492 Players in Green Bay

Capodagli, Dockter Cop Honors in Central Region Doubleheader

Some 492 peggers braved a late winter storm and converged on Green Bay for the MGM's annual pegfest...an event that perennially draws the Region's largest crowds. And this year was typical. Beginning on Friday night, a record 624 peggers played doubles (312 teams), and yet another 36 played the High Roller event.

Locals Bill Capelle and John Samorski took honors in this kick-off doubles play, and local Pat Thompson won the High Rollers, picking up a nifty $1,000 and a trophy clock.

But in sanctioned play, Ken Capodagli, Bensonville, IL copped the action, taking home $2,300 and a large trophy clock in topping the huge crowd of 492 peggers. Milwaukee's Bill Philleo has had an amazing string of high finishes in Green Bay in recent years...and by finishing a strong 2nd, continues his winning ways. Jeff Wussow, Green Bay, took 3rd, followed by local Mark Verhagen in 4th.

Local Gerald Danielski took top qualifying honors, posting a very fine 39 (18) +217.

Green Bay players also nailed the Consolation, as Jim Heemstra, Mike Rozmarch, and Ruth Zimmerman, all locals, finished 1-2-3.

Only out-of-towner MRP frontrunner Steven Reynolds, from Concord, CA could break into the winners column...and then only by finishing 4th. Steve also qualified 6th, and picked up 137 MRP's to wing it over the 1,000 mark for the year....and the national lead.

Patrick Barrett, Wisconsin Dells, WI, is hot on the heels of Reynolds in the MRP race, and by qualifying 6th in the Main Event, and finishing in the 17-32 bracket, is near the 900 MRP mark for this cribbage year.

Satellite Winners:

Sat. Singles: Neal Matzke 19 (8) +186

Sat. Dbls: Tom & Rick Bostedt 21 (9) +189L

Last Chance: Dale Olgrin 14 (6) +110

Jack Docter Tops In St. Paul

The second half of this Central Region twin bill was the Capital City Open played in St. Paul, MN the next weekend. Some 164 players attended this spirited match, and Jack Docter, Cannon Falls, MN took home the championship. Ron Rose, Duluth, MN took 2nd, followed by Frank Danielski, Appleton, WI, and Michael Burns, St. Cloud, MN in 3rd and 4th. Elmer Morlock, Minneapolis, nailed the qualifying round with a nice 36 (17) +199 to take honors.

The President's Column

Everett "Ev" Bey

The collection of memorabilia is a hobby in all walks of life.

There are stamp collectors, antique and classical car collectors, baseball card collectors...you name it and there's something out there for somebody to garner and save.

We have collectors in the American Cribbage Congress too.

On the tournament level or in Grass Roots Club play, we've got the players who collect Master Points and Rating Points, respectively.

Recently, Cribbage World ran an article about one of our members who collects Jokers, the unused cards that are included in the decks of pasteboards we use in our games.

Another acquaintance collects playing cards from all over the world...the French royalty version, the Chinese dynasty style, oversize decks, minature decks, antique styles, an assortment representing every airline that ever flew, etc.

And then you have R. T. Connelly, Yountville, CA, who has travelled extensively playing cribbage, and has added the tournament city's name to his sweatshirt...a souvenir of his many stops.

Cribbage boards are another popular collectible. Franklin Wurman of Melrose Park, PA has a beautiful collection of rare and antique cribbage boards, including triangular and "pop-up" marking pegs (see story, this issue).

Hal Benfield of Olympia, WA boasts a large collection of more than 100 cribbage boards...at last count, 105. With all the crib board collectors we've heard of, this is one of the biggest assortments...but we'll bet that our mail will immediately be full of claims that surpass that. Let us know...who's the proud owner of the largest cribbage board collection...and who dusts them?

Besides the Master Points that he collects, last year's MRP national leader, Bob Julian of Milwaukee, says he prefers to collect engraved pictures of former U. S. Presidents, like George Washington (on the $1 bill), honest Abe (on the $5), Alexander Hamilton (on the sawbuck), Andy Jackson (on the $20)...and especially, Benjamin Franklin (on the $100 bill).

For our part, we seem to collect just two things at all the tournaments we attend. First, we collect a big batch of frequent flyer points and bonuses for all our airline travel mileage. But, most important, we collect a great assortment of friends and acquaintances, people we enjoy meeting at the various cribbage tournaments we attend all over the U. S.

It's an intangible benefit of belonging to the ACC.

Keep peggin', Ev Bey

Tournament Directors:

Begin sanctioning process at least 3 months (or more) in advance. This will allow time for your event to be posted in Tournament Trail, giving our ACC membership sufficient notice.

Capodagli, Dockter Win

Some 90 peggers stayed for the Consolation and James "Tubby" Dahl nailed the crowd for the title. This Blair, WI, pegger is a fixture on the Central Region's tournament trail...and is a threat to win at any time. Babe O'Gorman, Cannon Falls, MN took 2nd, followed by the streaking Keith Forrest, fresh from a 4th place finish at Reno's huge match. This Montanan has tacked on some 700+ MRP's for the season. 4th belonged to Bill Sperry, Mapleton, MN.

