Bill Medeiros Tops Holiday Classic

Bill Medeiros, a veteran pegger from Shrewsbury, MA came away the winner at the sizeable 154-pegger Holiday Classic in Woonsocket, RI December 15. The winners MRP take was a lofty 160...and this takes Medeiros to the 5,900 mark (lifetime), and he is knocking on the door for his Life Master rating (needing 6,000 for that honor).

Stan Babiec, Dartmouth, MA finished a solid 2nd, and after qualifying 8th, garnered some 187 MRP's for a nice day's pegging!

Frank Sigda (South Hampton, MA), and Richard Menaik (Sag Harbor, NY) took 3rd and 4th.

1995 National Champion Rit Alkas (CT) finished 15th and has zipped into 2nd place in the Eastern Region, and is among the national leaders for this cribbage year, standing at well over 500 MRP's for the cribbage year.

Ray Tondorf, East Taunton, MA, had the hot hand in the qualifying round, taking honors.

Phyllis Aronoff, Quincy, MA, nailed the 76-pegger Consolation...and took home 44 MRP's for the effort. Sharlene Medeiros, spouse of Bill, the Main Event winner, finished 2nd, and the family race for MRP honors continues (only 31 MRP's separate the two).

Paul Musard (N. Providence, RI) and Dudley Dumaine (Weston, MA) finished 3rd and 4th. Brenda Palmer, W. Springfield, MA, took 5th, and with the 27 MRP's earned has vaulted into 3rd place in the Eastern Region in the early going this cribbage year. She finished 9th last year, earning All-American honors, and she has her hat in the ring for yet another try again this year.

Grand Master David Clemmey (Mansfield, MA) took honors in the qualifying round.

Director Gloria Dyndur once again ran a holiday motif tournament, and drew a huge crowd, attesting to the popularity of this event. She reported some $308 was donated to the Heart Transplant charity...and also reported three peggers scored that elusive 28-hand: Elinor Breen, Tom Scott, and Margaret Kennedy.

Dyndur is re-scheduling this event two weeks earlier next year. The match will be played November 30, 1997. Mark your calendars.

Reinstatement?

Several members of the ACC Board of Directors have been conducting surveys about the possibility of reinstating members who have been expelled for various reasons. The results confirm their opinion that expelled players should not and must not be reinstated.

It comes as no surprise to me that by a 5-to-1 majority, ACC members oppose giving expelled members a "second chance."

Inquiries were solicited in a recent Cribbage World as well as some 200 questionnaires being distributed at a number of tournaments. In all instances, the overwhelming opinion was that "Expelled" means Expelled, permanently and finally.

During our 17 years of existence, the ACC has expelled 14 members for proven or confessed breaches of conduct or unethical play.

In addition, four other members were handed limited months of suspension for minor violations. These four have been chastened and learned their lesson; I have no compunction about accepting them back into our association, tournaments or Grass Roots activities.

Our Code of Ethics, published as a forepage in our Official Tournament Rules & Regulations, lists eight "unacceptable practices" considered as grounds for suspension or expulsion from the ACC:

- 1- Marking cards
- 2- Stacking the deck
- 3- Secreting cards
- 4- Altering scorecards
- 5- Throwing a game or match
- 6- Unbecoming actions
- 7- Violation of rules
- 8- Detrimental actions

The first five, which cover manipulation of the cards, "hauling timber" (deliberately overpegging), changing scorecard results and other forms of connivery are examples of outright cheating. A review of past expulsions shows the following "cheating" causes for actions: altering scorecards, 6; stacking the deck, 5; and overpegging, 3. The latter three can probably be considered "housekeeping transgressions" and are usually covered by suspensions.

Webster's Encyclopedia Unabridged Dictionary defines "expel" as: "...to cut off from membership or relations...(to) drive out, drive away...syn. oust, dismiss, exile." This definition strongly implies permanence!

Apologies after the fact from an expelled person seeking reinstatement carry little weight with me. The expelled person took advantage of ACC membership participation and tried to put it to his/her own advantage. He or she knew what the penalty was for cheating and getting caught before the incident(s) occurred and made a conscious decision to cheat. He made his/her bed...let them lie in it alone!

There is no way I or other members could feel comfortable playing this once-sullied member if he/she should gain reinstatement. This cannot happen. Known cheaters must not be allowed in our midst.

