Elinor Breen Wins Holiday Classic

Elinor Breen, Avon, MA, earned her Masters as the 1998 cribbage season rang down...and she begins the new season by winning the huge Holiday Classic in Woonsocket on December 13. Her final playoff match was a tough one, as she had to get by Grand Master Paul Gallagher (MA)...one of the Eastern Region's top players. Earle Sweet (RI) and Al Charlebois (RI) took home 3-4 in this 146-player match.

Breen was also the high qualifier (20 GP's in the 12-game round)...and she took home a whopping 226 MRP's, in addition to a nice top prize.

Paul Cormier (MA) took home the Consolation title, and he must have thought a conspiracy was in action against him. His last three playoff matches were all against players named Medeiros...Rob, Sharlene, and Emily! However, he prevailed in this 72-player match. Emily (MA) took 2nd, with Sharlene (MA) and Rit Alkas (CT) nailing 3-4. Peter Setian (MA) took qualifying honors with a nice 17 8/9 card.

A highlight of the meet saw Jeanne Biadasz (MA) score the ACC's 7th 29-hand of the 1999 season...and will receive $100 from the ACC for this sanctioned gem. Bob Cunningham (MA) scored the meet's only 28-hand.

Brian McCoy (MA) will remember his 3rd, 4th and 5th game in the Consolation qualifying round...he lost all three in the stink hole (121-120).

Director Ann Somers, in her first tournament as a director, did a great job. She took over this event's reins after Gloria Dyndur, the past director, passed away last year. This event was played as a memorial to Gloria.

Somers reported that the players donated $292 to the Rhode Island Heart Transplant Fund...and she is scheduling a re-run of this event next November 30. Mark your calendars.

Tournament of Champions, ACC Open Update

Once again, the gathering of the cribbage clan will descend on Reno in record numbers to play their annual matches in early February. Cribbage World has gone to press before the results were in, but look for a complete report in March's issue. Some lucky pegger will win the ten grand...and get his or her name on CW's front page!

Cribbage Action Galore!

According to figures supplied by chief statistician Bob McCabe, the American Cribbage Congress sanctioned 151 tournaments during the 1997-1998 year.

That figures out to just about 3 tournaments each weekend of the year, so if you're a devout cribber you can usually find a tournament somewhere in these United States.

Tournaments vary in size, from the humongous Joseph Petrus Wergin Open in Reno with a record-smashing 1,024 participants to the two Hawaii summer tourneys, June and July, with 17 players each...just one over the 16-person minimum to qualify as a sanctioned event.

All of this activity was enjoyed by 16,380 players...averaging 108.5 persons per tournament.

No. 2 in size to the JPW Open was the Grand National at Wisconsin Dells, WI with 456 entrants. Another Wisconsin tourney, the popular MGM at Green Bay was 3rd with an even-400 players, followed by two patriotic Reno tournaments: Veteran's Day with 388, and Independence Day at 348.

Two longtime tournaments were in 6th and 7th place: The World Championship at Quincy, CA with 290 players, and the National Open at Raleigh, NC, with 234 players.

The Feather River tournament in Oroville, CA, the Maine Open and the Nipomo came closest in size to the average tournament, each registering 108, 109 and 108 players, respectively.

Forty-two other tournaments had participation above the 108.5 average, the top one-third taking up the slack for the 100 smaller tournaments (those below the 108.5 average).

The major tournaments (over 108.5) included: Ocean State and Portland Summer, each with 188; Chinook Winds, 186; Timber Capitol, 184; Portland Winter, Longest Beach and St. Croix Casino, 180 each; Menominee-MGM and Oregon Coast, 177 each; Wisconsin Dells, 174; Capital City (St. Paul), 172; Tri-Valley, 168; Lewis and Clark and St. Croix (June), 166 each; New Hampshire, 164; River City Open, 162; Mick Michaelis and Milwaukee Challenge, 157 each; Polish Open, 152; Greater Orlando, 147; Madison Masters, 146; New England Championship, 144; North Pole, 141; Holiday, 140; New England Inaugural, 138; W. L. Swett, 132; Portside Open, Minnesota Valley, Oregon State and Winnemucca, 126 each; Capital City (Summer) and Jim Arblaster, 125 each; Belle City (Summer), 124; Eau Claire and Lake Tahoe (April), 120 each; Hawkeye Classic, 117; San Ramon, 118; LaFayette, South Shore, Willows, and Montana Championships, 114 each, and the Cascade, 110.

