212 Peggers in Brocton

Michael Hutchko Nails South Shore Classic

One of the nation's top one-day tournaments is the South Shore Classic, played in Brockton, MA, March 28. Some 212 peggers picked 'em up and laid 'em down...and after the smoke had cleared, only Michael Hutchko remained undefeated in the playoffs. This Hanover, MA pegger picked up a nifty purse and a sizeable 234 MRP's (after qualifying 23rd) in claiming the championship.

Ted Diamond (Randolph, MA) took 2nd, and some 207 MRP's. Rhode Island pegger Ken Patenaude (Cumberland) finished 3rd, followed by Vincent Ciccone, Quincy, MA.

The hot hand in the qualifying round was held by Jeffrey Del Santo, Warwick, RI, and with the large crowd, picked up 73 MRP's.

136 peggers stayed around for the consolation, and Wilma MacDonald, Avon, MA, came away the winner, picking up 110 MRP's in the process. K. C. Finley, Enfield, CT, is usually in the money, and once again he scored...picking up 2nd. Ed Forand, Rochester, MA, nailed 3rd, and Donald Graveline, Allston, MA finished 4th.

Ford Jewer, Wakefield, RI, finished 20th, and with the 64 MRP's, wings it over the 600 mark for this cribbage year, keeping alive his All-American hopes. Another top Eastern Region player, Joe Ramos, West Warwick, RI, finished 23rd, and with the 47 MRP's earned, wings it to the 550 range for the year, also keeping his All-American hopes alive.

David Clemmey, Mansfield, MA, scored 63 MRP's in the consolation (12th), and is near the 1,000 MRP mark, standing 3rd nationally (Jesse Jarrell, Pittsburg, CA leads, with Paul Hatcher, Salem, OR in 2nd place)

Director George Webb plans on renewing this event next year, with play scheduled for April 3, 1994.

Depressing News...Our Obituaries

Every month, as your editor, I have the depressing duties to announce the untimely deaths of our members.

Many of our members are retired senior citizens, and, of course, as father time marches on, the grim reaper steps in from time to time and takes another pegger.

This month's issue is more painful than most, as I lost one of my best friends...Milo Roinstad. Milo and I had travelled together throughout the western USA the past 10 years, happily pegging at all stops. We had a wonderful time. At every tournament we renewed our friendships. And we tried our best to win Master Points and prize money (and see who would buy dinner on the way home). But win or lose, the pegging was most enjoyable.

Early on, as Milo and I began our cribbage quest, we would meet the young guys from Baker, OR, at tournaments throughout the northwest. The peggers from my hometown were much older than the "Baker Boys" but we challenged them to a qualifying round match anyway. We usually had five vs. five...and so began the team events in the northwest.

And as the years ticked by, we had many pleasant trips. Old man "Murphy" would always come up with something new for Milo and myself.

So, with his passing I am deeply saddened. But, hey, without cribbage and the American Cribbage Congress, his last few years would never have been as exciting and fun! The ACC membership gave him joy and many friendships during his last years.

We have lost many members lately. John Schuch, Jack Crawford, Martha Grady, Carroll Shadley, Kenneth Klatt, Robert Einhorn, and others. All great sports and fun-loving peggers. Some attained honors, and others simply pegged in their home town...but I'm sure that their lives were enriched by the comradie of the American Cribbage Congress.

And in Milo's case, his last wish was for all donations in his memory be given to the American Cribbage Congress!

Perhaps I shouldn't be too depressed after all! With this wish, Milo proves to me that he did, indeed, enjoy his last years pegging on the "cribbage trail."

And as I go down that "cribbage trail" I see many other senior citizens having the experiences that Milo and I had. I tip my hat to the American Cribbage Congress! Keep pegging!

