AMERICAN CRIBBAGE CONGRESS

JPW/ACC Open Showcase's Congress

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

With the upcoming Joseph Petrus Wergin/ACC Open and Tournament of Champions "showcasing" the American Cribbage Congress, this is a great time to make a drive for new members.

Harry Kantas, a cribbage buff in Beaverton, OR, and author of GR club 28's newsletter, is a trained typographer and has great equipment (a 600 dpi printer, for example) to produce quality work. And best of all, he has volunteered to type-set custom ads for your local group for FREE! However, you must use his basic format (shown in right hand column), modified with your local information.

The ad was designed by Harry to run as a 2" newspaper ad. This ad was run in a local Oregon newspaper and the response was great. According to Harry, 57 replies were made and they're still coming in.

So, with proven success, and with the right price (free), the American Cribbage Congress urges clubs and cribbage groups to use Harry's services. And if you are an individual with a hankering to play some local cribbage, this might be an easy way to get a group started!

If you want this ad, just call or write Harry Kantas, 13155 SW Combine Ct., Beaverton, OR 97008-8051. (503) 524-8452. But, in all fairness, you must be serious about placing an ad...we don't want to overwhelm Harry with work that will not be used. With this ad, Harry might prove to be the single greatest ACC recruiter in the 15-year history of the Congress!

The President's Column

Everett "Ev" Bey

As promised when elected President, I have been out waving the ACC flag at various tournaments around the U. S.

It's been a pleasure meeting and greeting members and cribbage enthusiasts, but I'm disappointed that they show no respect for the office of President...they all seem to take great delight in beating me at the grand ol' game. One unnamed soul at the Buffalo, NY tournament even went so far as to double-skunk Ye Olde Prez!

As you read in last month's issue of Cribbage World, nobody was elected to the Cribbage Hall of Fame this year. That's unfortunate, because we had five deserving nominees and there are many more out there in Cribbage-land who are equally deserving of recognition.

This was the first year that we used a new system of nominating and voting, opening it up for a wider representation rather than just confining it to participation by the Board of Directors.

Nominations can now be made by any member (see rules printed in Nov. '94 Cribbage World), with voting expanded to include directors of sanctioned tournaments and Grass Roots club directors as well as board members.

According to Pat Barrett, chairman of the Hall of Fame committee, there were 248 eligible voters and yet only 151 voted, a disappointing 61% showing.

109 tournament directors have been certified to vote, with only 59 participating, a 55% showing. The regional breakdown showed the following voting patterns: Eastern, 29 eligible, 19 voting...66%; Central, 15 voting out of 21 eligible, 71%; Western, 25 of 59, a lowly 42%.

109 Grass Roots directors didn't have much of a better voting record. Overall, they showed 61% participation, with only 66 voting. Regionally, the Eastern region had 21 out of 32 voting, 66%; Central, 10 of 14, 71%; and Western, 35 of 63, only 56%.

In all instances, the West is the group which largely failed to participate. To be elected to the Hall of Fame, candidates must obtain a 75% affirmative vote. Two of five nominees, Robert "Mick" Michaelis and Jeff Monroe, came within scant percentage points of being elected. With greater voting participation, they probably could have attained that honor.

It seems to me that when someone is nominated for the Hall of Fame, it is incumbent on the nominator to publicize and promote his or her candidate by supplying background information to the board members, tournament directors and Grass Roots leaders who will be voting. There's got to be follow-through to accomplish the task.

Let's try to do better next year!

Finally, we won a beautiful cribbage board at the recent Longest Beach Cribbage Classic held at Long Beach, WA, but when we got home we found that the holes had not been drilled. Designer Joe Nelson must have figured that we didn't need any holes, the way we've been playing lately.

Keep peggin'...Ev Bey

Russell Nelsen Tops 376 In Reno

Russell Nelsen makes Scottsdale, Arizona his home...and three times a year he plays his cribbage at Reno's Sands Casino...and three times a year he carts off a wad of greenbacks (or so it seems). The recent Veteran's Day Classic is an example of his expertise on the boards, as this Master pegger once again took home the bacon ($2,500 and 319 MRP's).

