Shumate Cops Washington

Jack B. Shumate III recently earned Grand Master and this Crescent City, CA pegger continues to roll on. He won the huge (234 peggers) Washington Championship in Centralia, WA on January 13, tacked on another 196 MRP's, took home the grand enchilada ($1,400), and a handsome trophy board. His last match pitted him vs. the high qualifier (36 17/22+250), Bill Mero, Clackamas, OR. Mero did quite well as he garnered an aggregate 197 MRP's in his fine run. Master Bob Wikstrom (WA) took home 3rd, nailing Three-Star DeLynn Colvert (MT) 3-0 in that bracket. Colvert scored an aggregate 150 MRP's to advance among the nation's leaders in the annual MRP race.

Super promoter George "Ras" Rasmussen put on quite a show with his efforts, paying back well over 100% in all events, thanks to the sponsors that contributed to make this event a glorious success. "Ras" reported that well over 100 sponsors kicked in over $6,000 cash and $4,700 in merchandise. Whew! Ras is the king of promotion!

In the 166-player Consolation it was the Hermiston King of Cribbage coming home the winner...Life Master Bill Hill. Darren Kinnamon (WA) finished 2nd, followed by R. "Mac" McNeil (OR) and Master Larry Hassett (OR) in 3-4. Hassett is nearing his Grand Master with this high finish.

Not only did "Ras" promote this event big time, but also had a full array of satellite events, beginning with his Grass Roots club action on Thursday. The winners:

Early Bird: George Stanton

Doubles: Ed Peterson & Brandon Medack

High Rollers: Roger Wilson

"Ole" Olson Special: Jack Moritzky 9/9

Cry Baby: Rod Taylor 16 7/7 +161!!

Super Q: Bob Wikstrom

Team: Hejtmanek, Malmgren, Moritzky, Hendricks, Colvert

28's ($50ea): DeLynn Colvert, Warren Endicott, Mary Ginnard, Donna Hassett, Rod Schott, Roger Wilson

Oddities saw some 17 23-point hands scored during the weekend, each earning a bonus of $20. Larry Hall (WA) scored a rare Royal Ann, and Mary Gladish (CA) scored a Royal Flush. Players showed from 15 states and two Canadian provinces, and the two Milwaukee bombers were on hand (Duane Toll and Bob Julian), in addition to all the nation's front-runners. A total of $1,302 was also donated to charity. Evidentially, word is spreading about this event, as it continues to grow each year. The question remains: how long can "Ras" continue to beat the bushes?

Rowe Takes Nugget

Master Michael Rowe (AK) has done it again. This time around he won the small, but spirited Christmas Moose Nugget Classic (Anchorage, AK). In besting the 29 players, Rowe adds yet another 70 MRP's to his lifetime ledger. Mark Cochran (AK) finished 2nd, followed by Master Mike Stier (AK) and Duane Person (AK) in the 3-4 slot. Person also scored a nice 30 GP card in the 18-game qualifying round to take honors.

Director Rowe reported no sanctioned Consolation was played.

Tidbits...

Cold Dinner

Pat Mariette and Jack O'Connor were preparing Christmas dinner and playing cribbage at the same time. After winning 10 straight games, Jack wanted to stop and have dinner, but Pat said no, let's see how far you can go! Jack won three more games before Pat finally stopped his run at 13. But after 14 games these New Mexico peggers had worked up an appetite...and perhaps the dinner was cold?

Region IV Rolling

Tom Lewis (NM) reports that Region IV Grass Rooters are rolling. After four months play, they have scored 44 28-hands, two 29-hands, and 21 Grand Slams.

Grass Roots Statistician

December's Cribbage World had Kristy Haight's email address incorrect. Kristy is the ACC's new Grass Roots Statistician. Her correct email address:

haughtk@earthlink.net

Cribbage World and Kristy are working on a monthly reporting of Division leaders and other pertinent GR information. Currently, work is underway to get the bugs out, and up to speed. Keep tuned.

Portland Oddities

Portland's Winter Open had the usual oddities. Larry Pisha (OR) won his first four games in the Time Passer event by a total of five spread points (by 1-1-1-2) and then continued on for a seven game Grand Slam. Clarence Cole (OR) very nearly duplicated Pisha's Grand Slam...he lost game five by a single point!

