GRNT: 1,741 James Goss Tops Huge Field

With 1,741 participants from coast to coast, James Goss, Bay City, Michigan came home the winner in the 1999 edition of the National Grass Roots Tournament. This Grass Roots club 97 member posted an excellent 34 GP 15/18 +269 card to take honors. Goss was one of 10 players to score a Grand Slam (9 for 9). This event is broken into two 9-game segments, with the 18-game total score used to determine the winners.

Timothy Morrissey, Chehalis, WA, came close, and settled for 2nd with a 33 15/18 +221 score.

The top 8:

James Goss, Bay City, MI (97) 34 15 +269
Timothy Morrissey, Chehalis, WA (232) 33 15 +221
Luther Lord, Alondra, CA (190) 32 15 +253
Charlie Finley, E. Longmeadow, CT (72) 32 15 +224
Doug Busch, Auburn, CA (190) 32 14 +202
Roman Obermeier, WI Rapids, WI (120) 32 13 +332
Joanne Reinhold, Virginia Beach, VA (117) 32 13 +193
Mike Ferretta, Virginia Beach, VA (117) 31 15 +148

Tournament Director Annett Eiffert reports that the event awarded some $12,205 in prizes to 341 winners (24 GP's or more). 89 clubs hosted a tournament, with 130 GR clubs represented. The huge field played some 31,338 games...and only David Aiken, Grand Rapids, MI, was able to score a 29-hand. Some 14 28-hands were scored, and 10 Grand Slams. These 25 peggers picked up added prize money for these long-shots. According to Eiffert, final standings of all 1,741 players may be found on the cribbage web site at www.cribbage.org

Hogan Tops St. Croix

With a full field of 180 peggers, James Hogan (MN) came home the winner at the latest edition of the St. Croix Classic, played at Turtle Lake, WI on August 13-15. His final playoff match pitted him with Jean Cervantes (WI), and he won going away. With the win Hogan carted home a whopping 231 MRP's (after qualifying 6th) and is among the leaders as the 2000 cribbage year kicks off action. In addition to the bushel of MRP's, he also took home $1,500 and a trophy clock. Cervantes took home 207 MRP's (after qualifying first with a nice 38 18/22 +192) and is also off to a great start for the new year.

Life Master Wayne Steinmetz (WI), fresh from earning All-American honors last year, is at it again, taking home 3rd. Derald Feda (MN) finished 4th.

118 peggers played the Consolation and Master Emil Lubinski (MN) took home the marbles, edging another Master...Larry Loupee (IA)... in the final playoff match. Loupee is very close to his Grand Master with the 45 MRP's earned.

Favorite Tournament

As I suspected...and expected...the overwhelming preference among replies to my July questions about favorite sanctioned tournaments was the Joseph Petrus Wergin/ACC Open in Reno.

Comments complimented it on being "well run," thanx in great part to Barbara Woodward, advertising-promotions director for the Sands Regency Casino & Hotel. Also, many remarked on the opportunity to meet the best players from all over the USA in this big event.

Reno's two other tournaments, 4th of July and Veteran's Day, also garnered many votes, due to enhanced payoff contributed by the casino and low hotel rates.

Among other tournaments getting the nod as "favorites" were the Stan Daniels Memorial in Portsmouth, VA; the St. Croix (WI) Casino events; Nipomo, CA; the oldest event, my World Championship in Quincy, CA, "well run!"; and the Timber Capital at Seven Feathers Casino, OR, especially for providing a financial report to all players after the event.

Members favored two-day tournaments over one-day events by a 3-1 margin..."it gives us more time to socialize," one reported.

The amount of prize money didn't seem to affect anyone's decision about attending or not attending a particular tournament. The percentage of return factor was mentioned as one reason for including or excluding a tournament among your choices.

A majority of players said they attend 7 to 12 tournaments a year. Half of that number make 1 to 6 tournaments yearly and the remainder are the die-hards, including a few who make 30-40 tournaments a year. You'll probably find their names among the regional leaders! An offhand comment: "You gotta play to get the pay."

Distance and convenience of travel to tournaments bore little concern over player's decision whether or not to attend. One reply said he would not attend if the tournament director is being paid.

