AMERICAN CRIBBAGE CONGRESS

Native American Casino Action Mac McNeil Tops Chinook Winds Paul Hatcher Wins Kah-Nee-Ta

Native American Casinos are becoming common in the USA, and two of them have sponsored cribbage tournaments in Oregon in December and January.

In Lincoln City, OR, the Chinook Winds Casino hosted a sanctioned cribbage match on December 12-14. Some 186 peggers showed for this inaugural event, and Richard "Mac" McNeil, pegging out of McMinville, OR came away the winner, taking home a sizeable first place prize and 196 MRP's.

Ron Oleman (OR) nailed 2nd, taking home another sizeable cash prize...and 147 MRP's. Mike Smith (OR) and George "Raz" Rasmussen finished 3-4. Rasmussen also had the hot hand in the qualifying round, scoring a very nice 37 17 +209. The aggregate 160 MRP's vaulted Rasmussen to his Grand Master, and is among the nation's MRP leaders this cribbage year.

116 peggers played the Consolation and rookie ACC member Duane Davis (WA) took home the top prize...and 63 MRP's. Long-time member and Master Donna Hassett (OR) took 2nd. Another ACC rookie, Bruce Goff (WA), tied for third with Master Jim Gogolin (OR). Master Rollie Heath (OR) took home honors in the qualifying round with a grand slam 9/9 18 +131.

The Satellites:

Time Passer: Dean Schrader

High Roller: Dick Walcker

Doubles: Millie Wolf (MN) & Burt Dean (WA)

Last Chance: Walter Howell (OR)

A highlight of the event saw Mike Smith score a 29-hand in the final playoffs while playing George Rasmussen. This once in a lifetime hand helped propel Smith to the win.

28-hands were common as this large crowd scored 4 of them: Ray Van Orsow, Mike Smith (when you're hot, you're hot!), Jim Sime, and James Huser.

The Chinook Casino management were luke-warm about scheduling this cribbage action, but when 186 players showed, they quickly opted for a re-newal next year.

The facilities were first-class, with a huge playing hall with great acoustics. And the casino is located on the Pacific Ocean, giving a resort atmosphere. Non-playing spouses and friends could take advantage of this vacation location.

Directors Roy & Jeanne Hofbauer, Bernie Nelson, and Rollie Heath, once again, did a great job managing this event, attested to by yet another huge crowd.

Paul Hatcher Wins Kah-Nee-Ta Classic

The second Native American casino to host a sanctioned event in Oregon took place in Warm Springs on January 2-4. The beautiful Kah-Nee-Ta Resort and Casino hosted 77 players in their annual match.

The President's Column

Everett "Ev" Bey

Public Relations

Because I'm the ACC President...or perhaps due to the fact that I've been around since the early chartering days of this organization...many letters of inquiry come to my desk every month.

Despite the fact that we've been around as an organized association for the past 18 years, there are many cribbage players around the country who have just discovered the American Cribbage Congress.

It's our pleasure to answer these queries by sending them our newly-published "Cribbage Anyone?" brochure and urging them to send their $10 ($12 married couple) to Membership Secretary Jeff Monroe, P. O. Box 10486, Napa, CA 94581.

These are the easy ones.

We don't know how many of them learned about the ACC. Perhaps they saw one of our new bumper stickers, read about results of one of our 135 local Grass Roots chapters, or heard about one of our 139 annual tournaments throughout the U. S.

The harsh facts are that we lose about 20% of our membership each year...people move, lose interest or (sorrowfully) die. But we sign up about the same number of new members, so our total membership stays about static.

I get other questions: What is a "lurch?" Same as a "skunk"...losing by more than 30 points. In some instances, a lurch or skunk counts for a double-loss, but it usually depends on the local table rules, or whatever the players decide beforehand.

Some crib boards' scoring not only count wins and losses, but also lurches and corners (who's ahead every 30 holes). But these statistics are probably only used when there is money being wagered on a game. After all, it is a game of skill!

Is there an "official" book of Hoyle? To my knowledge, any Hoyle book is just a compilation of rules that have been passed down over the years, nothing ironclad as far as rules and regulations are concerned. Local options play a big part in rules interpretation, so know the ground rules before you get involved with $$$ play.

With some 140 sanctioned tournaments per year, the ACC found the need for a standardized set of rules so that all play would be on the same level. As a result, we have produced our Official Tournament Rules & Regulations. These have been polished and redone over the years and we now think we have a very workable and reliable set of rules to govern most incidents in cribbage. Our new revised edition is in the works and will be published to take effect with the start of the new Cribbage Year next August 1.