Spence Nails 2001 Finale

The CBACC Holiday Cribbage Classic, played at Bowie, MD was the ACC's final event in 2001. With 57 peggers on board, it was Lee Spence from nearby Jarrettsville, MD coming home the winner in this December 29th match. His final playoff match pitted him vs. Matt Easterbrook (VA) and Spence prevailed to pick up 105 MRP's...and bragging rights. Easterbrook nailed down 70 MRP's in ringing down the 2001 year's pegging.

Jerry Lacey (MD) and Joyce Bryant (MD) finished in the 3-4 bracket (and 42 MRP's).

Master Bruce Sattler (MD) was smoking in the qualifying round, winning 10 of 12 games with two skunks (22 10/12). This effort netted some 40 MRP's.

Craig Layton (MD) won the 36-player Consolation, nipping Randy Skaradek (MD) in the final playoff match. One-Star Harry Palmer (MA) and Kate McNemar (DC) took home 3-4. Malcom Enos (NJ) won 8 of 9 with two skunks to easily take qualifying honors.

Director Thomas Brent reported two 28-hands: Thomas Brent and Peter Lerch.

Susan Chambers Takes Portland Winter

Master pegger Susan Chambers (Albany, OR) came to play at the recent Portland (OR) Winter Open. With a whopping 142 players on board, she waltzed to the winner's circle, picking up 196 MRP's, the sizeable winner's check, and a nifty Bill O'Malley trophy board. Her final match pitted her with the formidable George "Ras" Rasmussen, a Life Master from Centralia, WA. Ras came close, and the 2nd place finish netted 147 MRP's. He zipped to 650 MRP's for the year...and the national lead.

Wayne Rife (OR) and local Master Todd Anderson finished in the 3-4 bracket...and took home 105 MRP's each.

Graeme Gossett (OR) was smoking in the qualifying round, and scored one of the top scores this cribbage year...a great 41 19/22 +394. This effort netted 75 MRP's!

84 peggers stayed for the Consolation, and another local pegger...Paul Hirschmann...took home the bacon, edging One-Star Paul Hatcher (OR) in the final playoff match. Hatcher's high finish keeps him hot on the heels of Rasmussen, as this pair are in a virtual deadheat for the national MRP lead this cribbage year. Master Don Smith (OR) zipped to 3rd place with his barbed-wire pegs. Bill Hutchinson (CO) continues his fine play with a 3-4 finish, in addition to winning the High Roller event.

Newly-crowned Life Master Rollie Heath (OR) showed why he is so highly ranked by scoring a 9/9 19 GP card in the qualifying round.

Director Tim Julkowski had a full slate of events. The winners:

Time Passer: Bob Christie (OR)
High Rollers: Bill Hutchinson (CO)
Doubles: Ann Williams & Bob Watkins (OR)
Saturday: DeLynn Colvert (MT)
All-Events: Bob Watkins (OR)
29: Roger Wilson (CO) (ACC's 6th)

Roger Wilson (CO), a Life Master from Denver nailed the ACC's 6th 29-hand this cribbage year in the Main Event qualifying round, earning $100 from the ACC for this sanctioned gem.

The host Ramada Inn outdid itself with a fine Saturday noon luncheon buffet, and the playing facilities were top notch. The weather even cooperated, as the unseasonably warm weather was in stark contrast to what players experienced two years earlier (snowed in).

Medway Draws 122 Steve Jastremski Cops Holiday Happening

It was Steve Jastremski, Hopedale, MA, winning going away at the sizeable Holiday Happening, played at Medway, MA on December 16. With 122 peggers in action, Jastremski came home with 147 MRP's and the top prize to wind down 2001 in style!

John Brennen (MA) very nearly took it all, but settled for 2nd...and 105 MRP's. Emily Medeiros (MA) and Grand Master John Rooney (MA) each brought home 70 MRP's for a 3-4 finish. Dennis Lunn (CT) zipped to a nifty 21 GP card in the 12-game qualifier to taker honors...and 35 MRP's.

