*Rookie Director Pat Llewellyn's
Inaugural Tourney Draws Huge Crowd*

Joan Morrison Wins Tri-Valley Open Stan Babiec Nails 136-Pegger Consolation

Medway, MA, March 13: In her first tournament as a director, Pat Llewellyn rounded up a huge crowd of 192 peggers...a number that would give even an experienced director a workout...and she came through with flying colors!

And Joan Morrison also came through with flying colors, as this South Boston pegger came away with the championship and 200 Master Rating Points...and a boodle of greenbacks!

Romolo Picciandra, Mansfield, MA, took 2nd, followed by J. J. Rooney, Randolph, MA, and Harry Palmer, the newly crowned Life Master from W. Springfield, MA, finished 4th.

The hot hand in the qualifying round belonged to Rose Chase, N. Kingston, RI, taking home the top "Q" prize...and 67 MRP's.

One of the Eastern Region's top MRP leaders...Rit Alkas (Manchester, CT) qualified 7th, and finished 21st, to take home 89 MRP's and earned the 25th Grand Master rating bestowed by the ACC. Another Eastern Region leader...Ed Horigan (Virginia Beach, VA)...finished 12th and stands at the 800 mark for this season. Bill Medeiros, Shrewsbury, MA, picked up 157 MRP's for a 6th place finish, and stands at the 650 mark for this season's play.

Stan Babiec, N. Dartmouth, MA, won the 136-pegger Consolation event, and with the 70 MRP's earned will make a move in the Eastern Region's top 50. Bob LeDoux, Marlborough, MA, took 2nd, followed by Ray Desmarais, Johnston, RI, and Elmer Tole, Walpole, NH.

Edward Donahue Scores 29-Hand

The 10th 29-hand of this cribbage season was scored by Mansfield, MA's Edward Donahue. He needed the five of diamonds...and up it came, nailing this 216,580 to 1 long shot. In addition, this gem will be worth $100 from the ACC. Eric Corriveau, Fred Doyle, Donald Graveline, and Frank Reddy scored 28-hands.

Pat Llewellyn reported some $478 was donated to the local VA Medical Center...and, believe it or not...will reschedule this event again next March 12, 1995!

Rookie Richard Brault Rolls On Stan Babiec Tops 182 in Brocton

Stan Babiec, No. Dartmouth, MA, held the hot hand in the playoffs at the recent South Shore Classic In Brocton, MA, and picked up the championship...and a nifty 205 MRP's. The win will move Babiec well up in the top 50 in the Eastern Region, as well as an automatic invite to next year's Tournament of Champions.

Tour rookie Richard Brault, Palmer, MA, made a vow to make an extra effort to become one of the few players to earn top ten honors their first tournament year, and he qualified 8th and finished 2nd, earning yet another 235 MRP's to run his yearly total to nearly 600...keeping alive his chances for top ten.

Jeff Del Santo, Warwick, RI picked up third place, and Eastern Region Commissioner George Bickford not only finished 4th, but qualified 4th. This W. Springfield, MA pegger nailed a sizeable 230 MRP's in a successful weekend of pegging.

Eastern Region MRP leader Tony DeiTufio qualified 13th, earning 47 MRP's (topping 1,000), keeping his hat in the ring for national honors.

Stephen Ryan (Warwick, RI) had the hot hand in the qualifying round, edging another top Eastern Region player for this honor...Al Dinwoodie, Coventry, RI.

114 peggers stayed for the Consolation and Leo Labadini, E. Boston, MA, took home the marbles, followed by Ed Ciccone (Braintree, MA), local Napoleon Soares, and Arthur Thomas, Marshfield, MA, in 2nd, 3rd and 4th.

Rit Alkas nailed 5th and with the 41 MRP's zips over the 700 mark for this cribbage year.

Director George Webb reported a successful tournament, and will schedule this event, once again, March 26, 1995. Mark your calendars.

Richard Bett Tops In New York

Hamburg's Richard Bett nailed the championship at the recent 44-pegger Western New York Open, played in Buffalo.

Canadian Frank Bodogh (St. Catherines, ON) makes a habit of coming across the border and taking "Yankee" prize money home, as he once again was in the money, finishing 2nd.

