

Bouchard Wins Consolation

Corbin Tops National Open

Richard Corbin, pegging on his home turf, won the National Open on July 29. This unique event is a best 4 of 7, double elimination, with skunks counting as two games won. Corbin's last match was a tough one as he was pitted vs. Grand Master Marlene Lazachek, director of the Milwaukee, WI Grass Roots club and the Milwaukee Challenge sanctioned event. And Milwaukee produces some of the nation's finest peggers (two of this year's top ten are from Milwaukee... Steinmetz and Julian). Nevertheless, Corbin prevailed and garnered 196 MRP's, plus qualifying points. Lazachek brought home 147 MRP's.

Grand Master Todd Schaefer (MN) wings it to the 500 MRP mark for the year by finishing 3rd, followed by Keith Widener (NC) in 4th in this 193-player event.

146 peggers were in action in the Consolation, and it was Roger Bouchard (CT) coming home the winner. His final match was vs. Grand Master Peter Setian (MA), with Bouchard prevailing for the win. Marvin Lewis (VA) and local Terry Gooden finished 3-4. Mona Wahlig (IL) nailed a 8/9 19 GP +135 card to easily take qualifying honors.

Director Catherine Perkins has cribbage on tap for four days running. The satellite winners:

Friday Early Bird: Larry Gould (NC) GS
 Saturday Special: David Lambeth (NC)
 Last Round-Up: Craig Phipps (NJ)
 Losers Losers: Martha Fingleton (WI)
 High Rollers: Barbara Gooden (NC)

A highlight of this meet saw Earl Luton (NC) play the ACC's 23rd sanctioned 29-hand. This long-shot earned Luton a nifty $100 from the ACC. Mike Feretta (CA) scored a sanctioned 28-hand, and Len Wahlig (IL) scored a 28 in the Friday Early Bird.

This is the 28th running of this prestigious event, and it continues to draw sizeable crowds. The North Raleigh Hilton has excellent playing areas, and their hospitality is top notch. Mark your calendars for next year's 29th.

Boesel Takes Lewis & Clark

For the first time since 1985, veteran pegger Ray Boesel, Glenbuelah, WA, has won a sanctioned Main Event. Boesel won the 152-player Lewis and Clark Classic in Sioux Falls, SD, on July 15. This Life Master had been knocking on the door for some 16 years for another win. His final playoff match was vs. Steve Herwig, Paullina, Iowa, and he came away the winner...and $1,500! And 196 MRP's to add to his lofty lifetime total. Herwig fared well in finishing 2nd, taking home 147 MRP's and a hefty 2nd place check. Les Johnson (CO) and Master Clay Collier (NE) finished in the 3-4 slot.

Russell Adams (MN) is very close to becoming the ACC's 14th One-Star player, and he made a move with a top qualifying round score. His 39 GP card in the 22-game round netted yet another 65 MRP's.

Master Doug Henderson (WI) won the 102-player Consolation, nipping Life Master Jerry Gruber (MN) in the final playoff match. Lyle Lund (MN) and Jerry Jaeger (NE) finished 3-4. Vickie Long (WI) is co-director of the popular St. Croix Classics in Turtle Lake, WI, and this time around, decided to do some pegging on her own behalf. She nailed the top score in the Consolation...a nifty 18 GP card (9 games).

Director Scott Kooistra had a full array of satellite events. The winners:
Friday: Doug Munneke (MN) 9/9 20 GP's
Saturday: Larry Rowley (WI) 17 GP's
All-Events: Don Patrin (MN) 64 GP's
28's: Sharon Schaefer, John Bakeberg, Steve Herwig.

Director Kooistra reported that this was the first Lewis & Clark tourney to be held at the Oaks Hotel in Sioux Falls, after 13 years in Yankton, SD. This facility will be the site of Grand National XXII in 2003.

Hot June For Doug Henderson

Master Doug Henderson, Racine, WI, had an unusual month of June. He scored THREE 28-hands at three different events.

