Record 275 Players

Susan Chambers Wins Oregon Coast Classic at Chinook Winds

The Chinook Winds Casino was buzzing with cribbage players...and pool players the first weekend in May, as some 275 cribbage players were in action in the downstairs bingo parlor, and 800 pool players were smacking balls in the upstairs conference rooms. Both groups had a great weekend, but the best weekend of all went to Master Susan Chambers (Albany, OR) as she walked away with the cribbage championship, besting Jim Jackson (OR) in the final match 3-0. Chambers took home $1,800 for the win and 252 MRP's, and Jackson started off $1,400 and 196 MRP's. Jackson was beaming from ear-to-ear, as this was his first final-two finish. Master George Mackie (WA) finished 3rd and is nearing his Grand Master with this high finish. Life Master Clair Morse finished 4th.

Co-director and Life Master Jeanne Hofbauer (WA) smoked the boards in the qualifying rounds with a superlative 41 18/22 +248, barely edging Life Master Jim Langley's 40 GP card. Langley (CA) picked up yet another 100+ MRP's (aggregate) and winged it to a nation-leading 1,538 MRP's.

A huge Consolation event followed with 192 peggers in action. When the pegs were laid away at 5 PM Sunday, it was Chris McComas (WA) the champ, picking up some 112 MRP's for the win. Another co-director, Life Master Bernie Nelson (OR) finished 2nd, followed by Three-Star DeLynn Colvert (MT) and Dick Hastie (CA) in the 3-4 slot. Colvert scored 78 MRP's, but nevertheless, lost ground to the hard-charging Langley in the national MRP race.

Roland Hall (CA) was in action and he earned his Grand Master with a 2nd round finish. He also keeps his hat in the ring for national honors. Life Master "Ras" Rasmussen (WA) scored an aggregate 135 MRP's, and he, too, is in the race for national honors this cribbage year.

Directors Jeanne and Roy Hofbauer, Roilie Heath, and Bernie Nelson, had this event on track, bigtime, with the record crowd. They also conducted a full array of satellite events. The winners:

Friday Early Bird: Judith Beay 20 9/9

High Roller: Bruce Wridge

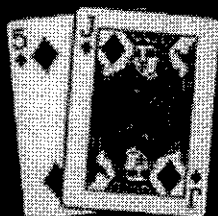

Doubles: Clarence Cole & David McGee

Saturday: Mike Rowe

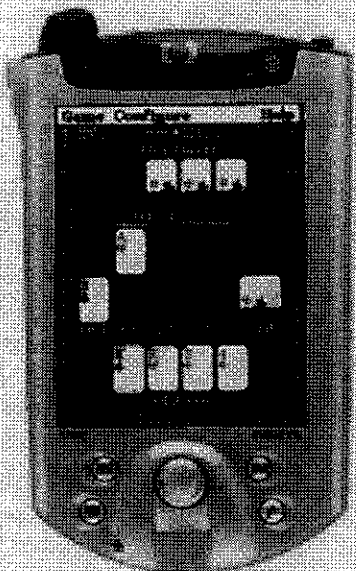

Last Chance: Roger Wauters 7/7

A highlight of this event saw Brittany Pierce score her first-ever 29-hand....at the age of 13 (Saturday night's action). And with the huge crowd, something was bound to go wrong, and it did. A player, rushing into the playing hall fell and broke his leg. But the event was well run and the ocean scenery make this event one of the player's favorites in the Western Region, attested to by yet another record crowd.

9th Sanctioned Win Rob Medeiros Takes Huge Ocean State Classic

Life Master Rob Medeiros, Dorchester, MA, zipped to his 9th sanctioned Main Event win at the huge Ocean State Classic, played in Pawtucket, RI on May 4. With 172 players in the field, Medeiros added yet another 196 MRP's to his lofty lifetime total (7,000, lifetime) and vaults among the leaders in the Eastern Region. Dave Campbell (ME), Rookie of the Year last year, is still at it also, and with a nifty 2nd place finish (147 MRP's) will also move up among the leaders. Armand Hamel (MA) and John Brennan (MA) finished 3-4 and took home 105 MRP's each.

Roger Bouchard (CT) may have earned his Master rating by taking Q honors (22 10/12 +209), earning a bye in the playoffs. National Statistician Bob McCabe will verify his totals upon receipt of this event's report.

A nice crowd of 86 players played the Consolation and Gertrude Therault (RI) was the last pegger standing when the pegs were laid away, earning a nice 84 MRP's. Mike Misluk (CT) finished 2nd, followed by Gene Strom (CT) and Master Jack Marani (MA) in the 3-4 bracket. Ethan Guyaz (ME) topped the field in the Q round with a 14 7/8 +81.

John Chambers, once again, demonstrated his expertise in managing tournament play, attested to by yet another large crowd. He reported Richard Andrew (NH) and Joan Fletcher (CT) scored 28-hands. And in a heartbreaker, Mitch Glass was asked to join the ACC before play, but he procrastinated. You guessed it, he scored a rare 29-hand. Alas, no $100 from the ACC. He promptly joined after play.

Willie Evans: 46 19/22 +476

Willie Evans, a Grand Master from Richland, WA, was smoking at the recent Greater Hermiston Open (OR) on April 26. He broke a 23-year record by scoring a 46 19/22 +476 and now lays claim to the ACC's all-time top 22-game score.

