Norm Nikodym Wins Oregon Coast

With the Pacific Ocean as a backdrop, and the Chinook Winds Casino as the playing hall, about all a player could hope for was a win at this 236-player event. And Norm Nikodym, a Master Pegger from Ontario, CA did just that. He zipped home the winner, taking home the winner's $1,800 and the $220 Super Q prize as well. To top that he nailed down 196 MRP's to run this year's talley to well over 500. Master Bill O'Malley (OR) is famous for his trophy boards, and he took one home for himself by finishing 2nd. Grand Master Crez Fernandez (CA) earned All-American honors last year and he throws his hat into the ring once again by finishing in the 3-4 slot and has zipped to the 900 mark for this cribbage year. Bill McCuen (OR) also finished 3-4. O'Malley also took Q honors with a nice 36 17/22 +183 and was rewarded with an aggregate 197 MRP's for this event.

Another huge crowd played the Consolation (156) and perennial front-runner Life Master Bill Wakeman (CA) came home the winner, besting Nancy Hawkins (WA) in the final playoff match. Master Jeanne Jelke (WA), in the hunt for national honors this cribbage year, finished 3-4, as did Master Todd Anderson (OR). Canadian Egon Koch (Master) took the Q action with a nice 18 8/9 +159.

This event always draws a huge crowd, even with severe competition from a popular cruise played the same weekend. And directors Rollie Heath, Bernie Nelson, Jeanne and Roy Hofbauer, always have a full slate of satellite events. The winners:

Time Passer: Mary Gladish
High Roller: Dick Walcker
Doubles: David MaGee & Stuart Paige
Saturday: Joyce Lamon
Last Chance: Linton Walker
Team: C. McComas, P. Hatcher, R. Baird, R. Heath, T. Malmgren
Super Q: Norm Nikodym
Sadie Hawkins: C. McComas, Laurie Kenny
28's: John Thiems, Richard Anderson, Dorothy Westerlund, Roger Leuschow, Larry Pisha, Harvey Honeycutt, Jason Shumate, Sahron Hejtmanek, Bernie Saueressig, Steve Ellis (TP), and Joyce Lamon (TP)

The cards were hot as some 11 28-hands were scored, but nary a 29-hand showed. Once again, the host Chinook Winds furnished coffee, and cold drinks three days running, in addition to huge cakes on Saturday and Sunday morning. The playing hall is outstanding, and our nation's peggers will be playing Grand National XXIV at this site in 2005. Mark your calendars.

Ocean State Draws 162 Thomas Shea Tops In Pawtucket

With a whopping 162 players in the field, Thomas Shea (MA) came home the winner at the recent Ocean State Classic, Pawtucket, RI, and earned 196 MRP's to boot. His last match was a tough one with Roland Hall (CA), the nation's frontrunner in the annual MRP race. Hall, a Grand Master, garnered another 147 MRP's and is zipping along steadily piling up MRP's in his race for honors this cribbage year. Two Veteran Life Masters finished 3-4...George Bickford (MA) and Bill Shoemaker (CT). And yet another Life Master took Q honors...John Rooney (MA) (22 10/12 +189).

It was almost the Emily Schwartz (MA) show in the 88-player Consolation as this Master pegger nailed the qualifying round (16 7 +133), and finished 2nd in the playoffs, netting a nifty 75 MRP's for this great run. But Master Joseph Beauregard (RI) came home the winner in the playoffs. Life Master Dick West (MA) and Paul Batterson (CT) finished 3-4.

Director John Chambers reported three 28-hands showed: Robert Tervo, Janet Bruscatto, and Al Kelley. And once again, Chamber's expertise in managing tournaments resulted in yet another large crowd.

Mike Misluk Tops Medeiros May Madness

Mike Misluk, Bristol, CT, topped the field of 70 players at the Medeiros May Madness, played in Chicopee, MA on May 15. Bill Richmond (CT) took home 2nd, followed by Ken Patenaude (MA) and Master Sue Cousens (ME) in the 3-4 slot. Two-Star Harry Palmer (MA) keeps his hat in the ring for honors this cribbage year by taking Q honors (35 16 +210).

Director Sharlene Medeiros (MA) also keeps her hat in the ring for honors this cribbage year by taking the 34-player Consolation, besting Master Emily Schwartz (MA) in the final playoff match. Hal Mueller, a retired math professor from Ontario nailed down a 3-4 finish with Life Master Donna LaFleur (CT). One-Star David Clemmey (MA) took Q honors with an excellent 21 9/9 +160.

Medeiros reported the satellite events:

Friday: Matt Puchasta

Doubles: Joan Morrison & Paul Gallagher

High Rollers: David Clemmey

Hawaii Feb.: Ray Wong Hawaii Mar.: Chas. Rodgers

With 18 peggers in action in February and 20 playing in March in Hawaii's monthly matches, it was Ray Wong (HI) winning the February event (Robert Wright finished 2nd) and Charlie Rodgers (HI) taking the March action. Barry Robson (CA) finished 2nd in the March event.

Joe Sanzo Tops in Florida

The Regency Lakes Open in Coconut Creek, FL played to 35 peggers on May 2, and Joe Sanzo (FL) took home the bacon. He nipped Vic Tupper (FL) in the final match to take home the win. Evelyn Poirier (FL) took Q honors (18 8 +77) and finished in the 3-4 bracket with Esther Rolfe (FL).

