Ras Rasmussen Promotion Champ? John Furler Wins Washington Championship, Joins MRP Race

Director Ras Rasmussen once again pulled out all stops in promoting his Washington Championship, played in Centralia, WA, January 7-9. With sponsors galore, the raffle table was overflowing, and 24-hand (and other prizes) were in great supply. And the prize fund was more than fair. All this largess brings players from far and wide, and this time around some 196 players were in action over the three-day weekend.

None other than Two-Star Jesse Jarrell (CA) kicked off the weekend by taking the Early Bird action. Friday night's High Roller and Doubles drew large numbers, and with a whopping 38 players in the High Roller, it was Bill Wakeman taking home the top spot. But Bob Oriet's (OR) Q-money was the top prize, as Wakeman did not play this sideline. The Doubles saw Hal and Joyce Lamon (WA) come away the winners, besting a large field. Saturday night saw Don Overton (WA) win 8 of 9 to take that action.

But the Main Event went to Life Master John Furler (OR) and he is making this his year to shine. He had not won a sanctioned event for years, and this is his 2nd win in short order. His MRP's put him among the leaders nationwide, as ACC play hits the half-way mark this cribbage year. Roger Warnock (WA) took home 2nd, followed by Carolyn Blackman (OR) and Ron Boule (OR) in the 3-4 slot. Ron Gustafson (WA) posted a great 38 16/22 +268 score to easily take Q honors.

The Consolation drew 128 players, and it was Life Master Jones Hom's turn to shine as he posted a superlative 20 9/9 +143 grand slam in the qualifying round. But when the playoffs had wound down, it was Rick Pierce (OR) standing alone with the top trophy. He edged Master Chris McComas (WA) in the final playoff match. McComas has been hot in Consolation play the past few months, and very nearly took home another one. Master Dean Bauman (OR) and Bob Page (OR) finished 3-4.

This event was followed by a 44-player Cry Baby, won by Rick Westernman (WA). Director Rasmussen paid a bonus $50 for 28-hands, and George Mackie (WA) and Two-Star Duane Toll (OR) cashed with their 28-gems. Rasmussen also reported that over 100 sponsors donated over $11,000 in cash, merchandise, and services, making him the undisputed king of promotion in the ACC.

Hejتمانek Blisters Portland

Sharon Hejتمانek, a Life Master from Missoula, MT, and a member of the ACC's Board of Directors, did some directing of traffic on her cribbage board the entire weekend at Portland's (OR) Winter Open. And it was a one-way street in her favor as she nailed the High Roller on Friday night, and rolled to the championship on Sunday afternoon, besting some 152 players in the process. Her run was one of the best this year in the Main Event playoffs, knocking off Four-Star DeLynn Colvert (MT) 3-0 to kick off the action, then bombing One-Star Roy Hofbauer 3-0 (with two skunks), and continued on to win 3-2 over local Gary Wegener, with yet another skunk in the deciding game. With the 196 MRP's, Hejتمانek zips to the 500+ mark for this cribbage year. Wegener took home 147 MRP's for his fine showing. Grand Master Annett Eiffert (CA), in a rare sojourn to Oregon, finished 3rd, followed by another Grand Master...Darren Black (OR) in 4th.

Two-Star Bob Julian (WI) showed his expertise in the qualifying round, as this four-time national champ took Q honors with a nifty 37/22+240 card.

One-Star Ras Rasmussen (WA) won the 96-player Consolation and zips to the 800 MRP mark this cribbage year, putting heat on the leaders in the national race for honors. Erik Locke (OR) finished 2nd, followed by two hot peggers... Grand Master Rex Paddock (MT) and Life Master Jack Moritzky (WA) in the 3-4 slot. Moritzky joins Rasmussen at the 800 mark for this cribbage year. Monica Newton (OR) took Q honors with a nice 19 8/9 +207.

Directors Tim and Ken Julkowski always have a full slate of satellite events. The winners:
Time Passer: Marlene Stack (7/7)
Doubles: April Boyington & Richard LaBrasseur
High Roller: Sharon Hejتمانek
Saturday: Gerald Oxford
Last Chance: Don Smith
28's: Steve Palmer, Roland Hall, Steve Ellis, Jesse Jarrell
29: Bryan Bordenik
All-Events: DeLynn Colvert (57)
Super Q: Darren Black
Team: A. Eiffert, N. Rojas, D. Colvert, J. Jarrell

A highlight of this event saw Bryan Bordenik score his first-ever 29-hand in the Main playoffs, earning $100 from the ACC for this sanctioned gem (12th this year).

