Barbara Bouchard Scores $1,100 29-Hand Reno: Ras Rasmussen

"28-hand!" shouted Eveleyn Gillmore (CA) on the very first hand of the qualifying round of the Veteran's Day Classic in Reno on November 11th...the third time within six weeks that has happened in the Western Region. And the 22nd game, with but a hand or two to play, a "29-hand!!!" shout rang out as Barbara Bouchard, pegging out of Cornish, Maine nailed down the $1,000 Saturday bonus for this gem, with the ACC adding yet another $100 for the 4th sanctioned 29-hand of this cribbage year.

The next day the streaking One-Star Ras Rasmussen (WA) zipped to the playoff win...and the National MRP lead as well by winning a 4-2 match with Minnesota's Mike Burns, a Grand Master who kicked off this event with a stirring rendition of the Star Spangled Banner a day earlier. With 298 peggers in action, Rasmussen took home 252 MRP's (and $2,250) and is standing at the 600 mark this cribbage year. Burns took home 196 for 2nd. Grand Master Don Patrin (MN) and Rod Foy (CA) finished 3-4. Foy recently earned his Master rating and continues his fine play with this high finish.. Ben Holder (CA) unofficially earned his Master rating as well by posting a nifty top-Q score of 35 16/22 +223.

The Consolation fielded 204 players and Master Thelma Weber scored a superlative 19 9/10 +119 card to take Q honors, but when the pegs were laid away only Tom Moler (NV) was left standing, taking home $900 and 112 MRP's for the win. Sylvia Sutton (CA) also unofficially earned her Master rating by taking home 2nd (and 84 MRP's). Grand Master Richard Wardenburg (CA) and Calvin Libby (ME) finished 3-4.

John and Sheila Kern, La Mesa, CA kicked off the long weekend of pegging by nailing down the Doubles win on Friday night. The win came with a generous $1,250 prize. Steve Hastie (CA) nailed down the Saturday night High Roller event ($600) and the Sunday Night Special saw Dennis Bays (CA) come home the winner, taking home $380 "gas money" to wind down the weekend's play.

Barbara Bouchard scored the event's only 29-hand, but a bevy of players scored 28-hands: Evelyn Gillmore, Ira Deutsch, Annett Eiffert, Dee Kinney, Jackie Doppelt, and H. Ross Njaa.

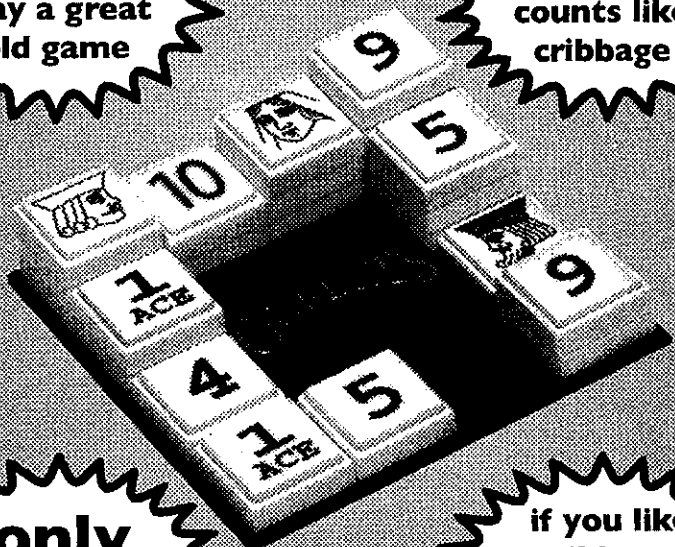

The Sands once again rolled out the red carpet for the players adding $2,500 to the prize fund and furnishing coffee and cakes 3-days running. The usual turkey/ham buffet lunch on Saturday was a bargain to boot. Bill and Dorthalee Irons, Roberta Huff and staff ran a well-run event, with Barbara Woodward representing the Sands with her usual expertise. The Sands donated $2,980 to the Veteran's Fund as well.

Dan Marsh Tops Salem

Master Dan Marsh (OR), a member of last year's All-American team, continues to show his expertise on the boards by taking home the win at the 122-player Salem (OR) Classic on October 29. His last playoff victim was Larry Pisha (OR). Marsh carted home 147 MRP's and Pisha garnered 105. Grand Master Chris McComas (WA), an All-American in 2005, finished in the 3-4 bracket with Tom Dobscha (OR). Each player took home 70 MRP's. Last year's MRP National Champion Three-Star Duane Toll (OR) zipped to Q honors with an excellent 40 18/22 +280 card, one of the highest recorded this cribbage year.

