Las Vegas Grand National Record Breaker! Aird Wins XVIII

Grand Master Joe Aird, pegging out of Gladstone, Michigan, took on a record-breaking field of 678 peggers and came home the winner at the recent Grand National in Las Vegas. With the host Riviera Hotel and Casino buzzing with the nation's finest cribbage players, it all came down to Aird's final match with Valerie Sumner from upstate Sparks, Nevada. Aird's cards remained steady and he took home the 18th Grand National's top prize, a whopping 315 MRP's, a huge cash award...and bragging rights. His lifetime MRP's are approaching 5,000 and he is winging towards his Life Master. Sumner did quite well with a 2nd place finish, tacking on a nifty 252 MRP's, in addition to a sizeable purse for this high finish.

Denny Van Orsow, a Grand Master from Culver, OR, nailed 3rd, and is closing in on his Life Master (5,800 lifetime MRP's). Harry Gelson was a long way from his Rhode Island home, and paid for his trip to tinsel-town by finishing 4th. Craig Phipps (VA), Life Master Jeff Shimp (IN), Jeff Pask (CA) and Master Donald Flesch (WI) finished 5-8. Flesch very nearly earned Grand Master with his high finish.

Ginger Nelson directs the Madison, WI Masters Classic, and she proved to be a master pegger in her own right by taking top qualifying honors...a superlative 40 18/22 +273....and a $530 Q prize.

John Pask (CA) won 8 of 9 in the Consolation qualifying round (18 8/9 +135) to take honors in the huge 460-player event. But it was Grand Master Bill Hill, the pride of Hermiston, OR, taking home the marbles in the playoff action. Master Jerry Fischer (WI), Wayne Pinquoch (AK), and George Rodriguez (MT) came home 2-3-4.

Life Master Brian Heroux (RI) won the High Roller event at Grand National XII (Missoula, MT)...and he repeated again in GN XVIII...to the tune $2,115! One-Star Jesse Jarrell (CA), and Two-Star DeLynn Colvert (MT) nailed 10 of 12 to finish 2-3. Life Master Roger Wilson (CO) and Michael Hayden (CA) finished 1-2 in the Friday night event and cashed sizeable prizes.

13 28-hands showed, but nary a sign of a 29. The 28's: Ratso Roderick, Roy Cook, Joyce Miller, Betty Davis, Marilyn Massey, Orbin Hatton, Butch Billow, Dennis Bays, Tony Castanares, Ed Kramer, Cy Madrone, Bruce Page, and Kim Burnett.

Directors Bob Gromek, Bob Julian, Roy and Jeanne Hofbauer, and their fine staff did yeoman's work in directing this record-breaking event. Next year's Grand National XIX will be directed by veteran directors Al Lindner and Vickie Long in Eau Claire, Wisconsin.

The President's Column

Catherine Perkins

WHO?

Allow me to introduce myself. At the annual meeting of the ACC Board of Directors, the officers/executive committee members are elected to serve for a one year term. This year I have the honor of being elected to the office of President. In recent years you have read the comments and thoughts of the President in this column. My first column is intended to tell you a little about me and then I will retire the column.

However, I am very much interested in your opinions and comments. I invite all members of the ACC to write me at:

Catherine Perkins
1020 Barker Road
Bear Creek, NC 27207
cathyp@cheerful.com (email)

I was raised in a large family in the Boston area and we all learned to play cribbage at about age seven because my father insisted it would help us with our school work. Visits back to Massachusetts include many games of cribbage with the family and neighbors. Russ, my husband of 32 years, and I have lived in North Carolina since 1973. I am employed by the area Mental Health Board as a Developmental Therapist/Early Intervention Specialist. Basically, I work with families who have an infant at risk for developmental delays by going into their homes to teach parents how to aid in their child's development. In other words, I get to play with babies all day! This is a demanding and stressful job but the enjoyment I get from the cribbage weekends provides the respite that allows me to continue this vocation. Russ and I participate in 12-15 tournament a year, mostly on the east coast.

I began playing tournament cribbage at the 3rd National Open in Raleigh in 1976. The following year I was asked to serve on the judging committee and have assisted with operating this tournament ever since.

For the past 10 years I have been a co-director of this magnificent tournament. We are extremely proud that the ACC owes its beginnings to the National Open. I am also proud to be a charter member of the ACC. I have been on the Board of Directors since 1989. While I have served on many committees, the activity I am most proud of is that of being a member of the Rule's Committee and a senior judge. The concept of judging committees was adopted from the National Open where we had been encountering quagmires and compiling rules to manage these situations for several years prior to the formation of the ACC. In November 1980, at a tournament in Florida, the first ACC President, Joe Wergin, offered to take me to dinner if I would do him a big favor. Curious, I agreed. Following dinner, he presented me with a plan to certify judges for the ACC and gave me a draft of the first judge's examination to edit. It took a lot of editing. A few weeks later, a certificate stating that I was an "Official ACC Judge" arrived in the mail. I like to say that I am the first "Official ACC Judge." Since then I have had the honor of serving as head judge at numerous tournaments and as the first director of senior judges. At the breakfast meeting in Raleigh in 1979, at the birth of the ACC, the founders stated this goal; "Organize to protect cribbage players from exploitation, to standardize cribbage rules, and promote the game of cribbage." These are still the goals of the ACC and I pledge to continue to serve the membership to the best of my ability.

I like to say, "Anyone who comes to a cribbage tournament for anything but the fun is bound to go away disappointed." At tournaments I wish you all fun, fellowship and winning cribbage.

