AMERICAN CRIBBAGE CONGRESS

1996!

Gerard Charette Tops New England Inaugural

August 1 began the American Cribbage Congress's 17th season, and Gerard Charette, Cumberland, RI, topped the first event played in the Eastern Region this new year...the New England Inaugural.

Some 158 peggers were in attendance, and many seasoned players began the new season scoring bundles of MRP's. Grand Master Emil Chrabaszcz (Ware, MA) qualified 10th and finished 2nd to begin the new season as one of the National MRP leaders. Grand Master David Clemmey (Mansfield, MA) is also off and running with a 3rd place finish (qualified 7th). Both players scored a total of 182 MRP's.

Marge Kennedy, playing out of Riverside, RI, finished 4th.

Ken Patenaude, Cumberland, RI, had the hot hand in leading the qualifying round. 1995 National Champion Rit Alkas qualified 4th, and finished 14th to begin the season where he left off last year...scoring MRP's at every stop (this time an even 100).

Phil Martin (E. Hartford, CT) topped 92 peggers in the Consolation event. Charles Burgess, Jr. (E. Greenwich, RI), James Cundy

(W. Warwick, RI), and Gloria Dyndur (Woonsocket, RI) finished 2-3-4.

Marion Quackenbush, Lawrenceville, PA, qualified 14th and finished 7th, picking up 131 MRP's...and her Master rating...the first of the 1996 season!

Joyce Vanelli, Quincy, MA, and Bruce Corson, Hobe Sound, FL scored that rare 28-hand in sanctioned play.

Lee Norris, with help from Charles Burgess and Ford Jewer, once again conducted a well-run event...and the 1996 season is off and running!

Harry Kantas At It Again

Inside this edition is a new, clever ad designed for our ACC membership by Harry Kantas. This Beaverton, OR pegger has done much to increase our membership by offering his ads, free of charge, to our many clubs nationwide. His ads have proven to be very effective, so if you want a few new faces in your club, give Harry a call, or drop him a line!

Next month's Cribbage World will have a special Christmas ad produced by Harry. Again, this ad is for the ACC's free use.

The President's Column

Everett "Ev" Bey

After gadding around the world and the U.S. for the past nine months on an extended honeymoon following our New Year's Day wedding to Rose, we suddenly find our wings clipped due to an unexpected hospital confinement.

Came back to hot, hot, hot Arizona to pack some clean clothes for a long-awaited Alaskan cruise, only to have to cancel when I was hospitalized due to kidney failure.

So now I'm on dialysis three hours a day, three times a week...which obviously pins us down at the home port.

As a result, we're going to miss attending a number of cribbage tournaments we had earmarked, except for those held in cities where I can make arrangements for treatments I might miss while on the road.

Meanwhile, ACC activities continue as usual.

President's Award

I am pleased to announce Dan Zeisler as the winner of this year's President's Award.

Dan, a 7th grade teacher in the Sonora (CA) public school system, was honored for "rescuing" our Youth Cribbage Program after a previous chairman left it in shambles. Since taking over two years ago, Dan wrote a 20-page training manual which has been issued to 75 prospective cribbage teachers (all ACC volunteers) in 25 states.

The system works! Dan has promoted and taught cribbage to his own students for several years, even prior to assuming the chairmanship of this important project. He concludes each training session with a tournament...and the winner gets to play the teacher!

Dan says, "Cribbage teaches math skills like counting, adding and recognizing sequences. The math skills of every student who plays improve dramatically."

His program has been so successful that three other Sonora teachers are getting similarly involved.

Anybody who has the youth of America at heart and wants to devote some valuable time to this project, is asked to contact Dan Zeisler and get all the information on this worthwhile program. Write to Dan at 21429 Montgomery Road, Sonora, CA 95370...phone (209) 536-1549.

Remember: "The family that plays together stays together."

Keep peggin'...Ev Bey

I'm sure the entire American Cribbage Congress wishes Ev the very best with his medical treatments. Speaking for myself, I will miss playing that SOB ("Sweet 'Ol Bey") on the boards. But, knowing the great strides being made by our medical profession, I'm sure I'll be taking my usual lickings from our President down the road! Ed.