It was ex-National Champion day in Salem as two-time National Champ Jim Langley (CA) ran the table in the 78-player Consolation. This One-Star player zipped to Q honors with a 16 7/9 +90 card and won the playoffs as well, adding 99 MRP's to his lofty lifetime total (14,600+). Master Nancy Lorenz (OR) finished 2nd, followed by Master Laurie Logan (MT) and Master Dean Bauman (OR) in the 3-4 slot.

Director Phyllis Roderick fielded a full slate of satellites. The winners:

Early Bird: Bruce Goff

Doubles: Bruce Pomeroy & Carl Heath

High Rollers: Sharon Hejzmanek

Saturday: Willie Evans

Last Chance: Monica Newton

All-Events: Duane Toll

Team: Locke, L. Pisha, J. Shumate, Marsh, J. Crawford (161!!!)

Super Q: Duane Toll

28's: DeLynn Colvert, Jim Langley

In an oddity, retiring Cribbage World editor DeLynn Colvert yelled out "28-hand!" on the very first hand of the 22-game qualifying round. In game seven, he dealt Jim Langley another 28-hand (he needed 20 points to win with first count), and the loss knocked Colvert out of the playoffs (26 GP card).

Another oddity saw Bruce Wridge (OR) score a 29-hand in the High Roller event...and he lost the game. And to add insult to injury, he did not earn $100 from the ACC for this non-sanctioned gem.

Roderick directed a first-class event at the Black Bear Inn. This was her first directorship and she came through with flying colors.

Bill Johnson Hot At Feather River

Bill Johnson from nearby Red Bluff (CA) was smoking at the recent Feather River Open, played at Oroville, CA on October 7. Johnson nailed down a 31 GP card (18 games) to take qualifying honors, and then waltzed through the playoffs to take home the championship as well. With 110 players in the field, Johnson took home a whopping 197 MRP's. His last playoff match was against the formidable Three-Star Jesse Jarrell (CA) and Johnson prevailed. Jarrell has won this event 4 times, and almost a 5th in the 21-year history of this event. One-Star Jim Langley (CA) and John Prehn (CA) finished 3-4. Langley's high finish keep him on track for yet another National Championship.

Grand Master Ira Deutsch (OR) won the 50-player Consolation, nipping Grand Master Jerold Montgomery (CA) in the final playoff match. Rod Foy (CA) earned his Master rating in finishing in the 3-4 bracket with Richard Hinrichs (CA). Hinrichs also took Q honors with an 11 GP card (7 games).

With 60 peggers in action, he garnered 105 MRP's...and 2nd place winner Rodney Rideau (CA) carted home 70. Master Pam Pomeroy (CA) and Richard Smeltz (CO) finished 3-4 (42 MRP's each). Pomeroy also won 10 of 12 with a skunk in the qualifying round to take honors.

Director Paul Yellon reported Tom Mills (CA) won the Last Chance and 28-hands were scored by Norm Nikodym and James Muller.

17th All-Star Game Slated February 8 East: 6; West: 5; Central: 5

One of the most competitive matches sponsored by the ACC is the annual All-Star game, and the 17th annual should be another great match! The 16-year series has the Eastern Region leading with 6 wins, the Western Region and the Central Region have scored five wins. All three squads will field mostly veteran players with a few first-timers on the roster.

This year's match is scheduled to be played on Thursday, February 8, 6:30 PM at the Sands Regency. The format has each region fielding an 8-person squad, playing one game each vs. the other two region's squads, for a 16-game event. The entry fee is $100 with the winning team each receiving $300. An optional Q-Pool is available for individual play ($20, top 4, 40-30-20-10 split).

The top eight players from each region are listed below, with three alternates. Each player should contact his/her captain to insure all players will be present (say "yes" or "no").

Kurt Bloeser Nails St. Louis Grand Prix

A rare, first-time, event for Missouri was played in St. Louis on October 8-10. Missouri is off the beaten track for ACC cribbage players, but nevertheless a hardy band of 24 peggers played for the championship. Nevada's Kurt Bloeser came home the winner in a tight final match with Roger Grandgeorge, the hot-pegging Io-wan who won this year's JPW/ACC Open in Reno. With the match at 3-3, Bloeser won the 7th and final game to take home the marbles. Bloeser also took Q honors with an outstanding 38 17/22 +293 card. This run netted an aggregate 130 MRP's for Bloeser. Frank Horn (MO) and David Yaeger (MN) finished 3-4.

Grand Master Marvin Lang (IL) took home the win in the 18-player Consolation, besting Don Phillips (MO) in the final playoff match. Lynn Gillespie (WA) is knocking on the door for his Grand Master with a 3-4 finish with David Yaeger (MO). Phillips also took Q honors with a 16 8/9 +85 card.