With all this participation, what has the new Master Rating Point system done to the awards?

Again, according to McCabe, there is a 9% overall reduction in the number of points awarded. However, the changes are two-fold. The points awarded for qualifying have increased while the points earned in playoffs have decreased.

As far as we're concerned, I feel that the points are awarded more equally now. Obviously, there are more people qualifying than those winding up high in the playoffs.

The smaller tournaments have the edge when it comes to earning points. It's when you get to the tournaments with 126-159 players that the percentages change and fewer points are awarded in the playoff brackets.

I've come to one conclusion: I don't believe we can ever find a 100% fair way to resolve Master Points...but I think this new system is as close to "fair" as we can make it.

Keep peggin'...Ev Bey

Lee Tesch Nails Eau Claire Classic

With 138 peggers in attendance, Lee Tesch came home the winner at the recent Eau Claire Classic (WI). This Green Bay, WI pegger took home a nice winner's check, and 196 MRP's for the win. His last match was a tough one as he had to get by Life Master Jerry Gruber (MN). Gruber took home 147 MRP's for 2nd, and is among the leaders nationwide (nearing the 500 mark).

Another Life Master took 3rd...and is on track to win his third national championship. Bob Julian, Milwaukee, WI earned 105 MRP's for this high finish, and maintains his national lead this cribbage year, having scored well over the 700 mark. Elmer Morlock (MN) nailed down 4th...and another 105 MRP's.

Bob Chase (MN) scored an exceptional 39 17/22 +328 to easily take qualifying honors.

96 peggers played the Consolation and Master Charlie Parker (MN) took home the top prize.

Another Master...Ed Heinowski (WI)...finished 2nd (and qualified first with a nice 18 8/9 +120), followed by Steve Post (MN) and Life Master Russell Adams (MN) in 3-4.

Director Alan Lindner had a full array of satellite events. The winners:

Friday: Marvin Lang (IL)

Saturday: Georgana Cruse (WI)

Last Chance: Richard Dane (WI)

All-Events: Elmer Morlock (MN)

Single Elimination (16): Arlene Barrett, Ken Rehm, Dave Elliott, Ray Schenk, Arlene Barrett (2), Joan Kolby

Lindner reported only a single 28-hand...scored by Darryl Maresch.

Lindner will host Grand National XIX in the year 2000 in Eau Claire, and he is warming to the task with yet another fine tournament.

Wedding Bells In Illinois

Les Kvien and Deb Schisel Tie Knot

Les Kvien and Deb Schisel, Vernon Hills, IL, have recently been married. These highly-skilled veteran ACC members are regulars in the Central Region. Deb has earned her Grand Master rating, having scored well over 5,300 MRP's, and Les is a threat to win any event. Cribbage fever, catch it...and catch a mate!

Washington Championship Draws 166 Donna Hassett Smoking In Washington

George "Ras" Rasmussen, the king of cribbage promotion, got his Washington State Championship off the ground in fine style, as 166 peggers descended on Centralia for a weekend of pegging and camaraderie. "Ras" worked overtime getting sponsors, custom boards, raffles, and 24-hand gifts for the players...and went all-out to sponsor a first-class event. He even offered the players $1,000 added prize money...and kicked in an extra $100 for the Last Chance as well.

