Central Region Buzzing!

Green Bay: Scott Kooistra St. Paul: John McGrail

Green Bay, February 28: Scott Kooistra has once again taken a prestigious championship! This Yankton, South Dakota Life Master nailed the 478-pegger MGM Open in Green Bay, WI, and with the 379 MRP's earned vaults back into 2nd place (lifetime) nationally.

Scott ran a 21-5 run in the playoffs to win the championship, $3,000, and a sizeable clock for his wall in South Dakota.

Local Larry Lagassie needed 3 skunks in a row (games 20, 21, and 22) to qualify for the playoffs...and he did exactly that! Then he ran a good run of cards into 2nd place, $2,000, and 316 MRP's. Moose Biegler, West Bend, WI, finished 3rd, followed by Wayne Steinmetz, Milwaukee, WI in 4th.

Local Joe Beaster took top qualifying honors with a nifty 40 (16) +399...and some $825 Q money.

The consolation drew 228 players, and Harvey Cohen, Milwaukee captured this title, followed by Don Tofte, Madison, WI in 2nd, Richard Hefty, Madison, in 3rd, and local "Buzz Peters in 4th.

Green Bay is a hot bed for doubles action, and once gain, huge crowds played Friday and Saturday nights. R. Cornell and M. Hook took the Friday action (20, (9) +151) and took home $1,100. Saturday night's doubles saw P. & J. Healey post a 21 (9) +165 to take home the marbles.

Bay City, Michigan's "Wink" Birch captured the Friday "high roller" event ($1,000), and Saturday night's singles action was won by Ted Hokenson, Marquette, MI (21 (9) +182. The Sunday "last chance" was won by Life Master DeLynn Colvert, Missoula, MT.

Once again, Tom Gallagher, Jerry Lemke, and Bob Miller ran a smooth event, aided by a fine staff. This tournament remains the largest in the Central Region.

Guest Columnist

Scott Kooistra, Executive Vice-President

How many times have you reached the last few games of a qualifying round and said, "I need to skunk 'em all to qualify!" Well, it happened in Green Bay at the MGHM tournament. Larry Lagassie of Green Bay had a 19 GP card with three to play and went skunk, skunk, skunk, for a total of 28. He qualified 118th out of 120, and the next day finished 2nd in the tournament!

Why do cribbage players always turn over their scorecards? At Reno, 22 out of 24 players at my table had their scorecards face down. It's probably a good practice, because it could potentially influence how a game is played. However, I always wonder if anyone is hiding something.

My thoughts on the issue of spectators watching championship matches. I like the National Open in Raleigh method of ringing the entire championship table with chairs about 8-10 feet behind the players. Spectators can still watch the match but they won't be right on top of the players. If there isn't sufficient space, I'm in favor of keeping the on-lookers away.

A big statement for all players: when you have enough points to win, make sure to peg out! I've already seen three players in the past month forget to peg out and they have lost their points. Be proud to win the game. Show your pride by pegging out.

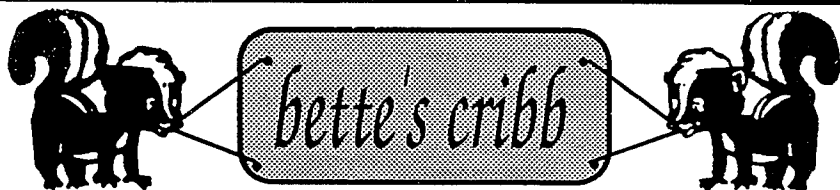

As an avid collector of baseball cards, I am amazed at the growth of trading cards these days. You can collect golf cards, hockey cards, soap opera cards, etc. How about cribbage trading cards? Personally, I would trade a Sondericker and Michaelis for a Colvert and the stick of gum today.

Charles Brown a Marine!

Charles Brown was reported to be a member of the United States Air Force in last month's issue of Cribbage World. No way! He is in the Marine Corps...and is now happily pegging away on Okinawa with his wife, Lori.

