Record Crowds Predicted Feb. 1, 2, 3 Reno's Sands Hosts ACC Open, Tournament of Champions

Tournament of Champions

With some 586 invitations mailed, the upcoming Tournament of Champions to be played Friday, February 1, promises to be a record-setting affair. Last year's meet drew 280 of America's top peggers, with Gene Mikulsky of Sobieski, WI coming away with the championship. Gene is expected back at the Sands in Reno to defend his title.

This one-day tournament will have a 14-game qualifier, with best 3 of 5 playoff (final 2: 4 of 7), and muggins WILL be played.

Time is short with an entry deadline of January 15. Directors Joan Rein and Syl Lulinski are predicting the best ever tourney...despite that no Master Points will be awarded in this by invitation only meet. For any late information, call Joan: (612) 448-2801 (work) or (612) 448-2459 (home), or Syl: (708) 352-4759.

ACC Open

Directors Martha Fingleton and Bob McCabe are predicting another huge ACC Open crowd, with the possibility of this meet reaching the 700-player mark...topping last year's crowd of 634 peggers.

Despite the new Master Point system, the top finishers in this meet will have a leg up on the national title race. Last year's winner, Joe Aird, Gladstone, MI, is expected back to defend his title.

The Sands hotel and casino has expanded with a new wing, and should be able to handle the predicted huge crowd February 2 and 3.

Deadline for entry is 6 PM, January 28. For any last minute questions call Martha: (414) 272-8778 or (414) 264-1777 (work) or Bob: (414) 354-0103.

ENTRY DEADLINE: JANUARY 15

Mickey Griffin Joins George Webb

In the past month a new leader has emerged from the Congress ranks in the person of Mickey Griffin, a resident of Lincoln, Nebraska. True, he has been a Director for a couple of years as he first received an appointment from the President and was elected last year.

Mickey saw the chance to provide recreational/material for the military and he responded with the idea of sending cribbage boards overseas.

With this announcement, Mickey is now a member of the President's Public Relations Committee along with George E. Webb. When a member performs a special service to a Congress program, he is named to the Committee to help in advertising and promoting Congress activities.

Congress officials have tried for ten years to get some national advertising by trying to get famous people to play in our tournaments, to join, or even have a cribber on a talk show, but to no avail. All we have received heretofore are newspaper stories.

Griffin's program advertises the Congress not only in America, but in other parts of the world.

Cribbage Goes to School

The University of Wisconsin has sponsored THE BADGER STATE GAMES for five years to raise extra funds for the College's athletic program. Every summer 26 different physical sports are offered for participation to Wisconsin residents. The popularity of the program attracts about 20,000 people who compete for the gold.

This writer has filed a petition with the Badger State Games officials to attach the Mind Sports Olympiad Committee to the 1991 Games to make this type of participation to people who are unable to compete in strenuous physical activity.

About 44 states have similar State Games, so here is a chance for new leaders to emerge in the land of Cribbage.

Many elementary school children will have the opportunity this winter to learn cribbage as Sandra Christensen, a 4th grade teacher in the Madison Public Schools, is working with this scribe and 30 fourth grade teachers to implement the teaching of cribbage in order to help the pupil's math skills.

The Segoe Center, an adult group, are also setting up a Saturday cribbage program for children.

Cribbage goes to college: a cribbage program is scheduled for March and April, 1991, at Edgewood College of Madison in their Adult Education Program. As you may suspect, this columnist is involved.

It will be a busy year!

Justin Gorman Captures Florida Open

Some 82 peggers converged on the beautiful Ramada Resort in Kissimmee, Florida November 9, 10, and 11, and after these three days of pegging, Justin Gorman of Englewood, FL claimed the championship.

John Blowers, Casselberry, FL, came close, but finished 2nd, followed by Dale McGuire in 3rd, and Larry Aronson 4th. Dave hails from Winter Haven, FL, and Larry from Maitland, FL.

Floridians continued their winning ways in the 64-player consolation, with Pierre Dagenais of Sarasota winning the event, edging out Al Lokitz of Ormand Beach. Ray Poirier, Hialeah, took 3rd, and Cal Storment, Winter Springs, finished 4th. Doris Perkins of Quincy, MA, was the highest finisher from out of state, with 5th.

Larry Aronson set the pace in the qualifying round, and shared an equally split "Q" pool.

Directors Jim Arblaster and Dave Fournier had a 104% player's benefit payback, considering $185 in door prizes. But another "prize" should be awarded to Jim and Dave. To date, their tournament report stands alone at the top for readability and completeness. Your Cribbage World editor (and statistician Bob McCabe) certainly appreciate tournament reports of this quality.