Wayne Steinmetz, Milwaukee, continues his fine play by taking the Friday Early Bird (19 8 +181), and Evon Forrest, Keith's better half, took home the bacon Saturday night with a 19 (9) +110. Elmer Morlock rode his fine qualifying round score into the All Events win, finishing well out in front with a great 65 combined GP card. Gene Lindgren, W. St. Paul, took home the Cry Baby win.

Ron Hamilton, with help from a fine staff, ran a smooth tournament, with all events on time, and gave the players excellent paybacks!

Jim Bird Wants New Passenger to Green Bay

Milwaukee's Jim Bird was overheard complaining about his passenger that he takes to Green Bay each year. He says he always gets home at a very late hour...because his partner is none other than Bill Philleo. All Philleo does is always qualify for the playoffs...and then play into the wee hours. In 1990, he finished 1st, in 1993; 6th, in 1994; 4th, in 1995 he finished 2nd...and poor Jim waits, and waits, and waits for the pegging action to wind down. And every year, it's the same old story.

Joe L'Huillier Knows Mick

Joe L'Huillier, Marquette, MI was spotted pegging with Life Master Mick Michaelis, Marinette, WI on Saturday night in Green Bay. After a tight match, Mick was nipped by two points...and he slowly reached into his pocket for his wallet. He carefully took two one-dollar bills from his wallet and handed them to Joe.

Joe took the two bills and held them outstretched up to the light. After taking a good look, he announced "Just as I suspected...Silver Certificates!"

18th Annual NW Open Gene Sissel Tough On Home Court

Gene Sissel, a veteran player from Baker City, OR showed the visitors how to move the pegs into the winners hole, as he won the 18th Annual Northwest Open. And he warmed to the task by also winning the Saturday Night game, as he completed a fine weekend of pegging.

Doug Brown, Pasco, WA, Gil Johnson, Spokane, WA, and Kathy Hays, Boise, ID, finished 2-3-4.

Director Rob Palmer has been running this tournament for some 18 years...and this year decided to do a little winning, as he copped the Consolation title, edging Gordon Drummond, Cove, OR in the final match. Gary Rose (Pasco, WA) and Ken Capper (Hermiston, OR) took 3rd and 4th.

The Satellites:

Time Passer: Sterling Owens, Baker City
Doubles: Joe Dunn, Ed Edwards, Boise, ID
High Roller: Doug Brown, Pasco, WA
Cry Baby: Kathy Hays, Boise, ID.

The local VFW club proved great hosts...and their bar prices were straight out of the 1950's!

Roseburg Off and Running Timber Classic Inaugural Draws 118

Roseburg, Oregon, home of Grass Roots club 62, sponsored their first-ever sanctioned tournament March 17-19. The response was excellent as 118 peggers converged on the Holiday Inn for a weekend of pegging.

Directors John and LaVon Thiems, and Donna and Larry Hassett gave extra effort in getting this event off the ground, furnishing the players with excellent facilities, raffles, souvenirs, trophies, refreshments, and press coverage.

Cribbage World editor DeLynn Colvert snapped a slump and won his nation-leading 23rd sanctioned event. His final match was a tight tussel with Jim Broadhurst, a fine pegger from Medford, OR. With the win, Colvert throws his hat in the MRP race and is at the 800 mark for the year.

Jim Sime, Kennewick, WA, finished 3rd and has topped the 500 MRP mark for this cribbage year, keeping his top-ten hopes alive. Larry Williams, Sun Valley, NV, finished 4th.

Crescent City, CA's Jim Brooks nailed the qualifying round with a fine 37 (17) +210 to take honors.

88 peggers stayed for the Consolation and Carolyn Bachman, Bend, OR won going away, edging Sally Peters, Salem, OR in the final playoff match. Local J. C. Turner has been on a roll lately, and continues his fine play by taking 3rd. Master Louine Lyda, Forest Grove, OR took home 4th.

The Satellites:

Time passer: Ike Endicott

High Roller: Hal Halldorson

Doubles: Fabian Nelson & Bruce Gentry

Cry baby: Tim Hutsell

The players had nothing but praise for this tournament's inaugural...and when the cribbage grapevine does its work, next year's event will undoubtedly be another standout.

Roy Carlson Wins In Alaska

Roy Carlson, a veteran pegger from Wallace, Idaho has a long and colorful history in association with cribbage. This dedicated pegger organized the first Idaho Cribbage Championship, played at his Turf Club in Wallace in October, 1981. And for many years he continued this tradition.

But in 1994, he decided to forego this event and hit the cribbage trail in his own behalf...and he headed "North to Alaska" February 11.

Some 89 peggers showed for this inaugural Anchorage, AK, event, directed by Leon Stier...and after the smoke had cleared, Carlson stood alone as Champion. And to show this was no fluke, he also headed up the qualifying round, taking double honors.

