Bill Irons Birthday: High Q Score Vets Day: Glenn Scott

The Sands Regency in Reno was abuzz with peggers celebrating Veteran's Day with some spirited cribbage action. The play began in earnest on Friday night as a huge field played for the doubles crown. Two Oregon veterans nailed down that win (Paul Hatcher and Rollie Heath) and this duo took home a whopping $1,100 to kick off play for the weekend. A highlight of this event saw Charlie Dolge (NC) score a very rare 29-hand (only 5 cards are dealt to each player in doubles). Alas, this gem was a day early and did NOT earn the $1,000 offered for a 29-hand during qualifying round play on Saturday.

312 peggers kicked off the Veteran's Day Open on Saturday morning, and when the action wound down after the 22-game round it was Bruce Sattler (MD) taking home the top score with a superlative 40 18/22 +275....and his Grand Master rating to boot! After two rounds of playoffs on Saturday night, play continued bright and early on Sunday. Klamath, CA's Glenn Scott zipped to the win, nipping Life Master Mel Ashley (CA) in the final playoff match. Scott took home 252 MRP's (and $1,900) and Ashley added 196 to his lifetime ledger. 2004 All-American Cres Fernandez (CA) and Boyd Horne (CA) finished 3-4.

Master Bill Irons (NV) was celebrating his 80th birthday, and nailed down his own birthday present by topping the 214-player Consolation field. He scored a great 21 9/10 +155 card to take honors.

But when the playoffs had wound down, it was William MacDonald (CA) standing alone undefeated. His last playoff victim was Richard McNeil (OR). MacDonald garnered 112 MRP's for being tops, and McNeil took home 84 MRP's for 2nd. Life Master Greg Schleusner (CA) and Marilyn Gaudreau (MA) finished 3-4. A highlight saw Cy Madrone (CA) score a 29-hand in the 4th game of the qualifying round to earn $100 from the ACC for a sanctioned 29-hand, but it was a day late to earn the Sand's $1,000 29-hand bonus. Madrone also lost the game by a single point.

A High Roller event was played on Saturday night and Life Master Mary Herrmann (CA) scored a nifty grand-slam (19 9/9) to take home the top prize.

In addition to the two 29-hands, five peggers also scored that elusive 28-hand. They were: Glenn Scott, Mary Gladish, N. E. Thornsberrry, Richard Frost, and Carol Henderson.

Once again, the Sands (and Barbara Woodward) rolled out the red carpet for the players, furnishing coffee and cakes for the weekend, in addition to an excellent Saturday buffet. The Sands added $2,500 to the prize fund as well. Bill and Dorthalee Irons, Roberta Huff, and staff ran their usual well-run event, attested to by yet another large crowd.

Bill Irons Birthday Bash Linton Walker Cops 114-Player Event

The Sands Regency played a special cribbage match after play had wound down on Sunday at the recent Veterans Day Classic, and 114 players stayed to help Bill Irons celebrate his 80th birthday. With door prizes galore adding to the gala event, it was Canada's Linton Walker taking home the top prize ($580), scoring a 17 7/9 card.

Irons has been the ringleader in organizing cribbage play at the Sands, having his first event played in the early 1980's, and continues to host popular events at the Sands twice-yearly. The Sands also hosts the granddaddy of all cribbage events with the Tournament of Champions and the ACC Open in early February. Some 1,000 players are on board for these events, vying for the $10,000 top prize paid to the ACC Open champion!

Tom Maresh Tops Illinois Open

With 111 players in the field, Grand Master Tom Maresh (WI) zipped home the winner at the Illinois Open, played at Crystal Lake on November 5. Another Grand Master, Doug Henderson (WI) finished 2nd, followed by Jerry Newhouse (WI) and Ken Mueller (IL) in the 3-4 bracket. One-Star Frank Danielski (WI) topped the field in the Q round with a nice 37 16/22 +220 card (55 MRP's).

George Stankus (IL) took home the win in the 67-player Consolation, nipping veteran Life Master John Hiland (WI) in the final playoff match. Dave Drew (IL) and Grand Master Don Brown (CA) took home a 3-4 finish. Alice Korn (IL) won 8 of 9 to take the Q action (18 8/9 +152).

Director Marvin Lang fielded Friday and Saturday night games, with Brenda Carson (MI) winning Friday, and Patrick Grage (IL) winning Saturday's action. Lang also reported that Larry Collins, Dave Drew, and John Kolby scored 28-hands. No 29's showed.

Hansen, Shambeau Still Knocking Heads

Stephen Hansen and Steven Shambeau, both of Waupaca, WI, were reported tied at 2,987 wins each in March of 2000. Some four years later they are still knocking heads. The score as of October 24, 2004? 4,001 each! They play every morning for a $20 bill....a very old-worn-out $20 bill! 22 years and still tied! Cribbage fever, catch it! You may well be evenly matched...forever!

I would try leading a 5 from time to time to see if that would break the tie! Ed.