Gary Sand, a Northwest pegger from Spokane, WA, has been on a roll for six months or so...and he continues to pile up MRP's (and $$$) as he came in a nifty 2nd.

Two-time All-American Paul Hatcher, the Salem, OR, bomber finished third...and grabbed the unofficial MRP lead for the 1995 season, as this pegger has piled up a whopping 600+ points for the year, and is off and winging for another outstanding year. Not only did Paul score some 300 MRP's in this match, he earned his Grand Master award, topping the 4,000 MRP mark.

And Greg Schleusner, Truckee, CA's premier pegger also earned his Grand Master with a fine 4th place finish.

And yet another Grand Master was earned when Steve Reynolds, Concord, CA, nailed the qualifying round with a top-qualifying 39 (18) +268.

Sundae Webb-Wiley, Antioch, CA, came away with her Grand Master early in the Main Event, as she continues her fine ACC play.

Statistician Bob McCabe will confirm these MRP numbers (and others who earned Master in this huge tournament) as soon as possible. The ratings are unofficial until posted.

234 peggers signed on for the Consolation, and Tim Hutsell, Crescent City, CA took the top prize, followed by Rob Foy, Benicia, CA, Pete Paradis, Santa Maria, CA, and Ken Koch, Blaine, WA.

R. T. Connelly, the world-travelling pegger from Yountville, CA, took advantage of the ACC's new scoring rule for Consolation play.

R. T. nailed a super 22-GP card (10 games) in qualifying to pick up some 42 MRP's.

In the Early Bird Doubles, John Thiems, Winston, OR, teamed with Ed Park, Roseburg, OR, to win this event...and cart off some $1,000!

Two Life Masters took home the marbles in the Saturday Night High Rollers...Jesse Jarrell, Pittsburg, CA, took home the $800 first prize, and One-Star Mick Michaelis, Marinette, WI took 2nd.

Once again the veterans benefited from this huge tournament. Director's Dorthalee and Bill Irons, with able help from a host of volunteers kept the tournament moving smoothly. The Sands Hotel/Casino were great hosts, providing the usual coffee and cakes...and a new game: a Keno 25-card tournament (scored by computer while the peggers were in action with their cribbage).

Jim Morelan Has No Respect

Little Canada's (MN) Jim Morelan has no respect. Cribbage World left his name off the final Master Point List in the September issue. Jim scored a nifty 329 MRP's for the 1994 year...finishing 51st in the Central Region.

Bumper Crop!

2 New Life Masters

5 New Grand Masters

10 New Masters

Al Miller, Syl Lulinski

Top 6,000 MRP's

Al Miller, Nashua, NH, and Syl Lulinski, LaGrange Park, IL, have topped the 6,000 MRP mark and become Life Masters 13 and 14. The American Cribbage Congress has been very stingy in passing out this honor...and in the 15-year history of the Congress only a handful of players have reached this plateau.

Officially, 5 players have attained Grand Master...and another four unofficially have made the grade at the Reno match (see story, page 3). The players who have attained the 4,000 MRP mark (officially) and Grand Master are:

Emil Chrabaszcz, Ware, MA (31)

George Bickford, W. Springfield, MA (32)

Bill Medeiros, Shrewsbury, MA (33)

Jeff Monroe, Napa, CA (34)

Jim Fabian, Naperville, IL (35)

1995 appears to be producing a bumper crop of players attaining honors with their play. Already this fledgling year some 12 players have earned Master. In addition to Verne Nielsen, and Jack Holt (reported last month) the following players have cracked the 2,000 MRP barrier and are Masters:

Clarence Van Orsow, Culver, OR (199)

Frank Ornie, Forest Grove, OR (200)

Doug Page, Appleton, WI (201)

Don Hilton, Hood River, OR (202)

