AMERICAN CRIBBAGE CONGRESS

25th Annual Draws 206!

Whitfield Takes National Open

For the fourth time a Raleigh, NC pegger has captured the National Open. This time around Bernard Whitfield came away with the roses in this 206-player match. He joins former Raleigh winners Jim Hartley (1975), Johnie Wilkinson (1982), and Jim Townsend (1997)...and 4 for 25 is not bad, considering the crack field assembled every year from throughout the United States and Canada.

This time around Whitfield had to play one of his Raleigh Cribbage Club members in the final match...Jeff Raynes from nearby Cary, NC. Whitfield prevailed in the final match to take home the championship.

Bobby Stuart, the Georgia Bomber, capped a fine season by capturing 3rd place, edging Dan Barber, Alexandria, VA for that honor. Barber took home 4th. Newly-crowned One-Star Warren Sondericker (WI) added to his laurels by taking 5th. Frank Abernathy (NC) took 6th, giving the local GR club 3 of the first 6 spots! Frank Reddy, Winthrop, MA nailed 7th and local Henry Douglass copped 8th (and did he take home his winner-take-all pool? CW bets he did not, as he is simply a great salesman...and he probably sold one spot too many!)

The Consolation played to 152...and Phyllis Schmidt (MA) came away with a bang...adding to her laurels of recently earning her One Star ranking (10,000 MRP's) by winning the Maine Open. She nailed a 9/9 grand slam, and finished 3rd. With this late season run, Schmidt finished 2nd in the Eastern Region in the 1998 season with a lofty 895 MRP's.

Dwight Christiansen (CT) recently earned Grand Master, and he pegged like one by taking home the consolation title. Jim Ready (MA) is also a Grand Master and he took home 2nd. Following Schmidt was former National Open winner (1996) Peter Setian (MA) taking home 4th. He winds down a fine season, posting some 700 MRP's.

Directors Cathy & Russ Perkins, Tom Miller and Howard Baum had a full slate of events for the entire weekend. The winners:

Friday Early Bird: Howard Terry (VA)
Saturday Special: Butch Billow (NC)
High Rollers: Joe Bernard (IL)
Loser's Losers: Bob Drukman (MA)
Last Round-Up: Shawn Jordan (MA)
29: Earl Luton (Loser's Losers)
28's: Sheldon Spain, Dave Ritchey, Deb Schisel

This event is one of the most prestigious the ACC offers. Mark your calendars for next year's 26th!

Public Relations Gimmick

One of the neatest public relations gimmicks we've ever heard of was pulled off recently by Ed Bloom, he of the $10 Teeny-Tiny tourneys in San Jose.

Ed made a connection with the Santa Clara County Fair and held an outdoors tournament at the Fair on August 1st. Tables were moved constantly to stay out of the sun and "windy" rules were required when the breezes blew. Some 80 cribbers showed up to participate...after all, if you mentioned that you were an ACC member, you got in the gate free.

Besides the usual 11-game 1-day tournament and consolation event, Ed arranged for a booth to display some 200 trophies and a variety of cribbage boards that participants brought with them. It made a fine attraction for Fair visitors who stopped by, giving them a taste of ACC activities and paraphernalia.

Several hundred visitors inquired about the ACC, more than 50 informational brochures were handed out, and 3 or 4 new members were signed up.

Ed pronounced it a "success" and says the Fair management has asked him to come back next year.

This might be something that others could arrange at their local, county, district, or state Fairs. Give it a try!

We did it one year at the annual San Francisco Sports and Boat Show, when our Plumas County visitor's bureau had a booth there.

We took along some of our area's best cribbage players and, in connection with our World Championship tournament, set up cribbage boards under a sign that said: "Beat the Cribbage Champs and Win Prizes!"

We took on all comers, playing a single game with each one. If an opponent won, we gifted them with an assortment of free goodies representative of Plumas County (furnished by local merchants).

Several years ago, a tournament was held in the mall of a Philadelphia shopping center, attracting many curious spectators.

A little imagination and pioneering spirit opens up an assortment of cribbage opportunities and ACC public relations gimmicks.

