the recent 9th annual tournament in Missoula. Richard won the title in a tight tussle with Walt Conell, a tournament director from Helena, MT.

Another Helena pegger...Shirley Schill...took 3rd, and Ike Rutherford, St. Paul, MN, took 4th. Ike is a "regular" in Montana, and has a habit of taking a load of Montana greenbacks back to Minnesota.

In the consolation, Arnie Schill, Helena, MT, won the title in a tough match with Chris Field, Missoula, MT. Arnie and Shirley finished 2nd-2nd in the last Montana Championship, and haven't lost the touch!

In early bird doubles, Clyde and Marlene Ault, a tough-pegging Oregon duo took home all the marbles.

The Saturday night special was won by Bronson Smith, Helena, MT, with a fine 18GP +134 card.

106 Peggers in Wisconsin Dells Mick Michaelis Wins (Again)

Recently crowned Life Master Mick Michaelis, Marinette, WI, won the recent Wisconsin Dells Classic, capping a "hot streak," and picking up another bundle of Master Points to begin the 1991 season.

Taking 2nd was Russell Adams, a tough pegger from Minneapolis. In 3rd was ACC President Joseph Wergin, and 4th John Syftsted, Mt. Horeb, WI.

In the 60-player consolation, Ray Warner, Madison, WI, took the title, with Leo Schwedersky, Lyndon Station, WI, taking 2nd.

Hall 'O Famer Jim Arblaster Wins Gold Coast Classic

Hall 'O Famer Jim Arblaster, Kissimmee, FL, took the title in the recent Gold Coast Classic, played in Pompano Beach, FL, besting some 58 peggers.

Richard Bett, from Lackawanna, NY, took 2nd, followed by Jeanne Daesch, Miami Springs, FL, in 3rd, and Dave Ritchey, Orange City, FL, in 4th.

Kate McNemar, Washington, DC, captured the consolation, besting Elaine (Jackie) Depizol, Winter Springs, FL.

Director Harry Stoops will forgo this tournament next year, concentrating on his upcoming Grand National.

Alaska Cribbage Cruise Update

Doris Whitlock, travel director for the Williamsburg Travel Company has given Cribbage World an update on the Alaska Cribbage Cruise scheduled for June 9, 1991.

"A $50 deposit will hold a space for you until the 1st of January. An additional deposit of $150 is due at that time. Final payment is due April 1st.

The cruise is fully cancellable up until final payment is made. You have only to invest the $50 now to hold a spot. Cabins acquired at a later date may not be available at the same category and cost.

Butch Reynolds is handling all the cribbage plans and you will be advised in the spring concerning the tournament. We plan to play when the ship is sailing!

I look forward to seeing each of you again...perhaps in Reno in February. If you have any questions, feel free to call me... 1-800-952-9922. Bon Voyage, Doris Whitlock"

4 Months Minimum Planning a Sanctioned Tournament? START EARLY

Cribbage World's "Tournament Trail" section has many entries from tournament directors that are LATE!...and fail to give the ACC membership adequate notification.

Your first application should be at least four months prior to your tournament, if you wish to have adequate notification.

The ACC is not as bad as the pentagon...but almost. First, you apply to your region's commissioner and receive forms of application (week or so). You forward the forms (another week). The commissioner forwards the approved application to Cribbage World (another week). Cribbage World type sets the column (along with other copy) and forwards to the printer (1 to 3 weeks). The printer takes up to 7 days. Next comes the labeling (2 days). Then mailing 3rd class bulk (1 to 3 weeks). Enough said? START EARLY! FOUR MONTHS MINIMUM!

Now, get busy...your region's directors are:

"The Paddle-Wheel Queen" Hosts 1991 Grand National Awards Banquet

The upcoming Grand National in Hollywood, Florida, will have an unusual feature...the awards banquet will be held on a 3-decker sea-going vessel named the "Paddle-Wheel Queen."

According to director Harry Stoops, the meals are terrific, the 2nd deck has a nice bar, and the 3rd deck is great for observing the Florida Inland Waterway scenery.