Jim Crawford Clings to MRP Lead

Master Jim Crawford (CA) is clinging to his national MRP lead, as he continues to pile on MRP's at very nearly every stop; adding to his glorious Grand National win in Atlanta in September. He stands at well over 1,000 as players hit the home half of this cribbage season.

Six players are hot on his heels: One-Star Ras Rasmussen (WA); Life Master Jack Moritzky (WA); Life Master Dwight Christiansen (CT); Life Master John Furler (OR); One-Star Bill Medeiros (MA); and Master Jason Shumate (CA). They are bunched at the 700-800 mark. From that point on it is a real dog fight for top ten honors with One-Star Paul Hatcher (OR), Two-Star Duane Toll (OR), Grand Master Herschel Mack (CA) and Grand Master Jack Shumate III (CA) hanging but a whisker behind the leaders.

Another great run for the roses is in the offing, with many players still in the hunt with six months to go...and cribbage events galore are still on tap.

Don't Change The Oil!

Don Hannula, Lake Linden, MI was in Portland (OR) for the Winter Open and he struck up a conversation with CW editor DeLynn Colvert. Colvert asked Don how much snow have they had in upper Michigan this year. Don replied, "136" so far this year...and we had 260" last year!"

"Wow!" replied Colvert, you must have a snow blower?"

"Yes, I do" replied Don. In fact I have had the same machine 25 years. I have had no problems with this machine except for one year. I decided to change the oil and the blower gave me fits that year!"

Morale of the story, don't change the oil in a snow machine! And his story of a 25-year old machine is on par with Colvert's Honda CRX with 505,000 miles. Ed.

Ron Krebs Still At It!

91-year old Ron Krebs (OR) was seen pegging at the Portland Winter Open...and he doesn't miss a lick! He plays a great game and is a great sport, to boot. Peg on, Ron!

Esther Rolfe Savannah Winner

Esther Wolfe zipped to her first sanctioned win by coming home the winner at the Savannah (GA) Open on January 14. This Boynton Beach, Florida, pegger scored 147 MRP's in besting some 82 players. Grand Master Jeff Raynes (NC) very nearly took it all, but settled for 2nd...and 105 MRP's. David Foxwell (GA) and Ron LaPointe (FL) nailed down a 3-4 finish. Life Master Sharlene Medeiros (MA), once again, was the top Q player, scoring a nice 32 15 +188 card.

Steve Angier (GA) was smoking in the 56-player Consolation. He nailed a 9/9 grand slam (209/9 +157) and very nearly won the playoffs as well, finishing 2nd. Lou Gardner (GA) cooled off Angier and won this event. Sandy Lewis (FL) and Fred Desnoyers (FL) finished 3-4.

Director Bill Cooper reported that Master Keith Widener (NC) won the Friday Special, and Virgil Dulin (NC) took home the bacon in Saturday night's action. In the Friday Early Bird Larry Phifer (NC) scored a 29-hand, a day early for the ACC's $100. Life Master Dwight Christiansen (CT) scored a 28-hand in the Main Event.

Cooper also reported that this 5th annual event raised $250 for the Savannah Boys Club...and he gives thanks to all that helped run this event. He also noted that Lindsay Peever unofficially earned his Master rating.

Kudos, ACC

The Vancouver (WA) Seafarers Center wrote Cribbage World thanking the ACC (and Lea Hornbeck) for the donation of over a thousand decks of cards. These cards are used by visiting crews of merchant ships from around the world.

Roy Hofbauer and Rollie Heath (ACC members) were involved in this generosity, as well as Lea.

Tough Loss, Great Win

Bryan Bordenik (WA) and Carolyn Blackman (OR) were tied at 2-2 in the 3rd round playoffs at the Washington Championship and it appeared Bordenik had the match in hand, standing 3-points short with first count. Ouch! Bordenik held a blank hand, no pegs, and lost by 3! With this gift, Blackman zipped into a 3-4 finish. Bordenik was rewarded with a 29-hand in his next match (Portland) to take away some of the sting of this heartbreaker.

