Palmer, Caccia, Gombatz, Schmidt Score Wins

With the 1995 cribbage year rapidly coming to a close (July 31 completes pegging action for the year), the pace in the New England area is picking up! Several sizeable tournaments have been played the past two months, as players scramble for those coveted MRP's and national honors...and the many other intangible rewards.

Blackstone Valley, April 8-9: Harry Palmer, a Life Master from West Springfield, MA, is making a late-season run for MRP honors by taking the 154-pegger tourney. Another fine pegger, Henry DeLong, a Master pegger from Woburn, MA took 2nd. Romolo Piccanda (Mansfield MA) and Beverly Jones (Newburyport, MA) finished 3rd and 4th. Tom Scott, Fiskville, RI, nailed the 94-pegger Consolation. Linda Wood, Marlboro, MA scored the 9th 29-hand of the season and picked up $100 from the ACC for this gem. Director Brian Heroux plans on renewing this event next April 14, 1996.

Ocean State Classic, May 7: Lou Caccia, a Master pegger from Newtonville, MA, has zipped over the 700 MRP mark for the year by winning the sizeable (196 peggers) Ocean State Classic. George Edge, W. Warwick, RI finished 2nd (and garnered 188 MRP's). Rookie Robert Medeiros, on an outstanding run all season, has reached the 1,300 mark with a 3rd place finish...and is well within reach of earning a spot on the All-American team in his first season of organized pegging. Stan Tkaczuk, Wareham, MA, took 4th...and 172 MRP's. Paul Gallagher, a Master pegger from Avon, MA captured the 112-pegger Consolation. Author John Chambers managed this huge inaugural event in fine style and plans on a re-match next May 5, 1996.

Connecticut Championship, May 21: Bob Gombatz, Raleigh, NC continues his torrid play this cribbage year and has roared into the 1,400 MRP stratosphere in winning the 118-pegger Connecticut Championship (after qualifying 6th). Susan Cousens, Windham, ME grabbed 2nd (and 109 MRP's). Cindy Veradt, Taunton, MA won the 74-pegger Consolation. Director Bill Shoemaker plans a rematch next May 19, 1996.

Tri-State Open, May 28: Life Master Phyllis Schmidt, Williamstown, MA, keeps her hat in the All-American race by winning the 68-pegger Tri-State Open, and reaching 1,000 MRP's for this cribbage year. Frank Corrada, E. Hartford, CT, finished 2nd. Joyce Vanelli, Quincy, MA took the 38-pegger Consolation. Director George Cote will play this match again next May 19.

Mick Elected to Hall of Fame

Congratulations to Robert "Mick" Michaelis, just elected as the 17th member of the ACC's Hall of Fame.

The Marinette, WI, flash well deserves the honor. He's a steady contender, sporting a Life Master One-Star award, and a credit to the grand ol' game.

According to Pat Barrett, chairman of the Hall of Fame balloting, Mick received 118 votes out of the 134 counted...an 88% approval.

A total of 234 ballots was mailed to Board members, tournament and Grass Roots directors, with 142 being voted (8 ineligible) for a disappointing 58% vote return. All I can say is everybody who was entitled to vote had their opportunity and we got a good cross-section representation nevertheless.

The other nominee on the ballot, Joe Seigle, drew some 67 votes...50%. A 75% nod is required for approval to the Hall of Fame. Better luck next time, Joe.

Assisting Barrett with the vote count were his brother, Mike, and Duaine Jacobs, all ACC Judges.

Mick joins 16 others who have previously been elected to the ACC Hall of Fame.

In 1982, Sir John Suckling, credited with inventing the game of cribbage in Norfolk County, England, was the first Hall of Famer. Others elected that year were Joseph Petrus Wergin, out first ACC President, of Madison, WI; the late Jim Arblaster, first ACC Secretary, Kissimmee, FL; the late Nick Pond, director of the National Open at Raleigh, NC.

The following year, 1983, in recognition of my sponsorship of the World Championship tournament at Quincy, CA, and fostering ACC growth in the West, I was so honored. By the way, next year will be the 25th Anniversary of the World Championship and a BIG whoop-de-do is being planned. Don't miss it...the first weekend in May, 1996.

