Onions, Onions, Onions!

I. V. Graham Memorial

Hal Lamon Tops In Montana

Good thing the 52 five-pound bags of onions were in zip-loc bags, as it was onions, onions, onions being given away for every 24-hand three days running at the recent Montana Championship. But no one complained, least of all Hal Lamon, from Auburn, WA. He came home the winner in this 113-player contest...and he did it the hard way. Steve Reynolds, a Life Master from Concord, CA, was making his first foray to the Big Sky country, and very nearly took it all, losing 3-4 in the final match. Lamon copped 147 MRP's in winning, and Reynolds added yet another 105 MRP's to his 7,600+ lifetime total.

Bruce Pomeroy (ID) and Gail Smith (ID) finished 3-4. Grand Master Willie Evans (WA) took qualifying honors with a nice 37 17/22 +221 (and 97 MRP's aggregate, finishing 5th).

Local Luanne Felstet nailed the 84-player Consolation, edging another local in the final playoff match...Michelle Barthelme. Master Bob Wikstrom (WA) and Master Jim Keeling (WA) finished 3-4. 2001 All-American Ron Morgan (CA) scored a whopping 19 GP card in the qualifying round to win that leg going away.

Director DeLynn Colvert had a bevy of satellite events. The winners:

Time Passer: Sue Pisha (WA)

High Roller: Mike Haggerty (MT) $950

Doubles: Todd Malmgren & Graeme Gossett (OR)

Saturday: Dennis Misenaar (AB) 21 9/9

Last Chance: L. M. Stier (AK)

Team: W. Evans, J. Evans, Hejtmanek, Haggerty, Hendricks

28's: Dave Hanni, Justin Noyes ($25 each)

Word was received at the start of play that long-time Northwest player I. V. Graham, Libby, MT, had passed away a day earlier in a Seattle hospital. The tournament was immediately named as a memorial to his memory.

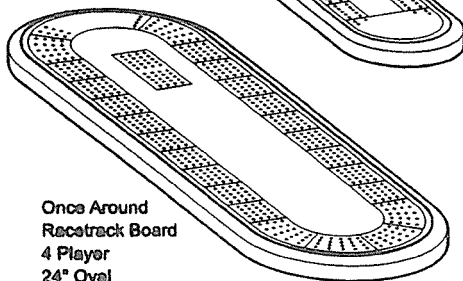

Many Canadians were on hand, and Dennis Misenaar fared the best, scoring a grand slam on Saturday night. The international aspect of this competition always adds zest to the games.

The host Joker's Wild, as usual, added $100 to the Last Chance event and Alaskan L. M. Stier helped pay for his sojourn with the win. Co-director Sharon Hejtmanek sported a well-stocked raffle, in addition to the onions, onions, onions!

Mary Ryan Cops Teeny Tiny

Mary K. Ryan (CA) has 4,500+ MRP's (lifetime), and she came to play at Ed Bloom's unique Teeny Tiny event in San Jose, CA on September 29. About all Ryan could win was more MRP's...and that is exactly what she did. By winning this 67-player event, she carted home yet another 147 MRP's to add to her lofty lifetime totals. The $20 entry covers the coffee, trophies, lunch and other incidentals, but little or no prize money.

Lucille Owens (CA) nailed down 2nd (and 105 MRP's), followed by Grand Master Boyd McDonald (CA) and Dan Barber (CA) in the 3-4 bracket.

Jim Crawford (CA) ran the table in the 50-player Consolation, taking the top qualifying card (14 GP's in the 7-game round), and won the playoffs as well. Director Bloom nailed 2nd, followed by Paul Gregson (CA) and Al May (CA) in 3-4.

This is Bloom's 13th Teeny Tiny event, and they have all been well attended, attesting to his expertise in running a tournament. And this is all the more amazing, since there is little or no prize money.

Nostalgia (High Rollers)

Many events now sport a High Roller as a satellite event, but do you know where this event originated?

Years ago (1983) the late Joe Nelson decided to add some zest to his Oregon Championship and have a "High Roller." The first year (1983) only a handful of players played with a winner-take-all payoff.

But the next year, some 30 players paid their $100, with the payoff to be $2,000 for first, and $1,000 for 2nd.

Life Master Bill Hill (OR) was just beginning his tournament-cribbage competition (as was everyone else). In a close match, Hill thumped his winning card down, let out a whoop, pushed himself back from the table...and promptly fell to the floor backwards, chair and all! From that point on, Bill remembers very little, as the bar gave him a water glass full of Scotch. The next day he learned that a great time was had by all.