Catherine

Election of Officers

At the recent ACC Board of Directors Meeting in Las Vegas, the following officers were elected to a one-year term: President: Catherine Perkins; Executive Vice-President: Syl Lulinski; Vice-President, Policy: Paul Hatcher; Executive Vice-President, Operations: Patrick Barrett; Executive Member at Large: Jim Ready.

Ex-President Ev Bey has retired from the Board of Directors. His position on the Board of Directors has been filled by Todd Schaefer, St. Paul, Minnesota.

Vignettes

FROM LAS VEGAS

The Riviera Hotel/Casino had much to offer America's cribbage players...and there were winners...and losers galore. The luckiest of them all was Ladonna Govenor from Napa, CA. She won $35,000 playing "Let It Ride" poker. Holding a jack-queen, king of clubs, the dealer turned the ace and ten of clubs for that elusive royal flush...and a jackpot for Govenor.

Kevin Post, Minnetonka, MN, after losing his second round playoff match to eventual winner Joe Aird, decided to let cribbage rest a while and hit for the Pai Gow poker table. Not in a good mood, he bet an "envy" bet on his neighbor's hand. Nice lunch. His neighbor played a 7-card straight flush...and Post picked up $5,000! Take that, Joe Aird! And to top it off, the Riviera took Post to the airport in a stretch limo!

The Awards Banquet also set a record for attendance (217). Many players earned their Master, Grand Master, Life Master, and National Champ Bob Julian took home the ACC's 11th One-Star rating (10,000 lifetime MRPs). Perennial MC Scott Kooistra and Joan Rein ran a well-run ceremony...but it was Rollie Heath (OR) stealing the show. Winding down the banquet awards, he passed out the All-American team awards with gusto, roasting the players as they stood and waited for their framed awards. The crowd hooted and howled with delight...and Cribbage World wagers he will be begged to repeat his performance at next year's awards ceremony in Wisconsin.

The Riviera's playing hall was the largest-ever for a sanctioned event. This huge hall held the record 678-players with room to spare.

Retiring President Ev Bey received a standing ovation from the crowd after he kicked off the event with a rousing speech reminiscing about Las Vegas events played at the Riviera in the early 1980's. He mentioned the late Ray Meade, a Las Vegas player from years past. "The late Ray Meade must be looking down in awe and wonder. They promised me 600 players and I wouldn't believe it. Congratulations!" Bey concluded, "Now it's my pleasure to introduce your new President...Cathy Perkins. Good luck to you and good luck to all today's players!"

And, with that, the pegging began in earnest!

Ken Benson Wins Belle City, Earns Master

Ken Benson, Hastings, MI, won the recent Belle City Classic In Appleton, WI...and zipped to his Master rating. In winning this 100-player event, Benson carted home 147 MRP's and easily winged over the 2,000 MRP mark (lifetime) to earn Master, in addition to a sizeable purse (and bragging rights).

Grand Master Al Schaefer (WI) nailed down 2nd...and 105 MRP's. Schaefer is closing in on his Life Master with this high finish. Master Bob Loch and spouse Diane finished 3-4. This local couple continues to pile up the MRP's...and are seen far and wide on the cribbage trail.

One-Star Joe Bernard set the pace in the qualifying round with a nice 34 16/22 +147. This Libertyville, IL player is running no. 4 (lifetime) in the ACC.

64 players stayed for the Consolation, and Lila Larson (WI) came home the winner. Her final playoff match pitted her with the formidable Duane Toll, a One-Star player from Oak Creek, WI. Dorothy Schroeder (WI) and Master Ed Heinowski (WI) finished 3-4. The final four proved that age is no handicap when it comes to cribbage, as Larson and Schroeder are 80+ years old. Larson drubbed Toll two-straight...by a skunk and 28 points...to waltz to the title!

Director Tom Maresh had a full array of satellite events, The winners:

Friday: Jerry Gruber (MN)
High Rollers: Bob Julian (WI)
Friday Fast 3: Mark Habighorst (WI)
Saturday: Jim Rice (WI)
Saturday Fast 3: Bob Loch (WI)

Maresh also reported that the cards were cold...no 28's or 29's showed.

62 Years...and a 29!

Mac McDowell, Beaverton, OR, scored his first 29-hand ever (after 62 years of trying) on September 6 while playing in Portland, OR's GR 28 first meet of the season.

McDowell stated that he has never scored a 28-hand in his pegging career, making this 29 a real oddity.

Edmonton, Alberta Joins Grass Roots Play

Dennis Misenar has organized the first Grass Roots club in the Province of Alberta.

According to Misenar, these Edmonton peggers are a dedicated group. They have long played cribbage in Edmonton and are off and running with Grass Roots play. He predicts well over 100 peggers will be in action in short order, making this one of the larger Grass Roots clubs in the ACC.

Misenar, with help from Harold and Marion Buckley, are already planning a sanctioned event in the northland. Misenar publishes a nifty "Cribbage News" newsletter, which should aid in getting this Grass Roots club off and running.

This club will play every Monday at 7 PM at the Moose Lodge, 14510-142 St. in Edmonton. Call Misenar at (780) 444-1377, or email: 01041670@3web.net

Ridley Tops Peg For The Border

Tom Ridley from nearby El Cajon nailed the Peg For The Border event in La Mesa, CA on September 19. His last opponent was a long way from his Alaska home, but Henry Carle came through with flying colors, despite losing the last match. This Alaskan topped the field in the qualifying round with a nice 34 16/22 +163 card. Norm Nikodyn (CA) and Robert Harrell (CA) finished 3-4 in this 52-player event.

