211 On Pacific Coast...Site Of GN XXIV Dennis Misenaar Cops Oregon Coast

The Chinook Winds Casino, Lincoln City, Oregon, was abuzz with peggers the last weekend in April as some 211 peggers descended on this site for some serious pegging. And when the pegs were laid away on Sunday afternoon, only Dennis Misenaar, pegging out of Bremerton, WA, was left standing undefeated. Misenaar took home 196 MRP's, the winner's trophy, the Super Q, the winner's four-figure check, and bragging rights galore! Another Washingtonian took 2nd...Mike Pendras. Bob Bartoch (CA), a member of the Western Region All-Stars last year, took home a 3-4 finish with Life Master Jim Gogolin (OR).

Newly-inducted Hall 'O Famer Paul Hatcher (OR) took Q honors with a very nice 37 17/22 +232, and with a third-round finish is getting very close to his Two-Star rating.

Master Jeanne Jelke (WA) is posting great numbers this cribbage year and she took home the win in the 128-player Consolation. Master Chris McComas (WA) is among the leaders nationwide and continues to score well this cribbage year, taking 2nd this time around. Master Bud Ferrigno (OR) and Helen Henderson (WA) finished 3-4. Life Master Bill Wakeman (CA) took Q honors with a grand slam 18 9/9 +149 card.

Directors Rollie Heath, Bernie Nelson, Roy and Jeanne Hofbauer fielded a full slate of events. The winners:

Friday Early Bird: DeLynn Colvert
High Rollers: Jones Horn
Doubles: Ruth Fraker & Lisa Spellenberg
Saturday: Dan Doescher
Last Chance: Glenna Little
Super Q: Dennis Misenaar
Sadie Hawkins: Patti & Graeme Gossett
29: Bruce Goff
28's: Julie Pierce, Rollie Heath, Jack Moritzky, Stan Wilson

Bruce Goff scored the ACC's 25th sanctioned 29-hand this cribbage year during the Main's qualifying round. Last year's record 26 29-hands may very well be surpassed this cribbage year, as three month's play remain.

The Chinook Winds proved great hosts as usual, and this site will be the home of Grand National XXIV this September. Director Rollie Heath promises ample playing room for the GN, and players unfamiliar with the Chinook Winds will be impressed with the facility sitting on a hill overlooking the Pacific Ocean, complete with the usual casino action and great dining areas.

Sharlene Medeiros Wins Again! Maine Spring Fling Draws 84

Life Master Sharlene Medeiros (MA) is at it again. This time around she nailed the Maine Spring Fling, played at Portland, ME on April 24. With 84 in the field, Medeiros picked up yet another 147 MRP's and has winged it over the 1,100 MRP mark for this cribbage year, and throws her hat into the national championship race as well. The last victim of her hot run was Jean Gates (NH). Gates picked up 105 MRP's for the 2nd place finish. Pauline Hawkins (NMbr) and Stanley Mullins (NH) finished 3-4, and garnered 70 MRP's each. Lynn Babbitt (RI) had the hot hand in the Q round, scoring a nice 23 11/12 +196 to easily take honors.

Elijah White (ME) took home the marbles in the 40-player Consolation, nipping Robert Fitzgerald (CT) in the final playoff match. Paul Chadburn (ME) and Carolyn Bird (ME) finished 3-4. Fitzgerald was also the high Q player, scoring a grand slam 8/8 +129 card.

Director Susan Cousens reported William Shoemaker (CT) won the High Roller (Charlie Finley was 2nd), and the Doubles event was won by Russ Glidden & Dwight Keirstead. Cousens reported nary a 28 or 29-hand showed.

Joe White Champ At Regency Lakes III

Joe White (FL) came home the winner at the third edition of the Regency Lakes Open, played at Coconut Grove, FL on May 1. With 32 in the field, no byes were in the playoff round, and White zipped to the win by besting Grass Roots Statistician Kristy Haught (FL) in the final playoff match. The win came with 70 Master Points for White, and Haught garnered 42. Esther Rolfe (FL), and Ray Wanke (FL) finished 3-4. Gina Daesch (FL), wife of director Joe Daesch, took Q honors with a 22 10/12 +147 (45 MRP's).