The entire trip, banquet, one-hour open bar, costs $30 (a 4-hour trip)...so make your reservations early, as tickets are on a first come, first serve basis!

Mary and Bob Moreau "Wax" Denny Edwards

Denny Edwards, the Hermiston, OR, flash, scored a 12-hand with his zip code...and challenged the ACC members to "beat that!"

Well, the Florida duo of Bob and Mary Moreau (Gulfstream, FL) have a zip 34224 for 18 points...easily beating Denny's 97838 12-hand! Keep pegging, Denny!

...Oops, Denny's Wiped Out!

Jesse Jarrell, Ann Sheeran, Heidi and Wayne Glashan, and David Darling are 5 Fourth Street Terrorists from Pittsburg, CA with zips of 94565...but they don't stand a chance!

The winner is (up til now) Steve Sanders, Orick, CA, with the neat zip of 95555!

Someone must have 55555...but how would you count that one?

Native Americans Taking Over Cribbage?

Despite Anglo-Saxon roots, cribbage seems to be taking on a Native American look.

Jeff and Jackie Shimp are hosting a "Potawatomi Pegger's Pow-Wow" November 30, December 1, and 2 in Grand Rapids, Michigan, with a full range of events. Jeff is a former All-American (1985), member of the ACC's Board of Directors, and combined with Jackie's expertise, players can expect a first class event.

And newly crowned All-American Jim Waldorf, with help from co-director John Hatfield, will host the Kah-Nee-Ta Classic in Warm Springs, Oregon, December 7, 8, and 9. The Kah-Nee-Ta is owned by the confederated tribes and is a first-class resort, complete with mineral hot springs, golf course, tennis courts, restaurant, lounge, and other attractions.

Western Region players are enthusiastically supporting Jim and John in arranging a sanctioned tournament where players can enjoy a vacation with their pegging.

So, "pale faces," put on your "war paint" and let's do some serious pegging with our fellow Native Americans.

Nick Pond Sets Standard for USA

Nick Pond, Director of the National Open in Raleigh, NC, set the standard for qualifying for the Invitational Tournament of Champions (this coming February 1) by scoring 323 Master Points for the 1990 season, finishing 50th in the Eastern Region.

So all players in the Western and Central Regions who scored 323 MRP's or more in 1990 have qualified for this prestigious tourney. Nick's 323 MRP's were the lowest of the top regional 50, thereby setting the "low" standard.

Jeff Monroe to the Rescue

Cribbage World was in a quandary as to how to inform our members concerning their lifetime Master Points.

Listing some 5,000 members certainly presented a problem.

But Jeff Monroe, our ACC Membership Secretary, came to the rescue! Beginning with the 1991 season, all membership cards will have your current ranking in the membership, along with your lifetime Master Point total, printed on your membership card.

So, Jeff (and Statistician Bob McCabe), the ACC membership doffs their caps and gives you a big round of applause for a job well done!

Midway Open Cancelled

Director Al Stillwell has cancelled the Midway Open, scheduled to be played December 1 and 2 in Hermiston, OR. Al stated he has an unusual workload at this time, but promises to re-schedule in the spring, 1991.

Ace of Spades

The Ace of Spades is a curious type of playing card to most serious card players. The card seems to excite a great deal of emotion in players. Taxes, Death, Strength, Power, Gypsies, and Fortune Tellers are just a few of the emotional images that the Ace of Spades produces.

During the American Revolutionary War, the Ace of Spades was selected to be imprinted with a one farthing tax on playing cards sent to the colonies. Thus everytime a colonist dealt a hand of cards they were reminded of the King's tax on pleasure. Perhaps that's why Ben Franklin printed Revolutionary decks of playing cards that featured George Washington's head on the Kings, Martha Washington's head on the Queens, and Jefferson, Franklin, and others on the Jacks. King George VI was so upset with the Declaration of Independence by his unloyal subjects that he ordered all English packs of playing cards to carry (REX 2 Farthings) tax and a date of July 4, 1776.