MRP Race Tightens

Paul Hatcher Wins Washington Championship

Paul Hatcher, Salem, OR, won All-American honors in 1991, finishing that cribbage year in 4th place with some 1,069 MRP's. With four months to go in this cribbage year, Hatcher has reached 1,050+ and is a serious contender for national championship honors. Only Jesse Jarrell, the Pittsburg, CA king of cribbage has scored more MRP's this cribbage year.

Hatcher won the Blue Mountain Open in September for his first sanctioned win ever, followed that with a Goblins & Ghosts win in October, and now has his third sanctioned event championship in one cribbage year by winning the 156-pegger Washington State championship in Richland, WA, on March 28.

Gary Motley another former All-American from Gresham, OR, took 2nd in Richland, followed by Ed Kern, a veteran pegger from Missoula, MT. Big Bob Brumley, Sunnyside, WA copped 4th.

The cream came to the top in this event as yet another All-American, Roy Hofbauer, topped the field in the qualifying round with a fine 38 GP score.

Another perennial winner, Ray Hanes (Walla Walla, WA) took the consolation event, with Denny Van Orsow, Culver, OR, in 2nd, Bob Rendall, Kennewick, WA, 3rd, and Sue Temple, an excellent pegger from Beaverton, OR in 4th.

Local Jim Hartung nailed the Saturday night "high-roller" crowd to help pay for his wrecked Lincoln (Murphy's Law did him in at the Baker City tourney, again. Years ago a bird dumped on him during play in Baker City...and this year his car was badly dinged!).

Willie and Jo Evans once again ran a fine tournament, ably assisted by Sophie Nelson.

Luanne Felstet Takes Montana Open

Last January, Luanne Felstet (Missoula, MT) topped all players in the qualifying round at Portland's Winter Open, but, alas, lost her first round playoff. At the recent 108-pegger Montana Open, she went all the way to the championship, picking up $800 and a nifty 120 MRP's to boot!

Local Steve Clarke took 2nd in his first sanctioned event, followed by Evon Forrest, Florence, MT, and Jeanne Hofbauer, an excellent travelling pegger from Washougal, WA.

Local John Hill (his license plate: MR CRIB) had the high qualifying score...a nice 37 GP's.

Darrel Miotke, Sublimity, OR, took the consolation event, followed by locals Bud Clarke in 2nd and Gus Johnson in 3rd. Ed Ristom, El Paso, TX finished 4th.

Another local, Henry Popham, nailed the "high rollers." His cards have come alive lately, and is a player to watch. The Doubles event was won by the Ed Dickinson clan from Enumclaw, WA; the Saturday special by local Dean Field; and the last chance by Chris Burrell, the Libby, MT, king of cribbage. Chris has a habit of waiting until this last chance event to show his stuff, and has won several of these events.

Minutes recorded by Joan Rein.

Mikulsky, Schisel Earn Master

John Hiland Continues Streak, Takes Tri-Cities Open

West Allis, WI, pegger John Hiland has been on a streak lately, and at the recent Tri-Cities Open in Marinette, WI, he continued his roll with a hard-earned victory. With 166 peggers on hand, only 42 qualified for the playoffs...and John took the 42nd and last spot, then rolled on for his win! The 180 MRP's earned gives Hiland a shot at All-American honors for this cribbage year, running his total to some 700.

Francis Froelich, Green Bay, WI, came close, but had to settle for 2nd. Dave Bartlett, Milwaukee, WI, took 3rd, followed by D. A. Jeffers, New London, WI, in 4th.

Eugene Mikulsky, Sobieski, WI, qualified 4th (50 MRP's) and finished 6th (135 MRP's) to wing it over the 2,000 lifetime MRP mark to earn the ACC's 145th Master award. A short time later in the consolation event, Deb Schisel, Kenosha, WI, picked up 13 MRP's for a 9-16 finish and became the 146th Master pegger. Deb has made a fine run the past three years, and earned this award in near-record time.

Life Master Joe Bernard, the Libertyville, IL, king of cribbage, continues his winning ways by picking up the consolation crown...and another 60 MRP's. Bryan Conklin, Abrams, WI, took 2nd, followed by D. M. Peterson (Pound, WI) and James Duresky (Richmond, VA).

