AMERICAN CRIBBAGE CONGRESS

Hurricane Ivan; 15 English Players GN XXIII: Crawford

With Hurricane Ivan and a tough contingent of English players on hand, Grand National XXIII in Atlanta proved to be an event to remember. And it was for newly crowned Master Jim Crawford, pegging out of Mountain View, CA. Fresh from induction to the All-American team (2004: 1,373 MRP's) and receiving his Master award at the Awards Banquet, Crawford qualified high (322 players) and roared home the winner. He scored yet another 282 MRP's (aggregate), running his tally to an astounding 676 MRP's in six week's play this fledgling cribbage year. Floridian Lindsay Peever took home 2nd (and 196 MRP's). Two Grand Masters from Wisconsin finished in the 3-4 bracket... Tony Danihel and Jim Huser. In the qualifying round Paul Batterson (CT) was smoking, posting a great 41 17/22 +298 card (75 MRP's).

Some 216 peggers played the Consolation and it was Life Master Dwight Christiansen (CT) running the table, qualifying tops (19 8/9 +111) and winning the playoffs as well. Master Jim Lunder (FL) finished 2nd, followed by Four-Star DeLynn Colvert (MT) and A. J. Tasker (NV) in the 3-4 slot.

Directors Gene Bradshaw, David O'Neil and Bobby Stuart had a full slate of satellite events on tap, including some 15 English players (see story this issue). The satellites even included a duplicate match, a true test of cribbage skills.

The winners:

Sir John Suckling Special: Jerry Jaeger 18 9/9
Welcome Y'All: Michael Morgan 19 9/9
Scarlett O'Hara Special: Lowaine Pruett 20 9/9
Rhett Butler Special (duplicate): East: Charles Barnes; West: Jeff Raynes
Peaches and Cream Special: Virgil Dulin
High Rollers: Michael Morgan
Y'All Come Back: Mark Soule 15 7/7
28's: Martha Sanders, Charles Sladek, Frank Pacocha, Jack Allison, Robert Fitzgerald

This event sported many side pools. Among the winners in this action were: Charles Barnes, Bob Milk, Clay Collier, Martha Fingleton, Paul Batterson, Steve Angier, Dutch Gerhlich, Bob Joslin and others.

The Westin Hotel (and Atlanta) was battered by Hurricane Ivan on Thursday when many players were schedule to land at the nearby airport. Many cancellations and delays were the subject of conversations relating their delays and rough flying conditions. Those who were determined to get to Atlanta were mostly successful, although some were delayed a full day. Of course, this is the Grand National curse at work once again, as many GN's have experienced unusual problems as well.

The Awards banquet was well-attended, and awards galore were handed out for successful 2004 play. Two-Star Duane Toll (OR) was the star of the show, having scored a record 2,473 MRP's during the past season. On to GN XXIV in Lincoln City, OR next September!

Sir John Suckling Special: 5-card Game Featuring English Players Vs. Yanks

On Thursday night at 7 PM in Atlanta some 116 players, including 15 from Salisbury, England sat down to a unique game of cribbage. The game consists of five cards dealt, discarding two to the crib, and pegging with the remaining three cards. The count in pegging goes up to and including 31 one time only. This game is played in England, and, of course, the 15 English players were heavy favorites. However, the Yanks held their own, holding the English squad to four winners. The best performance was Adrian Parslow's 2nd place finish. Ian Turner finished high, as did Rose Gaulton and Jane Arnott.

Cribbage World interviewed Jane Arnott. She related the entire 15 players were from Salisbury where cribbage is played by 36 teams, 6 to a team in their area in home and away matches. They play every Monday and have three leagues. Arnott said that in her entire life she had not been more than 100 miles from her birthplace...and the trip to Atlanta was a great joy for her! In fact, all 15 Englishmen were on hand at the Awards Banquet, and they certainly seemed to enjoy themselves. Director O'Neil gave each a custom cribbage board to take home as a memento of the event. O'Neil has a return match scheduled April 27-May 2, 2005. See flyer, this issue.

GN XXIII Kudos

We would like to thank all of the ACC cribbage players and our guests from England who attended the Grand National XXIII cribbage tournament in Atlanta on September 16 - 19. While the weather didn't cooperate as we would have liked which caused some players to miss part or all of the tournament, those who braved the elements were able to participate in up to 9 different tournaments.

Our English guests were impressed with the caliber and intensity of play on the part of their American cribbage cousins. (They took home more than a few Yankee dollars for their efforts!) They expressed hope that a large contingent of American players would travel to Salisbury, England next April so they can show us a good time at the pegging boards. The dates are April 25 through May 2, 2005. Watch for an announcement of the details soon.

A special thank you is extended to all of those who pitched in and helped when we needed it most. Without you we would not have been able to 'keep the show on the road!' Many thanks!

Dwight Christiansen Wins New England Peer

Life Master Dwight Christiansen (CT) rolled to the win at the recent New England Peer event, played at Auburn, MA on August 20-22. With a whopping 142 players in the field, Christiansen came home with yet another 196 MRP's to add to his lofty lifetime totals. Stanley Bochinski (NY) took home 2nd (and 147 MRP's), followed by Mark Soule (ME) and Richard Schurkus (NY) in the 3-4 slot. Schurkus was also the meet's top qualifier, scoring a very nice 39 17/22 +269.

Mike Fetchel (CT) won the 44-player Consolation, edging Nelson Bakken (CT) in the final playoff match. Connie Harmacey (CT) and Grand Master Earle Remington (RI) finished 3-4. Harmacey also took Q honors with a great 19 9/10 +154.