How many kinds of cribbage games? Of course there's the old reliable 2-handed game, doubles with 2 sets of partners opposing each other, 3-handed...including "Captain," and we've even played 8-handed, where every other player is a partner on a 4-man team, playing two decks. There are also several forms of cribbage solitaire and I've even heard of cribbage-poker! And if you're on the internet, there are computer games for the ardent cribber.

Is "19" the only zero-count in cribbage? This is the most common "nothing" hand, but there are 3 other hands that cannot be counted...25, 26, and 27...and we've held them all at one time or another!

Keep sending in your questions and we'll try to field them as best we can.

Keep peggin'...Ev Bey

Paul Hatcher Wins Kah-Nee-Ta

Paul Hatcher, A Life Master from Salem, OR came away the winner...and with a 3rd place qualifying score, nailed down 192 MRP's.

Jack Shumate III, a long way from his Lake Tahoe home, finished 2nd (and he may have had trouble getting home, when a Sunday snow storm blew in). Marty Symons (OR) and Master Lee Chambers finished 3-4.

Laurie Blackman (OR) scored an extra nice 40 18/22 +228 to easily take qualifying honors.

46 peggers stayed for the Consolation, despite the weather, and Grand Master Doug Brown (WA) scored the win. Irma Symons (OR) took 2nd, followed by the ever-present Master Charlie Ball (WA) and Graeme Gossett (OR) in 3-4.

The Satellites:

TP: Paul Hatcher (OR)

High Roller: George Rasmussen (WA)

Saturday Special: Jason Shumate (CA)

Directors Jim Waldorf and John Hatfield, with able help from Marvis Reynolds ran a well-managed affair, and the extraordinarily nice facilities, located in the central-Oregon mountains give this event extra charm. The warm pool outside the playing hall was especially delightful for the non-playing guests...and even a few players took time out for a dip. Swimming in a snow storm, is, indeed, unique.

ACC Open Sellout!

For the 2nd year in a row, the Joseph Petrus Wergin/ACC Open is a sellout! CW checked with Barbara Woodward on Jan. 19, and some 1,003 have signed on. With a week to go this event is assured of selling out. 1,024 is the maximum this event can handle. The top prize, once again, is expected to be $10,000!

The Tournament of Champions, a day earlier (Friday) is also assured of setting a new record. Director Joan Rein is predicting a crowd of nearly 500. The purse should be in the $65,000 range, with the Sands adding $3,500 to the prize fund.

Cribbage World should have complete details in the March issue.

Harry Palmer Scores 105 MRP's

Jim Ready Nails Holiday Classic

Jim Ready, a Grand Master from Stoughton, MA, won the Holiday Cribbage Classic in Woonsocket, RI on November 30. In besting the huge field (140 peggers), this Executive Board of Director's member hauled in a nice 196 MRP's. His yearly total tops the 300 mark, and he will make a move upward in the Eastern Region.

The big guns were out in the playoffs, as Grand Master Lee Norris (RI) took 2nd, and Life Master Harry Palmer (MA) tied with Sam Schwartz (MA) for 3rd. Palmer's 3rd place finish earned yet another 105 MRP's, running his yearly total to the 700 mark...and the national lead. In addition, Palmer is knocking on the door for a One-Star rating (10,000 MRP's lifetime).

Grand Master Robert Drukman (MA) picked up 45 MRP's by scoring a whopping 23 GP's in the 12-game qualifier. Joe Ramos, another Grand Master from RI scored 22 GP's to earn 40 MRP's. Richard West (MA) also scored 22 GP's.

Charles Rapoza (MA) took qualifying honors in the Consolation, but perennial winner Rit Alkas (CT) came home the winner in the 72-player event. Charles Burgess (RI), John Chambers (RI), and Warren Gallagher (MA) finished 2-3-4.

Ready qualified 34 of 35 in the Main, and Alkas qualified 17 of 18 in the Consolation. Their cards came alive in the playoff round.

Director Gloria Dyndur moved this event up two weeks from previous matches, with attendance remaining about the same (140 vs. 154 December 1996). She also reported that Scott Woolvorton and Paul Gallagher scored that elusive 28-hand.