In 1985, we chose the late cribbage author G. Douglas Anderson of Halifax, Nova Scotia as the sixth Hall of Famer. Two more were admitted in 1987...Bob Madsen, our second secretary, of Niles, IL, and the late Rasty Rasmussen, Iowa state tournament director for many years, of Anamosa, IA.

In 1989, we elected three more: Nelson Ira Pendergast of Albany, NY, known for his efforts in promoting cribbage in VA hospitals; Syl Lulinski, longtime executive vice-president, of LaGrange Park, IL; and author, Cribbage World editor and Life Master One-Star DeLynn Colvert, Missoula, MT.

1990 saw two more ACC veterans elevated to the Hall of Fame: past-president Bob McCabe of Milwaukee, WI, and executive vice-president Scott Kooistra, of Yankton, SD.

In 1991, we elected Jerry Dickinson, Grass Roots Commissioner, of Mt. Horeb, WI, and Dale Munroe, former Cribbage World editor, of Collinsville, CT.

The last Hall of Famer elected in 1993 was Joan Rein, longtime secretary of the ACC, the first woman to receive the honor.

Come to the Grand National XIV at Plymouth, MA on September 22-24 to see Mick inducted. Our gallery of Hall of Fame pictures will be on display.

I've been out of tournament action recently, spending the entire month of May on a belated honeymoon in France, Germany, Switzerland and England. Stopped at many a pub, brauhaus and bistro, but didn't find any cribbage players during my travels.

Visited the National Portrait Gallery in London, where I found a portrait of Sir John Suckling. Ordered a copy for our archives, for which I expect Treasurer Fred McGibney to reimburse me 27-pounds 50-pence (about $40). Any chance of writing off the whole trip for accomplishing that mission?

Railsback, Schweig, Adams Hot In Central Region

Hawkeye Classic, May 7: Newly crowned Grand Master Buzz Railsback, Syracuse, NE drove a few miles east and nailed the 117-pegger Hawkeye Classic, adding yet another feather in his cap. Jim Rein, Carver, MN, picked up some 109 MRP's in finishing 2nd...and is moving in on his Grand Master (needing but 400 more MRP's). Nebraskan William MacQuarrie took 3rd, and Life Master Jim McManus, Milwaukee, finished 4th. Joe Brown (Carol Stream, IL) won the 76-pegger Consolation. Gene Mikulsky scored his first ever 29-hand on Friday night...one day too soon for the ACC's $100 for a sanctioned gem. And, another sad (?) story, director Larry Loupee scored an 18 GP Grand Slam in the Saturday Special, only to finish 2nd to Ray Warner's (Madison, WI) 22 GP Slam!

Potawatomi Peggers Pow Wow, May 14:

It was ladies day in St. Joseph, MI on May 14 as Roberta Schweig, a newly crowned Master pegger from Illinois took the crown, with Lucille Simpson, Lewiston, NY taking 2nd...and knocking on the door for her Master rating (1,900+ MRP's). Jerry Gruber, a Grand Master from Minneapolis, took 3rd and is having a fine year on the boards, having scored 600+ MRP's this cribbage year. New member David Babcock, Jackson, MI, took 4th. Another member of the fair sex, Sue Schenk, Wyoming, MI, zipped to the 48-pegger Consolation title. Director Jeff Shimp plans on renewing this event next May 17-19, 1996.

Menominee Casino/MGM Open, June 4:

Director Bob Miller and the regular MGM crew (Tom Gallagher and Jerry Lemke) organized a new event at the Menominee Casino, and some 154 peggers signed on for this inaugural. Four of the top peggers from the Central Region copped the main event: Grand Master Russell Adams (Minneapolis) won going away, followed by Master Doug Page (Appleton), Ken Rehm (Appleton), and Al Schaefer (Milwaukee). In finishing 4th, Schaefer has taken the MRP lead in the Central Region for this cribbage year...standing at a nifty 999! Green Bay's premier pegger, Willard Peters, captured the 94-pegger Consolation. Les Kvien, Waite Park, MN, is having a fine year, and by finishing 2nd, moves into the Central Region's top 10 (and has garnered some 750+ MRP's for the year).