28-Hands a Pox in Northfield

Four players scored 28-hands in the Jesse James Open in Northfield, MN, November 6...and they all lost the game!

Cribbage World has been asked NOT to print their names.

Liz Brandon Picks Up 2nd Win

With the Lions Sight and Hearing benefiting some $385 from donations from 54 peggers, Liz Brandon, Bend, OR, decided to keep a little for herself as she came away a winner in the Prineville, OR 1990 benefit tourney. This was Liz's 2nd sanctioned win, (the other was the 1988 Portland Open).

Liz travelled to the Milwaukee Grand National in 1988 in Ken Capper's motor home, along with a few other peggers, including Anne Haller, with daily tournaments in the motor home along the way. So this Prineville match was like "old times" as Anne took 2nd, and Ken finished 3rd. Wendell Rush, Baker City, OR, finished 4th (no, he wasn't in the motor home).

Marty Symons, Redmond, OR, won the consolation, followed by Gil Johnson (Spokane, WA), Merl Mulkey (Salem, OR), and Irma Symons (Redmond, OR).

Director Bill Dunn handled the inaugural crowd in fine fashion, and will repeat this charity match again next year.

Friets Jaunts to Jersey... and Wins!

Neal Friets, a Master player from Keene, NH, captured the Jersey Jaunt, played in Gibbstown, NJ, November 24. Neal edged out Grand Master Harry Palmer, W. Springfield, MA for the title.

Al Tenenbaum was 3rd, with Sam Rubin in 4th. Al is a native from Cranbury, and Sam hails from W. Springfield, PA.

Irv Solomon from Cranbury edged Bob Hannum, Elkins Park, PA for the consolation title.

Cribbage Board Drive Update

Mickey Griffin, National Director of the cribbage board drive for our troops in the middle east reports that $4,800 has been donated to date. The first order of 500 boards are on their way, and a possible Christmas delivery to the troops in the middle east.

The following groups have donated:

Milwaukee Peggers No. 6: $115
Eagles & Elks, Aurora, CO: $96
Port Washington tourney: $50
North Woods No. 95 (Walpole, MA): $116
Madison, WI No. 1: $150

Truckers Donate Shipping Costs

"Operation Desert Shield" would have incurred sizeable shipping costs to get 1,000 boards delivered to our troops in the middle east, but two trucking firms have donated free shipping!

Risburg Trucking, Redmond, OR, and Redaway Trucking, Portland, OR, have both generously donated the freight charge to the Defense Depot in Tracey, CA.

And how about the drilling of 250,000 holes by Del Everson, Prineville, OR? Wow! What a workout. Do you suppose Del counts sheep at night...or cribbage board holes?

Jeff Monroe Earns Master Rating

Jeff Monroe, Napa, California, became the 63rd pegger to earn his Master rating. Jeff finished 3rd in the large field of 132 peggers at the Kah-Nee-Ta Open in Warm Springs, Oregon, earning 122 Master Points, pushing his lifetime total to 2,052 MRP's.

Jeff is the ACC's Membership Chairman, and is a vital cog in the operation of the American Cribbage Congress.

Russ Adams Has Some Statistics

Russ Adams is a tough pegger from Minneapolis...and the reason must be he has done his homework!

Russ has been doing some serious analysis of the game and has come up with these numbers:

Total points: 60% from hands, 24% from pegging, 16% from cribs.

Dealer wins: 55.1%

Non-dealer wins: 44.9%

Blank cribs: 17.5%

Your editor ran through these numbers some ten years ago...and Russ and I are awfully close on these numbers. I wrote "Play Winning Cribbage" after a thorough analysis...perhaps Russ should get out his pen and take a crack at publishing, too! The only point we disagree is his statement: "...as a strategical matter, it might be wise for the 2nd dealer to play "tight" defensive discarding and pegging to prolong the game toward a near equality of outcomes." In my study, I felt it was wise for the 2nd dealer to play offensively from hand one, in order to win the average game of nine deals with first count on the 9th deal.

Has anyone else in cribbage land compiled data on this great game?

Think Hollywood, 1991!

Happy 10th Anniversary Grand National New Year!

This September, Hollywood, FL, will host the 10th Grand National. Why not make a vacation in conjunction with your Grand National pegging?

And if you do, you may want to take in the Florida Keys, and Key West, the city at sea. This quaint city is 160 miles south of Miami. Making this trip you will travel over the Seven Mile Bridge. Think of that...seven miles of bridge with no draw-bridge (it's high). It's a man-made marvel.