Richie Lang (FL) took the 21-player Consolation win, with Paula Aberle (FL) in 2nd. Steve Campanale (FL) and Bob Chevalier (FL) finished 3-4. Campanale also was the top Q winner with a 15 7 +107 card.

A highlight of this event saw Veronica "Von" Sosh (FL) score the ACC's 26th 29-hand this cribbage season and earned $100 from the ACC for this gem. 26 in a year ties last year's mark for 29-hands. The next 29 hand scored this season will establish a new high, and with two months play remaining, the new mark will surely be established.

New Judges

The following ACC members have been confirmed as Judges, having been certified using the new book of rules:

Henry Bergeron, Webster, NH
Paula Bergeron, Webster, NH
Roger Bouchard, Glastonbury, CT
Isabel Hyndman, Williamstown, MA
Valerie Nozick, Atlanta, GA

To take this Judges Examination, send $3 to:

Al Miller
12 Michael Ave.
Nashua, NH 03062-1418

Judges Removed

Testing Examiner Al Miller has removed the following judges from their positions for failure to re-new their ACC memberships:

Sean Arnold, Tucson, AZ
Casey Casebolt, Rio Linda, CVA
Ron Wilburn, Burney CA

Dennis Culver Takes Spring Break

It was Dennis Culver all the way at the recent Spring Break Open, played at Westminster, CA on April 9. With 50 players in attendance, Culver netted 105 MRP's and will forever be known as the "Spring Break Champ!" Milt Goodman (CA) finished 2nd, followed by Andrea Witken (CA) and Art Whitney (CA) in the 3-4 slot. Western Region All-Star team member Bob Bartosh (CA) took Q honors with a nice 22 10/12 +208 card.

Mel Krantz (CA) took home the win in the 26-player Consolation, nipping Al Jean Simpson (CA) in the final playoff match. Newly-crowned Grand Master Les Sumner (NV) finished in the 3-4 bracket with Pam Pomeroy (CA). Sumner also took Q honors with a 12 7/8 +56 card.

Co-directors Gary Sumner and Andrea Witken reported that only Milt Goodman could score a 28-hand, and no 29's showed.

Bruce Forbes Cry Baby Champ

Bruce Forbes, Chico, CA, has been knocking on the door for his Master rating for some time. His timing is all wrong...he keeps winning the Cry Baby event (3 times in a row at Winnemucca), and we all know there is no Master Points awarded for that.

Ron Rapoza Tops Blackstone

Ron Rapoza (RI) zipped to the win at the recent Blackstone Valley Open, played at Medway, MA. With 92 players in the field, Rapoza nailed down 147 MRP's and bragging rights to boot. Grand Master Cindy Veradt (MA) took home 2nd, followed by Two-Star Phyllis Schmidt (MA) and Master Mike Azevedo (RI) in the 3-4 bracket. Mark Soule (ME) posted the top Q-round score (23 10/12 +161) and takes another step towards "Rookie of the Year" for 2005.

Larry Connolly (MA) won the 50-player Consolation, nipping Life Master Bill Shoemaker (CT) in the final playoff match. Louis Manter (ME) and Life Master George Bickford (MA) finished 3-4. One-Star Larry Samet (MA) won 7 of 8 (177/8 +151) to easily take Q honors.

Director Shawn Jordan reported that only Mathew Piechota scored a 28-hand. No 29's showed.

Two Davids, No Goliath in Atlanta

It was two Davids fighting it out for the Atlanta Classic on April 17, and David Smith (GA) after being behind 2-0 in the championship match, recovered and edged David O'Neil (GA) for the title in this 52-player match. Art Burgess (GA) and Master Peter Lerch (NC) finished 3-4. Ed Thompson was on a roll all weekend, qualifying tops in the Main Event (33 14/22 +192), and finishing 3rd in the Consolation, earning Q-money in both events.

