AMERICAN CRIBBAGE CONGRESS

Possible 1997 Grand National Site 1★ "Mick" Wins Wisconsin Dells

1994 saw Robert "Mick" Michaelis earn his Life Master One-Star honors, as this Marinette, WI pegger soared over the 10,000 MRP mark (lifetime)...and he continues his winning ways by winning the Wisconsin Dells Classic September 11. Topping some 179 players, Michaelis earned his 14th sanctioned win...and is off and running towards his 7th All-American award.

Another former All-American, John Hiland (1993) took 2nd, and this West Allis, WI pegger is also off and winging toward another fine season. John Kolvek, Muskego, WI, finished 3rd, and former Grand National champion (V) Bob Hanes, Ankeny, IA, took 4th in a star-studded final.

Ken Reymer, a Milwaukee pegger, took honors in the qualifying round with a fine 39 (18) +275.

And Wayne Steinmetz (Milwaukee) is also off and winging towards another fine season as he topped some 108 peggers in claiming the Consolation title. Ben Wells (Racine) took 2nd, followed by Mervin Morris (Canadian) and Richard Frost (Berlin, WI) in 3rd and 4th.

Tournament Director Patrick Barrett continues to host fine tournaments...and with this crowd attesting to his expertise at managing play will certainly help his chances at hosting the 1997 Grand National in Wisconsin Dells.

1★ Colvert Takes Longest Beach Inaugural

The American Cribbage Congress has two One-Star players...Robert "Mick" Michaelis, and Cribbage World editor DeLynn Colvert...and both players came up with wins in September.

Colvert nailed the 154-pegger inaugural Longest Beach Classic in Long Beach, WA September 17, as he claimed the best run of cards in his 13-year ACC career. Not only qualifying 2nd, he also nailed a Grand Slam to take the Saturday Special.

Jim Gogolin, Idleyld Park, OR took 2nd. Grand National champ (VIII) Harvey Honeycutt, Beatty, OR took 3rd, followed by John Holseth, Medford, OR in 4th. Another Grand National champ (XII) took qualifying honors...Bayard Lliteras, Coeur D'Alene, ID with a 36 (16).

Armin Gade, Seattle, nipped Ev Bey, Quincy, CA for the 124-pegger Consolation title.

Satellite winners:

Friday EB: Betty Capper, Hermiston, OR

Friday Doubles: Frank Omie & Chuck Vance, Portland

Friday High Roller: Ev Bey, Quincy, CA

Sat. Special: DeLynn Colvert, Missoula, MT

Directors Arlene & Hal Halldorson, Marvis & Ralph Reynolds are off and running with this event, and plans are being made for re-runs in April and October.

Ken Cochlin Wins in LaGrande, Oregon

The 11th Annual Blue Mountain Open in LaGrande, OR drew some 74 peggers from throughout the Northwest...and Ken Cochlin, Kennewick, WA took honors.

Cochlin earned a spot on the 1993 All-American team (finishing 4th nationally for that year) and continues his winning ways.

Local Ron Lesley gave the out-of-towners a good tussle, but he had to settle for 2nd place. Eric Hutton drove 40 miles up I-84 (from Baker City) on his 18th birthday...and took home 3rd-place money, edging Grand National XII champ Bayard Lliteras, Coeur D'Alene, Idaho.

Jerry Hearsom, Cove, OR nailed the 52-pegger Consolation, followed by Doug Brown, Pasco, WA, Clarence Van Orsow, Culver, OR, and Betty Capper, Hermiston, OR, in 2-3-4.

The satellites: High Roller- Frank Lake (again); Doubles-Carol Holt & Bruce Gentry; Sat. Special- Al Schmitt; Cry Baby- Ralph Reynolds.

LaGrande is a small, friendly town (pop. 12,000) in Eastern Oregon, and this 11th Annual event proceeded smoothly under the guidance of Charlette & Rick Springer, assisted by Marvis & Ralph Reynolds.