Mick Michaelis Bequeaths $500

Robert "Mick" Michaelis passed away July 7, after fighting a long, hard fight with failing health. He was one of cribbage's top players, both in sportsmanship and skill on the boards. He loved cribbage competition and he loved his fellow players. He has bequeathed $500 to the Cribadier General's Program. A letter from his wife, Shirley follows:

"I am sure by now you have heard of the passing away of my husband Robert "Mick" Michaelis.

I am sure he would want to share some of the memorial money with the Cribadier General's Program, so I am enclosing $500 in his memory.

I surely do hope the Program goes well. I'm sure it will. A big part of my life sure did go with him. It just doesn't seem real yet, but life must go on."

Christopher Connelly, Melissa Medeiros Cop 2nd Youth World Championship

The 2nd Annual Youth World's Championship was played in King's Beach, CA on May 23. 32 peggers in the 15 and younger group saw 13-year old Christopher Connelly edge 12 year-old Ashley Romeo for the title. Both players are from Sonora, CA (and play under the tutelage of teacher Dan Zeisler). The 16 and older group also saw two Sonora players take 1-2. 19-year old Melissa Medeiros edged Tyler Rutkin 3-2 to take home the top prize. Tyler is only 15, but chose to play the older players, and very nearly came away the winner.

Director Jack Shumate III gave all contestants a tournament long board and a deck of cards. He also wishes to thank all sponsors and helpers for a job well done.

Weird, Wild MRP Finish In Portland DeLynn Colvert Wins Portland Open Paul Hatcher Wins Consolation

DEAD HEAT: 1,331MRP'S

In 1986, Two-Star DeLynn Colvert (MT) came to Portland for the last sanctioned match of the cribbage year simply trying to hold on to a top-ten finish. But a hot streak propelled him to the win...and the National Championship. This year, history very nearly repeated. Colvert came to the Portland event in 5th place...and ran a hot run of cards to the win, and very nearly the National Championship. The four front-running players had all bombed the Main event, and Colvert had the lead by 63 MRP's, with but the Consolation remaining.

Life Master Paul Hatcher, Salem, OR, was in a down mood, having lost his national MRP lead in the Main Event, but with bulldog tenacity, gave the Consolation a go. He qualified and began the playoffs. Colvert eyed the MRP charts, and saw that a win would give Hatcher 63 MRP's...enough to forge a tie for the national crown. He informed Hatcher (playing his first playoff match) that if he should win five matches in a row, he could tie for the National Championship. And that is exactly what he did. Losing only one game in the five matches, he roared to the win...and 1,331 MRP's for the year, matching Colvert's 1,331! In the 18-year history of ACC competition, a tie for first is unprecedented!

Larry Antijunti (OR) nailed 2nd in the 188-player event, picking up 147 MRP's and a sizeable 2nd place check. John Furler (OR) nipped Master Clarence Van Orsow (OR) for 3rd.

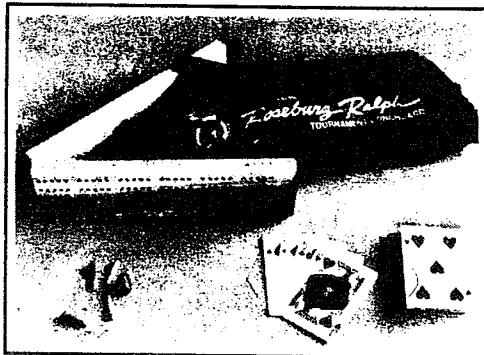

John Thiems (OR) was smoking in the qualifying round, posting a great 40 17/22 +304...earning 70 MRP's.

119 peggers played the Consolation, and following Hatcher's win was Grand Master Bernie Saueressig (WA) in 2nd, Tony Hilton (OR) and One-Star Jesse Jarrell (CA) in 3-4.

Director Dorothy Mickow, as usual, ran a first class event, complete with many satellite events and a raffle.