Four 28 hands were scored...but no 29's. Tom Stehlik, Helen Railsback, Bryan Conklin, and Ellen Swenson all picked up this 15,028-1 longshot

Director Robert Michaelis reported an oddity. Last year's event drew 166 players...and this number was matched again this year. In addition, $249 was donated to the Salvation Army by the players.

Locals Cop Palmetto Classic

Merritt Frazier, John Ranne Take Honors in South Carolina

The locals took on all comers and came away winners at the recent Palmetto Classic in Columbia, SC. Merritt Frazier nailed the 92-pegger main event, and John Ranne topped the 72-pegger consolation.

Jim Duresky, a top pegger from Richmond, VA, has been seen far and wide pegging this season, and he racked up another bundle of MRP's with a 2nd place finish in the main event, keeping alive his chances for All-American honors this cribbage year (600 MRP's).

Fran Ward, Cary, NC, took 3rd, and Jim Hartley, a former National Open winner (1975) finished 4th. Jim hails from Wake Forest, NC.

In the consolation, Bob Gombatz, a perennial winner from Raleigh, NC finished 2nd, followed by Ted Depizol, Winter Springs, NC, and Joy Barnes, DeLand, FL, in 4th. Joy was the 1991 Grand National winner.

Richard Kerr, Ruthersford, NC topped the field in the qualifying round.

Director Al Odom reports this tourney will be held again next March.

Ray Baenen and Don Clark Play Marathon Game

Two tough peggers from Libby, MT...Ray Baenen and Don Clark...recently played a marathon game. How did the game go? An example is one deal: both hands were zero and the crib also scored zero! A very rare happening, indeed!

Nevertheless, Don teaches some 18 to 20 children cribbage at the local school every quarter. Let's hope he teaches them to score a few points every hand. Some of our qualifying rounds take a little too long as it is!

New Masters

Louine Lyda David Clemmey Ed Bloom Ed Blecker

Louine Lyda, Forest Grove, OR, picked up 35 MRP's by qualifying 10th, and went on to a 14th place finish in January's Portland Open to wing it over the 2,000 MRP mark to earn the 140th Master rating awarded by the ACC. Louine finished the 1992 season rated 9th in the Western Region.

David Clemmey, Mansfield, MA, won the world's largest cribbage tournament in Reno last month (ACC Open) and with the 500+ MRP's easily earned his Master rating...and also took over the nation's MRP lead for this cribbage year.

Ed Bloom, Cupertino, CA, has scored some 245 MRP's this cribbage year, and becomes the 142nd ACC player to earn Master. An excellent pegger, Ed is always a threat to win any event.

Ed Blecker, Roseville, MN, recently finished 2nd at the Capital City Open in St. Paul, earning some 152 MRP's and his Master rating (No. 143). Ed hasn't been on the "trail" as much as in the early days of the ACC, but he is still a formidable opponent, attesting by this fine 2nd place finish (of 158 peggers).

Mattie Young Hosts Inaugural Lilac City Open

Spokane's Mattie Young has travelled far and wide to do a little pegging...and now she will bring organized cribbage to Spokane, WA. She will host the first ever sanctioned event in Spokane June 25, 26, and 27. And she's doing it up right...the games will be at the Playfair Race Course! Now that's a new one...lose at cribbage, then give the horses a try!

Bob McCabe Scores 28-Crib

At the Capital City Open in St. Paul, ACC President Bob McCabe scored a very rare 28-CRIB! Local Karen Cummings discarded a 5-10 and was burned with a 5 cut, after Bob had discarded two 5's.

Ron Oila Dealt Worthless 28-Hand

Bob McCabe scored his 28-crib, but Ron Oila, Virginia, MN, was dealt his first 28-hand ever, needing 26 to win with first count. Alas, his opponent pegged 6 and out before Ron could score this gem! Keep pegging Ron!

