VOLUME XXVI - NUMBER 10 - OCTOBER 2005

AMERICAN CRIBBAGE CONGRESS

Rookie of Year Mark Soule Shines GNXXIV: DeLynn Colvert

The Chinook Winds Casino in Lincoln City, Oregon was alive with cribbage players from throughout the USA and Canada in mid-September as the Grand National was in town. A whopping 556 peggers were on hand for this prestigious event, and play began a day early with a Thursday night game. With 214 peggers in action it was Jim Waldvogel (CA) nailing down a grand slam 20 9/9 card kicking off the action for the long weekend, and continued unabated until late Sunday evening.

The Main event had an unique final match, as old-pro Four-Star DeLynn Colvert (MT) was matched with this year's "Rookie of the Year" Mark Soule (ME). In a see-saw match and the score at 3-3, Colvert scored a 7-7-7 peg on 3rd street, quickly followed by a 6-6-6 peg on 4th street to salt away the championship...and $5,000! And a bonus 355 MRP's to boot to begin the new cribbage year in style! Soule took home 252 MRP's for 2nd plus a whopping $3,000. Grand Master Bryant Gilkeson (NV) finished 3rd, followed by none other than newly-crowned Life Master Bob Hanes (IA) in 4th. Hanes very nearly won his third Grand National, and remains the only player to win two of these events.

Another old-pro took Q honors...Two-Star Joe Bernard (IL)! He scored a superlative 41 GP card (75 MRP's), but lost his playoff match with last year's champ Three-Star Duane Toll (OR) in a tense match in the early rounds.

A huge crowd (394) played the Consolation, and Salem's Joe Cover earned his Master rating by zipping to a 18 8/9 Q score, but when the pegs were laid away only Hawaii's Charlie Rodgers was left standing, taking home the bacon and his Master rating as well. Hal Lamon (WA) came close but settled for 2nd, followed by All-American Chris McComas (WA) and Robin Freeburg (OR) in the 3-4 slot.

Directors Rollie Heath, Roy & Jeanne Hofbauer, Bernie Nelson, Verne & Jeanette Nielsen had cribbage, cribbage, and more cribbage on tap for the weekend. The winners: Thursday: Jim Waldvogel (pools: Mike Oja, Steve Waldorf)

High Roller: Bob Chase (pool: Larry Phifer)

Doubles: Joe Lewis & Sandra Lewis 21 9/9

Saturday: James Seufert

Last Chance: Julien Pomerleau

Super Q: DeLynn Colvert

Sadie Hawkins: Ron Morgan & Evelyn Gilmore
Team: Staup, Heath, Moritzky, Hornbacher, Colvert

28's: A. Carle, R. Himes, B. McCabe, J. Waldvogel, B. Brumley, P. Gossett, G. Little, R. Freeburg

This annual meet always comes with an Awards Ceremony, celebrating last year's accomplishments by our ACC players. This year a record crowd attended this event, and awards galore were bestowed on the American Cribbage Congress's outstanding players.

GN XXIV

The All-American team, headed up by last year's champion (Duane Toll), rang down the ceremony, with All-Regional teams, Grass Roots awards, Master, Grand Master, and Life Master awards presented. Diane Waite (MN) earned the President's Award for her ACC website (www.cribbage.org). Bob Julian and Paul Hatcher were inducted into the Cribbage Hall of Fame.

The host Chinook Winds Casino's playing site was outstanding, both for quality and size. The event came with coffee, cakes, and soft drinks, adding extras to this outstanding event.

On to next year's Grand National...The Hotel Mead in downtown Wisconsin Rapids, Wisconsin, hosted by Patrick and Linda Barrett.

Girls Rule Nicky Kneich Cops Schaefer Shuffle

It was Ladies Day at the recent Schaefer Shuffle, played at Slinger, WI in mid-August. Nicky Kneich (WI) earned her Grand Master by winning this 88-player event. Her final match pitted her vs. director (and Life Master) Al Schaefer and she prevailed for the win. Lois Fosdal (WI) and Life Master Richard Frost took home a 3-4 finish.

The 62-player Consolation was won by Hall 'O Famer Martha Fingleton (WI), and she ran the boards, taking Q honors as well. Richard Dane (WI), playing out of the same Grass Roots club as Fingleton, took 2nd, followed by Vickie Lindner (WI) and Roger Wauters (WI) in the 3-4 slot. Lindner was the event's 2nd high qualifier causing director Schaefer to exclaim "Girls Rule!"

Friday night's winner was newlywed Adelia Lange (WI). Schaefer also reported that only Don Flesch (WI) could score that elusive 28-hand (Main event).

Cribbage Played at South Pole

Some 18 peggers signed on for the South Pole Championship, and Kurt Skoog took home the frozen bacon. A South Pole Cribbage Club continues their play on an annual basis, with players working at McMurdo Station, Antarctica forming this group.