Daniels, Nault Destroy Cribbage Odds

Rare Hands: Five maximum 29-point hands have been achieved by Sean Daniels of Astoria, OR during 1989-1992. Paul Nault of Athol, MA had two such hands within 8 games in a tournament on March 19, 1977. Guinness Book of Records, 1994, page 231.

Al Schaefer Tops 201 In Wisconsin

Al Schaefer finished the 1995 season with 999 MRPs...and earned a spot on the All-Central Regional team. And with the new cribbage year barely a month old Schaefer has roared out of the blocks and taken the National MRP lead by winning the huge Wisconsin Dells Classic. First place earned some $1,500 and 220 MRPs!

Ed Ristom, a Texan from El Paso has been seen nationwide on the boards...and this time around he finished 2nd...his highest finish ever! The 207 MRPs and the cool $1,000 also place Ristom at the head of the pack in the early going. Rich Hefty and Harry Langman, two Wisconsin peggers, finished 3rd and 4th, earning sizeable purses and MRPs.

Norbert Kneich nailed the Yankton Classic and continues his winning ways by putting together a great 38 19 +339 qualifying card to take honors.

Frank Danielski, the Appleton "Bomber" continues to pile up the MRPs as this Master peger took the 130-pegger Consolation. Ray Hansen (Des Moines, IA), Emil Lubinski (Brooklyn Park, MN), and Kevin Bremmer (Wisconsin Rapids, WI) finished 2-3-4.

In the Main event finals, Schaefer topped Ristom 4-2 in the best of 7. Al led 3-2 when Ed, needing 23 points with first count to win, held a 4-4-5-5. A queen was cut to end the match. Schaefer proclaimed this was his "First big tournament win" and now he will be forced to go to the Grand National, as he had told friends he wouldn't go unless he won the Dells Classic.

Friday $50: Doug Henderson (WI)
Saturday $20: Frank Schweig (IL)
Saturday $50: Doug Henderson (WI)

11 states were represented and many players were pleased with the tournament and promised to return next year...and in 1997 when Grand National XVI will be in town. And once again, Patrick Barrett held a record-breaking tournament. He stated he hopes to see a record attendance for his Wisconsin Grand National!

No MRP Lists This Month

Bob McCabe, our ACC's Statistician, will have an easy month in October. No Master Point lists will be compiled, since very few reports have been received. And, McCabe has earned a brief respite after compiling the enormous year-end workload. A computer glitch added much grief as the 1995 cribbage year came to an end, adding additional work for Bob. Look for a complete list in the November issue.

National Match Play Reaches Final 16

The first annual Match Play Championship has reached the round of 16, and, according to director Larry Samet, the format is generating a lot of spirited play.

The longest match to date has been between 1995 National Champion Rit Alkas and Tony Del Tufo in the round of 64. Some 32 games were required before Alkas could pull out the win. However, Brian Heroux stopped the 1995 King in the round of 32. Two other see-saw matches had Mick Michaelis nip Matha Fingleton, and Warren Sondericker slipped by Jeff Shimp by a whisker. The hottest player has been George Johnson, who began his round 32 match with 8 straight wins. The results (and final bracketing):

Del Tufo	Alkas	Heroux	Clemmey
Alkas	Heroux	Clemmey

Western Region Wrapup

The 1996 season is off and running and the Western Region is setting a fast pace, with numerous tournaments being played in August, September, and October. 1996 may prove to be yet another banner year for the American Cribbage Congress.

Chief Solano, Fairfield, CA, Aug. 12:

Anne Sheeran (Pittsburg, CA) came away the winner in this 40-pegger event, edging Robert Christopher (Oakland, CA) in the final playoff match. Al Wigger (Cupertino, CA) and Truey Miller (Fremont, CA) finished 3rd and 4th.

