Raleigh & Reno National Open, Independence Day Classic Wind Down 1992 Season

The American Cribbage Congress' 1992 season comes to a close July 31.

This year's play has been an exciting one, with many new tournaments, and the annual renewal of established events posting new highs in attendance. The annual Master Point race has been the most competitive in years, with a score or more players having a shot at the national crown for 1992.

And for these players in the national race, the Independence Day Classic in Reno, NV July 3-5, and the National Open in Raleigh, NC July 25-27 will undoubtedly decide who comes away with the roses. Both tournaments wind down the 1992 season...and both draw huge crowds. In Reno, some 300 or more are expected, while the Raleigh meet has been drawing players nationwide in the 400 plus range for the past several years.

The Reno meet will be played at the Sands Regency, and directors Bill and Dorthalee Irons are once again expecting a large crowd in this 6th annual event. Each year, the crowds get larger and larger, attesting to the expertise of these directors.

The National Open in Raleigh is playing their 19th annual, and director Nick Pond is optimistic this year's meet will once again bring in record crowds...and maintain its record as the largest meet in the Eastern Region.

This tournament has the distinction of being one of the few that play a double elimination, best 4 of 7 format. And skunks count two games.

The North Raleigh Hilton is once again the host facility. The tournament offers a $25 hospitality room, in addition to spacious playing areas. If you wish to attend this year's meet, don't delay, as the deadline for entry is Friday, July 10.

This National Open is the last large tournament of the season, and will probably decide the national champion...and the All-American team. In 1990, Scott Kooistra, the Yankton, SD king of cribbage won this event...and the national championship.

For details, see "Tournament Trail," this issue.

News From Nigeria

Prince Sina Smash Agoro writes that he will be visiting Orlando, FL, this summer attending the Rotary International Convention. Jim Arblaster, our director and the first secretary of the Congress, will welcome the Prince in the name of the American Cribbage Congress. The gathering will attract about 16,000 Rotarians.

The Constitution/By-Laws

Director Jerry Dickinson was chosen by Vice-President Policy, Ev Bey, to head the Committee on Revision. Bey picked the right man as Jerry has behind him an outstanding career in Army organization. The writer believes that the Constitution and By-Laws should be published in the same booklet with the Official Rules. The membership is entitled to know about the aims and objectives of the Congress as well as the ruling By-Laws.

First Graduation Ceremony

With the end of the school year, 21 5th and 6th grade students of the Germantown, MD, Elementary School were presented certificates, "Cribbage in the School's Classroom Program" by teacher Fran Fountain. The diplomas were signed by President Wergin and by Fountain. The 21 students were excited with their awards, which will prove to be a great medium of publicity for cribbage and the Congress.

Dan Zeisler, the 8th grade teacher at the Sonora, CA, school, reports that 45 students received satisfactory grades in the cribbage courses he conducted this past school year. His students will receive their certificates when school opens this fall. Zeisler also reported the County Educational Society will be staging a summer program for gifted children. Cribbage was listed as one of the elective subjects with 20 pupils to a class, and cribbage was the first class to fill its quota.

Memo: Public School Officials

Re: The educational value of cribbage. Cribbage is regarded by many educators as not only an excellent method but a painless one in teaching math skills to young learners. I have received many letters from educators around the world reporting success with this approach, especially slow learners. The playing of cribbage by children allows for the learning of a task by doing or experiencing an activity. The Great Pedagogues of Education and Psychology, such as Dewey, Freud, Froebel, Pestalozzi and Piaget, all formulated their learning theories of creative play on "experimental learning for children." Three decades of applied research by Margie Golik, Ph.D., Chief Psychologist, Learning Centre, McGill-Montreal Children's Hospital, and Karl W. Grube, Ph.D., Educational Board Game Editor for the International Gamester (r), Ltd. indicates that 21 Learned Skills necessary for growth and development of children are greatly reinforced or acquired for the first time as a result of playing traditional card games such as cribbage. Source: (Reading, Writing & Rummy) and (Cribbage In Schools Program).

Cribbage reinforces these learned skills:

1. Motor skills.
2. Rhythm.
3. A sense of direction.
4. Visual Discrimination.
5. Number concepts.
6. Verbal skills.
7. Intellectual skills.
8. Social skills.
9. Vocabulary.
10. Concentration.
11. Shape and numbers.
12. Mental alertness.
13. Thinking.
14. Reasoning.
15. Color discrimination.
16. Logical decisions.
17. Competition.
18. Mastery of facts.
19. Mastery of concepts.
20. Value of winning.
21. Art of losing.