Shelly Meceda, a local pegger, took 2nd, followed by Dar Giese, another pegger from Wallace, ID, and local John Andrews.

John Sheerin, Chugiak, AK, nailed the 29-pegger Consolation.

Bad Timing

Ike Endicott, Prineville, OR, was busily pegging away at the recent Timber Classic Inaugural qualifying round in Roseburg, OR. With first count, needing but a single peg to win, he draws a 28-hand! Bad timing!

And Jim Broadhurst, Medford, OR, was having difficulty getting a helping cut in the playoff...and finally, bingo! A 24-hand! Oops, his opponent has first count and pegs out to win the game! Bad timing!

Press Coverage Good Lately

Ev Bey, our ACC's President, gave our membership advice to use local newspapers as a vehicle to advertise our great organization.

Cribbage World has received copies of three newspaper stories that will go far in advancing the ACC. They are: Sonora, CA, Union Democrat reported on the Youth Tournament organized by Dan Zeisler. Missoula, MT, Missoulian reported on Mike Haggerty's top-qualifying, 3rd place finish at Reno's mammoth JPW/ACC Open. Roseburg, OR's newspaper reported the Timber Classic Inaugural.

All members present except Babcock (excused), Capper (excused), and Angell.

Minutes from last meeting approved after noting a correction regarding Round Robin format relating to one-day only tournaments.

ons criteria to include Grass Roots member reaching 1,000 point level (Bronze). Motion carried.

Horgan and McGibney, after discussion, moved to form a committee regarding proposal. Vice-President Policy will appoint committee to present formal proposal at next meeting. Motion carried.

Audit discussed. It has been three years since audit was done. The books closed on June 30, 1994. The first week in July books are ready. Suggestion that committee of 3 be formed and that one member of audit committee should be a CPA and not a member of the BOD. Shimp willing to serve and would contact Barbara Buntrock regarding work session in Raleigh.

Hassett motioned to increase members on Ethics committee from 5 to 7 effective August 31, 1995, with at least 2 members from each Region. Motion carried.

Hornbeck proposed to increase funding for junior tournaments. Wergin interjected thought regarding getting cribbage in schools and homes as important to ACC's growth. Michaelis moved to give up to $250 for Junior Tournament based on expense vouchers approved by tournament commissioner. Motion carried.

Hofbauer moved to make 3 of 5 playoffs mandatory on first rounds of a 2-day tournament. Carried.

Hamilton noted this is an election year, with open nominations. Election to be handled in same manner as last election with exception of having two people picking up and counting ballots, as noted by Griffin.

Kooistra moved to hold JPW/ACC Open and TOC at the Sands Regency, Reno, NV again in 1996. Carried.

It was noted that playoff brackets in the back of the new rule book are incorrect, and that correct one be printed in Cribbage World for insertion in rule book.

Bickford requested approval for Peer Tournament exemption. Fingleton reported that the letter to her indicated a permanent allowance. Tournament Commissioner has authority to allow 3 variances. With one open, she would allow it.

Larry Samet reviewed progress on National Match Play Tournament. Dickinson has pamphlet with GR information for tournaments. Shimp announced meeting for Judges for JPW/ACC Open and TOC play.

Horgan proposed mandatory cross-checking of score cards. Put on next meeting's agenda, in addition to Rookie of the Year and Distinguished Service Award.

Rein moved to adjourn. Minutes recorded by J. Rein.

Betty Capper Cops Oregon Championship

Reynolds, Hatcher Make MRP Move

Betty Capper, the better half of Mr. and Mrs. Cribbage World in the mid-1980's, and a hard working tournament director from Hermiston, OR, finally received her award from the Cribbage Gods, as she nailed the huge (174-pegger) Oregon Championship in Prineville February 19. In winning this long-running event (some 14 years old), Betty took home a nifty $1,000 and a bushel of MRP's. She was unable to attend the Reno JPW/ACC Open due to medical problems...but made up for lost time in taking the championship in Oregon.

Glen Hefner, Creswell, OR, finished 2nd after a fine run. Sharon Morgan, Bend, OR, took 3rd...and had to play one of the nation's hottest peggers in the 3-4 bracket...Steve Reynolds, from Concord, CA.

In finishing 4th, Reynolds tacked on another 150MRP's, and has taken the national lead for this cribbage year, standing at about 950!

Another player running hot is Paul Hatcher, Salem, OR. He finished 7th, and throws his hat into the MRP ring, and has moved up to the 750+ mark for the year.

Todd Malmgren, Clackamas, OR, not only won the Doubles event (teaming with Charlene Bitton, Kennewick, WA), but was top qualifier in the Main Event, scoring a nice 38 GP's.

Ed Park, Roseburg, OR, nailed the 114-pegger Consolation, and had to get by that travelling pegger from San Jose, CA in the final match...R. M. "Robby" Robson!

Mike Braukmann edged his dad, Randy, for 3rd place. These kids simply don't have any respect anymore! This duo hails from Hillsboro, OR.