Darrel Miotke, Sublimity, OR (203)

Dick Ogden, Des Moines, IA (204)

Jim Nohrden, Aurora, CO (205)

Aggie Mikulsky, Sobieski, WI (206)

Roger Wilson, Boulder, CO (207)

Louis Caccia, Newtonville, MA (208)

John Russo Donates Trophies

John Russo's Awards Unlimited of Somerville, NH, donated trophies for the recent New Hampshire Open according to Al Miller's nifty 206-pegger tournament report. This thorough report even listed the $20 winners of 28-hands: Dan Iler, Jean Taylor, Lou Petosa, and Doris Perkins. Keep 'em pegging, Al!

Charlie Ball Wins $215, Refuses To Mount Sailfish

Charlie Ball, Everett, WA, was a member of the cribbage cruise to Mexico...and when the ship made port in Mazatlan for a few hours, Charlie chartered a fishing boat to try his luck at landing a sailfish.

Lo and behold, he hooked onto a whopper. After a fierce struggle, Charlie landed a 9' 6" sailfish, weighing in at 130 pounds. After the ritual of having his photo taken with the fish, Charlie asked how much it would cost to mount the fish and ship it to his Washington home.

Only $1,000! Oops, Charlie only won $215 playing cribbage aboard the cruise ship Jubilee...and he lamely explained to Cribbage World editor DeLynn Colvert "Hey, I'm over the hill and I don't have enough bragging time left to make it worth it!"

Oh well, the Mexican fishermen were happy with the donated fish.

Cribbage Cruise Tidbits

The cribbage players were busy setting up play in a public area aboard the Jubilee when a lady walked by and eyed the pile of cribbage boards. She earnestly inquired "Is this where they play bingo?"

Well, the only cribbage players yelling "bingo" were Linda Swiontek and Duane Toll...everytime a cut card was turned!

And every skunk recorded on the cruise cost $1 (put into a pot with the skunk's name on it). After a week of furious pegging, some $119 was in the pot...and Mary Herrmann, San Ramon, CA, won the drawing...adding to her $170 won during the week!

Cruise winners:

Mexican Open: Linda Swiontek (CA)

Consolation: Duane Toll (WI)

Saturday Doubles: Betty Nolz (OR)

Saturday Singles: Margaret Elson (IA)

Monday Singles: Paul Nolz (OR)

Tuesday Singles: Linda Swiontek (CA)

Skill or Luck?

Proposed National Match Play Tournament Offers $10,000 Top Prize

A never-ending argument as to whether cribbage is a game of skill...or a game of luck will soon be answered (?) if a proposed National Match Play Tournament gets off the ground and running.

Jeff Monroe, Roy Hofbauer, Warren Sondericker, Duane Toll, Larry Samet, and Bill Shoemaker are planning a unique event...a 64-player national match with a $500 entry fee.

First two rounds feature matches that would be in the player's geographical area. The format would be a best of 25 game match (but must win by TWO games), cut for deal, alternate deal thereafter. Muggins will be played.

The final rounds of 16 and 8 are 30 game matches (again, winning by TWO games). The final four round is a 35-game match (must win by TWO), and the final two would play a 45-game match (winning by THREE games).

Each round would be played within a two-month time frame. Matches will be arranged at a later date, and may be played at sanctioned tournaments (a day early or a day after).

The proposed prize fund:

1st- $10,000; 2nd- $7,000; 3-4- $3,500, 5-8- $1,000; and 9-16- $500.

If you wish to play in this Granddaddy of High Rollers, write or call Larry Samet, 5 Westminster Circle, Wellesley, MA 02181. (617) 237-1256. If enough interest is shown, Larry will present the proposal to the upcoming Board of Director's meeting in Reno February 2.

Letters to the editor...