Hotel and meal prices split about even in deciding a player's attendance at a tournament. Luckily, favorable rates are usually arranged, so this is not a big consideration.

Recently, Tournament Commissioners have been confronted with a proposal to hold mid-week tournaments at the same place preceding a regularly-scheduled weekend tournament. Executive Board members took a dim view of this plan, allowing that it could water-down the Master Point Rating system by showing preference to those who could enter both tournaments. Sounds more like a scheme to benefit the casino involved. Also, it would interfere with regular weeknight Grass Roots schedules. Comments, anyone?

Considering the vagaries of the US Postal Service, I doubt whether this September '99 issue of Cribage World will reach you prior to the 18th Grand National in Las Vegas Sept. 10-11-12. Bob Gromek, Bob Julian and Roy & Jeanne Hofbauer, the tournament directors, are looking for some 600 players to show up for this event.

By the way, did you know that this event is returning to the Riviera Casino where the first Tournament of Champions got its start in 1981 and 1982, before moving to Reno, first Karl's in Sparks and now at the Sands-Regency.

Hogan Tops St. Croix

Kevin Post (MN) and Larry LaGassie (WI) nailed down 3rd and 4th. Ray Hansen (IA) posted a grand slam 9/9 in the qualifying round to take honors...and a $100 bonus from the St. Croix Casino for the slam. Hansen had received free entry into the Consolation by being the top non-qualifier in the Main Event...and he cashed in on this largess in a big way!

The Satellites:

Friday: Francis Pasiuk (MN)

Saturday: Bill Shirland (CO)

28's: Art Semmler, Carl Schroeder, Gary Haelfrisch, Maury Gort, Roger Wilson, Sue Schenk

Director Alan Lindner, with able help from Vickie Long, once again conducted a first-class event, attested to by yet another large crowd. The Casino, once again, paid out $7,850 in bonus money. The 28-hand recipients each received $250, and some 254 24-hands were awarded $25 each. Lindner reports that no one has yet to take home the $500 for a 29-hand...and hints that the October 1-3 edition may very well break the dry spell.

Melon King Back At It

Ken Capper makes his home in Hermiston, Oregon...and this area is famous for its watermelons and cantelopes.

Capper treated the Portland players in late July to all the melons and cants they could eat. This treat was so well received, that Capper decided to treat the players again. This time around, the Redmond Senior Center Open in Redmond, OR was given a Saturday lunch-time treat. Years ago Ken and Betty Capper were crowned Mr. and Mrs. Cribbage World...with good reason!

Englewood GR 29 Sports 10-Year Old

Justin Johnson, age 10, Englewood, FL has joined GR club 29, and plays along with his grandmother (Cindy Johnson) and great-grandfather (Bob McAnelly). According to secretary Donna Severson Justin is one sharp player and a delightful gentleman...and he loves his cribbage! And he keeps the group "thinking young!"

138 In Woonsocket Bob Fitzgerald Tops New England Inaugural

Bob Fitzgerald, pegging out of East Hartford, CT, nailed the 138-player New England Inaugural on August 8. With the win, Fitzgerald zips out of the gate in the new cribbage year and is the leader in the Eastern Region. He garnered 196 MRP's for the win.

Tom Clark (NH), Don Shields (CT), and Master Al Tenenbaum (NJ) came home 2-3-4. Grand Master Dick West (MA) took qualifying honors with a nice 21 GP card in the 12-game round...and 35 MRP's.

Warren Gallagher (MA) won the 72-player Consolation, nipping Life Master George Bickford (MA) in the final playoff match. Master Charles Burgess, Jr. (RI) and Grand Master Zeke Veradt (MA) finished 3-4. Grand Master Lee Norris (RI) took qualifying honors, scoring a 16 GP card in the 9-game match.

Bickford was last year's Consolation champion and very nearly repeated that performance. Director Lee Norris reports that Bill and Sharlene Medeiros will conduct this event on August 13, 2000. Norris thanks all for their attendance and support.

