Charlie Williams Comes Home, Wins 31st National Open

Charlie Williams left Raleigh for Las Vegas in 1994, but he returned to home-base Raleigh this year and began cribbage play after a 10-year layoff. And play he did! Undeclared heading into the final match with Grand Master Joy Barnes (FL), he lost his first match to her, but in the final with both players having suffered a lone loss, Williams cards came alive and he took home the championship. Shawn Hudson (NC) vowed not to eat his "lucky muffin" until he lost, ran to 3rd place. Dot Davis, after having suffered a loss to Hudson, reached over and smashed his "lucky muffin" and that ended his streak, as Barnes nailed him in the next match. Davis (NC) has played in 30 consecutive Opens (after having watched her hubby in the 1st ever). 5th and 6th went to Dennis Lillo (VA) and Bill Whiting (VA), and Andy Hulcher (VA) and Larry Gould (NC) taking 7-8 in this 193-player event.

Life Master Peter Setian (MA) nailed the Consolation, nipping Hugh Berry (VA) in the final playoff match. Jane Cannizzaro (VA) and Ray Meinert (VA) finished 3-4. Berry had a great weekend, celebrating his 76th birthday, earning his Master rating, and taking Q honors.

Director Catherine Perkins fielded the usual satellites that help make the National Open so attractive. The winners:

Early Bird: Jeff Raynes (NC)

Saturday Special: Hugh Berry (VA)

Losers Losers: Marvin Lewis (VA)

Monday Last Roundup: Frank Reddy (MA)

High Roller: Buzz Adams (OH)

28's: Rita Jewett, Mike Midgett, Lee Norris, Richard Ricke, Marilyn Gaudreau, John Morch

Director Perkins noted that Jim Ready (MA) unofficially earned his Life Master, and Bob Milk (VA) unofficially earned his Master, as did Berry. Stay tuned for next year's 32nd National Open, scheduled to be played July 25-27, 2005. This event winds down the cribbage year and is the premier event in the Eastern Region.

Awards Issue

Ken Patenaude Hot at Dennis Cousens Memorial

It was the Ken Patenaude benefit match at the recent Dennis Cousens Memorial event played in Portland, ME. Patenaude not only qualified tops in this 80-player event, but waltzed home the winner in the playoffs as well. His last playoff matched pitted him vs. Hall 'o Famer Phyllis Schmidt (MA) and he prevailed for the win. Schmidt carted home 105 MRP's, keeping alive her slim hopes for yet another All-American award. She will represent the Eastern Region in the upcoming All-Star game in Reno this February. Lynn Babbitt (RI) and Life Master Bill Shoemaker (CT) finished 3-4...and 70 MRP's each.

Mark Soule (ME) won the 48-player Consolation, nipping John Brennan (MA) in the final playoff match. Grand Master Joyce Vanelli (MA) and Sue Cousens (ME) finished 3-4. Brennan was also the event's top Q player with a nifty 18 GP card.

Director Laurie Rancourt hosted a High Roller event, taken by One-Star David Clemmey (MA). Rookie of the Year Jerry Hardy (ME) finished 2nd. Rancourt also reported that Jeanette Verzillo and Jeannine Dubois scored that elusive 28-hand.

Hire Bill Wakeman As Your Chauffeur

Bill Wakeman drove Bob Clark and Art Fisher to the recent Truckee River Classic in Kings Beach, CA. Clark won the Main Event and Fisher copped the Consolation. Wakeman's efforts were rewarded with a nice meal on the way home (paid by Clark) and Fisher donated the tip money.

Wakeman was shaking his head in disbelief, as he has twice as many MRP's as either Clark or Fisher.

Bob DeAngelo Shaking His Head, Too

Bob DeAngelo (VA) has had tough luck at the National Open, and he entered a conversation with perennial winner Dennis Lillo. DeAngelo asked what Lillo attributed his consistent success in cribbage. Lillo replied, "Over the years I've found that when I get good cards, and my opponents don't, I usually win!" And he added, "Most of the players that I beat are losers!"

It appears DeAngelo has found yet another Casey Stengel in our midst!