Jim Brooks Cops VFW Special

Vernon Ward is a veteran tournament director from the northern California coast, and he hosted a one-day special at the VFW club in Crescent City, CA on November 29. Local Jim Brooks topped the 33-pegger field. Jerry Cutsforth (CA) took 2nd. Tim Bair (CA) took qualifying honors. Glenn Scott ran the table in the 22-player Consolation, taking top qualifying honors and winning the playoffs.

First LaFayette Open Draws 114

Harvey Glass Cops Inaugural

Harvey Glass, W. Hartford, CT came home the winner in the Inaugural LaFayette Open in Taunton, MA. This event was played December 14 and drew 114 peggers. Glass took home a nice top prize, complete with a quartz clock, and 147 MRP's.

Glass's march to the title was not an easy one, as his final playoff match was with former National Champion Phyllis Schmidt (MA). Schmidt finished 2nd. Dudley Dumaine (MA) topped all qualifiers with a nice 20 9/12 +103, and came home in a tie for third in the playoffs. This combined score netted a even 100 MRP's. Bill Shoemaker, a Grand Master from W. Hartford, also finished in a tie for 3rd.

Emil Chrabaszcz (MA) came home the winner in the 60 pegger Consolation. This Grand Master is knocking on the door for his Life Master and is at the 6,000 mark, lifetime. Robert Medeiros (MA) is nearing his Grand Master by finishing 3rd. Wilma MacDonald (MA) also tied for 3rd.

Vin Ciccone (MA) nailed an 8/8 grand slam in the Consolation qualifying round to take honors.

Paul Gallagher scored yet another 28-hand in the Consolation (he also scored one two weeks earlier in the Holiday Classic). Bob Cunningham scored another in the Main Event.

Barry Spadea (RI) qualified 6th and finished 5-8 in the playoffs and has winged it to the ACC's 330th Master rating.

Directors Zeke and Cindy Veradt received accolades from the players for "elbow room," pleasant playing areas, and other amenities. They plan on renewing this event again next December 6. Mark your calendars.

Beverley Christensen Tops In Alaska

With 30 hardy peggers in attendance, Beverley Christensen from Auburn, CA was just about the only out-of-stater in the house, and she roared to the win. She qualified first, and took home the championship in the playoffs. Three Alaskans finished 2-3-4: Jay Harpel, Myron Farrell, and Louis Diehl. 19 peggers played the Consolation and Daulph Plummer (AK) took home the bacon. Linnea Estridge (AK), Bob Maynard (AK), and Chuck Fetters (AK) finished 2-3-3. Fetters was also the top qualifier. Henry Carle keeps 'em pegging way up north!

27 New Members

Al Libby Tops Carson Valley

With 27 new members signed on board (and 12 played in the Main Event), veteran Al Libby showed his stuff and came away with the championship in the November Carson Valley Classic. Libby, pegging out of Quincy, CA, came away with 70 MRP's and the top prize. Robert Gillette (CA) nailed 2nd, followed by Glenn Logan (NV) and John Harvey (CA) in a tie for 3rd. Logan and Harvey are new ACC members...and are off to a nice start as new members.

Veteran Bill Jensen (CA) has amassed some 3,200 MRP's in his ACC career, and came away the top qualifier with a nice 36 16 +252...and another 50 MRP's!

Another veteran pegger, Jeff Monroe from Napa, CA, is a Life Master, and he nailed the Consolation. Jensen, after being knocked from the Main playoffs in an early round, finished 2nd.

Director Marvis Reynolds reported that not a single 28 GP card qualified for the playoffs...possibly due to the new members in attendance causing a high-low ratio.

Despite the small crowd, Marvis and Ralph Reynolds are congratulated for signing on the new members.

Mary Gladish Wins Christmas Wrap

Mary Gladish, the pegging poet from Concord, CA, is zeroing in on her Grand Master. She won the 64-pegger December Reynold's Christmas Wrap...and the 105 MRP's have her knocking on the door for the magic 4,000 needed for Grand Master.

Ann Sheeran (CA) finished 2nd, with Ron Melrose (CA) and two-time national champion Bob Julian (WI) in a tie for 3rd.

Helen Bolstad (CA) picked up a nifty 45 MRP's for her fine 35 17 +114 qualifying card.

Mary Ryan (CA) ran the table in the 40 pegger Consolation. She qualified with a great 19 9/9 +162 and went on to win the playoffs as well. She is nearing her Grand Master with the aggregate 69 MRP's earned. Ron Kaufman (CA), Rich Burns (CA) and Dick Combie (CA) finished 2-3-3.