And that, my friends, is why we are playing those High Roller events today. And Bill Hill is still winning more than his share!

206 At St. Croix Doug Munneke Cops 19th St. Croix Classic

Doug Munneke, pegging out of St. Cloud, MN, came home the winner in the 19th edition of the St. Croix Classics, played at Turtle Lake, WI. And once again, director Alan Lindner had a large crowd on hand, with some 206 players signed on for some spirited pegging. Munneke zips to the top of this year's leaderboard, picking up a whopping 196MRP's with the win as well as a sizeable purse...and bragging rights.

Life Master Lloyd "Gabby" Kraft (WI) added 147 MRP's to his lofty lifetime total, and he, too, will zip to the top of the charts with this high finish. Bob Wingo (IL) and Life Master Russell Adams (MN) finished in the 3-4 bracket. Adams scored 105 MRP's (as did Wingo) and he is knocking on the door for the ACC's 14th One-Star rating. He stands at 9,800+, needing 10,000 for the new rating.

Master James Heemstra (WI) scored one of the meet's seven 28-hands enroute to his high-qualifying score (36 17/22 +288). And each of these seven 28-hands earned a whopping $250 bonus from the St. Croix Casino.

Grand Master Bob Hanes (IA) has made Grand National history by being the only player to win TWO of those events (V & XIII), and he continues to pick 'em up and lay 'em down by taking qualifying honors in the 122-player Consolation (16 8/9 +62). But it was last year's national runner-up winning this event...Life Master Wayne Steinmetz (WI). Master Dave Gustafson (MN) scored this year's first 29-hand (in the previous St. Croix Classic), and this time around finished 2nd in the Consolation. Master Norb Upton (MN) and Master Gloria McLeod (MN) finished 3-4.

Director Lindner had his usual satellites. The winners:

Friday: Ron Hirschman (WI) 19 8/9 +126 ($500)

Saturday: Bonnie Jennie (MN) 17 8/9 +132 ($475)

28's: Dave Elliott, Bob Fletcher, Jim Heemstra, Doug Page, Dennis McNurlen, Dale Vincent, Anita Bach ($250 each)

24 hands: 300 at $25 ea.

Total casino perks: $9,250

Lindner reported the casino furnished juice, coffee, and soda all weekend long, in addition to their cash perks. The St. Croix Casino has signed a contract for five more tournaments in 2002. The next event will be played on February 15-17 (the 20th edition). Sign up early, these events sell out fast!

Tidbits

Co-director Vickie Long, playing at the 19th St. Croix Classic, went to lunch after 12 games, winning six games and standing at 13 GP's. But after lunch, she got into gear. Ten wins in a row! She qualified 4th with a nifty 35 GP card!

Master Keith Forrest (MT) was playing Les Sumner (NV) in the first-round playoffs at the Montana championship, and he held a 4-4-4 hand. You guessed it, he cut a 7 for a rare 24-hand. Alas, he needed a few more hands like this bomb, but failed to get them as Sumner advanced to the next round

Dan Hansen (OR) spoiled two grand slam bids in one night (Oct. 12) at a recent GR meet in Bend, OR. He ruined Paul Nolz's bid for a slam, and then finished his spoiler role by nailing Graeme Gossett's card with a lone loss. Nolz won the evening's action with a 17 8/9, and Gossett came home with a 16 8/9. Hansen? He came home with a smile on his face!

David Smith Runs Table Winning Emerald Coast

David Smith (GA) was on a roll at the recent Emerald Coast Open, played at Fort Walton Beach, FL on Sept. 28-30. Not only did he take qualifying honors (35 17/22 +166), but roared home the winner in the playoffs as well. This double whammy netted Smith a nice 150 MRP's in this 54-player event. Tom Murphy (FL) took 2nd, followed by Buzz Adams (GA) and Frank Podjun (GA) in 3-4.

John Philip (FL) won the 32-player Consolation, with Dana Pratt (FL) taking 2nd. Peggy Goss (FL) and Master Dave Ritchey (FL) finished 3-4. Virgil Townsend (FL) took qualifying honors, winning 8 of 9.