Director Floyd Vincent reported that the Friday and Saturday satellite games were won by Harry Ramatowski (MO), and in an oddity, 2nd place both nights went to Don Phillips. No 28's or 29's showed.

Monica Hunt Wins Colorado Fall Classic

Monica Hunt pegs out of Billings, MT, and her claim to cribbage fame was scoring a $800 29-hand in Missoula, MT some years back. Always in the thick of the action, she finally broke through with a win at the Colordao Fall Classic, played at Lakewood, CO on October 20-22. With 74 peggers in action, Hunt took home 147 MRP's and the champion's bragging rights. Her last playoff opponent was Rick Vee (SD) and she prevailed for the win. Vee took home 105 MRP's for his high finish. Vee was hot the entire weekend, as he copped the Friday night action with a stellar 19 8/9 +158 card. Roger Widdowson (CO) was also on a roll as he took Q honors in the Main Event with a 36 17/22 +234 card, and waltzed to the 3-4 round before falling. Ron Bellomy (CO) also finished 3-4.

"Pink" Pinkerton (WY) has been seen far and wide pegging that last few years, and he ran the table in the 40-player Consolation, nipping Master Sue Edwards (CO) in the final playoff match and taking Q honors as well (14 6/9 +107). Grand Master Connie Staven (WI) and Mike Poole (CO) finished 3-4.

According to director Roger Wilson, the cards were running weird. The Friday night game saw 4 players with 8 wins, yet the Consolation top card was a low 14 GP effort, and even some 12 GP cards earned MRP's. Wilson also reported Mike Poole took home the win in the Saturday night game, and George Rodriguez and Kathy Pacocha scored non-sanctioned 28-hands. No 29's showed.

One-Star Jim Langley (CA) is famous for his every-other year production of Master Points. he won the National Championship in 2001 and 2003, and had a high finish last year. And he is off and running this year as well, as he took home the win at the recent Crescent City Open (CA) and has vaulted into the National MRP lead. With 68 players in the field, Langley picked up yet another 147 MRP's, and is standing unofficially at over 700. Life Master John Furler (OR) is hot on Langley's heels in taking home 2nd. Grand Master Chris McComas has been piling up MRP's the last few years and his 3-4 finish keep him in this year's race. Master Bruce Pomeroy (ID), a regular on the western circuit, is also scoring well this cribbage year and he also finished in the 3-4 bracket. Aubrey Cupp (CA) took Q honors with an excellent 36 17/22 +231 card.

One-Star Ras Rasmussen (WA), destined to win the huge Reno November event a month later, is also among the top three peggers this cribbage year. He took home the Consolation win (48 peggers). Jerry Cutsforth (CA) finished 2nd, followed by Master Bill Robe (OR) and Master Rick Baird (OR) in the 3-4 bracket. Baird also took Q honors with a stellar 20 8/9 +185 card.

Grand Master Mike Rowe (AK) knocked down the win at the 23-player Mike Stier Memorial, played in Anchorage on October 21. Karen Dorcas (AK) finished 2nd. Master Henry Carle (AK) took Q honors with a 26 13/18 +102 card. No Consolation was played.

In besting 41 players in the field, Ferguson picked up 105 MRP's and bragging rights as well. Alas, coming back from lunch he scored a string of 11-pearls to finish at 19 GP's!

Phyllis Schmidt loves Dante Club

Two-Star Phyllis Schmidt (MA) loves Dante Club action. She took home the bacon in this 30th edition of the Dante Club Open...and she took home the bacon in the very first Dante Club as well. And in between she has won yet another. This time around she bested the 106-player field, taking home yet another 147 MRP's to add to her lofty 18,300+ lifetime tally. Director George Bickford reported that only Jeanne Masters could score a 28-hand...and no 29's showed. He also reported stricter blind draw procedures that all directors in the ACC must adhere to.

Stan Bochinski Cops Niagara Falls

The New York king of cribbage, once again, showed his expertise on the boards by winning the 72-player Niagara Falls Open on October 27-29. Maynard King (PA) took home 2nd, followed by Amy Charland (VA) and Norman Ferbert (MD) in the 3-4 bracket. Jeff Wussow Cops North Pole

Marinette's (WI) Riverfront Inn was buzzing with 130 peggers the last weekend in October as the North Pole Open was in town. And it was Jeff Wussow (WI) coming home the winner, besting Grand Master Tom Maresh (WI) in the final playoff match to take home the marbles (and 196 MRP's to boot). With 74 players in the Consolation field, Elliott Havitz (WI) zipped to the win, and earned 84 MRP's, but 2nd place was special for Aggie Mikulsky (WI) as her 60 MRP's propelled her to her Life Master rating (6,000). Father & Daughter Clean Up

On November 12, father Ken Rasmussen was busily taking home second money in the Tournament of Diamonds (Muskegon, MI) while his daughter Susan Rasmussen was nailing down the championship in the Sunshine State Classic (Kissimmee, FL). Susan has played sanctioned cribbage for less than a year...while Ken has many years of play under his belt.