Frank Ornie Feasts In Canyonville

Grand Master Frank Ornie "feasted" at the annual Thanksgiving Classic, played at Canyonville, OR on November 26-28. He nailed down the win in this 108-player event, nipping Betty Stewart (OR) in the final playoff match, and came home with 147 MRP's to go with his Thanksgiving turkey. Stewart took home 105 MRP's and her high finish helped propel her to All-Events honors as well.

Grand Master Herschel Mack (CA) is having a fine season and his 3-4 finish keeps him among the leaders nationwide this cribbage year, standing at the 600+ mark. Life Master Heidi Glashan (CA) also finished at the 3-4 mark. Susan Herman (WA) scored a nice 36 17/22 +202 to take Q honors...and 50 MRP's.

Last year's record-setting national champion, Duane Toll (OR) took home the win in the 62-player Consolation, nipping Life Master Jim Gogolin (OR) in the final playoff match. Master Ratso Roderick (OR) and Charles Huffman (CA) finished 3-4. Master Lowaine Pruett (OR) took Q honors, scoring a 16 7/9 +110 card.

Director Larry Hassett reported the satellites. The winners:
Early Bird: Duane Toll
Doubles: Bill Kaufman & Frank Lake
High Rollers: Jim Broadhurst
Saturday: Gerald Hahn
All-Events: Betty Stewart
28's: Steve Harding, Barry Bray, Ratso Roderick, Breda Flynn
29: Marilyn Andersen

A highlight of this event saw local Marilyn Andersen score the ACC's 11th 29-hand this cribbage season, giving her a $100 ACC bonus for this sanctioned 29-gem.

Judges Removed From Duty

The following have been removed from the ACC Judges listing for failure to renew their membership:

David J. Balch, SR. (MI)
Tod P. Brown (WI)
John Mathews (CA)

Ho Hum, Same Winners In Springfield James Morrow Takes Emerald Valley...Again!

In the 2nd running of the Emerald Valley Championship, played at Springfield, OR in early December, it was the same old story. James Morrow (WA) won the Main Event and Dan Marsh (OR) won the Consolation...the same winners as the Spring event.

In winning the 72-player Main, Morrow continues his fine play this cribbage year and is at the 400 MRP mark at this year's half-way mark. Life Master Bernie Nelson (OR) was the last victim of Morrow's run, and even Two-Star Duane Toll (OR) could not break his hold on this event. Grand Master Jack Shumate also failed to de-rail Morrow and finished in the 3-4 bracket with Toll.

Master Jeanette Nielsen (OR) scored a nice 33 card in taking Q honors.

Dan Marsh (OR) won the Consolation played last spring, and he did the job once again, winning this 48-player event. Master Pat LaBrasseur (OR) finished 2nd, followed by One-Star Ras Rasmussen (WA) and Tom Dobscha (OR) in the 3-4 bracket. Marsh loves this event as he was also the top Q player.

Director Mike McDaniel fielded a full array of satellites. The winners:

Early Bird: Rick Pierce
High Rollers: Rollic Heath
Doubles: Larry & Donna Hassett
Saturday: Jim Jackson
28's: Todd Malmgren, Pat LaBrasseur

Chuck Berg In Alaska Tsarkie In Hawaii

Two small ACC events were played recently. One was way up north, and the other in sunny Hawaii.

Up in Anchorage, AK, it was Chuck Berg (AK) coming home the winner at the Xmas Moose Nugget Classic. Dave Schwartz (AK) took home 2nd, followed by Grand Master Mike Rowe (AK) and Quasar Johnson (AK) in the 3-4 slot. Schwartz was also the meet's top Q player with a 27 13/18 +156 card in this 21-player event. To top that, Schwartz scored the meet's only 28-hand as well!

In Hawaii, director Tsarkie decided it was his turn to take honors, and he took home the bacon in this 23-player event. Ronnie Murakami (HI) finished 2nd with Mel Vios (HI) and Ed Schweitzer (HI) taking 3-4. Schweitzer also was the top Q player, with a nice 28 13/18 +74 card.

TIP of the Month

Should I lead the larger card from A-4 or 2-3 couplets?

