AMERICAN CRIBBAGE CONGRESS

GN XIV: Louis Caccia Scott Kooistra 3rd, Earns One-Star

In 1620, Pilgrims landed at Plymouth, MA...and Sir John Suckling, inventor of the game of cribbage was a 11-year old boy who stayed at home in England. These Pilgrims landed without a cribbage board, but they may have had a noddy board or two along...a board that Sir John would modify into our game of cribbage around 1631.

Some 375 years later, another band of "pilgrims" would land at Plymouth...and this time around, they were all well-armed with cribbage boards. The American Cribbage Congress was holding Grand National XIV in Plymouth!

Some 348 peggers from throughout America (and Canada) came to celebrate Massachusetts Cribbage Days (and Grand National XIV) as proclaimed by Massachusetts Governor William Weld.

Louis Caccia, a Master pegger from Newtonville, MA did the most celebrating, as he took on the huge field and came home the winner. And with the win came a nice $2,000 and 319 MRP's.

Henry Douglass, Reidsville, NC is knocking on the door for his Master rating by finishing 2nd (and picking up $1,600). And he may have won his customary side pool that he sells wherever he goes.

Life Master Scott Kooistra, Executive Vice President of the ACC, always a threat at large, prestigious tournaments, finished 3rd. Kooistra won GNIV in 1985, and has scored several other high finishes in past Grand Nationals. But this finish was special, as he soared over the 10,000 MRP mark and earned Life Master One-Star...only the 4th player in ACC history to achieve this honor.

Chris Franzen, Hanover, MA nailed 4th, taking home a sizeable winner's check, in addition to a bundle of MRP's.

Paul Cormier from nearby Marlboro, MA streaked to high qualifying honors, scoring a nice 38 18 +214.

188 peggers played in the Consolation, and Irv Torrey, Mansfield, MA grabbed the title....and $920. George Cote, a Vermont pegger from Westminster, took 2nd.

Some 32 peggers plunked down $150 for the Friday High Roller event, and Rit Alkas (Manchester, CT), fresh from winning the National Championship, proved his title is no fluke by taking home the marbles ($2,300). Fayann Salerno, Milton, MA waxed the field in the Friday Early Bird (and picked up $500). For those not attending the Awards Banquet, a Saturday game was played...and Dick Corbin, a pegger from Raleigh, NC won going away.

MISCELLANY: Thanks to Carsten Strand of Seattle, WA, for gifting the President with a cribbage board likened to a "flattop" aircraft carrier, engraved as "USS Ev Bey #1"; and for the holeless cribbage board trophy we won in the Longest Beach (WA) Classic High Roller.

"Twas a great year!.....Keep peggin', Ev Bey

GN XIV: Louis Caccia

Continued

The Last Chance event had an unusual finish as daughter beat mother. Rosemary Burrows (daughter) scored a grand slam to win, and Margaret Torrey (mother) took 2nd. Rosemary hails from N. Attleboro, MA, and Margaret hails from Mansfield, MA.

Directors Jim Ready and George Bickford had this huge event well under control, and all events proceeded smoothly. The Awards Banquet saw a record number of awards presented. Scott Kooistra and Joan Rein, assisted by a multitude of speakers presented the awards in smart fashion, and a great time was had by all.

And Grand National XIV was a grand site for a tournament, as the town of Plymouth was a tourist's delight...and if you didn't eat enough lobster, you had only yourself to blame!

Phil True was a long way from his Richland, WA home...and he was a long way from "home" with first count, needing 28 to win. He held 5-5-5-Q, and cut the case 5 for a nifty 28...and game! Cribbage World didn't get the name of the loser, as he left the room quickly!

Another Northwestern player who was not intimidated by the new surroundings was Donna Hassett. This Roseburg, OR pegger posted a super 38 GP qualifying card, and was nipped by a whisker of being top qualifier.

The staff of the event had a treat for all the players, as tray upon tray of banana bread, nut bread, and other bread varieties were given to the players to munch on. And, of course, the usual shirt and hat souvenirs were available.

Mick Michaelis, when inducted into the Cribbage Hall of Fame, displayed considerable emotion...and thanked members of the Congress with great sincerity.