The satellites:

Time Passer: Betty Nolz, Redmond, OR

High Roller: John Tischer, Kalama, WA

Saturday Special: Mike Reich, Weston, OR

Director Bob St. Yves continues to draw a crowd in Prineville, and this 14th annual event proceeded without a hitch!

In Memoriam

Loretta Williams

Prineville, Oregon

Loretta passed away on Sunday, February 19, from an aneurysm. A mainstay in Northwest cribbage, she will be long missed by her many friends. Her death was especially heart-wrenching, as she passed away during Sunday's play at her hometown Oregon Championship.

Ralph Yost

Ralph passed away September 20. He was an avid pegger with Grass Roots Club 96, Rapid City, SD. He greatly enjoyed cribbage, and he will be greatly missed by his many cribbage friends. His wife, Betty, left a memorial gift to the club and they all wish her thanks.

Father, Son, Score 29's

In regular play of Grass Roots Club 96, Rapid City, SD, two 29-hands have been scored since December. First, it was Ray Suchta, who nailed this gem on December 19, 1994. Seven weeks later, his son, William, duplicated the feat on February 12, 1995.

Recently in cribbagemland, father-sons, husband-wives, and even brothers are in fierce competition for honors.

Thank You!

Thank you very much to all participants for making the Tournament of Champions and the JPW/ACC Open a great weekend for one and all.

A special "thank you" to all the volunteers who gave up a good portion of their weekend to help things run smoothly.

And a BIG thank you to Barbara Woodward, Teri and their helpers for the excellent job they do for this weekend. I know a lot of it is 'above and beyond' what is expected of them. We do appreciate everything.

Last, but certainly not least, thank you to Pete Cladianos and the Sands for hosting us and for the $7,000 donation to the prize fund.

Joan Rein, Director, TOC

Bobby Stuart Tops In Florida

Bobby Stuart came a little bit south of his Lawrenceville, GA home and carted off the 1995 Greater Orlando title, edging another Georgian in the final match...George Mowery.

And in 3rd place was none other than the travelling pegger Ed Horigan, from Virginia Beach, VA, picking up a few more MRP's for his annual top-ten run. Appleton, WI's Doug Page is also on the trail and making a MRP move. He took 4th.

The Consolation almost belonged to Rae Gosselin, as she qualified with a Grand Slam, and came close to winning it all, but Bob Gombatz, Raleigh, NC, is also on a tear this cribbage year...and continues to rack up MRP's by winning this event. Gosselin hails from Burlington, VT.

The Satellites:

Friday: Cindy Johnson

High Roller: Bob Gombatz

Saturday Night: Ken Cambell

Cry Baby: Terry Gosselin

Ted Lee Southland scored a 28-hand...and he came from only a few miles away (Casselberry, FL), but Bea Olyer also scored one...and she came transcontinental (from Fairfield, CA) to pick up this gem. Bea has hit the "trail" with a vengeance lately...as she has also signed on to play in the Montana Open in April.

Dick West Tops Super Lite Classic

Some 134 peggers were on hand January 22 for the annual Dante Club Super Lite Classic in Wst Springfield, MA. Dick West, Attleboro, MA, came through with the championship, besting Grand Master Larry Samet (Wellesley, MA) in the final match. George Riley, Taunton, MA, and Edwin Law, Belchertown, MA, finished 3rd and 4th.

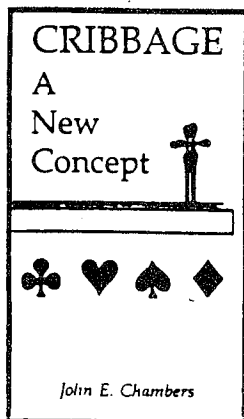

Brenda Palmer (W. Springfield, MA) scored the top qualifying round card, but the big news in the MRP race was Robert Medeiros, Quincy, MA, qualifying 6th and finishing 7th, picking up yet another 126 MRP's and is keeping pace with the leaders nationwide in this annual race.

Harry Palmer, not to be outdone by his wife, Brenda, came though in the Consolation, picking up the win in this 102-pegger match. Bob Drukman, N. Easton, MA, took 2nd, followed by Dave Proctor (E. Longmeadow, MA) and Al Italian (Peabody, MA) in 3rd and 4th.

Directors Charlie Finley and Jim Law continue to draw large crowds, and they report that they will once again schedule this event next January 21, 1996.

Deb Schisel Nails Huge 22 (9) +206 Card

According to Regional Statistician Patrick Barrett, Deb Schisel, Kenosha, WI scored a huge 22 (9) +206 card December 21 in GR play.

2-2-2-2! 2-2-2-2! 2-2-2-2?

On March 11 in Fairfield, CA, Calvin Rinaldi and Bob Padgett played a very unusual game.

On the first hand, both Calvin and Bob held a pair of dueces, with Calvin coming out on top with the fourth duece for a 12-peg. On hand no. 2, the very same cards were played with Bob coming out on top with four dueces for a 12-peg.

And on hand three, both players once again held two dueces...but enough of that. Calvin discarded one to the crib and Bob discarded both dueces to the crib! Shell-shock had set in!

