Grand National XX

Logan: 121-120!

Ron Logan, pegging out of Gold Canyon, Arizona, came away the winner in one of the most exciting finishes in recent Grand National play. With the score at 3-3 in the championship match, and facing the formidable Larry Phifer (a Master pegger from Raleigh, NC), Logan gamely pegged into the winner's hole, leaving Phifer in the stinkhole for a 121-120 win! And the single point was a pricey one as the championship paid $2,400, and second place was pegged at $1,200! Master pegger Logan also garnered 196 MRP's with the win and is among the MRP leaders in this fledgling cribbage year.

Frank Bodogh, a Master pegger from Lewiston, NY nailed down 3rd, followed by Sharon Deane (VA) in 4th. Grand Master Peter Setian (MA) topped the 236-player field in the qualifying round with a superlative 38 17/22 +265 (60 MRP's).

This event fell on the heels of the national tragedy of September 11th, causing some 80 players to cancel their plans for play. Airline schedules were in a chaotic situation, causing many of the cancellations. The semi-annual Board of Directors meeting was cancelled when a bevy of newly elected board members, mainly from the Western Region, threw in the towel as they had no stomach for a cribbage game under these depressing circumstances.

Nevertheless, directors John Mangiaratti and Huston Kitts continued on with a well-run event that sported many satellite events. Beginning with the Thursday Old Dominion match and continuing on through Sunday's Last Hope, players gamely played on.

The Consolation played to 182, and none other than the Eastern Region's premier player came home the winner...One Star Harry Palmer (MA). Joyce Bryant (MD) nailed down 2nd, followed by Grand Master Sharlene Medeiros (MA) and John Dydalowicz (VA) in the 3-4 slot. Bill Hutchinson (CO) topped the field in the qualifying round with a nice 22 10/12 +147.

The satellites:

Old Dominion: Ron Reece (VA) 16 7/7 +125
 Dogwood: Peter Lerch (VA) 19 9/9 +132
 Cardinal: Herschel Mack (CA) 17 8/9 +134
 High Roller: DeLynn Colvert (MT) 17 8/9 +100
 Lovers: Jerome Fischer (WI) 17 8/9 +107
 Last Chance: Paul Gallagher (MA) 16 8/8 +106
 Last Hope: Harry Maiden (FL)
 29: Rick Allen (VA) ACC's 2nd 2001-2002

Next year's GNXXI will be played on the shore of Lake Tahoe in California...and director Jack Shumate III was in Richmond busily touting his upcoming event with brochures and other handouts. Perhaps Americans will be in a better mood in 2002!

Vignettes

From Richmond

Grand National XX, Richmond, VA, sported many of the usual happenings, and whining galore was present as well (what else is new?).

Rick Allen (VA) wasn't complaining a bit in a Consolation game, however, as he nailed a 29-hand to earn the ACC's 2nd gem this cribbage year and took home $100 for this sanctioned hand.

One Star Bob Julian (WI) finished 5th in the Consolation and the 30 MRP's earned give him the unofficial lead this cribbage year. He now stands at 413...and is off to a great start. He has won three National Championships and he has set his sights on number four!

Henry Douglass was the recipient of the A-J Award for his superb Hospitality Room generosity. What is the A-J award? It is the Alan Lindner/Jim Ready combo's largess. They plan this award every GN in the future. The award? A heavy floor tile with red inscription!

Two record-setting ACC members were in attendance. The record? Who has gone the longest without a haircut! Jack Shumate III (CA) won this hands down! He has gone 29 years without a clipping...and his chest-long hair length proves the point. Victor Struminger (GA) has avoided a barber for almost 13 years, and sports an attractive white pony-tail for his efforts.

Many Grand Nationals in the past have been "jinxed" in the past by a variety of problems...but this Grand National was hit the hardest of all by the events of September 11. Directors Mangiaratti and Kitts, nevertheless, carried the program forward on schedule, but were forced to write many refund checks.

The annual Awards Banquet drew a sizeable crowd, with Scott Kooistra and Joan Rein doing a great job of MC'ing as usual.

Players from other regions could only be envious of Virginia's gasoline prices. $1.24 could be found, far below the Western and Central Region's prices of $1.65 or so.

Vadnais, Rein Nail St. Croix

It was Mike Vadnais from nearby St. Paul, MN coming home the winner at the recent record-breaking (228 peggers) St. Croix Classic, played at Turtle Lake, WI. The win came complete with 196 MRP's, giving Vadnais one-ups-manship on the entire nation as the 2002 cribbage year kicks into gear.

But it was Joan Rein, a Grand Master from Carver MN, who is leading the nation on August 12. She nailed the qualifying round with a great 39 16/22 +302, and then finishing 2nd in the playoffs as well. Her MRP take? A whopping 212 (aggregate), and bragging rights as the nation's leading pegger in this fledgling year.

Norbert Upton (MN) is nearing his Grand Master by taking home 3rd, followed by the streaking Ray Boesel (WI) in 4th. Boesel is a Life Master who recently won the Lewis & Clark Classic (July 15).