In the 34-player Consolation it was Jim Coffey (FL) all the way. He took Q honors (17 8/9 +111) and won the playoffs as well. His last victim in his hot run was Master Bill Cooper (GA). Steve Angier (GA) finished in the 3-4 bracket with Thompson. Not only did Coffey take all the Consolation action, he won the 50-50 raffle as well.

Director Barri Behrand reported Michael Burnham took the Friday night game (17 8/9 +88) and Larry Phifer zipped to a 17 7/9 +101 score to take Saturday night's action. Phifer also scored a 29-hand in this event, but, alas, no $100 from the ACC as this was not a sanctioned event. Henry Douglass scored a 28-hand in Consolation play, and will receive a commemorative certificate from the ACC for this gem.

Jeff Shimp Wins MLCT #2

The 2nd Annual Michigan Long-match Cribbage Tournament was recently completed. For the second year in a row, the final match-up featured Jeff Shimp against Bob Chambers, but this time Jeff came out the winner. Jim Blough and Amy Jo Adams finished 3-4.

The 3rd Annual MLCT will begin play in September. To enter or for more information, contact:

Rules Controversy

Just read the "Sportsmanship" article in Cribbage World. Outstanding! We could all use this reminder periodically (like maybe before the start of tournaments). Sadly I must admit that I, too, have been guilty of rule bashing. The Code of Ethics is well written, but if it's not being followed and/or enforced then it may as well be eliminated. I, for one, believe it's worth adhering to. Wilson's letter has been a good reminder for me, and I hope for the rest of the ACC membership as well. Thanks.

Illinois Open Draws 119

Rowley Nails Julian In Record Breaker

One of the most unusual final matches in the history of the ACC occurred on April 10, when Life Master Larry Rowley (WI) squared off with Two-Star Bob Julian (WI). It was a battle of two veteran peggers, ages 85 and 90! Rowley (90) edged the young whippersnapper Julian (85) for the title, making this very likely the oldest combined finalists of all time. Rowley took home 147 MRP's for the win, but Julian, after qualifying tops (38 18/22 +222) took home an aggregate 170 MRP's and throws his hat into the ring for yet another top-ten All-American finish this cribbage year.

Patrick Donahue (IL) took home 3rd, followed by Dale Rohm (WI) in 4th. Each garnered 70 MRP's.

Karen Bouffiou (WI) ran the table in the 76-player Consolation, taking Q honors (17 8/9 +101) and winning the playoffs as well. This great run netted Bouffiou 102 MRP's (aggregate). Local George Stankus took 2nd, followed by Life Master John Hiland (WI) and Laura Lui (WI) in the 3-4 bracket.

Director Marvin Lang reported that the Friday night match went to Grand Master Emilio Perez (IL) and the Saturday match was copped by Nolan Johnson (WI). He also reported Joe Edwards scored the meet's only 28-hand. No 29's showed.

Sue Schenk Takes Jackson Peggers

Sue Schenk (MI) came home the winner in a one-day event played at Jackson, MI on April 16. Her final opponent in this 50-player match was Ruth Tiesma (MI) and Schenk prevailed for the win. Mark Van Dyke (MI) and Joy Shimp (MI) finished 3-4.

Canadian Hal Mueller posted a great 20 10/12 +114 to easily take Q honors.

Director Jerry Adams reported that Mueller also won the Friday Early Bird, and Saturday's Last Chance went to Larry Schweah (MI). Only Life Master Syl Lulinski (IL) could score that elusive 28-hand. No 29's showed. Adams also reported no Consolation was played.

Ken Capper Asparagus King Jeanne Hofbauer Rolls To Hermiston Win

Roy Hofbauer has won four Main Events and has a 2,000MRP lead on spouse Jeanne. Nevertheless, Jeanne recently won her 6th Main Event at the Greater Hermiston Open and the argument goes on as to is the better player in the Hofbauer clan. Gary Pinkley (WA) finished 2nd in this 54-player event, taking home 70 MRP's for the effort. Grand Master Jack Shumate III (CA) and Life Master Rollie Heath (OR) finished 3-4, and earned 42 MRP's each. John Reed (OR) took Q honors with a nice 36 17/22 +258 card.