The tour will travel by rented vehicles, and the cost will be divided by the participants. The itinerary includes Vermont, New Hampshire and Maine, with stops at the Silver Maple Lodge (Fairlee, VT), Sudbury Inn (Bethel, ME) (local players will challenge the group to a cribbage match), and Holiday Inn (Nashua, NH) in time for the New Hampshire Open (see Tournament Trail, this issue). For more information call Denny at (404) 431-9301.

Harold Schmelzer Tops In Salem

Harold Schmelzer, White City, OR, outlasted the field (122 peggers) in the inaugural Salem Summer Classic on June 4.

Brent Southan (Salem, OR) almost kept honors at home, finishing 2nd. Master pegger Bernie Saueressig, Richland, WA, took 3rd, followed by local Horace McGee in 4th.

National MRP frontrunner Darrel Miotke, Sublimity, OR, streaked to high qualifying honors with a fine 38 (18) +246, and finished in the 9-16 bracket, adding some 93 MRP's to his yearly total. His total for the year now stands at the 1,400 mark, and is among the leaders nationally, giving Miotke an excellent chance of a national championship.

Lee Chambers nailed the 78-pegger Consolation and is zeroing in on his Master rating. Charlie Ball, the travelling pegger from Everett, WA, finished 2nd. Grand Master Roy Hofbauer (Washougal, WA) took 3rd, and Spokane's Jim Keeling finished 4th...and is also getting close to his Master rating.

A highlight of the tourney was Teresa Howe's 29-hand scored in the Sunday playoffs. This gem was the ACC's 12th this season and nets Teresa a nifty $100.

Harvey, Gilkeson Play Unusual Hand

Albany, OR's Diane Harvey and Dave Gilkeson, Winchester, OR, played an unusual hand at the Salem Summer Classic.

Diane held 6-6-6-6, and Dave held 7-7-7-7. An 8 was cut for the starter...much to Diane's chagrin. Of course, Dave was delighted!

Cribbage players all know that the starter card is all-important! One player even wants to change the name of the game to "Cut!"

Al Dean Dean of Cascade Classic X

Al Dean, Kennewick, WA, was the "Dean" of the recent Cascade Classic X in Redmond, OR, as he zipped to the title, besting some 86 dedicated peggers.

Three Bend, OR peggers finished 2-3-4. Anne Haller took 2nd, followed by Master Bill Becker and Eileen Shine in 3rd and 4th.

Laurie Logan, Queen Valley, AZ, posted one of the ACC's all-time high qualifying scores as she nailed a 42 (19) +320 to easily win honors.

Master pegger Bernie Saueressig, Richland, WA took home the Consolation win, followed by Bruce Wridge (Portland), Betty Nolz (Redmond), and Don Roat (Oak Ridge, OR).

The satellites:

Early Bird: Jim Gogolin (OR)

High Roller: Cliff Allen (WA)

Saturday Special: Bob Oriet (OR)

Last Chance: Betty Johnson (WA)

Millie Becker and Marvis Reynolds conducted a well-run tournament in this 10th annual match.

Oldest Vs. Youngest

At the Recent Cascade Classic X, the youngest player in the house was paired against the oldest player.

Jason Hofbauer, age 16, sat down for a game with ex-Cascade champ Ray Rasmussen, age 90.

This time around, youth prevailed, as Jason nailed Ray for a 33-point win!

Helen Walker Zips To BC GR Title

With but one GR match to play, Helen Walker, Prince George, BC found herself in third place, but in the final match she scored 12 GR points and won the inaugural championship for GR club 203, scoring 225 GR points for the year.

Gub Striker came close with 218 GR points, followed by Matt Korolek with 214 GR points.

Club director Linton Walker has this Canadian club off and running!

Cribbage World Back-Up?

Need a job?

At Reno's February Board of Director's meeting, all personnel holding key jobs in the American Cribbage Congress were instructed to have a back-up for their job, should a sudden vacancy occur.

A back-up editor for Cribbage World is needed, should the need arise for a quick replacement.

The ACC voted to pay $100 per month for the job, plus expenses (some $3,000+ is spent every month). This entails typesetting, printing, labeling (hired), and mailing. A volunteer replacement should have some skill in publication work, and have machinery to typeset and layout the publication. Typing skill is a must!

