Gilkeson Lasts Longest

After the record crowd of 162 peggers feasted on clams, oysters, and salmon, they settled back to do a little serious pegging at the recent Longest Beach Classic in Long Beach, WA.

Dave Gilkeson, Winchester, OR, pegged the longest, as he won the championship...and $1,500! Being confined to a wheel chair was no handicap to Dave, as he breezed to the title, picking up 180 MRP's and a trophy, along with the sizeable first place prize.

Jim Keeling spends his winters in Las Vegas...and he pays for his winter's lodging with his poker winnings. And he also pays for his summer's lodging in Spokane, WA with his cribbage winnings as he took 2nd (with a sporting concession of a 3-4 match with Richard McNeil (also of Spokane) keeping him alive for the final match. McNeil inadvertently claimed the match with a miscounted hand, but when informed of the mistake, he magnanimously awarded the match to Keeling. McNeil finished 4th, as Jim Brooks, Crescent City, CA prevailed in the 3-4 final.

Vernon Ward, another Crescenc City pegger, topped the qualifying round with a 37 16 +201.

Darren Black, Portland, OR nailed the 130-pegger Consolation. Jason Jukubos (Roseburg, OR), Mike Reich (Weston, WA), and Dale Kochenburg (Santa Clara, CA) finished 2-3-4.

This event was sponsored by the merchants of Long Beach, and with the $2,000 added prize money, the local hospitality, and the ocean setting contributed to the increased attendance from last year's event. A rumor is circulating that the merchants may add $5,000 to this fall's event.

Arlene and Hal Halldorson, with able assistance from Roy and Jeanne Hofbauer kept all events on schedule...and furnished the crowd with a huge bowl of jelly beans, in addition to the added prize money.

Doubles: Dennis Gage, Jeff Monroe (CA)
High Roller: Dorothy Westerlund (OR)

A highlight of the tourney was Ed Park's 1st 29-hand in the first game of the qualifying round...and the 9th of this cribbage year. Ed will receive a cool $100 for this gem from the ACC. Ed hails from Roseburg, OR.

CENTERFOLD BALLOT

VOTE

The President's Column

Everett "Ev" Bey

In this month's issue of Cribbage World (the one you're holding in your hand right now!) you'll find your official ballot for the bi-annual election of the ACC board of directors.

I want to urge every member to vote...it's your right and privilege, the one way you can help formulate policy and influence the future of the American Cribbage Congress.

This year we reduced the size of the board to 25 members...all of whom will be elected. The five Presidential appointments have been abolished. Appointments by the President (with concurrence of the Executive Committee) will only occur in the future when a vacancy is created by resignation or death.

According to Ron Hamilton, chairman of the nomination committee, 31 members have been nominated; 25 of them are present board members and six others (some of whom have been previous board members and officers).

Five directors--Jim Angell, Phil Babcock, Ken Capper, Lee Norris and Bill Wright--have opted not to seek re-election. We owe them a debt of thanks for their past service.

Five candidates are running from the state of Wisconsin; three each from California, Massachusetts and Washington; two from Illinois, Minnesota, Montana and Oregon; and one each from Arizona, Florida, Michigan, Nebraska, North Carolina, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Vermont and Virginia.

Our rules specify that "no more than four (4) members of the Board shall be elected from one State." This means that at least one of Wisconsin's candidates will not be elected.

New rules adopted Feb. 3, 1994, also call for no more than 10 and no less than six Board members from any Region. Adoption of these three criteria was meant to apportion representation throughout the United States, with no State or Region being dominant.

Now it's up to the members to vote their choices.

Remember, all ballots must be returned to Cathy Perkins, V-P Policy, 1030 Barker Road, Bear Creek, NC 27207, before July 15th. Counting of the ballots will take place by a committee of three members, appointed by Mrs. Perkins, during the National Open at Raleigh, NC, July 29-31, 1995.

The newly-elected board of directors will be installed at the Grand National at Plymouth, Massachusetts September 22-24, 1995.

Just like pegging out to complete a game, be sure to vote and do your duty as an active ACC member.