Shawn Jordan Sizzling

Shawn Jordan (MA) was sizzling at the annual West Side Summer Sizzler, played in West Springfield, MA on July 17-18. Jordan nailed down the win in this 64-player event. With a perfect field of 64, no byes were awarded. Tom Fiorini (MA) took home 2nd, followed by Jerry Hardy (ME) and Jeannine Dubois (MA) in the 3-4 slot. With yet another high finish, Hardy easily earned the ACC's annual "Rookie of the Year" award. Joan Fletcher (CT) had the hot hand in the Q round, scoring a great 36 17/22 +166 card.

Emily Medeiros (MA) won the 30-player Consolation, with Laurie Rancourt taking home 2nd. Master Sharon Schaefer (WI) and Life Master Sharlene Medeiros (MA) finished 3-4. Schaefer was also the events top Q player with a great 19 9/9 +169 grand slam.

Director Harry Palmer hosted a Saturday night doubles match, won by Al and Sharon Schaefer, Slinger, WI. He also reported that Tom Fiorini scored the meet's only 28-hand.

Bill Jensen Devil Mountain Champ

Grand Master Bill Jensen (CA) zipped to the win at the recent Devil Mountain Caper, Antioch, CA, on July 18. With 90 peggers in action, Jensen added yet another 147 MRP's to his lifetime ledger. Life Master Jackie doppelt (CA) nailed down 2nd, followed by Grand Master Harold Sontag (CA) and Grand Master Ross Njaa (CA) in the 3-4 slot. Sontag also took Q honors with a nice 35 GP card.

Life Master Steve Reynolds (CA) won the 44-player Consolation with Rod Foy (CA) taking 2nd. Master Cy Madrone (CA) and Ben Holder (CA) finished 3-4. Master Goldia Rager (CA) scored a 15 GP card to take Q honors.

Director Mary Gladish always fields a full array of satellite events. The winners:
Doubles: Ginocchio & Bertangnoli
Friday: Steve Harding
High Rollers: Roy Banducci
28's: Helen Sontag, Julie Felkins, Ed LaBoy

In an oddity, the doubles duo of Ginocchio and Bertangnoli are grandfather and grandson. Grandfather is 92 years old...and this duo won last year's doubles event as well.

Alan Lindner On Roll, Takes St. Croix Classic

Grand Master Alan Lindner (WI) is on a roll! First, he nailed the Lewis & Clark Classic in July, and then he came on like gang-busters and won the 33rd running of the St. Croix Classic in August. And after paying out grand prizes for 32 St. Croix events, Lindner felt that it was his turn to receive some benefits from all his hard work. This time around a whopping 224 players descended on Turtle Lake for some pegging action...and for those famous perks the casino pays for 24-28-29-GS play.

Life Master Bob Sommer (MN) took home 2nd (and 147 MRP's), followed by Dennis Pokorney (WI) and Jim Williams in the 3-4 slot. Jerry Hagberg zipped to Q honors with a nice 39 17/22 +285 card.

Life Master Don Flesch (WI) took the Consolation event, nipping Ray Hansen (IA) in the final playoff match. Two Master players finished 3-4...Nicky Kniech (WI) and Pat Upton (MN). Mike Jacka (MN) scored a grand slam 19 9/9 +141 to easily take qualifying honors, and a $100 bonus for the slam. Two other players had grand slams (and $100). Al Schaefer scored one Friday night enroute to a win, and Betsy Miller did likewise on Saturday night.

Master Mike Burns (MN), famous for his win at Reno's TOC last winter, now has the distinction of scoring the new season's first 29-hand. Mike Thomas (MN) cut the cards for this perfect hand...and would you believe Thomas also scored a 29-hand in Saturday night's play. Both 29's were worth a $500 bonus from the casino.

28's ($250): Lary Minnick, Ginger Grogan, Jerry Jaeger, Linda Brandl, Bill Bork, Pat Upton
24's ($25): 281 scored

Director Lindner also reported that Dan Pluff (MN) unofficially earned his Master rating in Consolation play. And 98-year old Opal Tomlinson was in action for the weekend playing 40 games as she continues her fine play. The St. Croix Casino furnished soda, juice and coffee three days running, and, once again, added a whopping $9,825 in perks for the players. This 33rd edition attests to the popularity of cribbage at this casino.