With 25 players in action in the Consolation, it was Von Sosh (FL) winning going away. He nipped Ray Canero (FL) in the final playoff match. Bob Chevalier (FL) took Q honors (14 7 +31) and finished in the 3-4 bracket with Alice Haught (FL).

Director Joe Daesch reported nary a 28 or 29-hand showed in this inaugural event.

Berg Cops Alaska Event

The Alaska Springtime Open, played in Anchorage on April 24 drew 20 veteran peggers and Chuck Berg (AK) came home the winner. Master Henry Carle (AK) survived his motor home disaster (see story, this issue) and finished 2nd.

Wayne Scranton Takes Channel Islands

Wayne Scranton (CA) and Art Cox (CA) finished 1-2 at the recent 45-player Channel Island Open in Ventura, CA, and they both won their first trophy boards. Grand Master Don Brown (CA) took Q honors (23 11/12 +197) and finished in the 3-4 bracket with Master Norm Nikodym (CA).

In an oddity, Julien Pomerleau (CA) dealt Maxine Burget (AZ) a 29-hand in the 29-player Consolation, but nevertheless won the game and also took Q honors (15 7/8 +79)...and took home the win in the playoffs as well. Master Les Sumner (NV) took 2nd, followed by Jay Goldfarb (CA) and the streaking Master Jim Crawford (CA) in the 3-4 slot.

Martha Fingleton On Jeopardy

Martha Fingleton (WI) appeared on the Wednesday, May 26 edition of the televised Jeopardy program. The host mentioned that she was a member of the Cribbage Hall of Fame.

Al Lindner Has New Address

Al Lindner, director of the St. Croix Classic's in Turtle Lake, WI has a new home address: 203 East Depot, Greenwood, WI 54437. Changes in Tournament Trail will be made in the July issue of Cribbage World.

In Memoriam

Thomas Cunnane Owens

Roseville, California

On March 26, at the age of 80, Tom passed away at home. The River City peggers mourn the loss of this member of our cribbage family. Tom was also an honorary member of the Placer Peggers for many years. He was very proud of his cribbage achievements and he cherished the many friendships he had developed. Tom was a one of a kind loyal friend with a generous soul, a loving heart and a sense of humor that lit up the room. Thank you for sharing your life with us. It was an honor to peg with you. River City Peggers

Wayne Steinmetz Up To Challenge

Three-time All-American Wayne Steinmetz (WI) was up to the challenge at the recent Milwaukee Challenge. In besting the 145-player field, One-Star Steinmetz took home yet another 196 MRP's to add to his lofty lifetime ledger (12,000+). Grand Master Joe Aird (MI) nailed down 2nd and is getting closer to earning his Life Master with this high finish (147 MRP's). Master Tony Danihel (WI) and Life Master Todd Schaefer (MN) finished in the 3-4 bracket and each added 105 MRP's to their lifetime tally.

But for the current MRP race, the big news was Two-Star Duane Toll's (WI) superlative qualifying round score. He nailed a 42 18/22 +310 (80 MRP's) keeping him on top of this year's leaderboard.

Grand Master Doug Henderson (WI) zipped to the win in the 85-player Consolation, nipping the streaking Jim Crawford (CA), a Master pegger in the race for honors this cribbage year (900+), in the final playoff match. Larry Morse (WI) and Dale Rohm (WI) took home 3-4. Local Thomas Mintner took the Q action with a nice 18 8/9 +174.

Director Marlene Lazachek hosted the usual satellite events. The winners:
Friday: Ken Russell (WI)
Saturday: Norm Vierela (MI)
Last Chance: Bob Julian (WI)
29: David Yaeger (ACC's 20th)
28's: Marge Janick, Don Miles, Emilio Perez, John Swett, Larry Veldboom, Paul Vierela, Bob Wingo, Rosemary Daun (Sat. night)

A highlight of this event saw David Yaeger score the ACC's 20th 29-hand this cribbage year. In an oddity, Henderson won the Main Event in 2003, and took the Consolation this year. John Hiland qualified 2nd in both the Main and Consolation, and Tom Mintner had an 18 8/9 card in 2003 and this year as well (Consolation). Larry Veldboom and Don Miles swapped 28-hands in their playoff match.

Director Lazachek reports this event will once again be played at the Radisson next year.

Rob Medeiros Cops Blackstone

Life Master Rob Medeiros (MA) nailed down a win at the recent Blackstone Valley Open, played in Canton, MA. In besting 94 players, Medeiros took home yet another 147 MRP's, and zips among the leaders in the Eastern Region this cribbage year. Guy Spezzaferro, a rare Oklahoma ACC player, finished 2nd, followed by Grand Master Frank Corrado (CT) and Master Richard Andrew (NH) in the 3-4 slot.

Veteran Life Master Emil Chrabaszcz (MA) scored a nifty 22 10/12 +95 to take the Q action (45 MRP's).

Wayne Tyler (MA) came home the winner in the 42-player Consolation, edging Vickie Soule (ME) in the final playoff match. Louis Manter (ME) and Master Pat Frattallone (CT) finished 3-4. Life Master Zeke Veradt (MA) topped the field in the Q round, winning 7 of 8 with a skunk.

