McDonald World Champ Lawrence Cops Oregon Coast

In Early May, the Western Region is abuzz with cribbage events. The two largest are the World Championship in Quincy, CA (May 5-7) and the Oregon Coast Classic in Lincoln City, OR (May 12-14). Both events topped 200 players, rewarding the players with sizeable MRP's and cash prizes.

World Championship: Master Boyd McDonald, Mountain View, CA, came home the winner at this 202-player event, winning his final match 3-0 over the streaking Jesse Jarrell (CA). With the win came 196MRP's, $1,000 and bragging rights. McDonald is zeroing in on his Grand Master as well with this prestigious win. Jarrell's 2nd place finish netted 147 MRP's and vaults him into the National Master Point lead for this cribbage year...and he earned his two-star rating as well (15,000 MRP's, lifetime). This was Jarrell's 3rd consecutive 2nd place finish, and he is piling up MRP's at a record pace in April and May. He leads the pack with 1,400+ MRP's for the year.

Eric Nelson (CA) and Steve Harding (CA) nailed down 3-4. Aloha Montooth (CA) topped the qualifying round field with a nice 34 GP's in the 20-game match.

Grand Master Jones Hom (CA) took qualifying honors in the 82-player Consolation, but local Master Al Libby won the playoffs. Karen Pogue

(CA), Bud Warner (CA) and Peggy Cunningham (AZ) finished 2-3-4.

Director Mike Taborski had a full array of satellite events. The winners:

Doubles: Pam Pomaroy (CA) & John Alig (AZ)

High Roller: Guy Phelps (NV)

Saturday Special: Joen Hisaw (CA)

Bob Moon Award: Bob Dellinger (CA)

Kozlowski Award: Les Rasmussen (NV)

28's: Olyer, Dellinger, Gehrke, McGrew, McGillvray, Healy

29: Nick Ayoob (ACC's 19th)

The Quincy Rotary Club hosted a well-run affair, and provided the players with an excellent lunch and dinner. In addition, a very successful raffle with many nice prizes netted the Rotarians funds for their charity projects.

Oregon Coast Classic: Ed Lawrence, pegging out of Depoe Bay, OR, won the 219-player Classic, nipping Master Lea Hornbeck (WA) in the final playoff match. The win came with some $1,500, 196 MRP's, and a coveted Bill O'Malley trophy board. Hornbeck took home 147 MRP's, a four-figure 2nd place check, and another O'Malley board.

Master Donna Hassett (OR), fresh from winning her Grass Roots club championship, nailed down 3rd, followed by Ed Park (OR) in 4th.

Grand Master Jeanne Hofbauer (WA) took qualifying honors with a superlative 39 18/22 +270 to easily take honors. This high score also propelled her to wins in the team events. A new event on tap was the "Sadie Hawkins" team event. A woman picks a man for a partner, and this proved to be a very popular event (58 teams played). Jeanne picked spouse Roy and they waltzed to the win with a combined 67 GP's.

132 players played the Consolation, and Diane Harvey (OR) came away the winner, besting Grand Master Bernie Saueressig (WA) in the final playoff match. George LaBrasseur (OR) and Henry Carle (AK) finished 3-4. Carle's high finish netted him his long-awaited Master rating. Grand Master Harvey Honeycutt (OR) topped the field in the qualifying round with a 17 7/9 +135.

This event sported many satellite games. The winners:
Early Bird: Dan Hansen (OR)
High Rollers: Bruce Wridge (OR)
Doubles: Walt Howell & Ron Oleman (OR)
Saturday: George Rasmussen (WA)
Last Chance: Stu Kelly (WA)
28's: D. Westerlund, R. Krebs
Team: Morse, Colvert, R. Hofbauer, Hatcher, Sime
Sadie Hawkins: J. & R. Hofbauer

The host Chinook Winds Casino provided players with all the coffee, tea and pop they could drink, in addition to pastries. They also added $1,000 to the prize fund. This largess keeps the crowds increasing from year to year. The spacious, quality playing area also gives this site an added attraction. Directors Roy and Jeanne Hofbauer, Rollie Heath, and Bernie and Sophia Nelson had all events on time and well posted. The paybacks were fair and generous, attested to by yet another large crowd. And the ocean setting is another plus for those combining their pegging with a seaside outing.