Grand Master Roger Wilson (CO) took home the 32-player Consolation event, edging Obie Weeks (CA) in the final playoff match. Paul Barnes (FL) and Tom Mills (CA) finished 3-4. Arlene Carle (AK) took qualifying honors, winning 8 of 9.

The Satellites:

Friday: Obie Weeks (CA) 8/9
Saturday: DeLynn Colvert (MT) 9/9 21 +230
Team: D. Carr, J. Dellarsina, R. Doty, O. Weeks

Husband and wife (Arlene and Henry Carle) took qualifying honors in the Main and Consolation ...and another husband-wife duo played each other in first-round playoff action. Paul and Joy Barnes had this honor, and this time around, the husband came out on top.

Director Julie Hardardt and staff were well-organized, served a great Mexican-style lunch, and conducted a raffle with bundles of prizes. And Ridley's familiarity in knowing which direction to peg for the border paid off handsomely.

144 Play Peer Event Warren Gallagher (Again!)

Warren Gallagher, Melrose, MA, is burning up the track in the Eastern Region. He has won two Main Events lately...and a Consolation! This amazing string valuts Gallagher to the nation's MRP lead in the year 2000's early going.

This time around he ripped the New England Peer Event. With a large crowd of 144 peggers, Gallagher took home yet another 196 MRP's to add to his lofty total for this cribbage year. Master Frank Corrado (CT) took home 2nd. He simply could not match Gallagher's hot streak. Bill Richmond (CT) and Ed Donahue (MA) took home 3-4. Holli Umbrianna (MA) nailed a nice 39 19/22 +255 qualifying score to easily take honors.

68 peggers played the Consolation and Don Graveline (MA) won going away. Veteran pegger Shamus O'Connor (NY) took home 2nd, followed by Master Joyce Vanelli (MA) and Maynard King (PA) in 3-4. Paul Gallagher, a Grand Master from Avon, MA won 8 of 10 to take qualifying honors.

The Satellites:

Friday: Mert Morris (ME)

Doubles: Carl Deyette & Nelson Baaken (CT)

28's: B. Grossman, D. West, B. Chevallier

Directors Joe Seigle and John Chambers have an ACC's exemption in this PEER format (pitting players with near-equal MRP's, lifetime, in the qualifying round), and it appears that this format is attractive to many players, attested to by the large crowd. Seigle and Chambers are planning a re-match next August 26-27.

Jarrell Wins 9th at Castro Valley

One-Star Jesse Jarrell (CA) won his 9th sanctioned Main Event at the 90-player Shut Up and Deal event in Castro Valley, CA on August 29.

But the big news in this event was Annett Eiffert's TWO 29-hands! The first was scored in the 19th game of the qualifying round on Saturday, and the 2nd in the 9th game of the Consolation qualifying round. In the 20-year history of the ACC, this is a first! Scot Kozlowski (NV) scored two 29's in one year (two months apart) a few years back.

Jack Shumate III (CA), a newly crowned Master, had a great tourney, finishing 2nd after qualifying first with a nice 36 16/22 +175. Paul Halucka (CA) and Lou Jenkins (CA) took home 3-4.

Grand Master Bill Wakeman (CA) won the 54-player Consolation, with Chuck Sladek (CA) taking 2nd. Mel Ashley (CA) took qualifying honors (7 of 9) and finished 3rd. Mike Leonard (CA) took 4th.

The Satellites:

Friday: Bill Hutchison (CO)

Saturday: Chuck Sladek (CA)

High Rollers: Jackie Doppelt (CA)

Last Chance: Rich Wager (CA)

28's: John Ryan, Robert Zahn

Mary Ryan's inaugural event as director was a wild and wooly one. Eiffert's two 29's will be long remembered.

Julie Mower Wins Labor Day Special

Julie Mower, pegging out of Yreka, CA, won her first sanctioned event on September 5...the Labor Day Special at the Seven Feathers Casino, Canyonville, OR. With an even 100 peggers on hand, Mower took home 147 MRP's, a nice purse, and bragging rights.

Newly crowned Grand Master Harvey Honeycutt (OR) nailed down 2nd, followed by Jerry Cutsworth (CA) and the streaking Rosemary Hendricks (WA) in 3rd and 4th.

Bob Leonard from nearby Medford, OR took qualifying honors with a nice 26 12/14 +191.

Bob Wikstrom (WA) won the 48-player Consolation, edging Master Lucille Endicott (OR) in the final playoff match. Mike Watson (OR) and Sharon Wilson (OR) finished 3-4. Wilson also scored the meet's only 28-hand. Daulph Plummer (OR) won 8 of 9 to take qualifying honors.

Director Larry Hassett reports that the Seven Feathers Casino is fast becoming a mecca for cribbage players. Peggers showed up early on Saturday and organized an impromptu Early Bird event...and last year's champ, Donna Hassett (OR), took the win.

Hassett reports that the upcoming Thanksgiving Day Classic will be played at the same facility, and interest is running high. Many players are coming on Thursday to enjoy the casino's Thanksgiving Day dinner...with cribbage beginning on Friday. Hassett also wishes to thank LaVon Thiems, Donna Hassett, LaVonda Hart and Virginia Grant for their help in the tournament.

Peg For Border Dedicated to the Memory of Bill Harvey

The recent Peg For The Border event in LaMesa, CA was dedicated to the memory of Bill Harvey (1947-1999), a veteran pegger who recently passed away.

Ev Bey Kicks Off Grand National XVIII

Remarks made by Ev Bey at the Opening Ceremonies at Grand National XVIII:

"Welcome to the ACC's 18th annual Grand National Cribbage Tournament. Some of you may not know it, but this is the third time an ACC Tournament has been held at the Riviera Hotel & Casino.