In Memoriam

John L. (Jack) Crawford Aurora, Colorado

Jack loved a good game of cribbage and played on a daily basis. He passed away March 24. His love for the game will go with him as he had his cribbage board and a 29-hand placed in his coffin. His good sportsmanship will be long remembered by his many Colorado friends.

Martha Grady St. Cloud, Minnesota

On Saturday, February 26, fellow pegger and good friend Martha Grady passed away from cancer. She will be sorely missed by her many friends of Club 94, St. Cloud, MN.

Bridgett Wright Scores 29-Hand

Bridgett Wright, El Cajon, CA, cut the 5 of spades on March 9th...and scored the first 29-hand in the five year history of GR Club 79! The hand was dealt by Bridgett's father, Bill. He has played 60 years...and never had one!

Bridgett picked up $127 for this gem, wiping out the skunk jar for $27, and picking up another $100 from club member Tom Ridley (Tom pays members $100 for a 29-hand, and $50 for a 28-hand).

3 More 29 Hands

Charlotte Brady Scores 29-hand in 1st Tournament Game!

Sandra Stroup, Constantine Harmacey Hit Gem

Charlotte Brady, Rochester, NY scored an unbelievable 29-hand in her very first tournament game! Pegging in the recent Western New York Open, Charlotte drew this 216,580 to 1 longshot to begin her tournament career with a bang!

Constantine Harmacey, Englewood, FL, scored a 29-hand in the 3rd Annual Orlando Open February 27...the 9th of this cribbage year.

Sandra Stroup scored her gem at the Warren L. Swett Open March 13. This Elgin, IL, pegger will receive $100 from the ACC for this sanctioned gem. All three of these peggers, in addition to the $100 award, will receive a framed award at this year's Grand National Banquet in Missoula (September 25).

Editor's note: I'm stunned that Charlotte scored a 29-hand in her first tournament game! I've played 7,437 sanctioned games...and never had one!

Dick Schurkus Wins Abbreviated Western New York Open

Due to a winter storm two weeks previous to the scheduled Western New York Open, the tournament had to be re-scheduled to a one day tournament. A record 96 players had signed on, but with old man winter playing havoc, only 56 showed for the one-day meet.

In Memoriam

Milo Roinstad

Missoula, Montana (McMinnville, OR)
Milo passed away April 2 after suffering a brain tumor. Milo was a fun-loving player who played on the Northwest circuit, fully enjoying the camaraderie of our ACC membership. Milo's last wish was that all donations made in his memory be payable to the American Cribbage Congress.

Robert B. Einhorn

Melrose Park, Pennsylvania
Robert suffered a heart attack in early April and passed away. He was a founder and only President of the Mid-Atlantic Cribbage Society (Grass Roots Club 115). He was an ACC Senior Judge, and also conducted cribbage classes in local schools. A charter member from Pennsylvania, he will be long remembered by his many friends.

John Schuch 144th Master Pegger

Last month's Cribbage World reported that at the time of John Schuch's untimely death he had scored 1995 MRP's. However, Statistician Robert McCabe tallied 2,005 MRP's to John's credit, earning him the 144th Master rating awarded by the American Cribbage Congress.

Great Team Score Recorded In Richland

In the Northwest, 5-person team play is very popular, and almost all tournaments in this area run a team event.

At the recent Washington Championship, the team of Roy Hofbauer (39GP's), Jeanne Hofbauer (32), Lea Hornbeck (38), Sylvia Hornbeck (25), and Sue Temple (30) posted a near-record 164 GP's (110 games total). Years ago, a team comprised of Clarence Van Orsow, Bo Van Orsow, Ray Van Orsow, Denny Van Orsow, and Frank Symons scored 167 GP's (in Prineville, OR) and they barely held on to their bragging rights!