World Championship Venettes

Bruce Forbes, Chico, CA, is the only player who has attended all 29 World Championship events.

Two-time World Champ Nick Ayoob (Quincy) was the only player to score a 29-hand...and he recorded this gem in the 12th game of the qualifying round.

Richard Brown traveled all the way from East Malling Kent, England in a try for the World title.

Paul Hatcher Earns 12th One-Star

The Yreka Gold Panners faced severe competition from Lake Tahoe and Hermiston, OR in late April, but 23 hardy peggers showed for their first annual Gold Panner event.

For Paul Hatcher, Salem, OR, the event proved memorable as he earned the ACC's 12th One-Star rating (10,000 MRP's lifetime). He won the 20-player Consolation to zip over the 10,000 mark.

Ex-World Champ Rollie Heath, a Grand Master from Lincoln City, OR, won the Main Event, and Grand Master Todd Malmgren (OR) took home 2nd.

Mike and Deena Lowry (CA) copped the Friday Doubles and won 2 of the 4 door prizes (unique gold pan trophies). Burt Ellis (OR) won the Friday preliminary game; Gerald Hahn took the Saturday game, and the Last Chance was won by none other than the director...Scott Dague.

In an interview with Cribbage World, One-Star Hatcher said that despite the few entrants in this event, it was a fun filled weekend, nevertheless. Earning One-Star is exciting, to say the least.

Palm Tree Pegging

Helen Barach from Tacoma, WA nailed the April edition of the Hawaiian Open. In besting the 23 players, Barach took home 70 MRP's, and bragging rights (and a sun tan?). Rodney Kanno (HI) finished 2nd.

Fred White, Hawaii's only Master pegger, took the Last Chance event.

180 In Pawtucket Karyn Fischer Tops Ocean State

Karyn Fischer, pegging out of North Providence, RI, came to play at the huge 180-player Ocean State Classic. She outlasted the field to take home the championship, 196 MRP's, and the top purse. Her last playoff match at this Pawtucket, RI match pitted her with Steve Scardace and her cards remained strong to gain the win. Mike Azevedo (MA) and Life Master George Webb (MA) finished 3-4.

Gene Santa (RI) had the hot hand in the qualifying round, scoring a nice 23 GP card in the 12-game round.

John Brodeur (MA) smoked the field in the Consolation qualifying round with an excellent 16 GP's in the 8-game round to take honors. When the playoffs wound down, only Pat Frattalone (CT) remained unbeaten to take this 104-player event. Frattalone earned 63 MRP's with the win. Charles Truett (MA) took home 2nd, followed by Donna Gavin (MA) and Brodeur in 3-4.

Director John Chambers reported a single 28-hand was scored... Al Tenenbaum from the Sunshine State. This event is one of the largest played in the New England area this cribbage season, attesting to Chamber's expertise at managing tournaments.

Fletcher Tough In Black Hills

Bob Fletcher, Aurora, CO was right at home in the Black Hills, as he nailed the Black Hills Open in Rapid City on May 7. In besting some 37 peggers, Fletcher took home 105 MRP's...and some Black Hills gold. Mark Robinette (CO) finished 2nd, with meet director Ron Hopp (SD) and T. J. Lewis (SD) in 3-4.

George Rodriguez (MT) continues his fine play this cribbage year by taking qualifying honors with a nifty 35 GP card in the 22-game qualifying round. His MRP total for this year is at the 700 mark.

Wes Hall (SD) very nearly ran the table in the 26-player Consolation, taking qualifying honors (17GP's, 9 games) and finishing 2nd in the playoffs. Pink Pinkerton (WY) took home 1st, with Dan Graf (SD) and Howard Pearson (SD) in 3-4. Tamie Hopp (SD) won the Friday Special, and T. J. Lewis copped the Saturday night game.