With 134 peggers in the field, Karen Bouffiou (WI) took home the top prize in the Consolation. Dave Yaeger (MN), Life Master Roger Wilson (CO), and Chris Moller (MN) finished 2-3-4. One-Star Bob Julian (WI) topped the field in the qualifying round, scoring a 19 8/9 +150.

Director Alan Lindner hosted a record crowd, and the usual satellites were played. The winners:

Friday: (178) Helen Railsback (NE) 17 8/9 +113

Saturday: Darlene Althaus (MN) 18 8/9 +172

Earl Fox, identical score, tie breaker to Althaus +179-+175

29's Al Booth $500; Dave Gustafson $600 (sanc.)

24 hands: 278 @ $25 ea.

Casino perks (total): $9,200

Director Lindner reported that the St. Croix Casino continues to host superb events, with outstanding food, free coffee, juice, and soda, in addition to great hospitality. He reported Joan Rein had a slow start (losing 4 of first 6), but roared home winning 13 of her last 14 with 5 skunks! And as usual, the Milwaukee group (in one van) all qualified for the Consolation, with Bouffiou taking home the win. The others in the lucky van: Warren Sondericker, Martha Fingleton, Bob McCabe, Don Fleisch, and Ken Benson. Rumor has it that One-Star Julian had the right pools at the right time, and took home yet another wad!

Lindner, recipient of the 2001 President's award for these typical events, urge all players to sign on early for upcoming St. Croix matches.

Terry Smith Hits Whopper!

At Walla Walla's (WA) Grass roots club each player adds one dollar per session to the 28/29 pot. This has been going on since January 4, 2001.

On Friday, August 24, the pot had grown to a whopping $484! And then Terry Smith did it! A 29-hand! He cleaned out the pot!

According to co-director Lisa Duff, some $725 was awarded at this season's finale! The Summer Season champion? Jim Duff!

Gilkeson Luck Ran Out

Dave Gilkeson was standing at 24 GP's with six games to go in Portland...and he lost all six! The well ran dry!

Langley's Run stopped

Jim Langley (CA) finally hit a brick wall in the Main Event in Portland. He scored only a 14 GP card, and failed to qualify.

But he didn't lay down for long. In the Consolation he nailed a 17 GP card...and finished 3rd in the playoffs to wind down the best season in ACC history.

More License Plates

Bernie Nelson, a Grand Master from Pacific City, OR sports this plate on his spiffy new PT Cruiser:

Jim Miller (WI) sports this plate:

Rollie Heath For Governor?

Grand Master Rollie Heath (OR) was recently elected to the ACC's Board of Directors. Did this go to his head? The state of Colorado has a Rollie Heath on the ballot for the governor's office. Can this be the ACC's Rollie Heath? Cribbage World is checking out the veracity of this story!

Alaskan Cops Winnemucca Fall Classic

Mike Stier was a long way from his Anchorage, AK home, but this Master pegger came to play in the small gambling town of Winnemucca, NV on September 30. With a sizeable crowd (124) on hand, Stier zipped to the win over formidable Valerie Sumner (NV). Grand Master Mary Gladish (CA) took home 3rd, with Red McKinnon (NV) in 4th.

Life Master Steve Reynolds (CA) had a shot at the all-time record in the 22-game qualifying round, standing at 38 GP's with three games to play. Alas, the cards ran cold and he finished with the meet's high qualifying card...38 GP's!

A good crowd (89 peggers) played the Consolation, and it was Jeanne Jelke (CA) winning yet another Consolation (having won in August at the Cascade Classic in Redmond, OR). Bryant Gilkeson (NV) took 2nd, followed by Howard Payson (NV) and Master Bob Clark in the 3-4 slot.

The satellites:

Time Passer: Jack Moritzky (WA)
Doubles: Helene Sontag (CA) & Ted Fuller (NV)
High Roller: Rollie Heath (OR)
Last Chance: Jim Langley (CA)
29: Jack Moritzky (WA)

Jack Moritzky began the morning's play in the Main Event by scoring the ACC's 3rd 29-hand this fledgling year. He didn't waste any time...it was in the very first game!

Two-Star Jesse Jarrell was in town and he organized a five-player team that simply couldn't lose. His hand-picked team had earned a whopping 61,820 MRP's (lifetime) and was a shoe-in for a winner! Wrong, this team scored a dismal 98 GP's (110 game match), and finished dead last! The members: Jarrell, Hatcher, Colvert, Rasmussen, and Heath.

Schell, Bowman Agree: 649,740 to 1

The odds of scoring a 29-hand in doubles is 649,740 to 1. And that must be the gospel truth as two of the ACC's mathematical whizzes came up with this same huge number...Mike Schell (WA) and Bruce Bowman (MI). Bowman also reports that scoring a 28-hand in doubles has odds of 39,505 to 1 (in singles, the odds are 15,028 to 1).