A computer with a Page Maker program (or equivalent) is also necessary, in addition to a quality printer (600 dpi preferred).

If you would like a fun, part-time job (average about 20 hours per week), with lots of deadlines, and many details (tournament trail, ads, etc.) love cribbage, and want to be the national cribbage guru...write to:

Historical Cribbage Board

David Gary learned how to play the game from a Welsh carpenter when he was 10 and has been playing for over 35 years. His best finish was 2nd in Green Bay's MGM Open in 1987.

Gary is now President of Welshwood Industries, and has produced an exciting new cribbage board.

Welshwood Industries is introducing a series of limited edition cribbage boards that commemorate the history of cribbage. Each series reflects an era of cribbage history.

Dave's fondness for the game has led to Welshwood Industries manufacturing these historical boards. Check the enclosed flyer for details.

Forms, Forms, Forms

Tournament directors (and others): When filling out your tournament reports and requests for sanctioning, please be very careful and make all words and numbers legible. And use a BLACK pen (or typewriter). Blue does not photo copy very well.

As we all know, the world runs on forms...and the ACC is no exception! Spelling a name wrong, or publishing a wrong phone number or date is time-consuming to correct. Be careful!

Horror Story

As all our ACC members know, everyone has a cribbage horror story...and we dutifully listen (?) as our fellow players recite the reasons they failed to qualify, or how they were robbed of a game, etc.

Once in a while, a truly heartbreaking story comes along. Our hard-working ACC Statistician is Bob McCabe, Milwaukee, WI, and business concerns keep him from the cribbage trail as much as he would like. But, for only the fourth tournament he has been able to attend this cribbage year, he comes up with this story:

In the 20th, and last, game of the Madison Masters Classic XVII, McCabe must have a win to qualify for the playoffs. Good fortune smiles as he jumps out to a big lead. Horrors! On third street, his opponent scores big and takes the lead! But not to worry, his opponent takes a dive and McCabe re-gains the lead.

McCabe is dealing from 17 points, and his opponent needs 14 to win, with first count. Luck smiles on McCabe, as his opponent scores only 8 points, standing 6 short of winning. Now McCabe counts his hand and crib. Godawful! A 2-hand and a zip crib, and only one peg!

The final hand is dealt. McCabe is dealt an A-6-9-9-Q-K. Needing 14 to win, it looks grim. His opponent needs but 6! He discards the Q-K, and a 10 is cut! A 6-point hand! McCabe needs 8 pegs to win! He leads a 9. His opponent pairs the 9! What a break! McCabe quickly triples up for 6 pegs. His opponent plays a 3 for "30." McCabe's ace scores 2 for "31!" Wow! 8 pegs! A winner!!

His opponent is 4 from game, and holds two cards. McCabe holds a lone 6. You guessed it, he leads a 7, McCabe plays his 6...and his opponent plays an 8...for a run of 3 and a "go" for 4...and game!

Alas, into the Consolation sign-up line! But wait! McCabe qualified for the Consolation playoffs! Oops! He was bumped in the first round playoffs.

Back to work!

Letters to the editor...

School Cribbage Humming

On April 20th, I received my 70th request for a manual on how to teach cribbage to classrooms of kids! This tells me that cribbage players are realizing the value of teaching our next generation this wonderful game, and that a youth movement is definitely on. If you are one of the several cribbers out there who has gone into the classroom, or organized a youth tournament, I encourage you to write up your experience and share it with fellow readers of Cribbage World.

Lately, I have had quite a few willing teachers contact me about equipment needs. For this, I have three possible solutions: 1) borrow equipment from your local grass roots club, 2) survey the group you are about to work with, you may be pleasantly surprised by how many of them have boards and cards they can bring from home, or 3) I have arranged a deal with a local craftsman, and he will make tournament style longboards with metal pegs (plastic ones tend to break off rather easily) for only $10 a board plus $1 per board for shipping and handling (minimum: 5 boards).

Both teachers manuals and cribbage boards are available by contacting me at: 21429 Montgomery Rd., Sonora, CA 95370. If ordering a teachers manual, please include a $5 donation to cover the costs of printing and mailing. Thanks.