142 In Milwaukee Chowanec Tops Milwaukee Challenge

Master Walt Chowanec is tough when pegging on his home turf, and he came home the winner at the recent Milwaukee Challenge. In besting the large crowd of 142 peggers, Chowanec took home 196 MRP's, bragging rights and the top prize.

Doug Henderson, Racine, WI, nailed down 2nd, followed by Life Master Frank Danielski (WI) and Sandra Stroup (IL) in 3-4. Danielski's 105 MRP's earned vault him into the thick of this year's MRP race, standing at 900 for the year.

Sharon Schaefer (WI) scored an outstanding 37 GP card in the qualifying round (55 MRP's) to take honors.

Jeff Wussow (WI) won the 89-player Consolation, nipping Alan Vredeveid (MI) in the final playoff match. Grand Master Joe Aird (MI) and Dale Rohm (WI) finished 3-4. Master Tom Maresh (WI) nailed a great 9/9 20 GP Grand Slam in the qualifying round (27 MRP's) to take honors.

Director Marlene Lazachek had a full array of satellite events. The winners:

Friday: Jesse Jarrell (CA)

Captains: Bob McCabe (WI)

Saturday: Glenn Nelson (WI)

Last Chance: Rudy Rogutich (WI)

28: Tom Button (WI), Friday, 1st ever, Russell Adams (MN)

Lazachek was pleased with the large turnout...and reported peggers were on hand from eight states. With the large crowd, her hands were full...until 8-year old Dustin Fingleton came to her rescue. He is the nephew of Martha Fingleton.

Drought...Then Plenty!

At Grass Roots 257, Burbank, CA, they sport a skunk pot that rewards Grand Slams, 28 & 29-hands.

Week after week, no player collected from the pot. But on March 8, things began to heat up. First, Beverly Burri nailed down a Grand Slam...and a hefty prize. The next week (March 15) visitor Abby Cohen scored a Grand Slam (after turning in a Grand Slam at her home club the week before). Two weeks later Pam Pomeroy nails a 28-hand (her first ever) and collects half of what's left of the skunk pot. This nice hand appeared in game 4.

Would you believe that in game 5 she scored another 28-hand! Believe it or not! Her 2nd ever! Cribbage fever, catch it...you never know what to expect!

Quiz

Annett Eiffert (CA) asks, What is a spilliken?
Answer below.

Morgan Shakes 'Em Up

Ron Morgan (CA) was playing Bonnie Van Bergen (CA) at the World Championship. After watching Van Bergen get an exceptional run of good cards and cuts, the last straw was when she was dealt a 6-8-9-10 of hearts. Morgan stopped play, scattered the cards around the table, mixing and shuffling an extra measure in an attempt to get a few cards to go his way.

After much to do, and the extra shuffling, Morgan dealt the cards anew. Oops! Van Bergen, once again, played a 6-8-9-10 of hearts. Morgan threw up his hands in despair...and when the game wound down he was forced to write a big, fat zero on his score card.

Quiz Answer:

A spilliken is a peg...like a cribbage peg!

Asparagus Galore! Anderson Hermiston King

Todd Anderson, a veteran pegger from Portland, OR, has paid his dues...and he came home the winner at the recent Greater Hermiston Open. With 72 players in attendance, Anderson took home 147 MRP's, the winner's purse...and a load of freshly cut asparagus, compliments of Ken Capper (see below).

Grand Master Claire Morse (OR) took home 2nd, and vaults to the 700+ MRP mark for this cribbage year, keeping his top ten hopes alive. Walt Swearingen (WA) and Two-Star DeLynn Colvert (MT) finished 3-4.

Ken Cochlin (WA) nailed a 34 16/22 +197 to take qualifying honors. The 40 MRP's earned run Cochlin's lifetime total to 6,037....and Life Master no. 51!