Rookie Wins Blue Mountain

Susan Hanson, a local player from LaGrande, OR, took on formidable Life Master Bill Hill (OR) in the final match...and she came away the winner in her first-ever sanctioned event. With 54 players in the field, Hanson begins her ACC pegging with a nice 105 MRP's...and bragging rights galore at the recent Blue Mountain Open (LaGrande, OR).

Grand Master Frank Ornie (OR) and Master Wendell Rush (OR) finished 3-4 in this veteran field. Grand Master Clair Morse (OR) posted a nifty 34 16/22 +120 to earn 40 MRP's in the qualifying round.

Jo Kirby (WA) won going away in the 32-player Consolation, nipping Jerry Hearsum (OR) in the final playoff match. Hearsum's 18 MRP's have him knocking on the door for his Master rating.

The satellites:

High Roller: Phil True
Doubles: Robert Talbert & John Fitzgerald
Saturday: Kathy Ferrens (ID)
28: Gordon Drummond (first ever!)

Directors Charlette and Rick Springer always sport a fun event, and this was no exception.

Todd Malmgren takes Capital City (MT)

Grand Master Todd Malmgren (OR) and his trusty '76 GMC pickup were in action once again at Last Chance Gulch in Helena, MT on September 2, and this time around, Malmgren won his gas money, plus! He nailed this event and took home 147 MRP's to boot, kicking off the new year in style. He garnered 717 MRP's last year, and is off and winging this year. Newly crowned Master George Rodriguez (MT) finished 2nd, followed by Jay McCloskey and Dennis Misener (AB) in 3-4.

Cribbage World has not received the official report, and does not have the Consolation winners. The satellites:

Time Passer: Marion Buckley (AB)
Doubles: Mike McDaniels (WA) & George Rodriguez (MT)
Saturday: Jim Simac (MT)
28: Virginia Reilly, Pink Pinkerton

Directors Walt Conell and Kathy Thompson always put on a great show for peggers, attested to by an ever-increasing attendance mark every year.

Tanner Tops Richmond Classic

Jim Tanner (VA) kicked off the cribbage season by winning the Richmond Classic on August 19. One month later this city would host Grand National XX, and this preview by Tanner netted 147 MRP's in this 74-player field. Keith Widener (NC) finished 2nd, followed by Harvey Greenberg (VA) and Chuck Yoemans (VA) in 3-4. Aaron Geroux (NC) took qualifying honors with a 36 16/22 +240 card (50 MRP's).

57 players stayed for the Consolation and it was Peter Lerch, a Master pegger from Herndon, VA coming home the winner. One-Star Harry Palmer (MA) finished 2nd and added yet another 30 MRP's to his lofty lifetime total. Sharon Deane (VA) and Grand Master Peter Setian (MA) finished 3-4. Andy Hulcher (VA) took home the top qualifying round score...19 8/10 +165.

The satellites:

Early Bird: Virgil Dulin (NC)
High Rollers: Len Wahlig (IL)
Saturday: Harvey Greenberg (VA)
Last Train: Danny Bennett (VA)
28: Aaron Geroux (NC), Curtis Barbour (VA)

Directors Rick Allen and Janet Meinert kicked off Richmond cribbage in style, and plan other events in the future.

Brenda Palmer Wins In Massachusetts

Life Master Brenda Palmer is at it again. This time around she nailed the Massachusetts Open in Franklin, MA on September 16. With 102 players in the field, Palmer took home yet another 147 MRP's. She is inching in on some 8,000 MRP's, lifetime. Bill Richmond (CT) took home 105 MRP's for a 2nd place finish, followed by Grand Master John Groz (FL) and Bob Cunningham (MA) in the 3-4 position. Grand Master Sharlene Medeiros (MA) won 11 of 12 to score the top card in the qualifying round.

Director Shawn Jordan reported a "perfect" Consolation...as an even 64 players were in the competition. Jack Shumate III was a long, long way from his Crescent City, CA home, and the win helped defray his expenses. He nipped Life Master Henry DeLong (MA) in the final playoff match. Barbour Barbara (CT) and Ron Rapoza (RI) took home 3-4. Rick Montague won 7 of 8 in the qualifying round to take honors.

Director Jordan reported nary a 28 or 29-hand showed, but the competition was spirited, nevertheless.

Duyallup Fair Cribbage Promotion Great Success

Seattle-area Grass Roots clubs promoted cribbage in a big way from September 7th through the 23rd at the Western Washington Fair in Puyallup, WA. This is the 5th largest fair in North America and the largest west of the Mississippi.

Grass Rooters promoted cribbage in a unique way over the 17-day event. They challenged visitors to a game of cribbage. Some 3,000 games were played, but only 700 could come away with a win...and a nifty certificate to prove their point! The ACC's brochure "Cribbage Anyone?" were given away by the thousands, and other pamphlets were distributed.

Some 4,000 completed an entry form for a drawing for eight customized cribbage boards, to add more interest to the cribbage booth at the fair.

