Annual Gathering of the Clan

Kochenburg Repeats TOC Win Dulin Wins JPW/ACC Open

The annual gathering of the clan saw some 1,014 peggers descend on Reno in early February for some spirited pegging...and when the pegs were laid away on Sunday evening, it was Virgil Dulin, Fayetteville, NC, and Dale Kochenburg, San Jose, CA coming home the winners. Dulin copped the 1,014 player JPW/ACC Open on Sunday and Kochenburg nailed the 500-player Tournament of Champions on Friday. Dulin's $10,000 first-place prize is the largest of the year in sanctioned play. Kochenburg took home a whopping $7,900, but no MRP's, in this by invite only event. Kochenburg also won this event in 1996, and he joins One-Star Warren Sondericker (WI) as a two-time winner.

And Dulin also finished 2nd in the TOC, and scored that weekend that all players dream about. His combined take was well over $15,000, not to mention a whopping 315 MRP's earned in the JPW/ACC Open. Another Eastern Region player scoring that dream weekend was Life Master Bob Drukman (MA). He finished in the 3-4 bracket in the TOC (after qualifying first) and nailed down 2nd in the JPW/ACC Open to cart home well over $10,000. Another player scoring well in both events was Scott Kooistra (SD). This One-Star player finished in the top ten in both events, and went home well rewarded for his weekend's play.

In the TOC, it was Michael Shell (WA), fresh from winning the Washington Championship two weeks earlier, taking home 3-4 and he took home $3,475.

In the JPW/ACC Open, Craig Phipps (NJ) and Norm Nikodym (CA) finishing in the 3-4 bracket. They each won $3,200 and carted home some 196 MRP's.

The TOC sported a new event this year...a "Cribbage Bowl" was played in lieu of the usual Consolation, allowing players in town for the weekend a chance for some Friday action, in addition to the losers in the TOC's Main Event. The event was well received and a whopping 488 players signed on. Bill Cooper (GA) scored the top card ($1,450), followed by Jesus Fernandez (CA), Bill Robe (CA), and Carmen Lanagan (OR).

On Sunday afternoon, the ACC's 2nd largest event of the year saw some 808 players sign on for the JPW/ACC Open's Consolation event. Warren Gallagher (MA) scored a grand slam 20 9/9 +157 to easily take qualifying honors, but it was Master LaDonna Govenor (CA) taking home the playoff action. Matt Easterbrook (VA), Paul Hirschmann (OR), and Ken Johnson (FL) finishing 2-3-4.

A highlight of the JPW/ACC Open saw John Jenkins (NC) score the ACC's 9th 29-hand of this cribbage year...and he was rewarded with $100 from the ACC for a sanctioned 29-hand.

Kochenburg Repeats

With the large crowd in action, 28-hands were scored with regularity. Some 12 players nailed this 15,028 to 1 gem. They are: Mark Flatto, Bernie Nelson, Bub Gremer, Bill O'Malley, Russell Perkins, Margaret Ann Keeley, Howard Terry, Tim Hutten, Glenna Little, Mary Gladish, John Holseth, and Curtis Lien.

The host Sands Regency, as usual, treated the players with "red-carpet" hospitality. Barbara Woodward and the Sand's staff kept the coffee and sweet rolls on tap the entire weekend, and the buffet lunches were exceptional values.

Joan Rein, director of the Tournament of Champions, did a great job in managing the huge Friday crowds, and directors Scott Kooistra, Jeanne and Roy Hofbauer, were on top of the action on Saturday and Sunday. Many volunteers gave their time to make the weekend one to remember.

Jeff Raynes Tops in Georgia

Master Jeff Raynes, Cary, NC, took home the marbles ($700 and 147 MRP's) at the recent 80-player Savannah Open. His final match with David O'Neal (GA) went to the wire, but Raynes prevailed with the win. Charles Dolge (NC), and Ed Reinhold (VA) finished in the 3-4 bracket, earning 70 MRP's each. Curtis Barbour (NC) took qualifying honors with a nice 33 15/22 +192.

Master Paul Barnes (FL) won 7 of 9 with three skunks to take qualifying honors in the 62-player Consolation, but it was Master Larry Phifer (NC) winning the playoffs. Lindsay Peever (FL), Perry Stump (FL), and Master John Worley (NC) finished 2-3-4.