In Key West, they have the famous Conch Train tour of all of Key West, including the US naval base where Harry Truman had his summer white house. After you leave this base, you will be in the southern-most point of the continental United States. You will also pass by the world famous "Sloppy Joe's" bar, where, the rumor goes, Earnest Hemingway hung out and "wet his whistle."

There are many other attractions along the Florida Key highway...lots of good restaurants, many motels, hotels, watering holes, night time entertainment, fishing, and water, water, everywhere! There is a celebration every evening in Key West at sun down. Malory Square (town meeting place) is the primary celebration spot...and the people are goofy! A must event in Key West.

Think Hollywood, 1991!

Inaugural Crowd of 132 Kah-Nee-Ta Open Wows Players

The Kah-Nee-Ta Open, played in the confederated tribes resort in the foothills of the Cascade Mountain range, drew rave comments from the sizeable inaugural crowd of 132 peggers.

This resort is some 15 miles from the small town of Warm Springs, but the facilities were outstanding. Complete with hot springs, large swimming pools, golf course, tennis, horse-back riding, restaurants, and lounge, and excellent playing facilities for cribbage, players were predicting a huge increase for next December's match.

DeLynn Colvert, Missoula, MT, checked into room 13...and checked out with his 13th sanctioned win, edging John Furler, Tigard, OR, in an extremely close final 7th game. John needed but 8 points to win the match, but alas, drew to A-K-Q-J and cut a 3, finishing only 2 points short of the championship.

Jeff Monroe, Napa, CA (the ACC's membership chairman) took third place, edging out Liz Brandon, Bend, OR. Liz has been on a "roll" lately, claiming the recent Prineville, OR, match, for her 2nd sanctioned championship. A rumor circulating around the playing halls has it that Liz was caught on the dance floor recently rocking and rolling, and chanting "I'm a two-time winner!" (And very nearly a 3-time winner!)

In the large consolation match (100 players), the "King of Consolation", Gil Johnson, Spokane, WA, claimed yet another, edging out Ray Hanes...the pride of Walla Walla, WA. Local Denny Van Orsow claimed 3rd, followed by Jim Danaher, La Pine, OR, in 4th.

DeLynn Colvert was on a "roll" for the weekend, and also won the "high-roller." The doubles event was claimed by Paul Hatcher,

Salem, Or, teamed with Merl Mulkey, Keizer, OR. Bill Dunn won the Saturday night special with a perfect 7 for 7. Bill hails from Prineville, OR.

Co-directors Jim Waldorf and John Hatfield kept the large crowd well organized, and their inaugural meet went off without a hitch...with a great deal of credit due to Marvis Reynolds..the northwest's expert in managing tournament play.

Kah-Nee-Ta Medicine Men Put "Sign" On Cribbage Players

The confederated tribes put the "pox" on the cribbage games at the Kah-Nee-Ta Open in Warm Springs, OR. Many strange happenings were reported. Among them: Jeanne Hofbauer vs. Mickey Griffin, 1st hand: 4-4-4-4 on the peg, 2nd hand: 4-4-4-4 on the peg, 3rd hand, Mickey leads from a pair of fours, Jeanne has a four, but says, "Oh, no you don't...not again! Another game: R. T. Connelly's first crib: four 4's. The second crib: four kings.

Then the playoffs: Bob St. Ives vs. Liz Brandon. Both players leave their game momentarily for coffee, and upon returning, no cards! After another game, they both leave again, and upon returning, no cards again! They finish their match without leaving their chairs again!

The winner of the tournament had room 13...and had game after game "donated" through strange plays.

The only explanation is the tribal medicine men were up to no good.

Two Huge Tournaments Slated for February

February will be a busy month for cribbage players. In addition to the ACC Open and Tournament of Champions in early February, two other large meets are scheduled.

The first is the 11th Annual Oregon Championship, to be played in Prineville February 15, 16, and 17. Director Joe Nelson has consistently had large crowds at this "granddaddy" of Oregon tournaments. A "high-roller" and doubles match will kick off the tournament Friday, Feb. 15, and will be played downtown at the Cinnebar Restaurant. Saturday's main event will be played once again at the fairgrounds. Director Nelson feels that a possible 350 peggers may be in the competition.

The other huge tournament to be played in February is Green Bay's MGM Open on the 22, 23, and 24th. Director's Tom Gallagher, Jerry Lemke, and Bob Miller have consistently fielded the largest group of peggers in the midwest (1989's crowd was a record 572). Doubles are played Friday and Saturday night. Additional events are also scheduled. Check the center-fold of this issue for additional entry information.

Dale Munroe Resigns

Due to an unusual increase in his outside interests, business and otherwise, Dale Munroe, Collinsville, CT, is taking a breather from his duties as a member of the ACC's Board of Directors.