The first two tournaments of Champions were held here. Dick Graham was the director.

But what a difference 20 years makes. 678 registered to play today and 20 years ago, we had a bare minimum to qualify as a sanctioned tournament of 16 people. It was so small we could have played it in the closet instead of this spacious room.

Joseph Petrus Wergin was here and insisted on opening the gala event with a speech urging all 16 charter members to join the ACC. It was like the Pastor preaching to the choir.

As I remember it, also present was Jim Arblaster, Nick Pond, Frank O'Connor and his late wife, Jarry Palmer, Plumas Stokes, Leo Schwederesky and his wife, Dottie, from Lyndon Station, Wisconsin, myself and a few others I can't remember. We were so short of players we even signed up Harry's young son to fill out the pairings. We didn't play a 21 or 22 qualifier because we ran out of players halfway down the list...so everybody played everybody and Leo won it. The next day we needed another player for the Consolation...so we asked Leo and damned if he didn't win that one, too.

So now we've come a long way and the large attendance...the biggest ever Grand National...deserves a big hand for its directors: Bob Gromek, Bob Julian, and Roy and Jeanne Hofbauer. The late Ray Meade must be looking down in awe and wonder. They promised 600 players and I wouldn't believe it. Congratulations.

I've enjoyed my five years as your President, traveled to a lot of tournaments and met many wonderful people. But we got things done, too...we adopted a new Constitution and By-Laws; improved a new Master Rating Point system; and created a book of rules and regulations.

Now it's my pleasure to introduce your new President...Cathy Perkins. Good Luck to you and good luck to all today's players."

Ev Bey

Yes, indeed, Ev, the ACC has come a long, long way since that first event at the Riviera in December of 1982. I was one of those 22 players on hand playing for the first time with players from another Region (mostly from Wisconsin), and I remember shaking in my boots when I was paired against National Champion Norm Wright...and others who shared the top spots in the ACC's early going. My little black book tells me I went 12-9 in that event, finishing 5th...and I was hooked on pegging nationwide. The players were just simply a friendly bunch, and the enjoyment of playing with those members, the after-game camaraderie, and the excitement of competitive cribbage is as fresh with me today as it was 17 years ago.

And my working with you as President for the past five years has also been a joy...and a lot of work. But work that was, and is, enjoyable. Keeping track of all my many friends and peggers keeps me young at heart, and typing away! I'm sure your experience with the newspaper business in the Ponderosa country in California was similar, but on a larger scale, than editing Cribbage World. I appreciate your not nit-picking me at this job, and I will miss your monthly column. Hey, Cribbage World is always open for a guest column, so keep your typewriter handy. And as all my old buddies say..."Keep on Pegging!"

DeLynn Colvert, Editor, Cribbage World

Treasure Island Sanctioned

The Board of Directors, after much discussion, has agreed to sanction the upcoming Treasure Island Open in Red Wing, MN. This midweek event is scheduled for Oct.13-15.

Guidelines and regulations were not clear when this event was being planned. Regional Commissioners (George Bickford, Joe Bernard, and Roy Hofbauer) are working on clarifying the rules for sanctioned events and will present their recommendations to the Board of Directors at the meeting in Reno in early February, 2000.

Glory Be! A Price Reduction

With concurrence with Patrick Barrett, newly elected Vice-President, Operations, Cribbage World editor DeLynn Colvert announces that beginning with the November issue, tournament directors may insert a full page ad for a sanctioned event for $70 (instead of $72.25), or a half-page ad for $35. The ACC is running in black ink, and this should slightly reduce tournament costs, and benefit our membership.

Corrections

Cribbage World, due to a variety of reasons, gets a few names and places mixed up. Last month's boo-boos:

Luther Lord lives in Ontario, CA...not Alondra, CA as reported. Bob Chiara, Battle Mountain, NV had his name misspelled after winning the Les Bois Championship in Boise, Idaho. James Hogen (MN) had his name misspelled after winning the St. Croix Classic in August.

Cribbage World would appreciate extra effort by Directors to legibly print or type all names on their reports.

Cribbage World editor DeLynn Colvert has done his share...he bought hearing aids. That, however, did not solve the problem.

Oops! Rosh Hashanah

I have just returned from the GNXVIII in Las Vegas, played Sept. 10-12. Last year, when I learned what the dates were, and went to put it on my calendar, I discovered that those days were the dates of the Jewish New Year High Holy Days (Rosh Hashanah).

I spoke to Director Bob Gromek, and was told that it was too late to change the date. I realize that I had a choice not to go, but I should not have been put into that position. Would you schedule a major event on Easter weekend, or Christmas weekend?

I am asking the ACC BOD to show respect to all religions by scheduling major national tournaments so they do not conflict with major religious holidays.

I would appreciate a reply and any comments to this letter.

Sylvia Sutton
Burbank, CA

OK, Sylvia, all BOD members will read this letter and consider the problem of scheduling conflicts. Ed.

New Judges

These new Judges are certified using the ACC Book of Rules:

Susan Cousens, Windham, ME
Shawn Jordan, Norwood, MA
Laurie Owen, Bowdoin, ME
Ray Poirier, Hobe Sound, FL
Donald Russell, Yarmouth, ME
Karen Smith, Casper, WY

To take the Judges Examination, send $3 to:

Al Miller
12 Michael Ave.
Nashua, NH 03062-1418

Miller asks all 310 Judges to keep him informed of any address changes. Maintaining a huge roster is difficult, and he needs the cooperation of all judges to maintain an accurate listing.