A Stick of Gum?

In response to Scott's column above... my grandmother told me that if I went to college that someday I'd amount to something. At last! I'm worth a stick of gum! Keep pegging, everyone!

St. Paul: John McGrail

St. Paul, MN, March 7: John McGrail, Elgin, IL, came north to St. Paul and took the Capital City Open, besting some 158 players in the process. John picked up some 160 MRP's and $1,200 to make the weekend well worthwhile. Local Ed Blecker finished 2nd and with the 152 MRP's earned vaulted over the 2,000 MRP plateau and earned his Master rating. Bob Chase, Crystal, MN took 3rd, followed by local Larry Meath in 4th.

Shelley Vadnais, Oakdale, MN had the hot hand in the qualifying round, posting a nifty 36 (17) +259.

The "All Events" race ended in a tie with Jim Jeffers, and Boyd Lundquist both posting 56 GP's. Jeffers hails from Green Bay, and Lundquist hails from Lakeville, MN.

The Friday "early bird" was won by Ron Morgan, who made a long trek from Missoula, MT to pick up some $600 with a 16 (7) +134 score. James "Tubby" Dahl, Blair, WI nailed the Saturday night game, posting 18 (8) +198.

110 peggers stayed for the consolation, and Bill Cook, Rhinelander, WI came away with the title, followed by Al Mahowald, Carver, MN, in 2nd. Newton, Iowa's Larry Loupee and Seymour WI's Lloyd Kraft are both Master peggers and by finishing 3rd and 4th, maintain their spots in the top 100 nationally (lifetime).

Director Ron Hamilton and his fine staff ran a first class tournament...and a "tune-up" for 1994's Grand National.

Plumas Stokes Takes Willows Title

Master pegger Plumas Stokes, Quincy, CA, nipped Sundae Webb (another Master), Antioch, CA, in the final match to capture the 116-pegger 12th Annual Willows Open, in Willows, CA, February 20. Clyde Ross, Grass Valley, CA took 3rd, and Barbara Ruiz, San Lorenzo, CA finished 4th.

Anne Matti Takes Orlando Open

Naples FL's Ann Matti captured the 3rd Annual Orlando Open February 28...and this edition set a new high in attendance with some 144 peggers!

A relative newcomer to tournament play, Anne played with precision, and nailed her last two matches 3-1 and 4-0 to win going away!

Her husband, Gaylord, is no stranger to play, however. He will direct the upcoming Madison Masters Classic XV, with assistance from co-director Jerry Dickinson.

Clarification of Renege Rule

When a renege occurs, there is a two-point penalty for each card that singly could have been played. In other words, if the count is "25" and a player holds a 4 and a 3 and says "go," he or she has committed a 4-point penalty. If the count is "22" and a player says "go" with a 7, 8, and 9 in his or her hand, the penalty is SIX points. Both cases occurred in the past month. When you have a card under or equal to 31, you must play it or suffer a penalty.

See the new Rule Book, Rule VII, Section 3A.

Northwest Open Features Rare Double-Double Lea Horbeck, Carol Holt Clean Up in Baker City

Lea Hornbeck, Washougal, WA, and Carol Holt, Portland, OR, made a clean sweep of the recent 16th Annual Northwest Open. Lea was top qualifier, and finished 1st in the playoffs, and Carol was the 2nd high qualifier, and finished 2nd in the playoffs.

Master pegger Otto Bartholow, Boise, ID, changed the format somewhat, as he struggled to the 30th qualifying (and last) position, then warmed up in the playoffs and finished 3rd, edging perennial winner (and Master pegger) Paul Hatcher in the 3-4 playoff. Hatcher hails from Salem, OR, and with the 90 MRP's earned for 4th, throws his hat into the MRP race for the 1993 year, standing near the top nationally with nearly 700 points.