And that travelling pegger, Lucille Simpson, stayed home this time around, finishing 3rd, followed by Dick Amos, Burnham, PA in 4th.

Nelson Weaton, Hamburg, NY, topped the field in the qualifying round with 24 GP's, 11 wins, 2 skunks.

Karen Davies, another Canadian from Hamilton, ON, nailed the Consolation, with tournament director Shamus O'Connor taking 2nd.

Dee Dries scored the 8th 29-hand of the season at the huge JPW/ACC Open in Reno, and all Milt Dries could do in Buffalo was come up with the only 28-hand...and a framable award. Dee came away with $100...and a framed award. Keep pegging, Milt!

Shamus O'Connor continues to lead the way in New York, running a friendly tournament with excellent paybacks.

Mike Buzzard, Jim Douglas Tops At Talking Bird

The talking bird of the Talking Bird Tavern did not distract Mike Buzzard and Jim Douglas, as they took honors for the 1993-94 season in St. Regis, MT.

Cribbage World Purchases FAX

The Board of Director's meeting in Reno voted to purchase a FAX machine for use by Cribbage World. The present editor of Cribbage World (DeLynn Colvert) reports this will considerably ease his time involved in receiving FAX messages, as it required a 10-mile round trip to pick up FAXES at a commercial establishment in Missoula.

The Cribbage World FAX number:

Chief Solano Open John Jensen Tops 138

John Jensen, Los Altos, CA, won the 138-pegger Chief Solano Open in Fairfield, CA, March 12. Dale Kochenburg, San Jose, CA finished 2nd, followed by local June Kindelt and Rick Rickmeyer, Concord, CA, in 3rd and 4th. Director Geo, Halterman does not play Consolations.

Marg Stellmacher Doesn't Play Fair!

Marg Stellmacher does her pegging for the Polish Open GRClub 90 in Appleton, WI...and she doesn't play fair!

On January 25 she scored THREE 24-point hands against Curt Kryszak! And we all know, that simply isn't fair! To Curt's credit, however, he did escape a skunk!

New Judges: Robert Carl Edward Ecclestone Earle Remington

Chief Examiner Al Miller has qualified the following as new Certified Judges:

Robert Carl, Rapid City, SD

Edward Ecclestone, Sacramento, CA

Earle Remington, Cumberland, RI

As a reminder to take the ACC Judges examination, send $3 to Al Miller, 12 Michael Ave., Nashua, NH 03062-1418.

Classroom Cribbage Alive and Well in Portland

With the help of Anne Williams, Ray Van Orsow, Dot Mickow, Bunny Lewis, Jack and Carol Holt, the kids in the Portland area are getting an earful of "15-2, 15-4, and a pair is 6..." as they regularly teach a class on cribbage.

And Ken Capper, Hermiston, OR, has supplied these classes with a donation of 32 of his cribbage boards! Keep 'em peggin!

Doug Brown Wins Washington Championship

Master pegger Doug Brown, Pasco, WA, zipped over to Richland and carted off the huge Washington Championship trophy, $1,300, and 160 MRP's.

Roger Lueschow, Maple Valley, WA, also carted off a nice trophy for a fine 2nd place finish. And so did two other Washington peggers...Jim Keeling (Spokane), and Jim Sime (Kennewick)...for finishing 3rd and 4th.

And yet another Washington pegger took home the top "Q" prize as Clifford Allen (Spokane) posted a super 39 GP's to take honors in the qualifying round.

But the Consolation belonged to the out-of-staters as Sharon Hejtmanek (Missoula, MT) captured this event, followed by Mary McKinney (Stanfield, OR), Life Master DeLynn Colvert (Missoula, MT), and Pat Ward (Kirkland, WA).

The Early Bird Doubles paid a nifty $1,000 to Anne Williams and Bob Watkins. These two Portland players easily paid for their weekend as they posted a great 21 (9) 3-skunk card, in this 10-game match.

Nearby Sunnyside, WA's Bob Brumley once again intimidated the High Roller crowd with his fiery red beard and mammoth biceps to take the $900 prize home...and no one complained (at least not within Bob's earshot)!

The other Saturday night game was taken by Greg Van Metre, Sunnyside, WA, with a 12 (5) +101 in this 7-game match.