Master Shawn Jordan, aided by the meet's only 28-hand, won the 64-player Consolation. Jordan nipped Grand Master Doris Perkins (MA) in the final playoff match for the win. Bob Medeiros (MA) and Bob Cunningham (MA) finished 3-4.

Jim and Pat Martin were pleased with the large holiday crowd, and hosted a well-run event.

Bill Young's Rules

Bill Young pegs out of Tampa, FL, and has rewritten the Rule Book with 21 new rules. They are lengthy, but here are a few for your perusal. (Cribbage World surmises Bill is on a long losing streak, and is getting desperate):

6-When I have a chance at a 24-hand, I am allowed to keep cutting until I get the right card. If my opponent has the card, they must give it to me, take another card and lose 2 points.

11-It is a multiple game match and I go out not getting to count all my points. I am allowed to carry the excess over to the next game.

And on...and on...and on!

Maynard King Tops in Virginia

Cribbage players from nine states converged on Richmond in early January to compete for the 11th Virginia Cribbage Championships. This event was sponsored by the Richmond Cribbage Club and attracted highly-ranked players from the Atlantic coast and as far west as Wisconsin.

Maynard King, Phoenixville, PA, bested newly crowned Grand Master Henry Douglass (NC) in the final match of this 74-player event to nab the championship. The win came with 147 MRP's...and an invite to next year's Tournament of Champions. Douglass scored a rare 28-hand enroute to his 2nd place finish (and 105 MRP's). Frank Danielski, a Life Master from Little Chute, WI, and Master Jim McDonald, Monson, MA finished 3-4.

Phil Babcock (VA) topped the field in the qualifying round, nailing a nice 15/22 card.

Some 52 players stayed for the Consolation and it was 15-year old Shane Lewis (VA) taking top qualifying honors, winning 9 of 10. He lost his opening game by three points, then won nine in a row. Raymond Meinert (VA) qualified 2nd (8 of 10), and this pair played for the championship. Meinert prevailed 3-2 over Lewis, taking home the top prize. Bob Milk (VA) and Bruce Sattler (MD) finished 3-4.

Directors Rick Allen and Janet Meinert hosted a full array of satellite events, The winners: Doubles: John Noblet & Loren Wakeling (VA) Old Dominion: Cathy Perkins (NC) 8/9 High Roller: Chris Cook (NC) 9/10 28's: Henry Douglass (NC); David Campbell (ME)

Directors Allen and Meinert report that the next Virginia Cribbage Championships will be held January 11-13, 2003, in Richmond.

The Gods

by Don Tuttle, LaGrande, OR

The Gods of cribbage, that panel of seven,
Sit smugly aloft in cribbage heaven
Watching us mortals make stupid plays
And chuckling with mirth in ungodly ways
But let us show them irreverence
Or revile them with unkind cuts
And they'll show us their tricks
To deliver their kicks
Right square in our mortal butts.

JPW/ACC Open

As Cribbage World goes to press, a check with the Sand's Barbara Woodward indicates that the upcoming JPW/ACC Open will be down a bit from last year's mammoth crowd. She is predicting a sizeable 900 or so peggers will be in action. This reduction was predictable, as travel is down nationwide, due to the Trade Center disaster, and the downturn in the economy. Air travel has been especially hard hit.

The Tournament of Champions appears to be holding firm with a sizeable crowd of 500 or so predicted to play.

Cribbage World will have all the results in the March issue. Stay tuned. Who will be in "hog heaven" this year?

Mel Krantz edged Mel Ashley for the championship in the Consolation event.

Weird Captain Event

It was Rex Paddock (MT), Jo Evans, and Willie Evans (WA) playing a three game set of "Captains" recently. Only five cards are dealt in this game, and Paddock came up with a rare 28-hand. And would you believe that in the next game, Jo also scored another 28-hand! These odds are astronomical! Bruce Bowman, help!

"Hey, Mark McGwire!"