As the 1995 season heads into the home stretch (July 31 ends the season), 10 of the ACC's finest players have earned Master in recent weeks.

Robert Waltzer, Medford, MA, has been steadily picking up MRP's, and is currently ranked 48th in his Region. His 4th place finish at the Holiday Classic has propelled him to the ACC's 210th Master. Roberta Schweig, Carpentersville, IL, is a mainstay in the Central Region. She recently earned Master no. 211. Boyd McDonald, Mountain View, CA, is at the 400 MRP mark for this year, and his superior pegging has earned him the ACC's 212th Master. Jim Hornbacher, a great sportsman from Bothell, WA, rarely misses a Northwest event and has earned Master no. 213. Another of the Western Region's great sports is Robbie Robson, San Jose, CA. Robbie is one of the ACC's most widely travelled peggers and is seen from coast to coast pegging away. He has earned Master no. 214. Morris Schiffman, Portland, OR, stays a little closer to home...but he is very tough on his own turf. He owns Master no. 215. No. 216 belongs to Rick Rickmeyer, Concord, CA, and he is winging along at the 600 mark for this cribbage year. Another Californian who picks 'em up and lays 'em down with the best is Heidi Glashan. This Pittsburg, CA pegger owns no. 217. Keith Forrest, Stevensville, MT nailed 4th in Reno, and is on a tear this year, scoring some 700 MRP's to date...and has no. 218 in the bag. Greta Gorden, Redmond, OR, is legally blind, and plays on a special board...but that doesn't stop this tough Oregon pegger from scoring those MRP's. She owns no. 219!

Three New Grand Masters

Patrick Barrett,
Denny Van Orsow,
Larry Rowley Top 4,000 MRP's

Patrick Barrett, Wisconsin Rapids, WI nailed 6th place at the recent Polish Open and with the 157 MRP's has winged it over the 4,000 lifetime mark, earning the ACC's 40th Grand Master. Barrett is a mainstay in the Central Region, and in addition to being one of America's finest peggers, also does a yeoman's job as a member of the ACC's Board of Directors, and also serving as a Regional Statistician (and publishing a newsletter) for the area's Grass Roots clubs.

Denny Van Orsow, Culver, OR, earned All-American in the 1994 season, and continues to rack up MRP's on a steady basis, and also recently winged it over the 4,000 MRP barrier...and Grand Master no. 41. He is currently ranked 25th in the Western Region for the 1995 season.

Larry Rowley, Fitchburg, WI, earned All-American honors in 1983 (finishing 3rd in the USA in that year), and this veteran pegger has earned Grand Master no. 42. Always a threat to win any event, Rowley is once again ranked in his region's top 100 for the 1995 year.

28 Hands Abundant In Reno

The record-breaking JWP/ACC Open in Reno also set records in numbers of 28-hand scored. In two days of pegging, some 18 of these gems were recorded. The players who were in on the action:

Saturday, February 4:

Bill Sperry, Maplewood, MN
Peggy Sondericker, Wauwatosa WI
Jim Strickling, Arlington TX
Ruth Zimmerman, Green Bay WI
Toni Morrow, Sunnyside WA
John Mathews, Oroville CA
E. G. Hanson, Santa Rosa CA
Robert Iacopi, Los Altos, CA
John Dellarsina, El Cajon CA
Jerry Carlson, Jonesboro, GA
Anna Abbott, Incline Village NV

Sunday, February 5:

Bobby Burnett, Anchorage AK
Ginny Danielski, Appleton WI
Bud Ferrigno, Canby OR
Darrell Hunstad, Nipomo CA
Wallace McCracken, Skagway AK
Jalae McCreary, Omaha NE
Jim McManus, Milwaukee WI

In addition to this record-breaking scoring, Lee Chambers, Corvallis, OR, scored the only 29-hand.

Alyssa Ward Cops Youth Tournament

Dan Zeisler recently conducted a Youth Tournament in Bellview School in Sonora, CA.

With some 40 students, (ages between 9 and 15) signed on, a match of six qualifying games were played. Mandy Young topped the round with a perfect 14 (6) +143.

However, Alyssa Ward came through in the playoffs to nip Mandy 2-1 to claim the title. Josh Cripps took 3rd, followed by Erica Pettersen in 4th. Shanna Stoughton scored a 28-hand.

According to director Zeisler, five schools were represented in the competition, and two teachers from other schools checked out the action...and are now ready to begin formal programs at their schools. If you would like to teach kids in schools, write to: Dan Zeisler, 21429 Montgomery Rd., Sonora, CA 95370. (209) 536-1549. A $5 donation will cover the cost of printing and mailing a manual that covers this program.

Cribbage Board Puzzle Solved

The unique cribbage board unearthed by Julio Sartor and reported in February's Cribbage World is producing production clues, according to Bette Bemis, President of the Cribbage Board Collectors Society.

Bette writes that she has received information on at least seven varieties of the "Fool-Proof" board. This board has pull-up and push-down permanently attached pegs, and the board was also used to keep score for at least two other card games in addition to cribbage, namely Bezique (a game similar to Pinochle) and Whist.