Maxon Brehm, DeAnna Lovelace, Herman Jacobs Tops In Nebraska

Three Nebraska tournaments were played this summer. Maxon Brehm (Grand Island, NE) won the 28-pegger Homestead Days Open in Beatrice, NE June 26; DeAnna Lovelace (Lincoln, NE) took the 38-pegger Great Plains Classic in Lincoln August 14; Herman Jacobs came through in the 40-pegger Omaha Open August 21.

Kathy Hays Tops Chief Solano Open

Some 100 peggers were on hand in Fairfield, CA for the Chief Solano Open August 13...and Kathy Hays, Livermore, CA, came away the winner (after qualifying 2nd).

Steve Reynolds, Concord, CA, nailed 2nd...and is one step closer to his Grand Master. Dale Kochenburg, San Jose, CA, finished 3rd, and Boyd McDonald, Mountain View, CA took 4th. True Miller, Fremont, CA, had the hot hand in the qualifying round.

Director George Halterman plans on two more events next year...March 11 and August 12.

Youngest VS. Oldest

At the recent Blue Mountain Open in LaGrande, OR, a Main event playoff found the youngest player in the house playing the oldest. On his 18th birthday, Eric Hutton, Baker City, OR won his match with the streaking Clarence Van Orsow, Culver, OR. Clarence is off and running in this fledgling cribbage year, and is among the leaders in the 1995 MRP race.

Ratso Roderick Tops At Redwood Classic

William "Ratso" Roderick, the Vacaville (CA) King of Cribbage came away from the 6th Annual Redwood Classic in Santa Rosa, CA with a beryl wood championship trophy board, $800, and bragging rights, in winning the 92-pegger main event.

Bob Padgett from nearby Carmichael, CA, took 2nd, followed by Bea Olyer, the perennial winner from Fairfield, CA. Recently crowned Master pegger Mary Gladish, Concord, CA, took 4th.

52 peggers stayed for the Consolation, and Roberta Nelson, Sunnyvale, CA took home the bacon ($300). Darrell Hunstad, Nipomo, CA, finished 2nd, followed by Roy Banducci, Arroyo Grande, CA, and Dearol White, Modesto, CA.

Director Joe Schlich, with help from Avon Ray, Alice Wilson, and club members from GR 55 had a well-run tournament, and even the weather cooperated...a comfortable 75 degrees compared to the over 100 degrees for the 5th annual. Clyde Ross, Grass Valley, CA, produced the beautiful beryl wood trophy boards.

Sidney Lampke Tops New England Championship

Some 126 peggers were on hand for the New England Championship in Windsor Locks, CT August 27 & 28...and when the pegs were laid away, Sydney Lampke (Medway, MA) was the winner. Carl Deyette (E. Hartford) took 2nd, followed by Richard Clukey (Northfield, CT) and Jack Puleo (Mansfield, MA) in 3rd and 4th.

1994 All-American Bill Medeiros (Shrewsbury, MA) won the 74-pegger Consolation, and Emil Chrabaszcz (Ware, MA) took 2nd. Sharlene Medeiros and Harvey Glass (W. Hartford) took 3rd and 4th.

Al Dinwoodie, recently crowned Grand Master was high qualifier in the Main Event...and Phyllis Schmidt took home 15 MRP's for qualifying tops in the Consolation...a new scoring rule for the 1995 cribbage year.

Is Jim McManus The Unluckiest?

Jim McManus, our ACC's 8th ranked player, and a Life Master from Milwaukee, WI called Cribbage World and complained that he is the unluckiest player in America.

Why? Well, in 1993 he was 12 measly MRP's from earning All-American status, scoring 1,058 (1,070 was 10th...Deb Schisel, Kenosha, WI). In 1994, Jim scored 927 MRP's, and, again, he missed All-American honors...this time by a scant 13 MRP's (he's slipping).

But this is not what Jim's complaint to CW was about. He was whining that in the recent Belle City Classic's Consolation event his cutting for deal ability went to pieces. First game he cuts a king. 2nd game, another king. 3rd game- king; 4th game- king; 5th game- king, 6th game- king; 7th game- king, 8th game- king..and finally in the 9th, and last, game he cuts a duece! The odds of cutting 8 kings in a row are fantastic. Jim claims that none other than our ACC's oddsmaker, Russell Adams, witnessed this rare event. Perhaps Jim is right...he is the ACC's unluckiest player (but certainly not the worst)!