And who took the most advantage of this largess? None other than the streaking Donna Hassett. This Roseburg, OR, Master pegger blistered the boards in the qualifying round, winning 16 of 22, 37 GP's +270, to easily take honors. She then continued her streak by roaring through the playoffs to take the championship. This action netted Hassett a cool $1,500! And her MRP take was a nifty 251 MRP's, placing her among the leaders nationwide with over 600 MRP's earned this cribbage year.

Michael Rowe (AK) came down to the lower 48 for the 2nd week in a row from his Anchorage home...and once again, took home a sizeable piece of the pie. A week earlier he won the High Roller in Portland, OR, and cajoled by "Ras" to take in another large event, flew back and took home his expenses, plus! He qualified 2nd...and finished 2nd. His take? $1,170 (including the Super Q) and 200 MRP's (over 500 for this cribbage year). Bruce Wridge (OR) is nearing his

Grand Master by finishing 3rd, followed by Jerry Hearsom (OR) in 4th. Hearsom stated this was his highest finish ever, and he took home 105 MRP's plus a nice check.

Master Jack Moritzky nailed the 94-player Consolation. John Furler (OR) took home 2nd, followed by Tom Markham (WA) and Master Roger Lueschow (WA) in 3-4. This event had the unusual occur. Three 11-GP cards made the playoffs, and all three peggers left the hall and forfeited their first playoff match, not realizing they had a chance to qualify. They will be surprised by a first-round losers check they will receive in the mail.

"Ras" and crew had a full array of satellite events. The winners:

Friday Time Passer: Don Blanford (WA)

High Rollers: Rollic Heath (OR)

Doubles: Jerry Hahn & Ken Schuldt (OR)

Saturday: George Stanton (WA)

Last Chance: Carla Clark (WA)

28's: K. Blackman, Kahn, Kelly, Markham, Rowe, Windslow

"Ras" reported some 22 trophies were awarded, and the Roseburg, OR, contingent took home 7 of them. And he also reported that players from age 14 to 92 played, making cribbage a game of universal appeal. His next year's action will undoubtedly be another winner. Mark your calendars!

Furler Stunned In Washington

John Furler, a stellar pegger from the Portland, OR area, was stunned at the recent Washington championship. Cribbage World overheard Furler muttering to himself that "There is only five people in this crowd I can't beat...and I had to play all five of them in a row!"

Score 11 GP's in Consolation? Hang Around!

In Centralia, WA and Augusta, GA, players have qualified with an 11-GP card in the Consolation event...and left the hall, thinking they have NOT qualified. And their 11-GP cards did, indeed, make the grade. Hang around the hall if you score an 11-GP card...it may make your gas money home!

Barnes' Motor Home Peggers Paradise

Paul and Joy Barnes have a motor home...and they live in Florida...a favorite stop for "snowbirds." Four of these "snowbirds" (Frank and Ginny Danielski, Doug Page, and Ethel Sherwan) joined the Barnes' on a cribbage sojourn to Richmond, VA, and Augusta, GA for some cribbage action. And, of course, on the journey, much cribbage is played aboard the motor home. In fact, on the trip to Virginia, each player played 150 games (whew!) on the 13-hour trip. The trip to Georgia was only 8 hours, so fewer games were played. An oddity of the two trips had Doug Page win the Consolation in Virginia, and Ginny Danielski winning the Consolation in Georgia. This vehicle is a lucky one, in more ways than one!

Portland Winter Open...172 Players! Braukmann Tops Ray Van Orsow Memorial

Last year the Portland Winter Open was aptly named, as a snow storm ravaged the area, closing roads, and causing cribbage players much grief with their travel plans. But in this year's edition, it was spring-like weather...and with the weather warming up the cards, young Mike Braukmann, Cornelius, OR came home the winner. He bested veteran pegger Dean Bauman (OR) in the final playoff match. Braukmann took home a whopping $1,500, and Bauman won $1,000.

Roger Lueschow, a Master pegger from Maple Valley, WA, nipped Sharon Hejmanek, Missoula, MT for the 3rd spot. Don Bakko (WA) took qualifying honors with a nice 36 17/22 +192.