And our "Rodney Dangerfield of cribbage," Bob Julian, was a long way from his Milwaukee home, but he managed to snap up the Cry Baby event, but, alas, no MRP's as he continues his quest for cribbage honors this year. However, he is still comfortably standing in the nation's top ten.

Willie and Jo Evans, with help from Sophie Nelson and Jo Kirby (and others) ran a first-class tournament, as usual, and the Columbia River scenery nearby added to this tournament's charm!

Master Pegger Doris Perkins Takes Cranberries

The recent Cape Cod Cranberry Clash in Wareham, MA, hosted some 124 peggers February 20...and Master pegger Doris Perkins, Quincy, MA, took home all the "cranberries!"

After qualifying 12th, this newly crowned Master (1993) took home the championship, and a nice 152 MRP's.

Cindy Veradt, Taunton, MA, has been on a roll lately, and finished 2nd to wing over the 500 MRP mark for this season.

Rookie Richard Brault, Palmer, MA, is also near the 500 MRP mark after qualifying 4th and finishing 3rd, keeping this pegger on a near-record pace for a first year tournament player!

Tournament director Jim Clemmey finished a discreet 4th (after qualifying 7th), being polite not to "hog" too much!

The hot hand in the qualifying round belonged to Neil Matheson from Falls River, MA.

80 peggers played the Consolation event, and Robert Bousquet, Palmer, MA, came away the winner followed by Charles Raposa (Brockton, MA), Libby Albanese (Swampscott, MA), and Wilma MacDonald (Avon, MA).

The Boston Children's Hospital benefited from players donations...$124.

John Whitman Scores 9th Sanctioned 29-Hand

Seekonk, MA's John Whitman plunked down the 9th sanctioned 29-hand of the 1994 season at the recent Cape Cod Cranberry Clash...and will be rewarded by the ACC to the tune of $100 for this sanctioned gem.

Jim MacDonald, Monson, MA, played a rare 28-hand, but, alas, no $100!

318 Players Compete In GR Regional

Region II (Northwest) had 318 players compete in the recent Regional Grass Roots Tournament. The Portland area had Jim Bailey leading the way with a super 33 GP's!

Robert Massicotte Makes World's Smallest Cribbage Board

Cas Dzielenski, Bristol, CT, has constructed a cribbage board that is 2 1/2" long x 3/4" wide and laid claim to having the world's smallest cribbage board.

Then along comes Robert Massicotte, Niagara, WI, who makes a board that measures 2 3/8" long x 5/8" wide to claim the honor of having the world's smallest board.

Massicotte constructed this small board out of plexiglass!

Russell Adams Confirms Odds

March CW reported that Howard Comstock, Sonora, CA had scored a 28-hand and a Grand Slam the same evening in a Grass Roots match, and he wanted the approximate odds of that happening.

Cribbage World figured the odds at about 50,100...and asked Russell Adams, our professor from Minneapolis to check this out. Adams assumed that a 28-hand gives the recipient about a 95% chance of winning that game, and then going on to win eight more games at about 50,000 to one! Finally, some agreement on odds! Now, if our politicians in Washington can do likewise...

Say It Ain't True 1992 All-American Ray Van Orsow Scores String of Pearls

In 1992, Ray Van Orsow, Portland, OR, finished the season in 5th place nationally, and earned a spot on the 1992 All-American Team!

Harry Kantas mailed Cribbage World a copy of his nifty newsletter (in color, no less), that reported that Ray had, indeed, scored a "String of Pearls" in a recent Portland Grass Roots match. Say it ain't so, Ray!

This newsletter also reported that Jeanne Hofbauer, Washougal, WA is on a "roll" and has taken over first place as the Third Quarter came to an end.

Easter Eggs On Cribbage Boards! Keith Forrest Wins in Montana

Keith Forrest, the "Bitterroot King of Cribbage," was surprised to find Easter eggs on his playoff cribbage board on Easter Sunday at the Montana Open match...and after winning five playoff round matches (one by a bye) cracked open his egg and found a nifty $800 check, 111 MRP's, and a Montana Championship trophy board.