Cliff Brandsma, director of the Lacey Peggers, has organized and coordinated this project for the past four years. This highly successful cribbage promotion has resulted in a bevy of Grass Roots clubs in the Seattle area, adding hundreds of new members to the ACC since 1996. For information, call Brandsma at (360) 456-2318, or email Dianell@aol.com. Other contacts: Commissioner Patrick Ward, Region II GR Program (425) 486-7832 or patrickward@msn.com Another contact is Ras Rasmussen at (360) 807-8392, or Ras@localaccess.com

Clubs involved in this promotion:

Chehalis-Centralia GR; Cove Peggers (Brinnon); Everett Peggers, Kitsap Peggers (Port Orchard); Lacey Peggers (Olympia); Pierce County "31 for 2" Peggers (Tacoma); Sea-Tac Peggers (Federal Way) and Sno-King Peggers (North Seattle).

Record-Breaking Champ

Jim Langley, Red Bluff, CA

The American Cribbage Congress has a new champion...Jim Langley from Red Bluff, CA. And he has set a new record for future ACC players who want to set their goals high. He scored a whopping 2,245 MRP's during the 2001 campaign, easily taking home the national championship.

Beginning with a record-breaking +400 in a qualifying round at Winnemucca, NV in early April, he continued on to win three consecutive events at Alamo, CA, Lake Tahoe, CA, and the World Championship at Quincy, CA. And he didn't stop at that point. He finished the 2001 cribbage year with a flourish, with several more top finishes to wing it to the 2,245 MRP mark!

Langley says he played in 35 events in 2001, more than his usual 20 to 25. But when you're hot, you're hot, and he put his pedal to the metal and roared home the winner! Langley has been playing sanctioned events for about 15 years, and has competed seriously for 7 or 8 years. His best previous finish was in 1998, finishing 14th nationally, which caused him to reflect, "I coulda been a contendah!" He waited until 2001...and, indeed, did become a contendah!

Grand National XXIII (2004)

The Eastern Region will be the site of Grand National XXIII for the year 2004. Any individual wishing to act as host for this prestigious event should contact Executive Vice President Syl Lulinski prior to November 22, 2001. For now, all that is needed is a notification that you are interested; no specifics are necessary. Those who contact Syl will be notified of the information needed for the January 2002 Board of Directors' meeting in Reno.

Walla Walla Fair

Jim and Lisa Duff run an up-and-coming Grass Roots club in Walla Walla, WA (GR 274).

Following the footsteps of the Puyallup Fair near Seattle, this club was given a fair booth at the recent Walla Walla Fair and Frontier Days. 20 club members manned the booth and took on all comers in a game of cribbage...and promoting the grand old game at the same time (see photo, below). They played scores of contestants at all skill levels. A grand time was had by all. Look for added cribbage interest in Walla Walla, WA.

Walla Walla Fairgoers In Action.

K-Q-J-10 & 5!

Matt Easterbrook (VA) was playing at the recent Richmond (VA) Classic, and was seated next to Joan Morrison (MA). Joan nudged Matt and showed her hand (dealing). She was holding K-Q-J-10 and had cut a 5. Matt was also dealing at that moment and he, too, held a K-Q-J-10 hand! And a 5 was cut for Matt as well. To make this hand all the more unusual, both opponents played a diamond flush hand!

Dean Bauman Cops Mt. Bachelor Challenge

Dean Bauman, pegging out of Newport, OR, came home the winner at the recent Mt. Bachelor Challenge, Bend, OR. In topping the sizeable field of 92 players, Bauman carted home 147 MRP's and leads the Western Region as play kicks off in the new cribbage year. "Ras" Rasmussen (WA) earned All-American honors last year, and he is off and winging by taking home 2nd (105 MRP's). Herschel Mack (CA) recently earned his Master rating, and he proved this was no fluke by taking home 3rd, followed by Master Todd Anderson (OR) in 4th.

Master David Gilkeson set the high mark in the qualifying round, taking honors with a 36 17/22 +213 (50 MRP's).

Co-director Carolyn Blackman set the high qualifying mark in the 68-player Consolation (16 7/9 +121), but Doug Jansen (OR) won the playoffs. His final match pitted him vs. Grand Master Jim Gogolin (OR), and Jansen prevailed. Master Anne Haller (OR) zapped Three-Star DeLynn Colvert (MT) 2-1 to take home 3rd. Colvert settled for 4th.

Directors Carolyn and Jerry Blackman had a full slate of satellites. The winners:
Time Passer: Bev Honeycutt (OR)
Doubles: Greta Gordon & Don Smith (OR)
High Roller: Al Nelson (WA)

This event was played at the Elks Lodge in downtown Bend, and they proved hospitable hosts. Bill O'Malley provided outstanding trophy boards for the winners, with the champion's board truly a cut above!

