Record Crowds In Reno

TOC: Schiffman JPW/ACC: Kraft

Cribbage players from throughout the United States and Canada descended in record numbers on Reno the first weekend in February. The Sands Regency was awash with peggers from Friday through Sunday evening...and they were all on the prowl for record purses and bragging rights.

The gala weekend kicked off with the annual All-Star game on Thursday night (see story, this issue) with the Western squad taking home the win. Then on Friday morning some 512 peggers (a record) were on hand for the Annual Tournament of Champions, a meet by invite only. In a very competitive 16-game qualifying round, Darrell Miotke, a Grand Master from Sublimity, OR, scored the top card (31 15/16), taking home the top Q prize. But when the playoffs began, it was veteran Morris Schiffman, a Master pegger from Portland, OR, who held on to win the championship. The win came with a whopping $8,000...one of the richest prizes in ACC history. No Master Points were awarded, however, as this match is by invite only.

Joe Angelo, pegging out of New York, nailed 2nd...and $6,000! Mike Azevedo (MA) and Master John Syftestad (WI) took home 3-4. Azevedo took home a nice $4,000 and Syftestad earned $3,000.

A sizeable Consolation event saw Master Gaylord Matti (WI) take home the marbles ($1,260), followed by Susan Turcotte (RI) in 2nd ($1,150). Grand Master Paul Gallagher (MA) nailed 3rd, with Sue Schenck (MI) taking 4th ($925).

On Saturday morning, the crowd doubled in size. With some 60 peggers on the waiting list, it appeared a certainty that a maximum 1,024 would play, but in the last confusing moments, many players failed to show, and standbys failed to materialize. Nevertheless, 1,014 players sat down to play in this granddaddy of all cribbage tournaments...the Joseph Petrus Wergin/American Cribbage Congress Open.

Wayne Steinmetz, a Grand Master from Milwaukee, roared out of the gate, scoring a whopping 41 18/22 +280 to capture qualifying honors...and a huge Q pool prize. He also took home 75 MRP's for this excellent card.

20th Year

The American Cribbage Congress has begun its 20th year, being organized and incorporated in North Carolina in 1980.

Cribbage World also started its 20th year of publication with the January, 1999 issue.

I don't know whether any of you have noticed the significance of the playing cards displayed in the front page flag of CW by our tricky editor, DeLynn Colvert? In January, he used aces (representing month one); in February, he changed to deuces (the second month); and this month, March, is represented by a couple of treys on the front page, signifying the third month.

Jacks and queens will represent November and December, but we'll never get to kings (the 13th card).

Twenty-four founding directors were listed on the original ACC Articles of Incorporation. Half of them are still alive and active in cribbage affairs.

Thirteen-year President Emeritus Joseph Petrus Wergin, who conceived establishment of the organization, turned 89 on January 22 and is now living at the Hebron Oaks Health Care Center, 6201 Mineral Point Road, Madison, WI 53705. Call (608) 238-1663.

Other founders still active in ACC events are: Air Force Major Bill Campbell (now a retired civilian and newspaper columnist in Florida); attorney Dick Graham of Englewood, CO; Tom Miller, Raleigh, NC; Dr. William Shoemaker, La Jolla, CA; John Chambers, Rhode Island; Ernie Driscoll, Raleigh, NC; Robert Read, Florida; Jeff Shimp, the Michigan kid now moved to Nashville, IN; Tats Tsruda from sunny Hawaii; and two women: Marion Quackenbush, Lawrenceville, PA, and Phyllis Schmidt, Williamstown, MA.

At least four have passed away: Nick Pond, formerly of Raleigh, NC; our original secretary, Jim Arblaster, of Florida; Allan Lichty, of Iowa; and Arnold Crews, also of Florida.

I've lost track of the other eight: pilot Bob Immel of Northfield, MN; Art Boulette, Alexandria, VA; Edna Boyd, Bluefield, WVA; George Haendle, Carson City, NV; Elbert Hargesheimer, Hamburg, NY; Frank Wise, Orlando, FL; Dutch Klintworth, Greer, SC; and Marvin Kluck, Mystic, CT.

Arblaster introduced and published the first Cribbage World, followed by Bob Madson from Chicago, IL; Dale Munroe, Collinsville, CT; and the present editor, DeLynn Colvert of Missoula, MT.

Multiple changes and growth have come and gone during these past two decades.

I'm proud to continue the legacy I inherited from previous Presidents: Wergin, Bob McCabe, interim Scott Kooistra and now EEB for the past five years.

However, I'm saddened when I have to report the failings of a friend whom I installed as Membership Secretary a dozen years ago.

A recent surprise audit of Jeff Monroe's accounts by Treasurer Fred McGibney and Auditor Roger Wilson, following two years of unanswered audit inquiries, revealed a substantial cash shortfall.

Other major discrepancies reported to the ACC Board of Directors at its recent Reno meeting included Monroe's failure to submit any dues remittances to the Treasurer from July 1, 1998 until January 30, 1999; failure to respond to Internal Control recommendations of the last two years; failure to make any serious attempt to explain possible reasons for the perceived shortage; and delay in sending the final fiscal 1998 (June) payment to the Treasurer until September 1998, claiming it was lost in the mail.

Numerous other alleged discrepancies were also revealed: members under 60 allowed to become Life Members; accepting dues at an older rate than currently charged; continuing Cribbage World subscriptions after memberships have ceased; processing delays in issuing current membership cards to members. etc.

At least we're solvent and continuing to do business as usual.

Needless to say, the ACC Executive Committee acted promptly, suspending Monroe and appointing Larry Hassett as new Membership Secretary to straighten out the whole mess. He'll be very busy for the next 60 days, so if anyone has any particular or peculiar membership problem, let me know about it at 10826 W. Thunderbird Blvd., Sun City, AZ 85351-2646. Call (602) 972-6848; Fax (702) 933-2378; or via e-mail: evbey@starlink.com.