By Ras Rasmussen (WA)

Since there is always a distinct chance that opponent will be holding 10-pt cards with one or more fives, play for the fifteen-two. Lead the larger card of the five point couplet. Dealer cannot chance dropping the five on a 4 or 3 lead. Have to admit there is a chance with the A-4 couplet to score the 15 by playing the Ace first as many players will make the count eleven on any lead if they have the cards to do so. My preference remains the four-spot as the lead. In leading the smaller card, an experienced player will drop the five spot and deprive you of the 15 for 2. Do you see the difference in dropping a five on the ace or deuce lead as compared to dropping the five on the 4 or 3 as a lead?

Pam Pomeroy Tops Winter Solstice

Pam Pomeroy (CA) was finally rewarded for her dedication to sanctioned play as she zipped to the win at the recent Winter Solstice Open, played at Ventura, CA on December 18. With 46 players in the field, Pomeroy took home 105 MRP's and bragging rights galore.

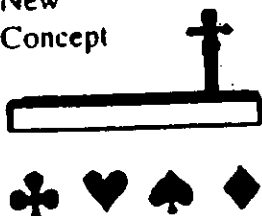

Bruce Fein (NV) very nearly took it all, finishing 2nd...and unofficially earned his Master rating as well. Jack Carter (CA) and John Krukow (CA) finished in the 3-4 slot. Master Bob Gromek, enjoying his newly retired status on the cribbage trail, scored the meet's top Q-round score...a nice 21 10/12 +101.

Master Jason Shumate (OR) is in the hunt for top-ten honors this cribbage year, and he scored 24 MRP's in winning the 31-player Consolation. Mary Ann Milliken (CA) had a great event, taking Q honors (15 7/8 +119) and finishing 2nd. Mel Kranz (CA) and Judith Beay (CA) finished 3-4.

Director Cy Madrone reported that only Sylvia Sutton scored that elusive 28-hand. No 29's showed. No satellites were played.

Winning Weasel

I got to tell you this interesting anecdote about my weekend at the Centralia tournament. I had previously mailed my entry form and fee to La Mesa to play there that same weekend. But when I returned home from the tournament in Lincoln City, I had a voicemail which informed me that my entry form and check had arrived all shredded up by the Post Office and would I send a replacement. Being a cribbage player, I took that as an omen from the cribbage gods that I should forget about La Mesa and go play in Centralia instead.

Well, in the consolation in Centralia, I got that nice grand slam with 20 game points (2 skunks). The topper to this story is that, some years ago, I had given my brother-in-law (Harry Ng) the nickname "Weasel". Well, of all the pictures that were on the various trophy boards RAS gave out, the one I received for high qualifier in the consolation was a picture of a ...Weasel! Ain't that a kick? Cribbage - you gotta love it...

Colvert, Mackie, Gogolin Top Grass Roots Region II Regional Event

Four-Star DeLynn Colvert (MT) came away with the win at the Region II's Grass Roots Regional event, scoring a 32 15/18 +224 card. Grand Master George Mackie (WA) took 2nd (32 14/18 +292) and Life Master Jim Gogolin (OR) finished 3rd with a 32 14/18 +243.

Region II Commissioner Pat Ward reported some 455 players and 37 clubs participated in this event.

David Campbell: Bah Humbug Champ

David Campbell (ME) joined the ACC four short years ago, and was named Rookie of the Year in 2002...and has since earned his Master rating in short order. To prove this no fluke, he nailed down the win at the recent Bah Humbug III at Medway, MA on December 19. In besting the even 100 peggers, Campbell brought home yet another 147 MRP's and is on a straight track for his Grand Master. Life Master Donna LaFleur (CT) took home 2nd (and 105 MRP's), followed by another Life Master...Charlie Finley (CT) and Grand Master Cindy Veradt (MA) in the 3-4 slot.

Master Bruce Brown (MA) scored the high Q card, a nice 25 11 +183.

With 48 in action in the Consolation, it was John Brennan (MA) taking home the bacon. Toassie Sheca (MA) finished 2nd, and Lee Dillon (MA) and Ed Ciccone (MA) finished 3-4. Al Derosier (MA) took Q honors with a nice 18 8 +165.

Director Sharlene Medeiros reported the scratch ticket winner was J. J. Rooney ($100).