Four-Star DeLynn Colvert (MT) copped the 38-player Consolation, needing 8 to win with first count in the final game, and 8 was his hand. One point shorter and Life Master Sharon Hejtmank (MT) would have been the winner. Rex Paddock (MT) earned his Life Master with a 3-4 finish. Master Bob Brumley (WA) finished in the 3-4 bracket also, with each player earning 24 MRP's. Brumley was the top Q player with a 167/9 +145 card and added another 15 MRP's for this top score.

Director Ken Capper had a full array of satellites. The winners:

Time Passer: Bill Jones

High Roller: Ras Rasmussen

Doubles: Bruce Pomeroy & Jay McCloskey

Saturday: Iris Sundquist

Super Q: Roy Hofbauer, Larry Pisha, Jack Moritzky (3-way tie)

Team: S, Hejtmank, T, Malmgren, J. Moritzky

28's: Irma Symons, Gary Pinkley

Once again, director Capper had goodies for the players. This time around it was boxes of fresh-cut asparagus. And the host Eagles Club proved hospitable, furnishing tasty meals and a reasonable bar.

Tidbits From Hermiston

Ras Rasmussen won the High Rollers when one of his opponents made two major errors at the winner's hole, giving Rasmussen the win....and the High Rollers championship.

Bill & Joanne Hill were great hosts, as players from all over the Northwest roosted at their spacious home for the weekend and were treated to a great meal on Friday night. Cribbage fever, catch it....and you will find the camaraderie top notch!

Herschel Mack Pays Tax Bill....Plus!

Grand Master Herschel Mack (CA) paid his tax bill in style by winning the 5th Annual Tax Relief Open at Alamo, CA on April 23. With 102 players in the field, Mack not only was the top qualifier (27 13/16 +147) but came home the winner in the playoffs as well. After the smoke had cleared, Mack tallied up some $1,268, solving his tax problems, big time! His last victim in the playoffs was Master Tad Pilecki (CA). Pilecki, nevertheless, in finishing 2nd carted home 105 MRP's and some help with his tax bill as well. Grand Master Harold Sontag (CA) and Justin Martin (CA) finished 3-4 (and 70 MRP's each).

National MRP leader Grand Master Jim Crawford (CA) took Q honors in the 52-player Consolation (18 8/9 +176) adding 21 MRP's to his nation-leading MRP total. He also earned MRP's in the playoff round. Life Master Boyd McDonald (CA) won this event, with Master Cy Madrone (CA) finishing 2nd, followed by newly-crowned Master Bob Bartosh (CA) and Master Ervin Bentz (CA) in the 3-4 bracket.

Director Mary Herrmann reported two 28's were scored...one by H. Ross Njaa and the other by Jim Langley.

19 Hand!

John Mixer (CA) has come up with that elusive 19-hand. See below:

teach that person to use the Internet and they won't bother you for weeks.

Viva Las Vegas Dave Schuhrke Tops Vegas

This month is "Senior Month" for cribbage as Dave Schuhrke (NV) came home the winner at the Viva Las Vegas event played in mid-April. He nipped Grand Master Les Sumner (NV) in the final playoff match. Schuhrke is 73 years old and Sumner just celebrated his 75th birthday. However, this is not a record for a final match as Bob Julian and Larry Rowley duked it out a week earlier in Illinois. Their combined ages totaled 175. Schuhrke and Sumner's ages totaled a mere 148 years.

Clyde Shackelford (AZ) and Richard Van Hall (NV) finished 3-4 in this 86-player meet. Dale O'Berem (Las Vegas) nailed the Q round with a very nice 37 17/22 +254 card to easily take honors...and 55 MRP's (plus additional MRP's in the playoff round).