Director Bill Cooper kicked off his first event in style, drawing a nice crowd. He reported that Aaron Geroux and Buzz Adams won the satellite events. He also reported that John Worley and Joe Daesch scored 28-hands (worth half of the skunk pool). In addition, he wishes to thank Ken Cambell for donating his entry fee to the tourney's charity. Ken was unable to attend the event. And next year, Cooper will have his wife, Mary Ann, as his co-director.

Vignettes FROM RENO

With well over 1,000 players in action for the long weekend in Reno, many unusual happenings occurred. Here are a few:

Hall of Famer Bob Madsen (IL) was in town a day early, and placed a few bucks on the crap table. He bet on a hot player and in short order walked away with a cool $1,300!

Jeff Shimp (IN) would be inducted into the Hall of Fame a day later, and, he too, was in town a day early. Playing single-deck black jack, he drew to a Q-2. The dealer dealt an ace. He took another hit...another ace! A third hit...and another ace! Sitting at 15, he decided on just one more hit. Would you believe he drew the 4th ace! Back-to-back, all the aces in the deck! Even the pit boss walked over and whistled at that one! Nevertheless, Shimp lost the hand.

Lea Hornbeck (WA) had 11 wins in a row, and needed 22 to win his 12th consecutive game. He scored 21!

Jeanne and Jason Hofbauer (mother and son) (WA) qualified for the playoffs in the huge crowd (254 qualifiers). Oops, they met in the first round playoffs. Jeanne won 3-2.

Whining was going on galore! Whiner's rights went to: Al Whitsett (OR): he lost 13 in a row. Galen McKie (CA): had 26 GP's in the bank with 6 games to go, lost them all. Russell Adams (MN): also lost 13 games in a row. Duane Toll (WI): lost 10 of first 11 games. Tom Owens (CA): playing in his first TOC, lost 14 in a row!

Sylvia Sutton (CA) held four 2's, and in the same hand DeLynn Colvert (MT) held four 9's.

Paul Nolz (OR) had 26 GP's, with three games to go...lost them all.

The Sands was abuzz with peggers for three days running, and the spirited competition and the renewing of friendships from players from all three regions and Canada, make this event unique in cribbage land. Look for a re-run next year! And as most players say, "Wait til next year!"

Lewis and Clark Event Moves

Director Scott Kooistra (SD) has been having a gathering of the clan in the midwest every summer at Yankton, SD.

But this year, he is moving the event to Sioux Falls, SD. This will be the 14th annual and will be played at the Oaks Hotel and Convention Center just off I-29 at exit 81. The date? July 13-15.

The Oaks Hotel has been the site for the Sunbird Classic and has been selected as the site for the upcoming 2003 Grand National.

Kooistra invites the ACC membership to attend this event, as it is the highlight of the summer season in the Central Region. For information: (612) 370-0624.

Ziska Hits Grand Slam!

Oops, 2nd Place!

At a recent Grass Roots meet in Port Charlotte, FL, some 53 players were in action. After playing his 9 games, Phil Ziska turned in a nice 9/9 grand slam, and was confident that his 18 GP card would take the grand enchilada!

Wrong! Tom Ingle came along and posted another grand slam with two skunks!

They play for keeps at GR 147!

Lucky Game Eight

In Colorado Springs, CO, Blanche Edwardson scored a 24-hand in her 8th game on January 3rd, winning the 24-hand pot.

On January 17, in game 8, she did it again. Another 24-hand! Another 24-hand pot winner!

Of course we know how this all happens. She is Irish!

Gilkeson Plays With Big Pegs

Bryant Gilkeson (NV) plays with big pegs! To date he has placed these big pegs in 130 holes.

He says he has 90 more of these big pegs to put in more holes... and then he can rest a spell.

What is this? Well, these big pegs are fence posts...and he has a nice ranchette, thank you!

Jeff Shimp Elected to Hall of Fame

Jeff Shimp, a Life Master and long-time member of the American Cribbage Congress's Board of Directors, was elected to the ACC's Hall of Fame at the recent Board of Directors' meeting in Reno. He is the 19th member of this elite group.