Bob Wahlghren Cops Silver City, Takes MRP Lead

Bob Wahlghren, North Grafton, MA can claim his place in the limelight. By winning the recent Silver City Open, Taunton, MA (108 players) Wahlghren zipped to the national MRP lead in the early going this cribbage year. The win came with 207 MRP's (aggregate), and bragging rights galore. He also took Q honors with a great 25 11 +219 card. Life Master John Rooney (MA) finished 2nd, followed by Armand Hamel (MA) and Rob Medeiros (MA) in the 3-4 slot. Medeiros earned his One-Star rating with his high finish.

Ron Rapoza (RI) won the 48-player Consolation, with Life Master Henry Delong (MA) in 2nd. Walter Ballou (RI) and Tom "Tossie" Shea (MA) finished in the 3-4 bracket. Delong was also this event's top Q player (16 7 +80).

Tournament director Jeannine duBois reported that she hogged all the 28-hands (one) and that no 29's showed. This was deBois's first directorship (with co-directors Wayne Tyler and Dottie Vandenbergh), and she was pleased with the excellent turnout.

Rick Vee Tops Cowboy Country Open

With players on hand from throughout the west, the Cowboy Country Open was aptly named. South Dakotan Rick Vee took home the marbles in the 62-player Main event, with Floridian Joe Lewis III taking home 2nd. New Mexico was represented by 3rd place winner Max Condiotti, and Coloradan Sue Edwards (Master) took 4th. Nebraskan Jerry Jaeger took Q honors with a nifty 34 16/22 +168 card.

Bob Fletcher (CO) won the 44-player Consolation, nipping Roger Widdowson (CO) in the final playoff match. Ron Bellomy (CO) and Don Phillips (MO) took home a 3-4 finish. Master George Rodriguez (MT) took Q honors with a 16 8/9 +81 card.

Director Peggy Johnson reported a full slate of satellites. The winners:

Early Bird: Mary Skole
High Rollers: Troy Thorson
Doubles: Lola Clark & Carolyn Davis
Saturday: Peggy Johnson
All-Events: Troy Thorson

Director Johnson thanks all that came and especially the Stink-hole-in-the-Wall-Gang and co-director Max Inglesby for their help. Look for this event again next year on August 11-13.

Calvin Braun Wins New England Peer

In a rare match grandfathered by the ACC, players are matched by the number of MRP's they have earned, but once playoffs have started, the format reverts back to the standard method of play.

Calvin Braun, pegging out of Buffalo, New York, has not yet reached his Master rating, but he proved to be a peer of the very best by taking home the win in the 132-player New England Peer Championship. He will certainly move up a notch or two with the 196 MRP's earned. Canadian Alan Wilson finished 2nd, with highly-ranked Life Masters Dwight Christiansen (CT) and Henry Delong (MA) in the 3-4 bracket. 2004's Rookie of the Year Jerry Hardy (ME) showed why he earned that honor as he zipped to the high Q score (37 17/22 +215).

Master Roger Bouchard (CT) very nearly ran the table in the 56-player Consolation as he took top Q honors (18 8/9 +66) and raced to a 2nd place finish as well. Master Ken Patenaude (MA) came home the winner in the playoffs, with Bouchard 2nd, followed by Elijah White (ME) and Jeannine duBois (MA) in the 3-4 bracket.

Director John Chambers reported the satellite events. The winners:
Friday singles: Terrance Cushman
Doubles: Joan Fletcher & Donna LaFleur
28's: Dottie VanDenBerghe, Dwight Christiansen, Gregory Gougian, Joan Morrison

Long Shots

Eileen Brown (CA), Grass Roots 227 reported a wild hand. She dealt herself a 4-5-6-6, and her opponent a 4-5-6-6. A 4 was cut and both players are holding a 24-hand. But Eileen prevailed nevertheless, as she pegged the 4th 6, to leave a smokey trail on the board.

Another weird hand was reported by Don Brown (CA). He deals himself a A-3-7-8-Q-K and his opponent a 4-4-5-6-7-8. Brown discarded his 7-8 to his crib, as did his opponent. A 6 was cut, giving his opponent a 24-hand, with Brown scoring a zero hand. But the crib cheered him up as he kept pace with a 24-crib!

Dot Mickow Wins Puget Sound Inaugural

Life Master Jim Hornbacher is a fixture on the cribbage trail in the Northwest, and with his vast tournament experience finally decided to be a director as well. He organized the Puget Sound Open, played in Tacoma, WA in early September, and 120 peggers showed for the opening bell. And another veteran of the cribbage wars in the Northwest came home the winner...Master Dot Mickow (WA). Her last match pitted her vs. yet another regular...Master Lynn Gillespie (WA), and she prevailed for her 2nd ACC sanctioned Main Event win. Master Don Smith (OR) and newly-crowned One-Star Rollie Heath (OR) finished 3-4, and each took home 70 MRP's. Local Jim Boettcher took Q honors with a nice 36 16/22 +165 card.