Youth Cribbage Program

I am excited! Today (Oct. 15) I received my 20th request for the manual to teach groups of youths cribbage. As I see it now, let's suppose that 15 out of 20 recipients do indeed go into the classroom and do some teaching, and let's say the average class size is 25 students. A simple calculation tells me that 375 new cribbage players will be enthusiastically moving their pegs around a board. But let's not stop here. What if 1 in 10 of these new players teaches a friend or family member? Now we're up to 412. Let's also assume that the folks who taught cribbage to kids had such a satisfying experience (almost a guarantee), that they choose to do it again this year. Looking at the same ratios as before, we've approached the 824 mark. But wait! Let's make one more assumption; that within this time frame another ten teachers appear on the scene. Once again using the same numbers as before, there's another 275 students, making a grand total of 1,099 new cribbage players in one year alone! Far fetched? I should say not! If anything, I believe these numbers are quite conservative.

If you're currently working with youth, I encourage you to write Cribbage World and share your positive experiences. If you're not involved in a youth program, please consider it. The Youth Movement Is On!!!

Waudby's Christmas Card to all Cribbage Lovers

Merry Christmas

May the Game Gods smile on you now and forever

Dear Cribbage Lovers,

I have been trying, unsuccessfully, to put a Cribbage Club Directory together that contains all the active cribbage clubs in the 50 states. If the Directory is to be a success, I need a Christmas card from each club that contains the following information:

1- Club Number if Grass Roots (GR) or N/A if not GR and the name of the city you play in.

2- Name, address and phone number of a Cribbage Lover in your club.

3- The address and phone number of the Chamber of Commerce (C of C) in the city you play in or the name, etc., of a back-up. Then provide the C of C with the address and the phone of where you play and update it if it changes.

4- The months, day(s) and time(s) your club plays.

Example:

139 Lompoc, CA
George B. Waudby
408 N. Daisy
Lompoc, CA
(805) 736-6096

C of C of Lompoc
111 South I. St.
Lompoc, CA 93436
(805) 736-4567
Tue, 6:30 PM
Jan. thru Dec.

If you respond to this request and want a copy of the Directory, the cost is $2.00. I will deduct the cost for reproduction and mailing copies of the Directory to those that want one. The balance will be used to start a fund to get computer program(s) for ACC and Grass Roots reporting (I appreciate everything Jeff Monroe has done and I'd like to help him...thanks, Jeff).

I'd like an input by December 25, 1994, so that I can have the Directory available by the Reno tournament in February, 1995.

If you love cribbage as much as I do and respond to this request the Cribbage Gods are already smiling on us.

Any donations to the Computer Program Fund will be appreciated and you can duplicate a copy of the Cribbage Club Directory I send out. I am looking for help on the 2nd Edition of the Directory if this one is successful.

Merry Christmas
and the BEST to each of you

Two Competitive Brothers

On October 24, in Spokane, Washington, Grass Roots Club 198 peggers were busily pegging away when Harold Aubrey yelled "28-hand!" Indeed, it was that rare gem...that 15,028 to 1 longshot! Moments later, Harold's brother Joe scored yet another 28-hand! What next?

...And TWO Sanctioned 29's

174 peggers were on hand at the Capital City Classic in Salem, OR and in two days of sanctioned pegging NO 28 hands were scored. With the sizeable number of peggers, this was, indeed, a rarity.

But TWO 29 hands were scored!

Rollie Heath (who has a knack of getting his name in CW) scored the first sanctioned 29 of the cribbage year in the Main Event. And this was his 2nd 29-hand in October! He has been pegging for many years and never had this gem...and two in the same month! Rollie hails from Lincoln City, OR.

The next day, Dorothy Westerlund, Sherwood, OR, scored the 2nd 29-hand in the Consolation. Only two 29's scored nationwide...and both in the same tournament.

Last month's issue of CW had 13-year old Alex Lillo scoring a 29. Indeed he did...but alas, he is not a member of the ACC.

Cribbage Hall Of Famer Dies Raymond "Rasty" Rasmussen

The 8th member of the Cribbage Hall of Fame...Raymond "Rasty" Rasmussen passed away recently at the age of 92.