One board of this type was manufactured in Windsor, WI in the mid-1800's by the Windsor Mfg. Co. Another board with push-in or pull-out pegs was John Gill's Cribbage Board and Whist Counter, patented in 1863 and manufactured in New York. Another board of this type was manufactured by the Specialty Company, Cortland, NY around 1890.

Three other boards with push-in or pull-up pegs have been reported. Two are varieties of unknown manufacturers, and the third is a metal-framed board made in Marden Lane, NY.

At any rate, it appears that in the mid-to-late 1800's, small metal and wooden boards with attached pegs were popular, but with the turn of the century, their manufacture ceased. But these boards certainly make great collectibles.

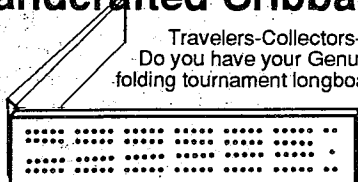

If any of our ACC members have additional information on these boards (or others), write to Bette Bemis, Box 170, Carolina, RI 02812. (401) 364-7241.

Master Rating Point Record

Tim Krawczyk, River Falls, WI, recently wrote Cribbage World: "I have been wondering if there is any record that exists (officially or unofficially) concerning the most Master Points obtained within a single cribbage season."

The record for scoring Master Points scored in a single season occurred in 1990...and Scott Kooistra, the South Dakota King of Cribbage, nailed a still standing record of 2,182. This Life Master has some 9,500 MRP's to his credit, lifetime, and is the ACC's 4th ranked player!

The Ladies

*It's said to be a gentleman's game,
 But ladies play it, all the same.
 And some of them go on to fame
 In cribbage.*

*They add that kinder, gentler touch.
 They seldom grumble (well, not much).
 Or tear their hair, or swear and suck
 In cribbage.*

*And, when they get a lousy draw,
 They smile and softly say "Oh pshaw!"
 In cribbage.*

*But when the game is lost, or won,
 They've always made it lots of fun.
 So, may God bless 'em, every one.
 In cribbage.*

Don Tuttle
 LaGrande, Oregon

*Life Master is the ultimate goal
 Of peggers from pole-to-pole
 The task is quite simple:
 Always win by a pimple.
 To the hundreth and twenty-first hole.*

Russell Adams

The Silly Stupid Game

*At tournaments I wonder why I came
 to play this silly stupid game.*

*Fifteen two and fifteen four.
 No matter what, there ain't no more.*

*It's my crib, maybe there,
 Pick it up, a lousy pair.*

*Across the table, she smiles so sweet,
 She's down the board, almost a street.*

*So I settle down to play some more,
 What'a ya know, a twenty four.*

*The game goes on, down to the wire,
 It's really close, and I perspire.*

*Two to go, with her the same,
 What can I do to win this game?*

*I have to peg, I'm dealt all faces,
 What ever happened to all the ace's?*

*Three queens, two kings and a jack,
 I feel the sweat run down my back.*

*I take a deep breath, and play a queen,
 A smile appears, the biggest I've seen.*

*She pairs the lady, and says "thank you."
 O what in the world was I to do?*

*I played my best, but it was fate,
 My good hands were a little too late.*

*"Good luck" I say and move along,
 trying to guess where I went wrong.*

*At tournaments I wonder why I came,
 to play this silly stupid game.*

In Memoriam

Stan "The Man" Daniels

Portsmouth, Virginia

On March 2, Stan "The Man" Daniels passed away after suffering a cerebral hemorrhage. Stan was one of the originators of the Portside Open tournament and was the director for the past five years. He was a Cribadier General and an ACC life member, and an adamant supporter of cribbage and everything it stands for. Stan was a friend, father, and grandfather always with a smile and a good word for most everything. He could always be heard telling a joke or seen flirting with the ladies. He was always trying for that elusive 29-hand. After 40 plus years of playing, I know that he had at least dealt one 29-hand, because it was to me after our weekly Saturday night dinner. Well, I returned the favor before we said our final fair-well. I placed a 29-hand in his top pocket. Stan will certainly be missed by all his family and friends, and all those cribbage players who knew Stan "The Man" from Portsmouth, VA.

Richard McCormick

Son-In-Law, Director, Portside Open

Phillip Dupuis

Denver, Colorado

Phil passed away on February 3. Despite being ill for some time, he played as much cribbage as often as he could. A member of GR Club 34, he had scored a 29-hand on October 4, 1995. Phil's sons Kerry and Matt are avid players as well as his brother Roy. He will long be missed by his many Colorado friends, especially in his home club, the Smokeless Peggers #34.

William C. Wheeler

Atlantic Beach, Florida

Bill died January 25 in Atlantic Beach, Florida. Bill had moved to Florida from Storrs, CT in 1988, where he played in many tournaments in the New England area. He continued his play in Florida. He will be greatly missed by his many Florida friends, and especially those from Grass Roots Club 13.