Director John Chambers conducted Friday and Saturday night games. The winners:

Friday: Larry Phifer

Saturday Doubles: Phyllis Aronoff & Donna LaFleur

29: Ronald Foley

28's: Wilma MacDonald, Bruce Brown

Ronald Foley (MA) scored the ACC's 2nd sanctioned 29-hand this cribbage season, and earns $100 from the ACC for this gem

This event is unique as players are matched in the qualifying round vs. players who have earned approximately the same number of Master Points (lifetime). This event has been "grandfathered" by the ACC as a trial, and Chambers continues to draw sizeable crowds, attesting to favorable approval of this system.

Donations Needed

Director Rollie Heath is asking our ACC members who plan on attending the Oregon Cost Classic at Chinook Winds Casino, Lincoln City, OR to bring prizes for the 24-hand table. Heath says he has cleaned out his house and needs your help.

Also, any cash donations for 28 and 29-hands will not be turned down. This event is one of the best in the Northwest, and with your help, will continue to be just that!

Waldorf Endures Weird Day

Jim Waldorf (OR), pegging at the Oregon Trails event, had a weird qualifying round. He began with a bang, winning 11 of 13 with 4 skunks. He then lost 9 in a row, and posted a 27 GP card. Did that make it? Yes, the only 27 card to qualify!

Rick Shea Cops 7th Humboldt Bay

Rick Shea came north a few miles and nailed down the win at the recent 7th Annual Humboldt Bay Classic, played at Arcata, CA on August 6-8. With 82 players in the field, Shea took home 147 MRP's for the win and bragging rights. Local Ruth Fraker finished 2nd, followed by two Crescent City, CA players in the 3-4 slot: Jerry Cutsforth and Len Goodman. Marilyn Brown (CA) scored a superlative 40 17/22 +266 to easily take Q honors.

46 players played the Consolation and it was Bette Cawthon (CA) taking home the top prize, with Bob Bartosh (CA) finishing 2nd. Master Jim Jackson (OR) and Jean Wagoner (CA) finished 3-4. Billy Barnes (CA) scored the top Q card...a 16 7/9 +125.

Herschel and Rickie Mack reported a full slate of satellites. The winners:

Early Bird: Bryant Gilkeson

Doubles: Lou Roso & Wheelock Oliver

High Rollers: Tim Hutsell

Saturday: Lonnie Songy

All-Events: Les Sumner

The doubles event saw a 10 5/9 card cash, and Ruth Fraker had a string of pearls on Saturday night, but came back strong on Sunday to take 2nd place. The qualifying round of the main event saw three 28-cards not make the playoffs. The Mack's run a first-class event, complete with trophies for the top winners.

Cowboy Country: Roger Widdowson

Cheyenne, Wyoming is indeed "cowboy country" and their cribbage match is aptly named. Roger Widdowson (CO) nailed down the win at this 68-player event, nipping Jim Brintnall (CO) in the final playoff match. Keith Oliver (CO) and Ron Bellomy (CO) finished 3-4. Dwight Van Cleve (CO) scored a great 38 17/22 +308 to easily take Q honors.

Tom Terbovich (CO) won the 42-player Consolation, with Randy Malloy (CO) taking 2nd. Master Sue Edwards (CO) and Ray Kranz (NM) took home 3-4. Local Ian Travers took Q honors with a 17 7/9 +147 card.

Director Charlie Douthit reported satellite events. The winners:

Friday: Bob Lewis

Saturday: Les Johnson

All-Events: Bruce Berner

Morgan, Moritzky Hot In Sunnyside

A mid-week double header at Sunnyside and Toppenish, WA saw three streaking peggers at it again. In the mid-week affair at Sunnyside, Life Master Ron Morgan (CA) qualified tops and came home the winner as well, scoring an aggregate 145 MRP's to zip out the gate in the early going this cribbage year. Bryan Bordenick (WA) took 2nd, followed by two hot peggers, Life Master Jack Moritzky (WA) and Grand Master Willie Evans (WA) in the 3-4 slot.

Newly-crowned Life Master Sharon Hejzmanek (MT) very nearly ran the table in the 28-player Consolation. She qualified tops 17 7/9 +139 and zipped to 2nd place in the playoffs. But Louis Sevigny (WA) took home the bacon in the playoffs. Two travelling mates, Life Master Rollie Heath (OR) and One-Star Paul Hatcher (OR) finished 3-4.

Director Bob Brumley reported the satellites:
Tuesday: Rollie Heath
Team: Sue Pisha, Dot Mickow, Lowaine Pruett
Super Q: Jack Moritzky

Evans, Moritzky Nail Legends

Grand Master Willie Evans (WA) and Life Master Jack Moritzky (WA) continued burning up the track at the week-end event (Legends Summer Classic). Evans scored the top Q card (37 17/22 +196), and Moritzky took home the playoff win. Director James Morrow finished 2nd, followed by Grand Master Jim Hartung (WA) and Life Master Roland Hall (CA) in the 3-4 position.

It was the Jim Hornbacher show in the 50-player Consolation as this veteran Life Master took Q honors (17 8/9 +151) and roared home the winner in the playoffs as well. Bruce Pomeroy (ID) took 2nd, followed by Walt Swearingen (WA) and Life Master Ken Cochlin (WA) in the 3-4 slot.

Director James Morrow reported the satellites:
Early Bird: Jack Moritzky
Doubles: Lowaine Pruett & Sue Pisha
High Rollers: Dan Marsh
Saturday: Janet Riggs
Team: Hartung, Evans, Swearingen, Henderson
Super Q: Jack Moritzky

Bill Medeiros Nails Daniel Webster

After honoring the Eastern Region All-Stars, 114 peggers got down to business at the 4th annual Daniel Webster Open in Nashua, NH. When all was said and done, it was One-Star Bill Medeiros (MA) squeaking out a hard-earned win over John Campanella (MA) and picking up 147 MRP's. Louis Streeter (NH) and John Brennan (MA) finished 3-4. Top qualifier honors (21 10/12 +143) went to Life Master John Chambers (RI).