Dan Marsh Prepared for John Furler

Dan Marsh and John Furler, two Oregon peggers, have a friendly (?) competition going, and when they sat down to play a head-to-head game at Reno's High Roller, Marsh ripped off his outer shirt exposing a T-shirt that read, "Shut Up, John Furler!"

Larry LaGassie Illinois Champ

Master Larry LaGassie, pegging out of Green Bay, came to play at the Illinois Open on November 5 at Crystal Lake. He nailed down the win, besting the field of 89. His final playoff match was with Central Region MRP leader One-Star Wayne Steinmetz (WI) and he prevailed for the win. Tom Edwards (IL) and veteran Two-Star Warren Sondericker (WI) finished 3-4. Master Howard Terry (VA) had the hot hand in the Q-round, taking honors with a 34 16/22 +138 card.

Grand Master Max Steplyk (WI) almost ran the table in the 51-player Consolation, taking Q honors with a 15 7/9 +92 card and racing to a 2nd place finish in the playoffs. But it was Life Master Don Flesch (WI) taking home the grand prize. Grand Master Bruce Sattler (MD) and Jeanne Wauters (WI) finished 3-4.

Director Marvin Lang reported Bruce Sattler won the Friday night game, and Ken Patenaude took home the Saturday night action. Only Sharon Schaefer could score a 28-hand...and no 29's showed.

Roland Hall Wins Coast-to-Coast

Roland Hall, a Life Master who pegged in the Western Region for years picking up sanctioned wins (5) has moved to Vermont and he nailed down another sanctioned win by taking the Charm City Classic, played in Baltimore on November 12. In besting the 64-player field, Hall tacks on yet another 105 MRP's to add to his lofty 8,000+ lifetime MRP's. Andy Hulcher (VA) took home 2nd, followed by director Bruce Sattler (Grand Master) and Kate Furler (ME). Furler is also a former Western Region player.

Virginian Master Howard Terry copped the 40-player Consolation, besting Jan Viands (VA) in the final playoff match. Andy LaVenture (VA) and Master Bill Richmond (CT) finished 3-4. Ben Rymut (MD) took Q honor with a 15 6 +100 card.

Director Sattler reported Scott Noble won the Early Bird by a single spread point. He also reported Matt Easterbrook scored a 28-hand enroute to earning his Master rating. Some $152 was raised for the Multiple Sclerosis Society, including a $50 contribution from the host Golden Dragon Restaurant.

Betty Stewart Wins Lake Topaz

Betty Stewart (OR), fresh from winning this year's Tournament of Champions, has done it again. This time around she has won the mid-week Lake Topaz Open, played 70 miles south of Reno, following the Veterans Day Classic. With 74 players in the field, Stewart took home 147 MRP's (no MRP's were awarded in the TOC, an event by invitation only), the winner's check and a trophy, to be delivered later. Life Master Todd Malmgren (OR), a member of this year's All-American team, took home 2nd, and is off to the races once again. Grand Master (and co-director) Les Sumner (NV) and Grand Master Angelo Torrise (CA) finished in the 3-4 bracket. Alaskan Duane Person took Q honors with a nifty 36 17/22 +239 card (50 MRP's).

And to make qualifying an art form, there was Person, once again, taking Q honors in the 48-player Consolation. This time around he pegged into a 3-4 tie with One-Star Ron Morgan (CA)...another member of this year's All-American team. Gary Getty, Reno, zipped to the win in the playoffs, however, and took home 60 MRP's to boot. Jims Huser (WI) is knocking on the door for his Life Master, and by taking 2nd is closing the gap fast. He was a member of the Central Region's All-Regional team this past year.

Directors Valerie Sumner, Les Sumner, and A. J. Tasker reported the satellites:
Early Bird: Steve Harding
High Roller: Bruce Webb
Tuesday Special: Lee Fogelsong
Wednesday Special: Bruce Webb (again)
All Events: John Prenz, Jim Langley (tie)
Super Q: Betty Stewart
Team: Bartosh, Colvert, Langley, Toll

In an oddity, Bill McMillan scored a 29-hand in the Wednesday night game...just two games late from collecting $100 for a sanctioned 29.

Correction

It was Jason Shumate winning the recent Castro Valley event, not his father, Jack Shumate III.