Director Shawn Jordan reported the cards were cold, as nary a 28 or 29-hand showed.

Health nuts are going to feel stupid someday, lying in hospitals dying of nothing!

Cy Madrone Wins Coast to Coast

Master Cy Madrone (CA) is normally playing his cribbage on the west coast, but he ventured east to play the Ken Vetterline Memorial, Portland, ME, on April 25. And play he did...he nailed down the win in the 82-player event, and can claim to be the only California player to win a sanctioned event in Maine. He nipped Kirk Hobbs (NH) in the final playoff match for the win. One-Star Bill Medeiros (MA) and Life Master Henry DeLong (MA) finished 3-4. Master Pat Llewellyn (MA) took Q honors with a nice 25 12 +133.

2002 Rookie of the Year David Campbell (ME) is still at it, qualifying tops in the 42-player Consolation, and finishing 2nd in the playoffs as well, as this Master pegger continues to pile up MRP's on a regular basis. But it was Jerry Hardy (ME), destined to be this year's Rookie of the Year, coming home the winner in the playoffs. Grand Master Lou Caccia (MA) and One-Star David Clemmey (MA) took home a 3-4 finish.

Director David Campbell reported satellite winners:

High Rollers: David Clemmey

Doubles: Al Dinwoodie & Michael D'Elena

28's: Roger Bouchard, Louise Streeter, Mary Lewis

Hiouchi High Rollers: Jerry Cutsforth

"Hiouchi" is a local indian name for blue waters (nearby Smith River), and it was clear sailing for Jerry Cutsforth, a local pegger from nearby Crescent City, CA. Cutsforth came home the winner in this unique mid-week event played at the Hiouchi RV Park on May 17-18. In besting the 33 peggers in the field, Cutsforth garnered 105 MRP's and bragging rights. Grand Master John Furler (OR) is in the battle for top ten honors, and his 2nd place finish gave him yet another 70 MRP's. Master Tim Hutsell (CA) and Grand Master Herschel Mack (CA) finished 3-4. An extremely low high Q score of 31 was tops, attesting to the veteran players in the field...and it was Master Jim Crawford taking home the top Q prize with that 31-card. (31 15/22+81).

Another low Q card took Consolation Q honors....Master Cy Madrone's 14 GP card was tops in this 24-player event. Kent LaRue also kept honors at home by winning this event. Grand Master Roland Hall finished 2nd, followed by Life Master Ron Morgan (CA) and Madrone in the 3-4 slot. Director Jason Shumate had this event publicized in the Crescent City Triplicate, complete with photos of serious peggers in action.

Shawn Smith Runs Table in Canada

It was Shawn Smith (AB) Day at Edmonton's St. Patrick's Day Classic. He not only took Q honors, but raced to the win in the playoffs as well. With 38 peggers in the field, Smith took home a whopping 140 MRP's for this fine run. His last victim was Rob Voysey (AB) as his cards remained hot, carrying him to the championship. Lewis Skidmore (AB) and Darren Saik (AB) finished 3-4.

Ron Saik (AB) took Q honors (17 7/9 +126) in the 18-player Consolation, but it was Terry Mandziuk (AB) winning the playoffs. Marion Buckley (AB) finished 2nd, with Anton Ficko (AB) and Ron Saik (AB) in the 3-4 bracket.

Director Dwayne Pankiw fielded a full array of satellites. The winners:

Early Bird: Kack Laycklama

Doubles: Marion Buckley & Loretta Saik

High Rollers: Doris Sanders

Saturday: Dwayne Pankiw

In an oddity, both Smith and Mandziuk have won two sanctioned events in a row. For Smith, two Main Events, and for Mandziuk this makes two Consolation wins in a row.

Langley Breaks Slump at California North Coast Classic

Jim Langley is a One-Star player who has won two national championships in resounding fashion, but this year the cards are cold as ice for Langley...until the California North Coast Classic played at Smith River, CA on May 14-16. He zipped to the win, breaking his slump, besting 65 players in the process. Dorothy Westerlund (OR) unofficially earned her Master with a 2nd place finish. Master Jim Crawford (CA), in the hunt for top ten honors, finished 3rd, with local Jerry Cutsforth in the 3-4 bracket as well. Bryant Gilkeson (NV) unofficially earned his Grand Master with a superlative 38 17/22 +260 Q card. Grand Master Sharon Hejzmanek (MT) zipped to the win in the 50-player Consolation. Life Master Jim Gogolin (OR) took home 2nd, followed by Dan Marsh (OR) and Four-Star DeLynn Colvert (MT) in the 3-4 slot. Sue Pisha (WA) took Q honors with a nice 20 GP card.

The Satellites:

Time Passer: Ruth Fraker; Friday: Glenn Scott;

Saturday: Paul Hatcher; Last Chance: Rollie Heath

Greg Ginocchio Repeats At Diamond Mountain

Greg Ginocchio, pegging out of Incline Village, NV has pulled off a cribbage rarity by winning the same event two years in a row. This time around it was the Diamond Mountain Peggery, played at Susanville, CA on May 21-23. With 96 players in the field, Ginocchio took home 147 MRP's, the winner's trophy, and $900+. Two-Star Jesse Jarrell (CA) came close to winning his 14th Main Event, but had to settle for 2nd this time around, adding 160 MRP's to his lofty 18,000+ lifetime tally. A. J. Tasker (NV) and Fred Bascom (CA) finished 3-4, and took home 70 MRP's each.