Keep peggin', Ev Bey

Tom Lingenfelter Tough in Last Chance Gulch

Clancy, Montana's Tom Lingenfelter nailed the Capital City Classic, played at Helena, MT April 21-23 (home of the gold-rush's famous "Last Chance Gulch"). Not only did Lingenfelter take top honors in the qualifying round, but continued on and won the championship as well.

Vern Kennebeck World Champ!

Miotke, Schleusner Make MRP Move

Vern Kennebeck, down 2-0 in the best 3 of 5 championship match, came back with three straight wins to nip Darrel Miotke for the World's Championship in Quincy, CA on May 7.

Some 236 peggers were on hand for this annual event, and Kennebeck took home (to Magalia, CA) some $1,500 for the championship ... and 240 MRP's.

In taking 2nd, Miotke (Subimity, OR) garnered a whopping 228 MRP's and zips to the top of the national MRP leader board with 1,200+ points.

Greg Schleusner, Truckee, CA, in finishing 3rd, also made a MRP move, nearing the 900 mark for the year.

Heidi Glashan, a 4th Street Terrorist from Pittsburg, CA, took home 4th.

Local Cal Anderson had the hot hand in the 18-game qualifying round, posting a 35 14 +313 (complete with 7 skunks).

Some 140 peggers stayed for the Consolation and Harry Ng bested Mary Ryan for the title. Both players hail from San Leandro, CA. Roger King (Santa Clara, CA) and Dean Denis (not member) took 3rd and 4th.

This 24th Annual World Championship kicked off Friday night with a doubles match. Some 90 teams picked 'em up and laid 'em down...and when the final bell rang, two Northwest winners took home the money. Paul Hatcher and Jim Gogolin, two Oregon peggers, who routinely pocket prize money, took home $500...and got their pictures in the local paper for the effort.

Al Schaefer came a long way from his Wisconsin home, and he helped pay for the trip by copping the Cry Baby event.

A High Roller ($50 entry) contest went into the wee hours, with Billie Reddell, San Luis Obispo, CA taking home the top prize ($595).

Two special perennial awards were presented: highest qualifier (Bob Moon Memorial) from Plumas County: Bill Dore; and the highest qualifier from Nevada (Gene Kozlowski Memorial): Brian Riches (Reno).

In an unusual opening ceremony (for a cribbage match), Teri Gallagher sang a very fine National Anthem to kick off the main event. And the Quincy Rotary Club once again served an open-air lunch and a steak dinner for the evening meal. The Rotary Club members, along with director Mike Taborski, ran a first class tourney...and next year's 25th (Silver Anniversary) annual is planned to be extra special. The Rotary Club is looking for a corporate sponsor to sweeten the purse, with hopes that ESPN, TNT, and Sports Illustrated will participate in covering this event. Plans are being made for hosting upwards to 500 players for this special anniversary match.

Leave The Kids At Home

It's not unusual for a son or daughter to beat a parent at cribbage, but at GR Club 28's (Portland, OR) Wednesday match on March 15, three parents were beaten simultaneously on the 8th game.

Teri Hein defeated her mother Leslie by 33 points; Bruce Van Orsow beat his dad Ray by 12 points, and the streaking Jason Hofbauer waxed his mother Jeanne by 9 points.

Leave the kids at home if you want to win!

Oregon Coast Classic Draws Record Crowd

Jim Broadhurst Tops On Oregon Coast

Jim Broadhurst came close at the inaugural Timber Classic in Roseburg, OR in March (taking second). In May, he came a few miles north to the Oregon Coast Classic...and took home the championship.

Down 3-1 in the best of 7 final, this Medford, OR player won three straight to take the title and the $1,200 first prize in this record-breaking 206-pegger field.

Todd Malmgren, Clackamas, OR, almost had the event in the bag, but had to settle for 2nd place. His last chance found Broadhurst in the stinkhole dealing, with Malmgren needing five pegs. He held an unusual hand: 2-2-2-9. The 4th deuce was cut, giving Malmgren a safe lead, but alas, little chance of winning.

Ron Morgan, an ACC BOD member from Missoula, MT, ran a hot streak in the playoffs for a 3rd place finish, followed by Ray Van Orsow, Portland, OR in 4th.