In Memoriam

Bob Snyder

Atascadero, California

Bob was diagnosed with a rare form of cancer in February. He passed away June 2. He truly loved cribbage and attended many events in California and Reno. He will be greatly missed by his Santa Margarita, CA GR-27 club, and all that knew him.

James Gifford

Hopkins, Minnesota

Jim died of cancer at the age of 79 on September 2. He was a very nice gentleman who enjoyed every day of his life. He joined GR 215 and was a regular player when his health permitted. He will be sadly missed by his cribbage group.

James E. Walsh

Hayward, California

Jim was a good player and a great person. He was a very competitive player who loved the game. He did his pegging in the San Francisco area, and his many friends and peggers mourn his passing.

Gogolin On the Go at Humboldt Bay Classic

Grand Master Jim Gogolin (OR) was on the "go" at the recent Humboldt Bay Classic in Arcata, CA. He won the 82-player event with a ton of go's. With the 147 MRP's, Gogolin is off and running in the millennium's turn-of-the-century cribbage year.

1998 All-American Bob Clark (CA) nailed 2nd, followed by Joe Cover (OR) and Rolfe Glashan (CA) in 3-4. Dan Mitchell (CA) may very well have earned his Master rating by taking qualifying honors. National Statistician Bob McCabe will notify after crunching the numbers.

Jones Hom, a Grand Master from Fairfield, CA (and newly elected Board of Director member) scored the top card in the 54-player Consolation, but it was Bill Flatten (CA) winning the playoffs. Jack Moritzky (WA) is on a roll this cribbage year, and this Master pegger has unofficially zipped to the national MRP lead...and adds to his totals by finishing 2nd. Hom and Tim Hutsell (CA) finished 3-4.

Directors Herschel and Ricki Mack, Barrett Mace, and Julie-Mack Felkins held a full array of satellite events. The winners:

Doubles: John Schmucker & Bill Flatten (CA)
High Rollers: Paul Hatcher (OR)
Saturday: Beverlee Honeycutt (OR)
All-Events: John Schmucker (CA)
28: Jim Waldvogel (CA)
Practice 28: Jack Moritzky (WA) (Ouch!)

The Schmucker-Flatten doubles team showed that old soldiers never die...they just win doubles! Both are retired military, and they carted home five trophies between them.

6,961 Members

According to well-prepared records furnished Cribbage World by Membership Secretary Larry Hassett, the American Cribbage Congress now sports 6,961 active members.

California continues to lead the way with 1,318 players. Oregon has 655 players, with Wisconsin a step behind with 613. Washington has 524, with the East Coast's Massachusetts fielding 408 players.

Only Mississippi and Louisiana are not included in the ACC's roster. West Virginia has a single member (need an opponent for a game?)

Schwarz Tops Solano

Clarence "Clancy" Schwarz, a veteran pegger from Yountville, CA, came away with his second sanctioned win at the Chief Solano Open in Fairfield, CA on August 14. His final playoff match was no easy task as he had Grand Master Helen Bolstad (CA) as his opponent.

Jim Alleschus (CA) finished 3rd, after qualifying tops (31GP's, 19 games), followed by Lorraine Stickney (CA) in 4th.

Director George Halterman does not conduct a sanctioned Consolation in this one-day event. Halterman reports that players donated $370 towards the Senior Center and he plans on renewing this event again August 12, 2000.

Membership Update

Membership Director Larry Hassett is busy as a bee administering the membership roster.

He asks all those signing on to the ACC to include your full mailing address (and ONLY your mailing address). In addition, Hassett adds that renewal notices are being mailed on the 15th of the month before the month your membership expires. Life Members cards are printed every September (in order to post the previous year's MRP's) Hassett also mails membership cards around the 15th of the month (after getting MRP update from Bob McCabe).

Club and Tournament directors: include ALL information on the membership application form, especially a complete mailing address. Grass Roots club directors: send your GR registration forms and GR fees to your Regional Statisticians, and ACC membership applications and ACC fees to the ACC Membership Secretary.

Inquiries: call 1-888-PEGGING.

..I was 18 holes out with first count and my opponent was 64 out dealing. I said you could win from this point, stranger things have happened. My pone said the only way I could win is with a heart attack (yours). Three hands later he beat me in the stink hole. Five games later, Henry Douglass, sitting next to me, brought me a "NO WHINING" sign after hearing the story 20-30 times!

Nebraska King of Cribbage Makes News

There he was, once again! Jack Wunderlich, Lincoln, NE, featured in the Lincoln (NE) Journal Star's August 26 issue. Not only did he get great press, his photo playing a 29-hand was also printed. His expression? He had a sly grin that would indicate he had great command of the game at hand!

Writer Cindy Lange-Kubick presented cribbage in a favorable light, concluding the article with the Lincoln Cribbage League's phone number (489-3284) (or 464-6732).

Years ago, Wunderlich got national press attention in trying to get a million-dollar tournament off and running. This idea was simply overwhelming, and did not fly.

Cribbage 101?

John Spence, Asheville, NC, is a new member, and wants Cribbage World to devote more effort in explaining cribbageman's basics.

He wrote, "Your other new members are probably not as naive as I, however, I am almost appalled at the apparent lack of interest in those of us who have never been involved in a tournament, who don't know anything about them, how fees are handled, what bonus money is, estimated average costs related to attendance, consolations, what the master point rating system is and how it is used, what reason cribbage lovers have to join CW if not able to attend tournaments, etc.