Grand Master John Furler (OR) had an unusual qualifying round, and very nearly won them all. He won 19 of 22, with no skunks. The three he lost were by 4, 6, and 8 points. Nevertheless, the 60+ MRP's earned keep his hat in the ring for top-ten honors this cribbage year.

Grand Master Sharon Hejtmanek (MT) has been rolling lately, picking up satellite wins (High Roller this event) and two Consolations. This time around she nailed the Consolation (54 players), edging One-Star Paul Hatcher (OR) in the final match. Rosalee Bradley (CA) and Heidi Glashan (CA) finished 3-4. Glashan is nearing her Life Master with this high finish. Deena Lowry (CA) posted a nice 17 8/9 +148 to take Q honors.

Director Peggy Scalley had a full array of satellites. The winners:

Time Passer: Al Fizer

Doubles: John Prehn & Bill Lewis

Saturday: Goldia Rager

High Rollers: Sharon Hejtmanek

Super Q: R. Logan, R. Hofbauer, C. Dunn (tie)

Team: P. Hatcher, D. Colvert, J. Jarrell, C. Fernandez

28: Jerry Schneider (also won longest distance award-WI)

Scalley and the Diamond Mountain Casino pulled out all stops to welcome the players. A great lunch was provided by the casino, in addition to pop all weekend, and Scalley's mountains of treats just kept coming, and coming, and coming. Players on a diet were sorely tempted all weekend. And her paybacks were outstanding as well. ACC members would be well advised to mark this event on their calendars as it is an outstanding event.

In Memoriam

Morris Schiffman

Portland, Oregon

Morris died in early April at the age of 85. He was a charter member of GR 28 (Portland). A great player and great sport, he had won the Tournament of Champions in Reno and the Montana Championship and had earned well over 3,000 MRP's pegging throughout the Northwest. The ACC has lost a great one.

Lucille Simpson

Niagara Falls, New York

Lucille died May 17 at the age of 75. She was a member of GR 5, and was a very competitive player who traveled coast to coast to play her favorite game. Her skill at the game was outstanding, having earned over 3,400 MRP's in her travels. She will be missed by her many pegging pals nationwide.

Bruce Thompson

Salem, Oregon

Bruce will be long-remembered as the peg maker from Salem, and his legacy will be the hundreds of players using his pegs in tournament play. Bruce was an outstanding craftsman, attested to by his pegs in play at every event. He died at the age of 84 on May 12.

Clarence Payne

Lakewood, Washington

Clarence passed away in late March after suffering poor health for some time. He was a member of the Lacey Peggery and he loved his favorite game. He will be missed by his many friends and peggerys.

Believe It Or Not!

In one of cribbage's most unusual happenings, this one takes the top prize.

Boyd McDonald (CA) held a 7-7-7-7, and cut the 8 of hearts. This huge hand confused Boyd a bit, and he pegged 24! He was corrected back to 20 by his opponent. Boyd's player to his right (Jim Crawford) watched the hand and the correction with interest. Crawford then picks up his hand, and, unbelievably, held a 7-7-7-7. The cut card? Yet another unbelievable happening! The 8 of hearts! Crawford's comment, "Boyd, now this is the correct way to count this hand!"

Darren Black Cops Hermiston

Grand Master Darren Black (OR), with the score at 2-2 in the final match, scored the fourth deuce when pegging on 2nd street in the deciding game and cruised to the win at the recent Hermiston (OR) Open. Four-Star DeLynn Colvert (MT), in the hunt for national honors, took the loss, but nevertheless has scored four 2nd place finishes lately to keep his hat in the ring in the MRP race. Life Master Bernie Nelson (OR) has been on a roll recently and continues his fine play with a 3rd place finish. And Master Jeanne Jelke (WA) also is winging along in fine style this cribbage year, finishing 4th in this 80-player match, and running her yearly tally to 900+. Armin Gade (WA) took Q honors with a 32 15/22 +163.

Grand Master Rex Paddock (MT) was hot in the 44-player Consolation Q-round, scoring a 17 8/9 +114, but when the cards were laid away in the playoffs it was local favorite Grand Master Ken Capper taking home the bacon. Larry Walton from nearby Boardman, OR took 2nd, followed by Grand Master John Furler (OR) and One-Star Paul Hatcher (OR) in the 3-4 slot. Both Furler and Hatcher have their sights set on a top ten finish this cribbage year.

First-time director Denny Edwards ran a first-class event, aided by spouse Gerry and Ken Capper. This group fielded a full array of satellites. The winners:

Time Passer: Elmer Day

High Roller: James Abbott

Doubles: Marion Buckley & Doris Sanders

Saturday: Zeb Atwood

Last Chance: Travis Newton

Team: P. Hatcher, D. Colvert, C. Morse, R. Hofbauer

Super Q: Darren Black

28's: Rollie Heath, Millie Moritzky, Ken Capper

A unique feature of this event saw raffle proceeds used to purchase 180 pounds of asparagus for the players. Hermiston is noted for its agriculture, and is the "watermelon capital" of the world! And in the last April weekend, a veteran crew of ACC peggers battled on even terms in Hermiston, attested by the low qualifying scores.