Russell Adams Takes MRP Lead

With one of the most exciting finishes in the ACC's Master Point race winding down, with but one short month to play, Russell Adams, Minneapolis, MN, has taken the lead. His 1,177 MRP's has given him a slim lead over Phyllis Schmidt's (Williamstown, MA) 1,100. Adams scored a bundle of MRP's at the recent Hawkeye Classic in Des Moines and the Madison, WI, Masters. A late report from the Eastern States Championship in Chicopee, MA had Schmidt in 4th place, after qualifying 11th, to run her total for the year to the 1,100+ range.

In the Western Region, Ray Van Orsow (1,027 MRP's), Portland, OR, and Roy Hofbauer (1,003), Washougal, WA, are slugging it out.

Other players in the thick of the competition are Larry Samet, Wellesley Hills, MA, with 987, Duane Toll, West Allis, WI with 959, Jack Marani, Quincy, MA with 943, Jim McManus, Milwaukee, with 937, and Warren Sondericker, Greenfield, WI, standing at 906. About a dozen other players have an outside shot at earning the national title, and All-American honors.

McCabe, Ferrigno Hold Rare Combination

Bob McCabe, Executive Vice-President of the ACC was pegging with Paul Ferrigno. Oakridge, OR, at the recent Cascade Classic VII in Bend, Oregon.

Bob held 4-5-6-9 of clubs, and Paul held 5-J-Q-K (jack of spades). The 5 of spades was cut, giving both players an 18-hand! One 18 is rare, but two on the same deal? Professor Russell Adams...figure the odds on that one!

Jack Marani, Denny Van Orsow, Mitch Bourland Earn Master Rating

Jack Marani, Quincy, MA, recently finished 18th of 244 peggers at the Rhode Island Open, earning 122 MRP's...and the title of Master. Marani is one of the Eastern Region's finer players, and is a threat to win any tournament. He is the 117th ACC to player to reach this plateau.

Denny Van Orsow, Culver, OR, recently was top qualifier at the Cascade Classic VII, and picked up more than the 7 MRP's he needed to earn his Master rating. His qualifying round scores have been outstanding this cribbage year. Denny is the 118th player to earn his Master rating.

Mitch Bourland, Prineville, OR, has won two major championships in recent years...and came close to another at the 172-pegger event in Bend, OR, finishing in the 3-4 bracket. The 164 MRP's earned sent his lifetime numbers well over the 2,000 MRP mark to earn his Master rating...and the 119th member of this select group of peggers.

Eastern Region Update...

Paul Gallagher "Doubles" in Connecticut

North Windham, Ct, May 17- Paul Gallagher, Avon, MA, scored a rare double in winning the 102-pegger Connecticut Championship...he also took honors in the qualifying round, picking up a grand total 160 MRP's. Jim Tucci, Saco, ME finished 2nd, followed by Grand Master Harry Palmer, W. Springfield, MA in 3rd, and Charlie Finley, Enfield, CT in 4th. Charlie has been on a roll this cribbage year, and stands at the 500 MRP mark for the year. Larry Samet, Wellesley Hills, MA, qualified 3rd and finished 14th to run his MRP total to the 1,000 mark for this cribbage year, keeping his national title hopes alive.

66 peggers stayed around for the consolation, and Henry DeLong, Woburn, MA took the title. Joe Cornelissen, Halifax, MA finished 2nd, with Joe Beauregard and Jim Russell in 3rd and 4th. Beauregard hails from Pawtucket, RI, and Russell from Longmeadow, MA.

New member Mike Mecca from Williamsport, PA enjoyed his first sanctioned event by scoring a 28-hand.

Directors Bill Shoemaker and Joe Seigle report this event will be held again next year on May 16.

Author of Cribbage Book

John Chambers Takes Eastern States

Phyllis Schmidt Earns Grand Master

Chicopee, MA, May 31- Author John Chambers, Providence, RI, captured the 2nd annual Eastern States Championship, besting Bernard Lusi, Bristol, CT in the final playoff match. Irving Torre, Mansfield, MA finished 3rd. Phyllis Schmidt, Williamstown, MA, took a fine 4th place finish, and coupled with qualifying 11th, earned 132 MRP's, sending her 1992 cribbage season MRP total to the 1,100 mark...putting her well over the magic 4,000 MRP lifetime total to earn Grand Master. Only Russell Adams, the national point leader from Minneapolis has scored more this cribbage year. In addition, Phyllis becomes only the second woman to earn Grand Master and the 18th in the history of the American Cribbage Congress.