Why not think about a cribbage 101 course article? Or an editorial about why people enjoy the game and continue to play it year after year when continuously losing money to one's spouse? Please give it some thought. It might stimulate new membership."

Cribbage World is perhaps derelict in overlooking newcomers concerns about the ACC's tournament programs. An effort will be made to educate newcomers to the many facets of ACC cribbage. Ed.

13-Year Old Hot

My 13-year old son, Dale, and I joined the ACC two years ago, and although neither of us have yet to place, we have enjoyed entering a couple of tournaments and meeting great cribbage players from all over the country.

Our cribbage game was on hold this summer, as our family stayed busy with other activities. Recently, we sat down at home to play a couple of games, with anticipation of entering an upcoming tournament this December. I figured Dale would be somewhat rusty.

Our first game, I experienced the worst trouncing of my cribbage life, as I had to scrape to avoid a triple skunk. Score: Dale 121, myself 41! But in the 2nd game I greatly redeemed myself. In fact, I more than doubled my previous total. This time I scored 83 points...still a skunk. Well, it looks as if Dale may be ready, but as for myself, I need work. Thanks for a great job. See you at the Chinook Winds Open in December.

Don Allen
Eugene, OR

OK, Don, but keep Dale away from my table! Incidentally, the Chinook Winds Open will be played in sumptuous surroundings in Lincoln City, OR. This casino setting is first class! Ed.

Scott Kooistra Wins Award

One-Star Scott Kooistra, Yankton, SD, is one of cribbageman's bright stars...but did you know he is a star in another profession?

He is a radio broadcaster in Yankton, and he keeps bringing home national awards for his excellence in this field. He recently won a national award for being the number one broadcaster in his category.

Grand National XX Awarded to Richmond, VA

Huston Kitts and John Mangiaratti Jr. have been awarded Grand National XX. This event is scheduled to be played at the Holiday Inn Conference Center in Richmond, VA in September 2001.

Galante Expelled

At the recent Board of Directors meeting in Las Vegas, Mike Galante, Reno, NV, was expelled from the American Cribbage Congress.

Awards

As the American Cribbage Congress heads into the new millennium and it's 21st year, the following members have attained honors:

Life Master (6,000 MRP's):

Robert J. Drukman, E. Bridgewater, MA (42)

Grand Master (4,000 MRP's):

Todd Malmgren, Clackamas, OR (128)

Larry C. Loupee, Newton, IA (129)

Master (2,000 MRP's):

Shawn Jordan, Norwood, MA (407)

Kenneth Benson, Hastings, MI (408)

Libby Scores 29, Loses

Al Libby (CA), playing his 19th game in the Western Region's Long Match with Roberta Nelson (CA) scored a 29-hand...and lost the game. He did manage to win the long match with Nelson, however.

Morgan Nails Carson Valley

Master pegger Ron Morgan (CA) came away the winner at the recent Carson Valley Classic in Minden, NV. Morgan won the Montana Championship in 1992, and has been knocking on the door for another Main Event win for the past several years...and finally broke the ice in Minden.

Valerie Sumner from nearby Sparks is on a roll! Fresh from a 2nd at the huge Grand National in Las Vegas (678 players), she continues on and scores yet another 2nd at this event.

Newly crowned Life Master Sundae Webb (CA) nailed 3rd, with the streaking Jack Shumate III (CA) taking 4th. Irene Huntington (NV) scored the best qualifying card of the 54 players in attendance...a nice 36 17/22 +151.

Patricia Echard (NV) won the 26-player Consolation, with Battle Mountain's (NV) Robert Chiara in 2nd. One-Star Bob Julian (WI) and Mitch Mitchell (CA) finished 3-4.

In game 5 of the Main Event, Thomas Owens, Roseville, CA let out a shriek...he had cut the five of hearts for the ACC's 4th 29-hand of the new year...and $100 from the ACC for this gem.

Bill Thomas (NC) won the Friday satellite game, and Ralph Reynolds (OR) teamed with John Brandenburg (CA) to take the doubles.

Zupan Zips To Montana Title

In one of the most exciting finishes to playoff action in years, Bill Zupan, Great Falls, MT, nipped Life Master Paul Hatcher (OR) 4-3 to win the 18th Montana Championship. With the score at 3-3, it appeared Hatcher would win going away. Needing but 5 points to win, with first count, he held 10-J-Q-K. He cut a 4 (not nobbs). Oops, Zupan, back some 23 holes, held a 4-5-6-6. Hatcher failed to peg a single point and lost 121-120. Nevertheless, Hatcher scored 130 aggregate MRP's and is among the nation's leaders in the early going this year. Zupan picked up 147 MRP's, $925, and bragging rights in this 95-player event.

Joan Lyon (WA) nipped Mike Haggerty (MT) for 3rd place. Haggerty finished 4th. Grand Master Clair Morse (OR) took qualifying honors with a nice 36 17/22 +216.

Director and Two-Star DeLynn Colvert won the 70-player Consolation. Perennial Consolation winner Mike McDaniel (WA) took 2nd, followed by Jo Ann Morse (OR) and Charlie Huber (ID) in 3-4.

The Satellites:

Time Passer: Jake Ewell (MT)

Friday High Roller: Jack Moritzky (+2 spread points)

Friday Doubles: Phil True & Bernie Saueressig (WA)

Saturday: O. K. Osborne (ID)

Last Chance: Bill Sands (MT)

The host Joker's Wild, once again, added $100 to the Last Chance event, and continue to be one of the best host facilities in all of cribbage land.