On June 3, he scored a 28-hand in the Consolation at the St. Croix Classic in Turtle Lake, WI. On June 24, he scored yet another at the Capital City Classic in Des Moines, IA, and, finally, he scored his third 28 on June 30 at the Independence Day Classic in Reno, NV.

Helene Sontag Captures Devil Mountain

Newly-crowned Master Helene Sontag (CA) came to play at the Devil Mountain Caper on July 22. Sontag wound down the 2001 cribbage season in style as she nailed the 110-player event and carted home 147 MRP's to add to her 2,000+, as well as bragging rights.

Her final match pitted her against the formidable Roy Banducci (CA) and she prevailed with the win against this Grand Master. Master Dale Kochenburg (CA) and Bill Robe (CA) finished 3-4. Grand Master Mary Gladish (CA) scored a great 37 GP card (22 games) to take qualifying honors...and added 55 MRP's to her lifetime total, in addition to playoff MRP's.

The 56-player Consolation had the Western Region top runners in action, with One-Star Paul Hatcher (OR) winning the event. Grand Master Bill Wakeman (CA), newly-crowned Life Master Jim Hornbacher (WA) and Master John Schmucker (CA) finishing 2-3-4. Hornbacher also was the event's top qualifier (17 GP's, 9 games).

Director Bob Clark featured Friday Singles and Doubles matches. The winners: Singles: Betty McBride; Doubles: Dennis Ryan & Gary Wilkinson. Rollie Heath won the Saturday Singles. Marilyn Anderson and Anne Sheeran scored 28's, but no 29's showed.

Hawaii June: Mel Vios Hawaii July: Mel Vios

Don't mess with Mel Vios (HI) in the summertime in Hawaii. He is unbeatable in the warm months. He recently won the Hawaii June Open and the Hawaii July Open. Both events played to 17 peggers (the minimum to score MRP's) and the double win gives Vios 140 MRP's.

Rodney Kanno (HI) was 2nd in the June match, and Mary Jane Esera (HI) took 2nd in July. Kanno also score the meet's only 28-hand. Director Tsarkie keeps 'em pegging, summer or winter in this island paradise.

Arlene Carle Cops Riverboat Event

Way up north in Alsaka, the riverboat Nenana hosted a cribbage tournament, and some 21 players were on board for some pegging action. Arlene Carle (AK) fared the best by winning going away. L. M. Stier (AK) took 2nd. On Friday, a doubles match saw Pat Felayn and Art Baker come home winners. Director Linda Wheeler hosted this unique event.

Dan Mitchell Snaps Hex In Portland

Dan Mitchell is a veteran Master pegger from Crescent City, CA...and he has gone to the main event championship match 13 times, and walked away the bridesmaid 13 times! That is, until the Portland Summer Open. The 14th try was the magic one, as he nailed the huge 192-player event going away. He took home 196 MRP's, $1,310 (including the super Q), and, finally, bragging rights!

His final match pitted him with Master Morris Schiffman who was pegging on his home turf, but Mitchell was not to be denied on his 14th try. Schiffman netted 147 MRP's and a great weekend of pegging. Michelle Barthelmess (MT) had a great 2001 year, and finished 3rd, carting home well over 400 MRP's for the season. She also won the All-Events and also had a great tournament. Grand Master Jim Waldorf (OR) nailed down 4th.

Ken Slama (WA) qualified tops with a nice 36 GP card (50 MRP's), taking home a nice "Q" pool prize.

Another large crowd played the Consolation (128) and it was Grand Master Jim Gogolin (OR) winning 2-0 over three-star DeLynn Colvert (MT) in the final playoff match. Colvert's 54 MRP's (aggregate) gives him 1,335 MRP's for the year...and the 16th time he has earned All-American honors. National champ Jim Langley (CA) finished in the 3-4 bracket, after qualifying with great 17 GP card. His aggregate MRP take was 48 MRP's, running his season's MRP take to a new record 2,245! Master Eileen Shine (OR) also finished in the 3-4 bracket in this event. Al Nelson (WA) nailed a grand slam 9/9 19 GP card to easily take qualifying honors.