Bruce Gentry, Kennewick, WA, parlayed the ACC's 11th 29 hand of the season into a top qualifying score of 37 16 +226 to cop the top "Q" prize...and another $100 from the ACC for the 29 gem.

George Rasmussen, Chehalis, WA, analyzes his cribbage numbers on a steady basis (with a little black book) and the effort paid off with a Consolation win, besting the 129 peggers in this event. Dorothy Conroy (Forest Grove, OR), Nancy Lorenz (Salem, OR), and Jim Hartung (Richland, WA) finished 2-3-4.

The Satellites:

Timer Passer: Lowaine Pruitt (OR)

Doubles: Ed Lawrence & Cliff McKinley (OR)

High Roller: Jim Brooks (CA)

Saturday Special: Ron Oleman (OR)

Cry Baby: George Butz (OR)

In the ongoing MRP race, top front-runners garnered more MRP's: Steve Reynolds, Concord, CA, qualified 4th to run his yearly total to 1,247, and Darrel Miotke, Sublimity, OR took home another 100 points to zip to the 1,300+ mark.

Directors Roy & Jeanne Hofbauer, Bernie Nelson, and Rollie Heath ran an excellent tourney, attested to by the record crowd. The tourney, held on Mother's Day on a nice sunny weekend, drew players from throughout the Northwest, and a few were spotted from the Central Region.

In-Kreb-ible Krebs

Ron Krebs, Prineville, OR, has set a new standard for tournament play...THREE 28 HANDS!

In game 19 in the qualifying round at the Oregon Coast Classic, Krebs plunked down a 28-hand to win the game. After rotating to game 20, he once again played another 28-hand (hand five). Two 28-hands in the space of six deals (and with two decks of cards). To top this off, in the next day's Consolation, he plays yet another!

This mark will be very hard to beat!

Side Bars?

Bernie Nelson commented that from now on, his tournaments will require three judges...and a side bar to judge tough calls. Too much OJ!

Duane Toll Has Tough Weekend

Perennial winner Duane Toll was spotted pegging in Oregon's Coast Classic, and he had a tough weekend. He confided to Cribbage World's editor that three of his opponents cut kings in cutting for the deal...and they won the deal! Tough weekend!

Jim Gogolin Earns Master

Jim Gogolin, Idleyld, OR, has been knocking on the door for his Master rating...and he finally earned this honor in the Oregon Coast's Consolation event.

Capper Wins "24" Game

Ken Capper, Hermiston, OR had an unusual game with Bud Ferrigno, Canby, OR. Ferrigno begins the game with a 24-hand...and Capper ends the game with a 24-crib. The score? A win by 24. What is Ferrigno's seat number? Silly question! 24!

Steplyk's Back!

Max Steplyk demanded headlines from Cribbage World as large as the one that Phyllis Schmidt had in last month's issue...since he won the 154-pegger Milwaukee Challenge! Cribbage World reluctantly agreed this would only be fair.

This Waukegan pegger nipped Jerry Kranz (Sturtevant, WI) in the final playoff match...and he may be back...but not nearly as much as Schmidt's national top-ten effort.

Glen Kirchoffer (Waukesha, WI) and Bill Tushar (West Allis, WI) finished 3-4.

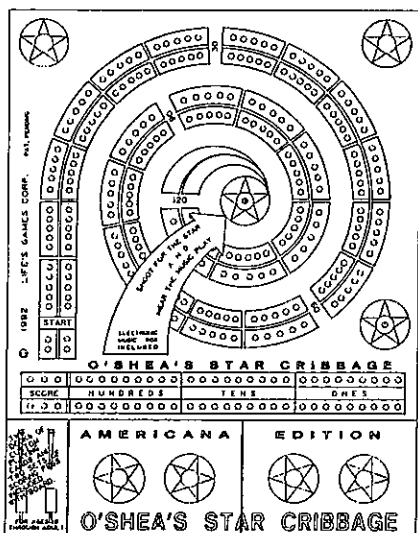

Grand Master Jerry Gruber (Minneapolis) nailed the 99-pegger Consolation. Master Frank Danielski (Appleton, WI) took 2nd, with Ray Warner (Madison) and Gary Haelfrisch (Francis Creek, WI) in 3rd and 4th.