118 peggers played for the championship, and an impressive 88 stayed around for the consolation. Doug Brown, a Master pegger from Pasco, WA claimed this title, edging Charlotte

Springer, Summerville, OR, in the final match. Henry Carle made a long trek south from Anchorage, Alaska, and with his third place money, helped pay for the trip. Roger Lueschow, Maple Valley, WA, finished 4th.

In the early birds, local Steve Palmer took the Friday "timepasser," Bo and Clarence Van Orsow, Redmond and Culver, OR, snared the doubles, and Bernie Saueressig, Richland, WA grabbed the "high rollers." Jo Evans, Richland, WA, won the Saturday special.

This was the 16th edition of this match...making it the longest running tournament in the Northwest...and Rob Palmer has been the director from day one. All events ran smoothly, attesting to his long experience of tournament managing. And, as usual, Marvis Reynolds did her fine job of assisting with the bookwork.

Cribbage Can Be a Hazardous Sport

Leslie Hein, Washougal, WA, was busily pegging away at the recent Northwest Open, when one of her custom jeweled pegs came undone...a jeweled top came loose.

Betty Capper, Hermiston, OR, sells these pegs, and she asked Leslie to come outside to her motorhome, and she would "super glue" it back into place.

She did that in fine shape...but, horrors, she glued her fingers together! Her husband, Ken, walked in and found Betty gingerly slicing her fingers apart with a steak knife. The story has a happy ending, as not too much hide was taken off. What next?

19 GP's...and Lose!

On February 10 Marge Schoolland, Belmont, MI, scored a whopping 19 GP's in a Grand Rapids, MI, Club 71 match (9 games)...and lost!

Jeff Shimp, Grand Master and USA's 14th ranked player picked that night to show his stuff...and topped this 19 GP card with a HUGE 22 GP card. Nine straight wins, complete with four skunks. Take a look at this once in a lifetime card below:

Buron Temple Tops 226 Players in Oregon

Springfield, Oregon's Burton Temple topped 226 peggers at the recent Oregon Championship in Prineville, and came away with $1,100 and some 240 MRP's.

Paula Lowrey from nearby Bend, OR came close and finished 2nd, taking home a nifty $800.

Ken Capper, Hermiston, OR, earned a spot on last year's Western Region All-Star team, and is making another run for the team by finishing 3rd...and picking up 219 MRP's. Bob Nunamaker, Sunriver, OR finished 4th.

Jeff Studnick, Madras, OR, had the hot hand in the qualifying round, besting the 226 players...and picking up a nifty 80 MRP's and the top Q prize.

A sizeable 144 peggers stayed around for the consolation event, with Don Jurgens, St. Paul, MN coming away the winner. Local Russ Rhoden finished 2nd, Bob Herrmann, Bend, OR, 3rd, and Jeff Monroe, the ACC's Membership Chairman from Napa, CA, took home 4th.

In the early birds, Darrell Hoffman, Eugene, OR took the high-roller and in the doubles event, Carroll and Anthony Shadley took home the marbles.

Director Joe Nelson once again conducted a well-run tournament, with able assistance from Marvis Reynolds, and other members of his staff. Nelson's trophy boards are coveted far and wide, and, again, he awarded a sizeable number. Nelson, along with Rob Palmer of Baker City, have a long, colorful, history of organized cribbage in Oregon.

New Criteria

Hall of Fame Election Procedures

New criteria for possible election to the ACC Hall of Fame was adopted by the board of directors at its meeting in Reno February 4.

Three mandatory qualifications are required:

1- Be an ACC member in good standing for seven (7) consecutive years, or have been a member for a minimum of five (5) consecutive years until death intervened.

2- Have displayed and complied with the rules of ethical play.

3- Have displayed and complied with the standards of good sportsmanship.

In addition, to be eligible for nomination, a candidate is required to meet at least three (3) of the following optional criteria:

1- He or she must have promoted the game of Cribbage and served the ACC by specific acts of accomplishment.