The satellites? It was Master Roger Lueschow (WA) hogging almost every event in sight. He began by taking the 83-player Time Passer on Friday afternoon, then teaming with Grand Master Gene Sissel (OR) to win the Friday doubles, and came back with yet another win on Saturday night, besting 68 players. The High Rollers played to 34 players and Master John Furler (OR) won the "Q" ($600), but Bill Hutchinson (CO) won the playoffs. Neva Richmond (OR) won the Last Chance event.

Ken and Tim Julkowski had all events running smoothly, and the host Ramada Inn served a tasty lunch and proved good hosts. This event wound down play for the 2001 season, and the large crowd attests that the ACC is alive and well!

Hot Hand In Portland

Don Keuter (WA) and Mike Derrick (WA) played a hot hand at the Portland Summer Open. Don held 4-5-5-6, and Mike played a 4-5-5-6 hand. A 4 was cut for a twin 24-hand combo.

The pegging: 4-4(2)-5-5(2)-5(6)-5(13)-6-6(3). With a 4-point crib, a total of 78 points were scored by pegging and counting. Needless to say, this was a short game!

Medeiros Wins Main Open, Earns All-American

Life Master Bill Medeiros, Shrewsbury, MA, wound down the 2001 cribbage year with a flourish. He won the 114-player Main Open, and with the 147 MRP's earned runs his yearly total to the 1,200 mark...and All-American team honors. This is his second All-American team appearance (top 10: 1994).

Medeiros's final match pitted him vs. David Campbell (ME) and he won going away. Campbell netted 105 MRP's for his 2nd place finish. Grand Master Donna LaFleur (CT) nailed 3rd and posted a fine year's pegging, finishing with 500+ MRP's. Life Master David Clemmey (MA) finished 4th...and zipped to a spot on the All-American team as well. He posted over 1,100 MRP's for the year. He took home 2nd place in 1993, and returns to the team.

Master Frank Reddy (MA) won 10 of 12 games, posting a 23 GP card (+175) to easily take qualifying honors.

Some 62 peggers played the Consolation and George Tetrault (NH) was hot all the way, taking qualifying honors (15 7/8 +100) and winning the playoffs as well. His MRP take (aggregate) was 60! Bob Chevalier (MA) nailed 2nd, followed by Grand Master John Groz (FL) and Paula Abele (MA) in 3-4.

Directors Laurie Owen and Don Russell sported a doubles and high rollers on Saturday. Doubles action saw Bud Elston and Barbara McFee come home winners. Dick Claussan won the high rollers. Dick West and Stan Mullins scored sanctioned 28-hands...but no 29's showed.

Sir John A Poet

Sir John Suckling invented the game of cribbage in the early 1600's...but did you know he was also a well-respected poet. Here is one of his lyrics:

A Love Poem

*Love is a part of every heart
For when held in,
Doth pain the host.
But when released,
Pains others most.*

Cribbage World thanks James Miller (WI) for this tidbit

Hobbs Cops Semi-Finale

Kirk Hobbs (NH) came home the winner at the Franklin, MA Semi-Final Finale on July 22. With 86 players in the competition, Hobbs took home 147 MRP's...and bragging rights.

But it was Master Betty Schaeffer (FL) who was on a roll. She qualified tops (21 10/12 +194) and finished 2nd in the playoffs. She took home a bushel of MRP's for this fine effort (140). Bob Cunningham (MA) and Life Master David Clemmey (MA) finished 3-4. Two weeks earlier Clemmey had another 3-4 finish (Main Open), and finished the 2001 season with a great finishing kick!

Grand Master Dick West (MA) won the 54-player Consolation, edging Wilma McDonald (MA) in the final playoff match. Bruce Brown (MA) and Sam Shwartz (MA) finished 3-4. Master Elinor Breen (MA) had a grand slam 8/8 18 GP +122 card to easily take qualifying honors.