Past history and practice seems to continue with the Ace of Spades. American and Canadian card manufacturers still use the Ace of Spades for their logo imprints; and the legends and stories of the mystique of the ACE OF SPADES continues!

What Next? Stadium Cribbage

Have you ever played Stadium Cribbage? Several years ago when my nephew attended college, he belonged to a fraternity that from time to time came up with very original ways of entertaining themselves.

One year about two hours before game time, two fraternity members solicited the help of four pledges and proceeded to play Stadium Cribbage.

The two players sat at a table on the football field's 50-yard line. The four pledges positioned themselves in the upper deck, two at the far left side of row five and two at the far left side of row ten. As play progressed, a megaphone was used to relay the number of seats ("holes") to be moved.

Play continued until the winning set of "pledges" (pegs) reached the far right side of the upper deck. No one bothered to count off 121 seats. In some stadiums the game could easily go past 500 points. Has anyone else found other ways of playing?

In Ronan, Montana, the world's largest cribbage board...a behemoth 40 feet long by 8 feet wide (4 half slices of a huge cedar tree) was used in a game with the governor of Montana and the local champ. Two scantily-clad young ladies moved the 4-foot high pegs...and much fun was had by all. I forget who won the game...I was watching the "pegging action."

When in Doubt, Vote!

There are many controversial issues regarding tournament play which are at the discretion of the tournament director. These include scoring systems, Q-Pool distribution, muggins, dealing, tie-breaking, playoff format, etc. Some players want them all standardized, others don't. The ACC makes recommendations. There are studies, surveys, committees, and sub-committees. There is a lot of arguing. There is a lot of politicking. There is a lot of complaining.

George Bickford has found a way to cut through all this. George is from East Longmeadow, MA, and runs the Dante tournament in W. Springfield. He has been doing so for 14 years. For the last two of those years, he has done something I have never seen done before and would strongly recommend to all tournament directors.

Each year George chooses a different one of those controversial issues, and calls for a vote on the TOURNAMENT APPLICATION. He tallies the votes and acts accordingly, even if it means abandoning something he's done for a long time (not easy for many people).

What a practice, simple, beautiful idea! Think about what it accomplishes. It ensures that a tournament is being run, not the way the director wants it, not the way the BOD wants it, not the way the ACC members 2,000 miles away want it, but the way the players at that particular tournament on that particular day want it run! Isn't that what this is supposed to be all about?

Nice going, George. Thanks for thinking.

Never Give Up

Here's one to make readers think twice before giving up on a "hopeless" game. Once in a while, a near-miracle does happen.

We're playing 3-handed cut-throat, and I'm losing. Badly. Joe needs 13 to go out, Bob needs 8, and I'm still on third street. It's my deal, and even if neither of them goes out on this hand, there's no way I'm going to win. Or is there?

I deal myself 1-2-7-7-7, throw the 2 in the crib, and an ace is cut! "Sure!" I think. "Now this comes, and I won't even get to count it!"

I forget the details, but Joe pegs 2, counts 8, and is 3 short. Bob pegs 3 and counts 4; he's in the stink hole. I still need 33.

"Well, at least I get to count this," I say. "Too bad it's not enough." I take my 20 and pick up the crib, and my jaw drops! I'm looking at 2-2-3-K with an ace cut, for 14 holes and the game!

I was so stunned myself, I don't remember what Joe and Bob had to say. It probably wasn't printable anyway.

Comments On Tournament Play

As an avid cribbage player and a participant in many tournaments around the country during the past five years, I would like to make a few observations.

On the whole, cribbage players are a great bunch of people and one of the joys of participating in Grass Roots and tournament play is renewing friendships and acquaintances. However, those who play and count fast could and should show more tolerance toward the less experienced players. Kindness and courtesy are always appreciated.

Tournaments are many and varied and tournament directors deserve our thanks and deepest appreciation for their efforts. In particular, I would like to commend Al Miller for the way he conducts the New Hampshire Open in Nashua every year. He has taken the time to gain a consensus of opinion from the participants and conducts the tournament accordingly. Because experience has shown that smokers usually have adequate time to smoke away from the playing area, this tournament prohibits smoking at the playing tables. Even the most inveterate smokers I have spoken to do not object to this procedure. Happily, other competitions are now being conducted in this manner so perhaps smoking/no smoking controversy will soon disappear.