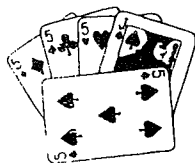

The Satellites:

Friday: Bob Siebert (CA)

High Roller: Bob Julian (WI)

Saturday Night: Bob Julian (WI)

Last Chance: Steve Reynolds (CA)

Portland Winter Open Aptly Named Bill Hill Takes Frigid Contest

Grand Master Bill Hill, from Hermiston, OR is used to water-melon growing climate, but the recent Portland Winter Open was anything but that! With a raging snow storm outside, and black ice everywhere, Hill was quite at home in a warm room, taking on all comers and coming away the winner.

In besting the huge crowd of 180 peggers, Hill took home $1,000+ and a bundle of MRP's (196).

Bob Wikstrom, Port Orchard, WA, is always in the thick of the playoff action, and he came close once again, taking 2nd.

And Todd Malmgren (OR) is another pegger that is a perennial winner. This Master pegger also took top-qualifying honors (38 18 +93) and took home an aggregate 165 MRP's. This added bundle of MRP's vault Malmgren to the 500 mark for the year, placing him among the leaders nationwide. Wes Rice (OR) finished 4th.

With the storm outside howling, only 84 players stayed for the Consolation. Grand Master Bernie Nelson (OR) came away the winner. Lowell Bailey (WA) took 2nd, with Master Claire Morse (OR) and Vonita Gill (WA) in 3-4.

The Satellites:

Time Passer: DeLynn Colvert (MT)
High Roller: Bill Wakeman (CA)
Doubles: Susan & Lee Chambers (OR)
Saturday Special: Roger Wilson
Cry Baby: John Thiems (OR)
5 Blizzard Specials: Bill Hill (2)(OR), Gene Sissel (OR), Selma Hackett (OR), and Nancy Lorenz (OR)

The highly unusual storm kept many players for two more days, as roads were closed to the East and North. Aloha Rob Wintersteen stepped forward and organized 5 more events. They were played on Sunday night, three on Monday, and another on Tuesday. See his letter to the right.

Director Dorothy Mickow kept the huge crowd pegging, despite the storm. The lights were out on Sunday morning, delaying the playoffs, but once the lights came on, it was peg, peg, peg! ...and peg some more!

One For The Books...

In the recently-completed Portland Winter Open, most peggers played 57 games...including the satellites.

Most...but most definitely not all!

The snow and ice storm which began ravaging Portland on Saturday afternoon, continually worsened. By early Sunday afternoon, all but the hardest of souls had departed for home. A few lingered through the Cry-Baby, which was their undoing, for the ice storm began with a vengeance about 5 PM.

No trips South or West; no journeys "North to Seattle"; absolutely no trips down the treacherous Coulmbia River Gorge! No flights out of Portland International!

What did our stalwart cribbers do? Did they watch TV...drink booze or coffee...retire to their rooms to sleep?

Noooo! Aloha Rob organized a 9-game, one of four, $20 tournament. Officially sanctioned by Coldstone Enterprises!

Through the blustery winds, through the near-blizzard conditions, through the icy rains...the hardy cribbers played on!

One tourney Sunday, 3 on Monday, and one more, just for good measure, on Tuesday morning. 21 peggers played on...to what must certainly be a record...102 games in total (exclusive of tournament play-offs).

The winners? Bill Hill (twice), Gene Sissel, Selma Hackett, and Nancy Lorenz. In spite of the terrible weather a good time was had by all!

Aloha Rob Wintersteen Aloha, OR

This story is similar to one concerning a storm in Minneapolis years ago. Peggers were forced to stay on through Monday. The food ran out, but they continued to peg, much like the Oregon peggers.

Willie Evans, Bernie Saueressig, and Phil True (Richland, WA) headed for Seattle about 5 PM Sunday night for a circuitous trip home (arriving at 3 AM). DeLynn Colvert also headed out for Seattle at 5 PM. The 140-mile trip took 5 hours, one hour just sitting in a massive tie-up on I-5. After spending the night in Ellensburg, WA, he arrived home at 5 PM Monday...a full day given up to the storm. Cribbage players are a dedicated lot....attested to by those braving winter storms to continue pegging! Cribbage fever, catch it! Ed.