Jeff and Jackie Shimp In Dead Heat

Shelbyville, MI's Jeff and Jackie Shimp finished the 1994 season in a deadheat...both players scoring 329 MRP's. No bragging rights!

$1,565 Donated to Senior Center

R. M. "Robby" Robson Hot In Redmond

R. M. "Robby" Robson, the travelling pegger from San Jose, CA, came north once again to do a little pegging at the Senior Center Benefit in Redmond, OR...and he came away a winner in this 96-pegger tournament.

After qualifying first with a very nice 39 (18)+263, he completed a winning weekend by finishing 3rd in the playoffs. Robson picked up 130 MRP's and begins the new year on a positive note, and appears to be headed for another fine season (in 1994 he picked up 913 MRP's, finishing 7th in the Western Region).

Roberta Dyer Takes Title

Local Roberta Dyer (Crooked River Ranch), a veteran pegger who is always a threat to win, came through in the playoffs and took home the championship, nailing another veteran player...

Gil Johnson, Spokane, WA...in the championship match. Gil, with this 2nd place finish, will move up from his 73rd ranked position (ACC lifetime). And Betty Johnson, Gil's spouse, nailed 4th place as this Master pegger also continues her winning ways.

Two Portland players nailed the 75-pegger Consolation...Verne Nielsen taking first and Jack Holt taking the runnerup spot. Frank Ornie, Forest Grove, OR, finished 3rd, followed by Russell Grose, Juneau, AK.

Satellite winners: High Rollers; Jim Langley & Ken Cochlin. Doubles; Jeanne Hofbauer & Frank Ornie. Saturday Special; Carol Holt. Cry baby; Bill Becker. Time Passer; John Thiems.

The Redmond Senior Center benefited by some $1,565 donated by the players.

Stan "The Man" Daniels Will Get His 29

Cribbage World Editor DeLynn Colvert was only joshing Stan "The Man" Daniels about not ever getting a 29-hand in last month's issue of CW. This dedicated Portsmouth, VA, pegger is destined to score at least one 29-hand (and in the near future!)

Master Points Earned In Consolation Qualifying Round

The 1995 cribbage year is off and running...and this year players will earn Master Points in the qualifying round of all Consolation events, compliments of your ACC Board of Directors.

Q: What do Barbara Landry (Stratham, NH), Kathleen Hahn (Medford, OR), Don Clark (Libby, MT), Robert Hibbert (Moline, IL), and Arlen Sodahl (Ames, IA) all have in common?

A: They've all requested and received manuals for teaching our youth how to play cribbage! And each of them deserve recognition for getting involved in volunteering to make their community a great place to live.

Board Members Diligent

Letters to the Editor by Harry Kantas in May and John Haller in August deserve a clarifying response.

Meetings of the ACC Board of Directors are normally open and accessible to all ACC members. Discussions and deliberations of agenda items are made for the record. Secret ballots are used at the discretion of the board. I know of no instance where any vote was taken or postponed because of the presence or absence of any board member or members. The vast majority of board members attend every scheduled meeting and are diligent in their efforts to discharge their elected responsibilities.

In reference to the tournament dual fee format (i.e. $40 member, $47 non-member) which some of us have used, the tournament director is required to send in any new memberships. If someone has not done so then he/she should be reported to the Ethics Committee in writing and the committee will take appropriate action.

Contrary to the statement by John Haller, the Board of Directors voted decisively not to require ACC membership for sanctioned tournament play for various specific reasons which were openly discussed at length. After due deliberation the Board made its majority decision and I am sure they collectively considered it to be in the best interests of the ACC.

All members have the inherent right to disagree with decisions made by the Board of Directors. However, I fervently hope that future differences can be expressed without bringing into question the integrity of the board or its individual members.

Underwhelming Response

Last year I wrote a letter to CW asking the question, "Why three for a skunk?" Well, the response was underwhelming. I received only nine mailed responses, and yours in CW makes ten. The results is an even split, five and five. The interesting thing is, no one just wrote a yes or no, they each had an opinion and wanted to express it. All have good points, and in my opinion would argue to the death to have their way. One interesting thing is that two people felt the points should reflect the amount of holes the game is won by.