Scott Kooistra qualified 6th (77 MRP's) and finished 3rd (262 MRP's) and the total 339 points zipped him to 10,006...and One-Star!

Mary Gladish, Concord, CA did a little souvenir shopping in Plymouth...and came up with the perfect gift for Jesse Jarrell...a unique measuring stick. When Jesse brags in the future he can rely on facts...not fiction!

Mansfield, MA's Irv Torrey won the Consolation...and he was also the event's top qualifier. When you're hot, you're hot!

Lee Chambers Celebrates Birthday With Huge Win Longest Beach Classic Draws Record Crowd

Long Beach, WA, was a mecca for cribbage players the last weekend in September as some 206 peggers showed for the $3,000 added event.

And Lee Chambers made it a birthday celebration, as he won the Main Event and took home a $1,378 birthday prize. In addition to the nice prize money, this Corvallis, OR pegger also added his Master rating to boot!

Bayard Lliteras came close, but settled for 2nd as this Coeur d'Alene, Idaho pegger continues his fine finishes (he captured Grand National XII).

George Butz from nearby Tillamook, OR and Merle Mulkey (Keizer, OR) finished 3rd and 4th, earning sizeable prizes and MRP's.

A local pegger took qualifying honors ...rookie Phil Stegemoeller...with a fine 37 17 +142.

Mike Rowe flew down from Alaska and nailed the 165-pegger Consolation, nipping Ray Van Orsow in the final match. Van Orsow is knocking on the door for his Grand Master with the 85 MRP's earned. Armin Gade and Ken Cochlin, two Washington peggers, finished 3-4.

With the added prize money attracting many players, the Friday 3PM (named "Clam Tide") event drew 98 players and Russ Grose, Auke Bay, AK took home the $180 to kick off the long weekend.

Walt and Tana Conell, Helena, MT nailed the Doubles ($550), and Jim Broadhurst, Medford, OR took home the bacon in the High Roller (Ken Capper took home the sizeable Q prize).

The "High Tide" (Sat. night) event saw Ed Park, Roseburg, OR nail a grand slam 7/7 15 +151. Clarence Van Orsow, Culver, OR also nailed a grand slam in the Last Chance to go home a winner.

Gene Lewis, Liberty Lake, WA, scored his first ever 28-hand in the qualifying round. And '94 National Champion Bob Julian, the traveling pegger from Milwaukee, finished 9-16 (after a high qualifying score) to wing it to the 500 MRP mark for the year...and the national lead.

Directors Arlene and Hal Halldorson, assisted by Roy and Jeanne Hofbauer managed the huge crowd in fine style...and kept all the players well-supplied with jelly beans, candy, and coffee for the entire weekend...and the added prize money from the town of Long Beach will certainly bring players nationwide for a repeat performance. And being a resort town with ocean views and abundant sea-food restaurants give this event added charm.

Going, Going, Gone!

At the Longest Beach Classic Lea Hornbeck and DeLynn Colvert began a game in stirring fashion. Some 71 points were scored by both players to begin the game. Colvert scored a 24-hand and 17-crib, and Hornbeck nailed a 21-hand. 9 pegs were scored! Can anyone in cribbage land top this number?

Rookie Team Upsets Veterans

In the Northwest, a 5-person team event is usually played during the qualifying round (22 games x 5 = 110 game match). In the hour or so before the opening bell, players are scurrying about forming teams of veterans, Masters, Grand Masters, etc.

At the Longest Beach Classic, five local rookie players (3 playing their first tournament) signed on for this team event. The scorekeeper, not recognizing any of the names, wished them luck, but gave them little chance of winning.

Zap! With Phil Stegemoeller taking top qualifying honors with a 37-GP card, and two others scoring 33 GP cards, the team won easily, scoring a whopping 155 GP's (2nd place scored 145). Other team members were Victoria Costello, Steve Irion, Gary Peterson, and Sue Wheaton.

Darren Black....and Blue

Darren Black, Portland, OR, has his ups and downs, either winning big...or losing big. At the Longest Beach Classic, enroute to a dismal 14 GP card, he introduced himself to his opponents "Hi, I'm Darren Black...and Blue!"