Director Warren Gallagher noted that in the Main Event, the first qualifier finished 2nd, and in the Consolation the 2nd qualifier finished first. He also reported no 28's or 29's showed.

Moose's 20th Anniversary

Moose and Rich invite you to their 20th Anniversary!

A big celebration is coming to West Bend! Moose's Cribbage Classic is advertised as "The biggest littlest one-day tournament!" This event was the first one-day event sanctioned by the ACC some 20 years ago.

This 20th anniversary event will be celebrated October 14, 2001 at the KC Hall, 3245 Lighthouse Lane, West Bend, WI.

Moose requests that anyone having photos or interesting tidbits about past tournaments to give him a call (262) 334-2980. Moose also has an early bird entry deadline (Sept. 6) for special prizes.

James Langley National Champ

James Langley, Red Bluff, CA is officially the ACC's 2001 National Champion. National Statistician Bob McCabe verifies that Langley has set a new standard for a single year's play, scoring a record 2,245 MRP's. Beginning with a torrid streak in early April, and continuing on until the season wound down on July 31, Langley easily captured this year's crown. With the record MRP's, Langley also zipped to the ACC's 59th Life Master rating, and had a season to long-remember.

Life Master Wayne Steinmetz, Milwaukee, WI made a valiant effort to stay with Langley as the season wound down, and finished with some 1,617 MRP's...enough to win in most years, but only good enough for second in this unusual year. Three-Star DeLynn Colvert, Missoula, MT put together a steady year, and earned his 16th All-American team honors (1,335 MRP's). Life Master Bill Medeiros, Shrewsbury, MA came on strong with a season-ending rush and finished 4th (1,225). Grand Master Ronald Morgan, Loyalton, CA, pegged far and wide, and his dedication paid off with a 5th place finish (1,208). Life Master David Clemmey, Mansfield, MA finished 2nd in 1993, and re-joins the All-American team, posting 1,157 MRP's for the year. George "Ras" Rasmussen, Centralia, WA also re-joins the team (having won a spot in 1998), finishing the year with 1,155 MRP's. Perennial winner One-Star Harry Palmer, W. Springfield, MA makes his 4th appearance on the team, posting 1,151 MRP's. Life Master James Hornbacher, Mountlake Terrace, WA, appeared to have the inside track for this year's title at the half-way mark, winning two huge events back-to-back in mid-winter, but could not match Langley's finishing kick. Hornbacher scored 1,104 MRP's to earn his first All-American honors. Rounding out the top ten is another perennial winner and three-time national champion, Bob Julian, Milwaukee, WI. This One-Star player travels far and wide, having earned top ten honors five times.

Hard Luck Story

Master Sharon Hejtmanek (MT) gave it the old college try this cribbage year in an effort to earn top-ten honors. With a month to go, and two large events on tap, she was running 11th, with an excellent chance of making the All-American team. Alas, she was forced to undergo heart surgery, and was unable to compete the last month. She finished the year 12th with 959 MRP's. Cribbage World is happy to report Sharon is on the mend, and will be back in action soon.

Phil Martin Earns Life Master
Phil Martin, East Hartford, CT, wound down the 2001 cribbage year by earning the ACC's 62nd Life Master rating.

6,000 Master Rating Points are required, with very few players reaching this plateau. Eight ACC players made the grade this cribbage year.

David, Not Jim

Last month, CW reported that Jim Clemmey was among the top ten in the nation this cribbage year. Wrong, it was brother David tattooing the boards. CW apologizes for the mistake. (David did, indeed, earn top ten).

Shimizu Publishes Newsletter

Karen "Catfish" Shimizu is publishing an attractive two-page "Pegging News" newsletter. The news concerns the River City Peggers, Sacramento, CA. One of her tidbits reports that Wayne Glashan won games two, three, and four by a single point at a recent Grass Roots meet! Now that's getting your money's worth (and losing a few more hairs?! Shimizu also reported that Jenny Bolles scored a 29-hand on June 14th (not sanctioned).