Dale has been a mainstay in the operation of the ACC, and was at the helm of Cribbage World during a steady-growth period.

The ACC membership hopes that when his workload returns to a more normal level, he will once again become active in the operation of the Congress.

Phillip Babcock Appointed to Board of Directors

Dale Munroe's vacant seat on the ACC's Board of Directors has been filled with the appointment of Phillip Babcock, Alexandria, VA.

President Joseph Wergin stated that Phillip is director of a Grass Roots club in Alexandria, and is in the process of organizing another in Washington, D.C.. Wergin also stated that the Mid-atlantic region was without representation.

Phyllis Schmidt Takes Early Lead in National Title Race

Williamstown, MA pegger Phyllis Schmidt has jumped off to a commanding Master Point lead in the race for the 1991 national title, scoring some 657 Master Points in 3 scant months.

Phyllis has been pegging nationwide, and is making a determined bid for the championship. A consistent winner, Phyllis will be hard to beat.

Your editor can attest to Phyllis's skill on the board...she waxed him 3-0 in the first round playoffs at the Des Moines Grand National.

Jerry Gruber Earns Master Rating

Jerry Gruber, Minneapolis, MN, recently went over the magic 2,000 Master Point total to become the ACC's 64th Master player.

Jerry is an excellent pegger from the midwest and has many top finishes in sanctioned play.

Hall of Famer Nelson Pendergast Wins More Awards

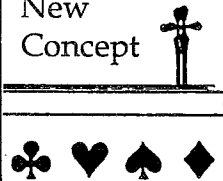

41,639 hours of volunteer service! That's what Nelson Pendergast has contributed to veterans at the VA Medical Center in Albany, NY. And a great majority of these hours volunteered over an 18-year span has been directing cribbage tournaments.

Nelson recently was presented with an award (see below) for this contribution to American veterans. And he certainly earned his election to the Cribbage Hall of Fame.

Jim Danaher Has Another Game

LaPine, OR pegger Jim Danaher has a new game. Match your zip code to your ACC membership number. Jim's ACC membership number is OR-739, and his zip code is 97739, for a 3-number match.

Larry Samet Organizes Regional "All-Star" Team Event Kicking Off the Tournament of Champions

Eastern Region's Larry Samet has come up with a novel idea for a "kick-off" to the Tournament of Champions to be played in Reno February 1. Larry has proposed a Regional "All-Star" match between the Eastern, Central, and Western regions.

This 8-person team from each region would play one game each with the other two region's 8-person teams, for a 16-game match, to be scored in the conventional manner.

Larry will head up the Eastern Region, Butch Reynolds the Western, and Scott Kooistra the Central.

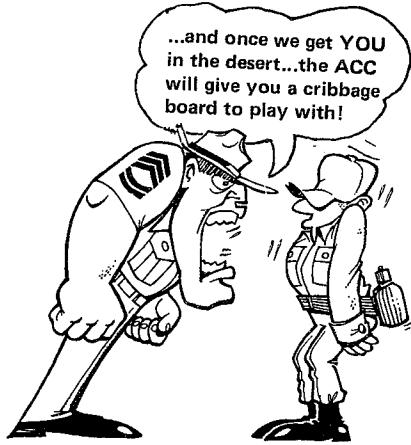

The Eastern team:

Joe Ramos
Al Dinwoodie
Stu Stromberg
George Webb
Neal Friets
Dwight Christiansen
Dale Munroe
Larry Samet

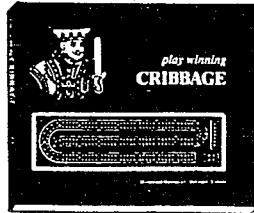

The Western team:

Butch Reynolds
Gary Motley
DeLynn Colvert
Jeanne Hofbauer
Roy Hofbauer
Rex Paddock
Gene Sissel
♥ Jim Waldorf

The Central team is currently being organized and should be in place come February 1. Scott Kooistra heads up this team. If this format proves competitive, perhaps this will be an annual affair.

Can We Handicap Players?

Bob McCabe and Jeff Monroe should be congratulated for developing the master points and national rankings on annual membership cards. It is something that most ACC members are interested in and serves to give us commonality of interest not previously available.

Even more fortuitously, McCabe and Monroe have opened the door to providing more equitable tournaments. By giving a better chance to newcomers, to infrequent tournament players, to grass roots players and to less capable players, a chance to at least qualify, there will be a better chance of maintaining interest in ACC membership. We all know players who become discouraged after being trounced regularly by superior players in tournaments and even in grass roots; they stop coming to tournaments and drop out of league play.