Meanwhile, keep peggin'... Ev Bey

But when the playoffs were winding down after two grueling days of playoff action, only Lloyd "Gabby" Kraft and Al Lindner were at the finals table. Kraft, a Grand Master from Seymour, WI, was down to his last hand (the match was tied at 3-3). The odds were long, indeed, at he needed 16 to win with first count. He held 10-10-Q-Q, and held his breath. Only a jack cut could save the match. And Lindner held a jack in his hand, giving "Gabby" only three chances to cut the winning card in the 40-card pack on the table. "Gabby" has paid his cribbage dues with many years of outstanding pegging, and the cribbage gods came through with the jack! Winning 4-3, Kraft took home the grand salami....$10,000! And 315 MRP's to boot!

Alan Lindner's 2nd prize was a whopper...and his 252 MRP's will toss his hat in the annual MRP race as well. This Wisconsin pegger directs many tournaments, in addition to his prowess on the boards.

Frank Bodogh (NY & Canada) and Leo Rutledge (CA) came home 3-4. Each pegger earned huge prizes...and 196 MRP's.

Earning large prizes in the 5-8 bracket were: Jim Blough (MI), Grand Master Charley Rapoza (MA), Allen Bailey (MI), and Linda Swiontek (CA).

An unbelievable 814 peggers were on hand for the following Consolation. Grand Master Jim Gogolin (OR) came home the winner in this huge event (only the ACC Open will be larger this cribbage year). The win came with 135 MRP's, placing Gogolin among the nation's MRP leaders for this cribbage year. Alaskan Henry Carle nailed 2nd, with two Californians in 3-4...Len Wahlig and Grand Master Jones Hom.

The Sands Regency, once again, were great hosts to the ACC, with Barbara Woodward's expertise aiding immensely in the management of the tourney. Joan and Jim Rein (TOC), Scott Kooistra, Roy and Jeanne Hofbauer (ACC Open), and scores of helpers ran another first class event...and next year, the Sands promises more playing area, giving everyone a shot at winning the greatest cribbage match on earth!

Vignettes from Reno

Players whiling away time from the pegging action did their share of playing the slot machines. Bob Drukman (MA) slipped a quarter in a machine (his first quarter) and bingo! $240! Cindy Veradt (MA) hit a royal flush for $1,385...and One-Star Harry Palmer (MA) nailed another for over $2,000! Jim Rein (MN) also hit a $2,000 jackpot. Bob Morganti (CA) did likewise to the tune of $1,335. But the champ of the slots was Sandra Stroup (IL)...she hit three royal flushes in short order for a nifty $4,700!

And how about Bill Medieros's shirts? His gambling shirts are outstanding. First a black one, then a nifty red one the next day! He hails from Massachusetts.

Ted Hokenson (MI) nailed the meet's only 29-hand early on Saturday morning. This gem is the ACC's 8th of this cribbage year...and nets Hokenson a nice $100!

A woman was overheard telling her opponent that she had made her husband a millionaire by wagering on her cribbage games! She went on to elaborate..."and he used to be a billionaire!"

CW's editor was playing Brian McCoy (MA) and he couldn't resist tweaking his nose, "Hey, you know, I'm a Hatfield!" Quick as a wink, McCoy retorted, "No, I don't think so, there are none left!"

Willie Evans (WA) was playing Helen Railsback, and noted her long, spindly pistol pegs. He asked, "Do those ever fall out?" Helen, taken aback, took a quick look at her bosom, and stammered, "Uh, no, not lately!"

Bob and Shari Wikstron (WA) were on hand and they were celebrating their 40th wedding anniversary.

Mike Kuvaas (OR) was on a roll...he scored a 28-hand on Friday, and came back with another on Saturday!

Larry Samet had a neat peg sequence. Holding a 6-2-2-2, his opponent led a 9. The pegging: 9-6-J-2-2-2! for a nice 12 pegs! His opponent scored 1.

Dwight Christiansen (CT) and Mike Barrett (WI) took turns dealing the other an A-4-5-6 of spades (within 3 deals).

Charles Burgess, Jr (RI) and Dorothy Mickow (WA) both earned their Masters at this meet. And with the huge crowd, there may be several more players earning honors.

Donna LaFleur (CT) is at home in Nevada, as gambling is legal. She tallied up some 67 side bets on her qualifying card. Whew! Just running down all those players settling the wagers must be quite a chore!

28 hands? Vrigil Dulin (NC), Garry Peterson (CA), Jill Kraatz (CA), Dale Kochenburg (CA), Perry Stump (FL), Bryan Riches (NV), Mike Kuvaas (OR)(2), John Dawes (CA), and Ron Hamilton (KS).

Memories of Mick

It was sad to hear about "Mick" Michaelis passing. I really didn't think about it too much until I got my new membership card and I put it in my wallet. I had a dollar bill inside...that dollar bill is so special and will stay with my membership card forever. Several years ago I played a game with "Mick" for $1. I was so proud to beat him that I made him sign the bill! That $1-bill is so special, and I will keep it forever. "Mick" will live in my life forever.

Just thought I'd pass this on, that I have a lucky $1-bill!

Shirley Fitzpatrick
Milwaukee, WI

Shirley, yes indeed, Mick was a very special person! Not only was he a gifted cribbage player, but his sportsmanship was topnotch. We traded bills in our friendly games over the years...and now I wish I had one that was signed by him.