The consolation event winner was Tom Horigan, Stoughton, MA. Local Grover O'Brien finished 2nd, followed by BOD member Joe Ramos in 3rd and Jim Cundy in 4th. Both Joe and Jim hail from Warwick, RI. In the main event qualifying round Philip DeJoseph, Braintree, MA, took honors, followed by Stan Tkaczuk, Wareham, MA, Herb Boreham, Tauton, MA, and Les Jordan, Groton, CT.

Central Region Update...

Scott Henderson Wins Madison Masters Classic XIV

Madison, WI, April 26-Local pegger Scott Henderson picked up a nifty 200 MRP's in winning the recent Madison Masters Classic XIV and made a move into the top 50 in the Central Region for this cribbage year. If he can hold his position for two more months, he will qualify for next year's Tournament of Champions. Douglas Page, Little Chute, WI picked a bundle of MRP's with a fine 2nd place finish. Frank Trojan, New Brighton, MN, has been on a roll this cribbage year, and continues his run with a 3rd place finish...and moved up to 8th in the Central Region standings. Tom Maresh took 4th and stands at 349 MRP's for the year. Denver's Ed Blecker took the sizeable consolation event, edging Joan Veith, Sun Prairie, WI in the final playoff match. Max Steplyk, Waukegan, IL scored that elusive 29-hand (no. 10 for this cribbage year nationwide) and will receive $100 from the ACC for this sanctioned gem. Directors Gaylord Matti and Jerry Dickinson once again drew a sizeable crowd for this event.

Michaelis Tops 96 Peggers in Iowa

Des Moines, IA, May 3-Life Master Robert "Mick" Michaelis, the Marinette, WI bomber came to Des Moines in 1991 and took home the Hawkeye Classic title...and in 1992 he made a rare repeat performance. And this trip was not an easy one, as he had to get by Russ Nelson, the Arizona King in the final playoff match. Shelly Vadnais, Oakland, MN took 3rd, followed by veteran pegger Charlie Fletchall in 4th. Fletchall hails from Grimes, Iowa. Frank Trojan continued his winning ways with a consolation win. Arlan Sodahl, Ames, Iowa took 2nd, followed by Roberta Schweig, Carpertensville, IL in 3rd, and Gene Mikulsky, Sobieski, WI, in 4th. Roberta's husband, Frank, scored a 29-hand...only the 11th player this cribbage year to turn that trick! Fletchall's run was aided by a 28-hand.

Fred Dettling Takes Off in Illinois

Elgin, IL, May 17-Fred Dettling is a retired airlines pilot...and he "took off" again at the recent Northern Illinois Spring Classic, taking home all the marbles in this 80-pegger event. Not only did he win the event, he also scored the only 28-hand for the weekend. Recently crowned Master pegger Don Tofte, Madison, WI took 2nd, followed by Marv Lang, Woodstock, IL, and Mike Blatt, Rockford, MI, in 3rd and 4th. Life Master Duane Toll picked up the 36-pegger consolation event, keeping his hat in the ring for national honors this cribbage year (20 points IS 20 points!) Charlie Fletchall is keeping his hot run alive by finishing 2nd. This Grimes, Iowa pegger is a threat to win anytime!

Western Region Update...

Ray Van Orsow Earns 142 MRP's for 5th Place Finish Gary Motley Nails Cascade Classic VII

Bend, OR, June 7- Grand Master Gary Motley, Gresham, OR, won the 172-pegger Cascade Classic VII, and is making a late-season charge for national honors. With the 180 MRP's, Gary has reached the 600 MRP plateau, with one short month remaining in this cribbage season, and has an outside chance at repeating his 1990 and 1991 All-American awards. Stu McIntyre, Astoria, OR finished 2nd and picked up a nifty 169 MRP's. John Wright from nearby Warm Springs took 3rd. Mitch Bourland, Prineville, OR, finished 4th, and with the 150 MRP's earned his Master rating...the 119th ACC member to achieve this ranking.