Todd Malmgren Cops Redmond Senior Center

Todd Malmgren, Clackamas, OR, posted 781 MRP's during the 1999 season, finishing 13th in the Western Region. But this year promises to be a special year for Malmgren. He blasted out of the gate in the new year winning the 84-player Redmond Senior Center Open in Redmond, OR on August 22...and earned his Grand Master (unofficially) rating in fine style. Finishing 2nd (and qualifying 2nd) was Lowell Bailey (WA), followed by Hazel Weichseldorfer (WA) and Master Bob Oriet (OR) in 3-4.

Sharon Hejtmanek (MT) continues to burn up the track. Fresh from a top-qualifying score in Boise (38 GP's), she, once again, topped the field in the qualifying round with a superlative 42 GP's. Picking up 101 MRP's in Boise and Redmond, she zips to the Western Region lead with 202 MRP's.

Ex-World Champ Rollie Heath (OR) nailed the 54-player Consolation. With the win he is nearing his Grand Master rating. Master Roger Lueschow (WA), Dan Hansen (OR), and Master Jack Holt (OR) finished 2-3-4.

The Satellites:

Time Passer: Bill Sword (7/7)

High Roller: Rollie Heath

Doubles: Art Ferenze & Mitch Bourland

Saturday: Carolyn Blackman

Last Chance: Paul Nolz

29: Shari Wikstrom

28's: Margery Clark, Jeremy Brock

Directors Ralph & Marvis Reynolds kept all events on schedule, and, once again, conducted a well-run event.

Believe It Or Not Shari Wikstrom Scores ACC's First 29-Hand (2000 Year)

In one of the ACC's more unusual 29-hands, Shari Wikstrom (WA) came away with the ACC's first of the 2000 season.

What was unusual? Wikstrom nudged the player to her left, "Ras" Rasmussen before the draw...and her opponent, DeLynn Colvert, knew she was up to an unusual hand...probably a 29-draw.

She cut the deck, and Colvert pounded the top card, and demanded "The five of hearts!" Flipping the card down with extra force, and, viola!... there it was...the five of hearts! It was a perfect guess on Colvert's part. A 29-hand! With the five of hearts!

Asked later why he guessed the five of hearts, Colvert stated, "Well, Doris Denny used the five of hearts to win the National Open...that's the card to call. Besides, Shari and "Ras" were concentrating so hard on that card, the mental vibes made it easy!"

Colvert went on to say that the looks of shock on both players was worth the price of losing the game via a skunk! (He was shocked, too, overpegging five holes during the pegging sequence).

Last year, the ACC paid $1,900 for 19 sanctioned 29-hands (a record season for these gems). Wikstrom may very well have kicked off another record-breaking season for scoring perfect hands!

GALLAGHER GALLAGHER

It was Paul Gallagher vs. Warren Gallagher in the final playoff match at the 9th Eastern States Championship on August 15.

And went the dust had settled, it was Grand Master Paul Gallagher in the winner's circle. With some 88 players on board, Paul went home with 147 MRP's plus another 20 for qualifying 10th, bragging rights, and the championship purse. Warren fared quite well, too, as he topped the field in the qualifying round (23 GP's in the 12-game round), and took home an aggregate 150 MRP's. Both Gallaghers hail from Massachusetts.

Life Master Larry Samet (MA) and Dutch Gehrlich (MD) finished 3-4.

And it was Medeiros vs. Medeiros in the 5-6 spot. Grand Master Rob and Life Master Bill are at it again as the ACC begins year number 20!

Grand Master Bill Shoemaker (CT) ran the table in the 56-player Consolation. He took qualifying honors (15 GP's, 8-game match), and went on the win the event as well. Master Jerry Bernier (MA) took 2nd, with Grand Master Dick West (MA), and Phyllis Aronoff (MA) in 3-4.

Director Bill Medeiros had several unique events on tap. Every 24-hand received a prize...for the opponent! The skunk bucket was split to the non-qualifying player who had the best last three games in the Main event and Consolation. Rit Alkas (CT) won the Main portion, and David Statz (NH) won the Consolation portion. Medeiros also had a team event that paid three places...and Larry Samet placed on all three! Medeiros also reported that Bruce Brown scored the meet's only 28-hand. No 29's showed.

And Didn't Win?