Willie Evans, Richland, WA, had been a terror in the Northwest lately, and after qualifying first (36 17 +239), rolled on into 2nd place, and garnered some 139 MRP's for the weekend, and vaults into 2nd place in the Western Region, standing at the 800 MRP mark for the year (and top ten nationally).

Bernie Nelson, Pacific City, OR, drove over to Missoula with Evans, and after qualifying 5th and finishing 3rd, must have enjoyed a pleasurable drive home with Willie...as this duo hogged the prize money (and MRP's).

Clifford Allen, Spokane, WA, nailed 4th place.

The Consolation event was won by Canadian Edgar Bastedo, as he won the final game by a single point, when Ralph Hart (Roseburg, OR) failed to peg two needed points to win (dealing), and only scored his "automatic" one peg point to end in the stink hole. Edgar held 3-3-2-2, and Ralph held 6-8-8-9...resulting in only a single "go." Jim Hornbacher (Bothell, WA), fresh from a win at the 17th Annual Northwest Open, finished 3rd, followed by Libby, MT's Don Clark.

The Satellites: High Roller: Harold Buckley (Palmer, AK); Fri. Doubles: locals Pearl Cannon and John Hill (20 GP's in 10 games); Sat, Special: Ed Dickinson (Enumclaw, WA); Last Chance: local Michelle Barthelme.

Once again, Joker's Wild owner Dick Williams added $100 to the Last Chance event...and surprised the field by placing two Easter eggs on every cribbage board to begin Sunday's play! His Joker's Wild establishment is easily one of the best cribbage hosts in America!

Bob Gombatz Wins Palmetto Classic, Earns Grand Master

After making a run through the Virginia Beach Classic and winning the Greater Orlando Open in February, Bob Gombatz continues his unstoppable run and has won yet another...the Palmetto Cribbage Classic in Columbia, SC.

This Raleigh, NC pegger has winged it over the 4,000 MRP mark with this hot run and has earned the 24th Grand Master in the ACC's history. He also qualified 4th in this field of 84 peggers, earning 123 MRP's for the weekend.

John Meyer, Fayetteville, NC, was the last victim of Gombatz's run and finished 2nd, followed by Mike Burham, Acworth, GA, and Ken Goss, McLean, VA.

Master pegger Ken Cambell (Modoc, SC) took qualifying honors with a nifty 33 15 +197.

Jack Howsare, Virginia Beach Classic's director, took some time off from directing, and won the 62-pegger Consolation. Another Raleigh player...Dick Corbin... finished 2nd, followed by Donna Zuben (Largo, FL), and Henry Douglass (Reidsville, NC) in 3rd and 4th.

The satellites: Friday Early Bird: John Groz (Kissimmee, FL); Sat. Special: Russ Perkins (Bear Creek, NC); High Rollers: Bob Julian (Milwaukee); Last Chance: Leon Lerch (Reston, VA). Four Raleigh players took team honors: Gombatz, Corbin, Bernard Whitfield and Larry Phifer. Corbin also had the only 28-hand...in the Consolation.

John Ranne had moved from Columbia to Temple, TX, and was rudely welcomed home again, as he scored a "string of pearls" in the Friday game!

Director Al Kucera had a full range of events, and plans on renewing next March 10-12, 1995.

In Memoriam

Leon "Mac" McCormick

Buffalo, New York

A member of GR 5, Hamburg, NY, Mac died on March 18. A member of the Elks, he hosted GR Club 5's tournaments at his lodge where he was a past Exalted Ruler. He will be sorely missed by his many friends.

Philip A. DeJoseph

Braintree, Massachusetts

Philip passed away in his sleep March 22 after a night of cribbage with his friends. He will be deeply missed by his many friends, especially GR Club 109. He was a super guy!

Help The ACC, Pay Your Dues On Time...Or Better Yet, A Little Early!

Jeff Monroe, our hard-working Membership Chairman, is plagued by late-paying members. This causes much grief, as he must send a 2nd notice postcard (extra expense and extra work).

He confided to Cribbage World that if members would renew early by cutting off a mailing label and mailing in their dues with this label...wow, what help that would be!

This is a non-profit organization...all help from members will be rewarded! Who knows...maybe the "Cribbage Gods" will deal you that "29" hand for being helpful!