Julie Mack-Felkins Off & Running Ben Holder Sizzles at Sizzler

Julie Mack-Felkins directed her first-ever sanctioned event on September 8, and she was stunned when a whopping 112 players showed to play at her inaugural Solano 29ers September Sizzler. And 46 of these players walked in and signed on. Nevertheless, Mack-Felkins had all events on time and well-managed.

And who did the sizzling? None other than Ben Holder, Fremont, CA. He edged Master Harold Sontag (CA) in the final playoff match to walk away with all the marbles...and 147 MRP's. In taking 2nd, Sontag is getting very close to his Grand Master rating (3,700+).

Veteran Ron Morgan (CA) is one of the ACC's more dedicated peggers (All-American last year) and he took home 3rd, with Sharon Schwarz (CA) also finishing in that bracket (and 70 MRP's).

Paul Gregson (CA) is the ACC's new website manager, and he loves his cribbage. He took qualifying honors with a nice 26 11/14 +184 card.

With 72 players in the Consolation event, it was Master Tom Nohrden (CA) winning going away. Another Master finished 2nd...Ross Njaa (CA). And yet another Master took 3rd, Bob Clark (CA). Helene Sontag (CA) earned her Master rating by finishing in the 3-4 bracket as well.

Jason Eck (CA) won 8 of 9 to top the field in the qualifying round (16 8/9 +112), and took home 15 MRP's for the effort.

According to Mack-Felkins, this was Holder's first main event win in his ACC career...and she was pleased with the large turnout in her first event as director.

Jim Langley Wins In Alaska

Record-setting 2001 National Champion Jim Langley (CA) is at it again. He has won yet another sanctioned event! This time around, he nailed the 42-player Skagway Open (AK)...and kicks off the 2002 season with another 105 MRP's in the bank. Karen Bouscher (AK) had a great event...she qualified tops (34 +174) and finished 2nd...and scored a nice 110 MRP's (aggregate).

This Skagway event saw John Polloff win the 24-player Consolation, with Steve Clark (AK) taking home 2nd.

Director James Boucher reported an oddity. Agnes Wolf and Verle Weisenburg both held 4-5-5-6, with a 6 cut. Needless to say, this was a wild hand!

The Ken & Judi Show

In a weird scenario, it was Ken Piegras (AK) winning the Main Event, and spouse Judi winning the Consolation at the recent Season Opener in Anchorage, AK.

Truth is stranger than fiction in this case, as the runner-ups were another husband-wife combo. Paulette Rowe finished 2nd in the Main, and spouse Mike took 2nd in the Consolation.

Chuck Berg (AK) topped the field in the Main qualifying round...28 13/18 +95, and Mike Shurplivett scored a grand slam 20 9/ +204 to easily take honors in the Consolation qualifying round.

Denny Edwards Tops Dayton Inaugural

Director Jerry Berg offered $500 for the first 29-hand and another $250 for the first 28-hand, but this largess failed to attract a crowd. Some 24 players were on hand to watch Master Denny Edwards (OR) take home the marbles. Gary McAlvey (WA) finished 2nd.

Director Berg expects a much larger crowd next year...as the pot for a 29-hand will increase to a whopping $1,000 next year! Mark your calendars...and practice your cutting!

Ehrich Tops in Colorado

It was Kenneth Ehrich pegging on his home turf and going all the way at the recent Denver Open. In nailing the 48-player field, Ehrich took home 105 MRP's, the grand enchilada, and bragging rights. Travelling pegger Bill Hutchinson was also pegging on his home turf, taking home 2nd. Paul Boman (CA) and Stan Travers (WY) finished 3-4. Local Grand Master Bill Shirland won 9 of 11 games to take honors in the qualifying round (21 9/11 +109).

Joe Gates (CO) hogged the Consolation, scoring the top card in the qualifying round and winning the playoffs as well. Ken Muroya (CO) was the last victim of Gate's run, taking 2nd. Don Christensen (CO) and Blanche Edwardson (CO) finished 3-4.

Director Roger Wilson earned his keep by winning the Saturday Night Special.

Barbara McPhee Wins Webster

In the words of director Henry Bergeron, "Did...she....go...all...the...way?" Indeed, she did! Barbara McPhee, Windham, ME, qualified 31st...and last. But once the playoffs began, she was unbeatable, and came home the winner in the inaugural Daniel Webster Open, played in Nashua, NH on September 9.

Her final playoff match pitted her vs. Laurie Owen (ME) and she won going away, netting 147 MRP's and $909.01. Why this odd amount? According to Bergeron it was Grandparent's Day (9-09-01).