High Roller Hi Q: George Rasmussen (WA)

1998 All-American Team Named

Bob McCabe, our ACC's National Statistician, has named the top ten players for the 1998 season. They are:

- 1- Paul Hatcher, Salem, OR: 1,331 MRP's (tie)
- 1- DeLynn Colvert, Missoula, MT: 1,331 (tie)
- 3- Duane Toll, Oak Creek, WI: 1,242
- 4- Roger Wilson, Boulder, CO: 1,240
- 5- Harry Palmer, W. Springfield, MA: 1,183
- 6- Jason Shumate, Kings Beach, CA: 1,048
- 7- George Rasmussen, Chehalis, WA: 1,026
- 8- Rollie Heath, Lincoln City, OR: 975
- 9- Russell Adams, Minneapolis, MN: 933
- 10- Bob Clark, Walnut Creek, CA: 921

Paul Hatcher and DeLynn Colvert came through the 1998 season in a deadheat, culminating an exciting season with a weird, wild windup at the Portland Summer Open. Colvert won the Main Event and zipped to a 63 MRP lead over Hatcher. With but the consolation remaining in the cribbage year, Hatcher gamely won the event and earned exactly 63 MRP's...and forged an unprecedented tie for the year. This is Hatcher's third All-American Team award. For Colvert, this perennial winner has placed 13 times on the team, and has won the national championship four times (with this tie). Duane Toll won the national crown in 1987, and is also a perennial winner...having scored four All-American awards. Roger Wilson is a relative new-comer to tournament play, but he burned up the track in 1998. Not only did he top the huge (1,831 player) National Grass Roots Open, but scored numerous top finishes during sanctioned play in 1998...and very nearly won it all. Harry Palmer began the season in great fashion and with four months to go, appeared to be a shoe-in for the national title, but his cards failed him this summer. Nevertheless, this pegger earns his 2nd All-American award. Jason Shumate had an unbelievable five week run in May and June, scoring 629 MRP's, and vaulted to 6th place on this year's team. At age 21, only Brian Heroux (RI), can match his youthful performance. George "Raz" Rasmussen missed the All-American team by a single point last year, but was not to be denied this year, finishing 7th. His expertise with numbers is legend in the northwest. Rollie Heath is on the team for the 2nd time in a row...running the win at the World Championship and other top finishes to a spot on the team. Russell Adams, the pegging professor from Minnesota has earned his 4th All-American award and finished 9th for the year. Bob Clark had a steady year and consistently piled up MRP's at almost every stop and rounds out the top ten. Clark has volunteered to edit grass roots news for Cribbage World, in addition to his regular play on the northwest circuit.

All-Regional Awards

The ACC awards All-Regional honors to all players who finish in the top five in their region, but do not qualify for All-American awards. This year, the Western Region placed a record seven players on the All-American team, The Central Region placed two players (three will, therefore, earn All-Regional awards), and the Eastern Region placed one player on the All-American team...giving the next four All-Regional honors.

Central Region

110 Players Way Up North Phyllis Schmidt Wins Maine Open

Phyllis Schmidt, Williamstown, MA, earned her One-Star (10,000 MRP's) in great fashion. She won the 110-player Maine Open on July 12 and zipped to the ACC's 10th One-Star rating. The win came with 147 MRP's and a nice winner's check. Coupled with the National Open's fine showing in the consolation event, Schmidt stands at 10,154 MRP's (lifetime).

William Packard (MA) came close, but could not match Schmidt's run and settled for 2nd. Ann Somers (MA) and Robert Chevalier (OR) took home 3-4. Master Robert Kaplan (MA) had an excellent 24 GP's in the qualifying round (12 games) to take honors...and 50 MRP's.

Master John Rooney (MA) won the 66-player consolation event and tacked on yet another 63 MRP's to his lofty (3,600+) lifetime total. Henry Bergeron (NH) copped 2nd, followed by Larry Young (ME) and Carl Tuttle (ME) in 3-4. Bergeron also was high qualifier, scoring a 17 GP card in the 9-game event.

Director Laurie Owen reported that Cindy Veradt (MA) and Jack Gauthier (CT) scored that elusive 28-hand...and would like to thank everyone for a great turnout.

Wedding Bells In Reno Tuckett-Hardardt Plan Marriage

Julie Tuckett, director of the up-coming Peg For The Border event in San Diego and George Hardardt are planning a wedding in Reno on Friday, November 13.