Judy Peipgras was a long way from her Alaska home on August 21. She was pegging away at the Saturday night game at Redmond, OR's Senior Center Classic. In the 7-game match, she scored SEVEN 24-hands...and she did NOT win the event. What next?

Rosemary Hendricks Hot in Idaho

Rosemary Hendricks, Rochester, WA, has taken up the grand old game with a vengeance. She scored some 552 MRP's last season...and begins the new season by taking home the Les Bois Championship in Boise, Idaho on August 8 (45 players).

Bob Chicera (NV) nailed 2nd, followed by Millie Wolf (WA) and Michelle Park (ID) in 3-4.

Sharon Hejtmanek (MT) brought home a nice trophy (and Q money) by posting a 38GP card in the qualifying round...and 60 MRP's.

Local Doug Hadley won the 30-player Consolation, followed by Marlene Stack (WA) in 2nd. Stack also took qualifying honors, winning 7 of 9. Les Sissel (OR) and George "Ras" Rasmussen (WA) finished 3-4.

Wild Night in Portland

A recent meeting of 14 peggers in Portland, OR had astounding results.

In the 126 games played, 14 were skunks...and an astounding four double skunks were scored.

According to Harry Kantas, he feels that National Grass Roots champ Gene Goodell has made a deal with the devil. He scored a grand slam 9/9 22 GP's...and had one of the double-skunks!

President's Award

ACC President Ev Bey presents a deserving member of the American Cribbage Congress an annual President's Award.

This year was especially tough, as so many of our members are deserving of this award. He named three members of the congress as recipients of this year's award. They are:

Fred McGibney

South Burlington, Vermont

Roy & Jeanne Hofbauer

Washougal, Washington

McGibney has served the Congress as Treasurer for 12 years, and President Bey wrote, "He created a budget system to control ACC expenditures, gave the Board of Directors sound financial advice, and through an annual audit uncovered a major monetary loss that was draining ACC assets..."

The Hofbauers were also honored with this award, and Bey wrote, "Roy, as Western Regional Tournament Commissioner, has his wife assisting in the 50 to 60 Western sanctioned tournaments held each year. Together, they serve as co-directors of several ACC sanctioned

Corrections

Last month's CW listed well over 1,400 names, and other data, and, of course, a few typos were made.

Rose Chase, a recipient of a Masters Award, was listed as living in North, RI. We all know she lives in North Kingstown, RI.

Cres Fernandez finished 3rd at the Devil Mountain Caper in Antioch, CA. He was listed as Cres Hernandez. Cribbage World apologizes for these goofs.

Bickford Continues

George Bickford, National Tournament Commissioner, faxed CW a cute joke that began, "I can only please one person a day and today ain't your day!"

It continued, "(Tomorrow ain't looking too good either!)"

And it concluded, "Matter of Fact this month ain't lookin good!"

In Memoriam

Ann Abbott

Apple Valley, California

Ann, "The Nevada Cribbage Queen," Abbott passed away from a short illness on August 27, at the age of 65. She earned her Master rating in 1998. Ann and her late husband, "Zoom," traveled the tournament trail extensively. She left the following poem for her family and cribbage friends.

MISS ME... But Let Me Go (Author Unknown)

When I come to the end of the road
and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little...but not too long and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared.
MISS me...but let me go.

For this is a journey that we all must take and each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart,
Go to the friends we know
and bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.

MISS me...
But let me go.

Tournament Results

Last month's issue wrapped up the summaries of the ACC's sanctioned tournaments for the 1999 year.

The following two tournaments were not printed last month but the Master Rating Points have been posted in the totals for the 1999 cribbage year.

Lightning Printing to the Rescue

Our August issue of Cribbage World was late due to a variety of reason, and editor DeLynn Colvert begged our printer in Richfield, MN, to go to bat and get the issue out pronto, since it was far, far behind schedule.

Brian Turveille and his fine staff hustled this issue out the door in record time, giving our ACC membership time to examine the invitations to the Awards Banquet in Las Vegas, and get one more chance to enter with a 2nd entry form on the inside back cover.

Cribbage World doffs its hat to this printing firm!

Incidentally, this issue is far and away the largest ever produce in the 19-year history of the Congress...a whopping 44-pages!