FOUR ACES

A large crowd played doubles at the Chinook Winds Open in Lincoln City the last weekend in April. Mike Ritthaler, Art Hertager, Richard Harris, and Peter Cameron all cut aces when cutting for the deal. That is a very rare event, indeed!

Roy Hofbauer Needs Glasses

Roy Hofbauer needs glasses! In calling out names for the playoff seating, he called "Jesse Jarrell" and "Norm Nikodym," "I don't see either one," he exclaimed. They were both right there waiting to play!

Cribbage...

Come Hell or High Water!

Arlene and Henry Carle were on their way home to Alaska after attending the Grand National in Sioux Falls, SD. 50 miles south of Chetwynd, British Columbia, they ran into two blasts of fierce winds. The 2nd blast blew their motor home into a 14' deep ditch, and it overturned, leaving the Carle's dangling from their seat belts. It took quite an effort to extract themselves from this predicament, and even more difficulties lay ahead. The first wrecker on the scene was too small to extract the motor home, and after some three days managed to get towed to Chetwynd. Alas, the motor home was declared a total loss.

Now followed a 25-hour bus ride to Whitehorse, followed by a 24-hour lay-over, and then another 17-hour bus ride to home base Anchorage.

Cribbage fever, catch it! You never know when you will be dangling from your seatbelt upside down!

Dot Mickow Guardian Angel

Just a note to let you know of a neat thing that has happened amongst our wonderful cribbage players.

Peggy Reed emailed me and asked to see if someone in the Portland area could spare a room or had an apartment to share for a month. Seems Harold, Peggy's husband had just received a kidney and needed to stay in the Portland area for the next month for followups.

I wrote a couple of individuals in the Portland area. Doug Jansen was one of them and because he put out the word, a Guardian Angel named Dot Mickow offered to help them out. Dot is such a wonderful person. She is always willing to give a hand where needed.

But it just goes to show how great an organization we belong to. A large extended family.

EDGE TV Update

The American Cribbage Congress is getting closer to having a contract drawn up that will allow EDGE TV to televise our upcoming ACC Opens in 2005 and 2006. One remaining sticking point is allowing players to have the right to NOT be shown on TV. The ACC hopes to have this point ironed out, as the TV exposure will certainly bring our game (and organization) to the attention of many new players nationwide.

Al Bailey Cops Capital City

With pegging action at a new location (Best Western Kelly Inn), the Capital City Open drew a crowd of 105 veteran peggers to this annual St. Paul, Minnesota event on May 8-9. This time around, Al Bailey (MN) came home the winner. This was his first-ever Main Event win and came complete with 147 MRP's, the winner's check, and bragging rights galore. His last match was no picnic, as he had the streaking Two-Star Duane Toll (WI) as his opponent. He prevailed for the win, but Toll added yet another 105 MRP's to his nation-leading MRP tally as this cribbage year hits the final two months. Lori Johnson (MN) and Jerome Tork (WI) took home 3-4. Daryl Halopka (WI) had the hot hand in the qualifying round, scoring the top card...a 36 17/22 +230 (and 50 MRP's).

The Consolation played to 56 peggers, and it was nearly the Lyle Lund (MN) show. This Master pegger took the Q action (17 8/9 +109) and finished 2nd in the playoffs. But Don Ernst (MN) held off the streaking Lund in the final playoff match and picked up the championship. Life Master Syl Lulinski (IL) and Two-Star Warren Sondericker (WI) finished in the 3-4 bracket.

Director Todd Schaefer was very happy with his new location and reported his usual satellites. The winners:

Friday: John Syftestad 19 8/9 +125

Saturday: Doug Henderson 19 8/9 +122

All Events: Bob Chase

Schaefer reported that Bob Chase cashed in all four events, and that Don Ernst also picked up his first sanctioned win. And in an oddity, no 28 or 29-hands showed.

Annett Eiffert Gets Tax Relief

Grand Master Annett Eiffert (CA), may, or may not, get tax relief in 2004, but she came home the winner at the recent 4th Annual Tax Relief Open, played at Alamo, CA. With 102 veteran peggers in the crowd, Eiffert took home 147 MRP's and the winner's purse (tax deductible?). Master Tony Montooth took 2nd, followed by Life Master Helen Bolstad (CA) and Jim Aleschus (CA) in the 3-4 bracket. Bolstad was also the meet's top Q player (26 12/16 +83), and took home an aggregate 105 MRP's.

Mike Leonard (CA) very nearly ran the table in the 56-player Consolation, taking qualifying honors (17 7/9 +189) and finishing 2nd in the playoffs. Charlie Dunn (CA) took home the bacon in the playoffs. Newly-crowned Life Master Roy Banducci (CA) finished in the 3-4 bracket with Grand Master Heidi Glashan (CA).

Veteran Two-Star Bob Julian (WI) scored a 29-hand to add to his many laurels, the ACC's 20th this cribbage year...and $100 for his airline fares. Dale Adam (CA) and Roland Hall (CA) scored 28-hands. Director Mary Herrmann conducted yet another first-class event in central California.