Shimp has the distinction of being a member of the ACC's Board of Directors since day-one, and he was very instrumental in getting the Congress off and running in 1980. He has a long history of service above and beyond the call of duty. He is currently serving as Chairman of the Judges Program, and he is continually volunteering his services at sanctioned events. In addition, he is director of the annual Potawatomi Peggers Pow Wow played in Michigan.

Shimp is also a force on the boards, having earned All-American honors in 1985. He recently won the Roadrunner Classic in Mesa, AZ...for the 2nd year in a row.

Jeff and his wife, Joy, reside in Nashville, Indiana.

Dead Heat!

Langley, Hornbacher, Morgan Set MRP Pace

With seven months' play in the bag, and only five remaining, it is Grand Master Jim Langley (CA), Grand Master Jim Hornbacher (WA), and Grand Master Ron Morgan (CA) setting the pace. All three of these stellar peggers are standing at just under 800 MRP's for this cribbage year, and have a 150 MRP lead (or more) on the rest of the field.

Five peggers have topped 600 MRP's this cribbage year: Life Master Bill Medeiros (MA), One Star Warren Sondericker (WI), One Star Bob Julian (WI), Three Star DeLynn Colvert (MT) and Life Master Jones Hom (CA).

Some 21 peggers have topped the 400 mark, and are well within range to overtake the leaders with a hot run of cards. Cribbage fever...catch it!

Shimp Repeats as Roadrunner Champ

Jeff Shimp, a Life Master from Nashville, IN, loves the Arizona sunshine. For the second year in a row, he has won the Roadrunner Classic in Mesa, AZ. This time around, a record crowd was on hand (114 players) as the cribbage grapevine is spreading the word that Arizona is the place to play in February.

Local Leonard Duckworth gave Shimp a run for the money, but settled for 2nd place. Duckworth kicked off the long weekend's pegging by winning the Friday Special and enjoyed a great weekend of play. Life Master Jeanne Hofbauer was a long way from her Washougal, WA home, but paid for the trip with a 3-4 finish. Local Helen Burley joined her in this bracket.

Frank Podjun (GA) had a hot card (39 18/22 +273) to take qualifying honors (and 65 MRP's).

Arizonan John Alig took the 56-player Consolation, besting Canadian Leo Schnurr in the final playoff match. And not to be outdone by his spouse, Life Master Roy Hofbauer finished in the 3-4 bracket with Arizonan Maxine Burgert.

National MRP front-runner Jim Langley (CA) was on hand and he won the Saturday night game, qualified in the Main, and won the All-Events, to prove his run for the roses is no fluke.

Directors Ron and Laurie Logan were pleased with the record turnout, up from 84 last year. Snowbirds were on hand from all parts of the country...and it was first-time tournament player from Detroit, MI taking home 5th...Tom Halatsis! He was elated after his great first-time effort netted this high finish. Cribbage World predicts this event will continue to grow as word gets out about the great climate, coupled with the Logan's expertise in running this event.

Late St. Croix Classic Report

Cribbage World has not received the official report, as we go to press, from the latest Turtle Lake event (St. Croix Classic) but the cribbage grapevine has Master Dave Gustafson edging Grand Master Todd Schaefer for the title. This is Gustafson's first sanctioned Main Event win. Schaefer is getting a bridesmaid complex, as this is the third time he has finished 2nd at this event in 15 tries.

$30,000 Restitution to ACC Monroe Sentenced to 9 Months

At the ACC's Board of Director's meeting on February 4, 1999 at Reno (NV), Jeff Shimp moved and Pat Barrett seconded a motion to authorize Bob Julian to contact legal counsel and any other person as required to resolve the Membership Secretary Situation. Motion carried.

As the theft of ACC funds occurred in Napa, CA, the Napa Police Department was contacted. Detective Paul Paniagua was assigned to the case and after nearly a year of investigation, including contacts with Fred McGibney and Roger Wilson, a sum of $73,000 was determined as allegedly taken by Jeff Monroe. After nearly a second year of trial dates and postponements, a final trial date in August 2000 was set. At that time a plea-bargaining arrangement was discussed with Mr. Monroe's attorney and Deputy District Attorney B. Tong of Napa County whereby a restitution of $30,000 would be made to the ACC prior to any decision by the court. A new trial date was set for November 29, 2000. At that time, and as a result of the plea-bargaining arrangement, Jeff Monroe pleaded "no contest" to a charge of grand theft felony with sentence to be deferred until a one-time restitution of $30,000 was made to the ACC. A sentence date of January 29, 2001 was set.