Marcia Glenn Has New Pegs

Marcia Glenn, Lincoln City, OR, is one of the ACC's most active boosters, especially with her many internet player friends.

She recently wrote CW: "I expect a front page report in the next CW that I have become a judge...and I also have new cat pegs...tigers...solid silver...so you have no chance now!

Geez, Marcia, I never had a chance before. Calm down, and get some standard pegs. Give us old guys a chance! Ed.

McPhee-Elston Duo Nail 'Em

Barbara McPhee and Herman Elston signed on for doubles action at the recent Maine Open. So much for the rest of the field. This duo nailed a great 21 10/10 grand slam to walk all over the opposition. The take? A cool $400! The odds of a 10 for 10? About 1,024 to 1! Game nine gave them a scare. They won by a single point!

President's Award
The President's Award for 2001 is presented to

Alan J. Lindner
Greenwood, Wisconsin

During the cribbage year 2001, Alan Lindner hosted a record-breaking seven sanctioned events, including Grand National XIX. These seven events gave cribbage competition to some 1,534 contestants in well-run events that stressed fair play and camaraderie exemplified by the American Cribbage Congress. In addition, five of these events played at the St. Croix Casino, Turtle Lake, Wisconsin, awarded players some $40,650 in bonus awards. Lindner's expertise in managing tournaments, in addition to negotiating perks for players, make his events favorites for Central Region players, and from throughout the nation.

Special recognition is also given to Lindner's co-director Pickie Long. Her tireless help in managing these tournaments added much to their success.

President, American Cribbage Congress

Numbers

A cribbage player is not worth their salt if they do NOT know their numbers. The following quiz will test your numbers capacity:

- 1-How many ways can you make change for a dollar?
- 2-What percentage of typing is done with your left hand?
- 3-Are there more chickens in the world than people?
- 4-How many muscles are in a cat's ear?
- 5- How many ridges are on a dime's edge?
- 6- How many dimples are on a golf ball?

Answers:

- 1- 293 ways.
- 2- 56%.
- 3- Yes, chickens galore!
- 4- 32 muscles
- 5- 118 ridges.
- 6- 336 dimples

New England Long Match Martin Vs. Christiansen

The New England Long Match has reached the final two...and it should be a great match as both players are highly rated and evenly matched. Phil Martin, East Hartford, CT has 5,979 MRP's in the bag, and his opponent, Dwight Christiansen, Monroe, CT sports 5,799 MRP's. It should be a tight match. The results:

A Few of My Favorite Things

(new words for an old song from the Sound of Music)

Maalox and nosedrops and needles for knittin'
Walkers and handrails and new dental fittin's
Bundles of magazines tied up with string
These are a few of my favorite things.

Cadillacs, cataracts, hearing aids, glasses,
Polident, Fixodent, false teeth in glasses,
Pacemakers, golf carts, and porches with swings,
These are a few of my favorite things.

When the pipes leak, when the bones creak, when the knees go bad,
Then I remember my favorite things. And then I don't feel so bad.

Hot tea and crumpets, and corn pads and bunions,
No spicy hot food nor food cook'd with onions,
Bathrobes and heat pads and hot meals they bring,
These are a few of my favorite things.

Then I remember the great life I've had and then I don't feel soooooo baaaaad!

CW Thanks Syl Lulinski for this tidbit

LaFleur Cops Sizzler

Grand Master Donna LaFleur, Bristol, CT, made a late-season run by nailing the 60-player West Side Summer Sizzler on July 14. With the win she runs her season's total to the 600 mark and yet another fine season. Her final play-off match pitted her vs. Paul Batterson (CT) and she prevailed for the win.

Grand Master Peter Setian (MA) had an excellent event as he qualified tops (33 GP's 20 games), and came home 3rd in the playoffs. Maurice Bellemare (MA) also finished in the 3-4 bracket.