Cribbage

By Tom Lewis

The game of Cribbage has been around a long, long time and has changed very little along the way. The game is frustratingly simple on the surface but can prove deceptively complex upon analysis. Sir John Suckling invented the game in the early 1630's in England. Sir John was born in 1609 into rather comfortable circumstances. His wealthy father was Secretary of State to King James I. His father died when Sir John was a child and at the age of 18, he inherited a sizeable fortune, which he spent freely upon travel, women and gambling. At 21 he was knighted by King Charles I. Sir John had a gift for words, and his poetry made him a favorite with the king. As luck would have it, his poetry did not become popular but he is remembered as the originator of cribbage! At the time there existed two card games called Noddy and One and Thirty. He combined these two games and added his own spin to these existing games. He called his new game Cribbage and that became a favorite at Piccadilly. As time progressed, the name of the game evolved to Cribbage. Sir John was elected to parliament in 1640. He was later implicated in a rescue attempt of Thomas Wentworth, a political prisoner, from the Tower of London. The rescue plot was exposed and Sir John fled to France. The last heard of poor Sir John was that after his funds ran out, he committed suicide by poisoning in 1642 at the ripe old age of 33. (Many thanks to DeLynn Colvert, President, American Cribbage Congress)

The American Cribbage Congress (ACC) is an international organization dedicated to the game of cribbage. There are almost 7,200 members in the United States and Canada. The ACC conducts organized tournaments all over the nation all year long. There are 170 local clubs that play on a weekly basis in cities and towns. These are called "Grass Roots" clubs and are made up of cribbage players from the local area. There are two such clubs in New Mexico. The Albuquerque club (Sandia Peggars Cribbage Club) plays every Saturday morning from 9AM-12:30PM in the County Communications Center (CCC) at 10401 Holly NE which is just off the NE corner of Paseo del Norte and Eubank NE. Mr. Bud Lake, Director of the CCC and Sharon Foley have generously made their conference room available to the local club. The other New Mexico cribbage club is located in Grants, NM (Mt. Taylor Cribbage Club) and plays on Monday evenings at 6PM. There is also some interest on starting a cribbage club in Las Cruces, NM if additional players can be found in that city.

Preliminary discussions have been held with the Albuquerque Public School System (APS) to establish basic cribbage classes for fifth graders. This will teach the youngsters a wonderful game and will greatly enhance their math skills since cribbage is a game where no scores are written down and counting is done entirely in the players' head.

If you would like to join an existing Grass Roots Cribbage club or start a club in a city or town where a club does not yet exist, please contact Tom Lewis at (505) 858-0459.

Bill Campbell Wins Emerald Coast!

You would think that a founding member of the ACC would have won a tournament by now, but according to the December Cribbage World, he still hasn't.

Yes, I've cashed a few times in Raleigh, picked up a first in the consolation tourney in Atlanta, runner up in Portsmouth, in the top 18 at the Tournament of Champions followed by a fifth place the next year, (nice payday, that) and a few other dries and drabs, but never numero uno.

So it was considerable relief when I nailed the Emerald Coast Open. Sure, it was a small field and Hurricane Ivan had pretty well beaten us up, but at least I would have a headline to send my cribbage-playing grandkids: "Bill Campbell Wins Emerald Coast."

Finally, my name in lights. Got all of Henry's pool, too.

So you can imagine my disappointment when I picked up the December issue to read that Ronald LaPointe had won the Emerald Coast tourney. Geez, I didn't even figure in the top four according to the article. I could have used the MRPs, too.

So to all my many crib friends, keep the faith. I'll keep trying and someday I'll make you proud.

ACC Internet Cribbage

Van Dyke still in first place

As our season rounds the halfway point, Mark Van Dyke (loosespokes1135) continues to set the pace, with 524 IRPs through the end of December. Behind him lurk Donald Olney (olney_1147) and Scott Buhrow (MrB_IA218). Though they trail Van Dyke by 69 and 108 IRPs respectively, these men hold one advantage: they have played in fewer tournaments, and thus have more rated tournaments available to play in.

You see, participants in ACC Internet Cribbage only receive IRPs for the first 100 tournaments they play in each season. This creates a fair and reasonable basis for the annual Internet Championship competition, and discourages team play and ratings tampering. Once players reach their annual quota, they are welcome to continue playing—and their tournament victories will enter the permanent ACC record—but they will no longer earn IRPs. This means that Olney and Buhrow, or someone else, might catch up to Van Dyke once the season wraps up.