Ronald LaPointe Wins Emerald Coast

Ronald LaPointe (FL) ran the table at the recent Emerald Coast Open played at Fort Walton Beach, FL. With 47 peggers in action, LaPointe took home an aggregate 165 MRP's after qualifying tops (38 17/22 +311) and winning the playoffs as well. Beatrice Cook took 2nd, followed by Dana Pratt and Valerie Nozick in the 3-4 slot.

Nancy Wanke won the 32-player Consolation, nipping Ryan Bailey in the final playoff match. Lee Bailey and Robert Read finished 3-4. Annette Seda took the Q action with a nifty 18 8/9 +148.

Director Martha Sanders reported Lawrence Krause won the Early Bird, Gene Bradshaw took the Saturday Special, and Joe Lewis III won the Last Chance. No 28's or 29's showed. And Fort Walton Beach is still on the map, despite Hurricane Ivan's best shot!

Elliott Havitz Wins North Pole Open

Elliott Havitz (WI) came to play at the North Pole Open (Marinette, WI) in late October and he zipped to the win in this 119-player field. He copped 147 MRP's, the top prize and bragging rights galore. John Bianco (MI) almost took it all, finishing 2nd, followed by Clarence Charles (WI) and Larry LaGassie (WI) in the 3-4 slot. LaGassie earned his Master rating (the ACC's 589th) with this high finish. Donna Aird (MI) topped the field in the Q round with a great 36 GP card (50 MRP's).

Old pro Warren Sondericker (WI) added to his Two-Star lifetime ledger by winning the 71-player Consolation, nipping Master Karen Bouffiou (WI) in the final playoff match. One-Star Martha Fingleton (WI) and Grand Master Alan Lindner finished 3-4. Dale Rohm's 15 GP card took Q honors.

Director Eugene Mikulsky reported Paul Kilkelly won the Time Passer on Friday, and Doug Henderson took home the top prize in the Friday night game. LaGassie added icing to his cake by also winning the Saturday Night Special in his tune-up for his high finish on Sunday, netting him his Master rating. Mikulsky reported nary a 28 or 29-hand showed...perhaps in respect for the event's name....the ice-cold North Pole Open!

Les Kvien Tops Wisconsin Rapids

The 1st annual Wisconsin Rapids Open Cribbage Tournament was a big success especially for Les Kvien of Mundelein, IL as he ran the table and topped all 126 players in the main event. Players from as far as Connecticut, Massachusetts & Virginia gave it a try but it was the Midwest players taking the lions share of the honors. Kvien's win came at the expense of 3rd generation player Nick Barrett of Wisconsin Rapids, WI as he handled Nick 3-1 in the championship match. Nick comes from cribbage legacy as he is the step-son of Life Master Patrick Barrett & the grandson of Master Arlene Barrett. Jerry Gruber of Minnesota & John Syftstad of Wisconsin placed 3-4 in the playoffs. Doug Munneke had a huge weekend as he was the top qualifier in the main with 37(18)+166, won the Friday night tournament with 17(8)+120 and placed 1st in the All-Events pool with 62 points. Munneke won an astounding 26 of 31 games between Friday night & Saturday's qualifying good for take home pay of $2200 for the weekend, before the main tournament playoffs!

Don Flesch of Milwaukee, WI showed all 69 players in the consolation he was there to play as he qualified 1st and blasted through the field to win his 12 sanctioned tournament. Agnes Barnett-Noble of Illinois placed 2nd with John Siewert & Marie Lager, both with home field Wisconsin Rapids advantage cards placing 3-4.

Bob Julian nailed the Saturday night tournament with 18(8)+150.

Sanctioned 28 hands were held by Jan Bremmer, Arlene Barrett, Alice Sather, Daryl Halopka & Jerome Tork.

The ACC has shown interest in this site for the 2006 Grand National Tournament & Awards Banquet. Details are being discussed and a site for the Midwest GN in 2006 will be announced at the ACC BoD meeting in Reno, Nevada on February 10, 2005.

Jim Huser Wins In Minnesota

With 132 players in action, it was Grand Master Jim Huser (WI) all the way! He nailed down the championship at the Minnesota Open (Cannon Falls) and carted home 196 MRP's, the winners check, and bragging rights galore. Master Bob Joslin (MN) finished 2nd...and earned 147 MRP's in this late November match. Grand Master Doug Henderson (WI) and Ralph Malloy (MN) finished in the 3-4 bracket. Betty Algiers (WI) nailed the Q round with a fine 38 17/22 +206 to easily take honors.

Pete Severson (MN) came to play in the 72-player Consolation. He won 8 of 9 in the qualifying round to take honors, and came on to win the playoffs as well, netting a nifty 102 MRP's for this fine effort. Grand Master Richard Frost (WI) took 2nd, followed by Life Master Frank Trojan (MN) and Norm Vierela (MI) in the 3-4 bracket.

Director Jerry Gruber reported Lyle Lund won the Friday Early Bird (17 8/9 +132) and Boyd Lundquist did likewise in the Saturday game, posting an almost identical score (17 8/9 +158). Norb Upton scored a 28-hand on Friday, but no 28's or 29's showed in the Main Event. Gruber also reported his book work was very easy this year as he had 132 players...the same as last year... and the payouts remained the same.