Nimble fingers find a way to skip extra holes in the pegging process. Two or three overpegged holes here and there, three or four times during a game, makes a 6- to 12-point difference, enough to win. Be alert, count the hands, watch the board and peg locations. As Founding President Joe Wergin is fond of saying: "Trust everybody, but cut the cards!"

Don't be intimidated; if you think there's a problem, call a pair of judges. If there's a continuing problem with a particular player, be sure of your accusation and then contact the Ethics Committee, c/o Paul Hatcher, chairman, 1691 Jory Hill Road S., Salem, OR 97306. Phone (503) 364-4541.

The 7-person Ethics Committee requires at least two letters of complaint before conducting its own investigation. If charges are substantiated, the Ethics Committee may hand down a suspension for minor violations or refer expulsion to the Board of Directors, the final authority. In either case, the alleged violator is given the privilege of a closed door hearing (open at his/her option) before the Board of Directors, after which a vote is taken to exonerate, suspend, or expel. Notice of the final determination is published in Cribbage World, with tournament directors and Grass Roots officials also being notified.

In our opinion, there is no need for anyone to fear that once-expelled persons will be given another chance to prey on ethical ACC members.

Keep peggin'.... Ev Bey

Eau Claire Off & Running

Clay Collier Wins Again

Clay Collier won Grand National IX in 1990...and with the midwest as his stomping ground, has won yet another large tournament. This time around he nailed the 130-pegger Eau Claire Classic on December 8.

This was director Alan Lindner's inaugural event in Eau Claire, WI, and he got the show off the ground with a nice crowd. The host facility (Ramada Inn) proved to have a nice playing area, and Lindner is planning to renew this event again next December 5-7, 1997.

Janet Dehaven, playing out of Minneapolis, finished 2nd, followed by newly crowned Life Master Martha Fingleton (Milwaukee) taking 3rd (and nearing the 400 MRP mark for the year). Vance Heideman from Mound, MN nailed 4th. Two BOD members...Ron Hamilton and Pat Barrett...took 5th and 6th. Barrett's 97 MRP's take him over the 400 mark for the year. He is also zeroing in on his Life Master, having earned an even 5,500 (lifetime). And Hamilton is close behind, with some 5,317 MRP's earned to date.

Roger Wilson, the travelling pegger from Boulder, CO, was hot in the qualifying round, taking honors (and is over the 300 mark for the year).

1985 All-American Jeff Shimp (Shelbyville, MI) ran the table in the 90-pegger Consolation. Not only did he take qualifying honors, but won the playoffs as well. Tracy Radosevich (Medford, WI) finished 2nd, followed by Bill Erickson (Libertyville, IL) and ACC Statistician Bob McCabe (Cudahy, WI) in 3rd and 4th. McCabe is a Life Master, and is currently the ACC's 18th ranked member.

Director Lindner had excellent paybacks for the players, with Collier banking some $900 for his first place finish. And Shimp pocketed $475 (not counting any "Q" prizes) for winning the Consolation. Eau Claire, WI, may well become one of the Central Region's "hot spots" in years to come!

Ocean State Classic Entry: $35

John Chambers runs a unique tournament in Pawtucket, RI on May 4. His format is a friendly one, with no "Q" pool and a reasonable $35 entry fee. See Tournament Trail, this issue, for details. Chambers also authors a book, "Cribbage, A New Concept." See his ad in this issue.

Doris Perkins Cops 7th Yankee Classic

Master pegger Doris Perkins (Quincy, MA) came away the winner at the recent 7th Annual Yankee Classic played in Manchester, CT. A sizeable crowd of 136 peggers was on hand for this event. The win came with a sizeable purse and 140 MRP's. Perkin's MRP total for this cribbage year has topped 300 and she is among the leaders in the Eastern Region.

Bob Cunningham, Ashland, MA, nailed 2nd (and is nearing 500 MRP's for the year). William Shea (E. Hartford) took 3rd, followed by Tom Clark (Candia, NH) in 4th.

Al Charlebois, pegging out of Pawtucket, RI took honors in the qualifying round.

Jim Clemmey, West Wareham, MA nailed the 78-pegger Consolation. Ted Diamond (MA), Charles Burgess, Jr. (RI), and George Webb (MA) finished 2-3-4 in spirited competition.