Next year (2000) Jason Hofbauer, (WA) will be eligible to play in the Tournament of Champions as he will be 21 years old, and has won a sanctioned event in the past to qualify. He is warming to the task as he nailed the 116-pegger Consolation. He topped veteran Merle Mulkey (OR) in the final playoff match. Nancy Lorenz (OR) and Master Larry Hassett (OR) finished 3-4.

Directors Dorothy Mickow and Ken Julkowski had a full array of satellite events. The winners:

Friday EB: Jerry Rice (OR)
High Roller: Michael Rowe (AK)
Doubles: Lea Hornebeck (WA) & Jay Maloney (OR)
Saturday: George Rasmussen (WA)
Last Chance: Rob Wintersteen (OR)
28's: O'Malley, Hampton, Logan, Stack, Glenn, Wikstrom, Hom

This event was a memorial for the late Ray Van Orsow, a Grand Master on or off the boards. His son, Bruce, was in attendance, keeping the Van Orsow winning tradition alive. Clarence and Denny Van Orsow were on hand, as well.

Mickow and Julkowski kept all events on time, with well-posted results. The lucky raffle winner was Donna Hassett...she took home an extra nice blanket for her lucky number. And if this event can guarantee the same weather next year, a record crowd may very well be on hand.

Gene Goodell Helps ACC

Gene Goodell, the ACC's top Grass Roots player, is also top notch when it comes to helping the ACC. He has donated many envelopes to the ACC's Awards Program.

Joe Ramos Wins LaFayette II

Grand Master Joe Ramos, the ACC's hard-working GR-National Statistician, came home the winner at the December edition of LaFayette II in Taunton, MA. In besting the large field (132 players), Ramos came away with a sizeable first-place prize...and 167 aggregate Master Rating Points (after qualifying 13th). Ramos edged another Grand Master in the final playoff round...Dwight Christiansen (CT).

Maurice Ramsey (MA) came home 3rd, with Grand Master David Clemmey (MA) taking 4th.

Yet another Grand Master came home with the top qualifying score...Peter Setian (MA). He posted a 21 GP card in the 12-game round (35 MRPs).

60 players played the Consolation, and Margaret Torrey (MA) took honors, edging Dudley Dumaine (MA) in the final playoff match. One Star Phyllis Schmidt (MA) and Grand Master Rob Medeiros (MA) finished 3-4.

Al Dinwoodie (RI) unofficially earned his Life Master by finishing in the 9-16 round in the Main Event. Directors Zeke and Cindy Veradt reported that Medford Smith (MA) and Valerie Slavin (MA) scored 28-hands. They also reported this event increased in size by a full 20% over last year. This year's 93% payback may explain the increase. This duo are planning a re-match next December 5...mark your calendars.

Beverly Halstead Hot In Oroville

Beverly Halstead (CA) was hot on her home turf in Oroville on October 10. She scored a 28-hand in the Consolation qualifying round enroute to a whopping 20 GP card. She lost one game by a single point in easily taking honors.

Annamarie Walker Tough On Internet

Annamarie Walker, Prince George, BC, was playing on the Internet on December 11. Her first hand gave her a 3-4-4-5-6-6. She discarded the 3-6, cut a 6, and scored a double 24 (her opponent had discarded 6-6). Needless to say, this was a very short game! And this is one of the few advantages of playing computer cribbage...a player being waxed in this manner doesn't have to suffer the humiliation face to face.

Cribbage Good For Your Brain?

Paul Yellon (Laguna Hills, CA) mailed CW an article from Reader's Digest concerning Games For Your Brain. Gene Cohen, geriatric psychiatrist and former director of the National Institute of Mental Health's Center on Aging, suggests that game playing is the mental counterpart of physical exertion. Tests show that game-players out-perform non-players on reading tests (one-year study of chess players and non-players, control group). A study with rats given toys developed significantly thicker cerebral brain cortex...the part concerned with thought.