Dick West

Cops Dante Club

Life Master Dick West (MA) is at it again. This time around he nailed down the win at the recent Dante Club Open, besting a sizeable 106-player meet. This is West's 8th Main Event sanctioned win as he continues his fine play. John Wichland took home 2nd...and 105 MRP's. John Pizio (NY) and Life Master Lee Norris (RI) finished 3-4. Walter Brideaux (CT) took Q honors with a nifty 21 10/12 +184 card.

Life Master Dwight Christiansen (CT) is on a roll this cribbage year, and he continues this run by taking home the win in the 48-player Consolation. Frank Sigda (MA) finished 2nd, followed by One-Star Bill Medeiros (MA) and Al DeRosier (MA) in the 3-4 bracket. One-Star David Clemmey (MA) took the Q action with a 17 7 +116 card.

Director George Bickford reported that Phyllis Schmidt scored the event's only 28-hand.

Gaylord Matti Cops

6th South Florida Open

Master Gaylord Matti (WI) made "Snowbirding" pay off as he nailed the 86-player South Florida Open in early November. In winning this North Palm Beach event, Matti carted home yet another 147 MRP's to add to his lifetime tally. Scott Bailey (TX) took home 2nd...and 105 MRP's, followed by David Foxwell (GA) and Grand Master David Ritchey (FL) in the 3-4 slot. Ritchey was also the meet's top Q player with a 31 14 +152 card.

With 56 peggers in action in the Consolation, Master Jim Lunder (FL) took home the bacon. He nipped Veronica Sosh (FL) in the final playoff match to take the title. Fred Adolphson (FL) and Grand Master John Groz (MA) finished 3-4. Grass Roots Statistician Kristy Haight (FL) topped the field in the Q round with a nifty 16 8/9 +91 card.

Directors Ken Johnson and Joe Daesch reported that Chuck Barnes and Bobby Stuart won the Friday and Saturday night games. Bill Young scored a sanctioned 29-hand (and receives the ACC's $100 for this gem), and Gina Daesch, Doris Jersey, Jim Lunder and Jenny Reilly scored 28-hands.

Chris Unguran Tops

Halloween Event

The Edmonton (AB) Halloween Open saw Chris Unguran (AB) zip to the win in this 44-player event. He nipped Jack Wifladt (AB) in the final playoff match to take home the win...and 105 MRP's. Herb Lee (AB) and Leeson Ruff (AB) finished 3-4.

Doris Sanders (AB) nailed down the win in the 24-player consolation, with Gerald Mohr (AB) taking home 2nd. Karl Lagerman (AB) and Shirley Ruff (AB) finished 3-4. Mohr also took Q honors with a 14 6/9 +91 card.

Director Harold Buckley fielded a full array of satellites. The winners:

Early Bird: Judy Totten
Doubles: Judy & Ken Totten
High Rollers: Jack Wifladt
Last Chance: Gary Wirtit
Super Q: Chris Unguran
Team: A. Hatto, T. Hatto, L. Skidmore
29: Terry Blocka

In an oddity, Marion Buckley dealt Terry Blocka a 29-hand in game 7 of the Consolation, but, nevertheless, skunked him by 32 points. However, the $100 from the ACC for a sanctioned 29-hand softened the blow.

Bill Jones Cops Crypt

The peggers were, indeed, pegging from the Crypt at Walla Walla's (WA) inaugural "Cribbage From The Crypt" event in late October. The halloween motif came complete with directors Jim and Lisa Duff all decked out in costumes, and the playing hall decked out as well.

With 54 peggers in action, Bill Jones (OR) may well have earned his Masters rating by winning this event. Grand Master Rex Paddock (MT) continues his recent streak by taking 2nd, followed by Master Rosemary Hendricks (WA) and Karen Ferraro (WA) in the 3-4 bracket. Master Jason Shumate (CA), in the running for honors this cribbage year, posted the high Q score...a nifty 35 16/22 +192.

30 peggers played the Consolation and the finals saw Life Master John Furler (OR) slugging it out with last year's champion Two-Star Duane Toll (OR). Furler prevailed for the win, and earned 40 MRP's. Hal Lamon (WA) and the streaking Life Master Jack Moritzky (WA) finished 3-4. Betty Bowen (OR) took Q honors with a 15 7/9 card.

The satellites: Early Bird: Brad Taylor; High Rollers: DeLynn Colvert; Doubles: Jack & Millie Moritzky; Saturday: Jeanne Jelke; Last Chance: Gary Henderson. 28's: Jim Hartung, John Hensley.

Bill Medeiros Pegs For Charity

At the recent Charity Cribbage Challenge played in Providence, Rhode Island, it was One-Star Bill Medeiros (MA) taking home the bacon (he left the cash for charity). He nipped Holli Umbrianna (MA) in the final playoff match. One-Star Larry Samet (MA) and Grand Master Earle Remington (RI) finished 3-4. Umbrianna also took qualifying honors with a 20 10/12 +115 card.

