AMERICAN CRIBBAGE CONGRESS

Duane Toll Takes MRP Crown

National Open: Rick Bryant Portland: Sharon Schaefer

The American Cribbage Congress wound down its 26th year of play in style, hosting two large events. One was played on the East Coast, and the other on the West Coast and both events drew large crowds. The National Open, played in Raleigh, NC, saw some 177 peggers in action as this long-standing event continues to host a prestigious event. This time around it was Rick Bryant, a Master pegger from Jarrettsville, MD, coming home the winner, besting Virginian Jim Tanner in the final match. Life Master Don Flesch (WI) zipped to 998 MRP's for the year by finishing 3rd, followed by another Life Master...Jeff Shimp (MI)...in 4th place. John Noldet (VA) and Harry Ng (CA) finished 5-6.

Renay Corren (FL) posted a great 19 8/9 +176 score in the consolation Q round, just edging Bruce Sattler (MD) for honors, but when the pegs were laid away after the playoffs, it was Master Jim Lunder (FL) coming away with the title. Vickie Lindner (WI) finished 2nd, followed by local Grand Master Larry Phifer and One-Star Bob McCabe (WI) in the 3-4 slot.

Director Catherine Perkins and crew always field a full array of events in Raleigh. The winners:
Friday Early Bird: Bill Whiting (VA)
Saturday Special: Norm Hilliard (VA)
Monday Last Roundup: Jim Hartley (NC)
High Roller: Buzz Adams (OH)
28's: Jeff Shimp, Sandra Shrum, Jim Townsend, Pat Llewellyn, Martha Fingleton, Martha Sanders

Portland Summer Open: Out West, the Portland Summer Open played to 162 players and the win went to a Central Region pegger...Sharon Schaefer, a Master pegger playing out of Jackson, WI. She nipped veteran Grand Master Frank Ornie (OR) in the final playoff match. The win zipped Schaefer to the 800 MRP mark for the year and a spot on the central Region's All-Star team for 2005. One-Star Ras Rasmussen (WA) roared like a lion in July, scoring 413 MRP's in three July events (Portland, Reno, and Springfield, OR) and zipped to All-American honors. He finished 3rd at this event, and Mike McCammon (NV) took home 4th. Master Ed Park (OR) took Q honors with a nice 36 16/22 +242 card.

Newly-crowned Master Steve Hofbauer (WA) took home the 114-player Consolation title, besting Grand Master Darren Black (OR) in the final playoff match. Monica Newton (OR) and "Big Daddy" Larry Pisha (OR) finished 3-4. Jim Knutson (WA) took Q honors with a 18 8/9 +161 card.

George Bickford Tops Dennis Cousens Memorial

George Bickford needs 214 MRP's to earn his One-Star rating by taking the recent Dennis Cousens Memorial event, played in Portland, Maine. And One-Star Sharlene Medeiros needed one more point to win the match vs. Bickford, but, alas, fell short and finished 2nd in this 82-player event. Bickford confided to CW that he borrowed Charlie Finley's lucky pegs to take the championship. John Webster (NV) and John Brennan (MA) finished 3-4. Brennan also took Q honors with a 24 GP card.

With 42 in action in the consolation, Dottie Vandenberghe (MA) came home the winner, nipping Grand Master Cindy Veradt (MA) in the final playoff match. Life Master Donna LaFleur (CT) and Vickie Soule (ME) finished 3-4. Soule also took Q honors (17 GP card). She also scored the meet's only 28-hand as well.

Ethan Guyaz Deals 'Em

Ethan Guyaz (ME) won the Deal 'Em Northeast Open event played in Chicopee, MA in late July. In besting 62 peggers, Guyaz took home 105 MRP's and bragging rights as the "best dealin'" around. His last playoff match was a tough one as he was pitted vs. Life Master Rob Medeiros (MA) but he prevailed for his first sanctioned event win. Dottie Vandenberghe (MA) and Master Sue Cousens (ME) finished 3-4. Life Master Phil Martin took Q honors with a great 35 GP card (16 games) and earned yet another 80 MRP's.

Life Master Dwight Christiansen (CT), driving for an All-American berth, fell 88 points short, despite winning the 29-player Consolation event. And Life Master Herschel Mack fell 26 points short of earning All-American honors by taking home 2nd. Nelson Wheaton (NY) and Life Master Frank Corrado (CT) finished 3-4. Corrado also took Q honors with a great 15 7/7 +97 card.