One Star Harry Palmer (MA) and Grand Master Sharlene Medeiros (MA) finished 3-4. Medeiros is getting very close to her Life Master with this high finish. Master Richard Brault (MA) took qualifying honors with a great 25 11/12 +213 card.

It was an all-Massachusetts Consolation as Grand Master Dick West (MA) edged newly-crowned Master Warren Gallagher (MA) in a very close match. This match gave Gallagher his Master rating. Kirk Hobbs (MA) and Donnabeth Morton (ME) took home 3-4. Grand Master Robert Medeiros (MA) won 6 of 8 to take honors in the qualifying round.

Director Bergeron reported three 28's: Jack Myers, Jim Cosgro, and Tom Clark. This event gave many added prizes for a variety of events. Bergeron also reported at least a dozen new players were on hand, and some are planning on joining the ACC. He will host this event again next year...the Sunday after labor Day.

Sharon Deane Cops Stan Daniels Portside Open

Sharon Deane, from nearby Fairfax, VA took home all the marbles at the recent Stan Daniels Portside Open, played Oct. 5-7 in Portsmouth, VA. She nipped Jan Viands (VA) in the final playoff match for the win. Deane took home 147 MRP's for the win, and Viands garnered 105 for 2nd in this 70-player event. Veteran George Webb (MA), a Life Master from Avon, MA, and Larry Gould (NC) finished 3-4.

Master Jeff Raynes (NC) won 17 of 22 to garner qualifying honors.

It was Henry Douglass (NC) winning the 58-player Consolation, propelling him to his Grand Master rating (4,000 MRP's). His worthy opponent in the final playoff match was ex-Grand National champ Master Bobby Stuart (GA). Ron Reece (VA) and Dave Forwell (GA) took 3-4. Reece was also the high qualifier, winning 8 of 10 (17 8/10 +95).

The satellites:

Friday: Bobby Stuart (GA)
Sat. High Rollers: Bernard Whitfield (NC)
Doubles: George Webb (MA) & Sandy Shrum (VA)
28's: Janet Viands, David Sniegowski

Director Marvin Lewis keeps 'em pegging in Virginia.

Bob Todd Shuts Up and Deals!

Bob Todd, Auburn, CA, is the brother of Barbara Ruiz, and the Shut Up and Deal event is a memorial to Barbara. It was only fitting for her brother to come home the winner...and he did! Todd edged Master Ira Deutsch (CA) in the final playoff match in this 86-player event. Todd netted 147 MRP's for the win, and Deutsch came home with 105!

Erwin Bentz (CA) and Master Art Fisher (CA) finished 3-4. Bob Sibert (CA) topped the field in the qualifying round with a nice 36 GP card (22 games).

Grand Master Helen Bolstad (CA) won the 50-player Consolation, topping Master John Schmucker in the final playoff match. Master Thelma Weber (CA) and Richard Wardenburg (CA) finished 3-4. Life Master Jones Hom (CA) returns to cribbage action after a lengthy layoff...and nailed the qualifying round with a great 18 GP card (9 games).

Director Mary K. Ryan had a bevy of satellites. The winners:

Friday: Bill Hutcheson (CO)

Doubles: Bob Sibert & Ron Kaufman (CA)

Saturday: Howard Mustain (CA)

28's: None; 29's: None

Lee Ruthledge (CA) won the set of skunk pegs and made many friends by being skunked six times in this event.

In an unusual twist, an organ was raffled off by the governor (Bob Laundra) of the host Moose Lodge. Ron Morgan (CA) won the drawing. Morgan's sideline is buying and selling antiques...and this organ will come in handy for his bartering. Director Ryan said a great time was had by all.

License Plate Frame?

Ken Capper, Hermiston, OR, is one of cribbage land's great promoters. He recently had thousands of white license plate frames made with "1-888-PEGGING" and "I Love Cribbage" printed on the perimeter of the frame. He has sold all he wants, and now he will give the remainder away free. He will ship you 250 of these nifty frames, and all you have to do is pay the shipping ($25). What a bargain! These frames make great give-aways at tournaments. Call Ken at (541) 567-5145, or write him at 795 W. Hermiston Ave., Hermiston, OR 97838.

12th All-Star Game Slated January 24

East: 4; Central: 4; West: 3

Last year's All-Star game saw the Central Region's squad post a narrow win by taking 68 games (of 128) to win their 4th title in the 11-year history of the event. The match remains a close one, as the Eastern Region has also won 4 matches and the Western squad has three wins under their belt.