Jeanette Verzillo (MA) ran the table in the 20-player Consolation, taking Q honors (14 6 +93) and winning the playoffs as well. Life Master Dick West (MA) took 2nd, followed by James McGinness and Beverly Jones in the 3-4 bracket. West also scored the meet's only 28-hand.

Director John Chambers reports that proceeds from this event benefit the Literacy Volunteers program.

Robert Wright Tops In Hawaii

Robert Wright (HI) edged Richard Kodama (HI) in the final playoff match to cop the 13th Annual Abe Kealoha Extravaganza in Honolulu on October 31. James Kahue (HI) and Roy Wong (HI) finished 3-4. Kodama was the meet's high qualifier with a 27 13/18 +157 card.

Mel Vios (HI) edged Master Thelma Weber (CA) for the Consolation title.

Director Tsarkie reported that Ken Ching and Wayne Matsuyama won the Doubles event, and the Last Chance went to Boyd McDonald

William Kraatz Takes Niagara Falls...Again!

William Kraatz (NY) loves the Niagara Falls Open. He wins again and again. In fact, he has won five events in recent years at this tournament. With 69 players in the field, Kraatz took home yet another 147 MRP's to add to his collection from this event. Master Peter Lerch (NC) was Kraatz's last victim in the playoff round, and could not stem the tide and settled for 2nd...and 105 MRP's. Hal Mueller (ON) is fast becoming a cribbage guru with his computer-generated studies of cribbage odds, and he finished 3rd, after taking qualifying honors (an excellent 39 18/22 +259). John Schafer (MI) also finished in the 3-4 bracket.

The 49-player Consolation had many oddities. Wendy Schmidt (MI) was celebrating her birthday in style. She scored a 19 9/9 +132 grand slam card to easily take honors (much like Bill Iron's performance in Reno in November on his 80th birthday). And then Rose Ann Walton (VA) won the event, and did likewise in the Main Event in April 2004. And both times she knocked off her husband (Utah Walton) enroute to the victories. Master Keith Widener (NC) finished 2nd, followed by Brent Cooper (ON) and Life Master Sharlene Medeiros (MA) in the 3-4 slot.

Director Nelson Wheaton reported that Jack Lewis won the Early Bird, and J.B. & Kathy Blough won the Doubles event. James Klingler scored that rare 29-hand, his first-ever, and takes home $100 from the ACC for this gem.

Jim Crawford Wins Again: D & P Open

Master Jim Crawford (CA), fresh from winning Grand National XXIII, is blitzing the standings by winning yet again.. This time around he took home the championship at the D&P Open, played at Norwalk, CA on October 23. With 56 players in the field, Crawford nailed down yet another 105 MRP's and holds a sizeable lead (800+) in the national MRP race. Ken Slama (CA) took 2nd, followed by Larry Hilbert (CA) and Sylvia Sutton (CA) in the 3-4 bracket. Obie Weeks (CA) scored a 21 GP card (12 games) to take Q honors.

Newly-retired Bob Gromek, a Master pegger from Las Vegas, took the 42-player Consolation crown, edging Abby Cohen (CA) in the final playoff match. Milt Goodman (CA) and Dennis Culver (CA) finished 3-4. Culver scored a 12 GP card (8 games) to take Q honors. Director Don Brown reported Andy Lynch (CA) scored the meet's only 28-hand. No 29's showed.

Ras Rasmussen Cops Mt. Bachelor

One-Star Ras Rasmussen (WA) picked up his 10th sanctioned Main Event win at the recent Mt. Bachelor Challenge, played in Bend, OR. With 72 players in the field, Rasmussen picked up yet another 147 MRP's to add to his lofty 10,800+ lifetime tally. His cribbage tips appear from time to time in Cribbage World, and his MRP tally gives him credibility plus! Another One-Star player finished 2nd...Roy Hofbauer (WA). Spouse (Life Master) Jeanne Hofbauer (WA) took home 3rd with Dean Bauman (WA) taking 4th...and his Master rating to boot!

Liz Stockdale (OR) nailed the 64-player Consolation, edging veteran Master Dot Mickow (WA) in the final playoff match. Clarence Cole (OR) and Dan Marsh (OR) finished 3-4. One-Star Paul Hatcher took Q honors with a nice 17 8/9 +89 card.

Director Jerry Blackman fielded many satellites. The winners:

Early Bird: Rollie Heath

High Roller: Lowell Bailey

Doubles: Jim & Darla Waldorf 19 9/9 +176

Saturday: Paul Hatcher

Super Q: Ras Rasmussen

28's: Chris McComas, Rich Burns

Jim Langley Wins Feather River

One-Star Jim Langley (CA) wins the national championship in odd years (2001, 2003) and with cribbage year 2005 in the works, he is on track to give it yet another try by winning the Feather River Open, Oroville, CA, on October 9. In besting 78 players, Langley took home 147 MRP's and has his hat in the ring for another run for the roses. This is Langley's third win in Oroville. Master Golda Rager (CA) finished 2nd, followed by Master Art Fischer (CA) and Master Ervin Bentz (CA) in the 3-4 slot. Dennis Jacobs (CA) scored a 30 GP card (18 games) to take Q honors.