Director Sharlene Medeiros reported Don Lindall won the Friday Early Bird, and the doubles event was won by Texans Ray and Nancy Wanke. She reported nary a 28 or 29-hand was played, as the cards were cool, but the weather was hot.

Oops, Milwaukee Challenge Report Don Flesch Cops Milwaukee Challenge

A misplaced Milwaukee Challenge report is finally being reported. With 149 players on board, it was Life Master Don Flesch (WI) taking home the win...and yet another 196 MRP's to add to his lifetime ledger. Master Sharon Schaefer (WI) finished 2nd, followed by Brenda Carson (WA) and Diane Gurney (WI) in the 3-4 slot. Bob Wingo (IL) scored a 36 17/22 +206 to take Q honors.

Grand Master Gene Mikulsky (WI) won the 88-player Consolation, with Sue Schenk (MI) finishing 2nd. Master Joy Shimp (MI) and Three-Star Duane Toll (OR) finished 3-4. Ray Schenk took Q honors with a 18 8/9 +124 score.

Jim Hornbacher Tops Emerald Valley

Life Master Jim Hornbacher (WA) has been on a roll lately, and he continues his fine play by taking home the championship at the recent Emerald Valley Open, played in Springfield, OR. With 98 peggers in action, Hornbacher added yet another 147 MRP's to his lofty 9,000+ lifetime tally. Chris McComas (WA) earned Grand Master in August, but by finishing 2nd at this meet earned sufficient MRP's to earn All-American honors. Paul Ferrigno (OR) and Three-Star Duane Toll (OR) finished 3-4. Toll's high finish put the finishing touches on yet another great year of pegging, adding his 3rd National Championship to his cribbage resume. Dan Marsh (OR) took Q honors with an excellent 43 GP card (85 MRP's), one of the best this cribbage year.

Master "Ratso" Roderick (OR) won the 60-player Consolation, nipping Grand Master Rosemary Hendricks (WA) in the final playoff match. One-Star Roy Hofbauer (WA) and Bruce Goff (WA) finished 3-4. Master Beverley Honeycutt (OR) had the hot hand in the Q round, scoring a nifty 16 GP card.

Director Winona Johnson reported the satellite events:

Early Bird: Leonard Duckworth
Doubles: Peggy Hingle & Lee Bodkin
High Rollers: Rollee Heath
Saturday: Karen Ferraro
28's: Jim Jackson, Bill Hill

Armand Hamel Runs Table at 2nd Year-end Extra

Armand Hamel (MA) was blistering the boards at the recent Year-end Extra and wound down the cribbage year by taking top Q honors (23 10/12 +189) and winning the playoffs as well in this 82-player event played in W. Springfield, MA. Life Master Phil Martin (CT) finished 2nd, followed by Two-Star Phyllis Schmidt (MA) and Master David Statz (NH) in the 3-4 slot. Schmidt's 70 MRP's propelled her to her 6th All-American honor. And Life Master Peter Setian (MA) also ran the table in the 46-player Consolation, scoring a top Q score (17 8/8 +150) and winning the playoffs as well. Master Emily Schwartz (MA) took 2nd, with Walt Ballou (RI) and Master Richard Andrew (NH) in the 3-4 bracket. Director Isabel Hyndman reported Carl Deyette scored a 29-hand (the ACC's record-breaking 28th of the year) and the team of Doris Perkins, Phyllis Schmidt, and Paul Gallagher won the team event.

Roger King Tops Devil Mountain

Life Master Roger King (CA) nailed down yet another win at the recent Devil Mountain Caper (Antioch, CA). In besting the 92-player field, King took home 187 MRP's (aggregate) to add to his lifetime total (6,100+), and also garnered bragging rights galore. His last playoff match pitted him vs. Two-Star Jesse Jarrell (CA) and King prevailed for the championship. In taking 2nd, Jarrell added yet another 105 MRP's to his 18,700+ lifetime total, maintaining his grip on the 3rd spot, lifetime, in ACC action. Newly-crowned One-Star Stephen Reynolds (CA) took home a 3-4 finish as did Basel Rudnick (CA). King also was this event's top Q player, scoring a nifty 34 17 +99.