The check for $30,000 was received by ACC Treasurer Fred McGibney on January 17, 2001. On January 29, 2001 Mr. Monroe was sentenced with some of the following conditions:

Incarceration for 270 days in the Napa Department of Corrections, starting at 8 AM on Monday, February 26, 2001. Defendant may apply for work furlough with eligibility to be determined by the Review Board.

Pay the jail booking fee set by Napa County.

Obeys all reasonable orders of the probation officer.

Seek and maintain gainful, full-time employment.

Immediately enroll in, pay for, and successfully complete the theft awareness program chosen by the probation officer.

Attend Gamblers Anonymous as directed by the probation officer and give written proof of attendance.

Pay a $200 penal code section 1202.4 restitution fine.

The entire case was carried on and concluded with minimal cost and no legal counsel expense to the ACC.

Rare One-Day Western Event Hall Tops Central Coast (CA)

Director Darrell Hunstad scheduled a rare one-day event in the Western Region on January 6 in Arroyo Grande, CA. Some 52 players came to play...and it was Roland Hall, Napa, CA coming home the winner. His 105 MRP's and bragging rights is a great way to kick off the new year. Master Amelee Killion (CA) nailed down 2nd, followed by Robert Cross (CA) and Ron Reid (CA) in the 3-4 bracket.

Master Linda Swiontek plays golf with Slazinger balls, but she plays cribbage with red-hot pegs. She was top qualifier with a 12/12 24 GP grand slam card! A 12 for 12 is 4,096 to 1 (skill levels being equal).

34 peggers were in action in the Consolation, and Paul Halucka (CA) nailed the win (and 45 MRP's). Sara Horne (CA) took 2nd and was the top qualifier with a 7-game grand slam.

Director Hunstad reports "not a one!" insofar as 28's and 29's were concerned.

Paulette Rowe Tops Moose Nugget

A small crowd barely made the minimum for a sanctioned event in Anchorage, AK on December 16. With 17 players in action, it was Paulette Rowe (AK) winning...and picked up 70 MRP's. Pinquoch Waggner (AK) took 2nd and was also the top qualifier. No sanctioned Consolation was played.

Annett Eiffert Wins Super Bowl

The first Super Bowl Classic was played in Elmira, CA on January 27, and since this was a day early for the football Super Bowl, some 78 players came to play. This time around, Annett Eiffert (CA) didn't use her stock of 29-hands to win, and came away with 147 MRP's...and better results than the New York Giants would receive the next day. Charlie Dunn (CA) took home 2nd, with Jim Weires (MN) and John Schmucker (CA) in 3-4.

Life Master Jones Hom (CA) is in the hunt for the national title this cribbage year, and he took qualifying honors with a superlative 27 11/14 +246 for a nifty 55 MRP's.

Walter Pilgrim (CA) won the 48-player Consolation, with Jim Crawford (CA), Mark Jenkins (CA) and Master Thelma Weber (CA) in 2-3-4. Master Harold Sontag won 7 of 9 games to take qualifying honors. Director Jeanne Jelke is off and running with Super Bowl action.

Bolstad Wins Pacific Coast

Grand Master Helen Bolstad, Martinez, CA is at the 400 mark for MRP's this cribbage year, and she brought home another bushel for winning the recent Pacific Coast Championship in Salinas, CA. In topping the nice field of 114 players, she scored yet another 147 MRP's, and has topped 5,000 MRP's (lifetime).

Richard Price (CA) nailed down 2nd, with Tad Pilecki (CA) and Grand Master Mary Herrmann (CA) finishing in the 3-4 bracket. Grand Master Roger King (CA) is aptly named, as he posted the top score in the qualifying round...a nice 37 GP effort (55 MRP's).

Mel Ashley (CA) is running hot this cribbage season, and he keeps his hat in the MRP race with a great 19 GP card in the 76-player Consolation. Grand Master Joe Lusignan (CA) won the playoffs, with John Prehn (CA), Sylvia Sutton (CA) and Patty Echard (NV) in 2-3-4.