I was a little disappointed by the low response. I guess people are too busy pegging to write a postcard, or feel their opinion won't matter. Apathy in cribbage? Who'd a thunk it.

One other minor note, for those that think that winners always win, our Grass Roots club champion went 0 for 9 the tournament after the season was over. Burnout I guess.

September Cribbage World Largest Ever

Any sharp-eyed members catch the whopping 32-pages in last month's (September) Cribbage World?

Complete with a center-fold advertising Reno's November 11-13 Veteran's Day Classic, and information concerning 1994's awards and GR champions, rang up this record 32-pages.

Of course, Fred McGibney, our ACC's Treasurer, will surely chew out your editor for breaking the budget on this issue. This month's skimpy edition will help balance the books!

Score Cards Available

Jim Angell has an ample supply of 22-game score cards, courtesy of Phillip Morris Corp. If you have a sanctioned tourney, Jim will mail you a supply (in lots of 100). His new address:

Grass Roots Club 28 Tops

Portland, OR's Grass Roots Club 28 is kicking off their season's play on labor Day...and once again, Jeanne and Roy Hofbauer are scheduling a full afternoon of barbecuing and cribbage at their home high in the hills overlooking Washougal, WA. Of course, you can't see Washougal because their home is in a wooded area. The Hofbauer's have quite a spread, complete with horses and barns, and room to roam.

And once again, Harry Kantas and his nifty GR Club 28 newsletter has a much needed map on how to get in that "kick-off" match up in "them thar hills!"

The newsletter also claims that Club 28 won the most $$$ in the recent National Grass Roots tournament...and 2nd in numbers of winners. Jim Bailey paced the action, picking up 3rd place...and $300. Nine members cashed...only one behind GR Club 31, West Warwick, RI (who posted ten winners).

On a disappointing note, Harry noted that two Portland players drove to Reno and missed the deadline for entry by 15 minutes...and were denied entry. Those disabled veterans are tough!

More Long Shots

Here are a couple of scenarios for our friend Russ Adams and other mathematical probability experts:

Scenario 1: I am playing doubles and I deal everyone a "19-hand" on the same deal. No kidding, folks. I really did this! And for my efforts, I was rewarded with a 2-crib! What are the odds of this re-occurring?

Scenario 2: I am playing in a 6-way game, three to a side. My partner deals himself a Q-7-3-A...a "19" hand. He turns over his crib, lo and behold, he sees another Q-7-3-A!!! All four cards are a different suit, and there are no duplicate cards in the deck. What are the odds of this re-occurring?

David Proctor
E. Longmeadow, MA

Go for it, Russell! Ed.

Questions/Suggestions

I have some questions/suggestions:

1-Crib should need four cards for a flush...why is this different for the hand and crib?

2-When we play a 22-game match against 11 opponents, we don't cut for the deal. Why should we cut for the deal in the playoffs? Seems inconsistent. The higher of the two qualifiers should deal first.

3-Can we list how many tournaments a player has entered next to their yearly Master Point totals?

Max Steplyk
Waukegan, IL

Sir John Suckling, way back in the early 1600's, came up with these rules concerning flushes. Who knows why he made a variation between hands and cribs...but if we tamper with 'em, he will turn over in his grave.

As for who deals first and how this is fairly accomplished, a cut for deal, or alternating the deal in a two-game match is certainly fair. Awarding the deal to the high qualifier, is, in my opinion, not fair in a short playoff match. In the Northwest, the majority voted on cutting for deal as the fairest, and most preferred method for beginning a game (in addition to single game matches in a qualifying round).

Many sports (golf, tennis, etc.) list the number of events vs. prize money earned to give the reader a more accurate picture of the player's skill. And, of course, the same is true in cribbage. The more you play, the more opportunity to score those Master Points. Many of our players get "hooked" when they are making a run for honors and hit the road to earn those coveted MRP's. So, Max, if you want to earn that coveted All-American award, I'm afraid you're going to have to keep your suitcase packed...and moving! I think posting the number of events a player has participated in would give our ACC members a better picture on who's doing what...and how often. Bob McCabe...want a little more work??? Ed.