Cruz Fernandez (CA) is nearing his Life Master rating, and a grand slam qualifying score in the 40-player Consolation keeps him on track to earn his 6,000th MRP. In the playoffs, it was Life Master Evelyn Gillmore (CA) taking home the win, with Adrian Levy (CA) finishing 2nd. Fernandez also finished in the 3-4 slot, as did Grand Master May Ryan (CA). Ryan and Fernandez are neck and neck in their race to earn Life Master.

Director Mary Gladish reported that Jay Sorenson won the Friday night event, and Jesse Jarrell copped the Saturday night caper. She noted that Basil Rudnick, Liz Matousek, and Jesse Jarrell all scored 28-hands as well.

Don Brown Takes Summer US Open

Grand Master Don Brown (CA) zipped to the win at the recent US Summer Open, played at West Covina, CA. With 42 players in the field, Brown took home 105 MRP's for the win. He nipped Mike Beauvais (CA) in the final playoff match, but, nevertheless, Beauvais took home 70 MRP's for his 2nd place finish. Ben Wollman (CA) and Muriel Michel (CA) finished 3-4. Steve Yellon (CA) topped the field in the Q round, winning 10 or 12 (20 10.12 +59).

New ACC member Beau Jaklitsch (CA), and also the youngest player in the field, roared through the 26-player consolation, taking Q honors and winning the playoffs as well, and zips to a great start in ACC action. Tom Mills (CA) finished 2nd, followed by Mary McFarland (CA) and Ron Hogleund (CA) in the 3-4 slot.

Director Norman Nikodym reported cold cards, as neither a 28 or 29-hand showed.

ACC Internet Cribbage

Mark Van Dyke

Tops 2004-5 All-Internet team

Mark Van Dyke (loosespokes1135) of Grand Haven, MI has won the 2004-5 Internet Championship. Van Dyke played early and often, reaching his 100 tournament annual quota by May 5. He accumulated 992 IRPs (Internet Rating Points) in the process, a mark that no one else could meet by season's end on July 31. He thus takes his rightful place with last year's champion Mike Fetchel at the pinnacle of Internet cribbage.

John Schafer (netview85) of Battle Creek, MI, and Charles Rodgers (KALEKAI) of Honolulu, HI retained their longstanding grip on Second and Third Place respectively. Donald LeVack (redeagle0) of Colorado Springs took Fourth Place, thanks to strong moves in April and June.

Next come the 700 IRP finishers, led by Donald Olney (olney_1147) of Carlevalle, SA, followed by Rick LaVallee (KwizatzHaderach) of Orlando, FL, Scott Buhrow (MrB_1A218) Louisville, KY and Tom Lewis (pegfast) of Albuquerque, NM. These four players were strong all year, spending most of the season in the top ten. But our Ninth and Tenth Place finishers, Cecily S. Ryan (En_chanted1) of St. John's, NL and Lois M. Fosdal (Ezmarelda) of Stoughton, WI, needed to ride a late surge to slip into the top ten in the last month. Fosdal and

Ryan both just missed the cut in 2004, so their success this season must be especially sweet.

All-Internet honors go to the ten players who amass the most IRPs in a season. Van Dyke, Olney, Buhrow and Lewis are repeat honorees from our inaugural 2004 season. In addition to the All-Internet players, nine additional peggers qualified for the ACC Tournament of Champions by finishing in the top 10% of players earning IRPs.

Once again, our All-Internet team proudly displays the ACC's diversity, including women and Canadians, and a geographic range from Hawaii to Newfoundland, spread over five different time zones. Curiously, the Pacific Time Zone was shut out for the second year in a row. Perhaps this is to be expected, since one of the goals of ACC Internet Cribbage is to extend the reach of sanctioned cribbage to places that see less over-the-board cribbage, and the West Coast is well served by weekend tournaments and Grass Roots clubs. This should also assuage those who worry that ACC Internet events might draw members away from our over-the-board events.

ACC Internet Cribbage tournaments take place at MSN Games by Zone.com. Come to www.cribbage.org/internet for the official schedule and information on how to participate. You could get to play a champion like Mark Van Dyke, Mike Fetchel or Jim Crawford...for free!

Apologies

I just received my August Cribbage World. I was the top qualifier at the Lake Topaz Open. I was very surprised and dismayed to find that I had become a man (Bruce Watson) as I have always enjoyed being a woman. This is the best I have ever done in a cribbage tournament and to have it reported incorrectly was disappointing.