Master Jim Waldorf (OR) topped the 50-player Consolation field in the qualifying round with a nice 19 8/9 +169 (24 MRP's), and he, too, is at the 700 MRP mark for the year. Grand Master Harvey Honeycutt (OR) won the playoff round, with veteran Anne Williams (OR) taking home 2nd. Wayne Larson (WA) and Iris Sundquist (OR) finished 3-4.

The Satellites:

Early Bird: I. V. Graham (MT)
Doubles: E. McKinney & J. Newman (OR)
High Rollers: Harold Buckley (AB)
Saturday: Marion Buckley (AB)
Team: Hartung, Arntzen, Cochlin, Swearingen

Super host Ken Capper invited scores of players over to his home for a cookout on Friday afternoon...and, not content with that largess, furnished the players 100 pounds of freshly cut asparagus on Sunday afternoon. He continues to show cribbagedland why he and spouse Betty were elected Mr. and Mrs. Cribbage in 1988.

Director James Seufert had all events on time and well-posted, and the host Eagles Lodge furnished reasonable meals and drinks. This event also sports a Calcutta (by auction) which gives an added attraction for the players.

Seufert Leads Hermiston Grass Rooters

Jim Seufert, GR 2, is leading his group after 34 events have been posted. He has won 201 to lead by a wide margin this cribbage year.

McGibney New Treasurer

By a majority vote of the ACC Executive Committee Fred McGibney will replace Roger Wilson as the ACC Treasurer, effective immediately. Roger will remain the ACC Treasurer's backup for emergency status. Roger is currently in the process of transferring all of the ACC treasury's records to McGibney and hopes to have this completed by July 1, 2000. The ACC should see a smooth transition as Fred is well capable. He was the former ACC Treasurer prior to Roger Wilson's tenure.

I would like to thank Roger Wilson for his contribution to the ACC during his tenure as Treasurer. His ability as Treasurer was an asset to our organization and I speak for many in saying we appreciate his help and are indebted to him for a job well done.

*Patrick Barrett
ACC VP of Operations*

Roger recently e-mailed Cribbage World and asked our members and advertisers to make out all checks for memberships and advertising payable to the American Cribbage Congress (ACC). Do NOT make them payable to Cribbage World, DeLynn Colvert, or Larry Hassett. This makes the treasurer's job, Cribbage World's editor's job, and the membership secretary's job a little easier. Thanks. Ed.

Rare 28 Leads to Double Skunk

I have been playing cribbage on Friday at noon to 2 PM for close to 35 years with a group. There is from four to seven of us depending on who is away on vacation.

On April 28, we were playing our usual game. I got three 5's and two queens dealt in a doubles game. I threw a queen to the crib, and my partner cut and a 5 was turned for a 28-hand! That hand was enough for my partner and I to double-skunk our opponents.

This was about my third 28-hand in approximately 60 years of playing the game.

*Herb Horen
Monterey, CA*

Yessir, Herb, a 28 in doubles is much tougher to get than in singles! Ed.

Life Master?

Grand Master Rollie Heath won the World Championship in Quincy, CA two years ago.

Two years later he was good enough to win his local GR 46 (Salem, OR) championship. This club sports world-class competition!

Master Point Race

2nd + 2nd + 2nd = 1st!

Jarrell Scores 437 MRP's, Zips to National Lead

Jesse Jarrell, Pittsburg, CA, has unofficially roared to his Two-Star rating (15,000 MRP's) this past month by scoring three consecutive 2nd place finishes in large tournaments, picking up 125 MRP's at the Rio Linda Open, 145 MRP's at the Lake Tahoe Challenge, and yet another 147 MRP's at the World Championship in Quincy, CA. This outstanding three weeks of pegging netted Jarrell 437 MRP's, and vaults him into the National MRP lead with some 1,428 MRP's (unofficial).

Paul Hatcher, Salem, OR, scored just enough MRP's at the Yreka Gold Panners (CA) to earn his One-Star, but could not match Jarrell's run. He stands at 1,200 MRP's for the year. One-Star Bob Julian (WI), Two-Star DeLynn Colvert (MT), and Master Ron Morgan (CA) stand at the 1,000 mark for the year. Morgan's great run has him knocking on the door for his Grand Master rating.