Rod Foy (CA) won the 38-player Consolation (2nd year in a row) and he even managed to hold off the streaking Master Jim Crawford (CA) in the final playoff match. Nevertheless, Crawford scored an aggregate 52 MRP's (he took Q honors as well). Life Master Heidi Glashan (CA) and Bill Johnson (CA) finished 3-4.

The satellites:

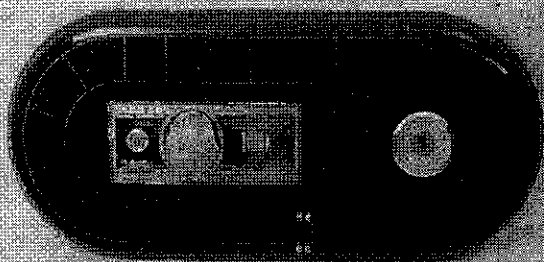

Friday: Boyd McDonald

28's: Dennis Phillips, Wheelock Oliver, Ron Morgan, Heidi Glashan

Roger Wilson Takes Colorado Fall Classic

Life Master Roger Wilson has been directing Colorado events for many years, and he finally said enough is enough, and he won his own event in Denver on October 17. With 88 peggers in the field, Wilson garnered 147 MRP's. He is also edging in on his One-Star rating as well. Joe Gates (CO) took home 2nd, after appearing to have the match with Wilson in hand. With the score at 2 games each in the best 3 of 5 match, Gates needed but 5 points, with first count, to win. Alas, he pegged a single point and scored a 2-point hand! Master Bill Hutchinson (CO) and Bob Barron (CO) finished 3-4. Gates also was the event's top qualifier, scoring a nice 37 16/22 +167 card.

Master Keith Widener (NC) has been seen pegging nationwide the past year, and his stop in Denver rewarded him with a 52-player Consolation win. His last victim was local Master Sue Edwards. Bill McMillan (WY) and Master George Rodriguez (MT) took home a 3-4 finish. McMillan took Q honors as well, scoring a nifty 16 8/9 +130 card.

The satellites:

Friday: Fran Christofferson

Saturday: George Rodriguez

28's: Wes Hall, Sue Edwards, Martha O'Donnell (Friday night)

Lonnie Kernes Takes Avocados

Director Obie Weeks passes out avocados galore at his Fallbrook (CA) Avocado Open, but Lonnie Kernes (CA) added the championship as well in this 71-player event. Pam Pomeroy (CA) finished 2nd, followed by John Taylor (CA) and Master Darlene Carr (CA) in the 3-4 bracket. Kernes scored a superlative 25 11/12 +214 card to easily take Q honors, giving him a whopping aggregate 207 MRP's.

Director Obie Weeks reported Julien Pomerleau (CA) won the time passer, No 28's or 29's showed, with players having to be satisfied with avocados.

Rosemary Hendricks Finds A Way

At Salem's Early Bird 7-game event, Rosemary Hendricks won but 4 games, and as any cribbage player knows, losing 3 games of 7 you are out of the money. But not Rosemary. She skunked opponents in games 1-3-5-7 for a 12 GP card...and garnered a nifty bankroll to show for it!

"Slim" Fattens Up In California

Duane "Slim" Person was a long way from his Alaska home and he was doing some pegging at the Pacific Coast Peggers II event in Carlsbad, CA on October 9. Well, "Slim" ain't slim anymore! He fattened up big time by winning the Main Event and qualifying tops (24 10/12 +149), and scored a 28-hand to boot in this 56-player event. Sylvia Sutton (CA) took home 2nd, followed by Julie Hardardt (CA) and Mike Hayden (CA) in the 3-4 slot. Hardardt also earned her Master with this high finish.

In the 34-player Consolation, Damon Handley, Jr. (CA) took home the bacon, edging Mike Green (CA) in the final playoff match. Obie Weeks (CA) and Bruce Fein (NV) took home a 3-4 finish. Fein was also the high Q player...12 6/7 +122.

Director Roy Cook reported that Norm Nikodym also scored a 28-hand.

Tim Hutsell Takes Crescent City

Local Master Tim Hutsell captured the championship at the recent Crescent City Open (CA), besting some 66 peggers in the process. His final playoff match was with the streaking Jason Shumate (another local pegger) and he prevailed to take home the top prize. Shumate, nevertheless, earned his Grand Master rating, the youngest to do so since Brian Heroux (RI) turned the trick some years ago. Marc Harper (CA) and Erik Locke (OR) finished 3-4. Master Jim Broadhurst (OR) took Q honors with a 37 16/22 +257 card.

Life Master John Furler (OR) won the 44-player Consolation, nipping Charles Huffman (CA) in the final playoff match. Bob Magnuson (OR) and Grand Master Larry Hassett (OR) finished 3-4. Spouse Donna Hassett (Grand Master as well) took Q honors with a 17 7/9 +171 card.

Director Jim Waldvogel reported the following satellite winners:

Early Bird: Leonard Goodman

Doubles: Mary Morris & Ruth Fraker

High Roller: Paul Hatcher

Saturday: Jesse Jarrell

Waldvogel also reported nary a 28 or 29-hand showed.