Correction:

Dave Gustafson, Not Earl Fox

Last month's CW had Earl Fox (MN) scoring the first 29-hand ever at the St. Croix Casino Classics. Not true, it was Dave Gustafson (MN) taking home the first $500 bonus for a 29-hand in this event (August 11).

Bill Hutchinson Bridesmaid Twice

Colorado's Bill Hutchinson is getting closer all the time. At the St. Croix Classic (August) he was the bridesmaid in both the Main Event and Consolation in the qualifying rounds.

Larry Harmon Wins New England Inaugural

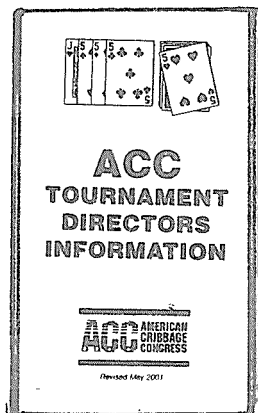

Burlington, CT's Larry Harmon topped the 124-player field in the playoffs to win the recent New England Inaugural. This event was played in Woonsocket, RI, directed by Bill Medeiros (2001 All-American team member). Malcolm Enos (NJ) took home 2nd, followed by Life Master Al Miller (NH), and Karyn Fischer (RI) in the 3-4 slot. Miller earned yet another 70 MRP's to run his lifetime tally to a whopping 8,700+!

David Statz (NH) burned up the track in the qualifying round, nailing a grand slam 25 12/12 +192! This hot run netted Statz a cool 55 MRP's to kick off the new season.

A "perfect" field of 64 players stayed for the Consolation, with Master Frank Reddy (MA) winning the event. Herb Boreham (MA) finished 2nd, followed by Warren Gallagher (MA) and Grand Master J. J. Rooney (MA) in the 3-4 slot. Carl Deyette (CT) scored a 15 GP card in the 8-game qualifying round to take honors (15 MRP's).

Director Medeiros reported that Phyllis Aronoff scored the meet's only 28-hand. No 29's showed.

Too Much Talking?

Cribbage World editor DeLynn Colvert was busily engaged in a game with Tim Morrissey, Centralia, WA. Tim stopped play and exclaimed, I can't stand that woman at the next table yapping all the time!"

"What woman is that?" asked Colvert, as he turned to look at the other table.

"My wife!" came the reply.

Quiz

What ACC player is inundated in 4,000,000 book every work day?

A: James Whisenhunt, Canyonville, OR works for Ingram Book Company at their distributing center in Roseburg, OR. He packs some 4,000 books daily for shipment. That is some 8 books a minute! What has been his record day? 6,250!! Whew! And he says he loves his job! He unwinds from this hectic pace with some cribbage at the Roseburg Grass Roots club.

Jeanne Jelke Tops Humboldt

Jeanne Jelke, Vacaville, CA travels with Jim Langley, last year's national champ. And watching Langley win event after event proved good training, as she begins the new year by winning the Humboldt Bay Classic in Arcata, CA. In topping the 88-player field, Jelke begins the new year with 147 MRP's and is among the leaders in the early going. Master David Gilkeson (OR) took home 2nd (and 105 MRP's). Grand Master Donna Hassett (OR) and Keith Sperry (CA) finished in the 3-4 bracket. Bruce McGillivray (CA) zipped to a 36 18/22 +230 card to take qualifying honors, Nary a skunk was on his card.

Grand Master Bernie Nelson (OR) won the 48-player Consolation. He nipped Laurie Kenny (WA) in the final playoff match. Grand Master Bill Wakeman (CA) and Carl Stone, Jr. (CA) finished 3-4. Ken Julkowski (OR) won 8 of 9 to take qualifying honors.

Herschel and Rickie Mack had a full slate of satellite events. The winners:
Friday Early Bird: Clair Morse (OR)
High Rollers: Richard Wardenburg (CA)
Doubles: Graeme Gossett & Clair Morse
Saturday: Jackie Doppelt (CA)
All Events: Rosemary Hendricks (WA) 58
28: Jerold Montgomery (Sat. Special)

The cribbage grapevine has it that this is a well-run event with great paybacks, and should be on the "must-play" list. The scenic northern California coast is an added attraction for those who "have pegs, will travel!"

Barbara McPhee Tops Daniel Webster

Windham, Maine's Barbara McPhee came home the winner at the recent Daniel Webster Open, played in Nashua, NH on September 9. And it was ladies day as 2nd went to Laurie Owen (ME), followed by Grand Master Sharlene Medeiros (MA) in 3rd. One-Star Harry Palmer (MA) took home 4th in this 124-player event. Master Richard Brault had a great qualifying round, winning 11 of 12 games, with 3 skunks...25 11/12 +213.

Grand Master Robert Medeiros (MA) set the pace in the Consolation qualifying round. He won 6 of 8 games, and his 3 skunks kept him at the top of the field. Grand Master Dick West (MA) won the playoffs, winning his final playoff match with Warren Gallagher (MA). Donna Beth Morton (ME) and Kirk Hobbs (MA) nailed down 3-4.