In the 64-player Consolation, Life Master Henry DeLong (MA) was sizzling with a 16 GP 7/8 +100 top qualifying card, but it was newly-crowned Master Davis Statz (NH) winning it all. Statz beat Life Master Donna LaFleur (CT) in the finals and earned 60 MRP's. Lynn Babbitt (RI) and Life Master Frank Corrado (CT) finished 3-4.

Fred Pierce (ME) scored the only 28-hand. Barbara Barbour (CT) unofficially earned her Master rating. Directors Henry and Paula Bergeron would like to thank everyone who helped out, and also thank Joan Fletcher and John Chambers for their contributions of pegs and books.

Everyone is reminded that a new Grass Roots club has been formed in the Nashua area for players in southern NH/northern MA. More information is available at the ACC website.

Joy Shimp Tops Cereal City

Joy Shimp (MI) is on a roll as she took home the bacon for the 2nd time this cribbage year. This time around she nailed the Cereal City Championship in battle Creek, MI. Grand Master Tony Danihel (WI) took 2nd in this 60-player event, followed by David Aiken (MI) and David Gerke (MI) in 3-4. Ruthie Tiesma (MI) took Q honors with a nice 36 16/22 +185.

Brenda Carson (MI) won the 34-player Consolation, nipping Tom Edwards (IL) in the final playoff match. Brent Cooper (ON) and Life Master John Hiland (WI) finished 3-4. Edwards was also the event's top Q player, scoring a 16 7/9 +114.

Director David Gerke reported the satellites:
Friday: Bob McCabe
Saturday: Betty Scott
28: Sue Schenk (Consolation)

A snail can sleep for three years.
That's nothing, my cribbage opponent can too! Ed.

Andy Laventure Rolling In Virginia

Andy Laventure, Springfield, VA, was on a roll at the 57-player Richmond Classic in mid-August. Enroute to qualifying 3rd, he held 5-5-5-5 and cut a Jack for the easy-way 28-hand (and 30 if he was dealing). He continued on with this run and finished first in the playoffs, edging high-qualifier (36 17/22 +224) Andy Hulcher (VA) in the 7th game. Laventure picked up 130 MRP's for this run and Hulcher garnered an aggregate 120. Robin Emery (VA) and Bob DeAngelo (VA) finished 3-4 (and 42 MRP's each). Emery is not an ACC member, but her 2nd place qualifying round and third place finish will undoubtedly make her a member in the near future.

In the Consolation, Dave Yaeger (MO) swept Two-Star Phyllis Schmidt (MA) in the final match after qualifying 2nd. Grand Master Cathy Perkins (NC) and Andy Geroux (NC) finished 3-4. Perkins also scored an impressive 189/10 +156 to easily card the top Q score in this 41-player event.

11-year old Zach Widener had a great weekend, qualifying 14th and finishing 9th in the Main Event, and had a 5th place finish in the Saturday Night Special. On Sunday he volunteered registering the Last Chance event, and finished 3rd in the event as well. His father is Keith Widener...and it appears he has done a great teaching job.

Directors Janet Meinert and Rick Allen reported the satellite winners:
Friday Early Bird: Keith Widener 14 6/7
Saturday: Willie Evans 17 8/9
Last Chance: Ed Reinhold 13 6/7
28: Andy Laventure

Meinert and Allen plan to host the Virginia Championship on January 7-9, 2005. Mark your calendars.

John Swett New Judge

Jason Shumate Cops Martens & McLeod

In 1999 Master Jason Shumate (CA) became the youngest ACC member to earn All-American honors...and he continues his fine play by winning the Martens & McLeod Open, Willows, CA on August 1. With 66 players on board, Shumate took home yet another 147 MRP's...and bragging rights galore. Shumate nailed another ex-All American (1995) in the final playoff match...Life Master Steve Reynolds (CA). John Prehn (CA) and 2004 All-American Jim Crawford (CA) took home a 3-4 finish. Life Master Helen Bolstad carded the top Q score, a nifty 33 15/21 +162.

Rod Foy (CA) took the 44-player Consolation, edging Grand Master Ira Deutsch (CA) in the final playoff match. Mike McCammon (NV) and Gary Brown (CA) took home a 3-4 finish. Marilyn Brown (CA) won 8 of 9 to easily take the Q prize.

Director Bill Wakeman reports the satellite winners:
Friday: Bernie Nelson
Saturday: Don Dolezal
All Events: Helen Bolstad
28's: LaDonna Govenor, John Prehn, Steve Reynolds, Diane Leal (Sat. night)
$10 23-hand: Patty Echard (2), Les Sumner

Wakeman reports that Prehn's 28-hand occurred at the same moment that Reynold's turned the 28-hand trick.

Roy Wong Hot In Hawaii

Roy Wong (HI) was top qualifier and roared home the winner in the playoffs as well in the recent 17-player July edition of the Hawaii Open. Mary Jane Esera (HI) took 2nd. No 28's or 29's were reported by director Tsarkie.

Players Suspended

Gary Ellingson (WA) and Ken Heid (CA) have been suspended from ACC play beginning September 1, 2004 for a period of six months.

Grass Roots Update

I have 3 clubs (120, 191, 202) that had year-end points calculated without all the tournaments being included. I am sending Larry a spreadsheet with the additional points.