Canadian Leslie Wood Hot

On September 14 Leslie Wood, GR club 203, Prince George, BC, scored a 28-hand. And to top this, on September 21 scored that elusive 29-hand! When you're hot, you're hot!

4th Street Terrorists Aptly Named

Four members of the 4th Street Terrorists (Concord, CA) were at Grand National XIV in Plymouth, MA...and all four qualified!

222 In S. Attleboro Darlene Stier Cops Massachusetts Open

Alaska is a long, long way from Massachusetts, but Darlene Stier made the trek to attend Grand National XIV...and the preliminary Massachusetts Open. And she paid for her trip with a huge win, nailing the record 222-pegger crowd!

Earle Sweet, North Scituate, RI, finished 2nd...and earned his Master rating (ACC: 239). Dave Ritchey, Orange City, FL, in finishing 3rd, did likewise, earning Master (ACC: 237). Ken Vetterline, Bar Mills, ME, took 4th...and earned Grand Master (ACC: 52).

Bob Julian, Jeff Shimp, George Riley, and Larry Samet finished 5-6-7-8, as this formidable group of peggers continue to pile up MRP's. Samet is a Life Master, Julian and Shimp are Grand Masters.

Jim Ready, getting ready for his upcoming GN XIV, took top qualifying honors. And despite being on a roll, did not play the next weekend in Plymouth, as his directing duties kept him off the boards.

Sharlene Medeiros, Randolph, MA, earned her Master (ACC: 236) by winning the 134-pegger Consolation. Emily Medeiros (Quincy, MA), fresh from a stellar rookie season, continues to pile up MRP's by taking 2nd. Harry Meneely, another Quincy player finished 3rd, followed by Brian McCoy, Cambridge, MA, in 4th.

Larry Samet, Brian Heroux, and Bob Boulris scored 28-hands, but no 29's showed.

Director Tony Del Tufo, with able help from co-director Shawn Jordan, got Grand National month in New England off to a grand start with this record crowd...and he plans on renewing this event next September (3rd Sunday).

Paul Barnes Bids On GN XVII

Paul Barnes has put Daytona Beach, Florida in the hat for a possible Grand National site in 1998. The proposed facility is the Ramada Inn, a beach-front resort on the "World's Most Famous Beach."

The American Cribbage Congress will debate and vote on this event at the February BOD meeting in Reno. If you wish to submit a proposal, write or call Scott Kooistra, 906 Mulberry, Yankton, SD 57078. (605) 665-8016.

Schiffman Nails Sheepherders

Morris Schiffman, one of Portland's (OR) finest peggars, came over Lookout Pass into Montana...and grabbed the "Sheepherder's" cribbage title. In besting 107 peggars, Schiffman earned a nifty $925...and 153 MRP's (qualified 3rd). He won in fine style, taking the championship match 4-0!

Wayne Larson, the Sunnyside, WA king of cribbage, took top qualifying honors (35 16 +147) and very nearly hogged the Main Event action, but settled for 2nd as Schiffman blitzed the final match.

Duff Bonomi, a new member from Wallace, Idaho nailed 3rd in his first sanctioned event, and E. G. "Swede" Hanson (Santa Rosa, CA) finished 4th.

Wesley Schuhrke, one of the ACC's very few players from North Dakota (Dickinson) nailed the 60-pegger Consolation. Fredella Haab took qualifying honors...and finished 2nd, as this Helena, MT player tacked on 40 more MRP's. Idaho's Mitche Graf and Walt Conell (Helena) finished 3rd and 4th.

This championship event is played at the Joker's Wild in Missoula, MT...and once again owner Dick Williams donated $100 to the Last Chance event. Bob Carr, Santee, CA took advantage of the added prize money and earned his gas money to his next cribbage stop by nailing a grand slam 7/7 card!

Pistol Packing Pegger Stuns Editor

Luanne Felsted, the Montanan that packed her pistol in her suitcase and was almost arrested at the Reno airport, hasn't learned her lesson.

At the recent Montana Championship, she pulled her gun from her purse and fired point black at Cribbage World's editor. Luckily the shot missed!

(And luckily, the gun was a small cap-pistol. Nevertheless, your editor now has a few more grey hairs!)