Cohen plays cribbage with his father, and, in addition to exercising his brain, he says: "Only much later did I realize those games represented a whole lot more. For the time it took to play the game, I had my father all to myself!"

Life Master Reynolds Tough On Home Turf

1995 All-American and Life Master Stephen Reynolds was co-director of the December Reynolds Christmas Wrap...and he wrapped up a nice present for himself. He nailed the championship! With the win at this 78-player event, Reynolds vaults to the 29th spot on the ACC's lifetime list, and is on the leaderboard for this year's action (standing at the 500 mark).

Bruce Fein (CA) nailed 2nd, and newly-crowned Grand Master Joseph Lusignan (CA) earned 3rd (the 70 MRP's earned propelled his lifetime totals to well over the 4,000 mark). Co-Director Bill Wakeman, a Master pegger, finished 4th. Thelma Weber (CA) took honors in the qualifying round...34 GP's in the 22-game match.

Cy Madrone (CA) won the 44-player Consolation, followed by Master Heidi Glashan (CA) in 2nd. Bob Dillinger (CA) and R. M. Robbie Robson (CA) took home 3-4. Robson is a Master pegger. And none other than One-Star Jesse Jarrell (CA) took qualifying honors...16 GP's in the 9-game match.

Tournament of Champions, ACC Open On Record Pace

As Cribbage World goes to press, a check with the Sands (Barbara Woodward) and Joan Rein (Director, Tournament of Champions), indicates that both events are on track for yet another record.

The TOC has 472 signed on for this prestigious event. Rein estimates 500 will sign on to play. Last year, Bob Lock, Appleton, WI topped 486 players and took home a whopping $7,900! Gene "Moose" Biegler, West Bend, WI won the sold-out (1,024) Joseph P. Wergin/ACC Open on the same weekend...and he carted home $10,000. According to a Sands spokesman, 955 players have signed on as of January 11, and with a week to go, the 1,024 sellout appears a certainty.

Cribbage World will report all the action in the March issue.

Sands Awards Another $1,000 Angela French Scores 29-Hand In Reno

The Sands Regency (Reno) awards players a $1,000 bonus for a 29-hand in the qualifying round of the July and November matches. In July, Fumi Halucka, Santa Maria, CA took home the $1000. In the November match, the lucky recipient was Angela French, Santa Ana, CA (see photo). In addition to the $1,000, the ACC also kicks in another $100 for scoring this 216,580 to 1 gem.

In Memoriam

Leila Heavilin Clinton, Iowa

Leila died a tragic death, being murdered by her granddaughter in November. She was an avid player, travelling to Moline, Illinois to play in Grass Roots 138, in addition to playing with her Iowa friends. The ACC mourns deaths of any kind, especially by violence.

Allan Lichty

Des Moines, Iowa

Allan was one of the ACC's most dedicated peggers, and was present in Raleigh when the ACC was chartered. He directed several ACC events in the organization's early years. He holds the unofficial record for 29-hands, having scored at least seven. He played thousands of games with his wife, Esther, and compiled mountains of records on cribbage. His dedication to the game is unparalleled in ACC circles. The ACC will miss him, as he was always the gentleman!

Ted Diamond

Randolph, Massachusetts

Ted had a total heart transplant last year, and despite fighting long odds, he died on December 27. Grass Roots 109 club members will miss his good humor and corny jokes. He loved cribbage and was thrilled to be invited to the TOC this year. He will be sorely missed.

Gay Ann Rasmussen

Madison, Wisconsin

Gay Ann passed away in December. With her husband, Bob, they co-directed GR 1 (Madison) for several years. She loved cribbage and played in many sanctioned events in the Central Region. Her dedication to the grand old game will certainly be missed.

Devout Pegger

During the holiday season I met a member of the "religious," a Brother Benedict, who ministers in the Phillipines. He told me of a Brother Felix, a Christian Brother who went to "work" in the Phillipines in 1938 and is still there counselling school children in Manila. He is what was termed years ago a Missionary. He was held prisoner during World War II.