Cribbage brought this duo together, as they met in last year's Peg For The Border event. They plan an informal wedding reception at the Sands following the ceremony. And then, the next day, it will be cribbage at the Veteran's Day Classic.

14 Years and 8 Double Skunks

James Patten and his wife have been playing cribbage for 14 years, and James is ahead by only 40 games. However, when the cards are hot, the better half nails him good. She leads in double skunks 5 to 3. This duo resides in Portland, OR.

Fire!

A North Carolina man, having bought several expensive cigars, insured them against...get this...fire! After he smoked them, he then decided that he had a claim against the insurance company and filed. The insurance company refused to pay, citing obvious reasons that the man consumed the cigars normally. The man sued. The judge stated that since the company had insured the cigars against fire, they were obligated to pay. After the man accepted payment for his claim, the insurance company then had him arrested...for arson!

Christiansen Sizzles At Sizzler

Dwight Christiansen, Stratford, CT, earned his Grand Master last month, and he continues to burn up the track. This time around he nailed the West Side Summer Sizzler in West Springfield, MA. And this is the 2nd consecutive time he has taken home the championship, having won the event last year. He was married last November, and his bride was in the audience rooting him home to victory in this 106-player event!

Dave Clemmey, a Grand Master from MA, nailed 2nd. Dawn Smolenski (CT), and Grand Master Ford Jewer (RI) finished 3-4.

Life Master George Webb (MA) took qualifying honors with a fine 21 GP card in the 12-game round.

Paul Barnes, director of the upcoming Grand National XVII in Daytona Beach, was on hand, and he took qualifying honors in the 60-player consolation. Paul and spouse Joy have been on a coast-to-coast trip in their motor home, and they have been cashing at tournaments along the route to help defray expenses.

Grand Master Bill Medeiros (MA) took home the top spot in the playoffs, followed by Tom Shea (MA), Barnes (FL), and Joyce Vanelli (MA) in 2-3-4.

Director Harry Palmer reports that this event draws players nationwide, and some were on hand from as far away as Nevada and Oregon.

Hom Tops Devil Mountain

Jones Hom, a newly-crowned Grand Master, showed his stuff once again and came home the winner at the 102-pegger Devil Mountain Caper in Antioch, CA on July 18. This Fairfield, CA pegger posted some 700 MRP's this season and is among the Western Region's leaders.

Bill Flatten (CA) came home 2nd, followed by Angelo Torrise (CA) and the travelling Life Master Bob Julian (WI) in 2-3-4.

Grand Master Roger Wilson, the King of Colorado's peggers, scored the top qualifying round score...an extra nice 40 GP card, earning 70 MRP's and keeping him in the hunt for the national championship. A 5-8 finish gave him an aggregate 112 MRP's, topping 1,200 for the year.

Sundae Webb (CA) is moving in on her Life Master (and is awaiting confirmation) by running the table in the 57-player Consolation. She topped the field in the qualifying round, and came home the winner in the playoffs as well. Wayne Glashan (CA), Bob Clark (CA), and Jerry Montgomery (CA) finished 2-3-4. Clark's high finish keeps his chances alive for an All-American team spot.

Directors Mary Gladish and Evelyn Gillmore sported a variety of satellite events. The winners:

Doubles: Aloha & Tony Montooth

Friday: John Prenn

Saturday: Helen Bolstad

High Rollers: Bill Wakeman

Team: Summers, Njaa, Ashley, Jarrell, Langley

28's: Madrone, Levy, McSkimming, Blackman

Dave Sniegowski Cops Baltimore Summer Special

Dave Sniegowski, Chesapeake, VA, came away the winner at the recent Baltimore Summer Special. This event was played July 12 at Randallstown, MD and sported 70 peggers. Sniegowski took home 147 MRP's and the top prize for his winning effort.

F. J. McDonnell (VA) took 2nd, followed by Mike Midgette (NC), and William Hoffman (NJ) in 2-3-4.

Ralph Ardito (VA) posted a fine 21 10/12 +140 to take home qualifying honors.

54 peggers played the Consolation and Sid Weinberg (VA) won the event. Loren Wakeling (VA), Leslie Scherr (MD), and Eleanor Bernstein (MD) finished 2-3-4. Wakeling also had the top qualifying-round score...a nice 13 6/7 +133.