The IRP quota system is modeled after our Grass Roots program, which limits official play to the maximum annual tournament allotments for each Division. It's like a professional sports league, in which the annual standings gauge performance based on everyone playing the same number of matches.

There's still plenty of play left in our 2004-5 Season. Come to www.cribbage.org/internet and join in!

Rule of the month review:

There are occasionally times when the distribution of the cards is incorrect. In these cases, pone's hand, dealer's hand or the crib have too many or too few cards. If this happens, leave the cards as they lay and call a judge. After speaking with both players and observing the cards, the judge will go to the rulebook to determine the action to be taken. These actions are listed on pages 15 and 16 of the rulebook.

Club 240's Christmas Story

Twas the week before Christmas, club 240 was having their tourney.

It was more than a regional; it was a wet and wild journey.

Players placed pegs in the boards, the silvers and reds
While visions of skunks danced in their heads.

The coats were hung up with the greatest of care
I'm playing game nine while eyeing our lunch over there.

When all of a sudden I heard a noise from the ceiling.
It could be Santa so I halted my dealing.

It was a few tiny dewdrops, not really the worst.
That is, until the waterfall, when we heard the pipe burst.

Todd did his best as Noah to usher out Peggers 2 by 2.
We had exactly forty players; I found this odd but true.

Out in the cold hall, coatless people did huddle
All three rooms filling with one giant puddle.

In came the firemen, I didn't get their names.
Todd relocated to the bar so we could finish our games.

On dealin, on peggin, on skunkin, on with the matches!
Our jackets were soaked before we battened the hatches.

When it was over Shelly Vadnais had won
With a very fine scorecard of thirty-one.

When I saw Todd and Diane ride away,
I heard them exclaim "Merry Christmas to all, this was one heck of a day!

News from Club 119 in Marietta, GA: At the last regular meeting of Club 119 before the holidays (Dec. 21), Clyde Awtrey scored the elusive 28 hand on the second deal of his first game. He had visions of the $200+ in the skunk pot dancing in his head (any player scoring a 28 or 29 hand or a grand slam wins the contents.) About midway through the tournament, Clyde became aware of a fellow player who was really tearing up his opponents and had not lost a game after 5 matches. He was well aware that the club's policy was not to award any skunk pot money until the end of the tournament in the event more than one player scored one of the two special hands or a grand slam. Tom Calvert was successful in his quest of a grand slam (20/9/+187), which gave him three wins in his last three tournaments! (a 17.7 point per game average). Tom and Clyde split the skunk pot, each receiving over $100. Lou Gardner, who finished second to Tom with a score of 19/8/+188 nearly made it a trifecta for the evening. He lost his fifth game by only one point! What makes the double winner rather unusual is that during play last summer, the same thing happened between Dave O'Neil, club co-director, and Steve Angier, 2003 club champion. Dave score a 28 hand in his second game and Steve persevered for a grand slam. The two of them split a skunk pot in excess of $200. The recent 29-hand/grand slam was the first to tap the skunk pot since the one split by Dave & Steve! To make things even a little more unusual, Clyde scored his last 28-hand almost exactly a year prior to his most recent accomplishment (on 12-5-03). That time he did not have to share the skunk pot with anyone else. He won it all by himself!

West Covina's Club 68 in LaPuente, CA December 20, 2004 tournament had fourteen players. The leading player had 12 game points. The next six players each had 11 game points. Seven, half of the fourteen players earned Grass Roots points. Too bad the three players that each had 10 game points couldn't get skunks. Grass Roots points would have gone to more than half of the players.

GRASS ROOTS TOURNAMENT #17 - 12/30/04 - Chehalis-Centralia Cribbage Club

It was real nice to have 30 for our weekly peggin' session. That's our biggest crowd since September 16 when we had 31. SAMANTHA FRY, youthful daughter of ED FLEMING, rates high on people skills. That sure helps to create some acceptance in a group. Glad you were here. And you can win more than two games and still count on our friendship too. Her father EDWIN joined the Chehalis-Centralia Cribbage Club and became our 40th member of this season. And his wife JAN plays this game too. Let's work on ED a bit and perhaps we'll be able to count JAN as a member too. Welcome aboard! DAVE GRAYSON, Director of the Kitsap Peggers, was a most welcome addition to our weekly session. His better-half MARILYN has agreed to be our WSCC 2005 Tournament Administrator. Aren't we lucky? That's why they were in town. Wanted to offer MARILYN an opportunity to see how we were organized. On a more personal level it gave them a chance to check out their donated room at KING OSCAR MOTEL. Just one more example of how our sponsors are involved in the success of our tournament. DENNIS MISENAR, club champion of the Kitsap Peggers last season, was a welcome visitor. His scorecard on this night didn't give the slightest clue as to his championship status. Sorry, DENNIS! Those Lacey Peggers were here in number as NANCY HAWKINS, GEORGE STANTON, and SUE WHEATON took their places at the crib boards.