This Month's Quiz

Is This a Rookie's Score Card?

The score card below was turned in at a recent sanctioned tournament:

CLASSIC				RUNNING TALLY

Would you believe Charlie Ball drove his huge motor home from Mesa, Arizona to Helena, Montana...and produced a score card of this caliber in the Consolation event? And Charlie is an EXPERT player!

Keep pegging, everyone...your turn may be next!

More Polish Cribbage

In response to Zeke Veradt's letter in Mar. CW, page 11, that he has unquestionable proof cribbage originated in Poland and why he used so many "z's". No doubt is the after effect of a game played against yours truly in the latest Dante tournament.

In all the years of playing cribbage, Zeke had been double-skunked once, and that was by his wife Cindy.

After this game, Zeke now has two double-skunk defeats. To start, I had a big advantage. Twice as many "z's" in my name. I used no mirrors, no slipped cards for a cash advance, just superior Polish playing and, of course, a little luck!

Bob Eckert Needs Help

In Cedar Rapids, IA, rests a 10 3/4" long board, 3' wide, and 1 5/16" deep, fine-grained, dark, heavy wood, with a metal scoreboard for three players on top, with a peg storage slot with metal slide cover. Bob Eckert is the owner and he inherited this unique board from his uncle about 50 years ago. Any Iowans out there have a clue? If so, drop Bob a line at 206 23rd St., Cedar Rapids, Iowa 52405.

Astounded!

I am astounded at our BOD! In the synopsis of the BOD Reno meeting as reported in the April CW, our directors voted (secretly) 23-4 to remove mandatory membership for play in ACC sanctioned tournaments. I can't believe our reps would do such a thing. Was the report accurate. Can this be true?

We have a fine organization. Many of us work hard to keep it going, and to make it attractive for non-members to join and participate in its activities. But to offer the fruits of membership to non-members just doesn't make sense to me. Why in the world would the directors vote to undermine their own organization?

First, we need not be so passive, or so permissive to allow non-members to play in our tournaments. We have paid our dues, and if someone wants to enjoy the same rights and privileges as ours, then they too should become members and pay their dues!

Second, let's suppose a player is not an ACC member, and he/she wins a sanctioned tournament. What happens to the MRP's? Do they go to the winds, or do they go to the first member to finish high enough? What if we had an ACC tournament in which non-members outnumbered members, and no members scored high enough to win either cash or points?

Third, by the time a player decides to play in a major tournament, he/she should already know if they like to play cribbage! There is absolutely no reason why every player should not be a member and be required to prove membership. If a questionable player wins an award, that award should be withheld until his membership has been verified. Incidentally, I can think of only one case where a tournament director would find it beneficial to charge $7 extra to play, but not be required to submit it as dues! That just isn't fair to the player, and it isn't fair to the rest of us.

What is fair, is a level playing field no matter where we play. So come on BOD, let's start thinking about why we have an ACC membership, and why we should strive to protect it. Above all, let's not undermine it.

Harry Kantas
Beaverton, OR

Harry, you certainly make a good point for mandatory membership. I can't speak for the BOD, but I will try to summarize this on-going debate. First, this issue of mandatory membership has been thoroughly discussed at several BOD meetings. Several major tournament directors are adamantly against mandatory membership, as are some BOD members. At the present time, about 3-5% of our players are not active members...but they still pay their $1.50 to the ACC each time they play (with little, or no benefits...no CW, no MRP's, no national honors, etc.). Last year, for example, I paid $43.50 in sanctioning fees, and only $7 for a membership. With the $1.50 fee, non-members, in fact, help support the ACC. I'm sure we haven't heard the last of this issue, however...Ed.

Pegs Are Too Darned Big!

Many cribbage players have their own pegs, some very nice and plain, some expensive and ornate. My concern, after playing in the JPW/ACC Open in Reno, is that I found some of these pegs were getting bigger and higher. I do understand, that, I do have the privilege, to refuse my opponent, to use his or her own pegs.

As some of these pegs are getting bigger in especially their height, that some regulation should be made, as there are, I'm sure, certain players that may have a handicap (arthritis, etc.) that, guiding cards over or around over-size pegs could be a problem, and delaying of game due to cards being exposed during the deal.