The 22nd game was a heart-stopper. Evans was playing Jan Caldwell (OR) and was 18 points short of winning with first count. Caldwell stood at 19 short dealing. Evans picked up a 1-4-5-9-K, all diamonds except for a 9 of clubs. He held 1-4-5-9 (flush) and discarded the 9-K. His best cut would be the 6 of diamonds...and you guessed it, up it came for a 14-hand. Evans pegged 2, and needed 2 pegs the next deal to win, and he pegged exactly 2 for the record score.

Master Emilio Perez (IL) scored a 45 19/22 +477 card two years ago, but Evans topped him by an extra skunk (8 skunks vs. 7 skunks) to claim the record. Feast your eyes on this record score to the right:

QUIZ:

What ACC member has won three gold and one silver Olympic medals? (Clue: she was a swimmer and swam under the German flag in the 1936 Olympics.) Answer below.

Huh?

Signs on inside of front door at the Susanville (CA) Senior Center:

"For health reasons taking out potentially hazardous foods is not recommended. Doing so is at your own risk"

"Senior Non Price $6"

Quiz Answer

Zita Drentwett entered the 1936 Olympics as a swimmer under the German flag. She cruised to three gold medals and a silver medal. She then immigrated to the USA and is now the wife of Dick Winslow, Napavine, WA. Both are avid cribbage players. Does Zita miss the Olympic crowds? She says cribbage players don't cheer loud enough...and the cribbage trophies don't have nearly enough inlaid gold.

Election Results

Larry Hassett, ACC Vice-President of Policy, certifies the following results for the election of the ACC's Board of Directors. All ballots received by May 19, 2003 (deadline extended because of USPS delivery problems) were accepted. 813 ballots were received by the due date, and one ballot was declared invalid because it contained more than 25 votes. A total of 13,731 votes were cast.

This newly-elected board will convene at the upcoming Grand National this September in Sioux Falls, SD. Executive Vice President Syl Lulinski will notify this newly-elected board of the exact time and place via mail.

Evans Sets 22-Game Record Mike Brooks Wins Greater Hermiston

Grand Master Willie Evans, Richland, WA, had the 88 players buzzing with excitement when he barely won the 22nd game...and set a new standard for the ACC in a 22-game qualifying match. His score? A whopping 46 19/22 +476 (see story this issue).

But when the playoffs came to a close, only Mike Brooks, Sunnyside, WA was left unbeaten. He carted home 147 MRP's for the effort, the grand trophy, the top prize...and bragging rights. Jan Caldwell (OR) was Evan's 22nd game opponent, but she survived that tough loss and zipped to 2nd place...and 105 MRP's. James Morrow, another Sunnyside player, took a 3-4 finish, shared with the streaking Grand Master Mike McDaniel (MT), McDaniel's 70 MRP's keep him in contention for the national title.

52 peggers were in action in the Consolation, and Jack Wimer (ID) took the playoff action, besting Ron Boule (OR) in the final playoff match. Life Master Ras Rasmussen (WA) and Grand Master John Furler (OR) finished 3-4. Both Rasmussen and Furler are among the leaders nationwide this cribbage year and the 40 MRP's earned for each keep them alive for top ten honors.

Director Debbie Learman had the usual satellite events. The winners:

Early Bird: Rosemary Hendricks
 Doubles: Rick Larson & Jerry Riggs
 High Rollers: Sharon Hejtmank
 Saturday: Ras Rasmussen

Deja Vue Jim Langley On Spring Roll...Again!

Two years ago Jim Langley, Red Bluff, CA roared down the home stretch and easily won the National Championship, scoring a record 2,245 MRP's in the process. In April, May and June, 2001 he was unbeatable.

Deja Vue! Another spring run by Langley! This time around this Life Master began his run in March by winning the huge Timber Classic in Canyonville, OR, and continued on to win the Oregon Championship in Prineville in mid-April. To top that, the following week he nailed down a win at the Tax Relief event in Alamo, CA. He has continued on with a 40-GP qualifying card at the 275-player Oregon Coast Classic...and has left the field in his wake wondering what hit them. Langley stands at well over 1,500 as we go to press.

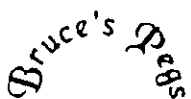

Seven peggers have topped the 1,000 mark, and now the goal seems to be who will finish 2nd. They are DeLynn Colvert (MT), Roland Hall (CA), Ras Rasmussen (WA), Cres Fernandez (CA), Duane Toll (WI), Mike McDaniel (MT) and Keith Widener (NC).

Recently John Furler (OR), Sharon Hejzmanek (MT), and Ron Morgan (CA) have made a move upward, and join a bevy of highly ranked players. The race is on. Wayne Steinmetz (WI), Harry Palmer (MA), Bob Julian (WI), Rqb Medeiros (MA), Robert Sommer (MN), Frank Danielski (WI), Warren Sondericker (WI), Rollie Heath (OR), David Clemmey (MA), and Douglas Henderson (WI) are all in the hunt. Almost all are veteran, highly ranked players. Predictions are that some 1,200 MRP's will be needed to earn All-American honors in this tight race. Many other players are but one major win away from the pace. This is one of the best races in ACC history. Cribbage fever, catch it!

Kathie Nordlund Takes Sioux Falls O'Classic

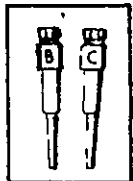

Kathie Nordlund, pegging out of Lexington, MN nailed down a win at the 68-pegger Sioux Falls O'Classic on March 16. Her last playoff match pitted her vs. Mike Renbarger (SD) and she prevailed to take home the championship. Mike Maddox and Andy Lepkowski, both South Dakota peggers, finished 3-4. Life Master Bob Sommer (MN) took Q honors with a nifty 38 18/22 card, and the 60 MRP's keep him in the hunt for national honors this cribbage year.