"Happy New Year" Event!

Charlie Finley Opens New Cribbage Year With a Bang

A New England event was played on August 8, kicking in the new cribbage year, and it was Life Master Charlie Finley (CT) all the way! He qualified tops with a 26 GP card, and roared home the winner in the playoffs as well, netting a nifty 170 MRP's (aggregate) to kick off the new year in style. One-Star David Clemmey (MA) took home 2nd in this 58-player event, followed by Life Master Dick West (MA) and One-Star Larry Samet in the 3-4 slot.

Life Master Rob Medeiros (MA) ran the table in the 28-player Consolation, taking Q honors (17 GP card) and winning the playoffs as well. Mork Soule finished 2nd, with Sam Schwartz (MA) and Life Master J. J. Rooney (MA) in the 3-4 slot.

Director Sharlene Medeiros had "new year" balloons and hats for the players, and reported nary a 28 or 29 hand showed. Vicki Soule had five chances, but alas, missed all the cuts. This event was not listed in Cribbage World's Tournament Trail as it apparently was a last minute decision to hold this event.

Tom Clark "Deals 'Em"

Master Tom Clark, Candia, NH, came to play and he dealt 'em big time winning the season finale Deal 'Em Northeast, played in Shrewsbury, MA on July 25. With 80 peggers in the field, Clark took home 147 MRP's and the top prize to boot. Life Master (and director) Sharlene Medeiros (MA), in the hunt for top-ten All-American honors, finished 2nd, and assured her a spot on this year's team. Life Master Al Miller (NH) is getting close to his One-Star rating by finishing in the 3-4 bracket with One-Star Larry Samet (MA). Life Master Bob Drukman (MA) took Q honors with a 36 16 +199 card.

Medeiros reported nary a 28 or 29-hand showed in this event. No Consolation was played.

Bob Clark Nails Truckee

Grand Master Bob Clark (CA) earned All-American honors in 1998, and he continues to be a force on the boards as he won the 74-player Truckee River Classic, played in Kings Beach, CA on July 10. Life Master Jones Horn (CA) was Clark's last victim, but, nevertheless, Horn carted home yet another 105 MRP's. Life Master Roland Hall (CA) added another 70 MRP's, zipping to well over 2,000 earned this cribbage year by finishing 3-4. Gordon Brown (CA) also finished in this bracket. Ross Walter (CA) took Q honors with a 24 GP card (14 games).

Master Art Fisher (CA) took home the bacon in the 42-player Consolation. Grand Master Mary Ryan finished 2nd (and was top qualifier with a 13 GP card, 7 games). Director Ron Morgan (CA) and co-director Greg Schleusner, both Life Masters, took home a 3-4 finish.

Oklahoma Cribbage

I live in Bartlesville, Oklahoma. I am member OK41. Best I can figure from the ACC newsletter, the closest ACC event is either Iowa or Illinois! I am guessing that my member number indicates that there are at least 40 other members from my state. I would like to get a message out to these members to see if there is interest in an Oklahoma cribbage get-together.

Could you either 1) supply me with the Oklahoma members' contact information, or 2) forward this note to them so that they might contact me, or 3) be willing to publish a note in a future newsletter broadcasting my interest in rallying the Oklahoma and surrounding states cribbage players to gather for an event of some kind.

NEW SUPPLY

Tournaments? The ACC Has Them!

National Statistician and Treasurer Bob McCabe informs our membership that we had a record number of sanctioned tournaments in the 2004 year. Some 176 Main Events were played, with 17,777 participants. This averages out to 101 players per event. 159 sanctioned Consolations were played with 10,559 players for an average of 66.4 players per event.

Cribbage fever, catch it! The tournaments are out there nationwide!

Cribbage Junior

My six-year-old son Evan loves to play games. When he was five, I invented a new game called "Cribbage Junior" to help him garner interest in cribbage.