"Silky Sullivan" Dennis Tracey

Club director Aloha Rob Wintersteen was the leader for some 31 weeks in the annual race for the roses at Forest Grove. OR.

Then on the last match (no. 32), Dennis Tracey, Gaston, OR, came home the winner and nipped Aloha Rob at the finish line, in the same style as the famous race horse named Silky Sullivan.

Tracey now has the "Silky Sullivan" nickname.

Graeme Gossett a Heretic?

Martin Luther was tried for heresy. I will probably be judged without benefit of trial for suggesting that Consolation tournaments be reserved for the 75% of competitors who support the Main Tournaments time after time and year after year without ever cashing. I know of no other form of competition where those acheiving play off status are permitted to return to the lower bracket for a final bite of the apple!

Setting aside the Consolation for Main non-qualifiers would also allow directors to set a definite time for the event...possibly earlier, to allow everyone to finish earlier and be on their way. I'm sure you will receive ample rebuttle here, but what's democracy, eh?

*Graeme Gossett
Prineville, OR*

Graeme, no one can argue with your logic in this case. It is certainly a fair and reasoned approach to Consolation events. The only argument that I can come up with is that historically, this event has allowed as many contestants as possible, to up the prize fund, and allow players to continue play if they wish. As for you never cashing in the Main Event, who are you trying to kid? Ed.

Young Players

At the Kah-Nee-Ta Open I observed that approx. one-third of the players were 25 to 30 years old, or younger. I had the pleasure of playing two 18-year olds at the same table. One named Jason from Lake Tahoe, CA, and the other named Jason from Washougal, WA. Both are outstanding players!

*Charlie Ball

Al Lindner Gets $8,200 Added!

Wow! Al Lindner has set a record for added money for a cribbage meet. He is the director of the first Annual St. Croix Casino Classic in Turtle Lake, WI. that will be played April 3-4-5 (see ad this issue).

He wheeled and dealt with this casino and has come up with the following perks:

$25 for every 24-hand
(estimate 260 will be scored)
$250 for every 28-hand
$500 for every 29-hand
$100 for any Grand Slam

And the casino has special room rates of $50 (single or double). Lindner figures these perks add up to about $8,200! How can you lose?

Robert Medeiros and George "Raz" Rasmussen Earn Grand Master

Robert Medeiros, Quincy, MA was the National runner-up in 1995, and he has been picking 'em up and laying 'em down with gusto ever since. With a 5th place finish (140 peggers) at the Holiday Classic on November 30, he earned his 4,000th Master Rating Point, and the ACC's 94th Grand Master.

George "Raz" Rasmussen missed All-American by a single MRP last year, but his great attention to detail and number's analysis have brought in MRP's in a steady fashion. At the Chinook Winds event in mid-December, he really came alive, qualifying with a 37 17/22 +209, and finished in a tie for 3rd, earning his 4,000th MRP...and Grand Master 95.

Les Kvien, Pat Llewellyn, Willard Peters, Charles Parker, Barry Spadea, and John Furler Earn Master.

Earning 2,000 MRP's is no easy task and only 335 ACC peggers have turned this trick. The following players are always a threat to win any event, and have proven their skill on the boards:

Les Kvien, Minneapolis, MN
 Pat Llewellyn, Bellingham, MA
 Willard Peters, Green Bay, WI
 Charles Parker, White Bear Lake, MN
 Barry Spadea, Riverside, RI
 John Furler, Tigard, OR

Hey, No Muggins!

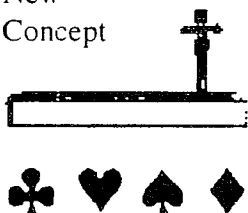

...Although I haven't been able to play at my GR club much in the past year it's another issue that grates. It's Muggins! I did attend a few tournaments in New England and the Palmetto in Columbia, SC. Being a new cribbage player I do miss a count in the hand occasionally and at tournaments especially it's insulting to have a seasoned player take those points in addition to my not getting them. That makes cribbage the only game I know where the best players penalize the poorer players. It amounts to a handicap for the best players (as in golf, for example). I wish we would eliminate Muggins.

Roger Evarts
 Manchester, CT

Roger, the ACC's Board of Directors has discussed this matter, and year's ago sided with your stand. The ACC should not penalize new players. However, this recommendation is not followed by all directors. Most, however, DO NOT play Muggins! Hang in there! Ed.

Todd Schaefer Scores Rare 29

Todd Schaefer, Oakdale, MN, is a Master pegger who finished 2nd in last year's National Master Point race.