And along these lines, I have a special "friend" out in the Northwest. A gentleman by the name of Jim Sime (Kennewick, WA). We always play for $5 a pop...and when he wins, he makes me sign the bill. After several years, he confessed he keeps a scrapbook with these bills...and it is overflowing! This& has a retirement plan based on my poor play! Ed.

Pacific Coast Championship XII Kochenburg Cops Salinas Event

Master pegger Dale Kochenburg from nearby San Jose nailed the 12th edition of the Pacific Coast Championship, held in Salinas, CA in mid-January. Barry Robson (CA) came close, but settled for 2nd in this 120-player event. Tony Ivelich (CA) and Richard Wardenburg (CA) took home 3-4.

Ron Graham won 17 of 22 (35 GP's) in the qualifying round to take honors.

74 peggers played the Consolation, with Jack Shumate III (CA) winning the event. Anne Sheeran (CA), Mel Ashley (CA), and Bruce Fein (CA) came home 2-3-4.

Director H. Ross Njaa had a full slate of satellite events. The winners:

Friday: Sheldon Njaa (CA)

Saturday: John Mock (CA)

Early Bird: Jim Langley (CA)

All-Events: Fred Drena (CA)

Team: B. Julian, M. Herrmann, B. Wakeman, J. Jarrell

28's: B. Snyder, R. Njaa, T. Haag

Director Njaa's son Sheldon played his first tournament on Friday night...and came away the winner! Njaa sported yet another large crowd, attesting to a well-run event.

Ike Endicott Runs Table At Kah-Nee-Ta

Ike Endicott, Bend, OR, was on a roll at the Kah-Nee-Ta resort in central Oregon on January 23-24. Not only did he post a great 35 15/22 +213 qualifying score to take honors, he came out on top winning the playoffs as well. Ray Rangila (OR) was the last victim of Endicott's run, and finished 2nd. Master Phil True (WA) and Master Mickey Griffin (NE) finished 3-4 in this 66-player event.

Director Jim Waldorf won 8 of 9 in the Consolation qualifying round, but Graeme Gossett (OR) came home the winner in the playoffs. David Frantz (OR), Waldorf (OR), and Master Todd Malmgren (OR) finished 2-3-4.

The satellites:

Friday: Leslie Hein (OR)

Doubles: Bob & Sandy St. Yves (OR)

High Roller: Rod Marshall (WA)

28's: P. Hatcher, T. Nelson, D. Shadley

This event is played at one of the ACC's most beautiful playing areas. This resort is complete with hot pools, golf, and gaming...and for those peggers looking for a "get-a-way" this is the spot!

NORTH POLE OPEN

Life Master Jeff Shimp Tops In Appleton

Life Master Jeff Shimp, Nashville, IN won his 6th sanctioned main event in Appleton, WI on January 24. The event is called the North Pole Open, and with snow, ice, rain, and sleet outside the playing hall, the event is appropriately named.

But inside the hall, Shimp's cards were hot as he ran for the title. One-Star Duane Toll (WI) was trying for his 11th win, but fell short and took home 2nd in this 110-player event. Tony Danihel (WI) and Bob Brown (WI) came home 3-4.

Mark Habighorst (WI) is on a roll this cribbage year, and with his top-qualifying score (37 17/22 +185) earning 55 MRP's, has zipped well over the 400 MRP mark.

Life Master Martha Fingleton (WI) was hot in the Consolation qualifying round, winning 8 of 9, but when the playoffs were finished, Fran Froelich (WI) came out on top. Carol Habighorst (WI) nailed down 2nd, followed by Tom Button (WI) and Jeff Lui (WI) in 3-4.

Director Gene Mikulsky had a full array of satellites. The winners:

Friday: Lyle Roberts (WI)

Saturday: Wayne Owen (WI)

28's: E. Perez, J. Wussow

Jones Hom Horror Story

Jones Hom lives in sunny California (Fairfield) and he left home at 8 AM for the Kah-Nee-Ta event in central Oregon. At noon his car dies, and a tow truck replaced the fluids in his radiator. No lunch, as two hours were lost. 2 PM: Dunsmuir, CA, starting to snow heavily. Reach Klamath Falls, OR, and spun out...spun out again 10 miles later. Fellow motorists help him get back on the road. 6 PM: blizzard, can't see signs, drive 50 miles on wrong road. 9 PM: arrive back at proper junction, road blocked by overturned truck. 11 PM: on his way again at 25 MPH. 3:15 AM: after missing breakfast, lunch and dinner, arrive at Kah-Nee-Ta...some 19 hours after leaving home on a 450 mile trip.

3-3-3!

Western Region All-Stars Even Match

The recent 9th Annual All-Star game kicked off the gala weekend of pegging action in Reno on February 4th.

With the Western Region trailing in this series 3-3-2, they came prepared to even the series...and they did! This 8-man team pegged with consistency and came through with a narrow win over a star-studded Central Region squad. Each team played 128 games (a game each with the other two regional teams, 8 players vs. 16 = 128). The Western squad posted a 69-59 score, the Central team had 64-64, and the Eastern team scored 59-69.

Russell Adams, a Life Master from Minnesota posted the top score, winning 11 of 16 with 2 skunks, closely followed by Duane Toll (WI) and DeLynn Colvert (MT). They posted 11 wins with 1 skunk. Roger Wilson (CO) aided the Western win with 10 wins, with Paul Hatcher (OR) and Bob Clark (CA) adding 9 wins. No one "bombed" on the Western squad...and the score is now 3-3-3!

Oops! 0 for 16!

Betty Schaeffer is one of Florida's leading peggers. She was stunned at the recent Tournament of Champions when her cards went "south." She posted an 0 for 16!

Never Give Up!

Steven Post (MN) had a dismal morning round at the Eau Claire Classic. He had 10 GP's after 14 games. He figured he had to win the remaining 8 games with two skunks...and that is exactly what he did! His 28 GP card qualified!