2- Established his/her expertise by being rated a Master player or higher in ACC sanctioned tournament competition.

3- Established his/her expertise by being rated a Bronze award recipient or higher in Grass Roots competition.

4- Served as a Tournament Director, or Co-Director, of an ACC sanctioned tournament for a minimum of five (5) years.

5- Served as a Grass Roots Club Director for a minimum of five (5) years.

6- Served as a member of the Board of Directors of the ACC for a minimum of four (4) years.

Any exceptions to or exemptions from the above criteria must be initiated by a current member of the ACC Board of Directors. (Under the ACC membership requirement, Sir John Suckling--founder of the noble game--and several other non-member Hall of Famers could not have been able to be nominated or elected.)

This new criteria goes into effect immediately for Hall of Fame voting by the BOD at its July meeting in Raleigh.

Any member of the ACC may submit a written nomination, following the listed criteria. Deadline for submission of nominations for 1993 requires a May 15, 1993 postmark.

Nominations should be sent to the Hall of Fame Ballot Committee, c/o Chairman Lee Norris, 380 Davisville Road, N. Kingston, RI 02852. Other members of the committee, who will prepare the ballot for the board's annual meeting, include Larry Loupee, Newton, IA, and Bev Sauer, Portland, OR.

Next year, the same nominating procedures will be followed, but a change in the voting structure will see a mail vote conducted by the Hall of Fame Ballot Committee, with voting extended to ACC Directors, all sanctioned tournament Directors, and all active Grass Roots Club Directors (those on record as of August 1 the previous year).

They may cast votes for any or all of the nominees, with a 75% majority vote required for election to the Hall of Fame. Inductions, as usual, will take place at the annual Grand National tournament held every September.

The new criteria was developed for Board consideration by six directors headed by Norris and including Loupee, Sauer, Joe Ramos of West Warwick, RI; Fred Dettling of Aurora, CO; and Jim Waldorf of Madras, OR.

New Invitational United States Invitational Championship

Larry Samet, Scott Kooistra, and Jeff Monroe are organizing an invitational match that they feel will more fairly crown a winner.

The format: The top 100 (lifetime) plus the top 15 from each Region (not in the top 100, lifetime) will be invited. Entry fee is $250, plus $50 for a second half of the tourney. Entrants will play a 32-game round on Friday before the Grand National. 18 games before the BOD meeting, and 14 games after. The top 16 will play a playoff match against one Regional opponent at a time and place by agreement (or as designated by the 3 directors) after the Grand National and before the ACC Open. Eight winners play a match at the ACC Open. The remaining four winners after this match play a match at their choosing. The two winners play a final match at the National Open in Raleigh (or by agreement). The rounds of 16 and 8 consist of a best of 30 games, and must win by two games. The round of 4, best of 35 games, and must win by two games. The final round: best of 45 games, winning by three games.

Based on 96 entrants, prizes are projected to be: 1st- $7,500, 2nd- $4,500, 3rd, 4th- $2,000, 5th- 8th- $1,000, and 9th-16th- $500 each. The $50 fund would be divided among the players with the best record in the last 16 games, as a separate and additional fund. Entry fees will be kept in a interest-bearing account, with interest to defray expenses. Extra money given in prizes or to the ACC.

Co-director Samet believes this style of play will crown a true champion, and offers a rare opportunity for major head-to-head play. More information will be printed in Cribbage World as it becomes available.

Any members having questions, contact: Larry Samet, 14 Webb Ave., Wellesley Hills, MA 02181. Call (617) 237 1256...or other co-directors. In addition to Scott Kooistra and Jeff Monroe, secondary directors are Bob McCabe, Martha Fingleton, and Bill Shoemaker, whose job would be primarily to substitute in a decision involving one of the three directors as a player.