Master Don Patrin (MN), fresh from a win at the huge MGM in Green Bay, took home the Consolation win. This event played to 46 players, netting Patrin 60 MRP's. Life Master Jim Rein (MN) took 2nd, followed by One-Star Wayne Steinmetz (WI) and Don Dolezal (OR) in the 3-4 bracket. John Bakeberg (SD) scored a 17 GP card to take Q honors.

Nordlund also won the Early Bird event, and Babe O'Gorman (MN) took the Saturday night action. Dan Pluff (MN) won the All-Events. Scott Nordlund, Andy Lepkowski, and Jim Rein scored that elusive 28-hand. TJ Lewis keeps 'em pegging in South Dakota.

Full House...Again!

Dan Pluff Zips to 26th St. Croix Classic Win

The April edition of the St. Croix Classic once again played to a full house. With 228 players in action, it was Dan Pluff, St. Paul, MN, coming home the winner, earning a hefty $1,700, 196 MRP's, and bragging rights galore. His last match pitted him vs. the formidable Life Master Roger Wilson, the king of Colorado cribbage. But Pluff's cards remained hot and he took home the championship. Wilson's 147 MRP's earned him well over the 9,200 mark, lifetime, and keeps him alive for a spot on the Western Region's All-Star team. He earned $1,300 for 2nd. Master Pat Upton (MN) and Canadian Dennis Misenar finished 3-4, and took home $750 each.

Grand Master Aggie Mikulsky (WI) scored a superlative 38 17/22 +237 to take Q honors...and 60 MRP's.

An even 150 players stayed for the Consolation and it was Earl Fox (MN) taking the title ($550), besting Master Ken Benson (MI) ($450) in the final playoff match. Grand Master Les Kvien (IL) and Grand Master Bob Chase (MN) finished 3-4, and took home $300 each. Dan Taylor (MN) took the Q action with a 19 8/9 +190.

Director Alan Lindner sported his Friday and Saturday night games, and the usual casino perks were paid as well. In an unusual twist, Al Booth (MN) scored TWO 28-hands, paying $250 each. The winners"

Friday: Brett Fairbanks (MN) 17 7/9 +120 $550
Saturday: Ginger Grogan (MN) 18 8/9 +159 $500

28's: ($250 each); Todd Schaefer, Al Lindner, Al Booth (2), Doug Page, Richard Frost, Fred White 24's: $25 ea

Don Hannula Takes Michaelis Classic

Don Hannula, pegging out of Lake Linden, MI, came to play at the recent Mick Michaelis Classic in Marinette, WI. Some 138 players showed for the match despite a spring snow storm that dumped nine inches of snow on the area. But the cards were hot indoors for Hannula, as he came home the winner, earning 196 MRP's and the grand prize. Bruce Hill, another Michigan player, took 2nd, followed by Wally Miskowic (MN) and Master Tony Danihel in the 3-4 slot. Veteran Life Master and National Statistician Bob McCabe (WI) can add a few more points to his own ledger by taking Q honors (39 GP's = 65 MRP's).

Master Gary Haelfrisch (WI) nailed down the win in the 78-player Consolation. He nipped One-Star Warren Sondericker (WI) in the final playoff match. Grand Master Aggie Mikulsky (WI) and Marie Lager (WI) finished 3-4. Life Master Pat Barrett (WI) scored a nifty 18 GP card to take Q honors.

Directors Aggie and Eugene Mikulsky report the satellites winners:

Early Bird: Bob Culver (WI)

Friday: Dale Rohm (WI)

Saturday: Norm Vierela (MI)

28's: Wally Miskowic, Bob Julian, Herb Walline, Ed Markeslewski, Mike Munro, Lloyd Kraft

Tardy Numbers?

Evon Forrest (WA) writes that Grass Roots numbers that are reported are behind the curve. Gathering these statistics takes several manipulations before they get to Cribbage World. National Grass Roots Statistician Kristy Haight (NC) is doing a great job compiling the monthly numbers. Patience everyone!!

Greg Ginocchio Takes Diamond Mountain

Greg Ginocchio, pegging out of Incline Village, NV, zipped into Susanville, CA in late April...and found himself in a spring blizzard. And another hardy 99 players did likewise. With an even 100 in the field, Ginocchio came home the winner, edging Master Valerie Sumner (NV) in the final playoff match. Master Thelma Weber (CA) and Chuck Althoff (CA) finished 3-4.

Grand Master Jackie Doppelt (CA) was smoking in the qualifying round, bringing home a great 41 18/22 +270. This great card was worth 75 MRP's!

A field of 66 played the Consolation, and Master Cres Fernandez (CA) won going away, and the 84 MRP's earned keep him in the national championship race, and a virtual shoe-in for All-American honors this cribbage year. Kathy Hahn (OR) took home 2nd, followed by Master Cy Madrone (CA) and Shirley Althoff (CA) in the 3-4 bracket. Bruce McGillivray (CA) won 7 of 9 with 3 skunks to take qualifying honors.

Director Peggy Scalley and crew did an outstanding job with their first-time event in Susanville. In fact, the Senior Center kitchen crew received a long and warm applause for a great lunch, and furnished snacks 3-days running. Scalley's paybacks were also outstanding, drawing praise from the players in attendance. Scalley also conducted a bevy of satellites, the winners:

Early Bird: Bob Van Meter
Doubles: Jim Bailey & Ed Deveau
Saturday: Golda Rager
High Rollers: Les Sumner
Team: G. Rager, C. Fernandez, J. Hahn, T. Weber

Rosalee Bradley took home the highest qualifier from Lassen County award, and Bill Bushnell came the farthest...4,111 miles from Wrangell, AK (via two ferry boat rides, and the long trek down the Alaskan highway). Bushnell received the Mike Lowry award for his long trip.