ACC Members

Will Peg For 10,600 Years...

Forestville, CA's Cedric Larson has been doing some calculating concerning the odds of both players scoring the same-suit flush...and another same-suit flush in the crib. All 13 cards in play from the same suit!

Cedric figures it would take the entire Cribbage Congress about 10,600 years of daily play (18 games per day) to have even odds of scoring this rarity...all 13 cards of the same suit in play.

In precise terms, he claims the odds are 2,063,794,068 to 1.

Rookie Sizzling At 73.3% Pace

Brian Gauthier, Marinette, WI is a newcomer to GR Club 93...and in some 45 games played, he has won 33 of them. This is a sizzling 73.3% pace. Region Statistician Patrick Barrett is wondering how long Brian can keep up this torrid pace.

J. C. Turner On Roll

On January 10, J. C. Turner (GR #62) won his first 8 games, before losing to "Roseburg Ralph" Hart, finishing the night with a fine 18 (8) +125. The very next week he again won his first 8 games. He wasn't going to repeat the previous week's 9th game loss. This time he skunked his opponent for a Grand Slam! His score? 20 (9) +232. J. C.'s incredible 18 game total: 38 (17) +357.

According to Region II Statistician Larry Hassett, Janice Roberts (GR 66) scored a Grand Slam January 31, as did Wayne Larson (GR 156) on December 29.

Goldia Rager Likes Fives

While playing in a tournament on February 16, Goldia Rager, Sonoma, CA, cut a five for the starter card five times in a row in one game. In the next game, she cut two more fives, making it seven times in a row! Now that takes a lot of practice!

91 Year-old Pegger Scores 1st 29

First let me say you and your buddies do a great job with Cribbage World and all its aspects. Here is a little news if you can use it.

At our local Moose Lodge 1271 cribbage match once a week, 16 of us sat down to play (we are trying to get Grass Rooted). A visitor from Maine named Gene Duplissy (and his nieces) joined our group.

In the first hand of the first game, Gene cut the five of spades for a 29-hand! His first ever! He has played for 80 years!

Our young club is three years old and has had its share of goodies: a 29-hand, four 28-hands, a Grand Slam, a String of Pearls, and I scored five skunks in eight games (with a bye).

Local GR 82 Members Nail Monterey Bay/Larry Good Memorial

Art Fisher deserves kudos for a well run tournament. Members of the local club (82) certainly appreciated it...as they made a great showing! 12 of them entered the tournament and achieved the following:

Doubles: members were on the 1st, 3rd & 5th place teams.

Main: 8 of 12 qualified, and 6 made it to the championship round! They took 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, 7th and one went to 9-16.

Saturday Special: 4th and 9th.

Sunday Consolation: High qualifier, also winner of All Events.

Grass Roots 82 is small but potent!

*Mel Ashley
GR 82, Marina, CA*

PS: I would like ACC members to respond to a proposed rules change. I would like to recommend a four-card flush be scored in the crib hand in the same manner that a four-card flush is scored in the hands. If you feel this would add consistency and fairness to the game, drop me a line: Mel Ashley, PO Box 771, Marina, CA 93933. If enough interest is shown, I will petition the ACC's BOD for a rules change.

Hard Way To Qualify

Life Master Jesse Jarrell, Pittsburg, CA, was in big trouble, standing 46 points short of winning, and had the deal. He was dealt a 2-3-4-4-5-5, and discarded the 5-5 to his own crib. A 4 is cut. Jesse pegs 10 points and counts his 17 hand. He is now 19 points short of winning. Lo and behold, the pone had discarded a 3-3! With a 3-3-4-5-5 crib he scores 20 to win the game and qualify for the Consolation playoffs. No wonder he is a Life master!

Rick Allen's Year?

In the last nine months of Grass Roots pegging, Rick Allen of the Richmond, VA, Cribbage Club has scored a Grand Slam, a 29-hand, and a 28-hand.

Mel Kranz Stunned

Mel Kranz, Ventura, CA was in hole 120, with first count in a GR club game with John Mixer, Camarillo, CA. An easy win? No! Mel scored a "19" with no pegs, allowing John to score his hand and crib to steal the game!

Kevin Bremmer Flipped Out?

Kevin Bremmer, Wisconsin Rapids, WI, recently wrote CW asking if he could keep all six cards dealt...and what would be the maximum points scored holding all six. He comes up with a 72-point hand. He holds 4-4-5-5-6-6, and cuts a 5! Anyone in cribbagemland top this?

Why Judges Turn Grey

Bart Sargent, Westwood, MA, wrote CW about a tough call he received in a recent tournament. Bart was in hole 119 and had first count, with a 15-point lead. After playing his last card for a "go" he failed to peg the one point, and went ahead and pegged out, claiming the game as his hand held sufficient pegs to win. His opponent claimed "false claim of game!" A judge was summoned and agreed that the rules had been violated, and, indeed, this was a false claim of game, and was penalized the 15 holes. Needless to say, this caused Bart much hard feelings and he almost withdrew from the tournament.