Bruce Wridge, Portland, OR took the 131-pegger consolation crown. Local Dale Brandon took 2nd. Dorothy Westerlund finished 3rd, and coupled with her recent Oregon Championship title at nearby Prineville this February, continues her hot run in central Oregon. This Sherwood, OR pegger now stands at the 500 MRP mark for this cribbage year. Roger Lueschow, Maple Valley, WA finished 4th, and has been burning up the track lately...especially in the qualifying rounds.

In the satellite events, Jeff Monroe, the ACC's hard-working membership chairman from Napa, CA, won the high-roller event, and Roger Lueschow teamed with Gene Sissel, Baker City, OR to win the doubles. LaPine, OR pegger Frank Lake is unbeatable lately, and cashed the Saturday Night event. Other highlights in the main event was Denny Van Orsow's fine 37 GP high-qualifying score, earning 60 MRP's...and his Master rating. And by finishing a fine 5th in the main event, Ray Van Orsow, Portland, OR, keeps his hat in the ring for the national championship, as the 142 MRP's earned in this event puts him at 1,027 MRP's for the year, and currently stands a close 3rd place nationally.

Directors Rob Kirkpatrick and Sue Snyder handled the huge crowd in fine style and all events proceeded smoothly. As usual, Marvis Reynolds' handling of the "paper-work" and her playoff boards were a big help in the tournament's continuity.

Heidi Glashan Captures Bill Mitchell Memorial

Smith River, CA, May 24- Heidi Glashan, Pittsburg, CA took a short hop north and took home the bacon at the 62-pegger Bill Mitchell Memorial, played this year at the Ship Ashore Resort in Smith River. Michael Hayden, San Jose, CA, finished 2nd, with local John Flynn in 3rd, followed by tough-pegging Laurie Logan, the Quincy, CA queen of cribbage. Jim Taylor took a trip south from Bend, OR, and paid for his trip with a consolation win in this 38-pegger event. Life Master Jesse Jarrell, Pittsburg, CA earned a few more MRP's to keep his All-American hopes alive with a 2nd place finish. (standing at 800+ MRP's). Forest Grove, OR pegger Dorothy Conroy continues her winning ways with a 3rd place finish. Rookie tournament director Vern Ward did a great job managing his first tournament.

Gary Sand Snake River King

Nyssa, OR, May 24-Gary Sand, Kennewick, WA, has had many "near misses," but he crashed into the winner's circle in the small farming town of Nyssa, OR, and claimed the Snake River crown. Bill Hill, Hermiston, OR, was on a roll for the weekend, winning the high-roller event, and finished 2nd, to easily pay for his trip down to the Snake River. Gil Johnson, Spokane, WA took 3rd, and the Pacific Coast king, Bernie Nelson, took 4th. Bernie hails from Pacific City, OR. Paul Nolz, Redmond, OR claimed the consolation event in a tight final playoff tussel with Lucille Endicott, Prineville, OR. Ernie Standard, Island City, OR finished 3rd, and Jack Holt, Portland took 4th. The Snake River Open's reputation as a small, friendly tournament was upheld by Michelle Park's expertly run tournament with generous paybacks. The Snake River also continued awarding many fine trophies. If you want a trophy, come to the Snake River Open!

Colorado Cribbage

Bob Madsen Takes Sertoma Classic

Englewood, CO, May 23-Bob Madsen, the Chicago King of Cribbage, won the small, but animated 36-pegger Sertoma Classic, earning 40 MRP's, and another 5 for qualifying 4th. Bob is now knocking on the door for his Grand Master rating. Roger Wilson, Boulder, CO, took 2nd in the playoffs and in the qualifying round. Roger is Colorado's only player to crack the top 50 in the Western Region this season. Local Pamela Ehrich continues her winning ways by taking 3rd (and winning the doubles event, teamed with Harvey Luckett). Steve Hatton, Lakewood, CO, finished 4th. Chris Wilson, Longmont, CO edged Lola Clay for the consolation crown.

Steplyk, Schweig Score 29-Hands

Max Steplyk, Waukegan, IL, scored 29-hand number 10 at the recent Madison Master's Classic XIV, in Madison, WI. April 25 will be long-remembered by Max.

Lucky number 11 was scored by Frank Schweig, Carpentersville, IL at the Hawkeye Classic in Des Moines, IA, May 2.

These Illinois players will receive $100 the ACC awards for a sanctioned 29-hand.