This event replaces the long-running World Championship held a few miles away in Quincy. That event folded its tent last year after a long and successful run. But it appears that the Scalley run will be just as successful, judging from the hardy 100 players in attendance. They all gave rave reviews for the food and paybacks given to the players. There was only one slight hitch to a great event...nary a 28-hand or a 29-hand showed. This event also donated $500 to the Special Olympics.

Shawn Andrusko St. Paul King

The Capital City Open, played in St. Paul, MN on May 3-5 saw hometown favorite Master Shawn Andrusko take home the championship in this 132-player match. The win came with 196 MRP's, and all the trimmings. Delores Brey (WI) very nearly took it all, and settled for 2nd. Life Master Syl Lulinski (IL), the ACC's Executive Vice-President, added 105 MRP's to his lofty lifetime total by finishing 3rd. He now stands at well over 9,200 MRP's (lifetime). Grand Master Bob Chase (MN) also finished in the 3-4 bracket. Jim Pfluger (MN) took the Q prize with a nice 37 17/22 +247 card.

Minnesota used to be Ron Hamilton's stomping ground, but he moved to Kansas, and he is now the king of Kansas pegging as he took the 79-player Consolation title. He bested none other than One-Star Russell Adams (MN) in the final playoff match. Grand Master John Stamschror (MN) and Two-Star Bob Julian (WI) finished 3-4 in a star-studded final four. Dennis McNurlen (IA) won 8 of 9 (18 8/9 +119) to easily take Q honors.

Director Todd Schaefer had Friday and Saturday night specials. The winners:
Friday: Bob McCabe (WI)
Saturday: Pat Upton (MN)
28's: Mike Burns (MN), John Williams (MN), Dan Pluff (MN)

This event was played at the Red Lion Inn, host to many ACC sanctioned events, many under the Ramada banner.

McGibney Retires After Long, Dedicated Service to ACC Bob McCabe Named Treasurer

Fred McGibney (NH) has resigned as Treasurer after long and dedicated service to the ACC. His dedication and expertise he gave to this job will be difficult to replace.

The ACC's Executive Board has unanimously appointed Bob McCabe, Milwaukee, WI to fill this position, effective mid-June.

McCabe's background is well suited for the task. He has been a high-ranking corporate officer in accounting positions for many years. McCabe will now fill two important positions in the ACC, the other is National Statistician, a position he has held since day-one with the American Cribbage Congress. He feels confident he can handle the workload of both positions. The Executive Committee agrees and expects he will do a superb job, just as he has with our member's MRP numbers.

Bill Sperry Zumbro Champ

Grand master Bill Sperry, pegging out of St. Paul, MN, took home all the marbles at the recent Zumbro Open, Zumbrota, MN. With 120 peggers in action, Sperry zipped to the win, besting Steve Jiskra (MN) in the final playoff match. The win came complete with 147 MRPs, the winner's purse... and bragging rights galore. Terry Shelstad (MN) and Lewis Gurney (WI) finished 3-4. Life Master Lloyd "Gabby" Kraft was smoking in the qualifying round, scoring a 26 12/14 +160 to easily take Q honors.

With 78 players in the field, it was none other than One-Star Warren Sondericker (WI) winning yet another event. This was his 10th Consolation win, and matches his 10 Main Event wins. Grand Master Norb Upton (MN) was Sondericker's last victim, but 2nd rewarded Upton with 60 MRPs. If Master Pat Upton (MN) had won her 3-4 match with Sondericker, it would have been a husband/wife final match. However, Pat finished in the 3-4 bracket with Tony Ayriss (MN). Allan Bailey (MN) took the Q prize with a nice 16 7/8 +117.

Directors Ken Lother, Jerry Gruber, and Babe O'Gorman reported a great turnout...and that Penny Shepard and Greg Ulberg scored 28-hands.

134 in Milwaukee

Henderson Meets Challenge

Master Doug Henderson from nearby Racine met the challenge at the recent Milwaukee Challenge as he walked away with the top prize in this 134-player meet. His last match was a tough one as he was pitted vs. Grand Master John Hiland, but Henderson prevailed for the win. Dave Bartlett (WI) and Marsha Mahan (WI) took home 3-4. Kristina Rouse (WI) nailed down a great 37 17/22 +242 to easily take Q honors.

Tom Button (WI) zipped to the 80-player Consolation win, besting Tom Briski (WI) in the final playoff match. Dave Draper (MI) and Lois Fosdal (WI) took home 3-4. Local Tom Mintner won 8 of 9 (18 8/9 +129) to take the Q prize.

Director Marlene Lazachek reported the satellite winners:

Friday: Doug Henderson (again!)(WI)

Saturday: Warren Sondrick (WI)

Last Chance: Tom Edwards (IL)

28: Lewis Gurney (WI), 4th game, Consolation

Lazachek also reported that the host Radisson Hotel was a great place to hold a tournament, and she hopes to be back at this location next year. Mark your calendars.

Puget Sound Oddity

Back-to-back hands at a Puget Sound (WA) GR match: dealer 7-8-9-9, 3-4-5-6 crib; non-dealer 3-4-5-5; a 6 is cut. Next deal: dealer 7-8-9-9, 3-4-5-6 crib; nondealer 3-4-5-5. Again, a 6 was cut. Two identical hands (in reverse) in successive deals, with same cut card. The odds? A zillion to 1! This game? A short one!