Minnesotan Todd Schaefer has topped the field in the "Keller Teaser" contest and has come up with a whopping 172 points for the 8-hands in the puzzle (see diagram). Jim Arblaster, Cribbage World's first editor, writes that this contest was run years ago, and Robert Read, Winter Garden, FL, submitted the winning score of 171 points...but Todd squeezed another point and is the Grand Champion!

Larry Lee Hassett Wants Rule Book Articles

Roseburg, OR, pegger Larry Hassett has been going over the new Rule Book, and has several questions. He asks for a possible monthly article for readers to present their questions concerning our rules...and perhaps get an official ruling from our senior judges.

He presents a couple of questions: Rule VII, Section 3a "Reneged." If a player discovers they have "reneged," before the card is played (after a "go" has been pegged) is there a two-point penalty? The card should be dead.

Rule VIII, Section 5a "Pegging from 1st to 4th street;" if a player on a long board incorrectly pegs from 2nd to 3rd, does the same ruling apply (they lose their score)?

Rule VIII, Section 5b "Removing both pegs of not on 4th street;" what happens if a player inadvertently removes both pegs on 4th street (and is not claiming the game)?

Senior judges, send Cribbage World the rules that apply...and do we need a monthly article on our Rules? Larry feels it should raise the awareness of ACC members and improve the quality of play.

Correction on Mandatory ACC Membership

Cribbage World has kept its string of issues with typographical errors intact! Last month Cribbage World reported that the BOD voted mandatory membership for all sanctioned tournaments starting with the 1993 season. Oops...it will take effect for the 1994 season!

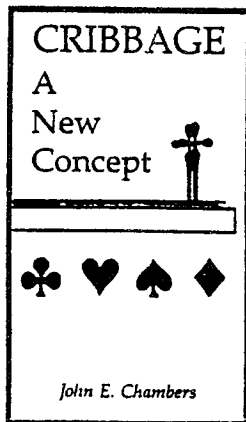

The reason: Many tournaments have already been sanctioned under the old guidelines, and would cause hard feelings to change the rules in midstream. But mark your calendars: beginning on August 1, 1994, you must be a member to participate in a sanctioned tournament!

Letters to the editor...

Kudos, ACC Open Helpers!

We would like to thank all of the 862 players for their participation and cooperation at this year's JPW/ACC Open in Reno. One of the most stressful times at a large tournament comes when it is first starting and everyone needs to get seated so that empty seats can be filled in. We thought that everyone was very prompt in doing this and it sure helped us to keep to the time schedule as closely as we could.

We feel that the tournament ran pretty smoothly and was a lot of fun. We really enjoyed it and also learned a lot along the way. We thank everyone who took the time to come up to us or write us and tell us they enjoyed themselves.

As you all must know, it takes a lot of help to run such a large tournament, and we had some great volunteer help. We would like to give special thanks to these people, who gave so much of their time and energy: Elda Madsen and the registration committee, Jim Rein and the set-up committee, and Jeff Shimp and the judging committee. Also to DeLynn Colvert, who designed and made the bracket boards, which made the play-offs run so efficiently. And to Joan Rein and Martha Fingleton for their encouragement and help before and during the tournament. And to four special volunteers who were always there to help: Bob Michaelis, Sue Temple, Jack Miller, and Liz Truman. Also to Barbara Woodward and the staff at the Sands, who are great people to work with. And last, but certainly not least, to our co-director, Scott Kooistra, for lots of reasons, but mostly for just being Scott.

Jack of Hearts Starter 5 In A Row!

As I go you will see that I am not much on writing. I have a couple of things to tell about. I have been playing cribbage for 30 years and I have been a member of the ACC since 1983. I have also played in a few sanctioned tournaments. I am 68 years old, retired railroader. Since I retired, I started playing at the Walbridge VFW club. A friend on mine named Arnold Lillje started playing also, and now we have several members playing. Now I will get to my letter.