Director Bruce Sattler won the Saturday night game...and the cards were hot. Lee Spence (MD) and Utah Walton (VA) scored 28-hands during this event.

In the Main tournament, only Mark Mead (VA) could score this 28-hand.

Unbelievable Match in Denver

Chris Walton and Wayne Yakes were having a friendly set, when up popped a 29-hand for Walton. The old 216,580 to 1 shot! And would you believe the same hand came back some 20 deals later! Two 29-hands in one set? Yakes is some dealer!

All Black

A rare hand was played in Virginia Grass Roots recently (GR 89). F. J. McDonnell and Andy Pewtherer were both dealt 4 spades and 2 clubs. Both players discarded the clubs to the crib...and up popped a club for the starter card! Three flushes were counted...and they were all black! Nary a red card in sight. Long odds, indeed!

Correction

Grass Roots club 144 (GA) reports that Estill Elliot is this year's club champion...and not Wally Wheeler as reported earlier in CW.

Jerry Fischer Misses All-American By Eyelash!

Jerry Fischer (WI) had qualified for the Consolation at the MGM last February, but decided to leave for home, forfeiting his first round match. Oops...he missed All-American honors by 5 MRP's! If he had stayed and won that first round match, he would have made the All-American team. No. 10 Bob Clark scored 921...Fischer scored 916, and the 11th spot.

Kooistra Still Breaking Records

Scott Kooistra, the Yankton, SD, One-Star player has a habit of breaking cribbage records. But did you know he is a radio broadcaster...and he recently set a record in that field.

With only four hours sleep from 5 AM July 20 to 5 AM July 26 (7 full days) Kooistra met his goal of continuous broadcasting...and that is 168 hours non-stop!

Kooistra headed the Nonstop Radio Show (KYNT, Yankton) in an effort to not only set a world record in continuous broadcasting, but also to raise money for Yankton's Women's Shelter and Youth Center.

Asked if he would try to break this record in the future, Scott replied, "Absolutely not! This was a one-stop deal!"

Knowing Scott from a long-way back, this is no surprise...he is one competitive person! Paula Jones might want to look into Yankton's Women's Shelter for a nice place to stay... however, I'm sure they wont give her a Mercedes. Ed.

Five No Help?

Bob McCabe, the ACC's National Statistician recently played a hand that had a five cut for the starter card. According to McCabe, this five DID NOT HELP either hand...or the crib!

Russell Adams writes CW: "While not insoluble mathematically, I wouldn't want to try it. The assumptions (conditions) are no hand had a 5 or 10 or combinations summing to 10; no 3-4, 4-6, or 6-7; and no 4-card flushes, or jack of the cut suit. This is a probability of more than 200,000 to 1. The hands must have had all low cards, totaling less than 10, 6 thru 9's, or say a 9-8-6-3, 8-7-4-1, etc."

OK, Bob, write CW and give us the answer. Ed.

Weird Game

George "Raz" Rasmussen (WA) had a strange game in the High Roller event at Lincoln City, OR. The game saw six consecutive 4's cut for the starter card.

Bob Julian Has Bad Luck

Bob Julian (WI) was heading to Yankton, SD, with a van-load of players, when, poof! The van quit in a cloud of steam, and refused to go another inch. The peggers had to rent a car to make it to Yankton on time. Perhaps Julian will give us a sequel as to how he got home in next month's CW.

In Memoriam

Jim McManus

Milwaukee, Wisconsin

Jim died after a brief illness on July 21. He was well known throughout the ACC for his superb skill at cribbage and his intense and relentless competitiveness. Jim was a Life Master One-Star, a four-time All-American, and winner of six sanctioned main events. Jim's idiosyncratic style will be missed by tournament-goers nationwide. Condolances are offered to Jim's son, Brian McManus, and other members of Jim's family

Ode To Jim McManus

Anonymous

He won with the cards he got dealt,
or sometimes he lost.
But the value of playing the game
always beat the cost.

Honest as the day is long,
You never saw him cheat.
And nice too, in a graft sort of way
when playing his best he couldn't be beat.