It is my hope that all experienced and future tournament directors will observe the methods of the most successful competitions and adopt them as their own.

Thanks, ACC!

My sister, Sara and I had the good fortune and pleasure of being honored guests at your National Awards Banquet and Grand National held this year in Des Moines, Iowa...We would like to take this opportunity and use this forum to thank each and every one of you who helped make this a wonderful weekend a reality for us...

Participating in tournament play was a first for both Sara and myself...Frankly, we were more than a little thankful for the Friday night "warm-up" session...all in all, however, we enjoyed ourselves so much we're hoping to talk our parents into coming with us to the Reno tournament the end of January.

Reflecting on the Awards Banquet, I think we were most impressed by the genuine sense of caring and friendship the ladies and gentlemen who play cribbage offer one another...the buffet was delicious and the gifts you bestowed on us and our family, thoughtful and beautiful...truly these will become family treasures as well as treasured reminders of our weekend...

We have been proud of our English heritage and our ties to the inventor of the game of cribbage, Sir John Suckling...being honored in Des Moines by the friends and members of the American Cribbage Congress was a life experience we shall never forget...

Thank you again, so very much...

Happy pegging everyone!

Automatic Invitation?

Greetings, I just received the Cribbage World publication which I enjoy a lot. I am interested in the Tournament of Champions in Reno February 1. Will I get an automatic invitation or must I apply for one? I won the Palmetto Classic in SC last February. Please advise so I can take necessary action.

Yes, indeed, Will, the ACC keeps track of your exploits! You will soon receive an invitation from Secretary Joan Rein for this tournament. And all you other ACC members, check page 7, September 1990 issue of Cribbage World, for entry criteria.

From time to time, "Murphy's Law" will strike...if you don't receive an invitation you feel entitled to, contact Joan Rein, for clarification. Her address:

We Need a Volunteer

First off, I want to tell you that you are doing one OUTSTANDING job on the CRIBBAGE WORLD!! Thank You!!!

What prompted the note is my hopes that someone out there will want to take over my (about 8 years) efforts known as CRIBBAGE Coordinator, Special Interest Groups (SIG-Net), American Mensa, Ltd.

It's not a difficult task, doesn't really take a lot of time, it's just that I think it's time to move on, and the Cribbage SIG deserves some new thinking, and fresh efforts. I'll be happy to exchange ideas with anyone (Mensa Member) who would be interested. Or anyone can contact SIGs Officer, Vince Bonzagni, 4737 Parkman Ct., Annandale, VA 22003-5046.

Barlow's September Tickler

The object of September's contest was to determine the farthest two players could move and still remain tied after one hand, given that each was dealt six hearts, and the cut was a heart. Bill Davy, Delevan, WI, the winner of May's contest, and Randy Gregg, Chaska, MN, each managed to forge a 30 to 30 tie. The first tiebreaker, lowest starter card, was also a tie, as both Bill and Randy used the 8 of hearts. In fact, their solutions were nearly identical:

Diane	Dealer
4	3 (7)
5 (12-3)	2 (14-4)
6 (20-5)	A (21-6)
7 (28-8)	J (10-1)

In Bill's solution, Diane pegs 16 and has 14 points. The dealer pegs 11, has an 11-point hand, and an 8-point crib (9-10-Q-K flush). In Randy's solution, the 10 is in the dealer's hand, and the Jack is in the crib, so the dealer's hand is worth 10 points, and his crib worth 9. The play of the hands is the same.

The prizewinner, chosen in a random draw witnessed by four people, is Randy Gregg, but, of course, both Bill and Randy deserve equal recognition. Honorable mention to Donald Parker of Randolph, MA with a 29 to 29 tie.

Due to a complete lack of prize donations, the contests are being suspended, but those of you who are willing to play for prestige, pride, and bragging rights, can continue to compete in contests which will appear in CRIBBAGE TODAY (see ad this page).