Director Marlene Lazachek ran a smooth tournament, and she reports this event will be held again next April.

Ernie Parker Tops In Nipomo

With some 86 players in attendance, Ernie Parker (Los Angeles) came away with the championship at the recent Nipomo Open, besting Michael Hayden (Campbell CA) in the final match. The win netted $700 and 99 MRP's.

Terry Cashen posted one of the highest qualifying scores this cribbage year (42 GP's) to take home the "Q" money. Cashen is Harvey Honeycutt's nephew...which explains the high score.

Honeycutt, Beatty, OR, nailed the Consolation, taking qualifying honors and going on to win the title. Sandy Warner, Fremont, CA, finished 2nd.

In the early bird doubles, John Mohler teamed with Joe Lusignan to top the 38-team field, fulfilling a promise John made to his wife when he left for the tourney!

Director Darrell Hunstad ran a smooth tourney, and the crowd enjoyed an excellent BBQ chicken lunch, prepared by Master BBQer John Kubiak.

Fabian Nelson Grabs Watermelon

Ken Capper is famous for his watermelon trophy boards given for winning his Greater Hermiston Open...and Fabian Nelson, a veteran pegger from Salem, OR took home the watermelon! And Nelson is inching ever closer to his Master rating, standing at 1,800+ MRP's.

Jeanne Hofbauer, Washougal, WA zipped to 2nd...and has topped the 500 MRP mark for this cribbage year. Willie Evans, Richland, WA, continues to pile up points, finishing 3rd, followed by local Bill Jones in 4th in this 102-pegger event.

The Hofbauer clan did quite well in this event as Roy Hofbauer copped the 84-pegger Consolation. Betty Johnson (Spokane), Everett McKinney (Stanfield, OR), and Frank Ornie (Forest Grove, OR) finished 2-3-4.

This Month's Quiz

This unusual cribbage board was purchased by John Fruhwirth, Lakewood, CA for 50 cents. It had been marked down in price four times. What is wrong with this board? Answer on page 9.

Tom Miller Cops Atlanta Classic

Tom Miller came south to Atlanta and captured their Annual Classic, edging David Smith in the final playoff match. Miller hails from Raleigh and Smith from Spartanburg, SC.

John Worley had the hot hand in the qualifying round. This Burlington, NC player scored a 33 16 +100...and with the 83 MRP's earned in this match is standing a scant 25 points short of earning Master.

Another Raleigh player, Grand Master Bob Gombatz, won the 40-pegger Consolation ...and is inching in on his Life Master rating.

Lindsay Peever, Leesburg, FL, finished 2nd.

Director Bobby Stuart reports this event will be held, once again, in April 1996.

Eva, Neva, and Sneva!

At the recent Greater Hermiston Open, after normal rotation, three women met at the end of the table.

And it was Eva, Neva, and Sneva!

Steve Reynolds: Cribbage Skill: A+ Tact: D-

Evon Forrest, a Montana player, was pegging at the recent Longest Beach Classic in Long Beach, WA. Lo and behold, after normal rotation, Evon was paired with national MRP leader Steve Reynolds from Concord, CA.

Evon gushed "Wow! Steve Reynolds, I always wanted to meet you!" Steve said "Thanks" and play continued. Evon then added "Do you know who I am?"

Steve replied "Yes, you are that slow player from Montana!"

A+ for cribbage skill...and D- for tact! Evon was a good sport, however, and did not get angry. She just played slower!

Region VI Grass Roots Toughies

Region VI's Statistician is Patrick Barrett and he publishes a nifty newsletter, complete with a few statistics. He lists players by the percentage of games won...and, as any cribbage players knows, anyone winning over 60% over a long term is one tough player. Players who are at that lofty mark in Region VI:

62.5- Buzz Peters	61.4- Larry Rowley
62.2- Russell Adams	61.1- Lloyd Lubbert
61.7- Sam Purse	61.1- Inert Larsen
61.4- Duane Toll	60.7- Doug Page
61.4- Jeff Shimp	60.6- J. B. Blough

Barrett also reports his region has scored six 29-hands, 16 Grand Slams, and 44 28-hands this season.