Redmond Senior Center Benefit, Redmond, OR, Aug. 20:

Some 84 peggers played for the title and Master Jack Holt (Portland, OR), on a roll lately, nailed the win. Dean Link (Corvallis, OR), Ike Endicott (Bend, OR), and Diane Harvey (Albany, OR) finished 2-3-4. Grand Master Roy Hofbauer (Washougal, WA) won the 56-pegger Consolation. Clair Morse (Bend, OR), One-Star Jesse Jarrell (Pittsburg, CA), and Wendell Rush (Baker City, OR) finished 2nd, 3rd and 4th. Ray Lebow, Bend, OR, scored a great 40 19 +284 in the Main qualifying round. The satellites: Timepasser; Lucille Endicott (OR), Doubles; B. Sauersessig & P. True (WA); High Rollers; Dean Link (OR), Saturday Night; Paul Calhoun (OR). The Senior Center received some $1,320 from sales and charities.

7th Annual Redwood Classic, Santa Rosa, CA, Aug. 27:

A sizeable crowd of 104 peggers played this event and Clyde Ross, a Master pegger from Grass Valley, CA took home the marbles. Three other Californians finished 2-3-4: Charles Sladek, Len Goldman, and Annett Eiffert. Amelee Killion, San Luis Obispo, CA took the 64-pegger Consolation. Mel Ashley, Marina, CA, finished 2nd. Mac McGuigan, Concord, CA took qualifying honors. Director Joe Schalich plans on renewing this event again next August.

Blue Mountain Open, LaGrande, OR, Sept. 10:

Newly-crowned Grand Master Ken Cochlin, Kennewick, WA won this event in 1994...and repeats in 1995 to begin the season on a high note. Paul Nolz, Redmond, OR, finished 2nd. Master Bernie Nelson, Pacific City, OR is nearing his Grand Master with a 3rd place finish. And George Rasmussen, Chehalis, WA is nearly at the 2,000 mark for his Master's by taking 4th. Keith Forrest, a Master pegger from Montana nailed 6 skunks enroute to a high-qualifying score of 38 GP's. Betty Johnson, (Spokane, WA) fresh from scoring the season's first 29-hand, is on a streak by taking the 69-pegger Consolation. John Thibodeau, Elgin, OR, finished 2nd, followed by tournament co-director Ralph Reynolds in 3rd, and Sean Daniels, Imbler, OR, in 4th (Daniels is the pegger listed in the Guinness Book of Records for scoring five 29-hands (see page 2). The satellites: High Roller: Greg Van Metre (OR), Doubles; Lee Gandy & Sean Daniels (OR); Saturday Night; Eva Moritzky (WA) (husband Jack took 2nd to hog all the Q prizes). Cry baby; Jan Williamson (OR).

First Annual Lake Tahoe Challenge, Kings Beach, CA, Sept. 10:

Plumas Stokes had his weekend as he not only scored the ACC's third 29-hand of the season, but with this added boost, went on and captured the title in this 77-pegger inaugural. Ted Pilecki, a newcomer from Martinez, CA, has only been playing since last July, but he roared to a 2nd place finish...aided by a 28-hand! Mike Wiley, Antioch, CA, took 3rd, followed by Brian Riches from Reno. Riches was also the high qualifier. Howard Fraga, Windsor, CA, nailed the Consolation and Jason Shumate, Kings Beach, CA, the 18-year-old son of co-director Jack Shumate, took 2nd. 3rd and 4th went to Les DuBose (Alturas, CA) and Adrian Levy (Lafayette, CA). The satellites: Friday Doubles; Dorothy & Nick Maximov (CA); High Rollers; Chris Quigley (CA); Tahoe Basin Open (Sunday); Sundae Webb-Wiley (CA). This event was played at the handsome N. Tahoe Recreation Center, and directors John Hassenplug and Jack Shumate are off with a well-run tourney in this inaugural event. The players took home beautiful redwood burl cribbage boards as trophies made by Clyde Ross of Alta Sierra, CA. Jones Hom (CA) and Jack Shumate scored 28-hands (in addition to the one scored by Pilecki). Life Master One-Star Jesse Jarrell provided a colorful microphone as he once again MC'd the event. The Concord "4th Street Terrorists" scored in event after event...and their club members lived up to their name! Directors Hassenplug and Shumate were pleased with this first event in Lake Tahoe, and are planning a re-match again next September. Mark your calendars.