I am not sure when we would have found this — but, Don Smith of 191 contacted me to let me know that we had erroneously named him as 191 club champion. He told me that the club champion was Wayne Lemke instead. Upon investigating, I found the problem with tournaments that had not been included. These tournaments had players that had never joined the ACC — therefore they couldn't be posted. Normally, they would get changed to guests — but, these just got overlooked. In addition to changing the club 191 champion, there were several additional 10%ers. They are Arlene Barrett (WI00576), Jack Barrett (WI00481), David Suhr (ID00103), and Zeb Atwood (ID00293). There were no additional bronzes or silvers.

in Memoriam

Mike Leonard

Castro Valley, California

Mike Leonard, Director of Clendennings Clan (GR43), passed away at home on August 26 after a very brief battle with cancer. At the Shut Up and Deal Tournament on the 22nd of August Mike spoke a few words that will remain in our memory - his short statement - "I hope someday to meet all once again to play another tournament of cribbage". All who knew and loved him will sorely miss Mike and we in GR43 mourn his passing and believe we will meet up once more in time with our boards and pegs and be ready for a few more games.

Mark Liebermann

Yountville, California

Mark passed away on August 7. He loved to play cards, especially cribbage and poker. He was a long-time member of GR 100 (Yountville) and participated almost every Tuesday night. He earned his GR Bronze award last year and proudly wore his GR jacket at every opportunity. He will be sorely missed.

James Laird

Laguna Woods, California

Jim recently died after a battle with cancer. He was one of the original members of GR 227 in Laguna Woods. He loved his game, and was a great sportsman. He will be missed by his many friends and peggers.

James W. Porter

Burbank, California

Jim recently moved to Burbank from Tacoma, WA and had joined GR 257 in Burbank. Jim was a beginner at cribbage but played with gusto, as he was always looking for a new challenge. In his younger days he was an avid bicyclist and pedaled across the United States twice! A tough battle with cancer claimed his life. His many new friends (and old ones) are saddened by his passing.

Bull Riders

Did you know that at least four ACC members rode bulls at rodeos in their younger days? They are: Roy Hofbauer, Jim Waldorf, Harvey Honeycutt and Don Smith...all Northwest peggers!

Alaska Cribbage:

Ken Mitchell, Judi Piepgras

Two events were recently played in Alaska. In Skagway, it was Judi Piepgras (AK) coming home the winner in a 24-player match. Art Baker (AK) finished 2nd. In Anchorage it was Ken Mitchell (AK) taking the win in a 31-player match, with Willie Bragg taking 2nd.

Jack Moritzky Hot At Last Chance Gulch

Life Master Jack Moritzky (WA) has blasted out the gate this cribbage year, and has won three main events in the early going. At Helena's (MT) Capital City Classic in early September, Moritzky won going away, besting the 60 players in attendance. Another pegger on a roll is All-American Ron Morgan (CA) and he took 2nd this time around. Wayne Wyman (MT) finished in the 3-4 bracket with yet another streaking pegger....Grand Master Jack Shumate III. Canadian Harold Buckley (Grand Master) had the top Q card, a 35 GP gem.

Veteran Grand Master Rex Paddock (MT) bested Jack Perkins in the final playoff match to cop the 38-player Consolation. Local Kathy Thompson and Bruce Denend (WA) finished 3-4. Kathy Atwood (ID) scored 16 GP's to take Q honors.

Directors Brian Arnold, Kathy Thompson, and Walt Conell featured a full array of satellite events. The winners:

Early Bird: Bruce Denend

Doubles: Marion Buckley & Bud Kessler

Saturday: Rex Paddock

28's: June Pafford, Carole Herron

This event featured an astounding 53 sponsors, with a raffle and 24-hand table well-stocked with merchandise. For the best little tournament in the West, this has to be a must on your tournament trail's itinerary.

Wanted:

Cribbage Boards For Youth Program

Throughout the year many requests for cribbage boards and pegs from eager teachers all over the country wanting to start youth cribbage programs are received by Dan Zeisler, Youth Program Director. This program needs boards and pegs. If you can donate a board(s), send them to:

Dan Zeisler

ACC Youth Program Director

18975 Chickadee Court, Penn Valley, CA 95946
Dan usually shows at the Reno events. Bring your donated boards to Reno to save the freight expense. Ed.

Jason Shumate Cops Winnemucca

Jason Shumate, pegging out of Crescent City, CA is on a roll this cribbage year. This Master pegger nailed down a win at the huge (176) Winnemucca (NV) Fall Classic, besting One-Star Ras Rasmussen (WA) in the final playoff match. Shumate is nearing his Grand Master with the win. Another One-Star player on a roll is Paul Hatcher (OR) and he finished 3-4 with a Life Master from Hermiston, OR...Bill Hill. In an oddity, Jason's father, Jack Shumate III, was the meet's top Q player with a nifty 39 GP card (65 MRP's).

It was the Winona Johnson Consolation match as this Oregon pegger not only topped the qualifiers (18 8/9 +127) but zipped to the win in the playoffs as well in this 112-player event. Life Master Roy Banducci (CA) finished 2nd and could not halt Johnson's run. Life Master Helen Bolstad (CA) and Dorothy Maximov (CA) finished 3-4.

Director Heidi Glashan fielded a bevy of satellites. The winners:
Early Bird: Bill Kaufman
High Roller: DeLynn Colvert
Doubles: Clarence Van Orsow & Verne Nielsen
All-Events: Sharon Hejtmanek
Team: R. Rasmussen, S. Hejtmanek, C. McComas, J. Crawford, W. Evans
Super Q: Ras Rasmussen

This event is sponsored by the Winner's Casino, and they rolled out the red carpet for the players, furnishing reasonably priced rooms, and donuts and coffee galore. New manager Sharyl Dodson got her "cribbage feet" right on line, and with Glashan and crew's help, ran a first-class event. A record 176-player crowd attests to this event's popularity with our nation's peggers.

Quiz:

Virginia Abbe lives in Adel, Oregon and this bustling community has 70 residents. Virginia is up and at 'em every weekday at 7:10 AM beginning her workday. And just what does her job entail in this small community?