Swap a Six or Four For a Five

Regarding Kevin Bremmer's 7-card computation (April CW) ...try swapping a 6 or a 4 for the case 5. I make it to total 96 points (24x4). Right?

Grass Roots #168 Tidbits

Recently, Bob Zube, a first year Grass Roots player, had four skunks, a 28-hand and a Grand Slam with a +305 all in one night! And a while back, Al Dinwoodie, a Grand Master, had 19 GP's and a Grand Slam only to be edged out for first place by Ford Jewer who also had a Grand Slam with 19 GP's and superior spread points. It's not often you see two Grand Slams scored on the same night!

Cribadier General Update

On Jan. 15, I sent a letter to the BOD in which I announced my intention to resign as National Director of the Cribadier Generals Program, effective August 1, 1995. Since this announcement did not show up in the minutes of the BOD meeting in Reno, I should like this format to do so in order that everyone in the ACC membership knows.

In the four years since the late ACC Hall of Famer, Jim Arblaster, passed the Cribadier Generals Program on to me, some very good things have happened: 1) The CG Honor Roll to the program has increased by 116 members from 235 to 351; 2) when the CG Program was passed to me, the program had close to $300. Today, the program is endowed with over $1,100 thanks, to a large extent, to a very successful fundraiser, for which I am extremely grateful to all who participated in it, and to Emil Chrabaszcz, director of the Eastern States Championship, who has made a donation to the CG Program for the last three years and plans to do so again this year; 3) seven junior tournaments have been held and one new classroom cribbage program has started.

As this program passes from my direction, I look for bigger things to come especially in the classrooms of schools across the country. Dan Zeisler, a teacher in Sonora, CA, has shared his thoughts about teaching children to play cribbage in a couple of letters to CW, and has put together an excellent classroom lesson plan for teachers and non-teachers alike. Now that Dan has laid the groundwork for teaching cribbage in the classroom, I would encourage as many ACC members as possible to offer classroom instruction or start an after-school cribbage club. For as many benefits that we adults now enjoy in organized cribbage activities... tournaments, grass roots, awards, and recognition in a first-class publication ...teaching cribbage to children in the schools is the very least we can do to perpetuate the ACC and this great game in the family unit into the next generation.

In closing, I should like to thank Scott Kooistra for his cooperation and his very able representation of the CG Program during the ACC BOD meetings. I enjoyed working with Scott, a true gentleman of the highest order.

Finally, I would like to thank everyone who supported the CG Program during my tenure as National Director for your generous contributions and your volunteer efforts in the classroom and in the conduct of junior tournaments. May your cribbage days be many, enjoyable, and successful.

Grand National XIV

September 22, 23, & 24, 1995
The Sheraton Village Landing
Plymouth, Massachusetts

Grand National XIV, The American Cribbage Congress's showcase tournament, will be held in the Eastern Region at Plymouth, Massachusetts September 22, 23, and 24. The playing site will be the Sheraton Village Landing, 180 Water Street.

Players from throughout the United States and Canada are expected to compete in this annual event. After Saturday's qualifying round, the ACC's Annual Awards Banquet will award players honors they have achieved in the 1995 cribbage year.

Director's Jim Ready and George Bickford have been hard at work to make this year's prestigious event one to remember for years to come. And, as an added attraction, this event will be the center-piece of an Eastern Region triple-header. On Sunday, September 17, the Massachusetts Open will be held in Attleboro (Tony Del Tufo is the director), and on Sunday, October 1, the New Hampshire Open will hold their annual meet in Nashua (director: Al Miller).

But the big show is the 14th annual Grand National. Last year, Bob Hanes, a pegger from Huxley, Iowa, became the first repeat winner of this event as he won going away at St. Paul's 13th annual GN (he also won the 5th GN). Some 380 peggers made a go for that title...and this year's 14th should have another huge field.

Friendly Game Rule?

My opponent was 8 holes out with back peg behind front peg. Opponent had the 8-count, picked up both pegs at the same time, put both pegs at the end of the board and claimed the game. Question was raised about picking up both pegs at the same time. Judge that saw the opponent pick up the pegs refused to judge. Two other judges ruled "This is a friendly game, your opponent won."