Club 89 of Springfield, VA has a high hand can to which participating players contribute a buck each tournament. The player who ends up with the last highest hand gets the contents of the can. As you can imagine, the can gets passed around to a number of players each evening as the number of 24 hands increase. However, in one recent evening we had an unusual event occur. It is rare to have a 24 crib but one of our players, Clyde Royce, had the good fortune to have three of these cribs in one evening. Even with this luck, Clyde did not wind up with the hand at the end of the evening but he did enjoy the distinction of being the first player to ever achieve three 24 cribs in any one tournament. Club 89 has been playing for over 15 years

Club 240 hosted a GRRT in December 2004 that was rather unusual. Bob Chase created the following poem telling that story. It was a trying but successful day for

Todd Schaefer and Diane Waite as the main water pipe connected to the sprinkler burst as most of the players were finishing up game 9 and were about to start the lunch break.

News from Club 214: David Campbell recently had a grand slam scorecard. He received half of the skunk pot contents but his friend Mark Soule had cleaned it out two weeks before with his 28 hand. Poor David got half of half...its quite a joke in the club. Mark and Vicki Soule travel with David. Just last week (12/29) Ted Mills one of their new Grass Roots also scored a 28 hand.

Club 257 in Burbank, CA has a skunk pot that is crying out for nourishment! Three recent 28 hands by Nancy Forte, Jay Goldfarb and Anne Phipps have depleted the contents. The club is not worried as there is always someone out there who is willing to skunk you and replenish the can's contents!! Recent lung surgery has kept Nancy Forte away for a while but she is recovering and expected to return soon.

The Granite State Cribbers (GR club #314 pegging out of Hudson, NH) are proud to report their very first Grand Slam.

Greg Gougian started 2005 with a bang by scoring a fantastic 19/9/+159 during the January 5th session. It should also be noted that Greg scored the club's first 28 hand back on November 18, 2004. With his Slam, Greg has taken over the club lead from David Statz by one GP! Frank Clark continued his good play on this night by showing a fine 12/6/+41 card and took home the second place prize. Kirk Hobbs also finished in the money with a solid 12/5/+99 card, which was good enough for third place. Club Directors Dan and Sheila Crete would like to invite anyone in the area or just passing through to join them for some pegging!

Tidbits from Club 119 in Marietta, GA: For the THIRD time in less than one year, a 28-hand AND a grand slam were scored in the same tournament at a weekly meeting of the Have Pegs will Travel club. Each time the 28-hand winner was different person than the grand slam winner. On 1/11/05 Steve Angier garnered a 28-hand during his 5th game. Four games later, Tom Calvert scored his second grand slam in his last three local tournaments! Two weeks earlier Tom scored his grand slam to best Lou Gardner, who missed a slam when his only loss was by one point! This time Tom bested Dave O'Neil, who lost only one game (by 5 points). What are the odds of having three 28-hand/grand slam combos in the same tournament within one year? Even more amazing is how close we came to having a 28-hand sharing the skunk pot with TWO grand slams in the same tournament (within a time span of 3 weeks!) As further evidence of the close competition in our club, we entered our 18th week with three players in a dead heat for the first half championship (based upon total game points). Steve Angier led with 196 points, followed by Frank Podjun and Dave O'Neil with 195. When the final results were in, Dave O'Neil managed to squeak out a win with 191 points, edging out Steve and Frank by 3 and 10 points, respectively. The race for club champion (most GRPs) is also very close. At the halfway point, Dave leads Steve by 8 points & Frank by 13.

At Grass Roots Hartford Metro Club #26, Don Janelle and Harvey Glass were having at it one evening in December. Don was entering 2nd street and Harv was at the start of 3rd. Whoa! Don scores the "Big 28" - and, for his reward, Harv skunks him! C'est La Cribbage!