Nevadans were in the thick of the playoffs in both the Main and Consolation. A. J. Tasker (NV) took the 50-player Consolation, edging Master Julie Hardardt (CA) in the final playoff match. Rick Westerman (WA) and Master Bob Joslin (MN) finished 3-4. Newly-crowned Life Master Willie Evans topped the Q round with a 16 7/9 +86 card.

Director Bruce Fein conducted many satellite events. The winners:

Early Bird: Julie Hardardt

High rollers: Bob Julian

Doubles: A. J. Tasker & Glenn Pugh

28's: Jim Crawford, Don Burris, Bob Joslin, Kathleen Seiferlein

Don Burris joined the ACC at the beginning of this event, and promptly scored a 28-hand to begin his ACC action on a hot note. He will receive a 28-certificate for this long-shot.

In Memoriam

Jerry Patenaude

Cape Coral, Florida

Jerry died March 29 after a brief illness. He was a gracious player who loved the game. GR club 147 (Port Charlotte, FL) will sorely miss him.

Fran Christofferson Wins Colorado Spring Classic

It was Fran Christofferson, pegging out of nearby Aurora, CO winning the 62-player Colorado Spring Classic, played in Denver on April 8-10. Her last playoff match pitted her vs. Randi Viola (CO) and her cards remained hot for the win. Christofferson netted 105 MRP's for the win and Viola took home 70 for 2nd. Tammy Allen (CO) and director and Life Master Roger Wilson finished 3-4 (42MRP's each).

Life Master Bernie Nelson was a long way from his Oregon coast home, but he pegged with gusto and took Q honors with an excellent 36 17/22 +208 card (50 MRP's).

On Sunday morning, the Denver weather turned very nasty, with blizzard conditions bringing as much as two feet of snow in parts of Denver. All 8 finalists made the playoffs, but only a very hardy bunch of 17 made the Consolation event. The winner was Jim Brintnall (CO), followed by Peggy Johnson (WY) in 2nd. Mike Poole (CO) and Bruce Berner (CO) finished 3-4. Johnson was this event's top Q player as well (17 8/9 +95).

Director Wilson reported the satellite winners:

Friday Special: Ed Blubaum

Saturday Special: Jalae Tomasek

All Events: Kathy Pacocha (58 GP's)

28: Barbara Jochum

Friday and Saturday were beautiful days, with temperatures near 70, but when in Colorado, if you don't like the weather, wait a few minutes and it will change.

Top Ten May Set Record Score Sharlene Medeiros Makes Major MRP Move

The Annual All-American race is on a record-breaking pace, as some 12 players have already cracked the 1,000 mark for this cribbage year...with two month's play remaining. Several major events are yet to be played and final scores are predicted to be well over 1,300 to earn All-American honors.

Sharlene Medeiros (MA) recently earned her One-Star and her pace recently can only be described as torrid. She has topped 1,300 for the year and is currently in 3rd place nationally.

However, Jim Crawford (CA) remains at the top with 1,700 MRP's in the bag, leading 2nd place Duane Toll (OR) by roughly 300 points. Both players are known to earn prodigious points in short order, as are all of the players over the 1,000 mark, making this year's All-American race an exciting one.

The other nine players over the 1,000 mark are: Ron Morgan (CA); Phyllis Schmidt (MA); John Furler (OR); Jack Moritzky (WA); Jason Shumate (OR); Chris McComas (WA); Dwight Christiansen (CT); Bob Julian (WI); and Bill Medeiros (MA).

A score of players are near 1,000 and they have an outside chance of cracking the elite 10 for All-American honors this cribbage year with a hot finishing kick.

National Statistician Bob McCabe and Cribbage World editor DeLynn Colvert are hard-pressed to keep up with the fireworks in this year's cribbage action.

The top ten have their work cut out for them, and a visit to the podium at the Chinook Wind's Awards Banquet this September will be well earned.

VOTE

Crazy Eights!