This year's event appears to be too close to call. The Eastern Region has many veteran, highly ranked players anchoring their squad. The Central is fielding two One-Star players (Bob Julian and Warren Sondericker), and the Western squad also has veteran players in action.

This year's match is scheduled to be played on Thursday, January 24, 6:30 PM at the Sands Regency. The event will kick-off the long weekend of pegging, featuring the Tournament of Champions on Friday, and the JPW/ACC Open on Saturday and Sunday.

Jeanne Jelke On Roll!

With the new cribbage season at the one-quarter mark (three months), Jeanne Jelke, Vacaville, CA has taken the national lead in the annual MRP race. It takes the "cribbage grapevine" to keep up with the rapid-paced earning of MRP's, and this cribbage year Jelke has unofficially scored a whopping 600 MRP's. She travels with record-setting James Langley, who easily won last year's race. Perhaps this is the year of the fair sex. Time will tell.

One-Star Bob Julian and Life Master Ras Rasmussen are in the hunt, both having topped 400 MRP's (unofficially). Officially, Larry Harmon (CT), Albert Miller (NH), Ronald Logan (OR), B. J. Tvotte (ME), Sharlene Medeiros (MA), Harry Palmer (MA), Larry Phifer (NC), David Gilkeson (OR), and Todd Malmgren (OR) are all at the 200+ mark, as the year kicks into the second quarter.

Jensen Great Cutler

Harold Jensen plays with the River City Peggers (Sacramento, CA), club 162.

On Tuesday, October 16 he scored a 28-hand. And this is his 4th 28-hand since joining this club in 1998.

He must practice his cutting at home!

Ras On Roll At Canyonville

A rare one-day event (in the Western Region) was played at the Seven Feathers Casino in Canyonville on September 2. This Labor Day Special sported a field of 98 players, and it was Life Master George "Ras" Rasmussen (WA) taking home the 147 MRP's...and the lead in the Western Region this cribbage year. Veteran Vernon Ward (CA) nailed down 2nd, followed by One-Star Paul Hatcher (OR) and Don Dolezal (OR) in the 3-4 spot. "Roseburg" Ralph Hart (OR) won 11 of 14 with two skunks to take qualifying honors (24 11/14 +135).

Sid Hohbein (OR) won his first sanctioned event ever by winning the 96-player Consolation. Master Dan Mitchell (CA) finished 2nd, with Master John Holseth (OR) and Skip White (ID) in the 3-4 slot. White also scored the top card in the qualifying round...15 7/9 +108.

Director Donna Hassett reported the only 28-hand went to Tim Julkowski (OR) and Saturday's play went to Bryant Gilkenson (NV).

Marvis & Ralph Bid Adieu

Long-time tournament directors Marvis and Ralph Reynolds are calling it a day. After directing scores of events throughout the Northwest, they are going to rest on their laurels, and let others tote up those Master Points and payouts.

Marvis wrote Cribbage World: "...Heidi Glashan will take over running the Spring and Fall tournaments in Winnemucca. We would like to thank all the players who have attended our tournaments over the last almost 20 years, and Roy Hofbauer and DeLynn Colvert for their great support, as well as the Winners Hotel/Casino for all their efforts!"

Marvis and Ralph: hey, it is not going to be the same without your dedicated managing of events in the Northwest. Personally, I will miss you both greatly. You both came up with some innovative ideas in directing events, especially the numbering of cribbage boards, making seating very easy to accomplish. And the work you came up with on your sticky-back labels of players in your files! Whew! That was a lot of work! Not to mention all the bracket boards and scoreboards you made to keep all the players informed on a timely basis! Keep on truckin'! Ed.

Julian On Roll at Yountville

One-Star Bob Julian (WI) is at the top of the leaderboard in the Central Region in a virtual deadheat with Ras Rasmussen (see left-hand column story) as Julian came home the winner at the Wine Country Open, played in Yountville, CA on September 16.

Julian's match fielded 81 players and he really nailed the event, scoring the top qualifying card (30 14/16 +198), in addition to winning the playoffs. The MRP take? A whopping 202 MRP's! He is unofficially the leader in the national MRP race, with Rasmussen hot on his heels.