"Cribbage Junior" is a simplified version of its parent game. After the low cutter wins the first of the alternating deals, four cards are dealt to each player. The pone cuts and the dealer turns the card, receiving two points for a jack. There is no crib and no pegging. Each player counts his/her hand. 15s, runs, 2/3/4 of a kind, & nobs are counted. Due to short attention spans and the desire to play multiple games, only 31 or 61 points are required to win the game (the total must be declared before the game begins).

In a 61 point game, a skunk is accomplished when the losing player has 45 or fewer points.

This is a great game for the youngest aspiring cribbage players. Since there's no strategy involved (strategy, in my opinion, is too advanced for even the brightest five- or six-year-olds), even a kindergartener can skunk his father (or mother). My son did it twice in a row and frequently reminds me of it!

"Cribbage Junior" has improved Evan's arithmetic skills, increased his confidence, and helped him start a love for a game he'll hopefully enjoy for the rest of his life. It has also given us yet another way to enjoy our time with each other.

"Extra" won by Gregory Gougian

The very last day of the 2004 season was Saturday, July 31, and for cribbage buffs it was one last chance to earn those coveted MRP's. The event was the Year-end Extra, played in Medway, MA, and the pegger doing the most MRP collecting was Gregory Gougian, Pepperell, MA. He nailed this 94-player event and came home with a year-ending 147 MRP's...and bragging rights! Claudette Lambert (MA) fared quite well, too, as she took home 2nd...and 105 MRP's. Master Dorothy Boreham (MA) and Bob Chevalier (FL) finished 3-4 (and 70 MRP's each). Nick Gallucci (MA) zipped to a 21 10/12 +67 card in the Q round to take honors (and 40 MRP's).

Mathew Piechota (MA) won the 44-player Consolation, with Master Richard Andrews (NH) finishing 2nd. Laurie Rancourt (ME) and Guy Spezzaferro (MA) took home a 3-4 finish. Rancourt also was the events top qualifier, with a 17 7/8 +103 card.

Director Isabel Hyndman reported a lone 28-hand showed...played by Emil Chrabaszcz.

28-Hands

Cribbage World inadvertently failed to report a 28-hand scored by Betty Scott at the recent Potawatomi Peggers Pow Wow in Michigan.

And speaking of 28-hands, 7-year old Sarah Gerke, playing her dad, David, scored this gem. Her reaction? "Oh my gosh, oh my gosh!" They teach them young in Battle Creek, MI.

Keith Dowell to the Rescue

Keith Powell, Gilroy, CA. came to the ACC's rescue and delivered 10,000 rule books from Visalia, CA to Roseburg, OR...and right on time. The books are to go into effect on October 1 and Powell delivered them on July 31 to Larry Hassett in Roseburg. Hassett will now have the task at breaking down this huge number via mail, pony-express, and whatever other means at his disposal.

Darrel Miotke, Del Robinson, and two other callers also volunteered to help, but Powell was first in line and did the job. The ACC is blessed with many members who will come to the aid of the Congress when a job has to be done.

Duane Toll Sets MRP Record

Two-Star Duane Toll blistered the boards during the 2004 season and set a record score with this great run. In early spring he ran off several wins and continued on until the final bell, scoring some 2,473, beating Jim Langley's old mark of 2,245 (2001). This score may very well have been even higher, but Toll was hospitalized in June and missed two events. Life Master Roland Hall (CA), winner of the huge JPW/ACC Open, springboarded this win into 2nd place as this dedicated pegger was seen far and wide in his quest for honors. Four-Star DeLynn Colvert (MT) continued his steady play and earned his ACC-leading 19th All-American honor. Life Master Sharlene Medeiros (MA) began an unprecedented hot streak in February, setting a record 22-game score (46 20/22 +501) in Green Bay and zipped to 4th place in this year's action. Veteran Life Master Ron Morgan (CA) was also in action coast-to-coast and earned his 3rd All-American honor with his steady play. Grand Master Cres Fernandez (CA) very nearly repeated last year's score and scored consecutive All-American honors, finishing 7th this year. Master Jim Crawford (CA) is a newcomer to All-American fame, and his steady play picked up MRP's at nearly every stop and he zipped to 8th place. One-Star Paul Hatcher (OR) had a slow start this cribbage year, but finished like gang-busters and earned his 7th All-American. Jerry Hardy (ME) easily earned Rookie of the Year with a run of wins in mid-season and took home the 10th and final spot on this year's All-American Team.