Susan Edwards Salt Water Cribbage Player

Susan Edwards, a Master pegger from Denver, CO, had never won a sanctioned ACC event...until the recent Mexican Riviera Cruise. This cruise sported a Pacific Coast Open (outward bound) and a Homeward Bound event on the return trip. Not only did Edwards win the first event (58 players), but tacked on the win coming home as well. This outstanding run netted Edwards well over 200 MRP's and she vaults to well over 500 MRP's for this year's action. Patty Echard (NV) is a veteran cruise player and she nailed down 2nd, followed by Beverly DeWitt (CA) and Larry Reed (CA) in the 3-4 slot. Reed was the meet's top Q player as well (30 13/18 +148).

William "Bill" McMillan (WY) won the 58-player Consolation, besting director Roy Cook (CA) in the final playoff match. Grand Master Mike McDaniel (OR) and Richard "Mac" McNeil (OR) took home 3-4. Beverly Castillo (CA) zipped to a grand slam 20 9/9 +170 to easily take Q honors.

The Homeward Bound event played to 60 players, and it was Sue Edwards once again taking home the championship. Roy Cook took home 2nd, after taking the Q action (22 10/12 +183). Beverly Castillo and Roy Berman (CA) finished 3-4.

The satellites:
Team: DuPuis, Davis, Smeltz, Widdowson
All Events: Beverly Castillo (62)
Time Passer: George Hardardt
High Roller: Darlene Carr
Doubles: Bongard & Fedde
Captains: Ken Heid
28's: Mike McDaniel, Ken Heid

Directors Roy Cook and Shelly Berman were pleased with a record-breaking cribbage crowd, and many first-ever cruise players were overheard saying "When is the next one?" And, of course, Sue Edwards with her double win earned a free cruise, plus!

New Rule Books:

The new ACC rulebooks will be coming out this summer. Please you poll your club members to see who wants a new rulebook and send in one combined order. This will save a lot in postage. An order of 20 rulebooks would cost $12 to send individually, but a combined order will only cost $1.84 to send via book rates. Orders of 70 rulebooks would cost $42 to send individually and less than $4 to ship via book rate.

For the first 6 months, the cost is $1 each. When the rulebooks arrive, they will be shipped to you and you will receive an email invoice with instructions for payment.

If you want the books to be shipped to someone else, let me know who should receive the shipment. Shipments must be sent to an ACC member and will be sent to the address on his/her official records.

Please note: Members who sent applications that were received after the first of the year and included an order for a rulebook will receive a new rulebook at no costs. A list of names will be sent to you and that amount will be deducted from your costs.

Please let me know how many members of your club want rulebooks even if you have previously notified me of your order.

Emails Working For Renewals

Membership Chairman Larry Hassett is compiling a data base of our members that have email service. He recently emailed 66 members, and had 16 rejected (bad addresses). He deleted those 16, but now has 50 good addresses.

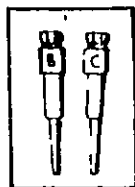

If you have current email capability, notify Hassett to add your name to his data base (Membership@Cribbage.org). If you do not use email you will receive the normal postcard notices.

Emailing will reduce the Congress's postage bill, and will be more efficient.

Dead Snake, Monoxide, and Father-Son Playoffs

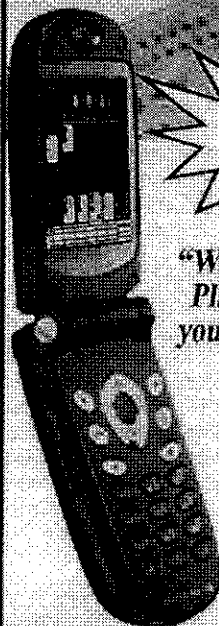

Bad news: Barl, Warren's red-tailed boaconstrictor, died suddenly a couple of weeks ago. He was buried with full military honors in a twelve-footlength of 6-inch PVC pipe—JUST KID-DING!!!! He was boxed and picked up by the City of Milwaukee Dep't of Public Works; Last, the Weird news: It was a dark and stormy night ...Potawatomi Peggers Pow-Wow plagued by power failure, as was much of Benton Harbor, MI. The hotel, bereft of lighting, acquired (2) portable generators to illuminate the basement playing area as well as some first-floor hallways and the lobby. By Game #3, the playing room had to be evacuated because of the (presumptive) accumulation of carbon monoxide. Some players had to be assisted to the parking lot, where everyone took in some fresh air while the swimming pool area was readied for the continuation of qualifying round play. Although many persons were not at their best after the relocation of the tournament, everyone was able to complete Saturday's play. All players owe a debt to Warren Sondericker's realization of and investigation into the problem as well as Jeff Shimp's speedy yet calm evacuation of the playing area. Saturday Nite tourney had to be canceled due to darkness and lack of water pressure (i.e., restrooms): the area affected by the power failure included the Benton Harbor water plant. Electricity was restored Saturday night, about 30 hours after it was interrupted. Dave Aikens, a Michigan-der who assisted the ACC by setting up the galleys for the new Rule Book, won his first-ever sanctioned Main tournament by defeating Jeff Shimp. Keith Widener (NC) defeated Martha Fingleton in the Consolation Tournament. Keith, his wife Edith, and their son Zach (a very good crib player) picked an unusual weekend to check out late spring in southern Michigan. In addition to all the other "off the radar" occurrences of the weekend, an unusual pairing happened in both the Main and Consolation playoffs. In the Main tournament, Tom and Joe Edwards (Waukegan, IL—I THINK), father and son, met in the first round. Son Joe prevailed. In the Consolation playoffs, Keith and Zach Widener played off in round one. This time, age and experience trumped youth and enthusiasm, as father Keith went all the way to win the event. As usual, "Cookie Lady" Carol Draper had to fend off marriage proposals from both men AND women (who offered to take her to Massachusetts or San Francisco). The overwhelming good nature of the Cribbage players helped keep a less than perfect situation from becoming an unpleasant one. Kudos to Jeff Shimp for dealing masterfully (or is that "life-master-fully"?) with multiple meltdowns!