A grand master,
An Ambassador,
So great for the game.
The smoke filled room of the cribbage hall will never be the same.

$1,100 29-Hand!

Fumi Halucka, Santa Maria, CA, is shown receiving $1,000 from Barbara Woodward of the Sands in Reno for her July 4th 29-hand. She scored this gem in the very first game of the 22-game qualifying round on Saturday morning. No other player in the huge field (348 players) scored another 29-hand, giving Halucka the entire $1,000 offered by the Sands. In addition, she will receive an additional $100 from the American Cribbage Congress. This 29-hand was the 21st...and final 29 of the 1998 cribbage season.

Strange Master Point Story

About three years ago the late Ed Horigan proposed the ACC change the Master Point scoring to give players equal points for equal difficulty. He laboriously constructed scoring charts for various size tournaments and presented his concept to the ACC's Board of Directors for implementation at the next BOD meeting at Napa's Grand National.

Paul Hatcher (OR) and DeLynn Colvert traveled to this Grand National in Hatcher's motor home...and with time to spare at a campground near the California border, worked on Horigan's concept in an effort to simplify the scoring. To make a long story short, they came up with the present system, requiring no charts once the basic concept was mastered.

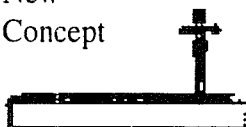

Now, to make the first year's trial run of this system bizzare, Hatcher and Colvert ended the season in a dead-heat. Co-champions! 1,331 MRP's each!

Did these two veteran peggers know what they were doing...or what?

Grass Roots Controversy Rebuttle

The President's Column in the Aug. CW discussed the "Grass Roots Controversy."

I would like to inform the readers of what started the controversy. An item presented by Paul Hatcher at the BOD meeting in WI Dells, Sept. '97, was the use of the ACC Federal Tax ID number. It was stated in the minutes as follows: "Anyone using the ACC Federal Tax ID number cease and desist doing so immediately." CW Dec. '97, page 13. Nowhere does it say you can use the number if you follow through and combine financial reports as stated in Mr. Bey's column, Aug. '98. I asked the VP of Policy after the Sept. '97 BOD meeting if the GR Program could use the number. His reply was "No group or individual was allowed to use it."

I was using the number for the GR Investment Account (interest bearing). The money in this account was removed and deposited into the GR Checking Account, NOT into my personal account as Mr. Bey stated in his column. There NEVER was an intermingling of GR money and my personal money. I sent the ACC Treasurer a copy of all documents regarding the Investment Account and a copy of the GR Financial Report for the previous year at this time.

The concern I had at this time was what would happen to the GR money as my SS# was on the checking account. I proceeded to obtain an ID number for the GR Program with the help of an attorney. This would guarantee that the GR money would remain in the GR Program if something happened to me. The GR checking account has had the National Commissioner's SS# as it's ID number since the GR Program started. How could the GR Program fall under the ACC Corporate setup if it was denied the use of the ACC ID#? It is common practice for different divisions of an organization to have ID#.

Grass Rooters make up over 60% of the ACC membership. The Grass Roots leadership does not operate secretly or under a cloud. A Financial Report was sent to each club. Members, if you would like to see it ask your Club Director or Contact Person. Together we will build a bigger and better organization that will promote the game of cribbage for all players.

Eugene Mikulsky, Grass Roots National Commissioner

Campbell Champions National Open

Hate to write and gripe, but it's time.

Recently returned from the National Open in Raleigh, and was disappointed in two things: First, I didn't cash (no news there). Secondly, I was saddened that the ACC decided to sanction a large tournament out west the same weekend. We old timers...I was a founder of the ACC...(it was born in Raleigh, you might recall) feel the ACC owes its existence to the National Open, but I think there should be some deference to this grand tourney.

For that reason, I was quite surprised that one of the annual board meetings isn't scheduled there anymore.

Finally, there's a lot of crib played at the National Open. I believe seven tournaments took place that weekend.

I hope the Board of Directors will rethink both sanctioning any tourney during the last weekend in July, and give serious thought to getting a board meeting mandated at Raleigh.