American Cribbage Congress Hall of Fame Induction

Robert "Mick" Michaelis

Marinette, Wisconsin

Robert "Mick" Michaelis was elected into the Cribbage Hall of Fame in the spring of 1995. This Marinette, Wisconsin pegger has earned well over 10,000 Master Rating Points and has earned his Life Master, One-Star.

With consistent, year-in, year-out high finishes, he has earned All-American honors seven times, and is currently ranked 2nd (lifetime) in the American Cribbage Congress.

In addition to his excellence on the boards, he has been a long-time tournament director of sanctioned events, having hosted his Tri-Cities Open in Marinette. He has also served ably on the ACC's Board of Directors. His sportsmanship is outstanding, win or lose...and the honor of being elected to the Cribbage Hall of Fame is well deserved.

Another Kantas Ad!

Last December, Harry Kantas offered to make ads for our many ACC cribbage clubs and this type-setting computer whiz from Beaverton, OR mailed this free service to some 74 clubs in the USA.

Kantas reported that a few clubs responded that the ads had very good results.

And with that "pat on the back" Harry went back to work and designed a very clever ad...one that should work even better in attracting attention to our great game. Take a look at this eye-catcher:

HERE'S A SKUNK
YOU WILL LOVE

In cribbage, a win is recorded as 2 points, but a skunk is worth 3! That extra point can be very sweet when it makes the difference between a big award or none. If you would like to learn more about playing ACC cribbage in _____, give me a call:

The Top Ten Whining Strategies On The Cribbage Tournament Trail

- 1- Take a point every time your opponent says "I never get a cut."
- 2- When calling for a judge, request Lance Ito.
- 3- Use disappearing ink to sign opponent's score card.
- 4- Do a little dance every time you get a "go."
- 5- Start with an ace and say "Fifteen that!"
- 6- Use a pinochle deck.
- 7- Really cry during the Cry Baby.
- 8- Count the deck before every deal, look your opponent in the eye, and say, "Just checking!"
- 9- Put 5's in your crib and act really surprised to find them there.
- 10- Remember, you can still make the playoffs...if you skunk the rest!

Submitted by an anonymous member. I just can't imagine who this could be! We have some 7,000 members, and I can't recall any of them doing any whining! Ed.

Rule Book Correction

Arnold Intorf Displays Rare Cribbage Boards

Tahoe City's (CA) Arnold Intorf has many rare and unusual cribbage boards, and he had an exhibit at the recent First Annual Lake Tahoe Cribbage Challenge.

Many of our ACC members are collectors of rare boards...and if you have an inclination in this direction, Cribbage World suggests you join the Cribbage Board Collectors Society.

Lucky Miss for 29-Draw

A player was spotted cutting for the elusive 29-hand at the World's Championship in Quincy, CA. Darn! The four of clubs! No 29!

But wait...his opponent lead a queen. 15-2! His opponent had the case 5 for 20-2. He plays the third 5 for 25-6. It's a go! Wow! 30 for 12 and a go for 13! 21 peg points! If he had hit the 29-hand, his total score would have been perhaps 32 points. He scored 35 points by missing the cut...but most players would sacrifice 3 points for the ACC's $100 29-hand bonus!

Join The American Cribbage Congress

As the American Cribbage Congress winds down year number 16, and our members reflect upon another successful season, signs of complacency are showing.

Our membership has leveled off in the past few months. Perhaps this would be a good time to renew our membership drives and keep our great organization growing.

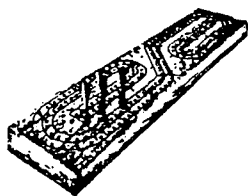

As we head into 1996, we find our expenses increasing, due to increases in 2nd class mailings, and with the escalating cost of paper adding to our Cribbage World printing costs. This has produced a slight increase in membership dues. Memberships are now $10, $12 for a married couple. Life memberships are $80 ($40 for Life Spousal), and Junior dues remain at $3/year.

Remember, to join, simply remit the amount quoted above and mail to:

Letters to the editor...