Such is cribbage in the wild, wild, west! Cribbage World wonders what would have transpired in cribbage history if Calamity Jane had been an ardent pegger?

McGibney in New York!

Fred McGibney, the ACC's hard-working Treasurer from South Burlington, VT, brought down the house at St. Paul's GN XIII Awards Banquet. When he received the President's Award, he stated that he would proudly hang the award on his trophy wall at his summer cabin...and that it would be the only award on the wall!

Well, that has changed. He picked up another award at the recent Greater Albany Open in Albany, NY. He claimed the championship... edging Grand Master Brian Heroux (Woonsocket, RI) in the final of this 50-pegger match.

Charlie Finley, a Master pegger from Enfield, CT, qualified first...and finished first in the 32-pegger Consolation.

Brenda Palmer, another Master pegger and the Eastern Region's MRP frontrunner, was top qualifier in the Main Event. She hails from W. Springfield, MA.

Schroder In Omaha

Wilma Schroder from nearby Shelby, Iowa picked up the championship at the Omaha Open in late August. She nipped Helen Railsback from Syracuse, NE in the final match. Railsback is edging in on her Grand Master, needing a scant 400 or so to earn this honor.

Peters, Frost Claim Belle City

In late August some 124 peggers were in action in Appleton, WI at the annual Belle City Classic. Williard Peters from Green Bay, always a threat to win, came away with the marbles. His last match was with the streaking Wayne Steinmetz, a Master pegger from Milwaukee.

Richard Frost, a newly-crowned Master from Berlin, WI, nailed the 76-pegger Consolation.

County Fair Cribbage

Grass Roots club 46 (Salem, OR) promoted cribbage at the Clackamas County Fair recently.

This club staffed a booth at the fair from 11 AM to 8 PM Tuesday through Friday, holding two mini 5-game tournaments each day, with the winning four high cards each day qualifying for Saturday finals. These 16 qualifiers played a one-game single elimination match and Jean Robinette took the match. Julia Huckaby took 2nd. The County Fair gave trophy ribbons and souvenir coffee mugs to the winners.

Paul Hatcher, one of the volunteers, stated that some 82 people played the mini-tournaments and many others stopped by to play a game or two against the Grass Rooters. Grass Roots information and ACC applications were distributed.

Grass Roots Changes

Boyd McDonald, Region IV Commissioner, reports the following changes in Grass Roots Administration:

Bruce Sattler is replacing Joe Ramos as Region IX Statistician.

Pat Barrett is now handling Region VI stats by himself. Jerry Allen is no longer sharing the load.

Boyd McDonald has replaced Jim Angell as Region IV Commissioner.

Lee Norris is replacing Dale Pawley as Awards Chairman.

Grass Roots Divisions 1 and 2 have been redefined. Division 1 clubs are now defined as those playing 25 to 36 times during the nine-month Grass Roots season (vs. the previous 30-36), and Division 2 clubs are now defined as those clubs playing 14 thru 24 times a season (vs. the previous 14-19 times).

Roger King Tops In Napa Wine Valley Hosts 204 Peggers

The 14th Annual Wine Valley Open attracted some 204 peggers from throughout the Western Region for the yearly wine and cheese tasting event.

And following a great day of pegging, wine and cheese tasting and dinner, Roger King, Santa Clara, CA outlasted the field to capture the event, edging Bill Irons, Sparks, NV in the final match. It took the full five games, with King winning 3-2.

Stan Werre, Nice, CA nosed out Janie Brown, Magalia, CA, for 3rd place.

The Friday Doubles saw Amelee Killion and Billie Reddell, two California peggers, take home the marbles in the 78-team event.

Heidi Glashan, Mac McGuigan, and Jay Snyder all scored 28-hands, but, alas, no 29-hands showed.

The 1996 match will not be played, as director Jack Monroe will be hosting Grand National XV in Napa in September, 1996.

New Printer

Shawn Andrusko is an avid pegger and he hails from Minneapolis. And not only does he play cribbage, he is associated with Lightning Printing, a firm located in Richfield, MN.

Andrusko, in conjunction with Lightning Printing, submitted a very competitive bid to print, label, and mail Cribbage World. The ACC's Board of Directors voted to give this Minnesota firm a try, and this issue will be printed and mailed in Minnesota.