Arnold Lillje and I were playing and we cut the jack of hearts five times in a row! I don't know if that means anything! The BIG reason for this letter is on February 18, 1993, I was playing Bill Renz and I was dealt the jack of diamonds, 5 of spades, 5 of hearts, and the 5 of clubs. I told Bill "You cut the right card and I will have the perfect hand!" He said "How about the five of diamonds?" I said "You done it!" Everyone at the post was happy, but not as happy as I was! I have never had one before. I do not have a "29" cap that I got N. C. I am going to send for a 29 pin. After I read Cribbage World, I take it to the VFW. They enjoy reading it. If possible, maybe you could mention their name. Thank you very much.

Arlin Clendenning Honored

Arlin Clendenning passed away recently in Reno...and his Club 43 members have named this club "Clendenning's Clan."

Thanks to Jay Snyder for this information.

True Champion and Gentleman

I would like to congratulate Bertram Temple for his recent 1st place win in the Oregon State Cribbage Championship held in Prineville, February 14 & 15.

His enthusiasm and honest display of pure pleasure was refreshing in a competition that too often takes on a solemn tone.

Bertram is a true champion and a gentleman. I hope we have an opportunity for a re-match someday.

Eldon Schwilke Sponsors Grand National Trophy

Spokane's Eldon Schwilke is one of the ACC's toughest competitors....and he even brings his own dealer along to give his opponent's a break. He is also a great sport, and he proves this by donating a trophy to the upcoming Grand National XII, to be played in Missoula, Montana September 24, 25, and 26.

Is It Ever Appropriate To Lead a 5?

The answer, of course, is yes, and shown below are a number of cases where it is not only appropriate but a very, very wise thing to do:

When being ahead makes you feel guilty.

When you have a plane to catch real soon.

When you are coming down 4th street in the tournament deciding game and your opponent's wife, girl friend, or mother has a cup of steaming hot coffee poised precariously over your lap.

When you have foolishly taken the lead in a game with your boss.

When your opponent casually mentions that he is an auditor with the IRS in your district and thinks he vaguely remembers seeing a name like yours in his work-load just before he left for the tourney.

When your opponent is obviously of Italian heritage and lets it be known that he or she can make a phone call.

When you are the only Christian in a Muslim tournament and you have heard the word "jihad" being bantered about.

When a thoughtful wife is trying to improve her losing husband's self esteem.

When, after a long tournament, the only people remaining for the final tourney-winning game are dressed in black leather jackets, jeans, with chains and motorcycle boots, and they all seem to be friends of your opponent.

When you are unlucky enough to have to play your wife or girl friend in the final 8 and do not wish to remain celibate for the next 12 months.

There are, of course, a few times when leading a 5 is a good idea, but they deal strictly with the mechanics of the game and you probably know them already anyway.

Jesse Jarrell, David Clemmey Take MRP Lead

Jesse Jarrell, Life Master pegger from Pittsburg, CA has taken the national MRP lead by qualifying 11th and finishing 6th in the 226-pegger Oregon Championship in February. These results have not been posted in our latest MRP list, but Jesse has taken the lead for this cribbage year, standing at 981 (unofficial).

David Clemmey, Mansfield, MA, earned his Master rating and a bundle of MRP's in winning the largest tournament in cribbage's history at Reno February 7, and is hot on Jarrell's heels with 940 MRP's.

Two Western Region players are running third and fourth: Life Master Delynn Colvert, Missoula, MT (835: unofficial), and Ken Cochlin, Kennewick, WA (770: unofficial).

Scott Kooistra's win at the huge MGM Open in Green Bay will undoubtedly give him some 700+ MRP's...and fifth place nationally. Doug Page, Little Chute, WI, also maintains a 700+ MRP season, and 6th place.

Only four months remain in this cribbage year, and many large tournaments are yet to be played. The MRP king will probably be crowned at the National Open in Raleigh in late July once again. Keep pegging!