Director Phil Martin had this 7th Annual on track, and reports that Louis Gentile (CT) and Dick LaFlamme (CT) scored that 15,028 to 1 28-hand! No 29's showed. He also reports this event will be re-played next November 23.

Hall 'O Famer Dale Munroe Back In Action

Dale Munroe, Collinsville, CT, was inducted into the Cribbage Hall of Fame in 1991. Cribbageland hasn't seen much of Munroe in the past few years...but at the recent Yankee Classic, he was back in action with a vengeance. After qualifying 18th, he finished in the 5-8 bracket in this 136-pegger event.

Cribbage World welcomes Munroe back...and perhaps after a five year "rest" he could back up Cribbage World again. Munroe was Cribbage World editor from 1986-1990. His dedication to cribbage and the enormous work performed in publishing our trade magazine earned him his Hall Of Fame honors.

Syl Lulinski Reports High Interest in 1999 Grand National

Executive Vice-President Syl Lulinski reports several applications have been received for the Western Region's 1999 Grand National. Stay tuned!

Gillespie Scalps 'Em At Kah-Nee-Ta

Lynn Gillespie, Kennewick, WA, earned his Master rating in style! He nailed the Kah-Nee-Ta Championship January 5.

This 79-pegger event was played at the resort lodge and casino in central Oregon...and the accommodations were first class! This facility has added a casino, in addition to their hot spring pools, golf course, and riding stables. Players wanting to relax and unwind in a serene atmosphere, this is the place to play.

Fabian Nelson, Salem, OR, found the house conducive to fine pegging, and he took home 2nd. Rick Elsea, Beaverton, OR finished 3rd, followed by Doug Brown, a newly crowned Grand Master from Pasco, WA in 4th.

Director Jim Waldorf was in the money all week-end, beginning with a doubles win (with Carroll Evans as partner), and he also took home the "Q" money with a nice 34-GP card.

52-peggers played the Consolation and Lee Chambers, a Master pegger from Corvallis, OR won going away. Carolyn Blackman (Bend, OR), John Furler (Tigard, OR), and Paul Hatcher (Salem, OR) finished 2-3-4. Hatcher recently earned Life Master, and he continues to pile up the MRP's.

George Rasmussen (WA) won the playoffs in the High Roller, but the "Q" money went to Rollie Heath (OR). The Friday Time Passer had Hatcher as the winner.

Directors Waldorf and John Hatfield had no trouble running this show, as the facility provided excellent playing areas, making it almost impossible to irritate any players in this setting.

Ralph Reynolds Scores 7th 29-Hand

At the Kah-Nee-Ta event, Ralph Reynolds, Prineville, OR, nailed the ACC's 7th 29-hand of the season.

Paul Nolz, Redmond, OR, put on his best "poker face," walked up to Ralph and solemnly told him that the ACC no longer gives $100 for a 29. About an hour later, Ralph approached CW's editor and plaintively asked when the ACC had stopped giving the $100. Not to worry, Ralph, the $100 is yours!

Sisters Duke It Out In Sacramento

132 players came from four states to play in the 2nd Annual River City Open, and it came down to two sisters vying for the championship! Margaret Larsen (Hayward, CA) and Mary Ryan (San Lorenzo, CA) showed no quarter, as these two sisters battled for the $1,000 first place prize. Larsen prevailed, but Ryan's 2nd place $700 was well received, nevertheless.

Director Bill Pope guessed that proud dad John Ryan was treated to a fine dinner that evening!

David Webber (Citrus Heights, CA) nailed 3rd, followed by Bill Wakeman, a newly crowned Master from Hayward, CA, in 4th.

David Thorne (Sonoma, CA) posted the high qualifying card (39 18 +232). This honor came complete with a trophy and a Weber barbecue. Thorne finished 8th in the playoffs and continued on to win the Cry Baby, picking up two more trophies along the way.

The 62-player Consolation was won by Adrian Levy (Lafayette, CA). Helen Bolstad, a Master pegger from Martinez, CA, grabbed 2nd.

In Friday night's action, Sara and Boyd Horne, Redondo Beach, CA, made a valiant effort to defend their Doubles crown from last year, but came up one game short, finishing 2nd to Doug Busch and Richard Wardenburg, two peggers from Auburn, CA. Busch and Wardenburg bested the 46-team field and took home $500.