As many tournament directors know, Cribbage World has inserted flyers, by states, for 7 cents each. Good news! With Lightning's folding capability and other machinery, they will do this job for only 6 cents each. You must furnish good camera-ready copy, and they will do the rest. This insertion is by states only, and a minimum order of $20 is required (that's 333 flyers!).

Board of Directors Re-Elect Officers

Four members of the Executive Committee were re-elected at the Annual Board of Directors meeting on September 22 at Plymouth, MA. Unanimously re-elected without opposition were President, Ev Bey; Executive Vice-President, Scott Kooistra; Vice President/Policy, Catherine Perkins; and Vice President/Operations, Joe Ramos.

The fifth berth, Executive Member-At-large, was won by Syl Lulinski, former Executive Vice-President, who edged incumbent Martha Fingleton for the post.

New Award

The Frank Abernathy family, Raleigh, NC, introduced a new annual trophy at the Plymouth, MA awards banquet. Named to honor the late Nick Pond, it will commemorate the tournament director (over 50 participants) who achieves the highest percentage of increase over the previous year.

Winner of the first year's award was Ev Bey, director of the Roadrunner Classic Arizona Championship, Phoenix, AZ, which showed a 29% gain over 1994. The '94 tournament drew 62 players; the '95 event drawing 80. Bey, ACC President, is also "Pegs" Abernathy's doubles partner. He expressed thanks to Frank and Joyce for remembering Nick Pond with this distinctive award.

Suspension

The Board of Directors addressed the issue of members failing to finish a round of play. When a player signs on for an event, he has committed to an unwritten contract to finish that round, as failure to do so causes havoc with rotation and scoring.

Victor Struminger, Atlanta, GA, claiming he overslept at a lunch break, missed a game and was required to forfeit. He then refused to play the second game and walked out. He appealed a 60-day suspension levied June 15-August 14, 1995 and then failed to appear for a scheduled hearing before the Board of Directors on September 22, 1995 in Plymouth, MA.

The Board also recommended that any future minimum suspension be for a period of 6 months, rather than the 2-month suspension previously levied.

Members: always complete a match that you have entered. Failure to do so may result in a 6-month suspension, and, of course, is not fair to the other players!

And along ethical lines, when a sanctioned tournament conflicts with a non-sanctioned event, a loyal ACC member should support the Congress and play in the sanctioned event.

Senior Judges Appointed

Appointment of 24 Senior Judges...8 from the ACC's three regions...was announced at the Annual Meeting by Jeff Shimp, Commissioner of the Judges Program.

Named to serve for 3-year terms, through 1998, are:

Eastern Region: Rit Alkas, George Bickford, Bob Gombatz, Ed Horigan, Al Miller, Lee Norris, Catherine Perkins, and Phyllis Schmidt.

Central Region: Pat Barrett, Martha Fingleton, Ron Hamilton, Scott Kooistra, Bob McCabe, Joan Rein, Jeff Shimp, and Don Tofte.

Zabrowski serves as Director of Senior Judges. According to Zabrowski, who developed the program, "Senior Judges are experienced, qualified ACC Judges who have shown outstanding ability to analyze situations and come to a fair and reasonable solution, making judgmental decisions that are not presently covered by ACC rules."

"Senior Judges can be considered to be the highest ranking representative of the ACC regarding rules at sanctioned tournaments, advising other Certified Judges about acceptable options in cases where judgmental decisions are not fully or adequately covered by ACC rules."

"Senior Judges are asked to share their off-beat judgmental problems with fellow Senior Judges and together seek a mutually satisfactory solution that can be used as a guide for future decisions and possible ACC rules changes."

Zabrowski anticipates coordinating an on-going forum for the judgmental decisions confronted by Senior Judges, exchanging opinions and views on these knotty considerations. He said he expects the Senior Judge program to be one of low profile assistance, offering experience in the interpretation of cribbage rules and non-rules. When requested, Senior Judges also offer assistance to other programs such as committee rules, judges, research and development, etc., and any other function requested by the ACC, he added.

According to Al Miller, Testing Examiner, there are now 256 certified ACC Judges: 104 in the Western Region; 78 in the Eastern Region; and 74 in the Central Region. Anyone interested in taking the Judge's exam can contact Miller, 12 Michael Ave., Nashua, NH 03062-1418. Call (603) 882-7204.