Nancy Hawkins Shines at Longest Beach Classic

Nancy Hawkins, pegging out of Olympia, WA, had a weekend to remember at the Long Beach, WA "Longest Beach Classic" in late November. She barely missed being top qualifier with a 35 GP card (only Jo Ann Morse's 35 16/22 +202 beat her 35 GP card). She then roared to the championship, besting George Stanton (another player from Olympia) in the final playoff match. And if that wasn't enough bragging rights, she then proceeded to take home the marbles in the Saturday Night event as well. Her prizes? Well over four-figures! Sue Wheaton (and yet another Olympia player) finished in the 3-4 bracket with Master Jeanette Nielsen (OR). Nielsen is very close to earning her Grand Master rating.

Ratso Roderick (OR) came very close to running the table in the 60-player Consolation, taking Q honors with an excellent grand slam 19 9/9 +162, and finishing 2nd in the playoffs. Larry Pisha (OR) nipped Roderick for the championship in the final playoff match. Master Dan Marsh (OR) took home All-American honors last year, and he finished in the 3-4 bracket with veteran Bob Wilson (OR).

Director Rosemary Hendricks ran a first-class event, complete with pastries, candy and coffee galore. She reported a full slate of satellites. The winners:
High Roller: Mike Rowe
Doubles: Betty Stewart & Duane Toll
Saturday: Nancy Hawkins
Team: Rowe, Colvert, McComas, Locke
Super Q: George Stanton
28's: Egon Koch, Phyllis Roderick

Jim Blough "Snookered"

Jim Blough (MI) was in a long match and facing elimination, needing a win and two skunks. Blough is dealing needing 18 to win, and his opponent needs 20 with first count. Blough holds A-2-6-7. The starter card is a 3.

The pegging: 3 - 7 - 5 (for 2) - 6 (for 3) - 4 (for 5). At that point Blough's opponent shows his hand "I have enough" as he holds a 3-3-4-5 with the starter 3, for 21, more than enough to win the game. Blough concedes the game at that point.

On the way home, Blough re-plays the hand. Ouch, he had a 2 that would have made a run of 6, then his opponent would have played his last card, a 3 for a run of 6. But Blough's last card, an ace, would have sent the count to 31, with a run of 7 for a 9-peg...and a game winning 19 pegs! Ugg!

A Fond Farewell

By DeLynn Colvert, Editor

Whew! 202 issues of Cribbage World done and gone! I have resigned my position as editor after a 17-year run. I leave with many regrets, but I am simply worn out. The monthly problems of production with the myriad details were aggravating, but all in all it has been an enjoyable experience. Keeping track of all my pegging pals and reporting their accomplishments (and their failures, as well) has been exciting and rewarding.

Beginning with the March 1990 issue and on thru the December 2006 issue, has been a roller coaster ride. In the early days of publication, the printing and labeling was contracted in Missoula, MT. This entailed supervising the labeling, tagging mail sacks (80 or so sacks), and hauling them to the local post office for mailing. The ACC now contracts the printing, labeling and mailing to our Minnesota printer (Wallace Carlson Company, Minnetonka, MN).

But the joy derived from this job was being in on the cribbage action. I watched and reported with amazement the Jim Langley run in the spring of 2001, as he won event after event in his run for the National Championship. And watching octogenarian Bob Julian flitting from coast to coast in quest of cribbage honors (and earning four National Championships) was quite unbelievable. And the past three years, Duane Toll's run for the records is also astounding. And who can forget Jim Crawford winning Atlanta's Grand National, and coming home the winner at the JPW/ACC Open four months later! I remember when Annett Eiffert scored a 29-hand on Saturday, and came back on Sunday for yet another. This would never be repeated I thought. But on February 29 (the "extra" lucky day of the year) in 2004, Lyle Lund scored a 29-hand in the 6th game of Green Bay's Consolation, rotated to his 7th game, and promptly scored yet another!!! The day before at this same event saw Sharelene Medeiros roll to a record 46 20/22 +501 qualifying round score. I could go one and on about cribbage...but I will leave that up to David Aiken, our new editor.

It is with a fond farewell that I leave this post. I wish one and all great pegging in the future, and look forward to seeing you all down the trail. And, remember, it is my turn to win! (Well, at least my share!)

Earle Remington Cops Nutmeg Open

Grand Master Earle Remington (RI) zipped to the 3rd Annual Nutmeg Open title, played in East Hartford on October 15. His final playoff match pitted him vs. One-Star Rob Medeiros (MA) and he prevailed for the win in this 84-player match. Master Roger Bouchard (CT) and Bob Kaplan finished 3-4. Kaplan's high finish have him knocking on the door for his Life Master rating. Life Master Frank Corrado (CT) posted a 21 9/12 +117 card to take Q honors (40 MRP's).