Five peggers have topped 800 for the year, and have an outside chance of taking home the national championship. They are: Grand Master Jack Moritzky (WA), Life Master Frank Danielski (WI), Master Robert Chase (MN), Grand Master Clair Morse (OR), and Life Master Patrick Barrett (WI).

Nine peggers have topped 700 MRP's for the year, and will have to pick up their pace a bit to take top-ten honors this cribbage year. All nine have great track records in years past, and could easily zip to honors. They are: Grand Master Todd Schaefer (MN), Grand Master Roger Wilson (CO), Grand Master Jim Waldorf (OR), One-Star Phyllis Schmidt (MA), One-Star Warren Sondericker (WI), One-Star Duane Toll (WI), One-Star Harry Palmer (MA), and Grand Master Mary Herrmann (CA).

Some 15 peggers have topped 600 and have an excellent chance of making the All-American team if they can hit a "hot streak.!" With many large events yet to be played, the race is on! Cribbage fever! Catch it!

105 Points!

Ref. May CW, page 5 (Al Wilson).

Not bad, Al, but how about each player being dealt 4-4-5-5-7-8, and each discards the 7-8 to the crib. A 6 is cut. The pegging would go 5-5-5-4-4-4-4, then 5. The non-dealer would score 48 points and the dealer takes home 57 for a total of 105 points!

*Tom Fiorini
Agawam, MA*

Tom, that is a great total score for both players! However, CW is still waiting for someone to score more than 70 for the dealer! Ed.

William "Ratso" Roderick Wins Rio Linda Open, Not Jesse Jarrell

Last month's CW stated that Jesse Jarrell (CA) "nailed" the Rio Linda Open, and was called on the carpet by director Craig Hays for misinformation. No so, argues CW editor DeLynn Colvert. Anytime you finish in the top four, you have "nailed" the event. Jarrell finished 2nd. Roderick is not in the running for top-ten honors, and did not get the ink he deserves (MRP race article). Apologies to all who were offended.

Zellmer Takes

Warren Swett Memorial

Dennis Zellmer is not an ACC member but he came home the winner at the Annual Warren Swett Memorial in Crystal Lake, IL. This rare win by a non-member cost Zellmer 147 MRP's in this 126-player event. Grace Cummings (WI) is a member (former Grand National winner) and she zipped to 2nd. Her 105 MRP's will take her lifetime MRP's to well over 3,000. She was aided by a 28-hand in the qualifying round. Tom Swett (IL) and Mark Habighorst (WI) finished 3-4. Master Ed Heinowski (WI) topped the field in the qualifying round with a 35 GP score.

Life Master Syl Lulinski (IL) won the 70-player Consolation (picking up 63 MRP's). John Kolby (IL), Steve Grage (IL), and Master Bill Erickson (IL) finished 2-3-4. Grage also took qualifying honors.

Director John Swett had satellite events on tap, as well. The winners: Early Bird: Glenn Nelson; Saturday: Ed Heinowski; and Last chance; George Stankus.

Some Thoughts On Betrayal

The membership of the American Cribbage Congress has, overwhelmingly, been exceedingly fortunate in our dealings with each other. We have several thousand members who embody the aims and objectives of the organization: people who are attracted and retained by the friendly competition offered at Grass Roots and Sanctioned Tournament venues. It is a tribute to both the letter and spirit of our playing ethos and practices that very few persons have been suspended and/or expelled for rules violations. Situations involving public rancor between members have been nearly nonexistent.

So why are we so depressed?

Webster's Encyclopedia Unabridged Dictionary of the English Language defines "betray" as "to be disloyal to; to disappoint the hopes or expectations of; to deceive, mislead." Webster's defines "trust" as: "reliance on the integrity, strength, ability, surety, etc. of a person or thing; confidence..." "trust" implies instinctive unquestioning belief in and reliance upon something."