Hall of Fame Help Needed

I have to ask a favor of someone out there. We are woefully behind on updating the Hall of Fame stuff on the Internet. We have pictures of all but one person available in large photo format, stored at the Sands in Reno. What we need is someone who will be going there, either soon or for the July tournament, to take their digital camera and take a very nice picture of the new inductees. If you take them either you or I or someone of Paul Gregson's choosing will be able to manipulate them into a format that they may be stored on the ACC site. It is hoped that the person would have some background in photography, but a lot of fixing can be done on the computer. It doesn't have to be studio quality, but without glare from the glass and able to be manipulated. .jpg format would be fine and that can be manipulated or made into other formats.

Please reply to this so I can coordinate with Paul, DeLynn and the Sands.

DeLong Cops Vetterline Memorial

Life Master Henry DeLong (Woburn, MA) is at it again. He picked up his 4th Main Event win at the Ken Vetterline Memorial in Westbrook, Maine on April 27. With 98 peggers in action, DeLong added yet another 147 MRP's to his lofty lifetime ledger (well over 8,000 MRP's). This top finish will also vault him among the leaders in the Eastern Region, giving him a shot at a spot on the Eastern's All-Star Team. Grand Master Joan Morrison (MA) came close, but settled for 2nd (105 MRP's), followed by Paul Statz (NH) and Grand Master Joyce Vanelli (MA) in the 3-4 slot. Paul Pion (RI) won 10 of 12 (21 10/12 +165) to take Q honors.

Two-Star Harry Palmer (MA) keeps his hat in the ring for a national title by taking home the 52-player Consolation win (60 MRP's). Wayne Tyler (MA) finished 2nd, with Jason Collins (MA) and Grand Master Louis Caccia (MA) coming home 3-4. Collins was also the high qualifier, scoring a 16 8/9 +88 card.

Directors Dennis and Susan Cousens reported Bill Medeiros and David Campbell nailed down the doubles win on Saturday night, and that Kenneth Colwell scored the meet's only 28-hand. No 29's showed.

Tax Relief III Langley...Again!

Life Master Jim Langley (Red Bluff, CA) is on his usual spring roll, and he rolled to yet another win at the Tax Relief III event in Alamo, CA on April 19. With 104 players in the field, he carted home yet another bundle of MRP's (147) and vaults to the top of the nation's leaderboard with but two month's play remaining this cribbage year. Dennis Phillips (CA) nailed down 2nd, followed by Dennis Macrina (CA) and Two-Star Bob Julian (WI) in 3-4. Julian's high finish keep his slim hopes alive for another top-ten finish. He has been burning up the boards after a slow start this cribbage year. Life Master Ron Morgan (CA) won 13 of 16 in the Q round with 4 skunks (30 13/16 +246) and adding his playoff points keep him in the battle for a berth on the Western Region's 2003 All-Star team.

It was Herschel Mack (CA) bigtime in the 52-player Consolation. He scored a whopping grand slam (18 9/9 +111) to walk away with Q honors, and then proceeded to zip to the playoff win as well, netting a nifty 81 MRP's (aggregate). Master Tony Montooth (CA) could not match Mack's run, and finished 2nd. Director and Grand Master Mary Herrmann (CA) finished in the 3-4 slot with Master Tom Owens (CA).

Herrmann reported a 28-hand was scored by H. Ross Njaa (CA) in the Consolation, but no 29's showed. This cribbage year has seen a decline in 29-hands, as only 13 have been scored to date. In the past few years, some 20 or more have been scored.

Internet Cribbage

I believe we, those working on the ACC Internet Cribbage Project, have all agreed that Mike Schell will be our spokesperson. He has a Forum on the Internet and much contact with many who play. We have read the stuff he proposed to put on and have agreed it was ok.

We have been hashing about Rules of Play that are pertinent to on-line Cribbage and are going to start on requirements for Tournament Directors. I will be sending out a notice to all who are on the BoD and are running again to tell them where we will be posting our PRELIMINARY rules, etc. Also, we have a way that our Monday meetings are recorded and can be viewed, they are in text format. I will be offering to send them to any interested people. I guess the sometimes Emails leave people cold and with misunderstandings, but it is the best we have for now.

New Judges

Al Miller, ACC Judges Examiner, reports the following new Judges are certified, using the ACC Book of Rules:

Rosalee Bradley, Janesville, CA
John Charnell, Cannon Falls, MN
Joanne Hughes, Albuquerque, NM
Donald Niebauer, Kissimmee, FL

To take this Judges test, send $3 to: Al Miller, 12 Michael Ave., Nashua, NH 03062.

Miller reported to CW that a few Grass Roots and Tournament Directors have called inquiring about ACC members acting as judges during sanctioned events. Many are questioned as to their certification. What means of identification do they have? Miller has sent each Regional Commissioner a listing of all certified judges, which should be relayed to tournament and Grass Roots directors. All certified judges have been issued an ID card, and if any doubt persists, they should be asked to show this ID card. This should resolve any doubt if an ACC member is a certified judge or not.

Joy Shimp Cops Two In A Row

Joy Shimp, Grand Haven, MI, fresh from a win at the Road Runner Classic in Mesa, AZ, came back to her home turf and scored another win at the "Who's the King" event in Muskegon, MI. Oops, this event was given the wrong title, it should have been touted as "Who's the Queen!" With a whopping 131 players, Shimp carted home yet another 196 MRP's (same total in Mesa). Gerald Butts (MI) finished 2nd, with Kathy Blough (MI) and Jake Genson (MI) in the 3-4 slot. Stuart Brown (MI) topped the field in the Q round.