Quiz Answer

Of course this was an easy quiz. The board has 35-holes per street, making the game into a 141-point marathon! This board was packaged in a fancy full-color box titled "Classic Cribbage Board" and was copyrighted by Pressman Toy Corp., NY, NY in 1988. Oops, they hired Taiwanese to make the board...and evidently they don't play cribbage in Taiwan. Production costs, as we all know, are lower in Taiwan. (And sometimes you get what you pay for!)

Cribbage World thanks Betty and Paul Nolz, Redmond, OR, for using this rare board as a quiz! However, 50 cents was not enough to buy this novel board! Your editor made this offer, but Paul and Betty refused and would not name a price!

Paul Barnes, DeLand, FL: Current Director, appointed in 1993. Tournament Director of Daytona Beach Open, member of Grass Roots.

Tournament Director Wisconsin Dells Classic, site of 1997 Grand National. GR club founder and Director (#120). GR Regional Statistician (MI, MN, WI). Active ACC judge. Received Grand Master and Bronze award Jan. '95. I'm willing to listen to any ACC member's opinion and see their ideas are taken straight to the next BOD meeting. Adding new members is also a goal I have long believed in. If elected, I will continue to help our organization grow through the channels I have. Thank you.

Joe Bernard, Libertyville, IL: I have been a member of the ACC since 1982 and am currently a member of the BOD. I have served on various committees at the National Open for the past 11 years and helped out at any tournament when the chance arises. I have achieved Life Master ranking and have earned All-American honors 5 times. One of my great concerns is fair and ethical play at tournaments. I will attend all BOD meetings and strive to make the ACC even a greater organization than it already is. I would greatly appreciate your vote.

Everett E. "Ev" Bey, Sun City, AZ: Charter Life Member of ACC, currently President; a BOD member and officer for 14 years; elected to HOF in 1983; Cribbier General and Master. Founder of World Championship Tournament in 1972 (which he finally won in 1992). The WCCT just completed its 24th year, held annually the first week-end in May in Quincy, CA, and is looking forward to its Silver Anniversary in 1996. This Sierra-Nevada community is known as "The Cribbage Capital of the World." Ranking among the top 10, it was the first ACC-sanctioned event on the West Coast, spreading the gospel of ACC cribbage and spawning dozens of tournaments throughout CA, NV, OR, and AZ... "the granddaddy of 'em all!" Also organized a 70-member Cribbage Club in Sun City West, AZ and hosts the annual Roadrunner Classic AZ Championship in Phoenix. Owner of six Northern CA newspapers centered at Quincy. Retired as Editor-Publisher after a 60-year career as a newspaperman, now living in Sun City, AZ. A native of LaCrosse, WI, SOB (Sweet Ol' Bey) learned the grand old game of Cribbage in the Badger State and ain't nobody's pigeon!

George Bickford, W. Springfield, MA: I have been a member of the ACC from its inception in 1979. I do not know if I could be called one of the founding fathers, but I was in Raleigh in 1979 and I did sit at the table with about 8 others when the ACC was first proposed. I also served on the Board in its infancy, but was forced to resign due to family and business commitments. I have been the Director of the Dante Club, W. MA Open for the past 18 years. I had the first sanctioned tournament in the NE. I have also been involved with the National Open for the past 15 years, serving on the Hospitality Committee, and the Consolation event. I have been chairman of the latter for the past 8 years. I was elected to the BOD in 1993 and have enjoyed serving on the BOD and also the Ethics Committee, and was appointed Eastern Regional Commissioner Sept. '93. I have acquired my Master and Grand Master rating and also am a Senior Judge. I am looking forward to serving all of the members for a 2nd term. Thank all of you for your consideration.

DeLynn Colvert, Missoula, MT: A long-time member of the BOD, Editor of CW, and ACC Awards Chairman, I look forward to working with the ACC and its multitude of great members in the future. I especially will work for full disclosure of formats, paybacks, etc., on flyers, to insure our members a fair shake at tournaments, keeping unscrupulous tournaments at an absolute minimum.