Director H. Ross Njaa had a full slate of satellite events. The winners:

Friday: Bob Julian (WI)

Saturday: Roberta Nelson (CA)

All Events: Bob Julian (WI)

Team: D. Brown, J. Pomerleau, P. Pomeroy, R. Rideau

Njaa also reported that Joe Lilley, Prince George, BC, scored the ACC's 9th 29-hand of this cribbage season, and the $100 from the ACC should be enough to get him back to Canada. Bob Julian (WI) scored a 28-hand and lost the game. Lilley also lost his 29-hand game. William Summers II (CA) scored a 28-hand...and he didn't let his game get away!

Director Njaa always conducts a first-class event, attested by yet another nice crowd.

Doppelt Tops Wine Country

Grand Master Jackie Doppelt (CA) is the director of the Wine Country Open...and she must be embarrassed about winning her own event. Her tourney report was very late, but this September event is now safely posted. Vaida Stevens (CA), Master Clyde Ross (CA), and Grand Master Mary Ryan (CA) finished 2-3-4 in this 78-player event. Master Jay Snyder scored a nice 35 GP card (16 games) to easily take qualifying honors. Mel Ashley (CA) bested Dave Stratford (CA) in the 44-player Consolation. Cheryl Van Scyoc (CA) won the Friday Special...and Jay Snyder, Virginia Cheney and Frank Rhoads scored 28-hands.

John Morch Tops in Virginia

John Morch, pegging out of Raleigh, NC edged another Raleigh player, Master Larry Phifer, in the final playoff match to take home the Virginia Championship. This 74-player event was held in Richmond on January 13. In winning the championship, Morch took home 147 MRP's. Phifer garnered 105 in taking 2nd.

Finishing in the 3-4 bracket were Jeff Raynes (NC) and Life Master Larry Samet (MA). Samet is zeroing in on his One Star rating, and the 42 MRP's earned put him yet one step closer. Local Andy Hulcher nailed the qualifying round with a nice 36 16/22 +212 to take honors.

Some 50 peggers played the Consolation, and it was Billy Smith (VA) taking home the playoff action, edging Tom Bellweg (VA) in the final match. Marvin Lewis very nearly duplicated his 1998 win in this event, finishing in the 3-4 bracket, after qualifying tops with a 18 8/9 +116. Local Ray Meinert also finished oin the 3-4 bracket.

Director Rick Allen had a fully slate of satellite events. The winners:

Doubles: Jim Tanner & Brent Cooke 21 10/10+227

Old Dominion Special: Paul Barnes

High Rollers: Jeff Raynes (grand slam)

Last Hurrah: John Worley

28's: Ron Reece, John Worley

Director Allen reported that players were on hand from throughout the mid-Atlantic region, including Florida, Massachusetts, and Wisconsin. Allen was impressed with a rare 10/10 grand slam in the doubles by Tanner and Cooke, scoring an impressive +237 spread points. Saturday night's play saw Dutch Gerlich skunk 4 of his opponents, and received two skunks in return. He scored all his game points via the four skunks (12 GP card).

Paul Hatcher Resigns as Vice-President Policy

One Star Paul Hatcher, Salem, Oregon, resigned his position of Vice President Policy at the recent Board of Directors meeting in Reno.

Hatcher contributed greatly to the Congress in recent years. His work ethics are 110% when assigned a project or when working on a committee. He was instrumental in designing our new scoring system, and has contributed hundreds of hours in publishing a Constitution and ByLaws, Rules and Regulations, and Organizational Policies and Procedures book that completely covers all aspects of ACC operations. He also was chairman of the Ethics Committee for several years.

Hatcher is a mainstay in the Northwest area, and travels far and wide to do his pegging. He is one of cribbage's great sportsmen, rarely complaining about a bad run of cards. He is a five-time All-American and won the National Championship in 1998.

Bob Wikstrom Appointed VP Policy

Bob Wikstrom, Port Orchard, Washington, has been appointed by the Executive Committee to fill the unexpired term of Paul Hatcher as Vice President Policy. Wikstrom and his wife, Shari, are regulars on the Northwest circuit. This duo are great sports, and are assets to the ACC. Bob is currently a member of the ACC's Board of Directors.