Two high-profile members of the ACC have been accused in the past 16 months of the theft of money from the membership of the organization. We are angry and sad because our trust has been betrayed. This leads, naturally, to a generalized attitude of suspicion to which we are unaccustomed. Additionally, we begin to wonder if our own judgement is less insightful than we would like to believe it is...

How pathetically desperate these persons must have been to even contemplate such indecent acts against others who have sincerely felt them to be friends!

They deserve our pity, but not our money.

Because of the nature of this recreational pursuit, it is probable, in our estimation, that attempts of this sort are likely to be made in the future. We sincerely hope that, should such incidents occur, they will continue to be dealt with quickly and judiciously. We also hope that the ACC Board of Directors will continue in its resolve NOT to consider the reinstatement of expelled cheaters, of whatever stripe. We are a social organization devoted to a game that we all enjoy, and have neither the inclination nor the expertise to rehabilitate persons with character disorders.

What we hope most of all is that members do not allow these isolated acts of desperation-induced betrayal to create a poisonous lack of trust in each other. We are lucky to be part of an organization composed almost entirely of truly wonderful people. We simply cannot afford, no matter what the circumstances, to forget that.

Dick Ogden Cops Hawkeye

Master pegger Dick Ogden from nearby Des Moines copped the Hawkeye Classic on May 7. His final match in this 58-player event pitted him with another Iowan, John Crouch. His cards remained hot, and Ogden came away with the championship.

Minnesotan Earl Fox and Lyle Anderson (WI) finished 3-4.

Master Charles Parker (MN) scored a nice 35 GP card in the 22-game qualifying round to take home honors (and 45 MRP's).

Bob Sommer (MN) is nearing his Grand Master by running the table in the 36-player consolation. He qualified with a great 18 GP card in the 9-game round, and then proceeded to win the playoffs as well. Bart Jaeger (NE) took home 2nd, with Life Master Jim Rein (MN) and Troy Bonin (IA) in 3-4.

Director Larry Loupee scheduled several satellite events. The winners:

Friday Early Bird: Dick Ogden (IA)

Saturday Special: Jim Rein (MN)

All Events: Joan Rein (MN)

Loupee keeps 'em pegging in the Hawkeye State.

Alter Retiring

Ron Hopp, director of the Black Hills Open, reports that Harold "Red" Alter is retiring. The cribbage trail may soon see more pegging from this Aurora, CO pegger.

Nunez Cooked Goose

Glenn Nunez (CA) was pegging with Annett Eiffert (CA) and needed 11 pegs to win the game with first count at the recent Lions Open in Alamo, CA. Eiffert needs 8 pegs to win the game as the dealer. Nunez holds 3-3-2-1 and feels confident the game is his. A 10 is cut and he is home free, right? Wrong. He leads a 3 (normally a good play, right?). Wrong. Eiffert holds a 4-5-6-7. The game is over! No matter what sequence the cards are played (after the 3 lead), Eiffert will score a run of 7 and 31 for 2 on her last card played.

Discarding Techniques And Board Position

The cards you discard into your opponent's crib can vary, depending on both you and your opponent's board position. Let's take the following two examples for the same hand.

You are dealt 2-3-3-4-J-J. There is no flush.

Example 1: You are at the 115 hole, and your opponent (dealer) is at 116.

Example 2: You are at the 82 hole, and your opponent (dealer) is at 88.

Example 1: You should discard the 4-J. You only need 6 pegs to go out. The main object is to keep your opponent from pegging out. By keeping one of the Jacks, you've kept an escape route, in case your opponent tries to get into a run. You should lead the 3. If your opponent lays a 4, trying to set up a run, you can play the Jack, and stay away from the run.

Example 2: You should discard the pair of Jacks. You need 13 to get into position for your deal. The best chance is to hold the double-run, and the odds are very good, that with the cut, you will have at least 12 points. On the other hand, your opponent is dealing 7 holes short of position. Giving him the pair probably won't enhance his crib that much, and he'll be short when you are dealing from the 95 hole (or better). You have three hands to count, and with a little bit of luck, you win the game.