Canadian Egon Koch (Master) won the 84-player Consolation, nipping One-Star Roy Hofbauer (WA) in the final playoff match. Susan Knutson (WA) and Don Zeutshel (WA) finished 3-4. Ted Nelson from nearby Seattle took Q honors with a 17 8/9 +83 card.

Rollie Heath had a fine weekend as he added an Early Bird and High Roller win to go with his 4th place finish. Nancy Lorenz and Sue Pisha took home the Doubles championship, and Don Smith won the Saturday night game. Director Hornbacher reported George Stanton and Bill Rocheleau scored sanctioned 28-hands, and Millie Moritzky scored a 28 in the Early Bird.

Hornbacher also reported the host Tacoma Elks did a fantastic job in rolling out the red carpet for the players, and he has contracted with the Elks for next September 1-2-3 for a re-match. In an oddity, Hornbacher reported that Verne and Jeanette Nielson and Hal and Joyce Lamon donated money to buy a TV and DVO player for the raffle....and Jeanette came away the winner.

Laura Bragg Tops Mike Stier Memorial

The Mike Stier Memorial event in Anchorage was won by Laura Bragg (AK). Steve Yates took home 2nd in this 25-player event. Master Henry Carle (AK) and Don Captain (AK) finished 3-4. Carle also was the top Q player with a nice 31 13/18 +256 card. Director Mike Rowe reported a nice tournament to kick off their season opener.

Katrina Relief Fund: $600 Bill Richmond Takes Daniel Webster Open

Bill Richmond (CT) earned his Master rating in last year's play, and he continues to pile on the MRPs by winning the 112-player Daniel Webster Open, played on September 11 in Nashua, NH. The win came with 147 MRP's and a nice winner's purse. Lynn Babbitt (RI) finished 2nd, followed by Master Betty Schaeffer (FL) and Donald Russell (ME) in the 3-4 bracket. Life Master Phil Martin (CT) won 10 or 12 (22 10/12 +186) to take Q honors, adding yet another 435 MRP's to his lifetime ledger.

Stan Plachowicz (MA) won the 58-player Consolation, nipping the event's top qualifier Grand Master John Groz (FL) in the final playoff match. Groz qualified with an 18 8/8 grand slam +168. He scored a combination 64 MRP's for this nice run. John Campanella (MA) and Master Harvey Glass (CT) finished 3-4.

Director Henry Bergeron reported Doris St. Marie scored the meet's only 28-hand and the players donated $297.22 for the Katrina Relief Fund. This amount was matched by the Shaw's Supermarkets/Albertsons, as, once again, America's cribbage players show their generosity in aiding others less fortunate.

Wayne Steinmetz Wins Madison Masters

Perennial winner One-Star Wayne Steinmetz (WI) has come home with yet another win as he copped the Madison Masters in Madison, WI on August 27. With 119 players in the field, Steinmetz is off and running in the new year with 147 MRP's in the bag. Bart Jaeger (NE) took home 2nd, followed by Frank Pacocha (WI) and Grand Master Jim Huser (WI) in the 3-4 slot. Steve Kari (MN) took Q honors with an outstanding 38 GP +236 card.

Bob Kiley (WI) won the 89-player Consolation the hard way...he had to get by Grand Master Emilio Perez (IL) in the final playoff match, and Kiley prevailed for the win. Al Scarantino (MI) and Master Gael Haelfrisch (WI) took home a 3-4 finish. Jerry Jaeger (NE) scored a 16 GP card to take Q honors.

Director Adelia Lange reported nary a 28 or 29-hand showed in this long-running event. This Masters event was played in 1980 and stands alone at the top of the heap (along with the National Open) as the ACC's longest running event.

Jeanne Hofbauer Cops Winnemucca Fall Classic

Life Master Jeanne Hofbauer (WA) was one of the co-directors at the recent Grand National XXIV, and after that workout, she let her hair down bigtime at the Winnemucca Fall Classic. With the pressure off, she easily zipped to the win, besting a large field of 154 peggers. With the 196 MRP's, she has reached the 9,000 MRP plateau and is off to a great start this new cribbage year. Verne Nielsen (OR) was also one of the Grand National's co-directors, and he "relaxed" to a 2nd place finish...and earned his Life Master as well. Mike McCammon (NV) took home the top prize last year in Winnemucca and very nearly did it again, taking home 3rd. Life Master Bernie Nelson (and yet another Grand National co-director) (OR) finished 4th. It certainly appears it pays to run Grand National events, as the cribbage gods reward you handsomely.