The fourth official administering the Judges Program is Cathy Perkins, Director of Research & Development, who also serves as chairman of the Rules Committee.

ACC Audit Help Needed

The ACC periodically audits the books, and Jeff Shimp is the coordinator of this effort. He has asked Cribbage World to advertise for an auditor to help with this audit.

Contact: Jeff Shimp, Rt. 1, Fawn Lake #4, Shelbyville, MI 49344.

Award slips are beginning to arrive and a mailing is anticipated every 10 weeks or so (mid-November, mid-January, mid-March, and mid-May or June). ## Joe Seigle Bragging?

Joe Seigle likes to trumpet the laurels of the Eastern Region and he writes: "The 15th All-American Team is unique in another respect. If my memory is correct, this is the first time it has had five Eastern Region members!

You are right, Joe! The 2nd best showing from the East was in 1991...placing 4 members on the squad! Ed.

Gilkeson's Timing Off

On August 14th, at a GR Roseburg Timber Capital club tournament, David Gilkeson scored his first 29 hand. But, alas, this was before the official season began.

Good news! There was about $100 in the club 29-hand pot! But alas, the 29 hand was scored while he was playing a "fun" game, between matches!

English Tournaments?

I do enjoy reading the ACC's Cribbage World...keep up the good work!

I am able to go to England/UK frequently. Question: Do we have an ACC counterpart in England/Europe? Thanks in advance for your help.

Harold Gray
Lompoc, CA

Geez, Harold, I don't think so. You'll just have to go to one of those pubs, order a stout beer, bring out your travelling cribbage board and hope for the best! Ed.

3rd Time Is Not Always The Charm!!

I was recently at the Blue Mountain Open in LaGrande, OR, and I had, perhaps, one of the worst kinds of luck. It had to do with four-of-a-kinds. Me and my Partner, Lee Gandy, played the doubles event Friday night and were winning after 3 games. On our 4th game, I laid an ace to start for "one." The other team laid an ace for "two." My partner played a third ace for 6 points, but the opponents played the fourth ace for 12. Needless to say we got skunked that game, but still ended the night winning the tourney.

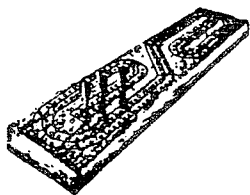

On Saturday, I played in the Main tourney and on my next to last game, I once again began with an ace. My opponent paired the ace, and I played the third ace for 6, and would you believe it, he had the 4th ace for 12 points. That basically ended my day.

On Sunday, I tried my first Consolation and actually made it to the final rounds. I won my first two matches and made it to the top four. In my first game with a lady named Betty (she won the whole enchilada) I lost my first game, but came from behind to win the 2nd by 2 points. On the very next game, I got two aces in my hand and figured it would never happen again, so I laid the first ace, and she paired it. I followed with my 2nd ace for 6 points, and said "I hope you don't have it!" SHE DID! For 12 points! And she knocked me out of contention and ended up 4th.

What are the odds of getting hit for the same four aces in three nights at three different contests, all in the same tournament? See if I ever put another ace down again!

Sean Daniels Sr.
Imbler, Oregon

I don't know, Sean, you can run, but you can't hide! You gotta play 'em sooner or later! (But maybe later is better?) Ed.

The Role of Cribbage In Stroke Rehabilitation

All aspects of cribbage lend to stroke recovery. The third stroke I had severely damaged the third nerve which controls how the eyes focus, dilate, and constrict. Cribbage is a great vision exercise. That leads to hand-eye coordination. The concentration required to play stimulates the brain.

The social interaction helps me to feel more like myself. The love, friendship and support from fellow club members is what really counts. I am fortunate to be a member of what I consider the best Grass Roots club in the country.

Ruby McElroy
Keizer, Oregon

I can't resist telling a little story about Ruby. She uses a tray to hold her cards and I noticed she arranged the cards from left to right, high to low. I was in rotation to play her in three more games...and I told Ken Capper, the Hermiston, OR king, that I was really going to wax Ruby, since I would know the high-to-low arrangement of her cards. I knew Ken would quickly advise Ruby of my plan, and he tipped her off immediately. When I played my first hand with Ruby I knew that he had tipped her off...as her cards were completely mixed on the tray! That's the last time I'll ever confide with Ken Capper! Cost me a game, big time!