Director Henry Bergeron reported three sanctioned 28-hands: Jack Myers, Jim Cosgro, and Tom Clark all nailed these 15,028 to 1 gems. No 29's showed.

2002 Year Begins With Bang Eight Earn New Ratings

The ACC begins the 2002 year with eight players getting out of the blocks with new ratings:

Kolby Wins The "Shuffle"

John Kolby, McHenry, IL, came away the winner of the inaugural Schaefer Shuffle on August 26 in Slinger, WI. Kolby stopped Life Master Martha Fingleton (WI) cold with his hot cards in the final match. Kolby took home a nice payoff and 147 MRP's in this 115-player match. Two Master peggers finished in the 3-4 bracket...Tom Maresch (WI) and Myron Schmidt (WI).

Ray Schenk (WI) won 16 of 22 games (35 16/22 +234) to earn the top qualifier's award. Another player earning a dubious award was top NON-qualifier Ken Benson (MI). His 26 12/22 +29 missed qualifying by four spread points...but he received a $25 certificate for his efforts.

Ken Masnica (WI) won the 77-player Consolation, edging Doris Henken (IL) in the final match for the win. Life Master Jerry Gruber (MN) and William Dayton (WI) finished 3-4. Sandy Stroup (IL) scored a grand slam 19 9/9 +151 card to easily take qualifying honors. And Grand Master Todd Schaefer (MN) earned a $10 certificate by being the top NON-qualifier.

The satellites:

Friday: Gene Mikulsky (WI) 20 9/9 +142
Saturday: Grace Cimmings (WI) 15 7/9 +92
High Roller: Marvin Lang (IL) 15 7/9 +57
Last Chance: Andrew Grage (IL) 12 5/7 +75
28: Gary Dunham, Don Patrin

Director Al Schaefer thanks members of GR 6 and others for their help and advice. He looks forward to his 2nd edition next year...and in the meanwhile he will keep shuffling right along!

CERTIFICATE OF COMMEMORATION

The Alondra 29'ers annual cribbage tournament is henceforth designated the

Ernie L. Parker Memorial Cribbage Tournament in honor of our founding member

ERNIE L. PARKER

for his outstanding contributions to the Alondra 29'ers cribbage club and the American Cribbage Congress grassroots cribbage program.

Dedicated: September 1, 2001

Rodney Rideau

Director, Alondra 29'ers Cribbage Club

Many of you know Ernie Parker as a guy with a shock of red hair who loved to play cribbage. We at the Alondra 29'ers Grassroots Club know him as the heart and soul of our organization. Ernie was responsible for our entry into the ACC grassroots family. He recruited members for our club in the local newspapers and by chatting up everyone he knew with an interest in the game. He provided financial support to keep our club operating, and made generous donations to the Los Angeles county park system and Alondra Park staff to ensure we had a clean, safe and pleasant place to hold our weekly tournaments.

Ernie was an excellent ambassador for ACC cribbage and a true role model as a grassroots member – always providing a challenging game while imparting his knowledge of the playing skills that would make us all better players. Although he is no longer physically among us, having lost a valiant battle against cancer this past spring, the Alondra 29'ers will always cherish Ernie's spirit and love to the game.

In recognition of Ernie's many contributions to the Alondra 29'ers Cribbage Club and his leadership in the ACC cribbage program, we are pleased to officially designate the Alondra 29'ers annual tournament the Ernie L. Parker Memorial Cribbage Tournament.

3rd – 4th Roland Kerb Kerber, CA

The Alondra 29'ers Cribbage Club 164 thanks the 90 players who made our second annual tournament a tremendous success!

Randy Hanson from Marsing, Idaho won the top prize at the 2001 Founders Cup cribbage challenge in Long Beach, California. Randy took home roughly $1,200 in prize money, which included the $300 Founders Cup awarded to the tournament champion. Other prize additions included the $200 Founders Purse that was added to the prize fund for the 1st through 4th place winners in the 58-pegger Consolation tournament and two magnum bottles of champagne donated by Mrs. Jana Parker for the Main and Consolation winners. The tournament was officially designated in honor of her husband, Ernie L. Parker, the official founder of the Alondra 29'ers grassroots cribbage club. Ernie's son-in-law, Luke Campbell finished 5th-8th in the Consolation.

The Sunday Consolation champion was young upstart Todd Reynolds from San Pedro, CA. Todd stormed through the Friday Night Singles taking home the top prize and battled Dick Williams of Ventura through a grueling five-game 2-of-3 match for top honors. Abby Cohen and Roland Kerber finished 3rd-4th.

Two 28-hands were scored in the Main tournament; first by Carol Maston of El Cajon, CA followed by Jim Laird of Laguna Woods, CA.

The Saturday High Rollers was won by James "JJ" Stansfield, the Saturday Singles by Luther Lord, and the Sunday Crybaby by Bob Julian.