Northwest Players Support Grand National XII

The Northwest Region is supporting the upcoming Grand National XII in grand style! The following players and clubs have sponsored a trophy ($25 ea.):

Dorothy Conroy
Forest Grove, Oregon

Eldon Schwilke
Spokane, Washington

Roy, Jeanne, & Jason Hofbauer
Washougal, Washington

Paul Hatcher & Ron Morgan
Salem, Oregon - Missoula, Montana

Helena Grass Roots Club 25 (2 trophies)
Helena, Montana

Willie & Jo Evans - Towne Crier (2 trophies)
Richland, Washington

Baker City Grass Rooters - Gene & Betty Sissel
Baker City, Oregon (2 trophies)

Judy Pilatti - Tyrone's Barber Shop
Missoula, Montana

Directors DeLynn Colvert and Rex Paddock are sailing along with plans for this event...and with support from our membership for trophies, plus the many volunteers for helping in other areas, Grand National XII should be a good one! At least, players will not see their entry fees paying for trophies!

If other players would like to sponsor a trophy, or advertise in the Grand National XII program (see March Cribbage World, page 13), write to:

Horror Story!

As all our ACC players well know, the cards can turn on you with a vengeance...and this happened to Prineville OR's David Isaacson at the Oregon Championship in February. He scored a 2 (1) -318 card in the 22-game qualifying round. And David is an excellent player...he finished 8th (of 310 players) in the 1989 Oregon Championship. Some days the cribbage gods simply have no heart!

Beverlee and Harvey Honeycutt Win $1,000

Beverlee and Harvey Honeycutt won a cool $1,000 in the doubles competition at the recent Washington State Championship in Richland, WA. Harvey is no stranger to fat purses, as he collected the grand prize at the Grand National in Prineville, OR in 1989.

Bragging Rights Go To Helene Sontag

In last month's issue of Cribbage World, Jeff Shimp, Shelbyville, MI, had his excellent 9-game score card reproduced...a 22 (9) +194 grand slam!

Last year in Vacaville, CA, Helene Sontag did a tad bit better...a super 22 (9) +201 (see below). As we all well know, the first story teller simply has no chance! Congratulations, Helene!

In Memoriam

Carroll Shadley

Madras, Oregon

Carroll died unexpectedly of a heart attack at age 59. An avid pegger and great sport, Carroll will be missed by his many Western Region friends.

Kenneth C. Klatt

Tripp, South Dakota, and Englewood, Florida
Ken passed away in March, and will be greatly missed by his club 29. Ken was a true gentleman and a great cribbage player.

Jack Davis

Raleigh, North Carolina

Jack was a long time ACC member, a member of GR #58 (Raleigh) and a pegger for 18 years. He died March 10. His wife, Dot, and Sons Eric and Bruce are also veteran tournament players. Jack will be sorely missed by his many friends.

Dog in a Manger?

Amos Olstead, Helena, MT, has come up with a new description of a cribbage hand: "Dog in a manger."

What does this mean? Why, it's a lonesome five in a hand that does not add to the count! The single five is the dog!

Action in Last Chance Gulch

Wayne Wyman Cops Helena, MT Crown

Late notice: Helena, MT: Wayne Wyman, Billings, MT took home all the marbles at the recent Capital City Classic, taking his last match 3-0 to win going away! Sharon Hejtmanek (1987 Montana Champion), Missoula, MT, took 2nd. Henry Popham, Missoula, MT has been on a roll lately and won the consolation. Veteran peggers Gene and Judy Branson, St. Regis, MT, nailed the early bird doubles, and All-American Paul Hatcher, Salem, OR, took the Saturday night game (but, alas, no MRP's to add to his title run).

Historical Information Concerning the American Cribbage Congress? Ken Cambell is THE man!

Ken Cambell is our ACC's archivist, and he has been busily compiling our history via old Cribbage Worlds, newspaper articles, and other sundry items.

Grass Roots Club 28 Humming

Jim Bailey, one of Portland, OR's charter members of Grass Roots club 28, has returned to action after an absence of several years to earn his Ph.D. His renewed membership gives him the honor of being member number 100! This club is really humming!