Club 29 Has New Officers

A condensation:

...On page 19 (Aug CW) there is a very nice article about our club. The only error in the article is that credit for our success is given to Justin Gorman instead of the new Director Paul A. Howard and his staff. Mr. Gorman worked very hard for many years as Director and assorted other positions and felt that it was time for him to step back and let some of the other members take charge and let him retire on his laurels. He certainly deserves it.

Mr. Howard, Mrs. Severson and me, Loretta Aulet are all working diligently to make sure that we keep Club 29 in the top ranks of the GR program. As far as I know, when elections are held in Feb. 1996, we will all volunteer to run again and take a second term. As in all clubs the backbone of the organization relies on volunteer work.

*Loretta C. Aulet, Sec/Treas. Club 29
Englewood, FL*

New "19" Game?

How about a change of pace from catching typos and spelling errors (no comment from anyone about a misspelled word in my letter which you printed in the June issue?), and no more criticisms about anyone's shuffling ability.

Instead, consider a change in the old game: a player who gets the hated "19" hand scores 19 points, instead of nothing! Why not? We base our hopes on the cut card each hand, so why not take a chance on getting a dead hand and scoring 19 as a result. How often would the cut card be something that would ruin the chance for the dead hand, and the player would end up with a run of 3 or 15-2, instead of 19? It's a chance to take, just like going for a 29 hand. Comments?

*Gordon Meeusen
Guilderland, NY*

Wow, Gordon! Now that would be a revolutionary game! This concept would completely destroy the game as we know it! Almost every hand would be held for the 19-draw! On the other hand, it may be a pleasant variation...and would certainly be a hilarious game! I should get my pals to play me a few games....lord knows, I get way more than my share of those "19" hands (just kidding!). Ed.

Quiz Detailed

Cedric Larson's quiz (Aug. CW) caught my eye. I used Discard Query option of Cribbage Master to determine which of the 13 blank holdings has the best potential for scoring. The true answer depends on what two cards were tossed to the crib since neither of those cards can be turned as the starter. For each of the deals I assumed that you tossed two kings to the crib. (In no instance, however, would that be a good toss if you were striving to maximize the score for your hand.) Cribbage Master agrees with Cedric: the 5-2-3-6 is the best of the hands with an average of 4.30 and the 5-A-2-4 is second best with 3.91. The worst two are 5-2-7-9 and 5-3-8-9 with 3.04 and 3.09, respectively. All results are summarized:

5-A-2-4 = 3.91	5-2-4-7 = 3.43
5-A-2-6 = 3.70	5-2-7-9 = 3.04
5-A-3-8 = 3.13	5-3-6-8 = 3.35
5-A-4-7 = 3.78	5-3-8-9 = 3.09
5-A-4-8 = 3.74	5-4-7-9 = 3.17
5-2-3-6 = 4.30	5-4-8-9 = 3.39
5-2-3-9 = 3.65

By the way, ACBL bridge tournaments have something like Peer Tournaments. These events are called "Flighted" events. Normally there are three flights of approximately equal size. The "A" flight has the highest-ranked players, the "B" flight is in the middle, and the "C" flight is the lowest level. Usually, "A" is 750+ master points, "B" is 300-749, and "C" is 0-300. There are also "Stratified" events. These are ones in which all strats (A, B, C) play three sets of winners. More master points are given for placing in "A" than "B," and master points for "B" are more than "C". In stratified events a "C" who does well can place in "B". A "B" who does well can place in "A."

In Defense of Sir John Suckling

In regards to Wava Stevens "interesting" viewpoint: 3 of a kind = 6 points is a derived count; it is worth six because it contains 3 unique pairs! Keeping that in mind, and recognizing that Wava's 4 sixes must be in one hand in order to be counted as four of a kind, I'll answer her little quiz:

6H, 6D, 6 S, = 6 (Yes, 6)

6H, 6D, 6C = 6 (No, H/D pair was counted already)

6H 6S, 6C = 6 (No, H/S & H/C previously counted)

6D, 6S, 6C = 6 (No, all three pairs counted before)

Wava's viewpoint would suggest that a 5 card run should count as 9, because:

9, T, J = 3 (yes or no), T, J, Q = 3 (yes or no), J, Q, K = 3 (yes or no), and 3+3+3 = 9.