A: She is the school bus driver. She transports 13 students on a 17-mile trip to school everyday. In the evenings, she has time on her hands for some competitive pegging, and is seen on the tournament trail as well.

Joy Shimp Wins Again Madison Masters Sports 109

Joy Shimp (MI) came to play at the recent Madison Masters. She nailed down the win (109 players), besting Life Master John Hiland (WI) in the final playoff match. Shimp earned 147 MRP's for the win, and Hiland took home yet another 105 MRP's for 2nd. Grand Master Don Patrin (MN) and Life Master Al Schaefer (WI) finished 3-4 (and 70 MRP's each). Richard Lange (WI) had the hot hand in the qualifying round, scoring a nifty 37 17/22 +213 (55 MRP's).

The Consolation saw 72 players in action and it was Grand Master Jerry Fischer (WI) taking home the marbles. Ed Emmer (WI) took 2nd, followed by Two-Star Bob Julian (WI) and Master Nicky Kniech (WI) in the 3-4 slot. Master Lyle Lund (MN), the back-to-back 29-hand player in Green Bay, had the top Q score...a nice 16 8/9 +87.

Director Adelian Adams reported the satellite events. The winners:
Friday: Larry Angiers
Saturday: George Verbeski
Last Chance: Jerome Tork
28's: Al Lindner, Al Podevels, Sharon Mras, Tom Clements, Anne Matti, Don Tofte

In an oddity, Joy Shimp had the hot hand, while hubby Jeff was cold as ice. He even got skunked five times in the Last Chance. Such is cribbage!

Mike Burns Re-Cap

Mike Burns (MN) won the TOC in Reno last February, and he used this title in St. Cloud, MN to drum up cribbage games for charity (food bank). He played 30 players for $10, $25, or $50, playing three games at a time (two women helped with the pegging). Burns reports that some $300 was raised in 2 1/2 hours. Now the homeless in St. Cloud, when eating a free meal, are chanting, "Thank you, cribbage, thank you!"

Sharp-Eyed Jay Sorenson

Jay Sorenson (CA) caught another glaring error in Sept. CW. The ex-New York Yankee making those goofy quotes is not Casey Stengel, but Yogi Berra!

New Cribbage Boards Available

Bruce Howard, Freeland, WA, is producing first-class boards, and are now in trophy form, as seen at the Grand National and in Winnemucca. See his ad, this issue. Also NASCAR racing fans now have cribbage boards available. To view these boards: www.cribbageboard.com

Gordon Brown Tops Wine Country

Gordon Brown (CA) zipped to the win at the recent Wine Country Open, Yountville, CA. With 73 players in action, Brown took home 147 MRP's for the win...and bragging rights! Greg Lynch (CA) finished 2nd (105 MRP's), followed by Life Master Mel Ashley (CA) and Marilyn Brown (CA) in the 3-4 slot. Life Master Boyd McDonald was the top Q player in the 14-game round (26 12/14 +110).

Two-time national champ Jim Langley (CA) won the 46-player Consolation, besting Master Chuck Sladek (CA) in the final playoff match. Patricia Klock (NV) and Avon Ray (CA) finished 3-4. Ray's 27 MRP's have him knocking on the door for his Master rating. Jennifer Bolles (CA) had the top Q score...a nice 18 8/9 +175.

Director Roland Hall reported that Cheryl Van Scyoc and Mike Emerson scored that elusive 28-hand but no 29's showed. Hall also reported his 27-player Grass Roots Regional the following day was won by none other than Roland Hall (29 14/18 +146), with Pete Stemler finishing 2nd.

Hall also notifies our members to carefully check the addition when totaling their scorecards as a mistake resulted in the high non-qualifier being awarded to the wrong player (by one spread point).

New Judges

The New Rule books are now in effect (as of October 1), and Testing Examiner Al Miller reports the following new judges:

Rita Bosl, Albuquerque, NM
Margery Clark, Bend, OR
Adrian Levy, LaFayette, CA
John Swett, Crystal Lake, IL
Troy Thorson, Westminster, CO
Richard Turk, Sacramento, CA
Keith Widener, Clemmons, NC

To take the Judges examination, send $3 to:
Al Miller
12 Michael Ave.
Nashua, NH 03062-1418

Hawaii: Robert Wright, Ian Travers

The August edition of the Hawaii Open saw Robert Wright (HI) come home the winner, and in the September edition it was Ian Travers (WY) taking home the marbles.

Julie Pierce Cops Labor Day

Julie Pierce (OR) won her first sanctioned event by winning the Labor Day Special at the Seven Feathers Casino in Canyonville, OR (Sept. 5). With 94 players in action, Pierce scored a whopping 147 MRP's to get her lifetime ledger off and running bigtime. Master Chris McComas (WA) took 2nd, followed by two streaking peggars: Master Jim Crawford (CA) and One-Star Paul Hatcher (OR). Grand Master Herschel Mack (CA) took the Q action with a 24 12/14 +141.

Two-Star Duane Toll (OR), fresh from a record-breaking season, is off and running in the new year by taking home the win in the 52-player Consolation. He nipped Jerry Cutsforth (CA) in the final playoff match. Two-time All-American Cres Fernandez (CA) and Master Jerry Hahn (OR) finished 3-4. Joe Cover (OR) scored a great 21 9/9 +168 grand slam to easily take Q honors...and 30 MRP's to boot. Ruth Fraker (CA) was chagrined to see her 19 9/9 +113 topped by Cover's card. Director Larry Hassett reported a single 28-hand showed...by the hot-running Jim Crawford. He also reported some 29 24-hands were played and received a cash award.