Life Master Herschel Mack (CA) finished a disappointing 11th in last year's All-American race, but he is determined once again to make a run for the roses by taking Q honors (35 16/22 +155).

Last year's National Champ, Three-Star Duane Toll (OR) is also at it once again as he won the 118-player Consolation, nipping Master Bob Gromek (NV) 2-1 in the final playoffs. Grand Master Jerold Montgomery (CA) and Mike Watson (OR) finished 3-4. Grand Master Richard Wardenburg (CA) took Q honors with a nice 17 8/9 +103.

A highlight of this event saw "Ratso" Roderick score the ACC's first 29-hand of the new season. In an oddity, "Ratso" also scored the last 29-hand of the 2004 season.

This event had directors galore as DeLynn Colvert, Sharon Hejtmank, Jeannette and Verne Nielsen, Peggy Scalley, and Graeme Gossett had the show on the road with great paybacks. All satellite events had $100 added, with the Main having $1,000 added, and the Consolation adding $550. The satellite results:

Early Bird: Gail McCloskey 7/7

High Roller: Mike McCammon

Doubles: Chuck Ramsey & Dave Bonnar

Last Chance: Phyllis Roderick

28's: Pink Pinkerton, Dorothy Maximov, Gail Smith-McCloskey, Sharon Hejtmank, John Furler (EB)

29: Ratso Roderick (ACC's 1st, 2006)

Super Q: Verne Nielsen

Team: (tie) Malmgren, Nelson, Hendricks, R. Hofbauer, J. Hofbauer - McComas, Evans, Julian, Hejtmank, R. Heath

The winners Casino once again rolled out the red carpet for the players, furnishing reasonably-priced rooms, donuts, coffee, and sweets galore, $2,000 added prize money, and outstanding trophies as well. Winnemucca is fast becoming a favorite stop for ACC players.

John Thiems Takes Labor Day

Master John Thiems (OR) has counted ballots for the ACC's Board of Directors elections for the past few elections, but on September 4th he was counting his cards correctly as he zipped to the Labor Day Special win at Canyonville, OR. He nipped Master Bill Robe (OR) in the final playoff match for the win in this 78-player event. Rick Baird (OR) qualified tops (28 13 +189) and took home 3rd as well. Iris Brood (OR) also finished in the 3-4 bracket, earning 70 MRP's for this fine effort.

Master Bill O'Malley (OR) took home the 44-player Consolation win, with Dan Dolezal (OR) taking 2nd. Toni Ann Hildenbrand (OR) and Life Master Willie Evans (WA) finished 3-4. Evans also took Q honors with a 17 8 +151 card.

Director Larry Hassett reported the following satellite results:

Saturday: Jason Shumate

28's: John Thiems, Dan Marsh

Richard Munroe Cops "Almost Sizzler"

Richard Munroe (CA) was sizzling at the 100-player "Almost September Sizzler" played at Woodland, CA on August 27. He nailed down the win, earning 147 MRP's and "sizzling" rights galore. Gordon Brown (CA) took home 2nd (and 105 MRP's), followed by Peggy Walberg (CA) and Master Avon Ray (CA) in the 3-4 bracket. Two-Star Jesse Jarrell (CA) took Q honors with a nifty 25 11/14 +151 card.

Master Rickie Mack (CA) won the 60-player Consolation, with Mike Green (CA) taking home 2nd. Veteran Grand Master Mary Herrmann (CA) and Pete Stemler (NV) finished 3-4. Stemler was also the top Q player with a great grand-slam 19/9 +176.

Director Julie-Mack Felkins reported that only Avon Ray could score that elusive 28-hand. No 29's showed.

August Hawaii: Roy Wong September Hawaii: Tommy Asari

Roy Wong (HI) took home the bacon in the August edition of the Hawaii Open, and Tommy Asari (HI) won the September match. Richard Kodama (HI) took 2nd in August, and Mel Vios was the bridesmaid in September.

Duane Toll Cops 8th Humboldt Bay

Three-Star Duane Toll (OR), fresh from winning the National Championship, is at it again. He begins the new cribbage year by winning the 8th annual Humboldt Bay Classic, played at Arcata, CA on August 12-14. With 70 players in the competition, Toll took home 147 MRP's to kick off the new season. One-Star Ron Morgan (CA) also had a stellar season last year, earning a spot on the All-American team, and he too is off and running. He qualified tops (34 16/22 +40) and finished 2nd, taking home an aggregate 145 MRP's. Grand Master Evelyn Gillmore (CA) and co-director Ricki Mack finished 3-4.