Kind of silly, isn't it? (Although I'd like to get a J5555 for 41!)

Russell Adams, Plumas Stokes Score Sanctioned 29's

Russell Adams and Plumas Stokes, two veteran peggers recently scored 29-hands No. 2 & 3 for the new cribbage year. Adams, a Grand Master from Minneapolis, scored his gem at the Belle City Classic in Appleton August 26. Stokes, zeroing in on his Grand Master (3,700+) nailed his 29 at the inaugural Lake Tahoe Challenge September 8. Stokes hails from Quincy, CA.

NE Peer Event Has Unique Results

Bob Hayman, Walpole, MA, overcame locking his keys in his car and being 30th and final qualifier, to beat Sid Lampke for the New England Championship Peer Event. Lampke of Medway, MA, was the defending champion. For the second year in a row the winner came from the second tier.

Henry DeLong (Woburn, MA) and Lissa Mooradd (S. Hadley, MA) finished 3rd and 4th.

In the 54-pegger Consolation, Bill Medeiros, Randolph, MA defeated Emil Chrabaszcz, Ware, MA in an exact repeat of last year's Consolation playoff.

Vernon Chester (Worcester, MA), 91 years young, played in his first ACC tournament, qualified 2nd and finished 17-32. Not bad for a 91-year old rookie!

The three tier peer qualifying round has the approval of the ACC for a trial tournament...and each tier qualified 10 players for the finals in this 120-pegger event.

Murphy's Law Strikes John Williams

John Williams, a fine pegger from Brooklyn Park, MN, nailed the Lewis & Clark Classic for a 2nd place finish in July...and zipped over the 2,000 MRP mark lifetime to become the ACC's 233rd Master Pegger.

Oops, in the season's final number crunching time, Murphy's Law took over and somehow this honor was overlooked, and John was not listed in this year's awards list for the upcoming Grand National.

The American Cribbage Congress apologizes for this oversight...and John will receive his award at a later date.

Wild Doubles Hand Played In Hayden Lake, Idaho

Bayard Lliteras, a Master pegger from Coeur d'Alene, Idaho recently played a game of doubles that produced one of the wildest results imaginable.

Bayard was dealt a nifty 5-5-5-5-3. His partner was dealt a 6-6-6-6-3. And would you believe their opponents were both dealt K-J-Q-10-3. And would you believe all four players discarded a 3 to Bayard's partner's crib? Well, they did...and this is the way the hand played out:

K - 5 (2) - 10 - 6 (2)
Q - 5 (2) - J - 6 (2)
10 - 5 (2) - Q - 6 (2)
J - 5 (2) - K - 6 (2)

Lliteras and partner score 16 peg points to zero!

Now would you believe a 9 was cut for the starter card? Yes indeed! Bayard scored a 20 hand, his partner scored a 20 hand and a 24 crib! Both opponents score 5 points. Grand total: 80-10! Believe it or not!

Betty Johnson scores 95 Season's First 29-Hand

On August 19, Betty Johnson, a Master pegger from Spokane, WA, scored the season's first 29-hand at the Redmond (OR) Senior Center Benefit's event. She will dip into the ACC's budget to the tune of $100!

Dan Zeisler Receives President's Award

ACC President Everett "Ev" Bey has awarded the annual "President's Award" to Dan Zeisler, a school teacher from Sonora, CA.

Zeisler has successfully headed up the ACC's Youth Cribbage Program for the past year and one-half. The award reads:

President's Award 1995

With great pleasure I give the President's Award to
Dan Zeisler

Sonora, California

Dan is being honored for "rescuing" the American Cribbage Congress's Youth Cribbage Program. During the past one and one-half years that he has headed this program, we have issued training manuals (which Dan wrote) to 75 prospective cribbage teachers in about 25 states. A 7th grade teacher in the Sonora (CA) public school system, Dan has promoted and taught cribbage to his own students for several years, including a youth tournament as the highlight of each teaching year.