ACLU and Others... An Apology

The American Civil Liberties Union and several of our ACC members called Cribbage World and demanded a retraction (and apology) for ridiculing a minority...in this case, the gay community.

On page 21 of the August issue, a vignette appeared concerning deductive reasoning, with the punch line being derogatory to this minority.

Upon reflection, your editor concurred 100% with those registering concern. It certainly was an uncalled-for article.

The original thought was to show that erroneous decisions are made without enough information. The punchline should have read, "You dumb Swede!"...because that is exactly what your editor is!

And many of our ACC membership also know that this dumb Swede is a "bleeding heart liberal" and he loves all people regardless of race, creed, religion, or sexual orientation! That is, except when they wax him at cribbage!

A sincere apology to any and all who were offended by this article!

Play Or Not Play Debate Rages On

Ref: Play or not play Consolation debate.

Why not chage the name from "Consolation" which according to a dictionary means, "solace, comfort, condolences, relief, support and or soothing," to a Sunday Showdown or Sunday Cribbage, or you pick a name other than "Consolation" and let everyone play. How about Sunday Getaway?

Don Kunz
Boise, ID

Don, you may have a point...except the ACC has tons offorms, charts, and other references to "Consolation." So, unless you are volunteering to change all these publications, charts, and other paraphernalia that goes with this event, let's leave well enough alone, and simply decide who can or cannot play. Personally, I feel it ain't broken...and if it ain't broken, don't fix it! I vote for let 'em play! Ed.

Nice Tie, Nice Shirt!

A cribbage player, on his way to the "Top of the Riv" for the Awards Banquet, decided to wet his whistle at the downstairs bar and get a head start on the festivities.

He was the lone patron, and he ordered a beer and began sipping and munching peanuts.

A voice boomed out, "Nice Tie!"

Startled, he looked around but saw no one but the bartender. He took another sip, and the voice boomed out again, "Nice Shirt!"

Shaken up, he asked the bartender who was saying these things to him, as they were alone in the bar.

The bartender replied, "It's the peanuts...they're complimentary!"

In Memoriam

Shirley "Shay" Crawford

Seattle, Washington

Shirley passed away on July 1. She was a charter member of the Sea-Tac Peggers (GR 148), and loved her cribbage.

She was born in Cedar Rapids, Iowa in 1924 and learned to play cribbage on the train coming to Seattle 30 years ago. Shirley attended many events in the region. She will be greatly missed by all who knew her.

Sanctioned by the American Cribbage Congress, ACC rules apply. All players must be 21. The Internal Revenue Service considers prize money earned in excess of $600 as prize money which must be reported. The Sands Regency is required by law to withhold 30% of prize money of $600 or more awarded to non-US citizens or US Citizens who do not have or cannot provide a valid US Social Security number. The $1,000.00 bonus is awarded to aggregate winners in Saturday's singles qualifying only and must be witnessed and verified by the tournament director.

H & H Girls On Roll

Rosemary Hendricks (WA) and Sharon Hejtmanek (MT) have joined the cribbage circuit with a vengeance. These two stellar players have become fast friends and are sharing motel expenses lately...and sharing pegging skills as well. Beginning in June, these two players have been tearing up the track in the Northwest.

Hendricks won the Saturday Special in Portland in July, after qualifying 2nd with a 37 GP card. She then turned her sights on Boise's Les Bois Classic and came home the winner. This is in addition to many high finishes recently in High Rollers and other events. She finished the 1999 season with a rush, posting 552 MRP's for the year.

Hejtmanek has been equally impressive lately. She finished 2nd at Richland's (WA) High Roller event, rolled into Portland the next weekend and posted a very high 36 GP score, and followed that with a yet higher score in Boise...38 GP's and top honors. She finished the 1999 season with a lofty 665 MRP's.

Both Hendricks and Hejtmanek begin the 2000 season with high marks. Cribbage fever, catch it... make new friends, and fatten your wallet (or purse).

Hey, New Jersey Has Oregon's Law

July's CW (page 18) stated that Oregon was the only state where you can't pump your own gas.