Master Point availability means graded tournaments are now possible. We can all play our peers. Each tournament could be graded into three divisions, for example, with a low entry fee for the lowest division, a higher entry fee for the "average" division and a larger fee for the "expert" division. Payoffs would be on the basis of entry fees. Divisional play would be in effect for the qualifying round only. Random seating would be in effect in the playoffs. The integrity of the existing master point system would be preserved.

In a study done in the Northeast a year ago, 50% of ACC members had no master points, 27% had 150 or fewer, 13% had over 150 but less than 450, 10% had over 450 master points. I have enjoyed vying with the country's best players such as DeLynn Colvert, Scott Kooistra, Al Miller, Harry Palmer, Bob Michaelis, and Butch Reynolds. As our present tournament format permits these experts, and others, to meet new players, novices and infrequent tournament players two games in a qualifying round, we almost assure such experts four to six points for each easy opponent. What a treat it would be to see these six players play each other in a qualifying round. They would, I suspect, draw spectators, rare indeed.

The annual Tournament of Champions is the only one that provides parity for all entrants. We can bring a semblance of parity to every tournament by grading entries in the qualifying round, thus eliminating early mismatches and giving less experienced players a better opportunity to qualify. Some grass roots clubs apparently are using a version of graded play.

Hopefully, the Connecticut Championship tournament in May, 1991, will use this technique and serve as a nationwide model. ACC membership will suddenly become more appealing and our numbers should swell.

*Joe Seigle
Connecticut*

Joe's handicapping of players certainly is interesting and deserves consideration, but I'm afraid he (and other tournament directors) must get an interpretation from the ACC Board of Directors before giving this method of qualifying a try.

At the September 21, 1990 Board of Directors meeting in Des Moines, mandatory random seating for sanctioned tournament play was unanimously passed for immediate adoption. I may be interpreting this incorrectly, but Joe's proposal of grouping (and seating) players by their lifetime Master Point total is NOT RANDOM!

Perhaps the January 31, 1991, BOD meeting in Reno can clarify if handicapping will be acceptable in sanctioned play.

Cribadier General Program

Back in 1980, James Wellington Arblaster of Kissimmee, FL, founded the Honorable Order of Cribadier Generals for the purpose of raising funds to support youth cribbage activities. After heading the Honorable Order as Adjutant for the better part of ten years, Jim has chosen to entrust the CG program into my custody, I am honored to be so entrusted.

"Gentleman Jim" will be a hard act to follow, but I shall do whatever I can to continue the CG program in the same spirit and intent of Mr. Arblaster's prior leadership. However, I can't do it alone. I need the help and support of the entire ACC membership. Your added contributions of 5 or 10 dollars, or whatever you can afford in these tough economic times, to the Cribadier General Program along with your annual membership will be gratefully received with deepest thanks and appreciation.

Your contributions will help fund local youth cribbage instruction and tournaments. A one-time contribution of $25 or more will enroll you as a lifetime member of the Honorable Order of Cribadier Generals. To date, we have 146 lifetime members.

In some future issue of Cribbage World, I'll explain how your contributions are applied.

In closing, I should like to thank you, Jim Arblaster, for all your past efforts on behalf of the youngsters, and to all of you who have generously contributed to the Cribadier General Program in the past. Let's keep the ball rolling. Let's continue to keep the CG program a viable and workable program...together!

Sour Grapes

I read Cribbage World from cover to cover, but find the Master Point coverage excessive. I would much rather read interesting articles, more letters to the editors, editorials, cribbage puzzlers, etc. If there are now 5,624 members in the organization, surely 90% of us are not part of the Master Point assemblage. Is there anyone else out there that would like to see this coverage reduced, published in an abbreviated form or even eliminated...or am I in the minority? How about it Cribbage World? Can we take a vote?

*Virginia Brier
Grass Valley, CA*

Yes, indeed, Virginia, you have a valid point...and Cribbage World has received a FEW comments about your point of view, including Dan Barlow, who loves his puzzlers, etc. However, 99% of all letters to the editor are printed, and editorials are inserted when time (or material) is available. My opinion is that Cribbage World is a trade magazine for cribbage players (tournament players), and is primarily printed for disseminating tournament information, tournament winners, and Master Points derived thereof. However, cribbage tidbits, letters, editorials, certainly make the publication much more readable...and we will make every effort to please everyone (but, we all know that is impossible...and besides, the pay is terrible!) But mostly, Virginia, I want to wave the "red flag" of competition in your face, get you out on the "trail", win some Master Points, and get your name in headlines!