Now, that's long odds...but he surpassed that recently by scoring a 29-hand playing "Captain" cribbage. With only five cards dealt, the odds are over 600,000 to 1 of scoring this gem. (In the 6-card regular cribbage game, the odds are only 216,580 to 1!)

More "15" Peg Counts

According to Russell Adams (MN), Cedric Larson was partially incorrect and incomplete in the ways that "15" can be scored by one pegging card:

4-2-A-A and 2-2-A-A equals 14, not 15; and more interestingly on the second round a 10-10-2-2 and 10-7-2-2 make a "15" peg.

Russell also reports that Jerry Gruber recently revived a dormant weekly tourney in the Twin Cities and won three consecutive firsts. For 8, 12, and 13 players, the odds are 1,248 to 1 against this feat.

Gruber is on a hot streak, attested to by his fine showing in the National All-Events.

George Chase Is From Rhode Island...and is Master No. 320

Cribbage World continues to mess with the numbers for certain players...and George Chase, Kingstown, RI is one of them.

In the December issue of CW, the cover story lists Chase as from New Hampshire, earning Master no. 318. Oops. this Rhode Island pegger is Master no. 320. CW offers apologies.

Spokane Peggers Teach Cribbage

Jim Keeling, a Master pegger from Spokane, WA has been helping the Youth Cribbage in America. He has donated 35 boards to the Junior program...and has even been teaching a class at the Spokane Valley School. 45 students are avidly taking up the game. Jim has help from some of his fellow Spokane peggers in teaching this class. They are: Erving Busby, Harold Warren, Gordon Oberst, Bob Kemp, Bob and Jo Anne Miller.

River City Open Wrapup

This was the 3rd Annual River City Open. The first was in 1995 and there were 118 players. Last year we had 132 players, and this year 162 attended. Annett and I would like to take a moment of your time to thank each and every one of you for your support and loyalty for making our tournament as successful as it was.

There were players from California, Washington, Oregon, Montana, Nevada and even Alaska. Thank you for coming, one and all. We even had Mr. Cribbage himself show up and strut his stuff. DeLynn Colvert was high qualifier in the main tournament and he also won the Saturday Night Special.

Each year we hold a food drive for the Orangevale Grange. Again this year it was a wonderful success. Thanks to all of you for caring so that needy children will have their tummies full this holiday season.

We are so grateful to all the players who dug down in their pockets and supported the raffle, above and beyond what could be construed as generosity. We love you all for what you did! With that, friends, we give you "Bravo! Bravo! and Bravo!"

Those of you out there who haven't yet been to our tournament, please join us in 1998. Annett and I and all the River City Peggers will make sure that you enjoy yourselves.

*Happy pegging and Happy Holidays
Two Grateful Tournament Directors
Annett Eiffert and Bill Pope*

Lincoln City, OR Hard to Find?

At the recent Chinook Winds event in Lincoln City, OR, out-of-staters had difficulty finding the place. Moose Beigler, James Huser, and Richard Frost (WI) flew into Portland with no problems. Then they rented a car and traveled 180 miles to get to Lincoln City. The actual mileage is 100 miles. Then Jeff Monroe and Wayne Sharp (CA) also turned the 100 miles into ONLY 120. Lincoln City must be hard to find!

Roger Wilson and Bill Shirland (CO) sat for three hours on the runway in Denver...and then they finally changed airplanes.

All these delays must have distracted these seven skilled peggers...none had a good weekend on the boards.

Grass Roots

GR 203 Prince George B. C.

December 18 Grass Roots play had 32 players in attendance, their largest ever. If your driving by stop in and play.

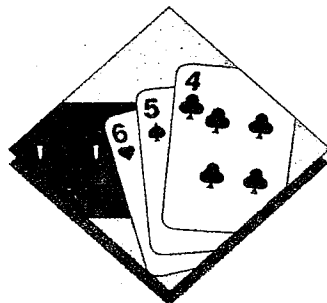

GR 218 Gladstone MI.

Harry Hahn a new member playing in only his third night, had a 29 hand on September 15th. On January 5th Ellen Swenson held two consecutive 28 hands. I hope she won the game.