Are there any others out there in Cribbage World that finds this a problem?

This is in no way to construe that I am against private pegs, just that there be a regulation drawn up, as to their size, especially in height.

George Saari
Kamloops, BC

George, the BOD voted some years back to allow any player to use their own pegs. No consideration was given to outlandish size, or whatever. Just carte blanche use! I know one charming Nebraska lady who uses huge "six-shooters" as pegs. I'm laying for this lady...and when her pegs are accidentally dislodged ...well, do you think they should be replaced in the starter hole??? Ed.

In Memoriam

Harvey Tetzlaff

DePere, Wisconsin

Harvey, 80, from Polish Open Grass Roots Club 90 passed away March 24 from cancer. A true gentleman and cribbage player, he will be greatly missed by his many friends.

Jack E. Lewis

Monon, Indiana

Jack died unexpectedly from a blood clot in his leg. He was the founder of Indiana's only Grass Roots club and he named it "The Push-Back Cribbage Club of Monon." Indiana peggers will sorely miss Jack, as will his daughter Becky Mueller...his favorite opponent.

Five of Clubs Popular in Raleigh

An oddity in Raleigh cribbage. Our Grass Roots is played at a bar and restaurant called "Bernards," after Bernard Whitfield, who you probably know. After GR play on Monday, March 28, playing doubles, Bernard dealt a "29" to Frank "Pegs" Abernathy, with the five of clubs being cut.

On Wednesday, March 30, Bernard was playing Ted Dick and Ted dealt him a "29" with the FIVE OF CLUBS being cut. Not bad for a three day period!

28-Hands Popular In Roseburg

Besides our regular Tuesday session our Roseburg (OR) club gets together occasionally on Sat. night at somebody's home. Last Sat. at my place there were 8 of us for the second round of 7 games. In the 28 games played there were three 28-HANDS, held by Jim Gogolin, son Tom Gogolin, and Ben Hester. Can your statisticians figure the odds?

I thoroughly enjoy reading CW, keep up the good work!

The Guy Across The table

by Don Tuttle

The hall was hushed, that morning,
For the play-offs to begin.
I'd earned the right to be there,
by the whiskers on my chin.
The guy across the table
Never even cracked a grin.

He skunked me, bad, the first time.
And he whipped me in the third.
I tied it up, the fourth game.
NOW I'd show that dirty bird!
The guy across the table
Never said a single word.

I tripped, halfway up first street.
And the pone went flying by.
I couldn't do a thing worthwhile.
No matter how I'd try.
The guy across the table
Never even blinked an eye.

Then fifteen two, and six are eight,
and six more made his day.
Oh, cruel fate, what have I done
That I should have to pay?
The guy across the table
Just said "Thanks.", and walked away.

Don Tuttle is a fine pegger from LaGrande, OR. I can understand this reaction to a cold-hearted pegger...but, I prefer this type to those talkative ones who wont allow you to concentrate! Nice poem, don't you agree? Ed.

Please join us for the 8th Annual Independence Day Cribbage Classic at the Sands Regency, to benefit the Veterans Family Relief Fund, a non-profit organization we founded to assist Veterans and their families. 15% of all entry fees are donated to the Veterans Family Relief Fund, yet with the assistance from the Sands Regency our tournament prize fund is as generous as any you will find.

Our family will once again be on hand to help with the tournament: Dorthalee's brother Larry and sister Roberta, nephew Brett, daughter Judy and granddaughters Lori and Terri will all be back to help. Members of the War Veterans Memorial Association will donate their time again to help collect scorecards. This all volunteer group logged over 45,000 miles on their personal vehicles last year alone, providing a military salute at the burials of 168 fellow Veterans. Your support of our tournament supports them as well.

The Sands Regency is continuing their support of our events by donating all printing, boards, playing cards, the tournament location, plus coffee and danish each morning, not to mention adding $1,300.00 to the prize fund, and providing the popular $1,000 bonus for a 29 hand. They have also kept room rates at a reasonable $49 per night for the third straight year.

We hope you will stay over and enjoy the 4th of July in Reno and play in our "Sunday Night Special." If you have any questions, call us at 702-358-4916, or call Barbara Woodward at the Sands Regency, 702-348-2200. See you in Reno!