The Consolation saw Rodney Duff (CT) take home the bacon in this 40-player event. Western Region Life Master transplant Roland Hall (VT) finished 2nd, followed by Master Richard Andrew (NH) and Life Master Emil Chrabaszcz (MA) in the 3-4 bracket. Andrew was also the event's top Q player, posting a 14 7 +96 card.

Director Joan Fletcher reported nary a 28 or 29-hand showed, and no satellites were played in this one-day event.

Jerry Gruber Wins Washington County Grass Roots Open

One-Star Jerry Gruber (MN) roared to the championship at the Washington County Grass Roots Open, played at West Bend, WI on October 5-7. Master Jerome Tork (WI) came close, but fell to Gruber in the final playoff match. Gruber added 105 MRP's to his lofty 11,800+ lifetime mark and Tork took home 70 for 2nd. One-Star Wayne Steinmetz (WI) and Three-Star Duane Toll (OR) added 42 MRP's to their lofty lifetime ledgers as well by taking home a 3-4 finish. Grand Master Mike Burns (MN) took Q honors with a 32 15/22 +174 card.

Director Gene "Moose" Biegler reported that Grand Master Doug Henderson (WI) was smoking in the 34-player Consolation, as he zipped to Q honors (18 8/10 +103) and zipped to the win in the playoffs as well. Master Tom Mintner (WI) finished 2nd, followed by Bill Dayton (WI) and Life Master Jerry Fischer (WI) finishing 3-4.

Biegler reported no satellites were played and no 28 or 29-hands showed.

Scott Henderson Earns GR Silver Award

Last year's Grass Roots Silver Awards inadvertently failed to report that Scott Henderson, GR 119, Villa Rica, GA earned his Silver Award.

Kudos, Grand National XXV

Grand National XXV in Wisconsin Rapids, Wisconsin has come and gone. The players are home, the Master Points have been recorded and the weekend is just a memory for those who competed. But what a memory it is for many including Donna Gavin who captured her first tournament win in one of the most prestigious tournaments in the US and for young Bart Yaeger who swept the competition in the Consolation Tournament on Sunday. For Bill Shoemaker who started the weekend off with a win in the Friday Night Gold Tournament and backed it up with the high qualifying score on Saturday. For those who celebrated milestones on the cribbage board such as our National Champion Duane Toll who set a MRP record, to those who celebrated milestones in life like the birthday boys Norb Upton & Larry Rowley. For Al Lindner who was voted in as the new ACC President with no warning to the position he will hold. For George Bickford who was the latest member inducted into the ACC Hall of Fame and all those who received awards at the ACC banquet. The weekend was filled with stories and competition and for those who attended I hope all of you have the same wonderful memories you have created for us.

There are many people who made GN XXV a stellar event but we must thank these people in particular; DeLynn Colvert and Cribbage World, Martha Fingleton & Jeff Shimp, Scott Kooistra, Todd Schaefer, Diane Waite, Mike McCammon, Jeanne & Roy Hofbauer, Barbara Woodward/Sands Hotel & Casino, Jerome Tork, Al Lindner, Duane Jacob, Don Kreutzer, Mike & Nick Barrett, Phyllis Schmidt, Heather Guske, Michelle McDonald, Pat Upton, the tabulating committee, the judges, the ACC banquet presenters, the sponsors, members of Club #120 and all of those who pitched in and made this tournament a big success, thank you!

We look forward to the next GN XXVI in Portland, Maine and encourage all of you to attend and make some memories you will not soon forget.

The GN Is Cursed!

It seems every year the Grand National tournament is hexed by an eerie or weird happening that hinders the weekend in one way or another. This year's event is no exception.

As tournament directors Patrick & Linda Barrett were dozing off late Thursday night in their room at the Hotel Mead Patrick was awakened by a noise. He listened and felt, not heard, something fly by his bed. He flipped the light on and saw it...a bat on the wall of his room! He woke Linda and said "cover your head with the sheets, I'm going for help". She said, "don't worry, I'm not moving!" As the houseman accompanied by two cleaning ladies advanced on the creature Patrick thought, "how did Al Lindner pull off this prank?" The bat was removed and all was fine for the rest of the weekend.

GN XXV was a superb event and now we await the jinx to beset GN XXVI. Any guesses?

Last Chance!

by DeLynn Colvert, retiring editor

I am known as the "Missoula Whiner" and for good reason, as I always have a tale of woe for anyone who will listen (and they are getting harder to find).

My final sad story for Cribbage World takes place at the Lake Topaz event. I deal the first hand in the first game of the Consolation (after failing to qualify in the Main Event, standing at 26 GP's with 5 games to go and then losing all 5). After the starter card is turned, I discover two cards have stuck together in my hand...and the hand is declared dead (losing 12 points or so). I finish the 9-gamer with a 126 +15. The low qualifier was a 126 +20. A sticky card was very costly, indeed, missing by 5 spread points!! (Watch out...2007 will be MY year!)