Correction

Charley Finley!

Last month's Cribbage World made a gross mistake...and in bold headlines on the front cover!

It read:

Elinor Breen Wins Holiday Classic

It should have read:

Charley Finley Wins Holiday Classic

And not only that, George Webb, a Life Master from Avon, MA took 2nd, followed by Life Master Bill Medeiros (MA) and Al Grenon, Jr (RI) in 3-4!

Evidently, CW was reading the qualifying round form, and not the playoff form. What next? CW apologizes to these players (Finley is a Grand Master and not to be trifled with)...and Master Elinor Breen can frame the February issue or use it to collect bar bets!

132 In W. Springfield Doris Perkins Cops Super Lite

Doris Perkins earned her Grand Master in grand style...she took home the championship at the recent Super Lite Open in W. Springfield, MA. In besting the large field of 132 peggers, Perkins carted home 196 MRP's...more than enough to wing it over the 4,000 MRP mark for Grand Master.

Shawn Jordan (MA) took home 2nd, followed by Life Master Al Miller (NH) and Grand Master Phil Martin (CT) in 3-4.

Dick West (MA) also earned his Grand Master by taking qualifying round honors...a nice 22 GP card in the 12-game event.

72 players had at it in the Consolation, with Grand Master Peter Setian (MA) posting an extra nuce 17 GP card in the 8-game round, taking qualifying honors. Larry Harmon (CT) won the playoffs, with One-Star Harry Palmer (MA), Craton Sheffield (MA) and Tossie Shea (MA) in 2-3-4.

Charley Finely and Jim Law run a first-class event, and reported that only R. Chaz Meniak (NY) and Bruce Hassan (CT) could come away with a 28-hand.

Grand Master Sharlene Medeiros Wins Virginia Championship

Sharlene Medeiros, a Grand Master from Shrewsbury, MA came home the winner at the recent Virginia Championship, played at Chester, VA on January 9-10. With the win comes 147 MRP's (100 players), and Medeiros has zipped to the 2nd spot in the Eastern Region. Her total for this cribbage year is at the 600 mark, giving her a shot at this year's national championship...and All-American honors.

Life Master George Bickford (MA) finished 2nd, followed by Rosemary Glendon (VA) and Wayne Myers (NJ) in 2-3-4. Kelly Breedlove (VA) won 17 of 20 in the qualifying round to take honors...and 70 MRP's!

St. Croix V Les Kvien Nails Casino Action

Les Kvien, pegging out of Vernon Hills, IL, came home the winner at the 5th St. Croix Classic, played at Turtle Lake, WI on February 21. This match, once again, played to a full house (180 players). Kvien's final playoff match had him pitted against Todd Schaefer, a Master pegger from Minneapolis and a member of the 1997 All-American team. However, newlywed Kvien came home the winner, picking up a sizeable purse...and 252 MRP's.

Bob Kiley (WI) and Mike Burns (MN) nailed down 3rd and 4th.

Arlene Barrett (WI) was on track to crack the 22-game Grand Slam barrier (4,000,000 to 1 odds), coming out of the blocks in the qualifying round winning her first 14 games, but cooled slightly and came home with a great 40 18/22 +223 score to take honors.

Some 98 players played the Consolation, and Al Stanek (ND) took home the top prize. Babe O'Gorman (MN) nailed 2nd, followed by Judith Klabunde (MN) and One-Star Duane Toll (WI) in 3-4.

Another newlywed, Deb Kvien (IL), scored a great 20 9/9 +160 to take qualifying honors...and the meet's only Grand Slam. This gem earned a $100 bonus from the St. Croix Casino.

And speaking of bonus's...this Casino paid out 259 24-hand prizes at $25 each, 8 28-hand prizes at $250 each, in addition to the Kvien $100 Grand Slam. That totals a whopping $8,575!

Life Master Syl Lulinski (IL) began the assault on the special prizes by scoring a $250 28-hand on the third deal of the first game Friday night. Others scoring this $250 gem were Helen Railsback, Bob Chase, Les Kvien, Nancy Zachavake, Jim Stricker, Pat Barrett, and L. J. Angiers. Railsback's 28-hand was in the crib...but, alas, no extra cash for that!

Director Alan Lindner had the usual satellite events. The winners:

Friday: Bob Chase (MN) 19 8/9 +179

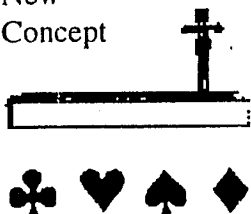

Saturday: Bob Julian (WI) 19 8/9 +179
(Notice the identical scores!)

Life Master Bob Julian (WI) put on a show on Saturday, winning 18 of 22 in the Main qualifying round, and another 8 of 9 Saturday night. He very nearly hogged all the side pools, winning well over $3,000 for the day's play!

Alan Lindner, Vickie Long, and a host of volunteers, once again, put on a real show...and with the Casino's largess in awarding bonus's, these events will undoubtedly continue to sell out.

Membership Secretary Scandal

On January 31, 1999 the Executive Committee announced that Larry Hassett had been appointed Membership Secretary of the American Cribbage Congress effective immediately. He succeeds Jeff Monroe who was relieved of his duties after an audit on January 30, 1999 showed substantial shortage of ACC funds.

The Executive Committee authorized the emergency review of the Membership Secretary's accounts and records based upon the auditor's 1997 and 1998 internal control recommendations and significant failure to follow through by the Membership Secretary in implementing the recommendations and explaining the possible shortage of funds in his (ACC Membership) account.