Herrmann Wins Boise

The 5th Annual Les Bois Classic, played in Boise, ID on Aug 10-12 saw Bob Herrman, Bend, OR, come home the winner. In besting 53 players, Herrmann copped 105 MRP's...and an invite to the upcoming Tournament of Champions. Master Wendell rush (OR) had been on a roll in the early going this cribbage year, and he took home 2nd. Grand Master Frank Ornie (OR) and Grand Master Jack Moritzky (WA) nailed down 3-4. Steve Keuter (ID) won 16 of 22 (35 GP's) to take qualifying honors (and 45 MRP's).

Keuter also came away the winner in the 28-player Consolation, nipping Dean Harvey (ID) in the final playoff match. Marlene Stark (WA) and Grand Master Phil True (WA) finished 3-4. Stark was also top qualifier, winning 7 of 9 with two skunks.

Director Dan David played the following satellites:

Early Bird: Gene Sissel (OR)

High Roller: Jack Moritzky (WA)

Doubles: Kathy Farrens & Zeb Atwood (ID)

Saturday: Kathy Farrens (ID)

28: Doug Hadley (ID)

Huge Crowd in Auburn, MA

B. J. Thvotte Wins

New England Championship

Gorham, Maine's B. J. Thvotte scored a whopping 196 MRP's by winning the huge New England Championship on August 26. The 156-player field sported many veteran peggars, and 21 first-time players in this "Peer" event that placed players in the qualifying round vs. players of the same experience (and MRP's).

Life Master Al Miller (NH) is the ACC's 20th ranked player (lifetime) and he came home 2nd (and 147 MRP's to add to his lofty lifetime total). Phil Lococo (ON) and Life Master Henry DeLong (MA) (33rd ranked) finished 3-4. Carol Boule (OR) topped the qualifying round with a nice 37 18/22 +238 to take honors.

62 players stayed for the Consolation and it was Grand Master Paul Gallagher (MA) taking home the top prize. Gallagher is nearing his Life Master with this high finish. Laurie Owen (ME) took 2nd, followed by Grand Master Charlie Rapoza (MA) and Grand Master Dick West (MA) in 3-4. Rapoza is also nearing his Life Master.

Director John Chambers format always adds new players to the ACC's roster, as the "peer" concept allows beginners to play the qualifying round vs. other beginners. Chambers also featured many satellite events. The winners:

Friday: Warren Gallagher (MA)

Doubles: Ropy McKenzie (NY) & Karl Frey (NY)

28's: Bob Fitzgerald, Kim Thibault, Cindy Veradt, Al Dinwoodie, and Janet Meinert

Chambers reported he was given free publicity in a local newspaper, and, with the peer concept, resulted in a record crowd.

In Memoriam

Michael C. Wiley
Antioch, California

Mike passed away on August 26 after a brief illness. He will be remembered for his good humor, and his skill on the boards. He was a regular at cribbage events in the Western Region. He will be missed by all that knew him.

Joseph R. Thibodeau
Dedham, Massachusetts

Joe died February 4 at the age of 73. He will be missed mostly from his Norwood GR 95 fellow players as well as his many friends in Dedham. His "How do you do that?" was one of his trademarks. He fell on ice going to a cribbage match in January never to play the game again.

Robert F. Hayman

Walpole, Massachusetts

Robert died August 2 at the age of 59. He was the founder of the Norwood GR 95 club. He loved the game, win or lose, and was a great sport. His many friends will miss him.

George Bright

Atlanta, Georgia

George lost a battle with cancer on August 25. He was an avid pegger and had attained the rank of Master. The lights will be a little dimmer at his home club in Atlanta. He was a mainstay in the Southeastern region.

Gary D. Peterson

Woodland, California

Gary died after a long battle with cancer on March 1. He was 62, and a retired college professor. He loved his cribbage, win or lose.

Albert Dean

Kennewick, Washington

"Bert" suffered a stroke and died on September 13. He was a regular in the Northwestern region. He was an avid pegger who played with dignity and class, never complaining. He will be missed.

Medford Smith

Brookline, Massachusetts

"Smitty" lost his long battle with cancer on August 28. He was a big man with a big heart, and a worthy opponent who loved the game. He was a gracious winner or a good loser. His mind was a road atlas as he always knew 10 ways to get there. He was one of a kind and not easily forgotten.

September 11th Fund America Cares

The River City Peggers have scheduled a sanctioned tournament for Sunday, November 18th at the Orangevale Grange (5807 Walnut Ave.) in Orangevale, CA.

This is a fundraising event and the entire $25 entry fee, including the $1.50 sanctioning fee will go to the United Way's September 11th Fund. 100% of donations will go to the relief efforts for the families of the victims in NY, DC, and PA. No administrative costs are being deducted.

Director Annett Eiffert is soliciting donations from local businesses for a raffle and perhaps prizes and trophies for the winners. The event comes with a continental breakfast (donated) and Master Rating Points as this is a sanctioned event. This event will be listed in November's Tournament Trail. For more information, or to enter: Annett Eiffert, PO Box 3243, Citrus Heights, CA 95611. (916) 721-7473.