Double Header in Sunnyside, WA Mid-Week: Jim Hornbacher Summer Classic: Jim Hartung

The small farming town of Sunnyside, WA was buzzing with cribbage players the first week in August. The pegging action began on Thursday with a Mid-Week Special, won by the streaking Life Master Jim Hornbacher (WA) and wound down with the weekend Summer Classic with Grand Master Jim Hartung taking home the roses, running the table. He qualified tops (36 17/22 +245) and won the playoffs as well. His aggregate 197 MRP's have him in the National MRP lead as the new cribbage year gets under way.

In the Mid-Week event, Life Master John Furler (OR) finished 2nd, and begins the new cribbage year on a positive note. He just missed All-American honors in 2005, scoring some 1,273 MRP's, some 184 MRP's short of earning this honor. Canadian Marion Buckley (AB) and Dan Marsh (OR) finished 3-4. Buckley also had the top Q score (33 15/22 +120) to begin the year in fine style, scoring an aggregate 77 MRP's.

One-Star Ron Morgan (CA) won the 28-player Consolation, nipping high-Q player (19 8/9 +159) Erik Locke (OR) in the final playoff match. Life Master Willie Evans (WA) and Master Lynn Gillespie (WA) finished 3-4. Director Bob Brumley reported the Thursday satellite match was won by Norm Vierela, and Jack Moritzky scored the meet's only 28-hand.

On Friday night's weekend match, director James Morrow reported Erik Locke (OR) won the kick-off event, followed by Graeme and Patti Gossett winning the Doubles. Canadian Harold Buckley won the High Roller event. On Saturday night John Furler took home the win. The All-Events went to Bruce Pomeroy (54) and the team of Toll, Furler, Morgan, and Locke won going away.

Hartung took the championship by nipping the hot-running Bruce Pomeroy (ID) in the final playoff match. Carl Heath (OR) and Vonita Gill (WA) finished 3-4.

In the 48-player Consolation, One-Star Roy Hofbauer (WA) took the win, with another One-Star player in 2nd...Ron Morgan (CA). And yet another One-Star player (Rollie Heath, OR) took a 3-4 finish with Life Master Ken Cochlin (WA). Heath also took Q honors with a nifty 17 8/9 +124 card, kicking off the new year in style.

ACC Internet Cribbage

Sunday Events Start Soon

Though you might like to spend every weekend traveling around on the Tournament Trail, perhaps you have the occasional Saturday or Sunday when you're inexplicably stuck at home. No problem, just excuse yourself from friends and family for a few hours, and enjoy ACC Internet Cribbage on Saturday and Sunday! Yes, beginning in September 2005, we'll be adding Sunday afternoon tournaments to our schedule, accompanying the events already happening on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. Just organize a local Grass Roots club to take care of Wednesday night, and you'll then be able to play ACC cribbage every day of the week. Keep an eye on the official schedule at www.cribbage.org/Internet for details.

As we go to press there's one month left in the 2004-5 season, and Mark Van Dyke (loosespokes1135) of Grand Haven, MI and John Schafer (netview85) of Battle Creek, MI, are sitting pretty atop the ratings list. Charles Rodgers (KALEKAI) of Honolulu, HI is clinging to Third Place, but Donald LeVack (_redeagle0) of Colorado Springs is making a late move. LeVack reached the Top Ten for the first time in April, and is now in Fourth Place with eight rated events still available to him. LeVack notched 144 IRPs in June, 63 of them earned by winning the final tournament of the month. LeVack played in 12 tournaments during the month, and qualified in 11 of them (a feat that requires finishing roughly in the top 1/4 of the field). Sounds like we have our player of the month.

Congratulations to first-time ACC Internet Cribbage tournament winners Ronald E. Boulé (boomboom2996), Robert Beguin (beggyone) and Roy J. Varni (avp3404). Beguin has been in the ACC for several years, but only recently signed up for official Internet play. His screen name was certified by Assistant Internet Statistician Lois Fosdal on June 18. Robert then played in his first event that evening and won! Varni, who joins us from Juneau, AK, is our first winner from Alaska.

Join us at www.cribbage.org/Internet. You could be the first _____ (fill in the blank) to win an ACC Internet tournament!