I know I'm on thin ice here, and I should probably not comment on this strict rule interpretation, but I'm not in favor of manipulating rules to get a cheap win, when obviously, you have lost the game! I think sportsmanship is paramount in our great game. We had a ruling in St. Paul recently that parallels this one. Be a good sport and use common sense! However, don't give your opponent ammunition for a cheap claim of game. Be especially careful around the winner's hole! Ed.

Kudos to Organized Cribbage

About a year ago, my son and I went on a gambling vacation in Reno and one night we read about a cribbage tournament in one of the hotels there. As we both love to play, we went and had a most enjoyable evening. It was there that I found out about the ACC and how cribbage was a nationwide sport with GR clubs throughout the US. Someone there put me in touch with some people on the East Coast and I soon found a home with GR 181, in Mansfield, MA, run by Tony Del Tufo, a former $10,000 winner in Reno, and a great guy. Through him I located a club in Braintree, where my daughter and son-in-law, Emily and Rob Medeiros, could play. (Rob has been No. 1 in the country for a few months, and Emily has been No. 2 woman for a while.

What both amazes and pleases me, is the amount of family participation that you see at the tournaments. Husbands and wives, mother and father and their children, brothers and sisters, all competing against one another and loving it. In these days where all you read about and see on TV is violence, drugs, et al, this is like a breath of Spring and a revelation.

My only regret is that I found it so late in life, but now that I've accumulated my first few MRP points, there's no telling where this will end up...

Sam Shwartz
Foxborough, MA

Yessir, Sam, cribbage is a great family game! And when you introduced Rob and Emily to the ACC family, you proved that your family knows how to pick 'em up and lay 'em down. What Robert has done is his first year of sanctioned pegging is truly astounding! He has an excellent chance to win the National Championship in his first year! And Emily is also at the 500 MRP mark for the year, too! I know many Grand Masters who would love to own that number in March! Keep pegging! Ed.

April 15 Deadline For Nominations

If you wish to run for the ACC's Board of Directors, the deadline for nominations (including a brief biography) is April 15. Send to: Ron Hamilton, 1685 Pioneer Lane, White Bear Lake, MN 55110.

Master Point Race Heats Up Steve Reynolds, Bob Gombatz Take Lead George Bickford, Robert Medeiros, Darrel Miotke, Paul Hatcher, Rit Alkas, Ed Horigan, Patrick Barrett and Bob Julian Hang Tough

With but four short months of pegging action remaining this cribbage year, the Master Point Race for honors is up for grabs.

Bob Gombatz, a premier pegger from Raleigh, NC, has taken to the cribbage trail with a vengeance, and has been piling up MRP's at every stop in making a spirited run for the roses. Gombatz's pegging is mainly in the Eastern Region and he is second nationally with 972 MRP's.

Meanwhile, out west, Stephen Reynolds, Concord, CA, has also been making a move. After finishing 4th in the 174-pegger Oregon Championships, and a Consolation 4th in Green Bay (not yet posted), has scored an outstanding 1,079 MRP's...and has grabbed the national lead.

Two Eastern Region players are nipping at the leader's heels...George Bickford, a Grand Master from W. Springfield, MA, and rookie Robert Medeiros, Quincy, MA. This is Medeiros' first year of tournament pegging, and his numbers are astounding, considering the fierce competition encountered in sanctioned tournament play.

The next six players are all experienced peggers, making a close finish for this year's race for top ten almost a certainty: Master Darrel Miotke from Sublimity, OR, finished in the top ten last year, and is looking for a repeat performance, standing at nearly 800 MRP's; Grand Master Paul Hatcher, Salem, OR, is highly motivated to crack the top ten once again (having done so in 1991 and 1993). Rit Alkas, Manchester, CT is a perennial winner, and Ed Horigan, Virginia Beach, VA...an All-American last year... is in the hunt once again. And don't count out last year's national champion. Bob Julian, Milwaukee, WI, is once again making a move, leading the Central Region with a nifty 742 MRP's...and with his robust schedule, will certainly be a threat for honors once again. Another Central Region player in the race is Patrick Barrett, Wisconsin Rapids, WI.

Many other peggers are still in the hunt. Anyone with 500 or more MRP's have an excellent chance of overtaking the leaders, as many large tournaments remained to be played.

1995 "Designer Series" Redwood Cribbage Boards

This unique line of cribbage boards will add a wonderful touch of nature to any game room or library. The natural beauty and color of the redwood gives each piece a look all its own, and the hand-painted detailing compliments the gold and black designer plaques with one of four wildlife designs:

- ☐ A Mallard duck in majestic flight with a silhouette of the moon drifting in the background
- ☐ A buck deer holding his rack proudly above his head in defiance
- ☐ A largemouth bass exploding out of the water with a fisherman in the background
- ☐ A magnificent bald eagle with spread wings ready for flight, or to catch his next meal.

Each board comes with 2 sets of hand-stained wooden pegs, highlighted with jeweled rhinestones atop each one. These "double-layer" boards are a must for any cribbage board collector.