Brother Felix has played over 50,000 games of cribbage with others...and over 90,000 games of solitaire cribbage.

Wrong Time, Wrong Place, No Kudos

A couple of weeks ago I was fortunate to make a grand slam during a bi-monthly cribbage session with the Chico club. I later learned that there would be no further acknowledgement or kudos because I am a member of another club (Paradise).

I can appreciate no monetary gain, but winning a grand slam is not any everyday occurrence (twice in over 50 years for me). Some sort of acknowledgement should not be too much of an expense on the ACC, if it was a regular session of cribbage.

I would like to hear your input on this matter.

Peter Chamousis
Paradise, CA

Yessir, Peter, scoring a grand slam in a 9-game match is 512 to 1 odds, and is no easy task. I called National Grass Roots Commissioner Gene Mikulsky to get the skinny on why a visitor does not get national awards when away from his home base. Mikulsky reports that this has been a long-standing policy to keep the awards programs fair. A travelling pegger has more opportunity to earn honors and awards by simply playing more, therefore, the policy for home-based honors only. Quoting the Grass Roots Manual (Sept. 1998): "Grass Roots members are eligible to earn 28-hand, 29-hand, and Grand Slam awards, while playing in their own club during "official" tournament play, but Visitors playing in other clubs are not eligible to receive them." However, Cribbage World (if you bribe the editor) will give you credit...and if can beat Gene Goodell's 24 GP card (see his card, this issue), I guarantee you will get headlines. Ed.

Turkey Weiners Booby Prize

The Colorado Rockies Cribbage Association played a "Low-Ball" match on November 18 (before Thanksgiving) and the booby prize was a package of turkey weiners. Warren Jokinen was the "unlucky" winner.

However, for those playing reverse cribbage the best (top three) received a big turkey!

CW thanks "Nexus" for this tidbit

Clayborne "Bud" Lewis Scores Gem...

Clayborne Lewis (NC) closed out the 1998 GR year with a real gem...he won all 9 games, complete with four skunks, scoring a whopping 22 GP's for the night. See card below. He pegs with the Twin City club in Winston-Salem (GR 221).

But The Record 9-Gamer...

Gene Goodell, Portland, OR, recently set an all-time record for a 9-game match. He blistered the boards for 24 GP's, winning all 9 games with 6 skunks. The last 5 games were 5 skunks in succession. Feast your eyes on this gem shown below. Goodell is also the ACC's leading Grass Roots player.

Alaskan Action

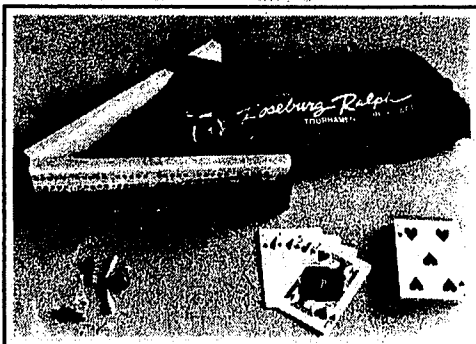

Henry Carle in Skagway Henry Carle In Anchorage

It was Henry Carle taking home the bacon in two recent Alaskan tournaments. This Anchorage pegger nailed the September Skagway Open...and came home first, once again, in the ACC Open (Singles) in Anchorage in December.

In the Skagway event, Alf Nore (AK) came home 2nd, followed by Ken Malone (AK) and Walt Parfinovics (AK) in 3-4. Matt Smith (WA) took qualifying honors with a 32 GP card, attesting to a well-balanced field. Linton Walker (BC) nailed the Consolation.

In the Anchorage ACC Open, Robbie Robinson (AK) took 2nd, with Lonnie McGowan (AK) and Chick Berg (AK) in 3-4. Mike Rowe (AK) scored a 30 GP card in the 18-game qualifying round to take honors. Chuck Fettes won the Consolation.