Let us not forget our heritage, nor the ACC heavies who helped us get started, and still run this exquisite tourney.

*Bill Campbell
Ft. Walton Beach, FL*

Bill, I agree with you concerning the prestige of the National Open, and the history of the ACC being closely associated with this event. Unfortunately, tournaments have sprouted nationwide, and in all fairness, each region should be entitled to one last gasp at earning Master Points for the year's play. Those players in the Western Region have up to 3,000 miles of travel (each way) to attend the National Open...and their budget may not be up to that expense. As for the Board of Director's meetings, a discussion of the members led to the conclusion that two meetings per year was more than adequate to run the business of the ACC. Again, unfortunately, the Raleigh meeting was the logical one to cancel, since it was close to the Grand National's meeting. Now the BOD meets approximately every six months...once in Reno (Feb.) and again at the Grand National (Sept.). I also agree that the National Open is an exquisite event...and my favorite! But the roundtrip is 5,200 miles...and I need expensive hearing aids! Keep on pegging. Ed.

9-Year Old Scores 28!

My 9-year old grandson recently spent a week with us. I started teaching him the game of cribbage when he was 7, when he started learning basic arithmetic in elementary school. In two years he has learned to play cribbage fairly well.

One of the games we played, both of our leading pegs were within 4 holes of pegging out. It was my deal. After discarding into the crib he held three 5's and a ten. The cut card was the 4th 5! A 28-hand! I think this was something he's going to remember the rest of his life.

My grandson's name is Ayal Sharvit and he lives with my daughter and younger brother, Matan, within an hour's drive, so we play cribbage often.

*Marvin Katz
Aurora, IL*

Hey Ayal, it is sure nice to try for that old 28-hand when you get a chance...but this time you should have discarded one of those 5's and kept an "out" card, so you wouldn't get stuck on the peg and let your grandfather peg out on you...but congratulations on that nifty hand...it was worth the risk of losing to draw for it. It is certainly hard to resist that temptation when a 28-hand is possible. And that hand comes up only once in every 15,028 tries (average). Ed.

I. V. Graham Wins Again

I. V. Graham spends his time divided between Alaska and Montana...and he wins at cribbage no matter where he travels. This time around, he nailed the Mid-Summer Tourist Classic in Eagle River, AK. Jim Lynch (AK), John Jamieson (WA), and Steve Yates (AK) finished 2-3-4 in this 31-player match. Beverly Christensen (CA) copped the consolation.

Richard Kodama Wins in Hawaii

Richard Kodama (HI) nailed the July edition of the Hawaii Open...and he takes home a nifty 70 MRP's for besting the 17 peggers in attendance. Fred White (HI), Daniel Ogden (HI), and Tats Tsuruda (HI) finished 2-3-4. Director Tsarke keeps 'em pegging under the palm trees.

Slow Play

I would like to express my feeling on a ethical play question, regarding slow play. I have been docked two games because of that rule. Both times the player on my left was on 2nd street going to 3rd street. I was penalized to start at half games which one game I lost, the other I won. Lucky I qualified both matches with a 28 and 31 respectively.

Being a veteran player of over 10 years of play, I am not a slow player. With good cards, I average out to 10 to 12 minutes a game, with my opponent being skunked or vice versa myself being skunked. So I suggest for rebuttle purposes when enforcing that rule, what if the player to the left is one full game ahead and finished...or three judges to decide the slow play rule? Out of fairness, I also played games where me and my opponent were moving along at 2-point and 4-point hands, and that makes games take longer (15-18 minutes). To penalize players for bad cards seems unfair.

*Todd Anderson
Portland, OR*

Todd, I agree with you, directors should bend over backwards to not penalize players for slow play. It is embarrassing to the player being penalized. In my opinion, in only extreme cases should a penalty or "short" game be imposed. Ed.

Phyllis Schmidt
Williamstown, MA
One-Star (10)
10,000 MRP's

Phyllis Schmidt won the national championship in 1992 and is a four-time All-American. She recently was top-qualifier in the 152-player Consolation at the National Open, and finished 3rd...and earned her 10,000th Master Rating Point. She becomes the 10th ACC player to attain One Star.

Cheap Trick?