The Twin City Cribbage Club, Winston Salem NC. has an interesting way of handling beginner cribbage players. They play four 12-week seasons through the year. Three of the four seasons coincide with the Grass Roots season. They have two divisions (a Grass Roots division and a Beginner division). The B division plays a 6-game tournament and is not affiliated with the Grass Roots program. Having a B division allows players who feel uncomfortable playing GRP to still enjoy the game and work on their skill and speed while sharing the same fellowship the GRP division does. They developed the B Division because they found themselves losing many first-time players due to their dislike of 10 the pace of playing 9 games, 2) muggins rules, and 3) the feeling of intimidation due to their lower skill level. Since they are, first and foremost a cribbage club we have an obligation to get as many cribbage players as they can to participate. The B division has worked very well. It is almost a year old and they have lost only one regular player (but only due to church obligations). They have managed to keep and bring back many players, as well as advance several to the GRP division. As of this they have 10-12 regular players in the B division and 16-20 in the GRP division.

Additional Grass Roots Standing not included in January.

101	Jack Barrett	Wisconsin Rapids WI (120)
87	Alan Linder	Green Wood WI (199)
87	Patrick Barrett	Wisconsin Rapids WI (120)
84	Wayne Steinmetz	Milwaukee WI (6)
77	Ron Volovsek	Willard WI (199)
76	Marlene Lazachek	Franklin WI (6)
73	Michael Barrett	Wisconsin Rapids WI (120)

Interestingly enough, they have had 2 "floating Doubles" tournaments during our "all club" night. They hold a "Floating Doubles" night when they have an even number of 4 players. They line up one long set of tables with half the club randomly seated on one side and half on the other. They place one board for each set of 4 players. Players on one side anchor, players on the other side rotate. Each person keeps his/her own score card. As the player on one side of the table rotate, a different set of a 2-player team become position around each cribbage board. The game commences with each "one-game" team in place. When the game is complete, each player on the winning team gets the same score on his/her card (2 or 3) and each player on the losing team gets the same score (0). At the conclusion of the tournament we pay-off individually by Points, Wins, Spread, etc.

Harry Palmer Zips to national MRP Lead

Harry Palmer, the Life Master from W. Springfield, MA has zipped to the National Master Point lead. This past month he finished 3rd at the 140-pegger Holiday Classic, earning yet another 105 MRP's and is standing at the 800 mark for this cribbage season. In addition, he is knocking on the door for his One-Star rating, and has moved into the ACC's no. 7 spot (lifetime).

Hot on his heels is another stellar ACC player...Joe Bernard from Libertyville, IL. This past month he also finished 3rd at the huge (177 players) Menominee/MGM Open in Keshena, WI, netting 105 MRP's.

Bob Clark, Walnut Creek, CA, has been burning up the track in the Western Region, winning two events in the last three months, and stands in 3rd place (590 MRP's) this cribbage year. Another Western Region player on the prowl is George "Raz" Rasmussen, Chehalis, WA. He stands at 573 and is dedicated to avenge his being one Master Point short last year of earning All-American honors.

Other players over the 500 mark are Shawn Andrusko (MN), Life Master Jeff Monroe (CA), 1995 National Champion Rit Alkas (CT), and Life Master Duane Toll (WI).

10 players have topped the 400 mark as the 1998 cribbage campaign nears the half-way mark. As usual, the top ten honors are up for grabs, and another close race is predicted. The new Master Point system is awarding MRP's at about the same pace as last year. The top ten in each region has 8 players represented (of the 30 last year), indicating that skill and dedication to the game will reward those on the tournament trail, regardless of any MRP system.

Jesse Jarrell On The Mend
One-Star Jesse Jarrell's name is usually among the leaders, but this year has been a tough one. He recently underwent open-heart surgery (January 10).

The report from California is that he came through with flying colors, and should be back on the "trail" in a few weeks.

Cribbage World checked on Jesse and a California player (he will remain unnamed) reported: "I've got good news and bad news concerning Jesse. The good news is that he came through the operation in great shape, with no complications. The bad news is that the doctors say he will be his old self in about six weeks!"

More Auto Accident Reports
"I had been driving 40 years when I fell asleep and had an accident."

"In my attempt to kill a fly, I drove into a telephone pole."

In Memoriam

David Richard Nash

Kennewick, Washington

David died October 15, some 12 days after being diagnosed with cancer. He joined the ACC in the early 1980's, and has been an avid pegger for many years, in addition to his love for all sports. He especially enjoyed hunting, fishing, golfing, trap shooting, and motorcycling.