The audit was performed by ACC Treasurer Fred McGibney and auditor Roger Wilson at the Napa, California office of Monroe. The report to the Executive Committee stated, "We visited the Membership Secretary's office on January 30, 1999 and were immediately confronted with a 'bombshell!'"

Membership Secretary, Jeff Monroe, indicated that in early December 1998 the Internal Revenue Service had attached the Membership dues account due to the Membership Secretary's other outside interests not related to the ACC. The Membership Secretary said the IRS was able to attach the account because the account, while having the ACC's name on it, was set up as a business account by the Membership Secretary using his own personal Social Security Number.

They asked for a copy of the IRS documentation of the levy but were told by the Membership Secretary that he had given all paperwork to his attorney and didn't keep any copies for himself. They requested and were given the attorney's name, address and telephone number. When asked why he hadn't reported the IRS action (when it happened) to the ACC's Board of management, the Membership Secretary's response was that he was embarrassed and was attempting to recover the funds before notifying anyone. Bank statements provided to the auditors showing the IRS attachment of a substantial amount were later proven to have been falsified.

Details of this matter were revealed and discussed at the ACC's Board Meeting in Reno, Nevada on February 4, 1999 at which time the Executive Committee was authorized to take whatever action is needed to resolve the situation.

Grass Roots Controversy Resolved

The ACC is proud of the Grass Roots Program and we believe it will continue to grow and prosper under its present leadership.

The so called controversy between the American Cribbage Congress and the Grass Roots Program has apparently been resolved without any sides designated as winners or losers.

When the new Grass Roots Manual is revised there will be at least three definite changes:

1- The cover will have the ACC logo on it and the name of the Grass Roots Cribbage Program changed to either, "The American Cribbage Congress Grass Roots Program" or, "The Grass Roots Cribbage Program of the American Cribbage Congress."

2- The Grass Roots Program of the American Cribbage Congress is the hometown component of the American Cribbage Congress and not a separate organization as some perceive it to be.

3- The Ethics Committee of the ACC and the Grass Roots Cribbage Program's Board of Volunteers will establish a committee to develop precedures.

We recommend tabling any further revisions to the manual until presented for review by the entire ACC Board of Directors at the September, 1999 meeting.

Players Suspended

Jeff Monroe, Napa, CA, has been notified by the Chairman of the Ethics Committee that he has been suspended from participation in ACC sanctioned tournaments and Grass Roots play.

Mike Galante, Reno, NV, has also been suspended by action of the Ethics Committee.

Christmas Present Deck Hot

Greg Schleusner (CA) gave his 6-year old daughter Amy a deck of cards for a Christmas gift. Playing her dad a game of cribbage, the very first hand dealt by Amy from this new deck resulted in a 28-hand...for dad!

Ref: "Cash Awards" in Jan. CW President's Column. I don't see a problem. We employ cash awards during our weekly tourneys. We use the Floating Pin for a 24-hand. The pegger holding the Pin at the end of 9 games is rewarded with $25. We also utilize the Grand Slam as well as 28 and 29-hands with awards from our "Incentive Pot." Our members enjoy the awards programs and I don't know of anyone that has rolled over as a result of awards. To the contrary, if a pegger is nearing a Grand Slam, every effort is made to stop the win streak. We also have a drawing for the skunk pot at unannounced meetings.

We feel these added perks enhance our evening as well as increase our membership.

There may be a tendency to go for broke if your cards have been terrible and after 6 or 7 games you have won only three games of a 9-game card. This may cause you to draw for the 24-hand. Of course, that's your prerogative, to play your hand as you wish.

Ward J. Hanna

Grand Rapids, Michigan
Ward passed away February 11 at the age of 89. He not only loved being a member of GR 71 in Grand Rapids, he was leading in Master Points this season. He recently scored a Grand Slam, and the day before he died, won 8 of 9. He was a true gentleman, and his humor, his always present smile, and the twinkle in his eyes will be missed.

Doris Denny Plugs Microsoft Gaming Zone

Doris Denny confided to Cribbage World that she is hooked on the Internet's Microsoft Gaming Zone.

She says they have competitive ladders of achievement (standings, etc.) for cribbage and bridge. Since joining the fray, she has moved up from 287th to 122nd in cribbage...and she is currently on a hot streak, winning 7 in a row!

Doris also is amazed at finding so many players who are not familiar with the ACC. With that in mind, she has set about getting a cruise lined up pitting Internet players against ACC members (see ad, this issue.)

Central Region Grass Roots Alive and Well

CW editor DeLynn Colvert made a swing through Wisconsin in early February and found their Grass Roots program humming.

The Milwaukee club sports, arguably, the best players in America and on February 16 One-Star Warren Sondericker took honors (after winning a doubles event earlier in the week...and $2,000!). On February 17 in Greenwood, WI, Lee Lamarr took the top prize. On Thursday, Feb. 18, in Wisconsin Rapids, Duane Jacobs nailed the event with a nice 18 8/9 +82.

And how did two-star Colvert perform? He got waxed in all three events!

Crazy Game

Scott Nordlund (MN) was playing a friend...and bingo! A 29-hand early on for Scott! His friend wanted to give the game up and start a new one, but Scott cajoled him to continue on with the game.

Oops...Scott got skunked! Never give up!

New Term

In Wisconsin farm country, they have self-balers...but what about a self-unbaler? At the Sportsman Pub in Wisconsin Rapids, the congenial bartender asked CW editor what is a self un-baler?

Of course a sheepherder from Montana wouldn't know the answer to that one. The bartender said, "This is a hand that has four cards that play well together (e.g. 4-4-5-6) and another two cards that play well in the crib (e.g. 8-8).

So, when in Wisconsin farm country and your opponent says he has a self-unbaler...look out!