Turning Toward Home

Greetings from Loveland Colorado at the base of the Rocky Mountains. Our company, Entertainment Connections, has remanufactured the Saves Argument Cribbage Board that originally appeared in the 1940's. We have been working on this project for several months and it has been quite an adventure, from deciding what to use for pegs, where to get a box made and our machinist asking "do you know how many holes that is?" We have found some wonderful businesses in our local area to help us produce a great product. We have a wood board that is like the original and we have also made the board in aluminum, which gives it a great updated look. Our hope as a company is to bring people closer together and what better way than through cribbage. Check out all of our products at savesargument.com and if you own an original board or know anything about the boards history, please email us on our website.

New Tournament Criteria

National Tournament Commissioner George Bickford announces new criteria for all ACC sanctioned tournaments.

Starting on January 1, 2007 all tournaments will have random seating. This means that all seats will be drawn from one common container. The only exceptions would be for handicapped seating and for all major tournaments, which will have assigned seating.

Also, anyone attending with their spouse or a close friend, who they choose not to meet in the qualifying round, may draw three (3) numbers from the container and keep any two (2).

Also, starting on January 1, 2007, all directors will be receiving new report forms. The reason for the new forms is you must now report all payoffs, including "Q" pools for the Main and Consolation, and all satellite events.

For any additional information, contact your Regional Tournament Commissioner. They are listed in the "Tournament Trail" section.

Bob Chase Tops In Iowa

Life Master Bob Chase, Minneapolis, zipped into Johnston, Iowa for a little cribbage on October 13-15 and he zipped back home with the championship, besting the 60-player field in the process. The win came with 105 MRP's, the winner's purse, and bragging rights for being the best in Iowa in 2006. Jerry Newhouse (WI) took home 2nd, followed by Master Paul Kilkelly (IL) and One-Star Jerry Gruber (MN) in the 3-4 bracket. Kilkelly also took Q honors with an outstanding 40 18/22 +298 card, earning an aggregate 112 MRP's. This run also propelled Kilkelly to a win in the All-Events event.

One-Star Wayne Steinmetz (WI) took Q honors (17 8/9 +167) in the 42-player Consolation, but when the pegs were laid away, only Jerry Jaeger (NE) was left standing undefeated. Norm Vierela (MI) finished 2nd, with director Dick Ogden (Master) and Larry Waller (MO) in the 3-4 bracket.

Director Ogden reported the satellite events:

Ogden also reported that Opal Tomlinson showed for Friday's game. She announced she was retiring from active cribbage competition due to eyesight problems. Opal was 100 years old on October 26, making her the oldest active player in the ACC, playing until she was 99.

Grass Roots Club #177, Anchorage, sadly announces the loss of two of our past club presidents. Floyd Smith, 93, passed away June 21. A founding member of the Alaska Cribbage Club who personally made the boards we still use, Floyd was active in the club up until about two years ago, winning our Summer Solstice Tournament in 2004. Floyd traveled the world, and played in many of the Reno events. He will be missed by many in the Western Region.

Ken Mitchell passed away October 26 as a result of complications from lung cancer first diagnosed in July. Ken was an active member of the Anchorage Cribbage Club before his transfer to California in 1996 and again when he returned to Anchorage in 2004, and an active member in California while there. Ken served as Club president during the 2005-2006 season, and was a friend to many in Alaska, Oregon and California.

Langley, Rasmussen, Mack Lead Master Point Race

With one-third of this year's Master Point race completed, three outstanding peggers are leading the way.

One-Star Jim Langley (CA) has won the Crescent City (CA) event, took home a Consolation win at Salem (OR) and posted a 5-8 finish at Grand National XXV and has raced to the 700 mark. Another One-Star player...Ras Rasmussen (WA)...has won two Main Events and two Consolations this cribbage year and is at the 600 mark. Right on his heels is Life Master Herschel Mack (CA) who is earning MRP's at very nearly every stop. He, too, is at the 600 mark.

In the Eastern Region, Dottie VanDenBerghe (MA) is leading with 342 MRP's in the bank. In the Central Region One-Star Wayne Steinmetz (WI) is setting the pace with 399 MRP's in his bag.

News from the ACC Board of Directors Meeting

September 29, 2006

The ACC Board of Directors Meeting was held on September 29, 2006 in Wisconsin Rapids, WI. The following ACC Internet Cribbage topics were submitted for proposal proposed and were accepted by the Board of Directors.