Boise Dessers Have Nifty Awards

Grass Roots club 202 in Boise, Idaho are awarding trophies for 28 and 29-hands that are scored during regular GR meets. The actual cards used in scoring these hands are mounted and glassed on a trophy board, complete with an engraved brass plate detailing the event.

Get a grand slam or a string of pearls at this club...and yet another award is given. The score card is enlarged and framed, and given to the lucky (or unlucky) player at the next meet.

Booker Celebrates Birthday With Super Lite Win

Charles Booker, Tolland, CT celebrated his birthday by winning the Super Light Classic in West Springfield, MA on January 21. And he did it the hard way...the area had a foot of snow the night before the match and some 108 hardy players made it to the playing hall for some spirited pegging, despite the horrid weather conditions.

Tom Clark (NH) contributed to Booker's birthday by losing the final playoff match, but, nevertheless, came away with 105 MRP's. Booker took home 147 MRP's, bragging rights, and the top prize.

Jerry Gaff (NH) and Master Shawn Jordan (MA) finished in the 3-4 bracket. Life Master Henry DeLong (MA) topped the field in the qualifying round with a nice 24 11/14 +230.

56 played the Consolation and it was Bruce Hassan (CT) taking home the top prize. Grand Master Peter Setian finished 2nd, with Grand Master Paul Gallagher (MA) and Grand Master Dwight Christiansen (CT) in the 3-4 spot. Grand Master Cindy Veradt (MA) was top qualifier with a 16 GP card. The playoffs were certainly unusual, as Hassan held off a bevy of Grand Masters for the win.

First-time director Phyllis Schmidt, with assistance from Charley Finley, ran a nifty tournament, despite a foot of snow on the doorsteps. Schmidt reports that Phil Martin (CT), yet another Grand Master, scored the meet's only 28 hand.

Bruce Fein Plugs Las Vegas

Bruce Fein is an ACC pegger who works for the Tropicana Hotel in Las Vegas...and he has a centerfold ad in this issue (and others) plugging the Tropicana. They are offering an April, May and June special for ACC members. Special room rates and tracking gaming card that accumulates credits toward free rooms, services and amenities are part of the package. For more information, call this toll-free number: 1 877 WAGERS1.

Fein is also looking into sanctioning a cribbage tournament in Las Vegas in the near future.

Golfer: "Well, I have never played this badly before!"
Caddy: "I didn't realize you had played before, sir."

Grand National XX Update

Grand National XX now has an up and running web site: www.cribbagegrandnational.org

This web site contains information about this event, including the flyer and an entry form. Information about hotel reservations, transportation options and other pertinent information about the Grand National is included.

In addition, information about sponsors, and advertising in the GNXX Program is listed. The web site also includes information about Richmond (VA), emphasizing places to visit and things to do.

Grand National directors Huston Kitts and John Mangiaratti are on track to run a first-class Grand National! Ed.

More Internet Information

Lisa Duff (the Sweet Onion Peggers Web Master) has completed getting us on line with a really neat home page. Give it a look and see and you'll also see the newsletter is now going to be posted there. So you can get all the Sweet Onion Peggers news that's fit to print HOT off the presses (so to speak). The site is located at: <http://members.hscis.net/~cribbage/>

Stop by and let us know what you think.

Suspension

Jesse Jarrell, Pittsburg, CA, has been suspended by the ACC until April 4, 2001 by actions of the Ethics Committee and the Board of Directors.

55 Years, Then a 29!

Max Condiotti is a member of the Sandia Peggers, Albuquerque, NM. He is 81 years old and began playing cribbage in 1922, when his dad taught him the game. He played during World War II, and then gave up the game...for 55 years!

Last year, he joined the Grass Roots club in New Mexico, and after only two months play he scored his first-ever 29 hand! Max plays every session, and according to club officials, he is very handy at handing out skunks to his opponents.

Life Memberships

For spouses of Life Members who are under the age requirement you can now become a life member by paying the normal $40 fee PLUS $2 for each year (or part thereof) you are under 60 years old. Example: a spouse of a life member who is 55 may pay $50 and obtain a life membership ($40 + $2 x 5 = $50). As with all life applications, a copy of a document with your birth date (driver's license, etc.) must accompany the application.