Jack Shumate III Wins ALMOST

The ALMOST September Sizzler, played at Dixon, CA on August 24 was not an "ALMOST!" It WAS a sizzler, as the air-conditioning was inadequate to cool the crowd of 108 enthusiastic peggars. Grand Master Jack Shumate III had the spirit of the action as he sizzled to the win, besting Master Thelma Weber in the final playoff match. Swede Hanson (CA) qualified 5th (35 MRP's) and scored another 70 for finishing 3rd and unofficially zipped to his Master rating. Russ Cuckler (CA) also finished in the 3-4 bracket. Grand Master Herschel Mack (CA), once again, was the top Q player with a nice 28 12/14 +248 card. Scoring 248 plus points in 14 games is smoking!

Jim Markowitz (CA) won the 64-player Consolation, with Master Chuck Sladek (CA) taking home 2nd. Grand Master Bryant Gilkeson (NV) and Diane Leal (NV) finished 3-4.

Director Julie Felkins reported an oddity as sisters almost duplicated each other's scores. Mary Ryan and Margaret Larson (sisters) were low qualifiers in the Main and Consolation, and they both finished 5-8 in playoff action. Felkins asks our membership if you know an Elk member in Woodland, CA, to contact her, as she would like to move to a location that has adequate air-conditioning...and better seating.

A Cribbage Challenge

(A Return Visit To England)

April 25 - May 2, 2005

The first visit to England by a group of American cribbage players was initiated in 2002. In 2004, a group of English players from the Salisbury, England area returned to the United States to play in Grand National XXIII in Atlanta. A return trip to England (homeland of the inventor of our grand game) is now being planned wherein up to 20 ACC players will return to England to again challenge their cribbage 'cousins'. Here is your opportunity to join the American contingent that will carry the challenge across the ocean once again.

WHAT'S INCLUDED:

- 5 nights accommodations in Salisbury with full English breakfast daily
- 5 dinner (evening) meals
- Sightseeing tours (touring coach and guide provided)
- 2 nights accommodations in London (full English breakfast each morning)
- Admission to attractions included in tours
- Portage at hotels
- All taxes and service charges

COST:

1178 GBP (approximately $2,100 at a 1.8 exchange rate) per person (double occupancy)

(Cost is based on 15 participants)

Price reflects number of participants and rate of exchange at time of printing and is subject to change.

NOTE: Airfare is NOT included in this price. You may either arrange your own air transportation or your tour guide will be happy to assist you.

DEPOSIT:

$250.00 per person due December 20, 2004 to guarantee space. Deposit fully refundable up until final payment date of February 20, 2005.

PROPOSED ITINERARY:

Arrive at London Gatwick airport on Monday, April 25. Continue on to Salisbury via motorcoach with a stop at Hampton Court to visit and tour the palace. We will play cribbage with our Salisbury counterparts on Tuesday through Friday evenings (these tournaments are NOT ACC sanctioned). Guided sightseeing tours will be conducted each day prior to dinner and cribbage. Upon returning to London on Saturday, April 30, you will have the afternoon to tour, shop or attend the theatre. Sunday, May 1 is also available for sightseeing, museums, boat rides, etc. The England cribbage tour ends with your transfer to London Gatwick airport on Monday, May 2. An optional post tour to Ireland is available to anyone interested.

If you are interested in being part of the second group of ACC cribbage players to travel to England and play our cribbage 'cousins' on their own turf, please contact Dave O'Neil. Space is limited on this tour so don't delay.

It's official, Fetchel is Internet Champion

The final standings are in for our inaugural 2004 ACC Internet Cribbage season, and Mike Fetchel (mfetchCT425) of Middlefield, CT is cribbage's first official Internet Champion by an impressive margin. Scott Buhrow (MrB_IA218) of Louisville, KY rode a strong July to grab Second Place, while Kelly Ann Bugar (lil_thummp) of Edmonton, AB headed up the 300 IRP club that fills out our All-Internet team, with Marie Harrington (ma_lob) of Ipswich, MA, Donald Olney (olney_1147) of Carlevalle, SA, Don Eastwood (NC310Crib) of Hillsborough, NC, William MacMillan (Bristlecone_1) of Cheyenne, WY, Ronald Ralston (rdr1231) of Hartford, IA, Mark Van Dyke (loosespokes1135) of Grand Haven, MI and Tom Lewis (pegfast) of Albuquerque, NM. All-Internet honors go to the ten players who amass the most IRPs in a season.

Fetchel's total of 669 IRPs (Internet Rating Points) in 50 tournaments is a remarkable accomplishment, giving him a 180 point margin of victory over his nearest competitor. By comparison, the range between 2nd and 10th Place was only 163 points. It was in April that Mike made his move, beginning the month in Third Place, but winning three tournaments and reaching the Finals in a fourth to assume the lead he never relinquished.

Our 2004 All-Internet team presents an interesting geographic mix, with two Canadians and a distribution of players from the Mountain, Central and Eastern time zones. Curiously absent were West Coast players, who make up the largest group of Grass Roots and Tournament Trail participants. This may be due in part to the early start time for our Monday evening tournaments, but it is also a reflection of the ability of ACC Internet Cribbage to reach players who don't have as much opportunity for sanctioned over-the-board play. Note the presence of players from places such as Kentucky, Saskatchewan, Wyoming, New Mexico and Iowa, none of which hosted more than one Tournament Trail event last season.

In all, 209 ACC members participated in our abbreviated first season (which ran from February 12 to July 31), with 169 earning IRPs. The top 10% of these (17 finishers in all) will receive invitations to the 2005 ACC Tournament of Champions. There were a total of 66 online events, including twelve double elimination events that count as multiple tournaments. These attracted over 5000 total participants (members and nonmembers), for an average of more than 75 per event — a huge number by Internet standards!