It was Tim Hutsell all the way in the 40-player Consolation. He was the top Q player (15 7/9 +89) and roared home the winner in the playoffs as well. Hutsell netted 72 MRP's for this great run. Grand Master Richard Wardenburg took 2nd, followed by Life Master Heidi Glashan (CA) and Grand Master Cres Fedrnandez (CA) in the 3-4 bracket.

Directors Herschel and Ricki Mack had a full array of satellite events. The winners:
Early Bird: Tim Hutsell (again)
High Rollers: Jack Moritzky
Doubles: Merlyn Langdon & Sunny Straughan
Saturday: Chris McCormas
All-Events: Mike Rowe
28's: Jean Wagoner, Heidi Glashan

This event awarded Larry Hassett and Duane Toll a free night's lodging for their work as ACC Membership Secretary (Hassett) and for winning the National Championship in 2005 (Toll).

Fee Increase

At the recent Board of Director's meeting, the fee for attending a sanctioned event has been raised fifty cents (from $1.50 to $2), effective August 1, 2006. A nagging shortfall of revenue for the past five years prompted this increase.

Officers Elected

Martha Fingleton (WI) has been elected Executive Vice-President to replace Syl Lulinski (recently retired from the BOD) by unanimous vote at the Grand National Board of Director's meeting in Lincoln City, OR. The other four executive officers were re-elected. President: DeLynn Colvert; Executive Vice-President Operations: Bob Julian; Executive Vice-President, Policy: Larry Hassett; Executive Member at Large: George Bickford.

Diane Waite Promoted

Diane Waite, web manager of the ACC's web site (www.cribbage.org) has been voted a stipend for managing this website. The Board of Directors accepted the recommendation of Compensation Committee Chairman Cathy Perkins and awarded Waite a $300 per month stipend, effective October 1, 2005.

Our members are encouraged to view this web site. It is impressive, indeed. The ACC has already enrolled many new members in the USA and Canada from information gleaned from this website.

Waite also received the President's Award for 2005 for managing this website.

Suspensions

Ron Saik (AB), Darren Saik (AB), and Heidi Glashan (CA) have been suspended by action of the Ethics Committee, effective August 15, 2005.

John O'Shea Wins Oregon Trail

John O'Shea (OR) came home the winner at the recent 66-player Oregon Trail Classic (The Dalles, OR). Master Laurie Logan (MT) took this event in 2004, and continues to play her best on the Columbia River, taking 2nd this time around. Glenna Little (WA) and Doug Jensen (OR) finished 3-4, earning 70 MRP's each for this high finish. O'Shea earned 147 and Logan took home 105. Life Master Jack Moritzky (WA), a member of last year's All-American team was the event's top Q player, scoring an excellent 40 18/22 +236 card.

Gene Wilkerson (OR) took the 50-player Consolation event, nipping Life Master Bill Hill (OR) in the final playoff match. Hill was also the event's top Q player (18 8/9 +142), and he scored an aggregate 61 MRP's for this fine effort. Hal Lamon (WA) and Master Ron Logan (MT) finished 3-4.

Director Marilyn Hilton fielded a full array of satellites. The winners:
Early Bird: Clair Morse
Doubles: Walt & Tana Conell
High Rollers: Duane Toll
Saturday: Judith Beay

This event is a memorial to the late Don Hilton, one of cribbage's finest players.

USA DEFEATS GREAT BRITAIN!

Don Brown Wins Shut Up and Deal Event

The 7th Annual Shut Up & Deal turned out to be a battle of two nations ... USA vs. GBR! Don Brown (CA) narrowly defeated Adrian Parslow (Salisbury, England) to take top honors in the Main. Don took home 147 MRP plus added 35 by qualifying 4th with 33/15 +119. Parslow came into the playoffs seeded 11th and took home his first 105 MRP's in ACC action. Adrian decided to join the ACC after playing a few times as a guest while on business in the US.

High Qualifier Cres Fernandez (CA) took high Q honors with a superlative 40/19 +302 card. Eventual 3rd place winner Charlie Dunn (CA) gave Fernandez his only heartbreak of the weekend by bouncing him in the first round. Fernandez was consoled by the fact that he took top honors in the All-Events with a huge 68 GP's, and winning the Saturday Night Singles. With his 3rd in the Friday Night Singles it's needless to say Fernandez made a few extra bucks to cover his gas!

The consolation came down to Roy Kaufmann (CA), and High Qualifier, Ron Morgan (CA) with Kaufmann adding another 60 MRP to his total by taking the win. Morgan qualified with 17/8 +146.

The satellite events saw a very opportunistic Ross Njaa (CA) sneak into the Friday Night Singles by jumping "only to make the event even!" He then blitzed the field with an 18/8 +119 and a cool $142.50 with the Q. Many a player wish he had a sat out! In doubles, Terry George and guest Doug Todd showed the way with a 13/6 +74, edging Dennis Macrina and Bill Wakeman by 4 spread points.