Club #3 in Crystal Lake, Illinois. Last year Dave Drew came up with the brilliant idea of putting aside $10.00 a week from our club fees, during the cribbage season, to be given to the club champ(s) to be used only for air fare to the Reno Tournament of Champions. The first recipient of the prize was last year's club champ Bob Deeds. Good luck in Reno! Bob's wife Geri thought so much of the idea that she and our leader, Dave Drew, are battling it out for next year's airfare! Three weeks ago we had a situation where two club members, both with perfect cards through eight games, squared off against each other in the last game of the evening and Scott Hudson beat Jean Huismann by five holes to get the grand slam! They say patience is a virtue, so after sitting with 999 grass root points for the last four weeks, John Kolby finally got the point he needed for his bronze award, congratulations John!

From "NJ Nibs & Nobs" Grass Roots Club #175 in the Somerville, NJ area (north central NJ): Malcolm Enos scored a 19/9/+159 Grand Slam on 1/12/05, his first. The club is seeking new members for Grass Roots Cribbage on Wednesday evenings at 6:45 PM. If you have cribbage playing friends or relatives in the area please have them contact Theresa Segal at (908) 781-6237 or John Oppelt at oppeltj@juno.com.

Rick Allen Cops Virginia Championship

Having not had a tournament in the Mid-Atlantic area since the Grand National, players were chomping at the bit when the Richmond Cribbage Club again welcomed all to Richmond for the 14th Virginia Championships. Attracting an 80-player field, all events were hotly contested. In Main qualifying play, Luther Lanier (NC) posted the high card (35 16/22 +184), however, it was eventual Champion Rick Allen (VA) who started catching hot cards late Saturday. Looking at 26 GP's with two games remaining, Allen skunked his last two opponents to finish as the 4th place qualifier. Then in the Main finals, when pitted vs. Barbara Gooden (NC), one of the area's most capable players, Allen pegged out for the win as dealer in a match that was not decided until the last six holes of the 7th game. Life Master Ron Hamilton (KS) and Grand Master Jeff Raynes finished 3-4.

Life Master Dwight Christiansen (CT) won 9 of 10 (18 9/10 +94) in the 56-player Consolation to take Q honors, but at the end of the day newly-crowned Master Bob Milk (VA) defeated John Delinsky (MD) in a close match for the victory. Pat Wefel (NC) and Christiansen finished 3-4.

Directors Rick Allen and Janet Meinert reported the satellite events:

Opening Skirmish: Steve Sattler 18 8/10 +109
Old Dominion Special: Mark Soule 18 8/9 +166

High Rollers: Bruce Sattler 16 7/10 +15
28's: Chuck Yeomans, Dutch Gehrlich, Peter Lerch

This 14th annual event marked the first time a member of the host club has won the Main event and the first time the home club has swept the Main and Consolation.

In Memoriam

Ted Moore

Benton Harbor, Michigan

Ted was a charter member of Michigan Club 107 (Club "19"). He passed away in late September. Ted was an avid cribbage player and very seldom missed a weekly tournament, or a Regional or National Grass Roots event. He will be missed by all his cribbage companions and many friends.

Harold A. "Rocky" Holland

Napa, California

Harold was an original member of Century Peggers (GR 100) in Yountville. He passed away on January 14 at the age of 78. He had a great spirit, and loved his cribbage. He will be missed by all.

Duane Toll Repeats As Long Match Champ

Two-Star Duane Toll (OR) set a record score last year earning the ACC's National Championship. He illustrated his expertise on the boards by winning the National Long Match event as well, repeating this feat two years in a row.

Life Master Don Flesch (WI) gave Toll all he could handle in the final match. The format called for a 44-game match, winning by 3 games. Flesch and Toll played a grueling 64-game match before Toll came out on top.

Grand Master Al Lindner (WI) finished 3rd, and Tom Button (WI) took home 4th.

TOURNAMENT OF CHAMPIONS MAY SET RECORD

As Cribbage World goes to press, the upcoming Tournament of Champions may very well set a record for attendance this year. Director Joan Rein predicts about 575 peggers will be on hand for this prestigious event. This event is by invitation only.

Criteria to earn an invitation was published in November's Cribbage World, page 22.