Corrections

Walter Swanson Takes South Shore Classic Consolation
John Hanson Takes 3rd in Belle City Classic Consolation

Cribbage World received erroneous reports concerning winners at the recent South Shore Classic and Belle City Classic. Walter Swanson won the 142-pegger consolation event at the South Shore Classic, and John Hanson took 3rd in the Belle City consolation.

The ACC's Master Point compilation has been corrected.

Grand National Adds "Early Birds"

The Grand National is scheduled for September 18, 19, and 20 at the Midway Motor Lodge, 780 Packer Drive, Green Bay, WI.

Directors Tom Gallagher, Jerry Lemke, and Bob Miller have added an "Early Bird" feature. They will play doubles Friday night ($30 per team) and a $100/10 game singles match will also be played. This "high-roller" event will be limited to the first 32 that sign up!

As usual, the Grand National will have a Saturday night Awards Banquet ($15.45 per person). See "Tournament Trail" this issue for more details.

Charlie Ball Sez "Give 'Em a Gift Subscription"

Everett, WA pegger Charlie Ball recently gave his daughter and son-in-law a gift membership to the ACC...and he says "Why don't all ACC members buy a membership for a son, daughter, pop, mom, friend, neighbor or what have you? A great gift for a birthday, Christmas, get well or just good American Cribbage Congress friendship!"

Jim Gribble WVA 001 Wants Tidbits

Morgantown's Jim Gribble is West Virginia's first ACC member...and he writes that he would like to see more cribbage tidbits in Cribbage World. Items such as board strategy, discarding, pegging, playing computers, etc., would be a welcomed addition to our monthly publication.

So, all you cribbage experts in cribbage land...get out your pencils and paper and contribute your expertise to Cribbage World. Russell Adams, the Minnesota King, has done his share!

Our Life Masters... Scott Kooistra, "Mick" Michaelis, Warren Sondericker, Jesse Jarrell, Joe Bernard, and Duane Toll must have some secrets they don't mind sharing with our ACC membership.

Skunk King: Jack Holt

According to the cribbage law of averages, a player should record a skunk about 8% of the time...but Jack Holt, Portland, OR, shows no mercy. In some 120 Grass Roots games, he has waxed his opponents 22 times for skunks. That is 18.3% of the time!

Cribbage World thanks Harry Kantas and his Club 28 newsletter for this tidbit.

Unorthodox Finish!

At the recent Oregon Coast Classic, both Lea Hornbeck, Washougal, WA, and Colleen Melhorn, Newport, OR were in the stink hole in an exciting game. Lea scores a "go" to win the game...but inadvertently picks up Colleen's peg and puts it in the winner's hole!

Judge Betty Johnson, Spokane, WA, observed the play, but neither player was aware of the incident, and the game went to Lea. What next?

Damned Sticky Pegs!

Jeanne Hofbauer, Washougal, WA, was involved in a very close game at the recent Cascade Classic VII. Her opponent needed but a few pegs to win, and grabbed the front peg to score his hand. Jeanne held her breath...for if he picked up his front peg, it would become his back peg, and she would surely win the game!

Alas, the peg stuck in the hole. It stuck so tightly that the board was raised from the table. But before it came unstuck, he realized he had the front peg, and gently set the board down, and then pegged with the proper peg.

Jeanne was on a bad roll...and this was the "tap" shot!

6,543 Members!

The American Cribbage Congress has hit a new high in memberships. According to Jeff Monroe's latest figures, the ACC now has 6,543 members...but 12 of them are missing. If you know their whereabouts, drop Jeff a line. His address is on the back cover. The missing are:

Ed Brenner, Boise, ID
Dee Crittenden, Richland, WA
Jim Hammon, Reno, NV
Chandra Hammon, Reno, NV
Steve McAvoy, Spokane, WA
Paul O'Grady, Hialeah, FL
Ruth Pierce, St. Cloud, FL
Richard Reid, Alexandria, VA
Bettymae Ridenour, Jenison, MI
Shawn Somers, Marietta, GA
Mark Unger, Oceanside, CA
Lisa Unger, Oceanside, CA

California continues to lead the way in memberships with 1,151, followed by Oregon's 781. Alabama, Kentucky, and Mississippi have but one member. Maybe solitaire cribbage is a popular game in the deep south!