Shawn Smith Reinstated As Judge

Shawn Smith, Edmonton, Alberta, has been reinstated as a judge. He has renewed his membership and is in good standing with the ACC.

Grandpa vs. Grandson? Almost!

At the recent Emerald Coast Classic at Ft. Walton Beach, FL, it was almost grandpa Lee Bailey vs. grandson Ryan Bailey in the Consolation finals. Lee just missed the finals by a whisker, losing to Nancy Wanks. Ryan advanced to the finals and also lost to Wanks. However, Ryan earned his first-ever MRP's in this event!

Rex Paddock Takes Ghosts & Goblins

Grand Master Rex Paddock (MT) has been rolling this cribbage year, taking home wins in many events, and he recently won the Ghosts and Goblins event in Hermistoin, OR on October 17. With 58 peggers in the field, Paddock nailed down yet another 105 MRP's and is among the national leaders in the early going this cribbage year. Local James Seufert took home 2nd, followed by Lea Hornbeck (WA) and local Denny Edwards in the 3-4 bracket. Hornbeck earned his Grand Master with this high finish.

Life Master Jim Hornbacher was on a roll in the 36-player Consolation. He scored a nifty grand slam 19 9/9 in the qualifying round and very nearly won it all, finishing 2nd in the playoffs. Margie Clark (OR) came home the winner, cooling off Hornbacher in the final playoff match. Karen Ferraro (WA) and Gary Pinkley (WA) finished 3-4.

Director Ken Capper reported the satellite winners:

Early Bird: James Seufert

High Roller: Larry Walton

Doubles: Bruce Goff & Bruce Pomeroy

Saturday: Lea Hornbeck

Last Chance: Iris Sundquist

Who Gives a.....? Jack Moritzky

Capper also reported nary a 28 or 29-hand showed.

More Bull!

I noticed in the last issue of Cribbage World that 4 players from the northwest used to ride bulls. I have been an active player for the past 6 years with Club #96 in Rapid City, SD. I am a retired Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association (PRCA) bullfighter (Wrangler Freestyle Bullfighter) and I now spend some time behind the microphone as an announcer.

Jim Crawford Leads Pack

With the 2005 cribbage season 1/3 in the bank, it is Mountain View, CA's Jim Crawford leading the pack with well over 800 MRP's in the bank.

Jack Moritzky, Jason Shumate, Herschel Mack, Rex Paddock, Ras Rasmussen, Dwight Christiansen, Bill Medeiros, Rob Medeiros, Tony Danihel and Paul Hatcher are all at the 500 mark (or better) and the race is on. Crawford's early mark is one of the better starts in ACC history, and he may have a shot at breaking Duane Toll's record mark set last year (2,473).

A record number of events are on tap, and any dedicated pegger willing to travel has a shot at earning honors this cribbage year.

Flushes Galore

At the recent Minnesota Open, played at Grandpa's Garage, a hand played Saturday night was unique:

Non-dealer: 14-point hand (all spades)

Dealer: 14-point hand (all hearts)

Crib: 13-point hand (all diamonds)

ACC Internet Cribbage World Cribbage Congress?

One of the best things about ACC Internet Cribbage is its geographical reach, and this column often publicizes the success of players from such far-flung places as Newfoundland, Wyoming and Saskatchewan, where there is little organized over-the-board cribbage. Participating in ACC Internet Cribbage has always been a great way to meet members from interesting places all over North America, and now we can add France to the mix.

Yes, for the first time, an ACC tournament has been won by a player sitting in Europe, as Andy Roland (muesli64), playing from La Croix Valmer in the French Riviera, won the Saturday, October 23 Pegging Pals single elimination event, the first such victory by a player not residing in the Western Hemisphere. Roland topped the 62 player field by prevailing over Hawaii's Elana Kobayashi (NinjaNin) in the Finals. The eleven-hour time difference between these two players connecting from opposite sides of the planet must have set another record for sanctioned cribbage. Globalization has truly come to the ACC.

While our tournaments are reaching farther and farther around the world, our Top Ten is spinning in place, with eight players, including the seven highest ranked ones, returning from last month's list. Mark Van Dyke (loosespokes1135) had one of his patented breakout months (see Cribbage World, August 2004), winning one tournament and reaching the Semifinals in two others to take the lead with 360 Internet Rating Points (IRPs). John Schafer (netview85) of Battle Creek, MI is right behind him with 342 IRPs. Scott Buhrow (MrB_IA218) of Louisville, KY rounds out the 300 club with 323 IRPs.

Ronald Ralston (rdr1231) of Hartford, IA and Kelly Ann Bugar (lil_thummp) of Edmonton, AB are the newcomers in the Top Ten, with Rodgers, Allen, Fetchel, Partain and Olney retaining their honor from September. All are quality players that always seem to be in the Internet Champion-ship race.