Bob Brown (WI) took home the Consolation win, nipping Bill Plunkett (MI) in the final playoff match. Dave Robarge (MI) and Matt Bond (MI) finished 3-4. Dan Scanlan (MA) took home the Q prize. Director Dale Terryn reported Larry Mayette (MI) score the meet's only 28-hand.

Pat Farris Tops in Chico

Pat Farris, Granite Bay, VA came to play at the Chico Open (CA) on March 22-23. Farris took home the bacon in this 114-player event and carted home a nice 147 MRP's...and bragging rights. Sue Rollo (CA) finished 2nd, followed by Life Master Ron Morgan (CA) and Grand Master H. Ross Njaa (CA) in the 3-4 bracket. Master Cres Fernandez (CA) keeps his hopes alive for a national title by taking Q honors (37 16/22 +306).

An even-bracket 64 players were in action in the Consolation, and Jerry Moore (CA) came home the winner, nipping the streaking Life Master Jim Langley (CA) in the final playoff match. Scott Bartosh (CA) and William "Ratso" Roderick (CA) took home the 3-4 prize. Master Frank Hansbery (CA) score a superlative 10 for 10 grand slam (21 GP's) in the Q round to easily take honors.

Director Bruce Forbes had Friday and Saturday night events. The winners:
Friday Doubles: John Prehn & Red Wolfe
Saturday: Mary Gladish
28's: Al Libby, Michael Watson, Jones Hom

Pearls melt in vinegar. A string of pearls (in cribbage) will be with you forever, despite an overload of vinegar.

In Memoriam

Dale Forrest

White Bear Lake, Minnesota

Dale died suddenly of an aneurysm on September 9, 2002. Dale was an ex-marine with many medals, including the purple heart. He loved his cribbage and hosted many players travelling from the west enroute to a tournament. His brother, Keith, is active in cribbage play in Spokane, WA.

Ralph "Pete" Forrest

St. Paul, Minnesota

Pete passed away on April 4, 2003 of congestive heart failure. As with his brother, Dale, he loved his cribbage and played mainly in the Minnesota-Wisconsin area. He will be missed.

Donald R. Bossche, Sr.

Grand Rapids, Michigan

Don lost his battle with cancer earlier this year. An excellent player, he had been a member of GR 71 for many years. He had an excellent sense of humor and had a different way of looking at the world. He will be sorely missed.

Edythe Smith

Grand Rapids, Michigan

Edythe joined GR 71 about 2 years ago and was a fierce competitor. Her son, Dick Bliss, is also a member of this club and is also a fierce competitor. Club 71 misses her very much.

Edmund T. Ristom

El Paso, Texas

Ed died on April 21. He is one of the ACC's rare Texas players, but he travelled far and wide to do his pegging. He was seen with regularity in Reno at the TOC and JPW/ACC Open. He also was an ex-member of the Daytona Beach, FL GR club. The ACC has lost a great player who dearly loved the game.

Kenneth Benson

Hastings, Michigan

Cribbage World learned at press time that Ken was killed in a work-related accident on May 14. He was an excellent player and was near his Grand Master rating. Players from the Central Region mourn his tragic passing.

Dennis Cousens

Gorham, Maine

Dennis passed away at the age of 52 on May 14. He was a great sport and gentleman and will be missed by the entire ACC. He directed tournaments in Maine (Portland Open) for 15 years, and began the Ken Vetterline event three years ago. He and his wife, Susan, were instrumental in cribbage growth on the East Coast. He loved his cribbage, horse racing, football, and casino trips. A former horse owner, he was a successful handicapper. All his fellow players that knew him will miss that "Maine" sense of humor. Needless to say, he will be sorely missed.

A Symbol of Hope by Donna (Doolittle) LaFleur (CT)

I wore a yellow ribbon today.

It's a reminder for me that I must pray.

It's a symbol of hope for a safe return of our brothers and sisters...that's my concern.

I wear a yellow ribbon tonight.

It's in honor of those who stay and fight.

It's for all us Americans that they serve.

And this tribute is something they deserve.

I'll wear a yellow ribbon tomorrow.

It conjures up feeling; among them is sorrow.

But much stronger feelings that help me cope are the good-for-you feelings of faith, love and hope.

Cribbage Boards For Troops Update

As Cribbage World goes to press, word has been received from Annett Eiffert, Sacramento, CA, that the drive to gather cribbage boards for our troops in the Middle East is on target for success. Well over 100 boards have been donated to date, with more promised. Eiffert is working on shipping this large shipment via military means, thus avoiding shipping costs.

These boards will be distributed at Morale, Welfare, and Recreation centers at military installations in the Middle East.

You may mail boards to:

Club Directors and Statisticians: Please advise Roger Wilson J555529@aol.com and Joan Rein ACCGrassRoots@aol.com of any changes to your mailing address, email address, playing location, telephone numbers, play dates or times and any other pertinent club information.

GRASS ROOT LEADERS

Grass Roots Leaders shown for Divisions 1, 2 and 3 in this issue are current as of May 15th. That was the date that the information had to be submitted to make the June issue of Cribbage World. If your club has not entered a tournament into the website, then the numbers are not included. The GRNT is also not included because clubs had another two weeks to play their GRNT as of May 15th.

Surveys apparently are not popular!

I recently conducted a survey to determine if Grass Roots clubs shared their Grand Slam prizes. Of the 166 local clubs, 3 share, 8 do not, 1 doesn't have a pot and 154 did not respond. One club pays $20 if the player is a member and $10 if the player is a visitor. Oh well, so much for surveys!