Duane Toll Repeats

Three-Star Duane Toll blistered the boards during the 2005 season, and very nearly equalled his record score (2,473) he posted last year. His play was consistent all year, routinely adding MRP's at very nearly every stop. He was also very dedicated, playing nearly every weekend, mainly in the Central and Western Regions. He also attained his Three-Star rating during the year as well. Grand Master Jim Crawford had a year to remember as he won both the Grand National and the ACC Open and very nearly took home the 2005 championship, but a cold spell in late spring allowed Toll to take the crown. Sharlene Medeiros earned her One-Star during the year and rolled to her second consecutive All-American honor with a whopping 1,818 MRP's. Ronald Morgan also earned his One-Star during the year, and despite not playing a couple of months, roared home with strong finish, scoring 1,690 MRP's. Life Master Jack Moritzky won three Main Events and a Consolation and this veteran pegger easily had his best year ever, scoring 1,618 MRP's. Perennial winner and Hall o'Famer Phyllis Schmidt (Two-Star) earned All-American for the sixth time and posted 1,576 MRP's this time around. One-Star Bill Medeiros finished 231 MRP's behind his spouse Sharelene, but this duo certainly put on a show this cribbage year, with a tandem All-American showing. "Ras" Rasmussen had a fantastic finish, earning well over 400 MRP's the last month to zip to All-American honors. Master Chris McComas tattooed the boards the entire year and nail down his first All-American honor. Grand Master Jason Shumate earned his 2nd All-American honor with steady play throughout the entire year.

Rule of the month review:

Refusal to Conform to the Rules: If either player disagrees with the decision of the first two judges, a third judge may be summoned. The decision rendered by the three judges is final.

Would you like to increase your GR Club membership? There are many ways to do this but one method that often works is to take your cribbage board, partner and cards and play in a public place where there is a lot of foot traffic. Coffee shops, malls and such. Many cribbage players may not be aware that a local club exists and will stop to observe your game and make inquiries.

Grass Roots Regional Tournament (GRRT) The GRRT is an optional 18 game tournament that all clubs may elect to play. This is one of two major Grass Roots tournaments that provide prize money to support the awards in our program. This tournament is played between September 1st and December 31st. Club Directors who host this tournament need to make sure that all participants are both ACC members and Grass Roots members. Tournament results must be provided to your Regional Commissioner (RC) not later than January 15, 2006. If you have not received your GRRT package by September 15th, please call your RC.

Benson day at Club 271 in Albuquerque! Twenty-Five players showed up for the July 23rd summer session. The club has a side pot that goes to the player attaining the highest hand of the day. Kit Benson (NM 109) got a 24 hand in game #1, game #3 and again in game # 7. A shoo-in right? Not quite. Her husband Tom Benson (NM 110) received two 24 hands in game 8 and another in game 9. Three 24 hands each so the winner of the side pot was decided by the player having the highest tiebreaker. Kit, who led all day, had an 18 hand but alas, Tom scored a 20 hand in game 8 to win the pot. Joan Marie Brown (NM123) was Tom's victim in game 8 but played well, only losing the game by 26 holes. Pretty good considering she had two 24 hands and a 20 hand scored against her in game #8. As it turned out, there were eleven 24 hands scored all day and six of them were by Kit and Tom Benson!

The club 5 championship went down to the last game of the 2004-2005 season. Philip Lococo won the West Seneca, NY championship for the 5th straight year. Ace Bett was a close second and lead most of the season. Competition in the club is getting tougher and many of their members did well in outside tournaments including Club Director Stan Bochinski. Summer activity is very enjoyable and they are looking forward to the 2005-2006 season.

Hurricane hinders pegging!! GR Club 144, in Newnan, Georgia, is sure that most peggers remember the trouble caused by Hurricane Ivan at the 2004 Grand National. Well, Hurricane Dennis has pulled a very similar trick. On July 11th, remnants of the storm spawned six tornadoes in the area southwest of Atlanta. Club 144, which plays thru the summer, was blacked out when two power poles were felled at the Coweta Veterans Club, their playing venue. The Veterans Club hooked up a generator and plans were made to play on July 18th. Not so! The generator overheated on Wednesday, the 13th, and caused a fire which resulted in substantial damage to the building. The peggers are hopeful repairs will be completed before the regular season starts in September.

Good news and bad news from Club 119 in Marietta, GA. by Jack Allison, Co-Director.

Good news: Carol Boczarski, an occasional player at Club 119, popped the cork of 8 of 9 contenders for a whopping 21 points! Five of the wins were by skunks, four of those in a row against some heavy hitters.