By Dennis Misenar

Want to see a crazy expression? Just try pairing an eight next time your opponent leads one, especially if you have a seven to go with it. Not many players will risk this play as they can't get back in with the fourth eight; however I have noticed that I get a lot of pegging done with my opponent getting none with this play, when they do have the third eight, I only lose 2 points as I am able to make the count 31 with my seven. I notice a few people in my club use this play now too!

Play By The Rules

I just received my Crib World and when I opened it up, I read this "stupid" letter from Roger Wilson (whom I have always thought was "half-way intelligent"). I suppose you are one of those people who thinks parents should let their kids win whatever game they are teaching. Get real!!! How are you going to learn anything if you don't learn to play by the rules? When you goof and have to pay the penalty (however small or large) you certainly try to remember the next time. I know, I did that several times when I first was playing tournament crib. The other thing is that it is not fair to the other players because they have money involved and grassroots points to win. I DISAGREE WHOLEHEARTEDLY with your premise. You don't have to be rude when you explain to them- just be helpful.

Jerold Montgomery Wins Chico Open, Earns Grand Master

Jerold Montgomery, Red Bluff, CA, had a day to remember at the recent Chico Open, Chico, CA. On March 26, he zipped to the win, besting some 84 peggers, and earned ACC Grand Master 220. The win came with 147 MRP's, more than enough to zip over the magic 4,000 MRP mark needed to earn this rating. And Steve Harding (CA) earned his Master rating by finishing 2nd (105 MRP's). Ben Holder (CA) and Life Master Steve Reynolds (CA) finished 3-4, and each carted home 70 MRP's each.

Grand Master Jim Crawford (CA) is tenaciously hanging on to his national lead in the annual MRP race by qualifying tops (30 15/18 +109), and he earned yet another 45 MRP's in the Q round, plus playoff MRP's as well and he is at the 1,700 mark for this cribbage year.

Two-Star Duane Toll (OR) is Crawford's closest competitor and he keeps pace with a Consolation win. With 60 players in the competition, Toll took home 60 MRP's and is at the 1,400 mark as cribbaged hits into the final two month's action. Pat Farris (CA), Grand Master Evelyn Gilmore (CA), and David Echeberry (CA) finished 2-3-4. Echeberry was also the top Q player with a 15 7/7 +123 grand slam. Director Bruce Forbes reported Dennis & Neva Jacobs won the Friday doubles event, and Heidi Glashan scored the meet's only 28-hand.

Some Fresh Faces - Internet Cribbage

To no one's surprise, Mark Van Dyke (loosespokes1135) of Grand Haven, MI remains atop our standings through April. Meanwhile, Hawaii's Charles Rodgers (KALEKAI) saw his terrific 204 IRP run in March come crashing to a halt as he was shut out in seven tries in April. The cards will do that to you Charles! John Schafer (netview85) of Battle Creek, MI took advantage of the situation to retake second place, his 63 IRPs for month coming entirely as a result of winning the April 21 Pegging Pals single elimination event.

The player of the month is Donald LeVack (redeagle0) of Colorado Springs, CO, who put together a First Place, a Second Place and a Third Place finish in, with a few sundry lower qualifications, to amass a 156 IRP April, enough to move him into the Top Ten for the first time this season. Donald is the only Top Ten player not repeating from last month. His victory on April 28 must have been particularly satisfying after seeing his cards go South in four previous Finals matches this season.

Although our leader board shows little change this month, we do have several fresh faces in our winners circle. William A. Schultz (floydandzep) of Lincoln, IL, grabbed his first ACC Internet Cribbage victory by taking the April 7 single elimination event. No word on whether Schultz dedicated the victory to the musicians presumably honored by his nickname. Vicki Soule (sweetnwyldeme21) captured a Cribbage Cup from her computer in Woolwich, ME. Marilyn Gaudreau (DisownedHarbor3) won from Agawam, MA, just outside Springfield. No word yet on the meaning of her curious nickname, or why it's number 3. David J. Brooks (Shaming) of Concord, NC and Ray Brixius (Ragin_Pistolero) of Omaha, NE round out our first-time winners.