Hospitality Plus In Lincoln City

At the recent Oregon Coast Classic in Lincoln City, OR, Bernie and Sophia Nelson showed what cribbage camaraderie is all about. Would you believe they invited 11 peggers into their home for the weekend? This beachfront home and their kind hospitality made for a great weekend of pegging. And Jeanne Hofbauer (WA) profited from a $5 house pool. Her scorecard was the highest of the 12 peggers in the house and she carted home an extra $60!

Quiz II

Grand Master Bernie Nelson (OR) has a unique collection. What is it...and what was his very first acquisition? (Not a fair quiz...but have at it). Answer below.

Donna Hassett Queen of Roseburg

The Grass Roots club in Roseburg, OR is getting tired of crowning Donna Hassett as their Grass Roots Champion. She has won this honor 5 times! With 3,700+ MRP's in the bank, it is no surprise to Cribbage World.

John Svilarich Hot

John Svilarich, Grass Roots 162, Sacramento, CA, is hot! On Monday in Grass Roots action he scored a 28-hand. The next Saturday he scored a sanctioned 28-hand (Rio Linda)...and again on Sunday in the Consolation, yet another! When you're hot, you're hot!

Quiz II Answer:

Bernie Nelson was at the Play Boy Club in Chicago in 1962...and he took home a shot glass as a memento of the occasion. This led to a shot glass collection. He now has several glassed wall racks crammed with some 478 shot glasses...and counting.

No Kidding?

Regarding your item, "No Kidding" in the last CW, I have a comment. You say, "of course" the fellow with the 28-hand won.

Well, our club leader, Dave Hubsch, has had two 28-hands, and one 29-hand in league play since joining the Mount Taylor Cribbage Club, and has lost all three games!!

What weird stuff you see in this crazy game!

World Championship Update

I had heard from a few players who competed at our World Championship (WCCT) in May that several of their Grass Roots players were not returning to Quincy because they felt the prize money wasn't enough. I heard one say, "Gee, you have over 200 players in Quincy and the top prize is only $1,000. I played at a tournament recently where the top prize with 100 players was $1,500.

That misunderstanding needs to be addressed and, as a tournament director, I need some input from tournament players.

First, let me put our cards on the table. As ACC requires, we pay back 85% of the registration fee less $2 per entrant that we have to send to ACC and any other non-cash dividends provided to the contestants. For the WCCT that includes the coffee, donuts, plaques, lunch and dinner. All other expenses associated with the tournament comes from the remaining 15%. Whatever we make off the raffle, bar and food service go to our club's charity.

This year in the main event we had 202 players with a prize fund of $6,520. Here's a simple, but complete breakdown of the math (the same formula we use every year): Registration: $60. From that we deduct $6 for lunch, $12 for dinner, $2 ACC fees leaving $40 for the prize fund. Multiply times 202 = $8,080. Deduct $410 for trophies, $170 for coffee and donuts. That leaves $7,500. Our allowed 15% cut equals $1,125 (that's what's available to pay fairground rent, sound system rental and other expenses). $7,500 less the $1,125 leaves $6,375 for the prize fund, and we paid back $6,520.

One quick point regarding the food: Quincy isn't big enough to feed a group our size, and certainly not in time for the players to return in a timely manner to resume play. Those who have attended any of our tournaments know our primary focus is to have a good time, play as much cribbage as we can in the time allowed and listen to what our players want from us. And that's been the key to our successful tourneys.

We run a fun, smooth tourney and hate to lose players for reasons that are within our control, so here's my questions: We've obviously giving the players more than their share of the purse, so are we paying too many places? We returned money to all those who qualified, in our case that was 51 qualifying, so 33-51 received their $60 entry back, then graduated the paybacks to reach the $1,000 first place prize. That's $1,140 that could go to the top finishers. We've heard it both ways, if you qualify you deserve some money. Others argue to the contrary. We also provide plaques to the top 32 qualifiers, maybe those should be eliminated? Do players want more money paid to the top finalist? I'd love to hear from you and other tournament directors if you have any suggestions. I'll be happy to share them in an article or letter in a future Cribbage World.