Jerry Dickinson, Mt. Horeb, WI: Member of ACC BOD and National GR Commissioner for 9 years. ACC President's Award (1990). ACC HOF (1992). ACC Bylaws Committee Chairman. Achieved GR Bronze award. National Tournament Commissioner since 1990. Past Director, ACC Open (Reno), Milwaukee Challenge, Midwest Double Elimination tournaments. Member (at large) ACC BOD Exec. Committee, acting Exec. I would like to continue to contribute to an organization which has given me so very much.

Mickey Griffin, Lincoln, NE: I am a retired kitchen designer/contractor, age 65; past President Lincoln Cribbage League and an active pecker for 47 years. Active participant and helper in 15-20 tournaments each year. Earned Grand Master in March 1995.

I have been an ACC judge for 5 years, the GR Region II Statistician for 3 years, appointed to the BOD last year, and the co-director of the Timber Capital Classic (TCCC). I believe in providing the players and members as much information as possible about their tournaments and management. I backed this belief by sending a "full" income and expense report for our tournament to each of our TCCC players. If elected, I will push for full, consistent reporting and a manual containing all of the ACC/GR rules and guidelines. Thank you for your support.

Paul Hatcher, Salem, OR: If elected I will continue to promote cribbage and the GR program, work for full disclosure of tournament funding, willingly work on any committee to which I am assigned, and represent the interest of ACC members. I graduated from Oregon Institute of technology in 1957 with a degree in Surveying technology. I also attended Chemeketa Community College majoring in accounting. I retired from Oregon Dept. of Transportation in 1987 having served as a surveyor, auditor, fiscal officer, and budget officer. I joined the ACC in 1990. I achieved Grand Master in 1994 and twice made the All-American team. I am the GR Commissioner for Region II and also Director of GR #46. Lea Hornbeck, Washougal, WA: Retired after 44 years with Pendleton Woolen Mills in middle management. Two term member of ACC BOD. Goals: to increase junior participation and continue good work done by ACC BOD.

Jesse Jarrell, Pittsburg, CA: I was born in Arkansas and have lived in California most of my life. I travel the tournament trail whenever possible and have met some mighty fine cribbage folks. I'd like very much to represent and continue serving you on the BOD. I have been an ACC member since 1983 and a certified Judge for many years. Co-founder and past President of GR #54 and co-director of our annual "Devil Mountain" tournament in Concord, CA. For several years now it has been my honor to serve as spokesperson for the Veterans Day Classic in Reno, and assist in many other tournaments nationwide. The "Cribbage Goddess" has blessed me often in the past allowing me to earn 6 All American Team honors as well as Captain of the 1993 All American Team. I achieved Life Master in 1992 and just recently in 1995 it was my great honor to be the 3rd person to receive Life Master, One Star. Again, it would be my pleasure to continue to serve and represent you on the BOD. My time and mind is open to anyone with suggestions. Your vote and support will be greatly appreciated.

Bob Julian, Milwaukee, WI: Retired after 40 years business career as corporate President and Board Chairman. ACC Life Member since 1980. ACC BOD member for 4 years. Was on committee that worked to formulate our first real set of rules in 1982. I am a Grand Master and 1994 ACC National Champion. I have participated in tournaments throughout the U. S. during the past few years and feel I can fairly represent all divisions of the ACC. Thank you for your consideration.

Scott Kooistra, Yankton, SD: I am a charter member of the ACC, and have served on the BOD for 14 years. In 1992, I was elected as the Exec. VP of the ACC and served as Chair for the BOD meetings. I was honored to be the youngest ACC member to be elected to the Cribbage HOF, and to serve as acting President of the Congress for a year. I am a current Life Master, and have earned 6 All American Team honors. It's been my pleasure to direct many tournaments across the country, including the three largest tournaments in the world in Reno. If elected, I will continue to support cribbage among our youth to keep the Congress growing. I believe we need even more publicity for our game, and we need to continue to stress strong adherence to the rules of the game. I ask for your vote in this election to continue serving the fine membership we have.

Roger Lueschow, Maple Valley, WA: I have been a member of the ACC for more than 5 years. I have been active in both GR and tournament play during that time (although I haven't been as successful as I would like!). I am retired from the U. S. Air Force and have the time required to devote to Board activities. I am interested in expanding the membership of the ACC, particularly to younger members and would be interested in developing ideas in that area. I have experience in serving on boards for Boy Scouts, Goodwill Industries, and United Way and feel that I could further the aims of the ACC.