Ken died unexpectedly at his home in Bensenville recently. He was well-known in the midwest for his skill on the boards and offbeat sense of humor. He was nearing his Grand Master (3,800 MRP's) and had won the huge MGM Open in Green Bay (1995). According to friend Martha Fingleton, "He was described as not having a lot, but was one of the richest men I've known!"

Rutkin, Kumetat Champions!

16 year-old Tyler Rutkin, Sonora, CA, took home the bacon in the 15-and-older category, and 13 year-old Woody Kumetat, Sonora, CA won the 14 and under category at the recent 6th Annual Sierra Youth Tournament in Sonora, CA on Feb. 20.

Jennifer Conery (15), Casey Kerr (13), Andrew Romeo (15) and Amy Seifert (13) came close. The Consolation events were won by Jared Martin (16) and Thomas Beasley (12).

All participants received a long-board, compliments of the Sands in Reno (and Barbara Woodward).

Yahoo Cribbage

I recently got on live with my computer and I play cribbage almost every evening against different opponents in the USA and Canada.

I do this under Yahoo Games and see 400 to 500 players every evening. Everyone I play I ask, "Are you a member if the ACC?" No one knows what I am talking about!

*Stan Bochinski
Tonawanda, NY*

You know, Stan, this would be a wonderful place to advertise the Congress. This program has an advertising band at the top, and I would certainly vote to place the ACC's ad there! And this program hosts thousands of cribbage players daily! A truly neat way to reach our select audience! Ed.

Reward Close Games

I have been playing cribbage for many, many years so what I am about to suggest should not be construed as the thoughts of a Johnny-come-lately. My experience of these many years doesn't make me a better player, as my points show, but I do think and wonder, as these ravings will attest.

I have always wondered why they give an extra point for a skunk. Anyone who has played cribbage for a while knows that only the Cribbage Gods are responsible for a skunk and skill plays only a small part. What kind of brains does it take if you are holding 7-7-8-9 and your opponent is holding 2-6-8-J and you cut an 8? Oh, some players will argue that the skill comes in when you are trying to keep your opponent from crossing into 4th street, but you must realize that you had to be getting good hands and good cuts to be in that position that you are so far ahead of him. And even if he does cross over that line, you still will wind up with two points. So, you are not losing that much. I know most tournaments are won and lost on that one point, so I have an alternative.

I think winning a game by one point is the hardest thing to do in cribbage, so why don't we give the winner of a one-point match, three points? That way we will all know that the player really earned that extra point and it wasn't all luck. I would also suggest that the loser be awarded one point, but that might seem too radical.

I know a change like this would never go through, but I would like to throw it out to the Congress and see what they think. Thank you for allowing me to express myself.

*Sam Shwartz
Foxboro, MA*

Well, Sam, you certainly make an interesting point. All I can say is that a skunk win is about 12-1, and winning a game is even odds (skill levels being equal, of course). So we reward the long shot with the extra game point...and besides, old Sir John Suckling is turning over in his grave when he hears talk of changing his game (the old-time rule was "double for skunks!"). Members of the ACC, let's hear it for Sam's idea. By the way, this has already been kicked around in years past. Ed.

Larry Hassett Off And Running

As most of you know, I have been assigned the duties of the ACC Membership Secretary. We are still in the process of getting everything transferred. The following is where we stand today (Mid-February).

The 1-888-PEGGING number will stay the same. The local phone line is connected and Jeff is having the 888 number transferred to the new number. Hopefully it will be functioning on or about Feb. 16.

The local phone number has been changed to (541) 673-4210.

The e-mail is now: ACC@mcsi.net

Jeff has promised to give the Post Office a change of address so the mail will be forwarded to the new address. This will be verified within a week. The new address:

ACC Membership Secretary
PO Box 5194
Roseburg, OR 97470

By February 15, I should have the database and all other pertinent software, and begin recording new and renewal membership applications. Estimates from various local print shops are being gathered to print new forms. New forms must be acquired before new membership cards can be issued and/or renewal notices sent. Hopefully this process will be done by the end of February.

Getting all accounts opened and transferred is the first priority. Next will be to get the mailing labels for the CW and for mailing ballots. With a little luck, we will be functional by the end of February.

We have new membership forms ready for Grass Roots clubs and tournament directors. I will keep you posted if there are any significant changes.

*Larry Hassett
Membership Chairman*

Larry is really off and running! CW checked with him as we go to press for this March issue...and he has installed a new mailing system (bar coded) that will save the Congress about $400 per month in mailing costs! A quick check of our back page shows the changes! Cribbage World doffs its hat to Larry for getting this system installed on such short notice. The ACC is blessed with players who have a multitude of talents...and are hard workers! Ed.

Lost Board

Calvin Braun flew from Buffalo, NY to Detroit, and then to Reno for the ACC Open on Northwest airlines.

He lost a folding plastic cribbage board somewhere along the way. A check of Lost and Found departments failed to materialize the board.

If any ACC member aboard these flights have found this board, please return to Calvin Braun, 3874 S. Park Ave., Blasdell, NY 14219. He will re-imburse any costs for mailing.

Yes, 6-6-6-6-6!

Once again, CW has goofed. The Annamarie Walker game on internet was incorrectly reported. CW blindly copied Linton Walker's description...and it just can't be so! The deck does not contain five 6's! Linton, old pal, you've done it to me again! Could you get me the straight skinny on this hand?

And to Charley Finley, Lloyd Stinson, and others...good catch! (Maybe CW is just testing our membership to see if they are reading the publication!?)