Marion V. Hawley

Yountville, California

Marion was the founder and director of Redwood Peggers GR 55, and an excellent player. He passed away on October 29 in Yountville. He served in the U. S. Marines in World War II. He will be missed by his many friends and peggers.

Roy Ellis

Spokane, Washington

Roy passed away recently from a heart attack at the age of 74. He was a mainstay in Spokane cribbage circles and an excellent player. During World War II he was a Navy Seal, surviving several military adventures.

Albin J. Grantz

Kelso, Washington

"Al" died December 5 at the age of 80 after several months of failing health. He had a long, pleasant association with the American Cribbage Congress. He attained Grand Master status, earning well over 4,400 MRP's. He was well-known for his quiet, unassuming playing habits, and was always a great sport, win or lose. The ACC will sorely miss Al on the cribbage circuit. He was one of the great ones!

Bryce H. McClain

Lynwood, Washington

Bryce passed away January 7 at the age of 66. He had served as a Marine in the Korean conflict. One of his many interests before and after retirement was the friendly competition of Northwest ACC tournaments. He will be greatly missed by his friends in the Sno-King Peggers GR 108 (Everett, WA) and others around the tournament circuit.

Central Virginia Holiday Inn Classic Will Accept Credit Cards

Players can pre-register with their Visa or Mastercard by calling the directors at (804) 744-0150. Players can even reserve a room at the same time.

Director Histon Kitts reports that a one-time charge of 6% will be assessed of the total they place on their card.

This is a first for sanctioned tournaments. In addition, Kitts reports that this event will give away hundreds of dollars of prizes. Players will remember this event as the BranderMill ACC Open (last year), but a new name has been given this year.

Three Wishes Granted to ACC Pegger

A lady from California walked out of their weekly Grass Roots match, and she spotted a lamp off the edge of the parking lot. She picked up the lamp, and Zazoom! Out popped a Genie.

The Genie, in appreciation of being released from the lamp, offers this lady three wishes. "There's only one catch, whatever you wish for, your husband will be given ten times over!"

"That's okay," she says. "My first wish is for $1 million!"

"Granted," the Genie says. "And your husband will receive $10 million."

"My second wish is to be the greatest cribbage player in the world!"

"Granted," the Genie says, "but you'll still never be able to beat your husband. What is your last wish?"

The woman asks, "Can you give me a mild heart attack?"

Copy Cats In Alaska.

December 16 was family night at the Anchorage Cribbage Club in Alaska.

Ed Deveau brought his son as a guest. Ed finished first and Ed, Jr. finished 4th.

Not to be outdone, Chuck Kaplan brought his wife, Sondra, as a guest. Chuck scored a 28-hand. First-time club player Sondra scored another 28-hand two games later! What next?

Record Number of Tournaments Scheduled

A quick glance at "Tournament Trail" will tell our ACC members that cribbage is alive and well in the USA and Canada. Some 80 tournaments are scheduled in this month's issue. Players will certainly be able to pick and choose their favorite events.

8-Year Old Zachary Flatto Tough At Christmas Wrap

Zachary Flatto, an 8-year old pegger, entered the Consolation event at Reynolds Christmas Wrap...and he held his own. He won 4 of 9, and even managed to knock off a Master pegger (Boyd McDonald). He wrote the directors a nice thank you note, as follows: "Thank you for letting me play in the tournament and if you would let me play in it again I'd be glad to. I am pleased of the pegs that I got you gave me. The best part of the tournament is nobody tried to take advantage of playing me! I was happy to play in the tournament. I had a lot of fun. Thank you."

Bremmer Nails Ghetto Classic

The American Legion in Minneapolis was buzzing with peggers on December 14. Directors Shawn Adrusko and Todd Schaeffer hosted a nice one-day crowd of 47 peggers.

Kevin Bremmer, Wisconsin Rapids, WI came away the winner, picking up a nifty 105 MRP's...and an invite to next year's Tournament of Champions in Reno.

Sharon Pederson (MN) took 2nd, with director Andrusko and Don Ernst (MN) in a 3rd place tie. Andrusko picked up 42 MRP's to remain among the leaders this cribbage year. Frank Leier (MN) topped the qualifying round with a nice 23 10/14 +165.

Western Region Features Trophies

The late Joe Nelson, Prineville, OR, began the custom of awarding trophy boards in the early 1980's. The Western Region is well-known for awarding these boards.

Eastern Region has begun to award trophies, but not in the number awarded in the west.