GRASS ROOTS CORNER

Items for this column are encouraged and should be sent to TomLewis@Spinn.net or mailed to Tom Lewis, 7916 Eagle Rock Ave. NE, Albuquerque, NM 87122-2753

Rule of the month review:

A single card, which has been released by the fingers, is considered played, whether or not the count has been announced. It may be retrieved only if it would cause the count to exceed 31.

If the dealer exposes more than one card in turning the starter card, the top card becomes the starter card and pone has the right to see any other exposed card(s) before they are replaced in the pack.

Correction: In the July Grass Roots Corner I referred to the Club 5 Director as Stan Bethinks instead of Stan Bochinski. My apologies Stan. A classic case of this columnist not proofing his work properly!! The story was about Club 5's Phil Lococo winning four consecutive club championships. If anyone recalls their club having a consecutive champion, please let me know.

Youth Participation (Reminder) - Grass Roots Rule Revision (9/20/03 BoV GR Meeting) The participation of members under the age of 18 is highly encouraged at the discretion of individual Club Directors subject to individual state regulations such as bars and other locations where governmental agencies have determined that people under 18 are not allowed. Clubs may not turn down Grass Roots or Club membership for junior members based solely on age. It is recommended that acceptance be based on the youth's ability and skill level of the slowest members of the club.

Summer 28s in Red Bluff!

On July 6th at Red Hot Peggers (Grassroots Club 159) in Red Bluff, CA, Jean Wagoner had a 28 hand. Sitting next to her, Barbara Stone got a 28 hand seconds later.

Summer in Albuquerque!

On July 17th, Carl Bischoff received his first ever 29 hand. Prior to the cut he showed everyone the 3 fives and the jack of spades that were in his hand. The cut was the 5 of spades. Carl said it took him 45 years to get that 29 hand! The following week Tom Lewis finished with an 18/7/+238 attaining four skunks in the process. The week after that, Lillian Marney received her first ever 28 hand. She was dealt 4 fives and cut a picture. Not only that but she won 8 of the 9 games which was her best ever scorecard! The summer sessions in Albuquerque are going strong with an average turnout of 22 players. This is down from a seasonal average of 34-36 players during the regular season. Tournaments are held every Saturday morning at 9AM. We look forward to a great 2004-2005 season and invite you to join us whenever you are passing through our fair city!

Die Hard Cribbage in Belleville, IL

On July 22nd, members of the Len Wahlig Cribbage Club #288 met for their weekly Thursday night cribbage match at the VFW Hall. It was a stormy night and after one game, a bolt of lightning hit the transformer and all the lights went out. Doug Kinsbury, Joe Richards and Milt Haas raised the blinds and opened the doors so that the outside light would enable them to continue to play. After another two games it became too dark to continue so Leslie and Patrick Donahue went out to their car and brought in about 100 glow sticks. The games were now able to continue but after two more games members started complaining of headaches. Mona Wahlig went out and came back with enough flashlights for the games to continue. After one more game, the VFW Manager informed the club that they would be closing in ten minutes. The club had three more games to play and requested permission to play the remaining games in the pavilion in the back of the hall. The boards, cards, flashlights, and all the players moved out back and finished the games. It must be said that the members of Club 288 are truly die-hard cribbage players!! David Carey who is a member of the club 288 submitted this story. Well-written David!

Coincidences!

Pierce County Club # 243 in Tacoma, WA: On August 2nd, Gary Louderback and Ray Zeuschel finished the night with a 12/6/+56 scorecard. Both had 83 plus points and 27 minus points. They tied for sixth place!

Sandia Peggery Club # 271 in Albuquerque, NM. Midway through game #4 on July 31st, JoAnne Hughes kept a 5-J-Q-K of spades and the starter card was a nine of hearts. On the very next hand her opponent Tom Lewis kept the identical hand of 5-J-Q-K of spades and the eight of hearts was cut. The cards had been well mixed but somehow identical hands were dealt in successive hands to both players!