Tribulations of a Traveling Tournament Player

As editor, I cannot resist a little story concerning Robbie Robson (San Jose, CA), Ron Morgan, Missoula, MT, and myself (DeLynn Colvert, Missoula, MT) and our stay at the Ramada Inn in St. Paul, MN.

First, I couldn't get ESPN on the TV, and after many frustrating trials, gave up and called for the maintenance man. He arrived and asked me which channel was giving trouble. "ESPN...I simply can't get a picture...nothing but snow," I replied.

The maintenance man clicked the remote control...and presto! ESPN came on crisp and clear. Shaking his head in amusement, he departed.

Later the same day, Robbie flushed the toilet, and the chain came loose and the end went down the drain pipe. Despite much tugging by both Robbie and Ron, the chain simply wouldn't come loose.

Another call for the maintenance man. Upon arriving, he looked at the chain down the pipe, and as quickly as a wink, he pulled the chain from the pipe (with his little pinky and thumb) and reattached it to the handle. Now he really gave the three of us a long, curious look!

I don't know about Robbie and Ron, but I wouldn't call that man again if a meteorite came through the ceiling.

Such is life on the cribbage trail.

Brad Cordes Hot in Portland

Portland's Brad Cordes is burning up the Grass Roots track and has set new records for this club. Averaging 13.44 game points per session, he has taken the lead for this cribbage season, standing at 121 points. Rollie Duyck, Cornelius, OR, stands an outside chance of catching Brad...but his 101 points gives him a real challenge!

Don't Distract Playoffs Players

Evon Forrest, Florence, MT, wrote a lengthy letter concerning her recent Montana Open playoff match.

Her fifth and deciding game of a playoff match was interrupted by a co-director, asking the two players to speed up, as this lower bracket match was 1 1/2 hours behind the upper bracket. Evon feels that this interruption caused her concentration to slip, leading to a loss. In addition, she feels the delay was not her fault, as all her matches went the full 5 games.

Directors: be extra careful (and extra tactful) when confronted with this dilemma.

8th Annual National Team Championship THE High Roller Event

The 8th playing of the 3-player National Team Championship will take place in Nashua, NH, on Saturday, June 5.

Although the entry fee is $105 per player, the winning team members are guaranteed $1,000 each, based on 13 teams entering. Every contestant will play at least 24 games, and possibly 27 or 30, depending on the number of teams playing. Any player needing another player, or two more, can be matched up accordingly by the director.

This event will be followed starting Saturday evening by the $100 entry fee, 4th Annual Granite State Classic, which will also play all day Sunday in a double elimination format.

For entry forms and information, write: Director Joe Seigle, 825 Flanders Rd., Coventry, CT 06238, or call (203) 742-7234. Co-director: Al Miller (603) 882-7204.

Dave Ritchey Throws Hat Into MRP Race, Cops Virginia Beach Classic

Orange City, FL's Dave Ritchey nailed the 122-pegger Virginia Beach Classic...and with the 140 MRP's earned, joins the 1993 season MRP All-American race. His total now stands at 667, giving him a shot at top-ten honors.

Ed Benbow, Oriental, NC, finished a nifty 2nd. George Taylor, Swansea, MA, is making MRP waves this cribbage year also, and with a 3rd place finish, runs his total to nearly 500. Jim Townsend, Raleigh, NC, finished 4th.

Peter Lerch, Fayetteville, scored the top qualifying score, and went on to finish 14th.

Andy Hulcher (Richmond, VA) took the 78-pegger consolation event (and 44 MRP's), followed by Marion Castagna (Alexandria, VA), local Bill Arnold, and Ted Dick (Raleigh, NC).