A whopping seven 28-hands showed, but no 29's. The lucky peggers scoring the 28's: Morris Ross, Marilyn Brown, Jennifer Horne, Ken Nelson, Helen Bolstad, Anna Abbott, and Bob Padgett.

Co-directors Pope and Annett Eiffert, reported a generous 100% payback in cash and player benefits. The players were generous, too, as they donated many foodstuffs to help needy families in the area. And Pope and Eiffert thank Jennifer Horne for her organizational help. This River City Open is fast becoming one of the better California events. Mark your calendars for the 3rd Annual to be played next November 21-23.

In Memoriam

Ed Horigan

Virginia Beach, Virginia

Ed passed away January 7 after a battle with cancer at the age of 55. Ed was a mainstay on the ACC's Board of Directors and his long and diligent work on the Master Point Rating System is nearing fruition. An advocate of equal points for equal difficulty, regardless of size of tournaments proved his regard for fair play and sportsmanship. He will be long remembered for his dedication to his fellow players and for his excellence playing the game, having earned Grand Master. Ed will be sorely missed by all our players nationwide.

J. C. Turner

Roseburg, Oregon

Master pegger J. C. passed away December 24 after a long and difficult battle with cancer. J. C. served in the U. S. Navy and acquired a great skill in cribbage at an early age. A great sport and friendly competitor, he will be long remembered by his many friends in the Northwest...and nationwide.

Myrna C. Denend

Port Orchard, Washington

Kitsap Peggers GR 204 has been saddened by the Christmas day loss of its most loyal and enthusiastic pegger. Myrna was a charter member and treasurer for the past two years. Her quick wit, wise counsel, and cheerful play will be missed by all her pegger friends in the Puget Sound area.

Terrorists Tirade

by Mary Gladish, Concord, CA

Down to River City many Terrorists did sail and quite a number of them managed to prevail!
Lucille and Dick Owens copped third in Friday Doubles;
Millie Coffey and Mary Gladish got sixth for their troubles.

Heidi Glashan, Lucille Owens, Morrie Ross and Ann Sheeran qualified in the Main. After second round they suffered pain.
Sundae got fifth in Saturday nite special.
(At least one of us did quite well.)

Adrian Levy won the Consolation... beating Helen Bolstad...to her consternation.
Bob Clark came up a dandy fourth.
Mary Gladish did fifth to eighth...to her remorse.

Heidi and Sundae won two of the prizes in the raffle... with only three in the offing, they still can baffle!

Jim Broadhurst Tough On Home Turf

The Southern Oregon Lions Open, played in Medford, OR, was won by local Jim Broadhurst November 17. Broadhurst is tough on his home turf as he also took qualifying honors...and a nifty 87 MRP's in this 55-pegger event.

Dan Mitchell came over the pass from California (Crescent City) and grabbed 2nd, followed by Herschell Mack (CA) and Edwin Park (OR) in 3rd and 4th.

I. V. Graham (MT) was in the thick of it all weekend as he qualified 2nd and finished 5th, taking home a combined 51 MRP's.

George Rasmussen, Chehalis, WA, padded his nation-leading MRP score a bit by taking the 40-pegger Consolation, adding another 20 MRP's to his yearly take. Keith Blackman (OR), David Stahlhut (CA), and Kevin Gaynor (OR) finished 2-3-4.

Directors Marvis & Ralph Reynolds reported $500 was donated to the Lions Sight and Hearing Center in Medford. This event sported donated trophies and other donated prizes, allowing for excellent cash paybacks. This duo plan on renewing this event again next Oct. 3-5.

Bob Gromek's Inquiry Answered

Bob Gromek, Las Vegas, NV, is contemplating a bid for the 1999 Grand National for his home Riviera Casino in Las Vegas. And, if successful, he was also contemplating cash prizes for any four-of-a-kind during play. However, being a little nervous about the odds of this happening, he inquired via the cribbage grapevine just what the odds might be for this 4-of-a-kind occurrence.

Bruce Bowman and Russell Adams got wind of this problem and came up with these odds:

Bowman: "Considering 450 players playing 99,000 hands and 49,500 cribs, a 50% midrange would produce some 240-262 4-of-a-kind hands. He advises Gromek "Don't make it $100...that would cost you on the order of $25,000!"