His home was Anamosa, Iowa for the past 9 years, having lived the remainder of his life in Marshalltown.

"Rasty" was elected to the the Hall of Fame in 1987. His claim to cribbage fame was his long run as director of cribbage tournaments at the Iowa State Fair. The peggers always had a good time at his affairs...and many of the prizes were groceries. He had many ways to win a can of corn! He will be long remembered by his many pegging friends.

He is survived by his wife, Lillian.

Grass Roots Club 72 Has Strange Night

Tuesday, October 4, we had two very special things happen. The first was a 29-hand scored by Dr. Robert Leikin of Longmeadow, MA. The second was a perfect card for the night (9 wins) by Charlie Finley of Enfield, CT.

I don't know the odds of both of these things occurring on the same night, but I wanted to share this special night with Cribbage World.

*Jim Russell
Longmeadow, MA*

Jim, if you want the odds of a 29-hand happening at a club meeting during a 9-game match, multiply the number of players x 90 (each player will play about 90 hands per 9-game match). Now take 216,580 and divide by that number. Disregard crib hands. That is your odds of a 29-hand scored that night. The odds of Charlie Finley winning 9 in a row? Knowing Charlie, the odds are even! Ed.

Hurricane Gordon Wreaks Havoc in Orlando

We just completed our Jim Arblaster Florida Open. We literally brought down the ceiling. They had a rainstorm come through and apparently it leaked into the ceiling. With the insulation up there and the ceiling tiles filling with water there first started a drip, then some of the pieces started to fall. The maintenance people came and took down the tile that looked the worst. Of course some of the people had to move, because of the dripping, etc. Well, after the Cry baby the people had just moved and another section of ceiling fell. Fortunately, no one was around, but it did make a large bang.

As another aside to the tournament, Roberta and Frank Schweig came. Roberta needed just TWO Master Points to reach her Masters. Wouldn't you know it. Only ONE point earned!!! Oh well, Frank came in 2nd to make up for what Roberta couldn't do. Guess I'd better not say anything sexist!!!

Cribbage Boards Galore!

According to Bette's Cribb (ad this issue), one of the new members in the Cribbage Boards Collector's Society is seriously dedicated to preserving the history of the cribbage board. He has documented nearly 200 that have been manufactured commercially.

Bette and her editor, Dave Ziphin, are exploring the possibility of publishing a book on this subject. If any of our members have information on the manufacturing of cribbage boards, send them to: Bette's Cribb, Box 170, Carolina, RI 02812.

As for boards made as a hobby...Cribbage World wouldn't even estimate the thousands of styles that have been made. In the Northwest, Joe Nelson, Ken Capper, DeLynn Colvert, and Ralph Hart have contributed many styles...and many others have drilled countless others. Ivory, horns, bowling pins, driftwood, aluminum, steel, countless varieties of wood, plastic...you name it...and players have drilled it!

1995 MRP Race Heats Up George Bickford Out Front

Eastern Region Tournament Commissioner George Bickford (W. Springfield, MA) has been tattooing Eastern Region matches with regularity, and combined with a 9-16 finish at Grand National XIII, has taken the national MRP lead with a sizeable 655 points. Out west, Paul Hatcher, Salem, OR, has unofficially garnered over 600 MRP's after finishing 3rd at the recent huge (376 peggers) Reno match. Greg Schleusner (Truckee, CA) and Darrel Miotke (Sublimity, OR) are unofficially over the 500 mark with high finishes in Reno...and last year's champ, Bob Julian, Milwaukee, WI, is off and running once again and is also at the 500 mark. Ed Horigan, Virginia Beach, VA, is keeping pace with the pack with several fine finishes.

The 1995 season is off to a record pace. Tournament play is up nationwide and the MRP's scored reflect this volume with many, many players already over the 300 mark. This season may well prove to be a record setter! The competition for top ten honors should be a very competitive one. Anyone hoping for honors this year will certainly have to keep their suitcases packed...and moving!