ACC Internet Cribbage

Double elimination is here

April 2004 saw the ACC's first Internet double elimination tournaments. Held on alternate Thursdays, these events can accommodate 96 players, divided into three mini-tournaments each with its own 32-player bracket. Donald E. Ellis (+ LoneStar__), one of our most experienced Internet TDs, directs these tournaments, which place extraordinary demands on the online host. Beginning in May, double elimination tournaments are moving to alternate Mondays. Come check them out, and allow a little extra time since you could play in as many as eleven best-of-three rounds if you win!

Counting the double elimination events, April saw fifteen different ACC Internet Cribbage tournaments, and for the second consecutive month, ACC members won every one of them! Mike Fetchel led the way with three victories, as well as a second place finish on April 1, propelling him to a top-rank 342 IRPs on the season. He also became the first member to win two consecutive ACC Internet tournaments, notching back-to-back events on the 10th and 12th. Scott Buhrow added a win to his two previous triumphs to stay in Second Place, while Kelly Ann Bugar and Tom Lewis battled it out for Third. The 2004 season will wrap up at the end of July, when we will crown our first Internet Cribbage Champion.

New Internet Statistician announced

Rick Allen was the ACC's first Internet Statistician. An accomplished database designer and tournament director, Rick developed the application used to track online tournament participation and IRPs. Now that this work is done, Rick has passed the reins to Donald E. Ellis, who will have primary responsibility for tracking IRPs going forward. You can read Don's biography and an article he wrote on tournament hosting at www.cribbage.org/internet, where you can view our tournament schedule and instructions for how to play. We thank Rick for his hard work getting ACC Internet Cribbage up and running.

Lewis Surges Into Lead

Tom Lewis had a great month of Internet cribbage, as his one win and three Third Place finishes in March moved him into the lead for the 2004 Internet Championship. Right behind Tom is Scott Buhrow, who won two separate events this month.

All eleven of our March tournaments were Pegging Pals single elimination events, featuring four-stake (best-of-three) playoff matches. To their credit, ACC members won every one of them. Well done, gang!

The March 13 tournament produced a notable Final Four comprised of Marie Harrington (ma_jobs) in First Place, Peggy A. Johnson (wy_gal) of Cheyenne, WY in Second Place, and Rosemary Daun (riverosel1) of Chilton, WI and two-time ACC Internet Cribbage winner Linda A. Partain (cheeky_parrot1) of Haverhill, MA, tying for Third Place. Yup, it was our first all-female Final Four. Throw in tournament director Erica Millman (+LadyRope_) for good measure and you'll have the conspiracy nuts chattering.

Another first occurred in the March 15 tournament when Donna J. Elmer (OMNI_CHICK) came away the winner. Her husband John Elmer won one of our single elimination events back on January 22, and so the Elmers appear to be our first husband-and-wife winners.

Timothy Julkowski (Tim_Oregon2854) took First Place in the March 27 event, followed by two Canadians: Kelly-Ann Bugar (lil_thummp) of Edmonton, AB in Second Place and Donald Olney (olney_1147) of Carievale, SA in Third Place. In case you're wondering, SA is Saskatchewan, where Olney holds the groundbreaking ACC member number of SA3! Even if there are no fellow ACC peggers in your neighborhood, you can still enjoy fellowship online.

Come to www.cribbage.org/internet for complete tournament news and instructions on how to participate.

Grass Roots National Tournament

The 2004 GRNT is complete! A BIG pat on the back is in order for the volunteers who put these results together. Thank you to all of the Club Directors and Statisticians, who worked so hard to run the tournaments, collect the entry fees, compile and proof the results and mail in all the pertinent data.

Our new GRNT Director is Mike Ardelean of Club 295 in Rochester Hills, MI. There were 1,843 official players from the 140 Grass Roots clubs participating. (Same as last year!) There were also 123 unofficial players and one Junior Member. Michael compiled, proofed, corrected, paid, mailed results and in general spent many volunteer hours to make the GRNT a success. After Michael completed his tasks, Kristy Haught who is our National Statistician also spent many hours proofing and downloading the results. The last day our clubs were allowed to play their GRNT was April 30th. Michael and Kristy finalized the numbers and Michael had the results and checks in the mail prior to the end of May. All those records and so much work yet they still managed to provide us with the results in less than 30 days. A great job by two very hard workers!

2004 Results

The GRNT top player this year was Lloyd Stinson (WA 1265) playing out of Club 243 in Tacoma, WA. Lloyd had a very nice 36/15/+286 scorecard, which included six skunks! This was a good season for Lloyd. He earned 207 Grass Roots points, which qualified him for his Bronze Award. (This was the number prior to the GRNT points being posted too!) Good job Lloyd!