Our 2004–5 season will be a full year of exciting competition. It's already underway, and we're adding new member-only events in the longer and more challenging formats, such as double elimination. Single elimination tournaments will continue to be open to both members and non-members, as this has proven to be a great way to help publicize the ACC and expand its membership.

ACC Internet Cribbage tournaments take place at MSN Games by Zone.com. Come to www.cribbage.org/internet for the official schedule and information on how to participate. Join us, and be the next Internet Champion!

October Cribbage World Late

Editor DeLynn Colvert has an excuse for this month's issue being late. He drove the 6,000 mile round trip to Atlanta for the Grand National. Did his famous Honda CRX (490,000 miles) make it? Almost. At mile 488,000 his original alternator gave out.

Keith Miller Robbed!

Keith Miller (MD) was excited when he cut to a 28-hand at the recent Richmond, VA meet. But, alas, he could not count this gem, as his opponent counted out before he could lay it down.

Rule of the month review:

Improperly Touching the Pegs: A two point penalty is assessed against a player who (a) Touches an opponent's peg or (b) Touches the player's own peg when there is no score to peg, except after receiving the opponent's approval to tighten a loose peg or has notified the opponent that the player intends to correct an overpegged score.

Judges Exams: For those of you intending to take the judges exam, Al Miller has provided instructions that the exam is now based on the new August 2004 Rulebook.

2003-2004 Season Information:

During the previous Grass Roots season, there were thirty-nine 29 hands, four hundred-fifty 28 hands and one hundred ninety-four Grand Slam Scorecards. Trophies were presented to the top two players in each of the three divisions at a total cost of $300.00.

Another 29 hand in Albuquerque, NM! On August 14th David Morse scored a 29 hand while playing in Club 271's summer session. This summer the club has had two 29 hands and two 28 hands. 50% of the can is paid for a 29 and 25% is paid for a 28 hand or a Grand Slam scorecard. Even though the club collects 25 cents per skunk and adds $10 per tournament until the can reaches $200, there is not much money left in it for the next winner to collect!

Atlanta: Mattie and Gene Bradshaw recently celebrated their forty-third wedding anniversary. How? By holding a cribbage tournament, of course! Not any old tournament but a "British Rules" tournament. So, they reserved a hotel ballroom and invited all the members of the Atlanta area Grass Roots Clubs 144, 74, and 119, to come get in a little practice prior to the John Suckling satellite tournament, which was held on Thursday, before the Grand National. Eighteen players, plus four non-playing spouses, showed up for the festive event. When it was over, Bobby Stuart walked away as winner. As usual, there were bonuses for special hands. Bobby held a "mystery" envelope for highest hand, a fifteen pointer, and a very high hand for British Cribbage, but Judy Gallagher matched that, and held it to the end of play. She hesitated to open it, as some had told her it contained the hotel bill. But, instead, she found a twenty-dollar bill. Gene and Mattie thanked everyone for attending and encouraged them to enter the John Suckling at GNXXIII.

Club 119 in Marietta, GA has $5 bonus hands during play. The number of the bonuses depends on the number of players and the rewarding hands (or cribs) are generally selected by the Director, sometimes suggested by the players when the Director is in a good mood. In this particular scenario one $5 bonus would go to the last player getting a 19-point hand or crib. They refer to it as a "floater", being passed from one player to another. They have done this before using a 24-point hand as a "floater" with it only passing through 2-3 people in a nine game tournament. In this case, out of 12 players, there were 38 claims for the dishonor or "Envelope of Shame" as it were. 31 were tallied as crib 19s, 7 were hands. Two players claimed it 5 times. One player recorded 3 of his 4 19's as being in the hand, that player being Master ranked Bobby Stuart! (The club says "This is no "rub it in", Bobby, just a reminder that those with status are part human after all!") Try it in your club for some extra fun.

News from Club 309 in Kelowna, BC. One of the great benefits of the Grass Roots program is the opportunity to play at tournaments hosted by other clubs, and competing using the same rules against many fine players outside of one's own club. So it was, a few months after 9/11, that Lorna and Gerry Klein left Kelowna, British Columbia, by car for Betty Johnson's tournament in Spokane, 5 hours away. There had been several terrorist alerts following the attacks, and they knew security at the border crossing to the U.S.A. could be tight. The fastest route was through a small, quiet, border crossing. But they were not too worried, as they probably did not fit the profile of terrorists. The day of travel, however, there was a fresh alert, and they were more or less prepared for a delay at the border, and possible denial of entry to the U.S. by nervous officials. As they came up to the U.S. Customs and Immigration post, they were a little apprehensive, as not only were there the normal two border guards, but also a tall, stern, very fit, ready to react, all business looking soldier with a close haircut, dressed in camouflage, carrying a mean looking gun, all barrel and bullets. So they were very polite as they answered the normal questions, where do you live, citizenship, where are you going, and, then, what is the purpose of your visit? To which they replied, "a crib tournament". The soldier, who up to this time appeared to be a spring just waiting to explode, broke into a huge grin, said "Crib? I love Cribbage!" and to our relief, they were soon on their way. So the moral of the story is, no matter how different a person may look, they still may have something in common. Cribbage may be a universal activity!

News from Club 227 in Laguna Woods, CA During the summer 2004 season, The Orange County Cribbage Club "went to the races." They recorded everyone's score for six consecutive meetings and added up the best five scorecards for each player. The club donated $1 per player per meeting into a special "races" pool. First place paid 50%, second place paid 30% and third place paid 20%. Club Director Paul Yellon suggests that other Club Directors take note as "this is a great attraction and reward for regular players who attend during the off season and it doesn't cost them to enter the race!" Paul is indebted to Boyd McDonald of Club 48 for bringing the "races" to his attention.