Russell Adams: basing his analysis on 500 players (and ignoring cribs) comes up with about 176 of these gems (at 595 to 1 odds). However, if he throws in cribs, he agrees with Bowman, and comes up with 250 of these hands (148,500 hands at 595 to 1). Cribbage World hopes Gromek gets the bid...and pays, let's see, how about $50 each! The Riviera can afford that! That's only a measly $12,500!

Grass Roots Corner

National Statistician Joe Ramos is busy moving this month. And as all our ACC members know, moving is simply no fun. Joe reports that he is inundated in boxes and boxes...but he promises that next month's issue of Cribbage World will update our membership on Grass Roots play.

Paul Hatcher Earns Life Master

Doug Brown, Wayne Steinmetz Earn Grand Master

Darrell Hunstad, Jackie Doppelt, Annett Eiffert, and Bob DeKennip Earn Master

Paul Hatcher, a 3-time All-American from Salem, OR qualified 11th at the recent River City Open in Sacramento, CA, and continued on to a 9-16 finish...and earned the ACC's 24th Life Master.

Doug Brown, Pasco, WA, nailed the Prineville Lions Open, qualifying 2nd and finishing 3rd to zip to the ACC's 73rd Grand Master. Wayne Steinmetz, Milwaukee, WI nailed the Jesse James Open with a 9-16 finish (after qualifying 5th) and earned the ACC's 74th Grand Master.

Three Western Region peggers recently earned Master. They are: Darrell Hunstad, Jackie Doppelt, and Annett Eiffert. Doppelt and Eiffert nailed the Veteran's Day Classic in Reno (Eiffert finished 2nd and Doppelt took 3rd) to easily earn their Masters. Hunstad finished 3rd at Ed's Teeny Tiny in San Jose in early November to earn his Masters.

Bob DeKennip, Lancaster, MA, qualified 8th at the 136-pegger Yankee Classic to earn his Masters.

ACC Playoff Format Wrong?

Tim Krawford wrote CW a lengthy letter that is condensed for publication:

"...Nevertheless, there is still a significant flaw in the present system: And that is, "No player, should have any advantage in getting the crib (More Times) than their opponent!"...the present system is structured around an "odd number of games" to advance is wrong! Not only is an odd number of games "uneven" for one player over another, it is totally contradictory to the system that was played during the "Qualifying" segment of the tournament.

...I say the correct way of proceeding through the playoffs, would be, first: players would play an even amount of games (example) 1st round, 4 games, then the final four places could play 6 game elimination. Secondly, once again, score sheets should be used during the playoffs. Thirdly, both players would have an "equal" amount of getting the first crib! Lastly, scoring could be determined by the director (example) would a skunk count 3 points? Presumably it would, to cut down on the chances of two players having identical score sheets after their playoff match.

...my theory is based on the belief "skill should be given every chance to exceed over luck in this game. Having an unequal chance at the first crib in an odd number playoff games, by simply being luckier to "cut" lower than your opponent is not the way to see who has the better skill...

Tournament of Champions, ACC Open On Record Course

Next month's Cribbage World will have a full report of the Tournament of Champions and the Joseph Petrus Wergin/ACC Open.

CW was forced to go to press before the pegging action begins, but a check with Barbara Woodward and Joan Rein indicates another record, or near-record crowds. Some 800 peggers had signed on by the 5th of January, and the TOC had some 400 on board well before the deadline. Predictions are for upwards of 450 for the TOC and the Open should play to 1,000 or so. Perhaps a sellout will occur, as the field is limited to the first 1,024 players.

Stay tuned! Who will be the lucky $10,000 winner? And the TOC should pay that event's winner some $9,000 or so! This is cribbageland's mecca, and Cribbage World knows the pegging will be intense, and the competition keen. Parity is very nearly at hand, and 27 GP cards that qualify for the playoffs is almost a certainty. See you in Reno!

Blonde Peggers

Out in the Northwest, blondes abound, since the area was primarily settled by Scandinavians. Montana has its share of these comely beauties and a few of them play cribbage.

One of these blonde peggers decided that she needed a new image, and had her hair dyed a bright red.

The next weekend, she decided to take a drive and show off her new image. Driving down a country road she spied a shepherd, and she pulled over and got out of her car. The shepherd, a little curious, walked over to the fence. She struck up a conversation: "Ohhh, I just love your adorable sheep. Say, if I could guess the exact number of sheep you have, could I have one to take home?"