New Judges

These new Judges are certified using the ACC Book of Rules:

Donald Bly, Rapid City, SD
Kay Buie, Carmichael, CA
Ralph Hagen, Casper, WY
Louis Kessler, Odenton, MD
William Pope, Citrus Heights, CA
Alan Vredevelt, Muskegon, MI
Bob Wilson, Fircrest, WA

Effective August 1, 1998, the Judges Certification and Re-certification exams will be directed towards the 1998 Rule Book. Please do not seek the new Rule Books from your Testing Examiner.

As a reminder to take the ACC Judges Examination, send $3 to:

Speeding Up the Game and Pegging Tips

Don Smith, an avid pegger from Oregon City, OR, recently wrote two lengthy letters on how to speed up the game...and pegging etiquette.

He feels that "rehashing the last hand" can be a problem. Play and count the hand, and leave the speculation for what might have been for a later time. And when counting your hand, simply condense the counting and lay your cards face up for verification. For example, you have a double run with knobs, say "nine" and peg the hand. Don't say "a double run of three for six, a pair, and knobs for nine." If your opponent is confused, or a beginner, allow extra time for this verification.

Smith also writes about pegging etiquette. When pegging, always leave your cards face up so your opponent can verify the count, and peg at a reasonable speed. Allow time for verification before turning and pegging your crib hand. And, of course, do not mix your hand and crib cards before this verification is complete. Be a good sport and allow your opponent ample time to check your pegging...and keep the cards exposed for easy checking. And above all, do not turn your cards face down while pegging.

Raggedy-Ann in Canada?

Harold Buckley, a Master pegger from Canada says they call Raggedy-Ann (1-1-6-7-8) "Cincinnati" in Canada. He does not know the origination of this name.

Cal Ripken, Move Over...

Many cribbers know full well that Cal Ripken, the Baltimore Oriole infielder, has set a record for consecutive games played, but what about Grass Roots consecutive games played?

Patrick Barrett writes CW to report that his father, Jack Barrett, has played 2,907 consecutive games in Grass Roots play (Club 120).

His streak was from September 27, 1990 until December 10, 1998. Only knee surgery could keep 70-year old Jack from play! He is a Bronze Award winner and patriarch of the Barrett family. He taught his offspring the game of cribbage, and the newest player, 19-year young Nicholas Barrett (step-grandson) just happened to take 1st place on the night of Jack's absence.

Family's that play together, stay together. Cribbage fever, catch it!

Frank Lilliman Teaches Cribbage

Way up north in Canada, Frank Lilliman is teaching 5th and 6th graders cribbage. His Hamilton, Ontario peggers are quoted:

"Cribbage is really fun. It teaches you a lot about counting and especially helps you with quick addition. It's a thinking game. You need a lot of concentration. I taught my cousins, my sister and my mom. We play at home now. I downloaded the game from internet and I play at home all the time."

Lillian reported more comments, and thanks Dan Zeisler for his instruction booklet. Anyone interested in teaching cribbage in schools, contact Zeisler at: 21429 Montgomery Rd., Sonoma, CA 95370.

Two Topics...

I have two topics I would like to address. The first being conflict between this years' Grand National and seven tournaments which took place in 1998. These directors should think about re-scheduling in 1999. The seven tournaments held during the 2nd weekend of September 1998 were the Gateway to Sierras Classic, Wisconsin Dells Classic, Capital City Classic, Pensacola Beach Open, Blue Mountain Open, Season Opener, and the Hawaiian Open. GN XVIII will be held in Las Vegas on September 10-12, 1999, thus taking a weekend rarely used for past Grand National Tournaments. I have moved the Wisconsin Dells Classic into mid-October and I hope other directors can find an open weekend for theirs.

In response to ACC Testing Examiner Al Miller's letter warning judges to be more alert during judges calls brings to mind two important things I have learned as a judge. Always have 2 judges with rule books at every judging call. Many of us think we can rule on problems without looking them up, but no one that I know has memorized the entire rule book, especially the latest one. Also, new judges should be eager to be involved in all situations but be patient and precise in your decisions. I have seen judges eager to "get on with it" as they think they are falling behind in their game, are nervous, or just want to get it over with. Experience helps all of the ACC judges and I feel there are far more correct calls than bad ones but the bad ones may cost any one of us dearly someday.

Cribbage or Bingo?

Rae Fedde, a California pegger, was having a bad morning in the Main event at the Reynolds Christmas Wrap.

After a particularly bad game, she said, "I am going to play bingo where I have more control."

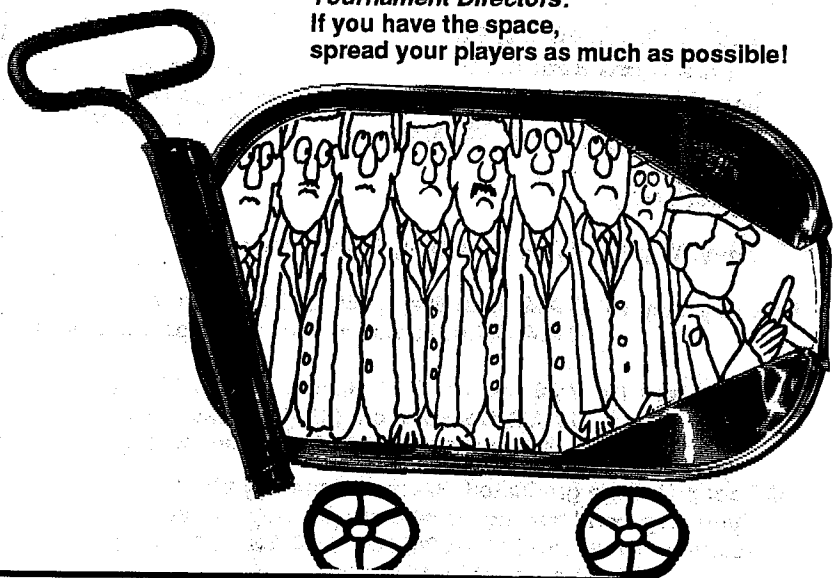

The funny part...she went and played bingo that evening...and won $250!