Oops, Dan Moore, Gibbstown, NJ, knows better. He can't pump his own gas in New Jersey. But CW wonders in New Jersey will let you terminate your life after losing 40 cribbage games in a row? Oregon is lenient in that respect, giving you permission to do just that (and maybe even after losing 35 games in a row)! Well... maybe you will have to get a doctor's permission.

Carson Valley Reservations

The Carson Valley Classic in Minden, NV, may have a room shortage. Director Marvis Reynolds suggests that players planning on attending this event (Sept. 24-26) reserve a room soon. Especially if you are planning on staying at the Carson Valley Inn (the playing site). See full page ad, this issue.

Reynolds Will Train Younger Director

Marvis & Ralph Reynolds will train a younger couple to manage tournaments, and perhaps take over their workload. Call (541) 447-5920 if you are interested.

Louderback Hot

Gary Louderback, GR 243 (Olympia, WA) has been hot lately. He has scored two 28-hands, a 29-hand and had a Grand Slam. When you're hot, you're hot!

CRIBBAGE MASTER

Seen at the 16th National Open in Raleigh

Computer Cribbage for the IBM PC and Compatibles.

The complete, standard game and much more. Terrific graphics. Easy to play.

CRIBBAGE MASTER is a tough opponent and the best computer cribbage program there is! You will agree...full refund if you don't.

August Cribbage World Knows Old Man Murphy

August Cribbage World was beset with a variety of problems, making the mailing of this issue quite late.

First, all of 1999's reports were required to post the final MRP numbers and award the All-American team their honors. In addition, the final numbers were required to award the Master, Grand Master, Life Master, etc. their honors via the official center-fold invitations for the Awards Banquet at Las Vegas's Grand National XVIII in early September.

Needless to say, it is impossible to get 100% cooperation from so many in a short time period. A couple of reports were late, forcing a re-do of all the MRP numbers, and this even changed the order of finish of the All-American teams and All-Regional Teams.

And if that wasn't bad enough, Larry Hassett, in preparing the mailing labels, had problems. The printer slipped a cog, forcing a re-do of several hundred labels, in addition to other problems.

Game Stopper

On August 8, the Drfitters Cribbage Senior League had 30 members playing their 7-game weekly tournament. Halfway through the first game, Al "PePe" LaRose arrived for a short visit as he had celebrated his 100th birthday the day before. All 30 players stopped in the middle of the first game to have birthday cake and coffee. They marked their positions and deal on their scorecards. The re-start went perfectly. I never thought I would ever see a game of cribbage stopped in the middle. This was true sportsmanship at its best!

*Charles Burgess, Jr., Director
East Greenwich, RI*

Charles, along those lines, I was playing at the National Open, and the late Nick Pond announced to the crowd that a lightning storm was brewing outside, and if by chance the lights went out, stay in your seat and wait. Bam!, The lights went out (and no windows in the huge hall). Players waited in the darkness for a few minutes, then the lights came back on. A shout rang out, "Judge!!" Ed.

No Master Point Lists This Month

August is a light month insofar as Master Rating Points are concerned...and the beginning of the new year. Statistician Bob McCabe will, once again, in September's issue of Cribbage World, list the leaders in the three Regions.

A brief summary of who is leading the nation in the early going in the 2000 year follows:

Eastern Region: Bob Fitzgerald (CT) won the 138-player New England Inaugural, scoring 196 MRP's. Grand Master Paul Gallagher (MA) picked up 167 MRP's for winning the 9th Eastern States Championship.

Central Region: Minnesotan James Hogan has taken the national MRP lead by winning the huge (180 players) St. Croix Classic. He garnered 231 MRP's. Jean Cervantes (WI) is a step behind with 207.

Western Region: Sharon Hejtmanek (MT) took top qualifying honors in both her 2000 year starts...and zips to the 202 MRP mark to lead this region. Grand Master Todd Malmgren (OR), and Rosemary Hendricks own a sanctioned win in the early going and are over the 100 MRP mark.

Collectors... do you have your Roseburg Ralph board yet? The first (any maybe only) folding myrtlewood tournament long board. Or the solid long board in your choice of woods.

There are many boards...different shapes, sizes, and gimmicks...but this board is the one you will choose to play...and show off to your friends!