Old pro Al Odom, Cayce, SC took the Saturday night event, local Ed Horigan won the "Rising Tide" event, but, alas, no MRP's in this non-sanctioned event. Ed is running hot this cribbage year, standing at nearly 800 points. Lucille Simpson, the travelling whiz from Lewiston, NY nailed the high roller event to more than pay for her trip! Ken Goss, McLean, VA, took the 56-pegger Ebb Tide.

Director Jack Howsare plans to play this event again next February.

Jack Howsare Knows How to Follow-Up

Director Jack Howsare of the recent Virginia Beach Classic was host to 122 peggers...and he followed up the tournament with a complete report. All players who even received one Master Point (consolation included) were listed in a clear, concise manner! All winners of satellite events were listed, as well as a financial statement.

Phillip Babcock, our ACC publicist, sent Cribbage World a copy! Keep up the good work, Jack!

You are invited to attend the 7th annual Veterans Day Cribbage Classic at the Sands Regency, to benefit the Veterans Family Relief Fund, a non-profit organization founded to assist Veterans and their families.

Our Funds have made a big difference in the way our proud Veterans are laid to rest. Through your support it has been possible for us to donate funds to the Veterans Cemetery in Fernley, Nevada to once again help with items not provided by the government. We have also supported the local Firing Squad, of which Bill is a member, which attends Veterans' funerals in full dress uniform, providing a proper military burial. Sadly, they are often the only people in attendance.

You can continue to support us in our efforts by attending the Independence Day Cribbage Classic. Once again the Sands Regency will be adding $1,300 to the prize fund, and paying all tournament expenses. They have also "held the line" once again, and are offering hotel rooms at last year's $49 rate. And don't forget the $1,000 bonus for a 29 hand!

We've added a special CRY BABY tournament on Sunday afternoon/evening and hope you will all stay over until Monday and enjoy this fun event with us.

Let's all get together for a fun weekend at the Sands Regency "Peggin' for Vets." As usual, we'll award lots of cash and terrific trophies. If you have any questions please call us at 702-358-4916, or call Barbara Woodward at the Sands Regency, 702-348-2200. See you in Reno!

Dalton Grass Roots #109 Strikes Again!

At George Webb's South Shore Classic in Brocton, MA, last Sunday, March 28th, (216 players) Grass Roots #109 swept the field again.

Mike Hutchko came in first. Ted Diamond came in 2nd. Wilma MacDonald won the consolation tournament.

How about that!!

Director #109*

Information on odds losing the cut for deal 14 times in a row, using simple math.

Example: suppose you were cutting for a penny. First cut you put up a penny, pone puts up a penny. Your odds are 1 to 1, even money. The 2nd cut, after losing, you put up the penny you lost plus one. Odds are 2-1. Third, you put up 3 pennies you lost plus 1. Odds 4 to 1. Fourth cut you put up the 7 coins you lost plus one. Odds 8-1. Fifth: put up 15 plus one. Odds are 16 to 1, etc. to the 14th cut. Odds are 8,192 to 1.

Keep practicing cutting!

More Cribbage/Blackjack hands

Just thought I'd write and add a couple hands to Russell Adams' list of cribbage/blackjack hands: A-A-A-A-8 = 12, 2-2-2-2-4 = 12, and also A-A-2-2-2 = 8. (The first two are legitimate, but the 3rd would more likely be 18...that, or take another hit.

Bah, Humbug! Dealer has NO Advantage!

I thought maybe you might be interested in this side note for Cribbage World.

Dealer has advantage.

I play Cnute Holmes, a charter member, 13 games each week. We alternate deals. He was 0-7, I was 1-6. Dealer also got skunked two times.

How about that? The dealer had one win, 15 losses, counting skunks. So much for dealer advantage!

"Tiered" Tournament? First One Ever!

The ACC has approved a one-time exception which will give Grass Roots and infrequent players an improved chance to cash and even be a winner.

The rank and file by meeting lifetime Master Point peers only in the qualifying round will have a far better chance to qualify and cash. The "Masters" and other players who usually dominate the playoff rounds will have the unique chance to play one another while qualifying play takes place. Players with few or no Master Points will be playing one another.