Ray Van Orsow Batting 2 for 3

Ray Van Orsow, the Portland King, is playing at a 2 for 3 pace (12.6 GP's per 9-game match) the last ten weeks of Grass Roots (club 28) play...and it earned him a nifty $100 bonus for taking top honors! CW thanks Harry Kantas' bi-monthly newsletter for this tidbit!

He Did! He Didn't! Yes, He Did!

Robert Bradbury scored a 29-hand December 8, 1991 at the Bay State Classic. CW received another report that this hand was a 28. Now, George Webb, Eastern Region Commissioner, reports that, indeed, Bradbury's hand was a 29! CW will once again list this accomplishment in the "Club 29" listing!

Dale Beat Scores 29-Hand At The Willows Open

The cards were hot at the Willows Open February 15. Four 28-hands were scored, but the BIG ONE belongs to Dale Beat, Weaverville, CA. Dale scored that rare 29-hand! And for this 216,580 to one gem, Dale will receive $100 from the ACC. This is only the eighth 29-hand scored this cribbage year (in sanctioned competition).

First Carol...then Jack

At the Oregon Championship in Prineville, Carol Holt, Portland, OR, scored a 28-hand in the main event (February 15).

The next day, husband Jack scores a 28-hand in the consolation event (February 16). Cribbage World wonders who has the last word in the Holt household!

Fingleton, Sondericker, Button Temporarily Retired

Martha Fingleton, our ACC's National Tournament Commissioner, Warren Sondericker, national MRP leader, and Tom Button, are awash in renovations and moving...and will be until September. Since this trio of peggers routinely "wax" all comers, Central Region players should hit the trail NOW, as they all plan on returning to action at the upcoming Grand National.

Ooops...Rule Correction

Al Miller, our ACC Judge's Examiner, makes an addition to the solution of the pone mixing the starter card with the pack BEFORE the crib is counted (Page 9, May CW). According to Al (and the rules), it is not an automatic reshuffle and re-cut. The judges must first try to reconstruct the hands based on the previous scoring. If, they are not able, then the pack is reshuffled and recut.

Where Do I Write, Who Do I Call?

George Rasmussen Takes Title First Annual Virginia Grass Roots Championship

Richmond's Grass Roots club hosted the first ever Virginia Grass Roots Championship February 28 and 29. Other clubs participating were the Portsmouth and Alexandria clubs. Peggers from Charlottesville were also on hand (they may start a club soon).

Last month George Rasmussen was pegging in the northwest...but a recent transfer to Washington, D. C. has him pegging on the east coast. The change of scenery must be to his liking as he won this inaugural event, besting 56 players and tournament director Andy Hulcher (Richmond) in the final match for the championship.

The consolation tournament was taken by Phil Babcock of the Cameron Cribbers (Alexandria), and the doubles tournament was won by Marion Castagna and Gloria Halm from Alexandria.

Zabrowski, Perkins Appointed to Rules Committee

Frank Zabrowski, Monterey, CA, and Cathy Perkins, Bear Creek, NC, Director of Senior Judges, have been appointed to the Rules Committee by Ev Bey, Vice-President, Policy, with concurrence of the Executive Committee.

The Rules Committee is headed by Dick Cornwell, Sunnyvale, CA. Other members of his committee include Testing Examiner Al Miller, Nashua, NH; Ken Cambell, Modoc, SC; Scott Kooistra, Yankton, SD; and Syl Lulinski, LaGrange Park, IL.

Any member with a proposed rules change is requested to contact Cornwell, 622 Torrington Drive, Sunnyvale, CA 94087, or call (408) 736-0914. Final changes for a new Rules Book to be issued later this year will be considered at the next Board of Directors meeting at Raleigh, NC, on Friday, July 24, 1992.

Letters to the editor...

Explanation Needed!

I was a little confused at not seeing any explanation of why there was a vacancy on the BOD that allowed for the appointment of Bill Wright. However delighted I am that Bill was selected, the unpleasant business that falls to the BOD is news to ACC members and may be as important to them as the good news. And I would prefer an accurate statement of fact printed in Cribbage World rather than rumors and gossip.

Mickey Griffin
Lincoln, NE

Bill Wright's appointment filled a vacancy created by the expulsion of a member of the Board of Directors. A synopsis of this action was published in the April issue of Cribbage World.

Four Skunks at Raleigh? No Way!

Ms. Diane Smith tied a world's record at the recent Ben Franklin Open. In the 10-game qualifying round-robin Diane ended with "0" game points...she won nary a game. In July, Diane can establish a new record for quick elimination from the National Open at Raleigh, is she can manage to be eliminated by four consecutive skunks.