It's Official! Two Sanctioned 29-Hands Annett Eiffert Does The Impossible

Last month's issue went to press just as the cribbage grapevine was spreading the word that Annett Eiffert, Citrus Heights, CA, had scored TWO 29-hands at the "Shut Up and Deal" event played at the Moose Lodge in Castro Valley, CA.

Eiffert's unbelievable feat began on Saturday, August 21 in the Main Event. In game number 19, she needed the jack of spades to complete the cribbage player's dream...and up it popped! The ACC's 2nd 29-hand of the 2000 season! Alas, she failed to qualify, and entered the Consolation on Sunday morning. Playing the final game (9) of the round, and the last hand of the game, she, once again, was drawing for the perfect hand. This time around, she needed the 5 of diamonds. Unbelievably, the 5 of diamonds was cut! Two 29-hands some 13 games apart. Most players play a lifetime and are lucky to score one! With the odds of 216,580 to 1, most calculators simply refuse to give the odds of scoring two within 13 games!

The American Cribbage Congress will award Eiffert $100 for each 29-hand.

Walt Altman's 29 Still a Good Story

I recently had an exceptional experience with a 29-hand, in which the Cribbage Fairy gave me a second chance.

In our regular Kitsap Peggers weekly tournament, I was dealt a 5 of diamonds, 5 of hearts, 5 of spades, and a jack of clubs. I nervously cut the deck, and cut the jack of spades. Oh well, at least I had the experience of cutting for a 29-hand...and 22-points is an exceptional hand in its own right.

The very next game, I was again dealt a 5 of diamonds, 5 of hearts, 5 of spades, with the jack of clubs. I unbelievably reached for the deck to try again for the second time in 15 minutes!

Eureka! The five of clubs!

The Cribbage Fairy had given me a second chance and I didn't blow it.

Odds, anyone?

Walt Altman, GR 204
Port Orchard, WA

Walt (and Annett), all I can say is that it is getting very deep around here! Wow! Ed.

Declaration of Intent

Lords and Ladies, Knights Errant and Dames, Pages, Varlets and Fools

Be it known by this PROCLAMATION of CHALLENGE that the gauntlet has been thrown by the 29ers of Augusta at the feet of the most cowardly dogs known as ALL OTHERS .

We charge and ask retribution for the rape of our souls, the burning of our ideals , and the mockery made in times past of our boards and cards.

The Knights of Augusta will meet and hold battle on the field of honor with those cowardly knaves who dare enter ye tournament. They and their squires with their horses and weapons holders, that all may witness and attest to the carnage that ensues as we correct the wrongs of yore in the manner dictated of auld by Sir John of Suckling.

Come ye then, on thy slowoxen and thy sloven asses, prepared to do battle. The weapons known throughout the kingdom shall be elongated sections of wood known as boards, suitably perforated and short spears to insert therein as dictated by ye numbers obtained by luck when holding suitably inscribed sections of paper known as cards, approved by our armorer and the armor master of the realm.

We shall meet on the greensward known as the INN of the HOLIDAYS where the highroad known as I-20 meets the Road known as Washington, village of Augusta in the shire of Georgia.

When the sign of the Zodiac is indicated by the 24th sun of Capricorn, then shall a learning process begin, followed forthwith on the 25th day of said cycle by ye main tournament.. Know ye then that ye warriors, knights and assorted vagabonds will take the field and engage in battle royal in the year of our Lord 2000, on the day of 14.15 and 16 January.

Know ye furthermore that all competitors, no matter how lowly, must state their intentions, accompanied by adequate coin of the realm, this century.

Provender there shall be, on ye 1st day of ye main event, as provided in ye entry fee. Mead shall be available to strengthen the courage of warriors as well as more genteel draughts one might quaff.

It is further decreed that all honors and hospitality shall be given, as even cowardly dogs die like men in our domain . Come with stout hearts so as not to disgrace the domain where the striped kitty shall roam free.

Sanctuary shall be provided to those daring to enter the shire and compete. The bold Knights of Augusta shall lower their drawbridge, span their moat, break bread, eat meat and share the barrels of stout wine from our vineyards. We shall put behind us forever the shame and humiliation of past tribal wars. Perchance a troupe of wandering minstrels shall entertain, or mayhap the court jester will be released from ye dungeon by our kind and generous monarch, to entertain ye pilgrims.

Ye fire breathing dragon shall be barred, but woe betide those who permit entry of ye striped kitty. They shall be mortally wounded unless due humility be displayed. MUGGINS WILL APPLY.

In Memoriam

Gerhardt "Gary" Dreyer

Round Lake, Illinois

Gary passed away on October 2 at the age of 74 after a sudden illness. He was a long time member of the ACC, and will always be remembered for his honesty, enthusiasm for the game, and teaching others to play. He was very instrumental in organizing a Grass Roots club in northern Illinois area, and for his play in Illinois and Wisconsin tournaments. He also participated in several Florida tournaments over the last several years. His sportsmanship, camaraderie, good humor, and devotion to the game of cribbage will be missed by many.

Phil Luke

Magalia, California

Northern California lost a great host and dedicated pegger with the passing of Phil on October 23 at his home. Phil was co-director of the Para-Pines Peggers and the Nugget Classic in Paradise, CA. The ACC and his many friends will miss him.

Ethelyn Loehrke

Hillsboro, Oregon

Ethelyn was a former resident of Newport, OR and a member of the Lincoln Cribbage Club. She played cards all her life and especially loved cribbage and the friends that she made playing it. She will be greatly missed.

Pat Trueman

Waldport, Oregon

Pat died in August of cancer. She was taught cribbage as a young girl and played all her life. She was a member of GR127 in Newport, OR. She will be missed by her fellow peggers.