ACC Internet Cribbage is fun, and more challenging than you may think! Tournaments are held in a variety of formats and are hosted by MSN Games at zone.com. Come to www.cribbage.org/internet for details on how to join us. Your next opponent could be from Hawaii, Canada or France!

GRASS ROOTS CORNER

Items for this column are encouraged and should be sent to TomLewis@Spinn.net or mailed to Tom Lewis, 7916 Eagle Rock Ave. NE, Albuquerque, NM 87122-2753

Rule of the month review:

Pegging out to win the game

A player should peg out into hole 121 to complete a game. However, if a player performs an action similar to any of the following, it shall be considered equivalent to pegging out or reaching the game hole. (1) Recording the game as a win on a scorecard. (2) Placing their peg into one of the game record holes. (holes used on some boards to record the number of games won.) (3) Advancing a game-record peg. (See Rule 8.10(3) b, c, and d for details.)

Grass Roots National Tournament (GRNT)

Guidelines: By Now all of the Grass Roots Club Directors should have received a package on conducting your GRNT. Some reminders:

- 1) The GRNT is an 18 game GR tournament that is highly desirable but not mandatory.
- 2) This tournament may ONLY be played between January 1st and April 30th 2005.
- 3) The cost is $11.00 for an official tournament entry and $3.00 if it is an unofficial entry. Players must inform the hosting Club Director which it is.
- 4) Club Directors need to make certain that all the participants have paid both their ACC Membership fees and Grass Roots Registrations prior to the start of the tournament.
- 5) All scoresheets, tournament reports, award certifications and money must be sent to the GRNT Tournament Director. He is also the person you contact with ANY questions. Our GRNT Tournament Director is Michael Ardelean. Mike may be contacted at mikeardelean@msn.com or by telephone at (248) 334-7021. His mailing address is 3345 W. Auburn Road, Suite 202, Rochester Hills, MI 48309-3108.
- 6) DO NOT send anything to your Regional Statistician except Grass Roots Registrations for new players.

Happenings in Grass Roots Club 227 in Laguna Woods, CA: September 2004 was a good month for Tom Newland (CA 3936L) During his first five GR tournaments Tom scored two first place finishes and collected two 24 hand pots and a 23 hand prize. In a weekly meeting while playing Paul Yellon (CA 1255L) he held two pairs, fours and sixes and drew a five on the starter card for a 24 hand. He picked up another 17 points in his crib for a grand total of 41 points in a single deal. This has got to be close to some kind of record for Grass Roots tournaments!

More on consecutive Club Champions: Herschel Mack of Club 194 in Eureka, CA was Club Champion for five consecutive years from the 1998-1999 season through the 2002-2003 season. He was displaced last season by G. Barrett Mace.

RAS tells us of another fine week for cribbage in Chehalis-Centralia. Big winner of the week ending 10/16/04 was Jim Tunning of Centralia with a 16/8/90. This is Jim's second win of this short season. His first was a record-breaking Grand Slam on 9/16. And he has 47 rating points under his belt at this early point in the season. Mary Herring of Napavine nailed down the second spot with 15/6/107. Mary now has 857 rating points as she moves on towards Bronze. She has 9 skunk wins this season and has been skunked once. Can anybody out there match that skunk win/skunk loss ratio? Don Blanford of Chehalis captured the third spot with his 14/7/48 effort and was the big money of the evening as he took the top spots in Q and Super-Q. Need your help for our Washington State Cribbage Championships scheduled for January 7-9, 2005. Plans are to raise $11,000 in cash and other benefits. We have ordered 22 trophies and these are real classy. Spend a lot of time each year picking the photos that go on them. Each is a different scene from this state. Then we want to add $1,500 to Main, $500 to Consolation, $250 to doubles, $100 to all other events, and provide many other direct player benefits during the weekend. We need support from business, fraternal, and individual sources. Can you lend us a hand? See the growing list of folks and businesses who have. See details in attachment and final page of letter is a pledge form. Beyond that, be here for a great weekend of pegging!

Club 82 in Monterey, CA has five new members, thanks to a County Fair Cribbage Challenge. (Club Director Mel Ashley credits George Rasmussen in Washington for the "formula"). Lisa Glass was one of them. At fifteen years of age she showed the club how to play a good game of cribbage. Lisa had 8 wins and first place in only her third night of play! Justin Martin, age 30, is another newcomer who "knows the ropes". During the first six weeks he has a solid grip on 2nd place with a whopping .648 win percentage. (35 of 54), +275 spread points and 29 Bronze points! Art Fisher the wily wizard and senior member of Club 82 remains in first place! Mel says "the club should sponsor him on the ACC Tournament trail so that he could teach DeLynn Colvert and Duane Toll a thing or two!"

Art has scored another first and a third in regular club play and on October 31, 2004, he took first place in a GRRT with 30 points. In 9 weeks he failed to score only in the first week. So in the next 8 consecutive weeks he racked up 114 Bronze points plus the 30 Regional for 144! I believe this now earns him the Silver award! His stats include 122 Game points - of which 114 are Bronze! 682 +Spread Pts; 10 Skunks given vs. 3 against; 56 wins of 81 games played - a 69.1 winning percentage!