Dennis Cousens Earns Master

Windham, Maine's Dennis Cousens qualified 19th and finished 7th in the playoffs, earning 167 MRP's, at the recent Tri-Valley Open in Medway, MA...and became the 183rd pegger to earn his Master rating. He has topped 400 MRP's for this season in the Eastern Region, and he continues to be a threat to win any event.

Master Point Race

Syl Lulinski Maintains Lead Bernard, Del Tufo, Julian, Van Orsow, Alkas, Horigan, Saueressig, Robson, Rooney, Brault, Medeiros, and Palmer Move Up

With but three months remaining in this year's Master Point race, the National Championship is still up for grabs. Syl Lulinski, LaGrange Park, IL, remains at the top with 1,171 MRP's, despite failing to add to his MRP total in April. Joe Bernard, Libertyville, IL, is but a scant 60 MRP's behind with 1,111. Denny Van Orsow gained a few points in April, and stands 3rd with 1,059. Anthony Del Tufo, W. Bridgewater, MA, and Bob Julian, Milwaukee, WI, are the only other ACC players that have cracked the 1,000 mark for this cribbage year. 10 other players have 700 or more MRP's, with Rit Alkas, Manchester, CT, Ed Horigan, Virginia Beach, VA breaking the 800 mark in April. Bernie Saueressig, Richland, WA, and R. M. "Robby" Robson, San Jose, CA, made the biggest move in April in the Western Region, joining Roy Hofbauer, Washougal, WA, and Darrel Miotke, Sublimity, OR, at the 700 mark.

In the Eastern Region, four New Englanders made a move recently and stand over the 700 mark: John Rooney, Richard Brault, Bill Medeiros, and Harry Palmer.

Many others have an outside chance to earn top 10 All-American honors this cribbage year, as many large tournaments remain to be played. Once again, the projected total to earn this honor will be 1,000+.

The upcoming June 26 Cape Cod Extra, Wareham, MA, has a new director: David Clemmey, Box 621, Mansfield, MA 02048. (508) 339-5225. Check "Tournament Trail," this issue for further details.

Betty Johnson Scores Again

Betty Johnson, Spokane, WA, has scored her 2nd sanctioned win...and once again, it was a Montana victory, as she picked up her 2nd "gold nugget" in Helena's Last Chance Gulch (where gold was discovered in Montana).

Her final match in this Capital City Classic was with defending champion Wayne Wyman, Billings, MT, and she nipped Wayne 3-2 to claim the victory. The win came on her birthday...and another player, Rex Paddock, Missoula, MT, also celebrated his birthday by finishing 3rd. Local Arnie Schill (another defending champion) took 4th.

The local GR club had birthday cookies to help celebrate these two birthdays...and the prize money made a nice birthday gift!

Bonnie Zieske, Billings, nailed the top "Q" prize with a fine 33 GP mark.

Director Walt Conell won the Consolation event. Lila Ellis, Spokane, WA, took 2nd, followed by Fred McGibney, S. Burlington, VT (the ACC's Treasurer and BOD member), and Gil Johnson, Spokane, WA.

Satellite winners: Friday Early Bird- Sharon Hejtmanek (Missoula); Friday Doubles- Vicky Rodriguez & Patty Larsen (Billings); Sat. Special- Keith Forrest (Florence, MT); Cry Baby- Kathy Thompson (Helena).

Hejtmanek Shocked In Helena

Sharon Hejtmanek, Missoula, MT, posted a fine 29 GP card in the qualifying round at the Capital City Classic in Helena, MT, and she inquired at the scorer's table "Did I happen to win any "Q" money?"

A quick check discovered that she didn't even qualify for the playoffs...a very rare combination of scores left her speechless! ...and penniless!

1994 All-American Team Honors Up For Grabs

1994 is the 14th run for the roses for America's cribbage players. This season is off to a fast start and many players have scored sizeable Master Point totals, giving them a shot at All-American honors.

The National Open in Raleigh, July 30-August 1 will be the final event that MRP's can be earned for this season. It should be an exciting finale.

*A sweet young thing from Podunk
Played a Life master from Hochunk.
She coyly said "I'm so new
That I could never beat you."
And then administered a skunk!*