Duane Person, L. M. Stier, and Steve Gravelle all scored 28-hands in sanctioned events...but no 29's showed. Tom Weston scored a 28-hand in the Skagway event.

Aloha Rob Averages 11.17

Aloha Rob Wintersteen averaged a record-setting (for GR 28) 11.17 GP's per session during the 1998 season...and won the Forest Grove, OR, championship. Don LaFayette came close, with an 11.07 average.

Wintersteen played 35 sessions, and LaFayette participated 27 times.

Master Point Race Heats Up Julian, Colvert Top 700

As the 1999 race for honors hits the half-way mark, Life Master Bob Julian (WI) holds a thin lead over Two-Star DeLynn Colvert (MT). Both players have topped the 700 mark. Julian is picking up MRP's at nearly every stop and is steadily piling up MRP's. Colvert is keeping pace by winning two sanctioned events in the past two months.

George "Ras" Rasmussen, a Grand Master from Washington, is only a step behind, having topped the 600 mark for the year. In the Eastern Region, Life Master Laurence Samet (MA) is leading the way, having scored well over 500 MRP's for the year. Grand Master Joe Ramos (RI) and Grand Master Sharlene Medeiros (MA) are only a step behind with 400+ MRP's in the bag. In the Central Region, a bevy of players have topped 400...Grand Master Helen Railsback (NE), Grand Master Wayne Steinmetz (WI), Life Master Jerry Gruber (MN), One-Star Duane Toll (WI), One-Star Joe Bernard (IL), and Grand Master Richard Frost (WI). In the Western Region, Master Jason Shumate (CA) has topped 500, with Life Master Stephen Reynolds (CA), Grand Master Jones Hom (CA), William Summers III (CA), Master Annett Eiffert (CA), and Life Master Paul Hatcher (OR) are well over the 400 mark. The race is on!

Honors

Grand Master: Frank Danielski, Joseph Lusignan, John Rooney
Master: Christopher Quigley, David Gustafson, Roy Cook, John Thiems, Maurice Ramsay

The past two months have seen eight peggers earn honors on the boards. The ACC has three new Grand Masters. They are:

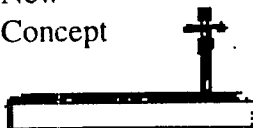

Frank Danileski, Little Chute, WI. Frank does his pegging coast to coast, and is a threat to win at any time. He piled up 916 MRP's last year, and is having another fine year (nearing 400 MRP's). Joseph Lusignan, Salinas, CA. Joe nailed 3rd place at the Reynold's Christmas Wrap, and winged over the 4,000 MRP mark, earning his Grand Master. He is a veteran Western Region pegger who has been in the winner's circle many time.

John Rooney, Randolph, MA. John is a veteran Eastern Region player who steadily earns MRP's. Last year he scored a nice 566 MRP's, and has tacked on another 300+ this year. He scored his 4,000th MRP last month to earn Grand Master.

Five veteran peggers recently earned Master (2,000 MRP's). They are: Christopher Quigley, Fairfield, CA; David Gustafson, Minnetonka, MN; Roy Cook, Oceanside, CA; John Thiems, Roseburg, OR; and Maurice Ramsay, Avon MA.

Hot Seat

Grass Roots club 240 in Oakdale, Minnesota has been playing for several weeks in the new season...and report only a single 28-hand has been scored this cribbage year.

That is, until January 13.

On Wednesday, the 13th of January, Scott Nordlund dealt Bev Jahn a 28-hand...and that was only the 2nd of the season. After rotating, Dewey Andruslo took Jahn's former seat...and bingo! He was dealt a 28-hand!

After a few games, Nordlund rotated around the table and sat in that seat. Would you believe he also scored a 28-hand! All three players sat in the same seat for the astounding three-28 hands on the same night...and in the same seat!

Cribbage fever, catch it...you never know what to expect.