What is the official ruling? Also Rule VIII, Section 4a, should apply and judges should not refuse their services.

Gordon Brown
Roseville, CA

Gordon, you are certainly correct that this was a violation of the rules. Rule VIII, Sec. 4a (2): Removing both pegs, either to place in the starter holes or to retrieve personally-owned pegs, the player is considered to have falsely claimed the game.

However, over the years many players have become "sloppy" and, when a game is obviously won, do stupid things such as your example. And judges hate to rule a false claim of game, when the game was clearly won. Nevertheless, I feel you have a strong case of inappropriate action taken by judges.

Everyone...be careful around the winner's hole! Ed.

New Scoring Format?

Playing ACC tournament cribbage for some 7 years now, I have come across players complaining once in a while about the scoring format. I have been tossing around an idea for quite sometime now, and would like to hear your feedback. I have shared my idea on score changing with many players now, and all have agreed to my plan. I would like to see the 3-point play stay in effect for skunks, as the 3-point awards for wins. So what is my change? I really believe more people would come to enjoy the game more, if 1-point would be awarded to players who lose their games by 9 holes or less. All single digit losses would be awarded 1 point. This would provide the player (for example) the non-dealer, who may have played a near perfect game, who came up with 1-2-3 and a few more points short, to be given some type of reward. I see a great deal of frustration from players, who lose a game by 9 or 5 or less points. Players would feel better about their game if they lose a squeaker and yet still get to salvage something out of a tough loss.

The winner would still enjoy the 2 points earned. Look at a player who qualifies with a 28 (2 skunk sheet) compared to the player who did not qualify with a 27 point sheet and also lost 3, 4, 5, even 6 games by 9 or 5 holes or less. I've been giving you both scenarios (9 or 5) because I myself have not even decided on whether or not the losers should be given the 1 point if they lose by 5 or less, or 9 or less? At any rate, the max. limit would be 9 points, with the loser earning one game point.

With my way, this would also give some benefit to those players who may have lost a lot of opening cuts (with the non-dealer being at a nine point deficit). Losing a game by 15, 20, 25 points is acceptable. The player who lose by 5 or less are upset. And why discourage those individuals who lose a lot of close ones! In the end, the top 25% still would qualify...so I say, let's make losing a little more acceptable!

Tim Krawczyk River Falls, WI

Tim, this is an interesting idea, but I feel that our present system of tie-breakers addresses rewarding close losses...as this minimizes your minus spread points (third tie-breaker). If it ain't broken...don't fix it! Ed.

Gin Rummy?

I am a new member of Cribbage World (ACC) and am enjoying it very much. I was surprised at the great number of members and the many tournaments; and pleased.

I also enjoy gin rummy. Would it be possible to have gin rummy tournaments occasionally?

*Andrew Musso
Montrose, CA*

Now that's a whole new ball game...and another card organization. A Texas-based gin rummy organization exists, and, I'm sure they also have their tournaments. The last address I had was "The Ginner" 1101 Pebble Beach Dr., Mansfield, TX 76063. (817) 477-3900. In 1990 their membership dues were $30! Our ACC dues, as of August 1, will be only $10 per year. We feel the ACC offers a whale of a bargain! Keep pegging! Ed.

Missoula's New Carousel

Eddie is referring to Missoula, MT's new hand-carved carousel that recently opened. This unique hand-crafted carousel recently made national news...so, when you are in Missoula for a little pegging, and you want to forget all those godawful hands you were dealt all day...go take a ride! Ed.

Peer Opens Door For New Winners

The 3rd playing of the New England Championship as a peer event on August 26 & 27 will again offer a level playing field for cribbage players of varying abilities. Using lifetime MRP's as a criteria, players face their peers in the qualifying round. The first two peer tournaments proved conclusively that given a real shot at qualifying, lower ranked players have an equal chance to finish well. The winners in 1993 and 1994 both won their first tournament ever. Whether arranged in groups of 24 or 44, an equal percentage of qualifiers has come out of each group both years. If you want a real shot to test yourself against your peers, this tournament will give it to you. "Master" rated players who played in '93 and '94 called it a rare opportunity to meet their peers. See Tournament Trail or call Joe Seigle at (203) 742-7234 for entry information.