Consecutive GR Championships Continued: Club #274, Sweet Onion Peggers had a consecutive champion two years in a row. John Hensley was their 2nd year and 3rd year champion. He finished 2nd to Dave Bosley last year. So in three of four years, he's either won it or finished in 2nd place.

CLUB 109 OF STOUGHTON, MA HAD A 29 HAND, SCORED BY ED CICCONE (MA758), AT THEIR 1ST TOURNAMENT OF THE NEW SEASON ON 9-2-04. THIS CLUB KNOWN AS PT 109 (AFTER YOU KNOW WHO) HAS BEEN RE-ACTIVATED THIS SEASON WITH MOST OF THE FORMER PLAYERS, AS WELL AS SOME NEWCOMERS, READY TO LOCK HORNS ONCE AGAIN. INCIDENTLY, WHILE ED WAS THRILLED WITH HIS FIRST EVER 29 HAND HE FAILED TO REACH THE GAME HOLE BEFORE HIS OPPONENT

News from Club 120 in Wisconsin Rapids, WI. The 15th season of ACC Grass Roots cribbage is under way and Don Kreutzer did it right with a rare trifecta as he placed 1st in the 30 player tournament, won the team play and won the weekly tie pot for holding a 23 hand or higher at the end of play. Don's 17(8)+102 easily topped all participants as he gathered in $125 for his efforts. Karl Bremmer tried valiantly to repeat last season's 1st night win but had to settle for 2nd with 14(7)+96. Bill Johnson's 14(6)+91 was good for 3rd followed by Elliot Havitz in 4th and Barry Hansen in 5th, both with 13 points. Marv Parkinson, Fred Orgel and Pat Kufahl went 6th, 7th & 8th, all with 12 points each. All players with 12 points or more received Grass Roots Rating Points. Pat Kufahl held the 1st 28 hand of the year, an omen for the future for Lucky Pat?

Club 156 In Sunnyside, WA has begun the new crib season and the first week saw Louis Sevigny narrowly miss a grand slam -18/8/9. Week two the old pro Jack Moritzky showed up and demonstrated the technique it takes to win 9 in a row. What a way to begin the year 20/9/9+173 and 25% of the 28/29 pot. Jack took home over $100 for his great card. He had to make up 30 points to beat James Morrow, who was ready to write the three points on his card. Just goes to show how old age and treachery can over take youth and skill!

Grass Roots Club 150, the Pacific Coast Peggers, got off to a shaky start after a 10-year hiatus. Originally slated to begin their first night of Grass Roots play at an Italian restaurant in Vista, CA, the owner of the restaurant had loaned out the banquet room to a group of people holding a wake for a deceased friend and forgot to inform the club director, Roy Cook, of her room not being available to use that night. Now Roy had 18 brand new members standing outside the restaurant door wondering...."well, what do we do now?" After about an hour of frantic searching around the area for a place to take his group, he finally sent one of his Veteran Players down to the VFW Hall to see if they would let the club play there for the evening. Lo and behold the Hall received all of them with open arms, made dinner for them, served nice cocktails and made everyone feel very welcome. In asking the VFW Hall Manager if they could come back once a month and play at the Hall, he said, "By all means, feel free to do so, and if there is anything else we can do for you, let me know." HAIL, HAIL, to all the Vets and the VFW Halls across America. We Love You! Roy also signed up 8 new ACC members plus an additional 20 new GR members.

News from RAS of the Chehalis-Centralia Cribbage Club RULES! RULES! RULES!

Don't like to emphasize rules that much. First ingredient in success is to have fun. New rulebook is out and there are a few changes. Noticed two situations entirely similar this past week in play that bother me a great deal. In both cases, the player put the cards quickly back in the deck. In one case, the player claimed had too many cards and quickly shuffled them into the deck. In the other case, the player scored four points on a two hand and mixed that hand quickly into the deck. This is a most serious rules violation. Only a false claim of game has a more severe penalty. In neither case did their opponent say a word. It is the responsibility of the player to show those cards to opponent clearly. Most frequently they are laid on top of the crib board for the examination of the other player. How else can you know they have too many cards? They might have picked up a zero hand and want another deal. Don't give it to them! How do you know they have four points once they quickly put the cards into the deck? If this is observed in play, your opponent is to sustain a ten-point backward penalty. If they are only three pegs into the board, their pegs are removed from the board, placed in the starter holes, and their opponent gets the balance of the penalty by moving forward seven holes. It is very important that we stop this practice. If it happens in your game, I expect you to challenge your opponent in a mild manner. If not resolved properly, call for a judge. Big winner of this past week was Mary Herring of Napavine as she scored 167/132 to claim top spot, add 16 points to her lifetime total and move towards that coveted Bronze Award with 842 lifetime. Mary lost only one game by a single point. With three members over 800 in the wings, our club could add three Bronze Awards before the end of this season, and bring total earned in this group to 12. Pretty solid for a club that started in 1996-1997. RAS followed closely with 167/118. Believe that moves me into #7 in total Grass Roots Cribbage program with 3008. Not bad for a kid who joined ACC in 1990.

Visiting Cribbage Clubs

When I was planning to take a trip North through the middle of California, Oregon and Washington, I decided to go to the website to locate information to enable me to visit several clubs along the way. I found this extremely successful, as I printed out the information for locating the clubs plus the maps that were provided. As a result I had a great time along the way, renewing friendship with some I have seen at tournaments and on the Cribbage Cruise and making friends with lots of members. I visited, Red Bluff, CA; Springfield, Central Point, Roseburg, Portland, Tigard, OR. I missed out getting to Chehalis-Centralis, Lacey, Federal Way and Ollala, WA but I had the information ready but not the time. I thought you might put this information into Cribbage World to inform the members what possibilities can be used from using the Internet. It is a great way to meet the people on their home ground.