The shepherd, being a little enamoured with this good-looking redhead (and having a huge flock) said: "Sure, if you can guess the exact number, you can have one!"

The beauty eyed the flock, and guessed "You have 369 sheep!"

Stunned, the shepherd answered: "Wow, how did you do that? That's exactly right!"

"Well, can I have my sheep?"

"Uh, OK, climb over the fence and pick one out."

After some time, she finally came back to the fence with one under her arm. As she was about to climb back over the fence, the shepherd yelled: "Hey lady, if I can guess the true color of your hair, can I have my dog back?"

Wahlig 1-1 In Hawaii

Len Wahlig, a local pegger, was hot December 1, as he blitzed the 30 peggers in attendance by qualifying first...and then winning the playoffs as well.

Charlie Rodgers, Tracy Carter and Caroline Miura, all local peggers, finished 2-3-4.

James Kahue edged Charlie Brown for the Consolation win.

Director Tsarkie played this match at the Natsunoya Tea House in Honolulu...and he'll do it again next December 7, 1997!

Name Tags

The Richmond Cribbage Club has invested in permanent name tags, and according to member Rick Allen these tags "Really stood out in the crowd" at the recent Baltimore Classic event. These attractive tags are 3 3/8" x 2 1/8"...and Allen says they are good advertisement for future tournaments, and are superior to the stick-on type that may harm your wearing apparel. Allen feels that other clubs might want to consider their image, too, and sport their own tags. The Richmond tags:

Greater Orlando Cribbage Club Opposed To Reinstatement Of Cheaters

Last month, CW ran an article summarizing the feelings of our many ACC players insofar as reinstating cheaters.

The Greater Orlando club mailed Cribbage World a statement ... "if a player is suspended from the ACC for cheating, or other transgression of that magnitude, that they should never be allowed to play organized cribbage again. We do believe that people who are suspended for an infraction, like leaving tournament play, should be allowed to play after a suitable suspension..."

Some 25 members signed the statement. Once again, our membership is adamant about allowing cheaters reinstatement.

Mike Stier Tops In Anchorage

At the recent Anchorage Open, the locals took the top ten spots, with Mike Stier claiming the title in this 37-pegger event. Tony Chiaro took 2nd, followed by Chuck Berg and Darlene Stier in 3rd and 4th. Berg took qualifying honors, and took home a combined 37 MRP's.

Raldo Estridge, Chugach, AK nailed the Consolation...and there was Amos Olmstead from far-away Helena, MT in 2nd! Mike Rowe and Margo Hammond, two locals, took 3rd and 4th.

26th Annual WCCT

A record crowd was on hand last year as we celebrated the country's oldest sanctioned cribbage tournament's 25th anniversary. That also marked our first attempt at running a two day tournament (three days if you count the Friday night doubles contest). Not only did we find some areas to fine-tune, we met lots of new people whom we look forward to seeing again this year. As Rotarians, we work hard at this annual event because we know it's good for our club and our community. We also know that cribbage players want to enjoy themselves, while earning lots of points and money. This tournament is sanctioned by and run in accordance with ACC rules.

DATE: May 2, 3 & 4, 1997

PLACE: Plumas County Fairgrounds, Quincy, CA

ENTRY FEE: includes coffee and donuts, a beverage, buffet lunch Saturday and a barbecued tri-tip dinner Saturday evening.

Q-POOL: Optional $10.00 pre-registration is available on the forms for the singles tournament. 100% payback, not graduated, to all qualifiers entered in the Q-pool.

DOUBLES: Nine game doubles 'warm-up' Friday evening. $40.00 entry per team. Top 25% will share in the prize fund (85% of registration fees less pro-rated facility expenses for doubles event). Payoff will be made in order of finish based on total game points, number of games won then net spread points.

MAIN TOURNAMENT: Registration will begin Saturday morning at 7 a.m. with tournament play beginning promptly at 8 a.m. This year we changed the format and will play 21 games, each against different opponents. Saturday afternoon and after dinner we will complete two rounds of playoffs, all 3 out of 5. Sunday morning playoffs will continue at 7:30 a.m.

CONSOLATION: At 7:30 a.m. Sunday a 9 game ACC sanctioned consolation tournament will get underway. $20.00 registration, optional $5.00 Q-pool.