I'm glad that cribbage can aid our many friends and neighbors in rehabilitation and socializing. The socializing is one of the main reasons I travel some 40,000 miles every year. I ain't met a player I haven't liked (well, almost!) Ed.

Alaska Cribbage

Prother Takes Skagway Kim Wins In Anchorage

Robert Prother took on some 44 peggers September 3 in Skagway, AK and he came away the winner, edging Duane Peron in the final match. Prother is a local, and Peron hails from Copper Center, AK.

William Johnson, Juneau, AK won the 30-pegger Consolation.

Director Wallace McCracken keeps 'em pegging "way up north!"

35 peggers showed for the Smokey Wensel/Burt Doucette Memorial in Anchorage on September 9. Al Kim, a local pegger, nipped Ron Juliussen for the title. Anchorage sports tough peggers, as the top six players all were locals, reports director Mark Cochran.

Rit Alkas, 1995 Champion

Rit Alkas, the ACC's National Champion in 1995 began his cribbage-playing career when he was seven years old. His father taught him how to play and on many Sunday afternoons he would play a few games on the porch of their home.

He became attached to the game and continued to improve his skill on the boards. He joined the American Cribbage Congress in 1987, and in three short years had attained his Master rating (2,000 MRP's). Two years later he earned Grand Master. Then, on August 27, 1995, he earned Life master (6,000 MRP's) and joined an elite group of 16 who have earned this rating!

But, one month earlier, Alkas won the prestigious National Open in Raleigh, and soared to the National Championship! His yearly total of 1,756 Master Rating Points easily won the title as King of 1995! He also won the Vermont Open in 1995, was high qualifier in Rhode Island and Maine Opens, and piled up points at almost every stop.

Cribbage World asked Alkas about his play and he replied "I take great pride in board position play, and I work on my discarding skills. I played about 30 events in 1995...and I keep my little black book for record keeping!" He also stated that "When in doubt, play aggressive!"

And Alkas began the new year by winning the High Roller at Grand National XIV in Plymouth! It appears he will be a force to be reckoned with for years to come.

Brian Heroux. Woonsocket, RI, becomes the ACC's youngest Grand Master when he zipped to 2nd at the Greater Albany Open on September 10. One week later Joe Ramos (W. Warwick, RI) and Ken Vetterline (Bar Mills, ME) would also zip to the 4,000 mark and earn Grand Master.

Stier, Palmer, Shimp Take Early MRP Lead

With the 1996 season blasting out of the gate on what appears to be another record year, Darlene Stier leads the pack in the annual Master Point Race. Stier nailed the 222-pegger Massachusetts Open and this Alaskan pegger begins the season in fine style.

Brenda Palmer, W. Springfield, MA, is also off and running with several fine finishes in this fledgling year, and leads the Eastern Region in the early going.

Jeff Shimp, a Michigan pegger and long-time Board of Director member, finished 6th in Massachusetts and leads the Central Region.

However, very few tournaments have been posted to date...many are huge events that will quickly change the standings. For example, Louis Caccia's win at GN XIV was worth 319 MRP's.

Lee Chambers picked up 220 MRP's in winning the huge Longest Beach Classic in Washington, and Roger King took the Wine Valley Open (another 220 MRP's).

The cribbage grapevine has 1994 National Champion Bob Julian picking up points at every stop and is near the 500 mark...and the national lead.

National Statistician Bob McCabe will be hard-pressed to keep abreast of the ever-changing Master Point race, as the 1996 year is off and running!

Horrors! A Big Toe!

Bill Hill, a Master pegger from Hermiston, OR was enroute to Portland for a match and he stopped at a rest area for a moment.

He spotted an abandoned cooler on the sidewalk and he peeked inside. Horrors! A big toe!

He relayed this story to CW's editor, who excitedly asked: "What did you do Bill? Call 911? Call the sheriff?...."

"Naw." Bill replied..."I called a big tow truck!"

Gotcha!