Owen "Hap" Frank, Casper, WY, relayed this one to Cribbage World...and he says it actually happened.

Iris Fletcher plays with pegs with an "I" and a "F" on top. Her opponent engaged her in friendly conversation and asked her what the "I" and "F" meant on her pegs. Iris responded, "This 'I' is for Iris, and this one," she said, tapping the other, "is 'F' for Fletcher."

"Illegally touching your pegs," he said, "two hole penalty!" And he took the penalty!

According to Frank, Fletcher was livid with rage. Of course, this comes under the heading of unethical play.

1998 Banner Year For Awards

Eight Peggers Earn Honors

Phyllis Schmidt Earns One-Star

Brenda Palmer, Sundae Webb Earn Life Master

Roger King, Phil Martin, Ken Capper Earn Grand Master

Ed Heinowski, Ed Ristom Earn Master

With the conclusion of the 1998 pegging year (August 1, 1997 thru July 31, 1998), eight more ACC peggers have attained honors.

With 10,000 MRP's in the bank, thanks to winning the Maine Open, Phyllis Schmidt, Williamstown, MA, earns the ACC's 10th One Star rating. Schmidt is a threat to win any event, and won the National Championship in 1992, in addition to four All-American team awards.

Brenda Palmer, W. Springfield, MA, had a great run at the Independence Day Classic in Reno this July 4th, very nearly winning this huge (348 players) event. She took home 2nd place...and the ACC's 32nd Life Master rating. Two weeks later, Sundae Webb, Pittsburg, CA, smoked the Devil Mountain's 57-player Consolation, taking qualifying honors and winning the playoffs as well. This stellar performance earned Webb the ACC's 33rd Life Master rating.

Roger King, Santa Clara, CA, had a great Devil Mountain outing as well, and he zipped over the 4,000 MRP mark...and Grand Master 108. Meanwhile, back east, Phil Martin, East Hartford, CT, put his 4,000th MRP on the board and earned Grand Master 109. Ken Capper, Hermiston, OR, recently topped the 4,000 MRP mark...and Grand Master 110. Ken, with spouse Betty, are famous for their unique cribbage boards and their annual Hermiston, OR events.

Edmund Ristom, El Paso, Texas, pegs from coast to coast, but he loves the Reno matches the best. He zipped over the 2,000 MRP mark in Reno this July and earned his Masters (361). A week later, Ed Heinowski, Muskego, WI, earned his 2,000th MRP at the huge Lewis & Clark Classic in Yankton, SD, and the ACC's 362nd Master rating.

Who's Knocking On The Door?

Stephen Reynolds (CA) has 5,970 MRP's in the bank, needing but a scant 30 to earn Life Master. Harvey Honeycutt (OR) and Jim Gogolin (OR) are standing at 3,998 and 3,975! Honeycutt needs but TWO to earn Grand Master. Gogolin needs a hefty 25! And how about Richard Neunsinger (MN)? He needs but ONE to earn Master (standing at 1,999).

Grass Roots

Boise, Idaho

Don Kunz

"Sweet Music" - Mark Ostheller a young musician who recently joined our club, drummed up a 9 game card of 22 with 236 plus points. His grand slam earned him half of the revolving fund as well as the nites 1st place pot. Mark also plays the guitar, we wonder what he will strum up for us in the coming weeks.

Wisconsin, Club 61

Congratulation to Aggie Mikulsky on your recent victory at the Lewis & Clark Classic. Getting a 28 hand on your first hand back at grass roots was real exciting. Losing the last eight games was not! Cribbage is a great equalizer.

Concord CA. Club 54

Tad Pilecki had a nifty 23 point grand slam card at our club on July 13th. Twenty three point card could be a record for our club.

Santa Clara CA.

Ed Bloom held an ACC tournament Ed's Teeny - Tiny Tourney at the Santa Clara County Fair. One of the main reasons was to promote cribbage. Results were very successful. Joe Lusignan qualified 15th in the main. He forfeited the first game in the playoffs because he went to the first aid booth and was late coming back. He won game two but lost out in game three. Not giving up, he came back and finished number two in the consolation. Cribbage Tournaments are important!