Roy Hofbauer has been calling his spouse, Jeanne, "Mark McGwire" lately! Why? Well she held the record score for a 22-game qualifying round for about six months...about as long as McGwire held the home run record in baseball.

cribwrld@msn.com

Cribbage World bounces from crisis to crisis on a monthly basis, but early January had the worst crisis yet. A virus attached itself to Cribbage World's computer that is used to import data from National Statistician Bob McCabe, and is also used to produce Tournament Trail. This virus slowly ground the computer into the ground, freezing with 170 unread messages. After trying several remedies from experts, to no avail, the computer was stripped down and restarting from scratch was tried. This failed, as programs refused to be loaded.

Editor DeLynn Colvert is no computer whiz, and with deadlines fast approaching for February's issue, got approval from the Executive Committee to purchase a new computer. The new machine is a Hewlett-Packard and cost $799, with 12 months free internet service from MSN (a $240 value). Cribbage World is back on line at a net cost of $559 to the ACC.

Needless to say, this learning experience dictates that the appropriate anti-virus programs will be installed in the new computer.

Please note that Cribbage World's email address has also changed. See above headline.

In Memoriam

Lee Franklin

Aurora, Colorado

Lee was one of the original members of the ACC from Colorado (ACC CO-4). He passed away December 2 at the age of 88. He played with Grass Roots #23 in Colorado and was an active member until just a few weeks before his death. All his friends in both Denver clubs plus others around the country will miss him greatly. He was a real gentleman and a great competitor.

Frank Pettit

Denver, Colorado

Frank was a member of Grass Roots #34. He passed away on December 15 at the age of 68 after a long illness. He found the ACC late in life, but enjoyed the competition and camaraderie. He enjoyed the game immensely and also played weekly at a local senior center. His cribbage buddies will miss his friendly smile.

Michael Lowry

Susanville, California

Mike died on December 26. He was an avid player and attended many ACC events with his wife Deena. He was respected and loved by all. He will be greatly missed in Susanville and the adjoining cribbage circles.

Huh?

Bill Peterson, a Florida State football coach: "You guys line up alphabetically by height." And "You guys pair up in groups of three, then line up in a circle!"

Football commentator and former player Joe Theismann: "Nobody in football should be called a genius. A genius is a guy like Norman Einstein!"

Torrin Polk, University of Houston football player, comments about his coach, John Jenkins: "He treats us like men. He lets us wear earrings!"

Bob Costas asked coach Bum Phillips why he takes his wife on all road trips. Phillips: "Because she is too damned ugly to kiss goodbye!"

Cribbage Boards 1863-1998

Bette Bemis has published a book on the history of cribbage boards and has been published by Schiffer Publishing. The title "Cribbage Boards 1863-1998" describes the contents and has been on the market for over a year. The book features boards that were manufactured in the USA, but it also includes a history of the game and the board as well as board categories (war boards, hedgehog boards, ivories, etc.). The final chapter gives information on all societies involved with cribbage (including the ACC) and collecting, including a list of all books and articles used in compiling the book. A section about street designs is also included.

This is a unique book, especially valuable to board collectors. For information, see her ad, this issue (Bette's Cribb).

Joe Wergin 92 on January 22

President Emeritus Joseph Petrus Wergin will turn 92 on January 22. Ginny White, Joe's daughter, writes that Joe is quite frail and needs help with daily activities such as transferring from bed to wheelchair and back. He suffers from low vision and from memory problems due to a series of small strokes. On the positive side, he's not in pain, his mood is mellow, and he dwells on happy times from the past. He is a favorite of the staff at the nursing home.

Joe is the founder of the American Cribbage Congress and for many years served as President, until ill health forced him to retire.

I urge all our members to send Joe a birthday card, or a message of good cheer. Ed. His address:

Youth Cribbage Tournaments

Every now and then, I get requests from people asking if a youth cribbage tournament is played in their part of the country. Rather than give them the standard, "I don't know," I'd like to be able to help out if something is happening close to home. Therefore, if you put on a youth tournament (or know someone who does) please let me know. Not only will I be able to refer players to tournament directors, but webmaster Paul Gregson has suggested that upcoming tournaments be posted on the ACC Youth site. What an excellent idea! You can contact me at danthefan@yahoo.com or write me at:

Dan Zeisler

Grass Valley, CA 95949

Also, my cribbage manuals on how to teach large groups of kids cribbage are still available upon request, and contain detailed information on how to run a youth tournament.