Special mention to 2004 All-Internet player Don Eastwood (NC310Crib), who was the first member to reach 100 tournament in this 2004-5 season. Internet Cribbage isn't the same without the sight of your moniker in the lobby, Don!

ACC Internet Cribbage is fun, exciting, and a great way to meet (and recruit) new members. Join us at www.cribbage.org/internet.

Dealing the Cards: The pone shall not reach for or touch the cards before the distribution is completed, except to use the hand or arm as a backstop to prevent cards from falling off the table while being dealt.

ACC Board of Directors Election

Ballots and biographies for the 43 candidates were included in the May Cribbage World. If you have not yet voted, please select the candidate(s) of your choice. Ballots must be postmarked by June 15th. All it takes is a few minutes of your time and a 23-cent stamp! These are the volunteers who are willing to spend the extra time necessary to do the work to make sure our congress runs efficiently. Please look at the biographies and vote for those members you think will work hard and contribute their time to benefit the ACC.

NOTICE: I need to receive items for the August Grass Roots Corner not later than July 4th as I will be out of the country from July 6th through 20th. Sorry for the inconvenience but I need to get the column to the editor prior to my departure.

AN UNUSUAL HAND in the Chehalis-Centralia Cribbage Club DON WANTA of Toledo produced a bit of excitement when he scored crib's rarest 20-point hand. The Toledo Terror held 2-2-2-9 and found that elusive fourth deuce to tally 20-points. On this night, the hand was worth $35. This hand is rarer than a 28-pointer, as folks will often hold the 2-2-2 with a card other than the nine. They might hold 2-2-2-A or 2-2-2-3 even though 2-2-2-9 is worth eight points as a starter. Conversely nobody is likely to hold 5-5-5 with a card other than X-pointers if they have the larger card available. In the Chehalis-Centralia Cribbage Club, 2-2-2-2-9 shows once in each

10,888 deals and a 28-hand shows once in each 9,667 deals. And this hand does not occur this frequently in general play where there is no incentive to hold. Since we offer $25-$50 for it, we increase the frequency rate. This is the sixth time a player has collected for that elusive 2-2-2-2-9 in this group. When's the last time you scored this beauty and how many points did you take? Now you know why we call him the Toledo Terror

At Club #318's last meeting in Holmes, PA, they had their first 28 hand. Eric Conroy was dealt four 5's. A king was cut making Eric very excited. Unfortunately for Eric that was the only hand he had all game. He didn't win the game, but the 28 prevented a skunk. Since our club is so new he didn't win much money either. A 28 pays half the skunk jar. At the time of Eric's 28 hand, there was $4 in the jar. So Eric took home $2 from the jar!

Club 109 in Stoughton, MA connects with the RED SOX. During a recent interview with Terry Francona, manager of the World Champion BOSTON RED SOX, he was asked how he relaxed in the clubhouse. He replied, "I like to play a little cribbage". That was all Doris Perkins (MA 226) had to hear. She collaborated with club member Bill Inglis (MA 1908), who makes and sells custom boards and pegs, to make a special board for Terry. Bill produced a beautiful cribbage board in RED SOX colors, with pegs to match. He donated this board, which was sent to Terry as a gift from club PT 109. Doris sent it, including some ACC info, to the RED SOX office. Three days later, after just returning from a Texas road trip, Terry Francona called Doris to personally thank her, Bill, and the club for the beautiful and thoughtful gift. He was going to try out the board that afternoon. As busy as he was he took the time to call Doris. A classy response from a classy guy. Go SOX Go.

New from Club 150 in Vista, CA. This was the Pacific Coast Pegger's final session of the season: Barb Sack and Ray Lanoue are 95 wins and 94 wins for the season going into the last night of the season, and no one else is in the race. Barb has an 11 (5W) point card for the night, but Ray comes through with a 12 (5W) point card. Sheeesh! 9 sessions, 81 games played and they are dead tied for 1st place. Now we go to games won for the tiebreaker. Barb had a one win game advantage over Ray going into the final night, 44/43. Final tally: 49/48. Barb takes the 04/05 Club Champion by a tie breaker one game win margin and gets the nice set of (pewter) club championship "skunk" pegs for her efforts. Congrats to Barb.