Julian was late for his airplane ride home to Milwaukee, and played racehorse cribbage in the final playoff match with Cres Fernandez (CA). He raced to a 3-0 win, and caught his plane with time to spare. On his ride home, he had time to count his winnings...well over $1,000!

Mel Ashley (CA) and Dennis Moore (CA) finished in the 3-4 bracket. This earned each player 70 MRP's...and Ashley is knocking on the door for his Grand Master. Moore had gone through three rounds 3-0, 3-0, 3-0, but then he had to wait over an hour to play again. The long wait cooled his cards considerably.

Dennis Gage (CA) was rolling in the 46-player Consolation...he took top-card honors in the qualifying round and finished 2nd in the playoffs as well. Veteran Master pegger John Schmucker took home the top banana. He is always tough on his home turf. Two Master peggers finished 3-4... Tom Nohrden (CA) and Jerold Montgomery (CA).

Director Roland Hall reported that only James Fanning could come up with a 28-hand (Consolation) and no 29's showed. He also reported rookie player (first tournament) Larry Jackson (CA) is off and running, scoring 9 MRP's in the Consolation.

This was Hall's first time as a tournament director and he wishes to thank Jackie Doppelt, Bill Flatten, Bill Violet, Mary Gladish, Bill Wakeman, Cy Madrone, Boyd McDonald and Becky Cross...as well as others who gave their time to help

Bob Julian was not scheduled to play this event, but the September 11th terrorists attack in New York kept his plane grounded in California, so he opted to play one more event while waiting for the smoke to clear. It may very well have won him the National Championship. Stay tuned. Ed.

Rapoza-Schmidt Take New Hampshire Open

It was the Charlie Rapoza-Phyllis Schmidt show at the recent New Hampshire Open, played in Nashua on October 7. First, One-Star Schmidt (MA) opened play by scoring 22 GP's in the 12-game qualifying round to take honors. Then it was Grand Master Charlie Rapoza (MA) winning the playoffs...edging Schmidt in the final playoff match. Schmidt garnered 187 MRP's (aggregate) to wing it to the 13,000 mark (lifetime) and Rapoza took home 196 MRP's for the win in this 138-player event.

Ron Bouchard (CT) and Master Joe Beauregard (RI) each took home 105 MRP's for a 3-4 finish.

Jerry Gaff (NH) ran a 28-hand to a top qualifying score in the 76-player Consolation (16 GP's 8/8 games), but it was Dave Statz (NH) winning the playoffs. He edged Bob Chevalier (MA) in the final playoff match. Ray Lovely (NH) and newly crowned One-Star Larry Samet (MA) finished 3-4.

Director Al Miller reported that Wayne Marchulaitis (NH) scored that elusive 28-hand, as did Gaff. Miller also reports he will hold this event again next year...Oct. 6 2002.

Logic

Logic is a key ingredient in winning cribbage games. A player must be able to "read" his opponent's hand at a glance, and know when to "lay off" (defense) or "play on" (offense) as board position dictates. And logic plays an important role in making these decisions

Willie Evans, a stellar player from Richland, WA, poses a quiz employing logic. Get your thinking cap on and try this one:

Three elderly ladies decided to try something different for a change, and take in a baseball game, something they had never done before. But before they reached the ball park, one of the ladies said, "Hey, we may not like this at all. Why don't we buy a fifth of whiskey just in case we find the game boring."

"Good Idea," the other two ladies replied, and they purchased their bottle and proceeded to the ball park.

The game began and the ladies began sipping their whiskey. After a time, the bottle went dry.

Now, for the logic quiz. With the above information, what is the status of the ball game? Answer below.

Winning Ticket Unclaimed

At Grand National XX in Richmond, a lighted cribbage board (see ad this issue) was raffled...and this attractive board was not claimed.

If you have ticket 477023 you have won this board. Call Dave Woloszyn at (920) 748-7871 to claim your prize. You must have the winning ticket.

Logic Answer:

This was an easy one! It is the bottom of the fifth...and the bags are loaded!