Larry Harmon (CT) ran the table in the 26-player Consolation, taking top score honors in the qualifying round (15 MRP's) and winning the playoffs as well (30 MRP's). The 45 MRP's run his lifetime total to 1,955...and very nearly his Master rating. One-Star Harry Palmer (MA) is in the hunt for topten honors this cribbage year, and a 2nd place finish netted 18 MRP's. He has topped 1,100 MRP's this cribbage year, and is among the top ten as the season winds down with but a few events yet to be played. Another One-Star player...Phyllis Schmidt (MA) and David Stanevitz (MA) finished in the 3-4 slot.

In the early bird doubles, it was Donna LaFleur (again) teaming with Carl Palmer (ME) to win going away.

Director Harry Palmer reported that nary a 28 or 29-hand showed...making his "Sizzler" a little cooler than planned.

Experimental Ad Final Results

Director Tom Lewis (Albuquerque, NM GR) reports that the final talley on the experimental ad resulted in 28 calls, with 33 possible players. 16 new players showed to play.

The results are debatable if this is the way to expand the ACC. The cost of the ad was $255. However, with a great start in organized cribbage in New Mexico, our membership can possibly look forward to a nice winter sanctioned event in the warm southland, as Lewis has a solid foundation of local players to get play off the ground.

Jim Lynch Cops Alaskan Mid-Summer

The mid-summer event in Anchorage is labeled a "Tourist Classic" and indeed it was, as peggers showed from Colorado, New York, Oregon, and Canada. But it was Alaskan Jim Lynch (Eagle River) who came away the winner. In besting the 37 peggers in the field, Lynch came away with 105 MRP's, the top prize, and gave Anchorage the dubious distinction as being a "tourist's trap!"

Marion Buckley, Edmonton, AB, held Canada's honor intact by taking home 2nd, followed by two more Alaskans...Dave Schwartz and L. M. Stier...in the 3-4 bracket.

New Yorker Jim Klinger won 16 of 22 qualifying games to take honors (37 16/22 +276).

Master I. V. Graham is a part-time Montanan and part time Alaskan and he nailed the Consolation as top qualifier, and finished 4th in the playoffs. But it was Dave Schwartz (AK) winning the playoffs. Harold Sonnaband (AK) and Reba Louks (OR) finished 2-3. Graham also teamed with Mike Rowe (AK) to take the Friday doubles event. Rowe is the director of this unique event, and he keep's 'em pegging way up north!

Ratso In Deep Doo-doo

William "Ratso" Roderick (CA) is a tough ex-marine. And his courage is undeniably top-notch. To prove it, he wrote Cribbage World the following:

"In your next issue, would you print that the Cribbage Gods made the men supreme leaders in all three divisions of the ACC. Hail all men!"

Geez, Ratso, watch this kind of talk. It's hard enough to compete with the fair sex as it is now! Five ladies teamed up for a recent team event in Oregon and damned near set an all-time record score! Ed.

Doubles Smoken

We play a lot of cribbage at the Smoken Cafe here in Manchester (CT). As a result we have had four 29-hands recorded since the cafe opened 2 1/2 years ago. Two of them came in one-on-one play. But the other two perfects came in team play (doubles). This leads us to ask you, and your statistician, this question: What are the odds of each situation?

Also, what are the odds of both 29's (in doubles) being dealt by the same person?

*Diana Costa
Manchester, CT*

Diana, the odds of a 29-hand in singles is 216,580 to 1. In doubles (with one less card dealt to each player, the odds are far greater. To figure the 29's being dealt by the same person, you must have the number of players in the game (average). Bruce Bowman (Cribbage Master ad, this issue), help! Ed.

Wurman Scores 216,580 to 1 Variety

Franklin Wurman, Elkins Park, PA, recently scored a 29-hand...the one-on-one kind!

...And So Did Bill Holtman

On May 25, at a RV club rally, Bill Holtman had his first 29-hand in 30 years of playing cribbage. The moral of the story is never give up. It could happen to you.