The August 27, 28, 29 Providence, RI New England Championship Peer Tournament will be advertised in a future Cribbage World. See "Tournament Trail," this issue, for further details.

10-Year Old Carly Davis Wins!

Jerry Hauf from up in the Land of the Midnight Sun recently ran a junior tournament in his home town of Juneau, Alaska. Though the numbers were few, the Iditarod Race holds nothing over these young, scrappy, persistent peggers at the Marie Drake Middle School in Juneau.

The winner was Carly Davis, 10 years old, who "mushed" across the finish line into the game hole ahead of 2nd place finisher Tiara Hauf, 12 years old. Chris Johnson, also 12, finished 3rd ahead of 8 year old Jerrod Harvey.

Jerry wants to thank middle school teacher Didi Ryall and the Juneau School District for their assistance, and Oliver's Trophies for the nifty first place trophy that Carly took home.

Jerry plans to run another tournament soon, hoping to attract more players. My best wishes go out to Jerry and all his junior peggers to keep on pegging!

Three More 170's

The "Keller Teaser" was solved last month by Todd Schaefer, Oakdale, MN. He scored a whopping 172 points with the 8 hands.

Three more 170's arrived late...but alas, a couple of points short. Nevertheless these players came close:

Bed and Breakfast...and Cribbage?

Coventry, CT, Bed and Breakfast establishments are featuring a little cribbage with their beds and breakfasts. The Maple Hill Farm, Bird in Hand, and Mill Brook Farm, recently featured a little cribbage as part of their entertainment.

Sounds like a nice way to get away from the everyday rush and do a little relaxing...and pegging. If you are in the Connecticut area, you might give these establishments a call.

136 Peggers

Bruce Corson Takes The Cranberries

Marlboro, MA's Bruce Corson walked away with the cranberries, 1st place, and some 140 MRP's in besting 136 peggers at the recent Cape Cod Cranberry Clash in Wareham, MA.

Joe Ramos, hard-working member of the ACC's BOD and the Grass Roots program, took the weekend off and finished 2nd...and added some 130 MRP's to run his 1993 season totals to almost 500. This will place Joe in the Eastern Region's top ten. This perennial winner hails from West Warwick, RI.

Teri McCall, Medway, MA, finished a fine 3rd, and Arthur Martin, Northboro, MA took 4th.

Pat Llewellyn, Bellingham, MA had the hot hand in the qualifying round, topping the field.

Napoleon Soares, Brocton, MA captured the consolation crown, besting some 87 participants. Ann Somers, Bellingham, MA finished 2nd, followed by Charles Rapoza, Brocton, MA, in 3rd (and he will move up a notch or two with his near 400 MRP's for the year). James Ready, Stoughton, MA took 4th.

Director James Clemmey reported $136 ($1 per player) donated to the Children's Hospital. Clemmey also reports this tournament will be scheduled again next year.

Jesse Jarrell, Paul Hatcher, David Clemmey National MRP Leaders

Jesse Jarrell, Life Master from Pittsburg, CA, has taken the MRP lead for the 1993 cribbage season with an unofficial 1,216 MRP's. Jesse scored 49 MRP's in Fresno, and tacked on another 90 in San Ramon that have not been posted in this month's list.

Paul Hatcher, Salem, OR, has been burning up the track the last few months, scoring three sanctioned wins, and stands 2nd (unofficially) with some 1,061 MRP's.

David Clemmey, Mansfield, MA, holds down 3rd place, with nearly 1,000 MRP's. His win at the huge JPW/ACC Open in Reno, plus other high finishes in the Eastern Region are keeping his national championship hopes alive.

Only three months remain in this cribbage year...but many tournaments remain to be played. The most notable will be the upcoming Independence Day Classic in Reno and the National Open in Raleigh. Both tournaments are expecting 400 or more players. The National Open (July 24-26) will probably, once again, decide who will be our national champion for 1993.