Syl Lulinski, LaGrange Park, IL: Phyllis and I are married 36 years, and have one daughter, Darice. We are both Registered Pharmacists and have lived in MD, NY, and IL. In the March issue of Cribbage World he was indicated at the top of the Division 2 GR standings.

Jeff Monroe, Napa, CA: ACC membership Secretary for 7 years, ACC BOD member since 1987. Devoting hundreds of hours each year in the promotion (800 number) and processing of applications to the ACC. I am the statistician for Region IX and National Statistician for the Grass Roots program. Responsible for researching and tabulation life time rating points and established an awards program for the Grass Roots program. Certified Judge and have been used in this capacity in many local and national tournaments. Received the President's Award in 1992. First GR member to receive Bronze Award. I would appreciate your vote in the forth-coming election.

Jim Ready, Stoughton, MA: I would like to place my name in nomination for the ACC BOD for the 2-year term starting Sept. 1, 1995. I feel that I am qualified to serve and would like to list some of my qualifications. I have been a member of the ACC for 8 years. I have been active on the tournament trail and have achieved Master status. Currently, I am serving my second tour as tournament judge. I am a current member of the BOD, having been appointed in July of 1993. I will be a tournament director for the first time this September when I host Grand National XIV. I feel that I am qualified to handle any duties required of me by the BOD. Thank you for your consideration.

Joan Rein, Carver, MN: I have served on the BOD since 1986, during which time I have also been recording secretary as well as Secretary General since 1987. I have worked the Tournament of Champions and the ACC Open since 1986, in the capacity of Director for 8 years, as well as coordinator the last four. And together with my spouse Jim have directed the Minnesota Valley Open for 12 years as well as co-directed and assisted many other tournaments in the Midwest. I have also served as a judge, including head judge, for several years at many events. It has been my pleasure to serve you in the past and I will continue to serve you to the best of my ability in the future.

Larry Samet, Wellesley, MA: I am a 9-year member of the ACC. I was on the Board a few years ago, and I was chairman of the committee that adjusted the Master Point system. I have always tried to promote cribbage, and to insure fair and enjoyable tournaments. I've been seen from Portland, Maine to Prineville, OR, and in places in between. If you are not from the east and do not know me, ask Jeff Monroe or Scott Kooistra. I have been working on a plan to get cribbage on cable TV. I would greatly appreciate your vote. Thank you.

CRIBBAGE

Sharlene Medeiros

Cribbage is the game we play
That's how I love to spend my day!
My 1st opponent wins with a cut for 11.
Who the hell does he know in heaven!
Fifteen-two-four-six-eight
God, I can't get out of the sartin' gate?

My opponent pegs out with a run of four.
I'd like to throw him out of the exit door!

My next opponent waits so eagerly!
I'd love to skunk him—he'll remember me!
We cut for deal—he wins of course.

If I was at the track—I'd shoot this horse!
He looks at his cards and smiles so happy!
What did I ever do to get cards so crappy!
First Street, Second Street, Third Street he's steady.
Second Street I died—he marked a skunk already.

With cards like this they should let me play free.

4 games later I have a 2 game wait.

For lunch, you know, this table will be eating late!

At the end of 12 I'm 3 for 9.

I have to hurry, damn it, to get in the consolation line!

Cribbage—Cribbage is so great!

It's just the shitty cards I hate!

Ed Park, Linda Wood, Bruce Gentry Score Sanctioned 29's

Ed Park, Roseburg, OR, scored a 29-hand in the very first game of the Longest Beach Classic recently. With this start did he have a good day? No...in fact, he was double skunked in his 5th game...and the cards remained cold the remainder of the day.

On the other hand, Bruce Gentry, Kennewick, WA, scored a 29-hand at the Oregon Coast Classic...and this propelled him to the top qualifying spot!

Linda Wood, Marlboro, MA, scored a 29 at the Blackstone Valley Open, and like Ed Park, failed to score any MRP's.

These three 29-hands were the 9th, 10th and 11th scored this cribbage year. 13 were scored last year.