Tournament of Champions Invite

If you feel you have earned an invitation to the Tournament of Champions and have not received it by this time, please call Joan Rein at (612) 448-2459. Leave a short message and the reason you feel you should have received an invite.

Joan Rein
Director, TOC

A list of criteria is published in this month's CW. Ed.

Grass Roots Directory

All Grass Roots club directors should have received an updated copy of the directory of clubs that Roger Wilson is maintaining (playing times and locations). Grass Roots members wanting a copy should ask their director.

Anyone online and with Excel on their computer can download the directory from Wilson's website at <http://members.aol.com/J555529/ClubDir>

The list will be updated monthly at a minimum, more often if several changes are made.

An abbreviated version is available on the ACC's web site at www.cribbage.org Contact information is listed for club directors who have authorized publishing their phone numbers and e-mail contacts on the ACC's web site. For those that haven't authorized publication on the ACC's site, players are directed to the Grass Roots Regional Directors for playing information.

For those not playing with a club regularly and/or without electronic access, you may obtain a copy by sending $1 for postage and handling to:

Two Straight Flushes!

Two straight flushes in the same hand! At the regular weekly meeting of GR34 in Denver on Oct. 20, two straight flushes were scored in the same hand! Shirley Moschetti was dealt 5-6-7-8 and two face cards in hearts. She discarded the face cards and the 9 of hearts was cut for a 14-hand. Her opponent, Iris Fletcher, turned the crib and lo and behold, thjere was the 10-J-Q-K of hearts! I've never heard of this happening before and both players tapped into our skunk pot for a straight flush plus Iris got an additional payout for a flush in the crib. If Iris would have held the A-2-3-4 of hearts, we could have really set a record!

Roger Wilson
Club Director, GR34, Denver, CO

Yessir, Roger, we are still waiting for an all one-suit hand! But having 9 of them show ain't bad...and in two straights! Wow! Ed.

Lee Carpenter Champions Cribbage

Lee Carpenter, St. Maries, ID, recently wrote a lengthy article for the local Senior Post extolling cribbage. Keep 'em pegging, Lee.

Alternate Deal Unfair?

As a cribbage player and friend of Earl Newberry, I would like to thank you for printing his complaint. It is important that something be done about alternate dealing. After calling Newberry, he explained how unfair it really is to have this in tournament play. He also said if there is alternating deal in the October tournament (Denver), he will never play another game of organized cribbage again. When I asked him why, he was very serious on account of the principal of the matter. So you see it is very important to me in hopes of changing the October's alternating deal. Is there anything that can be done? I truly would not want to lose one of the best players who ever played the game, on behalf of Earl Newberry.

Marvin Krowczyk
Denver, CO

Marvin, Cribbage World invites Earl Newberry to explain why (in detail) he feels alternating the deal is unfair. This method insures him the right to deal 50% of the time, and his opponent the other 50%. I prefer cutting for deal for every game (eliminates this type of controversy), but I cannot find much fault with being awarded the deal 50% of the time. Ed.

Jim Baker Overconfident

Just as Jim Baker (GR 229, Muskegon, MI) starting thinking he had a sure win, Alan Vredevelde pegged 26 holes to win the game by 6 holes.

Craig Hays Scores 29!

On August 9 in Sacramento, CA, Craig Hays scored a 29! Alas, it was not in regular GR play. CW congratulates Hays, nevertheless.

Cribbage Board Patented

John Mixer, Colorado Springs, CO, has patented a unique triangular cribbage board. You may call him at (719) 638-1188 if you are interested.

Wergin's Book & 28-Hands

In Joe Wergin's book, he has a chart which shows 13,923 scoring hands from zero to 29. His chart shows that there are 4 ways to get a 28-hand and one way to get a 29 hand. It seems to me that since you can cut a 10, J, Q, K, or 4th 5 to make 28, there are actually 20 ways to score that hand. It seems that any 5 would conceivably make a 29-hand and that would make 4 possibilities. Do you agree with that. What are your related thoughts?

George "Ras" Rasmussen
Centralia, WA

"Ras," I agree with you 100%! Add 19 more hands to Wergin's list. Now with 13,942 ways to score, I should do better! Ed.

"Ratso" Roderick Discusses Juveniles & Slow Play

William "Ratso" Roderick wrote CW discussing letting children under the age of 18 play in tournaments...and he also addressed the problem of slow play.

As for letting under-aged children play, he feels that with prize money being offered, many state and local laws may consider this as gambling. He concludes, "Let children play with other children, and their own tournaments!"

As for the problem of slow play, he feels that those who go out for a smoke delay the game are just as much to blame for slow play as those who do not have the ability to keep up the pace. He concludes, "Who knows what the answer is, but if you're going to chastise the slow player, then you are going to have to chastise the smoker who can or does delay a game!"

William Ratso Roderick
Magalia, CA

Hard Way to Lose

On the last night of summer play, Dan Betz (director) and Matt Bond (new member) were tied for the summer session lead. Matt and Dan were opponents in one of the games. On the last hand, Dan scored a 24-hand and a 16-crib to win by 5 holes! Dan ended up winning the summer session by one point. Nice try, Matt!...And that's a tough way to lose!

Heidi Glashan Has Bragging Rights

Heidi Glashan, Pittsburg, CA, won last year's edition of the National Long Match. Cribbage World was given an incomplete list of her victims in her march to the title. Her third long match competition was with 3-time National Champion Bob Julian, Milwaukee, WI.

To make a long story short, Julian has the 1999 National Championship under his belt, but Heidi Glashan has bragging rights!