Once In A Lifetime

After playing in the main tournament at the Belle City Classic, I was playing Captain with Ken Benson and Igor (Richard Horvath). It was dinnertime and we had just had a pizza delivered when along came the most unusual hand I've ever seen.

Ken was Captain and needed 37 pegs to go out and Igor and myself needed 45. Ken dealt me a 2-4-5-6-8 and Igor A-3-3-6-K, so we had a total of seven pegs before the cut. Ken was dealt all clubs with the 7-8-9-J and threw a king in the crib and also dealt a king into the crib. I led my 5 to Igor and while he was eating pizza he announced "six" intending to play the ace but he actually put down his 6. Ken needed pegs so he played his 7 for a three-card run and then he could only watch the carnage. I played my 4 for a four-card run, Igor his 3 for five pegs, my duece for six, his ace for seven, and finally his other three for 31 for five.

Se we pegged 27 of the 45 pegs needed and with the five being cut we had a twelve hand and a six hand, which is exactly what we needed, and since Ken was still 32 out, we double skunked him. He ended up with a uncounted thirteen hand and twelve crib, and holding his head in disbelief.

...And Another One

In a non-sanctioned tournament in Augusta August 21, Jack Allison (GA) opposed a gent named Al Kucera from Columbia, SC. Jack writes: We were dealt 4-4-5-6 and 4-5-6-6 with a 5 starter...both of us harboring visions of a comfortable lead on third street. Naturally there was some heavy pegging involved before the final revelation of like count hands. With 100 combined years of playing, it was agreed that this wasn't your everyday experience. The capper came in the next hand when I was dealt 7-7-8-8 with a 9 starter. No, Al didn't have a copy for that one, but the circumstances of that last game, three 24s in a row, two almost identical, was a great finale...at least for one of us!

*Jack Allison
Smyrna, GA*

Jeff Shimp 7th, Thank You!

August CW's Grass Roots final standings for Division 1 inadvertently omitted Jeff Shimp (Shelbyville, MI) from the list of winners. Jeff scored a nifty 264 points, finishing 7th nationally, and was GR club 71's champion for the 93-94 season.

Shimp is one of America's premier peggars, and was a member of the 1985 All-American team, finishing a lofty 4th nationally.

Tournament Trail Section Has New Layout

Sharp-eyed readers will certainly pick up the new layout (2-column) format of our above "Tournament Trail."

Our ACC budget has been severely strained by our larger Cribbage Worlds lately. Editor DeLynn Colvert, a very frugal person, studied alternatives to cut publication costs. Every page costs roughly $85 to print...and this new 2-column layout, with abbreviations, cuts costs almost in half. Last month's issue had five pages of tournament information. This issue has but two and a half...a saving of two and a half pages, or $210 per issue. This equates to well over $2,500 per year saved for the ACC.

The information is presented in the same-sized type as in previous issues. The two-column format simply eliminates a lot of wasted space...and the abbreviations also help conserve space.

So don't write Cribbage World and complain...unless you are willing to donate the $2,500!

1995 Master Point Race Off And Running

Clarence Van Orsow, Culver, OR, is unofficially leading the 1995 Master Point race with some 350 MRP's in the early going, scoring in at least three events in the Western Region. Irving Busby, Spokane, WA, and DeLynn Colvert, Missoula, MT are also well over the 200 mark in the west.

In the Central Region, Mick Michaelis, Marinette, WI, and Deb Schisel, Kenosha, WI, have each won a tournament this cribbage year...and are unofficially leading their Region.

In the Eastern Region, Ken Vetterline, Bar Mills, ME, won the New England Inaugural, and Sydney Lampke took the New England Championship and have unofficially taken the lead in their Region.

Next month's CW will list at least the top 25 in each Region.

November Cribbage World May Be Late

Cribbage World editor DeLynn Colvert will be on a cruise (Mexican Open Director) late in October...and as a result, the November Cribbage World will be mailed about two weeks later than usual.

This will be Colvert's first break in some five years of typing, laying out, labeling, sacking, and mailing CW! No whining, please!