Bad news: She didn't get in the $75 Q Pool. Good news: ... for David Foxwell who finished 2nd with 13 points. He did. Bad news: Carol's one loss from having a Grand Slam and pocketing another $80 bankroll from the skunk pot, was to her escort Carl Squire. Carl hasn't commented on the conversation going home. Carl, incidentally, also finished with 13 points (good for 3rd place) barely missing out on recouping the Q Pool by spread points.

Albuquerque Balloon Festival. This year the Albuquerque Balloon Festival will start on September 30th and end on October 9th. There will be over 700 hot air balloons participating. If you will be in our city for that event we invite you to visit our club and play cribbage with us. The Sandia Peggers play on Saturday mornings from 9AM-12:15PM. Please come and join us on October 1st and 8th. Please contact Tom Lewis for directions.

PUYALLUP FAIR CRIBBAGE PROMOTION AND EXHIBIT (Sept 9-25) Might want to check out the world's largest cribbage exhibit and promotion, hosted by nine Grass Roots Cribbage Clubs in the Puget Sound area. Our display is located in the Hobby Building in a choice location. Head for the middle of the fairgrounds, look for the tallest tower on the grounds and you'll see the building decorated with an assortment of flags along the roofline. This fair lasts seventeen days. Local club members will cover more than 130 volunteer shifts. The level of participation among fair-goers is unbelievable. The Chehalis-Centralia Cribbage Club will host on September 12-14. If you're in the area check it out. If not, this would be worth the trip to the Northwest. If you're planning to attend the Grand National in Lincoln City September 15-18, take a couple of extra days before or after to do the Puyallup. This is the fifth largest fair in North America. You'll have a great time and enjoy participating in the world's largest crib promotion. It's a hoot!

ACC adds 16 new Junior members to its rolls. During the summer of 2005, Club 271 in Albuquerque, NM conducted two separate eight-week beginners cribbage classes for 8-14 year olds. None of these students had any previous knowledge of our fine game and now they all play cribbage and are ACC members. Attending the classes were Lauren Li, Sophia Li, Andrew Lin, Jason Liou, Kevin Liou, Tony Liou, Mackenzie Lohnes, Sean Lohnes, Madeline MacKenzie, Malcolm MacKenzie, Daniel O'Connor, Jessica O'Connor, Karina O'Connor, Mike Ruberson, Jin Rui and Michael Walsh. Club 271 members conducting these classes were Rita Bosl, Stan Gentile, Geri Hannah, Susie Jenkins, Dorothy Kassa and Tom Lewis. The club will be hosting a youth tournament for them on September 25th in conjunction with the ACC Cribadier General program. The November Cribbage World will have the results of this tournament!

Enforcing Rules

Subject: A response to a letter and response in the Cribbage World

This may be the wrong place to air this, but I don't know where else to go with it.

The rules do not say or imply that we have any discretion in the matter: when an infraction is noticed, a penalty is or is not called for. Failure to impose a noted penalty could very conceivably impact another pegger trying to make the cut. This conduct opens the door to a player who clearly is (or is not) going to make a cut being able to "shade" a game outcome to another.

Taking penalty points doesn't make you a villain and declining them is not your prerogative. Everyone who has ever played the game has erred. Penalty points are part of the game and we all agreed to play by the rules.

Membership Renewals:

Some members are renewing at tournaments and this is a valid way to renew. But, until the Membership Secretary receives the funds and forms, your renewal is not official and you are still responsible for the dues. Tournament directors normally do not forward the applications until after the tournament is over, there could be a 1-2 month delay before it is received and processed, and there is a risk that your application could get lost in the shuffle.

Please invest in a 37 cent stamp and mail your membership renewals directly to the Membership Secretary. Do NOT give it to someone to a hand carry.

Unusual Hands

At the recent Lewis and Clark tournament, I was dealt 2-5-5-5-8-q. Since I was only 2 pegs from going out and so was the opponent, so I threw 2 fives in the opponents crib. Of course, the fourth 5 was out.

What makes this so unusual is that I also threw my last 29 hand away. Two years ago in a grass roots tournament, I was dealt 4-5-5-5-6-Jclubs. I was dealing from about 37 pegs out with a slight wager on game so I threw the 5 and J. The 5 of clubs came up so I did skunk my opponent but lost out on the $100 for 29 hand in the grass roots tournament.