*Joe Seigle
Coventry, CT*

Hey Joe, come out to the NW...everyone is an expert! I haven't seen a "pigeon" in two or three years! Ed.

Readers Say Four of a Kind is 12 Points!

Wava Stevens claimed 4 of a kind should be scored as 24 points (May CW). This has drawn a response from many readers as follows:

"...If the point values were as Stevens proposes then in actuality each pair will have been counted twice. There are exactly six distinct pairs within any four of a kind, hence the 12-point value...Which reminds me, I have seen license plate 5-5555 in Laramie, WY...which would have to be scored as 40 points!" Tom Mentock, Sheridan, WY.

"4 of a kind should only be 12 points. The basics show a pair is 2 points. That means 3 of a kind is 6 points (3 pairs). 4 of a kind is 12 points because there are 6 pairs." Rodney Campoviano, Lincoln, RI.

Gombatz, Miotke, Medeiros Hold MRP Lead 1995 Season's Honors Up For Grabs

With one short month to play in the American Cribbage Congress's 1995 season, the annual Master Point race is up for grabs. In one of the most heated races in the ACC's history, some 25 (or more) players have a shot at taking the national title.

Bob Gombatz, Raleigh, NC, travelled north to Connecticut and took their annual championship on May 21, and has taken a slight MRP lead nationally (1,375). And right on his heels after taking qualifying honors in Salem OR's Summer Classic is Darrel Miotke, Sublimity, OR (unofficial 1,328). In his first year of organized pegging, Robert Medeiros, Quincy, MA, has zipped to the 1,300 mark...and took a nifty 3rd place May 7 in Pawtucket, RI's Ocean State Classic (196 peggers). Stephen Reynolds, Concord, CA, is nipping at the leader's heels, standing at 1,247.

From that point on, the race is really up for grabs. In the Eastern Region, George Bickford (1,106), Larry Samet (1,085), David Clemmey (1,061), Rit Alkas (1,028), and Brian Heroux (1,021) have all topped the 1,000 mark. Harry Palmer has made a big move upwards lately, and this Life Master remains in the hunt. Another Life Master...Phyllis Schmidt..won the Tri-State Open May 28 and is near the 1,000 mark. Ed Horigan and Robert Drukman have topped 900 MRP's.

Out west, DeLynn Colvert, Paul Hatcher, and Greg Schleusner have outside chances of making the top ten.

In the Central Region, Alan Schaefer, has zipped into the lead in that region with 999 MRP's. Defending National Champion Bob Julian is at the 900 mark, as is Deb Schisel and Patrick Barrett. Doug Page, Kenneth Capodagli, and newly inducted Hall of Famer Robert "Mick" Michaelis have cracked the 800 mark.

Only a handful of sanctioned events remain to be played this cribbage year. The largest are the annual Independence Day Classic in Reno, Lewis & Clark Classic in Yankton, Devil Mountain Caper in California, Maine Open and West Side Sizzler in NE...and, once again, all the marbles will be on the line at the National Open in Raleigh July 31 (the final day of the season).

Larry Samet Earns Life Master

Taking top qualifying honors, and finishing in the 5-8 bracket at the recent Tri-State Open in Brattleboro, VT, Laurence (Larry) Samet, Wellesley, MA, has earned exactly 6,000 MRP's and becomes only the 15th player to reach this plateau. A leader of organized cribbage in the New England area, Larry is running for the ACC's Board of Directors...and is also in the national MRP race for top honors this cribbage year. He earned All-American status in 1987 and again in 1992, and has an excellent chance of repeating for the third time this year.

Jim Gogolin, Charles Ritter, Bill Sperry, and Phil True Earn Master

Jim Gogolin, Idlewild Park, OR; Charles Ritter, Grand Island, NE; Bill Sperry, Maplewood, MN, and Phil True, Richland, WA have all earned their Master ratings (2,000 MRP's). Gogolin and True have been outstanding peggers in the Northwest for the past several years, and Sperry and Ritter have also been pegging with the best in the Central Region. The ACC has only bestowed some 225 Master ratings in their 15-year history.