Next year, we'll be crowning our 30th World Champion. Will it be you? Hope you can make it.

*Mike Taborski
Director, World Championship*

GR Region IV Commissioner

Bill Shirland Resigns

Bill Shirland, Grass Roots Region IV (CO) Commissioner tendered his resignation on May 11.

He added: "To all the Club Directors and players in this region, I can only say thanks for your cooperation and participation. If I can be of any assistance to any of you, feel free to contact me anytime!"

Wild Finish

GR46, Salem, OR, has a last 24-hand of the night award.

Visitor Ron Morgan (CA) nailed a 24-hand on his very last hand of the final 9th game! Wow! The pot is his...or at least he feels it is his!

Three other games down the row are playing a tad slower than Morgan and were still busy with their 9th game. Bingo, another 24-hand! A winner? No! Double bingo, yet another 24-hand! Surely a winner? Wrong! Jerry Rice is playing his last game and scores yet another 24-hand! Since his is the last game, he wins, right? Well, yes he did, but on his next score, he inadvertently picked up his front peg, losing the 24-points of the previous score. It was a wild finish and a unique way to win the 24-hand pot!

Carle Gets Gift Certificate

Henry Carle (AK) has been trying for some time to score 47 MRP's to earn his Master rating.

His Anchorage club decided to cheer him up and gave him a gift certificate for 46 MRP's. Mike Rowe, Chris Kim and L. M. Stier know how to rub it in.

Rich Burns Repeats

The 13th Annual Danville-Lions Open had a repeat winner. Last year Rich Burns, Hayward, CA, came away with the win...and he did it again in 2000! This time around, Cindy Moss (CA) had to settle for 2nd place. Burns earned 147 MRP's (and bragging rights). Moss came away with 105 MRP's. Mary Lee Brown (CA) and Bob Sibert (CA) finished 3-4. Sibert also took qualifying honors in this 84-player event with a nice 33 GP card (18-game round).

James Hammer (CA) won the 40-player Consolation, with Master Chris Quigley (CA) in 2nd. Grand Master Helen Bolstad (CA) and Grand Master Bill Wakeman (CA) took home 3-4. Grand Master Heidi Glashan (CA) took qualifying honors with a 16 GP card in the 9-game round.

Director Ron Graham reported two 28-hands...Lolo Clay (CO) and Angelo Torrice (CA).

Michigan Upper Peninsula McCarthy Wins Island Quest

With a large crowd of 146 peggers in action at the Chip In Island Resort and Casino, it was Dan McCarthy of Berlin, WI taking home the marbles (and $1,000). The win also came with a whopping 196 MRP's. Master Ted Hokeson (MI) nailed 2nd, with Barry Alderton and Richard Pigeon taking home 3-4.

Life Master Frank Danielski (WI) took top qualifying honors (36GP's, 22 games) earning 50 MRP's, then was knocked out in the 2nd round playoffs by his wife Ginny. Nevertheless, he earned 71 MRP's and zips well over the 900 MRP mark this cribbage year. He is among the top five in the country as the season winds down.

"Bridesmaid" Agnes Hokenson took home a beautiful cribbage board donated by the casino.

Some 85 players played the Consolation and Grand Master Don Flesch (WI) won going away. Scott Nordlun, Clarence Charles, and Master Roberta Schweig finished 2-3-4. Flesch also took qualifying honors, posting a nice 17 GP score in the 9-game round.

Director Joe Aird had a full array of satellite events. The winners:

Friday: John Healey (MI)

Saturday: Les Kvien (IL)

24-hands @ $24 each: 180 were scored

28-hands @ $250: Jean Cervantes, Mary Ann Laituri

The Chip In Island Casino furnished a spacious playing area, and a free t-shirt and gaming packages to all the players, in addition to their largess in providing bonus's for 24 and 28 hands.

Director Aird reported a smooth-running event, thanking Aggie and Gene Mikulsky for their experienced help, along with the members of the Bay de Noc Peggers from Gladstone, MI. Aird hopes to schedule this event again next May, 2001.