SCORING: Twenty-five percent will qualify for the playoffs. Rankings and parings will be based on total number of game points, then number of games won and finally, net spread points: ( 2 for a win, 3 for a skunk, 0 - loss)

PRIZE FUND: The total prize fund will be determined after all registrations are completed. Money will be paid in accordance with the American Cribbage Congress payback guidelines. Keep in mind that your registration fee includes morning donuts, Sat. lunch and dinner.

SATURDAY NIGHT features several things. A barbecued tri-tip dinner with all the trimmings. Presentation of the $100 Kozlowski Award to the highest qualifier from the state of Nevada and the Robert Moon Memorial Award—a plaque and $100 to the highest qualifier from Plumas County. Following dinner we will run two concurrent tournaments, a High Rollers contest and a Saturday Night Special, both 100% payback.

13 Peggers Top 500 MRP Mark At Midyear Rasmussen, Colvert, Danielski Hold Slim Lead

With the 1997 season at the half-way point, some 13 peggers have topped the 500 MRP mark, and 25 have reached 400. The 1997 season is on a roll towards another banner season as American Cribbage Congress members are pegging away in record numbers nationwide.

Leading the charge are two Western Region peggers. George "Raz" Rasmussen, Chehalis, WA, and DeLynn Colvert, Missoula, MT. Both peggers have topped the 700 mark (Rasmussen has MRP's yet to be posted) for the season.

In the Central Region Ginny Danielski, Little Chute, WI, continues her MRP lead, standing at 623. Russell Adams, Minneapolis, is making a charge and has reached 551. Two-time national champion Bob Julian has once again thrown his hat into the ring for yet another try for the roses as this Milwaukee pegger continues pegging from coast to coast. Julian has also topped 500 for the year.

In the Eastern Region, Raymond McNulty, Greenville, RI is tenaciously hanging on to his region-leading lead, standing at 572. 1995 national champion Rit Alkas, Manchester, CT, and Brenda Palmer, W. Springfield, MA are challenging for the lead as both peggers have made a move upwards lately. Palmer earned All-American last year, and is a threat to win this honor once again. George Bickford, the Eastern Region's Tournament Commissioner (W. Springfield, MA) is steadily piling up MRP's this year and is hot on the heels of the leaders as he, too, has cracked the 500 barrier.

A bevy of players from the Western Region are breathing down the necks of the leaders, having topped 500. They are: Darrell Miotke (Sublimity, OR), Mary Herrmann (Alamo, CA), Mary Gladish (Concord, CA), and Rollie Heath (Lincoln City, OR).

Jackie Doppelt (Vacaville, CA), Michael Rowe (Anchorage, AK), Bill Wakeman (Hayward, CA) and Claire Morse (Bend, OR), have all topped 400 for the year at the midpoint, and they remain alive and well in their quest for honors.

In the Eastern Region, five players have topped 400: Robert Cunningham (Ashland, MA), John Worley (Burlington, NC), Harry Palmer (W. Springfield, MA), Ford Jewer (Wakefield, RI), Tom Clark (Candia, NH), and Cindy Veradt (Taunton, MA).

In the Central Region, three players are over the 400 mark: Patrick Barrett (Wisconsin Rapids, WI), Frank Danielski (Little Chute, WI), and Clay Collier (Beatrice, NE).

With the huge ACC Open yet to be posted, the MRP race is up for grabs. The 1997 season is heating up for another exciting finish as ACC peggers are travelling more with each passing year...and qualifying scores continue to fall as evenly matched players abound in tournament play. You rarely see a weak player in tournament action as you occasionally did in years past.

Helen Railsback "Wastes"

29 On Buzz

Grand Master Helen Railsback recently "wasted" a 29-hand on her husband, Buzz (another Grand Master).

Playing at their Syracuse, Nebraska home, Helen scored her first ever 29. She laments, "Why couldn't it have been in Reno!"

Cribbage World Coins New Word

In last month's issue of Cribbage World the following was printed: "This Burlington, NC pegger finished a nuffy 2nd this time around..."

Nuffy?

Well, isn't finishing 2nd 'nuf???

Jim Lunder on CW Hit List

Cap Canaveral's Jim Lunder is on Cribbage World's "hit list!" On several occasions, his name has been misspelled.

Cribbage World apologizes to Jim. Many reports are hand-written, and some directors are not careful in making names legible. Let's all strive to do a better job in 1997! 'Nuf said?