Club Champion if a tie exists?

If more than one person ties for the club championship they are considered as co-club champions and will be recognized as such. Each will receive the club champion award and an invitation to the TOC.

Club 43 in Fremont CA plays in the dark.

(Sometimes!) Clendenning's Clan was playing tournament #31 of 36 on April 23rd. About the time game four ended, boom! The power went out in the entire neighborhood. Did they stop for the night? No way! Ben Holder went home and rounded up a bunch of candles and brought them back. The last five games were played by candlelight. I wonder if anybody brought wine? This was Paul Gregson's last tournament in Fremont since he is moving to Antioch, CA and he won it with a 16/7. What a strange way to go out! For those of you are not aware, Paul is the Webmaster of the ACC site. His dedication to the site has made it a fine tool for us club directors and statisticians to work with. The minor problems that have come up have been quickly resolved thanks to the hard work Paul has put in.....Tom

Club # 120 News - Karl Bremmer is lucky

#21 Karl Bremmer is back with a vengeance as he broke out of a miserable slump with a great 18/8/+171 card to top all 29 players in week #30. Karl became the 21st qualifier for the year-end TOC, talk about parity! Also placing were Dave Guyse in 2nd and Don Kreutzer in 3rd. Don has now accumulated 133 Grass Roots points this season making him second only to John Howard with 135 GR points as of April 22nd. Note: The GRNT results have not yet been added, so the rankings will change accordingly when they are posted.

3 new clubs have joined us! 305, 306 and 307

Club 305 is called the Eastside Peggers and they are located in Kirkland, WA. Club Director Flo Osberg now has eight official players and several more in the process of joining. April 28th was their 6th 9 game tournament. The new ACC players are Marv Koon (WA2009); Merle Quanrud (WA2015); Dave Watson (WA 2006); and Laurie Watson (WA2007). The following club members have transferred from other clubs in the area. Della Cook (WA 1849); Monica Farrell (WA 1952); William Schill (WA 1850) and Flo Osberg (WA1796). Everyone has been having a great time getting to know each other and learning the ropes. A big thanks are in order for the following people that have helped this club get off the ground: Lowell Bailey (WA773); James Hornbacher (WA409); Richard (Scottie) Munro (WA416); Michael Schell (WA529); Marlene (Molly) Stack (WA1185) and Arne Ternsten (WA937). Last but not least Patrick Ward (WA254) the Region II Grass Roots Commissioner. Without his help gathering the material, and loaning the boards it would have been almost impossible to get this club up and running. Patrick was rewarded by being the first player in the club to attain a 28 hand and even showed Flo how to fill out the award certification form! Frank Placanica, Manager of the Kirkland Eagles #2681 provides the club with a very nice place to hold their tournaments and has also donated 40 decks of playing cards. A short season but Flo expects summer recruitment to expand the club by the start of next season.

Club 306 is called the Gold Country Cribbers and is located in El Dorado Hills, CA. There is a name story here! Club Director Ross Walter was visiting Ireland and saw a sign in a Pub that said "Cribbers Corner." He thought it was for Cribbage but the Pub man said, "That is for grippers or complainers!" Since all of us fall into that category from time to time he decided it would be an appropriate name for the club! This new club is very enthusiastic and would like to thank Club 162 in Sacramento, CA for all their support.

Club 307 is called Colorado Rockies Cribbage Association and they are located in Colorado Springs, CO. Club Director Blanche Edwardson is starting off with 20 members! Congratulations are in order to Blanche and to Roger Wilson who worked hard together to get this new club up and running!

A long article on new clubs? Yes, but well deserved considering this is where many of our new players come from and all of the work put in by so many individuals to make it happen!....Tom

Club 71 News from Grand Rapids, MI On April 30th Tory Rogers joined the club playing competitively for the first time. In the second hand of the first game he held for a 29 hand and cut the 5! Congrats Tory! On May 7th long-time player Jerry Devroy had his first Grand Slam ever. A fine 18/9/+156

Club 120 News - Rick LaCrosse had a ho-hum start to the night on May 1st (Mayday!) as he lost by 23, no big deal. He then proceeded to win 7 in a row including a stretch with 3 skunks in which he tied a club record and finished with a super 17/7/+120 score to top all 31 players. Rick lost only the first and last game to the "Barrett" connection, Pat and Jack. Placing 2nd was Fred Orgel and Elliot Havitz in 3rd, both with 15 points

Joseph Daly (MI 1057) is a member of The Cereal City Peggers (Club 300) in Battle Creek, MI. He and his son Paul play warm up games on the day of the tournament! Joseph told his son of another friendly game he played earlier in the week. After skunking his opponent the previous game, the current game was winding down and he was 26 points from winning the game. His opponent was 31 pegs away. Joseph had the first deal and his opponent commented, "At least this game won't end in a skunk." The deal was made and Joseph held 4-4-4-7. His opponent held 4-8-10-10. The play went as follows: Cut card was a Jack for 2 points. An 8 was led and Joseph played a 7 for 15-2. 4 played and the count was 19. 4 played for 23 for 2, opponent says go. 4 played for 27 for 6, case four played for 31 for 14. Total 26 holes pegged and opponent skunked! His opponent was humbled. Joseph is ranked #2 in his club as of May 1st trailing only John Schafer (MI 1038).

GRAND SLAM CRAZY!