Pat Kufahl (WI 251) a member of Club 120 in Wisconsin Rapids, WI placed second with a 35/16/+308 scorecard, which included a Grand Slam. Well-done Pat!

Lloyd had six skunks and Pat had three skunks and that is what made the difference between first and second place. Both Lloyd and Pat had scorecards that resulted in a fine GRNT that would make anyone proud!

Richard Shreve (CA 4096) from Club 140 in Sonora, CA scored a Grand Slam in his first nine games and then became sick and was not able to play the second nine. Talk about tough luck! Richard could very well have been among the leaders if he had been able to play the full eighteen games.

This is the second year in a row that someone from Washington has topped the GRNT standings. I'll bet all those cribbage classes that RAS is giving had something to do with that!

Due to space limitations, only scorecards of 30 and above are listed in this column. Please see your Club Director for the complete standings of the 1,843 official participants.

Chehalis-Centralia Cribbage Club
Grass Roots Tournament # 31 - 4/15/04 Twenty-three folks showed their dedication to organized crib and had a fun time at the Chehalis-Centralia Cribbage Club this past week. It was particularly nice to welcome Jimmy & Jan Lord back from their Arizona wintertime abode. Both did quite well winning 6 of 9 games played. Pier Road is smiling! Dutterow George Stanton waltzed in and took a seat. George knows we have a special place in our hearts for him. Who were the big winners? Ron Willadsen of Tumwater posted another great win this past week with 16/7/135. That's his 2nd win of the season as he scored 16/7/101 back on November 13, 2003. Ron spent most of the season in Arizona along with a bunch of snowbirds. First prize money was $45 and these rating points gave Ron 89 for the season. And he's only played 12 of 31 sessions, with a batting average this season of .611. That's the third highest in the club. He has been a heavy hitter for sure. In some venues, that batting average would result in a record breaking signing bonus. We're glad that you're part of this group. Right on, Ron! If you're going to be in the area from August 17-22, visit us at the Southwest Washington Fair between Chehalis and Centralia. Our club will be promoting organized cribbage and the value of competing with others nationally, regionally, and while playing at home. We can probably fit in a game of crib. We'll have all the equipment at hand. Our booth will be in the center aisle under the Grandstand.

Club 246, The Lacy Peggys in Lacy, WA had some outstanding months. It started off with Dave Meisner getting a 29 hand in January 2004. In the last five weeks, the club had five 28 hands! Dick Albedyll, Rosemary Hendricks two 28s - (two weeks in a row), Alan Park and David Warner. During those same five weeks, they had four straight flushes: Alan Park, Lloyd Stinson, Rick Westerman, & Marilyn Louderback. Hmmmm, they should have saved those straight flushes for poker night!

New from GR 43 in Fremont, CA Club 43 has a high hand pot weekly. It is divided equally with a number of high hands for that week. GR 43 club member Al Placktis was won the whole high hand pot 3 out of the last 5 weeks. The first week he won with a 28 hand. The following week he won with the only 24. On the 3rd week entering the 9th game, he again had the only 24 hand for the night, when playing fellow club member Ben Holder, when they entered 3rd street, it looked as if he might again take the whole pot with the only 24, when Ben posted a 24, then on 4th street, Ben again posted another 24 to win the game by 10 holes. With a small side bet on this game, Ben reached into Al's pocket (figuratively) and took out $48.00. Then the following week he was left out in the cold without one of the hands, but the back breaker came the fifth week when not a 24 showed all night, and Al posted the only 22 hand. All fellow members of GR 43, hope is reign will end soon.

Duane Toll Zips To MRP Lead

Two-Star Duane Toll (WI) continues to blister the boards this cribbage year, and has zipped to the 1,800 mark and leads the pack as cribbagedland heads into the final two months of play. Toll is moving to Oregon, and will continue his quest for honors pegging in the Western Region. Four-Star DeLynn Colvert (MT) and Life Master Roland Hall (CA) are doggedly picking up points as they give chase to Toll's outstanding numbers. Both Colvert and Hall are at the 1,700 mark. Life Master Sharlene Medeiros (MA) has her sights set on a national championship as well, and has pegged in record-fashion this spring, standing at 1,500+ with but two month's play remaining.

After the top four, a bevy of players are making a run for the roses. They are: Life Master Ron Morgan (CA) (1,200), Two-Star Harry Palmer (MA) (1,200), Life Master Rob Medeiros (MA) (1,100), Grand Master Cres Fernandez (CA) (1,100), Master Jim Crawford (CA) (1,100), Master Jeanne Jelke (WA) (1,000), One-Star Paul Hatcher (OR) (1,000), Grand Master John Furler (OR) (1,000), and Master Tony Danihel (WI) (1,000).

A score or more players are in the 800-900 range and with a hot finishing kick, could crack the top-ten, and earn All-American team status.

Many large tournaments remain to be played, and with the season winding down on July 31, the pegging will be intense.

Visitors Bureau Service

Marlene Lazachek (WI) has discovered that contacting a local Visitors Bureau can save a tournament director a lot of time and effort to find a playing hall for an event. Lazachek did just that recently and she found a playing hall in no time at all, with help from this bureau.

Nancy Forte Wins Nifty Award

The recent Mexican Cribbage Cruise had a contest for the best slinky, sexy, stripper dancing routine. The winner? None other than Nancy Forte, Burbank, CA.