The fun was only just beginning. We have a hi-hand traveling can that everyone throws a buck into, and usually the last 24 of the night wins. There always seem to be 5 or 6 players collecting from the hi-hand can. 23 of our 24 players for the night are in the side pot for the hi-hand can, which was a nice, little side pot. 1st game, 1st hand: Ann Nichols holds Q-5-5-5, and up jumps a 5 for the cut card, bingo! 28 hand right out of the box. I nudge Ann...."very nice Ann, you won't have to worry about any 24's taking your hi-hand can away from you now". Alas....she loses the game by 8 pts to visitor Ed Wozniak. 2nd game, second street: Nicki Newvine holds 10-5-5-5 -you guessed right, up come the case 5 for the second 28. Nicki has no trouble in putting away the game win (50 pts). Poor Ann holds the can for less than 2 games and has to give it up to Nicki. Harold Shane becomes Nicky's victim by the 50 spread, and if that isn't bad enough getting shell-shocked by a 28 hand, Harold plays Director Roy Cook the very next game and loses by a 58-spread pt margin. (Harold will get his licks in later) 3rd game, Judy Gilbertson is sitting on Nicki's immediate right, nudges Nicki and very politely, says, "Nicki, would you please pass the can". Unreal, holding K-5-5-5, here comes the 5 again as the cut card and the THIRD 28 hand of the night in the first 3 games.

Alas (again), Judy loses the game by a whopping 20 points to Ann Flaherty after scoring her 28. HEY.....As Director, I would like to lodge a complaint. 28 on my left.... 28(s) to my right, what happened to mine? AHA, I get it, IT IS LADIES NIGHT. Now the weird: Remember poor Harold? The "Special-Hand" of the night was called out as the "first 24" wins the side pot. Harold Shane, along in the 7th game calls over to me and asks, "Roy, has anyone scored a 24 yet"? I answer, "Nope, not yet, the special-hand pot is still there." Harold answers back and says, "I just had one."

Harold Shane scores the first, and only 24 of the evening, that I know of, and walks off with the $$ for the special hand of the night. The only tournaments that I know of that score three or more 28's in one session, are usually the ones in Reno and it usually takes all 22 games to do it, not 9. Actually, 3 in this case. As De Lynn Colvert would say, "Cribbage Fever, catch it"

Club 89 in Springfield, VA, as many clubs do, has a "high hand can" to which most contribute a buck. The can gets passed around to all the "Cribbage Critters" many times during each session as a "24" is usually enough to have possession for awhile. The magic is to be the last one holding it in order to claim the contents. During a recent session we had an odd number of players, which slowed up the play, and we were down not only to the last game being played but to the last hand of the evening. The holder of the can was waiting patiently and had every reason to think that the contents were his as is usually the case at this point in a session. You guessed it! Lorraine Heredeem was the pone, 24 out, and turned up the starter card for this great hand. Unfortunately the dealer pegged out but she got the can and also points. This points out that Yogi Berra was right when he said, "it ain't over till it's over".

Club #91 (Grand Rapids, MI) has a history of close finishes for club champion, but this year saw the closest finish ever. Going into the final weekly tournament of the year, challenger Pat Beaudin had a seemingly safe lead of 22 GPs over last year's champion, Jim Blough. Jim could win the championship only if Pat got no points and if Jim had a grand slam with five skunks. Pat obligingly won only five games and worried and fretted as Jim racked up victory after victory in the kind of night we all dream about: a grand slam and 21 GPs. In the end, however, this was not quite enough, as Jim finished the season a single point behind Pat! While this superb card gave Jim bragging rights for the night, ultimately his victory was bittersweet. As Jim put it, "My best night of cribbage ever wasn't quite good enough." Congratulations to both our new champion, Pat, and Jim for a great year and for providing the rest of us with some of the best end-of-year cribbage theatrics