Bob DeAngelo
Fredericksburg, VA

The odds of being skunked four times in a row are about 21,000 to 1. I'll bet on Diane! I did see a former National Champion lose one match 4-0 (two consecutive skunks) at Raleigh, however.

Cribbage...NOT baseball!

I would like to respond to Michael Russo's letter "Percentages...Like Baseball."

Michael we play cribbage, not baseball. If Detroit outscored Minnesota by 100 runs for the year and Minnesota won the pennant, maybe, just maybe the pitching in the eastern conference was less effective than the pitching in the western conference. You mention 9 games you must be referring to; a) a consolation tournament or b) the round robin style playoffs in a main tournament with the top four finishers playing head on best 3 of 5. Yes, Michael, a 6-3 player now has the opportunity to defeat a 9-0 player in a best 3 of 5 match. It may not seem fair to you, however, the 6-3 player may have played 9 opponents (Colvert, Toll, Sondericker, Kooistra, Michaelis, Schmidt, etc.) and the 9-0 player may have encountered opponents with much less experience and ability. The equalizer is in the playoff (like Detroit and Minnesota) head to head matches is the only fair way to determine a TRUE winner of a cribbage tournament.

Talk of the Night

Vance on his first hand was dealt 4-4-4-7-9-10, cribbed 9-10, up card was a 4. At end of hand counted 20 and pegged 20. That was his hand for "hockey puck" (20-point hand).

A few hands later, opponent, Ron, was dealt 2-3-6-6-6-10, cribbed 2-10. Up card was a 6. At end of hand, Ron said "Give me the hockey puck, I have 20!" He then pegged 20. Both players miscounted their hands. Each had 24. What a coincidence!

28-Hand Speeds Recovery

Alex Pogorzelski, Green Bay, WI, was scheduled for a triple bypass on May 19. While playing cribbage on May 14 in the local Grass Roots Club 61 meet (Green Bay), he had a 28-hand. Would you believe his wife, Kathy, had a 28-hand only moments later? What are the odds? Alex is recovering nicely from surgery.

*Gene & Aggie Mikulsky
Sobieski, WI*

*Yes, a 28-hand will aid in a speedy recovery!
the editor*

Flushes Galore!

Talk about interesting hands, what about this one? My husband and I were playing a game and in one hand he had a spade flush, I had a diamond flush, and would you believe the heart cut made a heart flush in the crib! What are the odds of this happening?

*Ann Leurquin
Green Bay, WI
(daughter of Aggie & Gene Mikulsky)*

This could only happen to someone related to the Mikulsky's. The odds, indeed, are very, very long! In all my years of cribbage, I have never seen three flushes of different suits in the same hand. Two suits, yes...but never three!

Hot Night In Roseburg!

On May 19, 1992, we were engaged in the weekly Grass Roots event. A total of 17 cribbers were present, all of which are seasoned veterans of the game. John Thiems was sitting next to me, and about the 2nd round I was aware that John was on to something. Gurgling sounds were coming from within and a steady vibration was causing his body to quiver. About 2 seconds later I heard him declare a 28-hand!

Then, not more than a minute later, a blood curdling scream was let out from a lady four seats to my right. This lady leaped from her seat, cards waving above her head, more screams and wild gyrations followed and "I got a '29'" came bursting from her lips about 10 or 12 times. Donna Hassett had gotten her first "29" and was ecstatic.

As the evening wore on I became aware that one of my arch rivals was suspiciously docile and was engulfed in what you might call "power of concentration." And on the 9th and final game he placed his peg in the "out" hole and declared a "grand slam..." Jean Edwards was the name and cribbage was the game!

In Memoriam

Paul E. Hanes

Richmond, Virginia

Paul passed away on May 20, 1992. A charter member of Club #124, he will be sorely missed by his many friends in the Eastern Region.

Your Editor Has No Respect

DeLynn Colvert's son, Ian, was at school one day talking to his friends, "You know, my dad is a real nut about cribbage!"

A pal replied, "Oh, really? Me too!"

Ian, a bit skeptical, "Do you know what cribbage is?"

"Yeah, it tastes great!"

My son Ian does know what cribbage is...he even gives me a hand from time to time with Cribbage World chores. But he doesn't play cribbage (he's a computer nut).