Helena Cribbage Club #25 started out the year with two players getting Bronze Awards and one getting the Silver Award. During September Carole Herron received two strings of pearls and in November Gene Hoffman received one. We also had a grand slam by Wayne Momson. We just finished playing our GRRT and hope three or four places regionally

Club 69, Spokane Valley, Washington, has a last 24-hand pot. The rules are that the last one to get a 24 hand wins the pot. If someone gets a 28, then only another 28 or 29 can take the pot away from them. So, usually someone with that lucky of a hand is insured of winning the pot. Well, that isn't always the case, as was demonstrated on October 20, 2004. Bruce Denend has always had a nemesis at getting the 24 pot. Whenever, he scores a 24, Alan Hawson invariably takes it away very quickly. However, on the 20th of October, Bruce scored a nice 28 hand and thought that possibly he might keep the honors and walk away with the $19 of that night's pot. However, as luck would have it, Alan scored a 28 hand no more than one minute after Bruce's, thereby getting the honor's of that night's pot. The jinx of Alan Hawson over Bruce Denend still lives. Makes Bruce feel somewhat like the Boston Red Socks!

News from GR Club 94 in St. Cloud, MN: Here we are only 8 weeks into the 2004-2005 season and already they have had six twenty-eight hands. It is incredible to see that many already this season. The names of the members who scored 28 hands are Mike Thomas who scored a 29 at Turtle Lake, Art Montag, John Jansky, Travis Kucala, Al Meyer and Joe Imholte. The club would like to Thank Doug Munneke who after 8 years as league director recently moved on to a regional statistician position where we are sure he will continue to do a wonderful job.

The newly established Granite State Cribbage Club (Club #314) from Hudson, New Hampshire is off to a great start. Early on the club set up a skunk pool where a getting skunked would cost a quarter (and the notoriety of having the big blue "skunk cup" in front of you) and a nineteen hand would cost a dime. Contents of the skunk pool could be won by scoring a 23, 28 or 29 hand. Pegging was fast and furious during the November 3rd meet when FOUR 23 hands showed! Jim Hatch started the night off right in the first game by pegging his 23 and collecting over $10 from the skunk pool. Even with the 23 hand he still lost the game! Moments later, Daniel Crete scored his 23 hand and collected the contents of the can: 10 cents! Two more 23's were shown by Don McGeough and then by Frank Clark, both collecting a few coins for their effort. Three of the hands were 4-5-5-5-6 and one hand was of the 5-5-5-J-J variety. Did the 23's help anyone? It did assist Frank to a third place finish with 13 GP's, but Kirk Hobbs took first this night with 17 GP's and Al Miller placed second with 16 GP's. After the flurry of 23's it was decided that the skunk pool will now award a 28 hand with half of the contents and a 29 hand will take it all!

For those of our members who are not aware, Al Miller is the Testing Examiner for the ACC. Al tests and certifies all of our judges. It is through the efforts of volunteers like Al that really keep our organization running smoothly. Well done Al.....Tom

In the November 3rd Grass Roots tournament, two members of Club #168 in East Greenwich, RI went into their 9th games needing a win for their respective Grand Slams Barry Spadea made a valiant effort but was edged out by Ray Desmarais losing by a mere two holes. Alan Wilson, who won the tournament, kept it close all the way but lost in the dead hole to Bob Rose. Isn't competition what cribbage is all about?

A 69-point deal in Club 229, Muskegon, WI. Dave Kenniston (MI 1100) cut a 5 and had 555Q for 28. Ruthie Tiesma (MI 646) had four 10s for 20 and a crib of 4667 for 14. The play was QT55 (3) T5 (2) T (1) T (1). Dave's monster 28 & 5 pegs got beat by Ruthie's 34 & 2 pegs. Dave got the last laugh though; he won the game by 8.

News from Club 214 in Topsham, ME. They have had two rookies of the year in their club...David Campbell and last year, Jerry Hardy. This year, Mark Soule is on his way and vying for that title. If he gets it, that would be three from Maine...(and all from Club 214) in 4 years. Mark had his first 28 hand ever in competition on November 3rd, 2004.

TIP OF THE MONTH

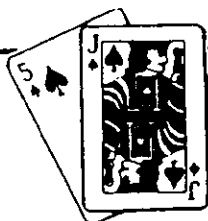

If you have only one Jack in your hand as non-dealer, how should I play the hand?

By Ras Rasmussen (WA)

Might be a good lead from your hand. Then you're rid of it on the opening play. The danger represented by the trap of a single Jack is considerable. The jack is considered by most to be the second most available card to trap in cribbage. Only the five is more frequently trapped. Other cards that pose danger when held singly are the ace and deuce. A lone three or four can sometimes lead to trouble at end of pegging sequence as well. Take a good look at your hand. Maybe that dangerous single ought to be tossed to crib. You're not likely to do that with the five-spot to your opponent crib, but might consider that for sure with a lone ace, deuce, or trey. If you didn't put in crib, consider leading it even if the five. The risk of holding one of these singles is much greater to the non-dealer although it is possible for dealer to be trapped as well.