The Atlanta cribbage clubs are mastering the art of "streaking!" On April 22nd, Albert Ballweg (GA 321) scored a grand slam (20/9/+169) pegging with Club 119 in Marietta, GA. The following Saturday (4/26) Art Burgess (GA 61) duplicated that feat with an 18/9/+106 grand slam playing in Club 74 in Tucker, GA. Not to be outdone, on April 28 Ann Boger (GA 335) of Newnan, GA produced a beautiful 21/9/+182 card for the third grand slam among the Atlanta area's three clubs.

Hold the phone! On April 29th, Barri Gehrand (GA 298) scored the fourth consecutive grand slam (18/9/+123) in only 8 days; the second consecutive slam by a member of club 119! There was a bit of a downside to Barri's though. Club 119 awards the accrued skunk pot money for a grand slam. Since Albert won it the week before ($126) Barri only picked up the receipts for that evening's play, which was $9. (Timing is everything Barri!) Beryl Horton (GA 371) is a member of Club 119. She is a private school teacher who has been teaching her second grade students cribbage. In fact, 20 of them were involved in a friendly match recently. These are the Slam potentials in the making for the Georgia clubs! The consecutive weekly Grand Slams have ended but in their GRNT played on May 4th, Ann and Barri led the way again! Ann won the first half and Barri had the only 28 hand of the day!

Club 144 of Newnan, GA, witnessed a transformation on April 28th. The mild-mannered gentle-lady, Ann Boger (GA 335) turned into a demon as she slew nine opponents enroute to a Grand Slam Scorecard. Her 21/9/+182 card is the best the South Siders have seen this season and comes close to the record of 24/9/+303 set by Stan Hayton of Club 245 in January 2000.

Dick Albedvill (WA 1606) is the Club Director of 31-2 (Club 243) in Tacoma, WA. A very unusual match was played there on April 21st. David Ebsen (WA 1907) of Club 243 was playing Stu Kelly (WA 540) of Club 148. The first hand David had the crib. His hand was 7-8-9-9 and the cut card was a 6. His crib was 3-4-5-6. Stu's hand was 3-4-5-5. The second hand was identical except Stu had the 7-8-9-9, cut a 6 and had a 3-4-5-6 crib. David's hand was 3-4-5-5.

Wally Sebelius (CO78) of Club 224 playing in Delta, CO had a Good News-Bad News night on April 7th. He already had a good scorecard going when he got a 28 hand and was well on his way to a Grand Slam (GS) that included three skunks! After winning 8 in a row, he played a Guest who beat him by a score of 121-120 and spoiled his GS. Who was this guest? Would you believe it was his wife Frieda? Wally missed his GS but finished with a wonderful 19/8/+207 card

Grass Roots Cribbage Patch Kids in Grand Rapids, MI (Club 71) are on a roll! On April 16th, Marge Schoolland (MI 423) and Ron Homrich (MI 830) both scored a Grand slam during the same tournament. The previous week there were two eighteen and one seventeen scorecards. Not bad for a club that averages between 25 and 30 players each week!

Chehalis-Centralia, WA Cribbage Club News - TIM MORRISSEY wanted to be noticed on his first night back from a long southern winter-disappearance. You got our attention, bud! Now you can just quietly blend in for the rest of the season. TIM turned a 15/7/114 to claim second prize of $40, first place Q-money of $40, and first place in Super-Q for another $64. In addition, he collected $5 on a crib flush. And you get one of these rarities once in 637 deals in the Chehalis-Centralia Cribbage Club. Jeez, that's $149 for a second place finish. Thanks for the $20 donation to the skunk pot too. The skunk needed such attention. TIM is a legend in this club. Sorry, you'll have to capture that first spot to get the full review of your great accomplishments. Glad you're back, TIM!

CHRIS MC COMAS, the Castle Rock Comet, continued on his rampage with a 15/7/108 and sewed up third place. CHRIS broke $100 with $33 from prize fund, $30 for 2nd place Q, $38 for 2nd Super-Q, and added $5 for a raggedy-Ann. And she shows once in 728 deals around these parts. That's $106 and all the fun of crib besides. Thanks for the donation to our WSCC 2004. That brings you to $48 and you know we will put that money to use in a way which will benefit the players who attend. CHRIS has taken the lead for national rating points in the club for the 2002-2003 official season with 187 and leads the Spring Quarter quite impressively with a .625 batting average and an average of 12.13 gamepoints for the eight sessions completed in this Spring Quarter. Now you know why CHRIS has earned the label "Castle Rock Comet". He lights the sky!

Marie Lager is on a roll!

Marie Lager has been hot lately, not only in Grass Roots play but in sanctioned ACC tournaments as well. Marie placed well at Marinette and followed that up with a top 8 finish at Turtle Lake. She stayed hot into week #32 as she topped all 30 players with a fine 16/7/+122 card. Marie not only took 1st but moved in the $ lead with $485 for the season and 2nd in Rating Points with 157. Following Marie was Jan Bremmer in 2nd, Glenn Knorr in 3rd and Patrick Barrett in 4th, all with 15 points. 5th was Bill Johnson, 6th was Grace Sydanmaa, Duaine Jacob was 7th all with 14 points and John Siewert was 8th with 13. 14 point scorecards and above received Rating Points this week.

Irene Sevigny is the Club Director of Club 230 in Port Orange, FL. They average 15 players for the 36 weeks and thought the following was a remarkable occurrence for only 15 players.

From 09/18/01 thru 04/16/02...A TOTAL OF 15 AWARDS

9 players had a 28 Hand
6 players had a Grand Slam

Out of these 15 awards:

1 player a 28 Hand twice and 1 Grand Slam
1 player had a 28 Hand twice within 3 weeks
1 player had a 28 Hand twice within 2 weeks