Betty Algiers Scores Rare Crib Hand

At the April Milwaukee Challenge, Betty Algiers did the impossible. She scored a 28-hand...in the CRIB!

Monica Hunt Strikes It Rich In Last Chance Gulch

Monica Hunt, pegging out of Billings, MT, finally struck it rich on the cribbage circuit by taking home the top prize at the Capital City Classic in Helena, MT on September 4. This city is known for its gold rush days and its "Last Chance Gulch." She nipped another Billings player in the final match...Charles Leming. One-Star Frank Danielski (WI) topped Canadian Herb Scharr in the 3-4 bracket...and Scharr went home with both trophies (Danielski's house has too many already). Master Keith Forrest (WA) took Q honors with a 35 17/22 +157 card in this 72-player match.

42 peggers were in action in the Consolation and it was Floridian Joy Barnes (enroute to the GNXXIV) taking home the marbles. This Grand Master's last victim was Canadian Keith Gillis. Four-Star DeLynn Colvert (MT) nipped Life Master Ginny Danielski (WI) in the 3-4 bracket. And yet another Canadian took Q honors...Lorne Tanton (17 8/9 +42). Directors Walt Conell and Fredella Haab had a full slate of satellites. The winners:

Time Passer: Sharon Hejtmerek

Doubles: Jim Blakely and Will Schuh

Saturday: Tana Conell (20 9/9)

Super Q: Frank Danielski

Team: R. Logan, L. Logan, S. Hejtmerek, D. Colvert

This event is amazing, as Helena's merchants support cribbage 110% (50 sponsors), and the host club always provides a feast, a well-stocked raffle, and a 24-hand table as well.

Canadian Beef Import Ban Lifted

A mad cow disease scare had Canadian beef banned for importation. But Harold Buckley (AB) reported he brought 3,200 pounds of beef across the border (16 peggers from the Edmonton area) to play in the Capital City Classic in Helena.

Junior Program Donations

We wish to thank the following members who have made donations to the Junior Program. The program assists teaching cribbage to kids by providing a 22 page teacher's guide for the classroom and cribbage boards and cards as needed, and helps with purchasing trophies and non-monetary awards for junior tournaments. Again, thanks to all who have helped with this worthwhile cause. If you have any questions about the Junior Program, please contact Dan Zeisler at danthefan@yahoo.com or write to Dan Zeisler, 18975 Chickadee Ct, Penn Valley, CA 95946-9608 or phone (530) 432-3291.

ACC Email:

As a cost cutting measure, renewal notices are being emailed whenever possible. If you have spam blocker software, please add ACC@mcsi.net to your list of acceptable email addresses.

Having your email address on file also provides a means to contact you if the USPS has problems delivering your CW magazine and a means to notify you of important ACC information (example: the problem with cutting out the ballot).

New members and renewals of expired memberships, who include an email address, are notified when the application is processed.

Your email address is used for official purposes only and not shared with others. When sending group emails, each member gets a separate email so no one else sees your email address.

If you wish your email address to be included with your membership record, please email the Membership Secretary at ACC@mcsi.net or include your email address on your initial/renewal ACC membership application.

ACC Membership Secretary*

Darrell Field, Sharyl Dodson and the Winners Thank Participants

The recent Winnemucca Fall Classic drew a whopping 154 players and were treated royally by the Winners Casino, Darrell Field (Marketing Coordinator), and Sharyl Dodson (Secretary). Field asked CW to thank each and every player for their participation and he looks forward to seeing them in the upcoming Spring Classic. *This event certainly put on a show for added prize money, and sweets galore. ## Save a Stroke Victim

Symptoms of a stroke (a true story). Susie is recuperating at an incredible pace for someone with a massive stroke all because Sherry saw Susie stumble...that is the key that isn't mentioned below...and then she asked Susie the 3 questions.

This literally saved Susie's life...Susie failed all three so 911 was called. Even though she had normal blood pressure readings and did not appear to be having a stroke, as she could converse to some extent with the Paramedics, they took her to the hospital right away. Thank God for the sense to remember the 3 questions! Read and Learn! Sometimes symptoms of a stroke are difficult to identify. Unfortunately, the lack of awareness spells disaster. The stroke victim may suffer brain damage when people nearby fail to recognize the symptoms of a stroke. Now doctors say a bystander can recognize a stroke by asking three simple questions:

1. *Ask the individual to SMILE.
2. *Ask him or her to RAISE BOTH ARMS.
3. *Ask the person to SPEAK A SIMPLE SENTENCE.