Grass Roots player wins BIG!

Les Summer of Club 11 in Reno, NV went to the Sands Hotel in Reno for the "Sands Beach Club" presentation night for the NASCAR weekly tournament culmination and drawing on August 9th. He had played in the "free" weekly tournament for the previous fourteen weeks. Each week they would select a number of drivers who would receive points for each one that came in the top few. Although he didn't win any of the weekly money he did really great overall. Not only did he come in first out of approximately 500 players and received a trophy - he won $10,000. What a great night!

Rule Book Update

I did not keep separate expense records for the clubs and these are the numbers as close as I can come: The total cost (postage, boxes, and other supplies) to ship the 5,375 rulebooks was about $670. To send 1 rulebook costs $0.60 and two $1.06. By using Media Mail (Book rate) the average shipping costs per rulebook was 12 1/2 cents.

Summary:

A total of 247 packages were sent (a total of 5,375 rulebooks). Thanks to the GR clubs who responded to my email request and sent in a combined order for their club members. This effort saved the ACC an estimated $1,500. A total of 103 clubs ordered a total of 2,989 rulebooks. Another 95 rulebooks were previously ordered by individual club members and included with the club order.

Note for the CW: The cost of rulebooks will be $1 until the ACC Open next February. Rulebooks can be obtained from most BOD members, the three regional tournament commissioners, and the Membership Secretary.

Larry Hassett, Membership Secretary

The Cutting Edge?

How often does "His Nobs" come up in an average game? Well, listen to what happened to a couple of members of Rochester, NY club #130. Milt. Dries and Bill Donegan (both retired) meet once a week for breakfast and then go to one of their homes to play three games of cribbage. During one of sessions, we noted that the jack (His Nobs) was cut 12 times; nine times the jack of clubs and 3 times the jack of spades. Bill said to Milt, "This must be a record and we should send it into Cribbage World," but we both procrastinated. Well, what happened during our three games of cribbage on July 14th, broke our record and we think that it should be shared with others. We sat down and played our normal three games of cribbage and this is what happened. During the 3 games "His Nobs" was cut 18 times. The jack of clubs came up 16, the jack of spades once and the jack of hearts once. Really folks, both of us were hesitant to cut the cards as it was getting a little bit spooky. (Also, neither one of us recall how many times we forgot to take the 2 points that we were entitled to.)

Wisconsin Dells Classic Moved to Wisconsin Rapids

Director Pat Barrett was forced to move his upcoming Wisconsin Dells Classic (Oct. 22-24) to the Hotel Mead in Wisconsin Rapids (same date). The hotel in Wisconsin Dells inadvertently overbooked that weekend, making the change necessary. Barrett informs Cribbage World that the Hotel Mead is a 4-star facility, complete with restaurants, indoor pool, and will offer players discounts up to 60%.

Rule Books In Effect Oct. 1

Rule Committee Chairman Syl Lulinski informs our ACC membership that the new Rule Books will go into effect on October 1. Tournament directors have been contacted concerning this change in effective dates. The committee met on August 7 and felt that this date change would allow all members and directors time to peruse the new rules.

In the meanwhile, Membership Chairman Larry Hassett has been as busy as a bee mailing the rule books to our membership, and has this chore well under control. Some 10,000 books were printed, and 5,500 have been distributed. The initial price per book is one dollar. Contact your club director, or a tournament commissioner. If ordered by single copy, pay $1.60 (to cover postage) by check payable to ACC. They may be ordered from:

Know The Law

Keith Widener (NC) wrote CW a long letter that expressed his concerns about players under the age of 18 playing in ACC events. He concluded his letter, "You had better know what the law is. And the ACC should enforce the right of each individual member to participate in it's sanctioned tournaments. In fact, as a Charter Member of the ACC, I expect them to do so."

Every state has interpretations concerning cribbage. Some rule it is a game of skill, others rule it is a card game and classified as gambling. Check your state's regulations. Ed.