O'Malley Makes Unique Board

Bill O'Malley, Salem, OR, is one of cribbage's best craftsmen when it comes to making a cribbage board. His brother, Mike came up with a unique design (see below), and Bill made one up to his specifications. This unique board is surprisingly easy to play, with units of five holes easily played.

Bill is unique in another way...he makes his boards from scratch. He will pick out a tree (black walnut, or other hard woods) and with a chain saw, will rough cut boards about the size of a cribbage board. He then carefully dries the wood. He then finishes the boards with the usual tools...and the workmanship is top notch. Bill says that sometimes the wood checks (or cracks)...and then it is nothing but firewood.

ELECTION YEAR

In February's Cribbage World, page 5, is a form and instructions for any bona fide member of the American Cribbage Congress who wishes to run for election to the ACC's Board of Directors.

The 25 members who are elected will administer the ACC for two years, beginning September 1, 2001, and ending August 31, 2003.

This Board meets twice a year. The first meeting is at the Grand National in Richmond, Virginia, followed by the second meeting at Reno's ACC Open in February.

If you choose to run for this election, you must be willing to attend these meetings, and serve on ad hoc committees doing ACC business.

No Tips?

As always, I enjoyed reading the current (Feb 2001) issue of CW. However, I found NO cribbage Tip of the Month as in previous issues. I teach cribbage once a week at our local school and I utilize these "Tips" to assist the kids. So, for all you Cribbage Masters out there, I would urge you to submit your knowledge in "Tip" form to CW so that our younger, upcoming potential tournament players may benefit from this information. Thanks in advance for this contribution!

Wayne Momsen
Whitehall, MT

OK, cribbageland, let's get those pencils in action. We all need some help with this game. CW promises to give you credit for your tips. Write to CW, PO Box 5604, Missoula, MT 59806. Email: cribwrld@bigsky.net Thanks, Ed.

Free Ride to Championship

How do you get to win a tournament and all the prizes and points that go with it when you never even paid an entry fee? Ask Tom Owens. He was the champion of the 2000 River City Open, yet never had to pay an entry fee. Why? Because he was the High Qualifier at the 1999 River City Open (35 17/22 +139). That great card earned him his free entry to the next year's tournament!

Annett Eifferl
Citrus Heights, CA

Proposed Playoff Scoring System

Joe Daesch, Coconut Creek, FL, and the directors of the South Florida Open (Nov. in West Palm Beach) are considering changing the play-off format from a best 3 of 5 (Main) and best 2 of 3 (Consolation) to a best of 13 GP's (Main), and best of 9 GP's (Consolation). Game Points would be scored as in the qualifying round, zero for a loss, two for a win, and three for a skunk win.

The reason for this change is to give extra credit for a skunk. They believe that a skunk is worth more than a game won, but not as much as two games won, like most best-of-7 game playoffs.

In the Main, you would need a minimum of 3 games won, with a skunk, to win the match, and four games without a skunk to win the match. Likewise, in the Consolation, you would need a minimum of two games won with a skunk, to win the match, and three games won without a skunk to win the match.

This group also believes that the National Open in Raleigh should change their format to best of 15 GP's, to lessen the value of a 2-game skunk.

Daesch invites CW's readers to make comments.

Nice Guys Finish First

One Star Bob Julian (WI) returned from lunch at the recent St. Croix Classic. Play started, but his opponent did not show. At 5 minutes after the starting time, he informed the director. He was told to wait a bit, and after 11 minutes, his opponent showed. The director asked Julian to play the game, despite the time. Julian was good natured about it...and his good sportsmanship paid off, big time. He won by a 57-point skunk, and the 3 GP's were what he needed to qualify (27 13 +99). A 2 +10 forfeit would have left him out in the cold. What was this worth? Only a cool $850! Be a good sport. It pays!

Walla Walla Skunk Pot The Best?

Grass Roots Club 274, Walla Walla, WA, has a skunk pot double-guarded by two skunks. This metal pot makes a racket when a quarter is dropped in for a skunk...and you should hear the noise when a player is double-skunked! These quarters are used to defray club expenses.