CW Editor Throws 29-Hand Away

DeLynn Colvert, editor of Cribbage World, recently threw a 29-hand away. Mistake? No...he was dealt a 5-5-5-jack. He had to throw away the 29! And you know how he whines! Hey, that rhymes!

Letters to the editor...

Jacks Galore!

What are the odds on this one? Is it a world's record? At our regular Moose Lodge 1271 tournament (10 players) Tessie & Mac Macone cut 7 consecutive jacks, all different suits, when cutting for the starter. I cut four and Tessie cut three. Really thought it out of this world. Hope you can use the info for your mathematicians. Thanks for your good magazine and efforts. I was at Reno, it's the greatest yet.

Harold Macone
Fruitland Park, FL

The odds of your cutting the first jack was 13 to 1. After you had your jack, Tessie's odds were 17 to 1. Now, to cut seven in a row, I would figure this way (and this could be wrong)  $13 \times 17 \times 13 \times 17 \times 13 \times 17 \times 13 = 1,079,386$  to 1. Keep pegging! By the way, Mac also writes that he collects playing cards, and has 654 different decks. Anyone beat that? Ed.

Too Many cards To Count!

Just received the April CW. To my astonishment I read your article on page 20 "Kevin Bremmer Flipped Out." The real count on the illustrated hand is 74, not 72. This should be a lesson to both the Flipped person and the editor to check what is to be printed. The three 5's are the extra 2 points.

A serious pegger.

Bruno Voegele
Cranbury NJ

Hey, Bruno, I try NOT to edit our letters. And besides, if I did, I would probably enter MORE mistakes! Ed.

More Mistakes!

Your "2-2-2-2" story caught my eye, since you misspelled "deuces" five times. That must be a record. I also wonder about the shuffling abilities of the two players, coming up with those four deuces three hands in a row. Coincidental?

Gordon Meeusen
Guilford Center, NY

I'm a great fan of ex-president Andrew Jackson. He was quoted as saying "It's a damned pore mind who can't think of more than one way to spell a word!" But five times in a row? You got me! Ed.

Look out Williard

The one hundred (plus) year old man is looking forward to seeing his friends Andy, Bill, Carolyn, Jim, the two Joyces' and Ricks', and Rosemary ("Jr.") at his next birthday party...Raleigh '95!

Miotke, Gombatz, Alkas, Reynolds, Medeiros, Bickford Set MRP Pace

With but two short months remaining in this cribbage year, the annual Master Point race is up for grabs.

Darrel Miotke, Sublimity, OR, is unofficially holding a slight lead after nailing a 2nd place finish at the 236-pegger World Championship and qualifying high at the recent Oregon Coast Classic. His total is at the 1,300+ mark.

Rit Alkas, Manchester, CT, is also at this lofty mark after taking qualifying honors at the 226-pegger Rhode Island Open, and finishing 7th.

Rookie pegger Robert Medeiros, Quincy, MA, picked up another 200 MRP's at the recent Ocean State Classic, and joins the leaders at well over 1,200.

Out west, Steve Reynolds, Concord, CA, continues to add points at every stop, and he, too, stands at the 1,300 mark.

Bob Gombatz, Raleigh, NC, is making a determined bid for honors this year and is pegging in the New England area in an effort to win the National Championship. He also stands at the 1,300 mark.

George Bickford, W. Springfield, MA, has topped the 1,100 mark, and David Clemmey, Mansfield, MA is close behind.

Many players have a shot at the top ten, as this year's race is the most competitive in memory. Ed Horigan, Phyllis Schmidt, Brian Heroux and Robert Drukman from the Eastern Region remain in the race. In the Central Region Patrick Barrett, Bob Julian, Ken Capodagli, Mick Michaelis, Alan Schaefer, and Deb Schisel remain in the hunt. Out west, DeLynn Colvert, Paul Hatcher and Keith Forrest are in a heated battle for honors.

Many large tournaments remain to be played. Reno's 4th of July event, National Open, and the Menominee Casino/MGM Open will draw large crowds. Other sizeable events are the Madison Masters Classic, Hockomock Classic, Lewis & Clark Classic, Devil Mountain Caper, among a dozen or so others. The race is on!