Gilkeson Finishes Huge Peg Job

Bryant Gilkeson (NV) pegs with the best of them, but lately he has been playing with huge pegs. Some 240 huge pegs to be exact. He has placed these "pegs" in the ground around his Nevada ranchette, and now he is back on track using "normal" sized pegs. He recently earned his Master rating with the smaller pegs.

Malmgren Forges Lead

Grand Master Todd Malmgren (OR) and Three-Star DeLynn Colvert (MT) are in a heated contest to see who can log the most miles on their vehicles attending cribbage events. Malmgren recently topped the 400,000 mark, with Colvert lagging behind at 371,000. Colvert is crying "Foul," however, as Malmgren is on his 2nd engine ('76 GMC pickup), while Colvert's '90 Honda CRX is humming along on it's original engine.

October CW Will Be Late

The October issue of Cribbage World will be late. Editor DeLynn Colvert will be in Richmond, VA covering GNXX, and attending the September 28-30 Winnemucca Fall Classic on his return to home base. Look for a 10-day delay in receiving October's issue.

And how is Colvert travelling to Richmond? He is loading his car with awards (about 60) for the Grand National Award's Program and driving to Richmond. Will he make it? Figure the odds. His 1990 Honda CRX has 374,000 miles but Colvert claims this vehicle is a "magic carpet!" Stay tuned. This trick will save the ACC about $100 in freight bills.

Membership at 7,000

Membership Chairman Larry Hassett's report for FY 2000 shows that our ACC membership is standing at 6,943 as of June 30.

Projections are for growth in FY 2001, as a new web page is slated to come on line, emphasizing recruitment.

New Accounting Procedure Approved

Fred McGibney, the ACC's Treasurer proposed that the accounting protocol should include the Grass Roots Division into the ACC.

The Executive Committee approved his proposal by a 5-0 vote.

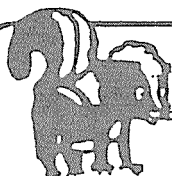

McGibney is quoted: "When the above recommendations are adopted and implemented the results will include consolidation of all financial reports, budgeting, tax returns and audits. In addition, the Grass Roots Division is relieved of the bulk of the accounting and reporting functions it now performs. In addition, the membership and the ACC BOD will have consolidated financial data to enable better management of the ACC and it's Grass Roots Division."

Glory Be!

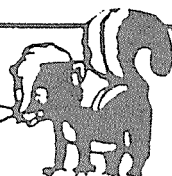

TWO 29's at Turtle Lake!

After several years of play, and hosting some five events per year, the St. Croix Classic had yet to see a 29-hand! However, on August 11 that all changed.

Not only did a 29-hand appear (at $500), but two! Earl Fox and Al Booth did the trick, and each of these Minneapolis peggers carted home the $500 bonus!

Fancy Bag for Boards, Cards?

Grass Roots club 119 (GA) carry their boards, cards, pens and score sheets in a 1930-style canvas valise carry-all. In the 1930's, Bonnie and Clyde used this style bag to transport their stolen bank money.

To make a long story short, Al Doucet (GA) placed the bag in the trunk of his car after a Tuesday night GR meet. On Sunday, he opened the trunk of his car at a golf course for some cow-pasture pool...and noticed the valise was missing! Further examination revealed the lock had been jimmied and the trunk rifled. The thief passed up expensive golf clubs and fishing gear for a few cribbage boards, cards, and pens.

Cribbage World wagers these boards will re-surface in a new Grass Roots club in a nearby penal institution!

CW thanks Jack Allison (GA) for this tidbit

GNXX Deadline for Entry

Co-Director Huston Kitts informs CW that the deadline for entry in the upcoming Grand National XX is Sept. 15. Don't delay, your entry forms are in July and August CW's centerfold.

Kitts also informs our membership that over 250 donated prizes totaling $3,000 will be given away at this prestigious meet.