Wisconsin Players The Best?

The last three Joseph Petrus wergin/ACC Open's have been won by Wisconsin peggers...and all three have carted home $10,000!

Does this mean that Wisconsin produces the best cribbage players? They certainly have a good case.

Tournament Directors:

Heading For Georgia

According to Jack Allison (GA), the price of gasoline has dropped to 66.9 cents a gallon in some parts of Georgia. Now is a good time to hit the road for tournament action in the deep south!

Brunner Tops Valentine Special

Todd Brunner, St. Paul, MN, took home the "Valentine," compliments of the other 101 players at the Valentine Day Special in Maplewood, MN. In winning this event, Brunner took home a sizeable award, a trophy board, and 147 MRP's. His final playoff match pitted him against Norm Mineau (MN). In finishing 2nd, Mineau garnered 105 MRP's. Don Patrin (MN) and Derald Feda (MN) took home 3-4.

Dean Rude (MN) nailed the qualifying round, winning 12 of 14 to take honors.

Two-Star DeLynn Colvert (MT) zipped to the Consolation win (66 players), nipping Jerry Fischer (WI) in the final playoff match. Tom Larson (MN) and Earl Fox (MN) nailed 3-4.

Side pool action saw Dean Rude, Mike Burns, and Bob Julian score quite well.

Director Jerry Gruber, once again, had a nice one-day crowd on hand, and the event was well-organized, with great paybacks. Mark your calendars for next year's Valentine's Day action...you may take home your valentine!

Hutton Tops Hawaii Championship

Local George Hutton nailed the December Hawaii Championship, besting some 26 players. He took home 70 MRP's for the win...and bragging rights. Daniel Ogden (HI), Master Len Wahlig (CA), and Caroline Miuka (HI) finished 2-3-4.

Mary Jane Esera (HI) won the Grass Roots satellite.

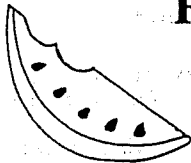

Great Finisher...and Starter

Paul Halsrud (SD) wound down last year's Grass Roots action by scoring a nifty Grand Slam on the last session.

And Paul Halsrud began the new Grass Roots season by scoring another Grand Slam...in the first session!

Mel Norton (SD) scored an unusual "Queen-Ann" during last season's play. He held A-6-7-8 of clubs and cut the ace of spades, for the unusual 17-hand!

These two peggers play in Rapid City with GR 96. John Bakeberg, the director of this club, keeps 'em pegging in the South Dakota grasslands.

Awards

Doris Perkins, Richard West Earn Grand Master Gerald Hahn, Jr., Richard Munro, Charles Burgess, Jr., Dorothy Mickow, and Eileen Shine Earn Master

Seven ACC players have reached levels of achievement this past month:

Doris Perkins, Quincy, MA: Doris reached the 4,000 MRP plateau by winning the large Super Lite event in W. Springfield, MA on January 24. She becomes the 117th ACC member to attain Grand Master.

Richard West, Attleboro, MA: Richard earned 40 MRP's by taking qualifying honors at the Super Lite...and becomes the 118th player to reach Grand Master.

The huge JPW/ACC Open in Reno awarded bushels of MRP's, and five ACC members earned their Master rating. They are: Gerald Hahn, Jr., Winston, OR; Richard Mike Munro, Marinette, WI; Charles A. Burgess, Jr., E. Greenwich, RI; Dorothy Mickow, Vancouver, WA; and Eileen Shine, Bend, OR. The ACC now has 381 Master peggers.

Julian, Colvert in Dead Heat

Two old war horses in cribbage play are setting the pace this cribbage year. Two-time national champion Bob Julian, a Life Master from Milwaukee, WI, and four-time national champion DeLynn Colvert, a Two-Star player from Missoula, MT, are in a virtual dead-heat this cribbage year. Both players stand at 865 MRP's after tit-for-tat head-to-head matches in Minnesota and Wisconsin this past month.

Not far behind are four players at the 600 mark. Young Jason Shumate (CA) earned All-American honors last year...and is on track for another run for the roses this year. He stands at 606. Tied at 606 is George "Ras" Rasmussen (WA), and he, too, earned All-American last year and is bidding for a repeat. Former National Champion Duane Toll (WI) is a One-Star player and he, too, is at 606, and a veteran of the cribbage wars. He has earned All-American four times and the title in 1987. Another veteran pegger, Life Master Larry Samet (MA) is standing at 600. He earned All-American honors in 1992, and is on track for another this cribbage year.

Eight ACC peggers have topped 500 MRP's this cribbage year. They are: Grand Master Jones Hom (CA); Grand Master Sharlene Medeiros (MA); Master Donna Hassett (OR); Grand Master Wayne Steinmetz (WI); Master Michael Rowe (AK); Grand Master Richard West (MA); Grand Master Joe Ramos (RI) and Life Master Stephen Reynolds (CA).

Some 23 other ACC peggers have topped the 400 MRP mark for this cribbage year, and are still in the running for All-American honors. The ACC has a multitude of events on tap for the remainder of the year, and honors are up for grabs. Cribbage fever. catch it!

Old Rules

Russell Ziolkowski, Springfield, OR, mailed CW an old, yellowed set of cribbage rules, that was published circa 1940 by the Milton Bradley Company (MA).

The total set of rules fits into 22" of type (4 columns) and a scoring chart.

The ACC's new Book of Rules is 33-pages. We've come a long way in clarifying every possible problem that can arise during a game of cribbage...and yet new problems continue to rear their ugly heads from time to time.