The American Cribbage Congress Board of Directors

The American Cribbage Congress elects a Board of Directors every two years. This elected body conducts the business of the Congress, maintaining membership rosters, preparing and mailing Cribbage World, administering the Grass Roots Program, and managing funds generated by membership dues and sanctioning fees. Many other jobs are performed by this 25-person group. The following ACC members were elected (or appointed to fill a vacancy) to manage the Congress until September 2003. The Board will convene on Thursday, January 24, 2002 at the Sands Regency in Reno, Nevada to begin their two-year stint as members of the Board (the original meeting in Richmond was cancelled due to the chaos the terrorists caused with the Trade Center and Pentagon attacks):

GNXX Refunds

John and I are both well aware of the circumstances that occurred on Sept. 11, 2001, 10 days before the Grand National started. We were not notified until Sept. 18 or 19 that the Board of Directors Meeting was being cancelled; prior to that date we had only received around 20 cancellations. As soon as this news hit the rumor mill, we received over 80 calls saying we heard the tournament was cancelled, that the Awards Banquet was cancelled and then another 65 people cancelled after that date. Of the 84 cancellations, 12 of those players never called to cancel, never sent any e-mails or contacted us at all. Expenses were incurred, programs had to be printed, meals ordered and awards engraved, and on and on. These expenses unlike the players did not go away, they remained. It is within tournament guidelines that we could of kept 15% of all refunds to cover expenses. John and I chose not to do this as we both felt it was wrong under any circumstances to withhold 15% of a players refund for expenses. All who called or e-mailed us their cancellations before Sept. 17 were issued a full refund. Those who had people who attended the tournament tell us that, oh, this person or that person was not coming, or who did not notify us had their lunch and/or banquet deducted from their refund which is pretty standard when you cancel so close to the tournament date. To those who feel this is wrong I am sorry. For those of you who never showed up, never called, or e-mailed, don't call and complain that you have not received your refund yet, they have all been mailed and that is the end of it, no other refunds will be issued and if lunch or banquets were deducted it was because we were notified that you were not attending, either too late or in a lot of cases not at all. To the 236 of you who made it through all the additional delays or had to drive long distances, we all thank you for attending the tournament. Some of you went through a lot to get to Richmond, and each of you should be congratulated.

Co-Director, GNXX*

More Earl Luton 29-Hand Tidbits

Earl Luton (NC) has played four 29-hands. One was at home with his nephew and the other three at tournaments. The last was at the National Open. He needed exactly 29 points to win and he got the magic 29! But the most curious thing about his four 29's....he cut the five of clubs everytime!

28../Then 29!

Larry Phifer (NC) had a 28-hand in early October, and the next week he scored a 29-hand (Grass Roots play). He had yet to score a Grass Roots point this year...until his 29-hand did the trick!

Never Had One...

Mel Vios, Honolulu, HI, has been pegging for many, many years and has never had a 28-hand. But, finally, in a Grass Roots match in Kailua, HI, on October 20, he scored that elusive hand in game number two.

Feeling no pain, and in a great mood, he began play in game number four. Wow! Another 28-hand! Unbelievable! With this largess by the Cribbage Gods, Vios won the match handily, right? Wrong! His cards were cold all night...except for his two gems!

Post Office Chaos

With the horrendous events of September 11, and that followed by the anthrax mess, the US Post Office is suffering delays. Our Cribbage World camera copy mailed to Richfield, MN via 2-day $3.50 express, took 8 days. Your editor is NOT GUILTY this time around!

In Memoriam

I. V. Graham
Libby, Montana
I. V. is his name.

Cribbage is his game.
The way he beats others is a crying shame.
When the cards are hot, and he's on a run,
He talks and he ribs, but all in fun.
When he beats his opponents, he's loud and clear,
But when he beats Ada, do I detect some fear?
When you sit across from this bear of a man,
He shuffles the cards in his monstrous hands.
His eyes twinkle, his face comes alive,
As he sheepishly asks,
"Is this for five?"

Ada Graham
Libby, Montana

I. V. died Friday, October 5, in a Seattle hospital after a long illness. He played with gusto, thumping the cards with great joy. A great competitor, he will be deeply missed by all that knew him. Ed.

Carl E. Carlson
Riverside, Rhode Island
Carl died August 19 at the age of 79. He was a dedicated cribbage player and attended every match possible, even when saddled with an oxygen tank. His enthusiasm for the game was evident as he was buried with a cribbage board and a 29-hand. His many friends mourn his passing.

Mary Houlihan
Edmonton, Alberta
Mary died of cancer at the age of 59. She was an avid cribbage player, and a regular in Canadian play. Her many friends and fellow players will sorely miss her.

Warren Gallagher Earns Master
Warren Gallagher, Melrose, MA is the only ACC player to earn a new status this month.

He recently zipped over the 2,000 MRP mark and earned the ACC's 481st Master rating.