Milwaukee Players Best?

Cribbage World has commented more than once that players from the Milwaukee Grass Roots club (GR 6) are among the toughest in the nation.

This club proved the point this cribbage year, as they garnered the top four places in the Central Region. These are the stellar peggers from this club: Wayne Steinmetz, Bob Julian, Warren Sondericker, and Donald Flesch. And Tony Danihel (GR 6) placed 6th.

Cribbage fever, catch it...but stay clear of Milwaukee!

In Memoriam

Ed Blecker

St. Paul, Minnesota

Ed died on July 19. He was victimized by a stroke several years ago and had been unable to play tournament cribbage. But in the 1980's he was one of the ACC's top players, having earned All-American honors in 1987. He loved the game. The ACC will miss him.

Clarence "Clancy" Schwarz

Yountville, California

Clancy passed away July 10 at the California Veteran's Home in Yountville. He began his cribbage sojourn with the Prineville, OR GR 14 club in 1986. He moved to the Veteran's home in 1992. He is famous for his comment, "I just put a pair in your crib!" You soon learned to ask, "Which suit?" He loved the game, win or lose, never complaining. He will be greatly missed by the ACC and members of GR 100.

Paul Gregson Makes TOC

Paul Gregson Promotes

Paul Gregson, San Leandro, CA earned 345 MRP's during the 2001 season, and earned an invite to the Tournament of Champions (321 MRP's were required for an invitation).

But this is not the only good news Gregson received this last year. While on a trip to Europe, he proposed to Tammy Larsen (in the beautiful city of Venice)...and she accepted. The marriage is scheduled for next June in San Diego.

Gregson has made other proposals lately. He has proposed to take over the ACC's web site, and is currently a candidate being evaluated by Internet Committee Chairman Patrick Barrett. This may be a year to remember for Gregson!

Martin Wins NE Long match

Late Release: As September Cribbage World goes to press, Pat Llewellyn, New England Long Match director, reports that newly-crowned Life Master Phil Martin, East Hartford, CT, has won the New England Long match. His last match pitted him Vs. Dwight Christiansen, Monroe, CT.

This is the 2nd consecutive long match win for Martin.

In Memoriam

Gene Pincus

Saratoga, California

Gene died on August 1 from heart failure. He was a gentleman and a fine player. He never complained and enjoyed the game immensley. He will be missed.

Roy Carlson

Wallace, Idaho

Roy died in mid-August after a long battle with cancer. He was the director of the first sanctioned event in the Northwest (Idaho Championship) in October of 1981. He earned his Master rating, and was a great competitor. The ACC has lost a hard-working, congenial member.

New England Shootout Controversy

The New England Shootout, scheduled to be played at the Franklin, MA Elks club on July 27-29 was cancelled at the last minute. Evidently some disgruntled person sent an anonymous fax to the Franklin Police Dept. complaining that cribbage was gambling. Director Shawn Jordan cancelled the tournament so as to not cause anyone any problems.

National Tournament Commissioner George Bickford called the Attorney General's Office, and conferred with Curt Schwarz, Deputy Chief of the Criminal Division (MA). Schwarz's opinion was that cribbage is a game of skill and not gambling. Your entry fees are for your entry only, and you are NOT betting on other competitors.

As we go to press, the debate between the Attorney General's office and the Franklin Police has yet to be resolved. Stay tuned.

Island Resort Events Cancelled

Director Joe Aird informs Cribbage World that he plans no further events at the Island Casino, Harris, MI. Players who have made reservations at this facility should adjust their plans accordingly.

This facility has over-scheduled events, and cannot guarantee times necessary for scheduling a cribbage tournament.

2001 Record Year For 29-Hands

The American Cribbage Congress enjoyed a record 2001 year...and the ACC members also enjoyed a record year scoring 29-hands. The players listed above all earned a $100 bonus from the Congress for scoring that 216,580 to 1 gem. Some $2,300 in awards was mailed to these players, in addition to a framable certificate.