If he or she has trouble with any of these tasks, call 9-1-1 immediately and describe the symptoms to the dispatcher. After discovering that a group of non-medical volunteers could identify facial weakness, arm weakness and speech problems, researchers urged the general public to learn the three questions. They presented their conclusions at the American Stroke Association's annual meeting last February. Widespread use of this test could result in prompt diagnosis and treatment of the stroke and prevent brain damage. A cardiologist says if everyone who gets this message gives it to 10 people, you can bet that at least one life will be saved.

In Memoriam

Charles "Charley" Reid

Napa, California
Charley played his cribbage at GR 100 in Napa. He was a great sport, lots of fun, and a great guy. He will be sorely missed by all that knew him.

David Handley, Jr.

San Diego, California
David died recently at the age of 81. He was a dedicated and avid player and was San Diego's 2004-2005 club champion. He was a great player and a great friend who will be missed by all.

Richard A. "Just Dick" Winslow

Napavine, Washington
Dick passed away on August 15 while working on his strawberry patch. He was a charter member of the Centralia-Chehalis GR club. He had earned his Bronze rating. He had a rare ability to put people at ease, and had a great sense of humor. The cribbage world will mourn his passing.

Ralph R. Jenson

Forest Grove, Oregon
Ralph died September 12 of a heart ailment. He was an expert player, playing with GR 285. His pegging pals and many friends mourn his passing.

Russell "Bill" Sams

Flint, Michigan
Bill passed away at age 69 on September 14 after a battle with cancer. He was a 20-year bronze level top-5 veteran of the Greater Orlando (FL) GR 22 during the winter months. He was a great competitor, and was active in coaching and officiating softball for youth. All that knew him will miss him greatly.

Rule of the month review:

If two or more cards are played together, the card that corresponds to the announced count is deemed to be the card played and the other(s) shall be retrieved. If the count is not yet announced or does not correspond with any of the cards, the player may play any one of the cards and retrieve the other(s) without penalty.

Is Dunn Done? As the summer cools down, many SF Bay area players hope that Charlie Dunn of Club 48 in San Jose, CA (South San Francisco) also cools down. During the month of August he had 3 grand slams. The first 2 were in GR 48 (Santa Clara, CA) with a 19/9/170 and a whopping 22/9/253 scorecard. He continued his hot streak at GR 43 (Fremont, CA) with an 18/9/125 scorecard. If you ask Charlie, he'll tell you he's Dunn, but we're not sure if we should believe him.

REDDING PEGGERS CLUB #205 is up and running with 9 out-of-the 12 active members enjoying the competition. Jim Hastings, our newest member, went head to head with Ian Wilson, our most experienced player, for 1st place. Both ended with 13 game points, they had six wins but Jim edged out Ian by having more pegging points. Fred Yost and Sol Remer were right behind with 12 game points each and six wins, with Fred beating Sol by 10 points for 3rd place. The interesting point was Sol made a mistake in one hand with his choice of discard to the crib, which cost him a game along with 1st place. Jim Hastings lost the $10.00 pot for a 24 hand to Ken George on the 4th game and no one else came up with a 24 hand the rest of the evening. Everyone was out to beat director Norm Leavell and they succeeded - he only won his 1st and last games. Redding Peggers meet every Thursday at 6:00p.m. at YAKS KOFFEE SHOP on Bechelli in Redding, California.

Club 130 is The Film City Cribbage Club located in Rochester, NY. George Lozy was the club champion last season for the third consecutive season. Well-done George, congratulations!!

The Silver dollar Cribbage club is Club 156 and is located in Sunnyside, WA. They started off this season on September 7th with twelve members and one visitor. It was the visitor Carl "Big Money" Heath laying down a 28 hand on the first hand of the third game. Carl scored a 29 hand in the Washington State open, a few years back; He may have found his "Lucky playing Hall" at the Sunnyside Eagles. Where does the name Big Money come from? The 28/29 pot. Carl got 1/2 of it for a cool $160.

Chehalis-Centralia Cribbage 2005 summer season: Our twelve sessions of summer resulted in some excitement for those who kept us on their calendar. Average attendance during summer quarter was 22.25, only two players less than for official season. Laurie Crosslin of Rochester scored the best scorecard of the summer. Laurie went on a rampage on the first session of the summer period to score 18/8/135. Nobody could match that in the eleven sessions remaining. Three players scored double wins during summer play. Dick Winslow who passed away on 8/15 scored the only consecutive wins. "JUST Dick" won with a 15/7/113 on 6/9/05 and topped that effort with a 15/7/118 the following Thursday. Others who won two summer sessions were Larry Hall of Centralia with 18/8/122 on 6/30/05 and a 15/7/35 win on 8/4/05. Gary Rasmussen won on 7/28/05 with a 17/7/152 and picked up a win on 8/18/05 with a 16/8/85.