The other cutie (pictured below) is their "Sweetie Onion." The last 24-hand of the night gets the 24-pool, and "Sweetie Onion" is a coveted possession, especially near the end of the match.

Cribbage World thanks Jim Duff for this information and photos.

Happy Birthdaaaaaay... To Me!

Bob Julian (WI) was celebrating his birthday on January 19 by (what else?) playing a little cribbage at the Pacific Coast Championship in Salinas, CA.

He didn't tell the crowd about his birthday, but it was on his mind when he won his first (of 9) games with a 30-point win. Ouch, just missed a skunk! But in the next 8 games he won 5 by skunks and finished with a great 21 8/9 card.

Pocketing the $237, he was singing softly to himself, "Happy birthdaaaaaay to me!"

He also took home the bacon on Saturday night with 7/9 card (finishing 3rd), and copped the All-Events top prize with a combined 62 GP's.

In Memoriam

Francis G. "Jerry" Dickinson

Mount Horeb, Wisconsin

Jerry died January 19 at the age of 79.

Jerry was a mainstay in the founding of the ACC, and in 1985 was appointed head of the fledgling Grass Roots program by President Joe Wergin. The program flourished under his guidance and he was rewarded by being elected to the Cribbage Hall of Fame in 1991. He was an avid pegger and promoter of the ACC, receiving the President's Award for his exceptional service. He served in the 34th Infantry in World War II, and received the Bronze Star for heroic action in Italy on April 26, 1945. The American Cribbage Congress has lost one of its best.

Clifford Allen

Spokane, Washington

Clifford died from a stroke in Spokane in early January. He was an avid pegger and played throughout the northwest. He had exceptional skill as a player, and was well liked by his competitors. He will be missed.

Stan Hayton

Grants, New Mexico

Stan died at the age of 90 on January 29. Exactly one year ago to the day, he had scored the ACC's record 9-game card. On January 29, 2000 he posted a 24/9/9 + 303. That score stands as the score to beat. He was quoted as saying, "Any damned fool can play a good hand!" His fellow players will sorely miss Stan and his friendly play.

Jack Willborn

Germantown, Wisconsin

Jack made the trek to Reno for his final match. He died February 6 returning from Reno. He was an avid player who loved a good game of cribbage, attested to his last hurrah in Reno. His many friends and players will certainly miss his competitive spirit and friendly games.

William "Bill" Erickson

Libertyville, Illinois

Bill died on February 6 after a short battle with cancer. He was 70. He loved cribbage and was a great sport. He really enjoyed the people he met "on the trail" and always had a story or joke to tell. We will all miss Bill.

Jim Nohrden

Aurora, Colorado

Jim passed away unexpectedly Sunday, February 11, at the age of 68. He was a long time director of GR #23, and had earned his Bronze Award and was well on his way to the Silver. He was a Master rated player who played at the TOC and JPW tournaments the weekend prior to his passing. His many cribbage friends at both clubs in Denver and the rest of the Rocky Mountain region, as well as his brother Tom in Sacramento, will miss him greatly.

Robert "Bob" Dellinger

Graceland, California

Bob died on February 20 from complications of a heart by-pass operation. Plagued by ill health the past few years, he, nevertheless, enjoyed his cribbage. He made the trip to Reno in early February, as he loved his cribbage. He had earned his Master rating, and was always a great competitor. He never complained and was an asset to the ACC. We have lost a great player and sportsman.

Central Region All-Stars Win Squeaker

The Central Region All-Star team, paced by Master Bob Chase's 2713/16+123, squeaked to a narrow win over the Eastern and Western squads at Reno on February 1.

Scores:

Central 145 68/60 (4 wins-lifetime)

West 135 63/65 (3 wins-lifetime)

East 129 61/67 (4 wins-lifetime)

This was one of the closest matches in the 11-year history of this meet. Other top scorers were: One Star Paul Hatcher (West) 25 12/16 +186; Master Bernard Whitfield (East) 22 10/16 +157; Grand Master Jack Moritzky (West) 21 10/16 +79.

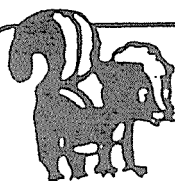

Players earn an invite to this annual match by finishing in the top 8 in their region during the cribbage year (August 1 thru July 31).