Carolyn Davis Scores Whopper

On September 15, Carolyn Davis was pegging with the Mile High Peggers (GR 23) in Denver, CO. And peg she did! She scored a whopping 22 9/9 +252! A grand slam with four skunks!

The late Stan Hayton (NM) holds the record for a 9-game match. He scored a 24 9/9 +303!

Julian Slipping?

Most of the ACC peggers familiar with One-Star Bob Julian (WI) know his penchant for precision and neatness.

But he is slipping a bit. At the recent September Sizzler in Fairfield, CA, he left his lucky green jacket. Director Julie-Mack Felkins is holding the jackey ransom so he will return next year for another round of play

Youth Cribbage In Montana

Wayne Momsen. (MT) organized a Whitehall Youth Tournament on May 19. Cherie Andrews came away the winner in this fun event. All participants received fruit and cookies, a free movie pass and other donated gifts. The event was covered by the Whitehall Ledger, complete with photos of the title match. Sean Wisner took home 2nd in a close match.

Don Brown Hot

Don Brown (CA) was hot at the Founder's Open in Long Beach (Aug 31, Sept. 1-2). On Saturday he was high qualifier, won the team event, won the All-Events, won two Q-pools, three side pots, and missed the High Rollers by one-peg point (finishing 2nd). He went to the 5-8 round...and then, to top all this, began this year's Grass Roots play by finishing first the following Tuesday.

When you're hot, you're hot.

And When You're Cold...

One-Star Paul Hatcher (OR) has whining rights galore after playing the Blue Mountain Open in LaGrande, OR (Sept. 7-9). He scored a 29-GP card (22-game match) and just knew he had qualified for the playoffs. Oops, he was top NON-qualifier! Scoring a 29-GP card and NOT qualifying is extremely rare!

He gamely entered the Consolation and scored a 13 GP card and just knew he had qualified once again! Wrong! Again, he was the top NON-qualifier. Ugg! When you're cold, you're cold!

Richard Corbin Makes Headlines

Richard Corbin, McKinney, TX, recently won the National Open in Raleigh, NC. The McKinney Courier-Gazette featured Corbin in a headline story! Cribbage World reported he was from Raleigh, but it was his father, Richard M. Corbin, who hails from Raleigh.

Steve Angier Tops In Peach State

Steve Angier, Decatur, GA topped the recent Peach State Classic, played in Atlanta, GA. Some 56-players were on board in a spirited competition, and Angier came away with a nifty 105 MRP's...and bragging rights.

Master Bernard Whitfield (NC) nailed down 2nd, followed by Buzz Adams (GA) and Lou Gardner (GA) in 3-4. Gardner also took qualifying honors with a nice 32 GP card in the 20-game round.

Gene Bradshaw (GA license plate J-555-5) won the 46-player Consolation. He nipped Floridian Virgil Townsend in the final playoff match. Paul Barnes (FL) and Chuck Yeomans (VA) finished 3-4.

Director David O'Neil had a bevy of satellite events. The winners:

Friday: Mattie Bradshaw (GA)

Doubles: Joe Daesch & Marv Helfgott

Last Chance: Mattie Bradshaw (again!)

28: Aimee Kargen (GA)

Kathleen Williams played her first sanctioned event and qualified in the Main Event, then played the Consolation. She qualified tops with the event's only grand slam of the weekend...a great 20 9/9 +194 card! The Daesch-Helfgott doubles team (blind draw) also scored well, with a nice 20 8/9 +196.

Wong Tops August Hawaii

Roy Wong, pegging on his home turf, won the 20-player Hawaii Open (August edition), edging Ray Sakai (HI) in the final playoff match. This small, but spirited, match netted Wong 70 MRP's.

Master Fred White (HI) and Richard Kodama (HI) finised 3-4. Kodama was also the meet's top qualifier (23 10/12 +213). Director Tsarkie keeps 'em pegging in Hawaii on a monthly basis.

Martha Fingleton Millionaire...Almost

Martha Fingleton, Milwaukee, WI, had an exciting summer as she was a candidate and a participant on the "Who Wants to be a Millionaire" TV program. She was auditioned in April and got a call for a show in June.

Marlene Lazachek (WI) and Martha traveled together and were treated with first-class attention after arriving in New York. The show paid for all expenses. Martha did not get into the "hot seat" but she said that, nevertheless, it was an experience of a lifetime as they both had lots of fun. The show aired in mid-July.

Martha is one of the ACC's top-ranked players, having earned 8,887 MRP's, and Lazachek has earned a Grand Master rating. Perhaps they should have challenged the host to a game of cribbage...and then both Fingleton and Lazachek would be millionaires!

Great Timing!

Earl Luton, Elizabeth City, NC was in a desperate situation at the recent National Open in Raleigh, NC on July 29. He had first count, but, alas, he needed 29 to win the match.

It looked grim...until he came up with that 216,580-1 29-hand. What timing!