Dan Beebe of Centralia scored a 28 hand on the first summer session. That hand paid $50 from club skunk pot and has a frequency rate in the Chehalis-Centralia Cribbage Club of one per 9,793 deals. It must have been quite a shock, as Dan never returned for the remainder of the summer season. The summer period winners are not recognized with an Awards Program as occurs for fall, winter and spring quarters. If we had such for the summer attendance-drawing participation would be limited to those with perfect attendance. Those with perfect attendance were George Rasmussen, Mary Rosenbaum, and Diana Webster. To be eligible for club improvement award, members must attend a minimum of nine of twelve in this period and the prior quarter of play. In addition, they cannot have won a quarter or been a runner-up in this season of play or the previous one. Those who met these requirements were Laurie Crosslin +.094, Mary Rosenbaum +.018, Jim Tuning +.115, and Diana Webster +.010. If a summer awards program existed, Jim Tuning would have won with a fine .600 batting average as compared to a spring batting average of .485. In any other period of the season, this effort would be rewarded with customized certificate and $20 cash. Second runner-up for the summer club championship was Daulph Plummer with 121/58/+172 and a batting average of .586. First runner-up was Brother Gary RAS with 125/58/+349 and a batting average of .586. Club Champion for summer period was "RAS" with 135/61/+637 and a batting average of .565. How can that be? Both runners-up had a batting average higher than the champion. Remember that I had perfect attendance. The runners-up missed one summer session. During other periods of the official season, second runner-up would be awarded $20 cash. First runner-up would be the recipient of $30 cash. The Quarterly Club Champion would be awarded $40 cash or customized engraved crib board trophy as preferred.

Dan Barlow, author of Cribbage for Experts and Miracles on 4th Street (among others), has phased out the stapled booklet versions of these books in favor of perfect-bound versions. He still has a number of the old versions, which would make nice welcome gifts for new members, or prizes for weekly events. They're available in quantity to grass roots clubs for $1.50 apiece plus shipping. Email Dan at Aardwolfpress@aol.com if interested.

News from Club 82 in Seaside, CA by Mel Ashley: 2004-2005 Season: Velda Shipman local Champion and Mel Ashley ACC club Champion! Art Fisher was on a record setting pace the first half of the season but collapsed the 2nd half! (That's cribbage!) The last several weeks Mel got hot and passed him for the GR Bronze Points title. On the very last night Velda tied him for the high winning percentage for the season. (Club 82 awards a certificate to the player with the high winning percentage when different from the high Bronze Point achievement.) More game points were the tiebreaker and Velda won! Most Improved: Velda also headed that list as her winning percentage went from .460 last year to .566. Mel from .480 to .559; Christy Lens from .452 to .516 and Carol Crowell from .434 to .493! The biggest drops were last years' 1st and 2nd place finishers - ART and ROSS NJAA. They had a phenomenal race ending with .640 and .637! This year they "dropped" to .566 and .539 - still more than respectable (as benefits their acknowledged talent)! Thanks to the ACC for providing us with this opportunity and format to enjoy the hobby and thanks to the "Law of Averages" for all to "shine" when Lady Luck focuses her beam on us! 2005-2006 season: Wednesday 9/7 was "Night One" for Club 82's new GR season. With only 13 members present (about our ave. these days) Christy Lens hit a 28 hand! She was a "lead pipe" cinch for the "High hand" pot because we only had 2 or 3 28's all last season! But in game 8 Mel Ashley cut a 5 for 28! And he had told Christy, after she got hers, that he hadn't had one in over two yrs in both club and tournament play! Additional oddities: Both 28's were scored against the same opponent - Art Fisher. On the night, Christy won only 3 games and Mel 2! CRIBBAGE - you gotta love it!

David Aiken Poxed?

First it was the election ballot for the ACC Board of Directors that cut off David Aiken's name on the ballot, and then it was the National Open that failed to report he had won the Sunday Special. But this pegger from Ada, Michigan is off and running in ACC action. He has volunteered to back-up editor DeLynn Colvert as Cribbage World editor, and he must be treated with more respect than he has received to date.

GAMA (Game manufacturers Assoc.) Draws 15,000

Al Lindner (WI) led a contingent of ACC peggers at the GAMA convention in Columbus, Ohio recently. Lindner reported some 15,000 came to the convention, and the ACC was plugged to this game-playing audience. Cribbage World furnished Lindner 500 copies of our April issue that stressed memberships.

Security?

It has happened again ! As Mattie Bradshaw transitioned the security screening at the Portland Airport enroute home from the Grand National, she was called aside and her purse was pulled off the conveyor belt. She asked the agent what the problem was. "It looks like drill bits in your purse", was the reply. Mattie knew immediately what it was, "lethal cribbage pegs". A supervisor was summoned and, being a cribbage player, he assured the agent that the pegs posed no threat to national security and she was allowed to proceed with her pegs still in her possession.