1. Award Levels

Members will accumulate Internet Rating Points and be awarded certificates for reaching specified levels. These levels are:

eMaster - 2000 IRPs

eGrand Master - 4000 IRPs

eLife Master - 6000 IRPs

eOne Star - 10,000 IRPs

eTwo Star - 15,000 IRPs

eThree Star - 20,000 IRPs

eFour Star - 25,000 IRPs

and so on by 5,000 IRPs.

Once a player attains eMaster, they will receive an automatic invitation to the annual ACC Tournament of Champions.

I believe that there are a couple of players who have accumulated sufficient points to reach eMaster and several additional players not far behind. I will be reviewing the lifetime statistics and will make the announcements shortly.

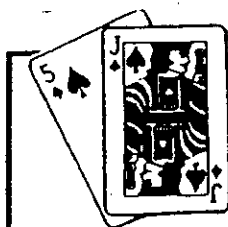

2. Certificates of Achievement

The ACC Board of Directors approved the development of Certificates of Achievement for the ACC Internet Cribbage program. Lois Fosdal, the Assistant Internet Statistician, will lead the design of the Certificates of Achievement that follow the standard

ACC format for certificates. The design(s) will be presented to the ACC Board of Directors for their approval at their next meeting in February. Certificates of Achievement will be for those individuals who attain the various levels and for the top 10 point earners. Once approved in February 2007, certificates will be produced for all top 10 finishers going back to the first three seasons plus those who attain the award levels.

3. Study for the Feasibility of Fee-Based Internet Tournaments

The ACC Board of Directors approved the study for the feasibility of fee-based internet tournaments. I received many requests for holding fee-based tournaments. At this time there will be a study to determine if the ACC should support fee-based tournaments.

GRASS ROOTS CORNER

Items for this column are encouraged and should be sent to TomLewis@Spinn.net or mailed to Tom Lewis, 7916 Eagle Rock Ave. NE, Albuquerque, NM 87122-2753

Rule of the month review - Placement of the cards in the crib: If all four cards are discovered to be on the pone's side, they shall be moved to the dealers side without exposure, unless the starter card has been turned and each player has played at least one card. In that event, the crib becomes the property of the player on whose side it lies and the other player becomes the pone and next dealer in that game.

Grass Roots Corner Stories: Have you read about your club in this column? If not, it's because I have not received any stories from your club! If you have any funny, unusual or just plain interesting stories from your Grass Roots club, please email them to me. You don't have to be a club director or club officer to send stuff! We currently have 175 Grass Roots clubs and I've received stories from less than half of them. Your members like to see their names in print so email me any GR items you think are worth printing!

Grass Roots Registrations should be submitted on a Grass Roots Registration form. Please do not hand write the name on a piece of paper or send a copy of the ACC membership application in lieu of the correct form.

The elusive 28 hands! Club 271 in Albuquerque, NM has 48 members and plays weekly. The skunk can which currently exceeds $200.00 pays 25% for a 28 hand and a Grand Slam scorecard and 50% for a 29 hand. The can has only been hit one time since last April. On October 23rd, Dale Bivens was dealt four 5s in game 7. The starter card was an ace. Five minutes later in another game, Susie Jenkins was dealt four 5s and the starter card was a 3. In early November, Helen Volkerding also held four 5s and cut a 3! You would think with sixteen "picture" cards in the deck, one of them would have turned up. Marilyn Oates was much more fortunate. On November 6th she held four 5s and cut a picture card to take a sizeable chunk out of the skunk can!

GRASS ROOTS CLUB 62 in Roseburg, Oregon

NEVER GIVE UP!

The last month of the Summer Challenge for a $50 prize, Ben Hester and Jerry Hahn were all tied up. They both knew each would miss one week during August. The next 3 weeks Ben scored 36 points while Jerry had 18 points with one week to go. Ben took off the last week with a comfortable lead of 18 points, so he thought and so did Jerry. Then up jumped the cribbage gods and Murphy's Law took over. Jerry went on to score a Grand Slam card of 19 with a skunk on the last game. This one point gave him the championship. Ben said he thought while driving home from hunting that Jerry might get a Grand slam and possibly split the pot. So he was not surprised to see the one point victory when he had struck out hunting. Ben congratulated Jerry on a job well done at the next Grass Roots meet. "Cribbage Fever/Catch It!" Jerry did! "$50 Point"

October 18th play at the Jackson Peggers Club 332 weekly tournament provided the following: Virginia Boyer was playing Everett Gier. Everett was the dealer of the first hand. Virginia pegged one and Gier pegged two, Everett had a 19 hand and Virginia had a 19 hand. Everett then turned up a 24 crib. (98877) This was the first time this was seen in Club 332!

The new season has started out with some interesting games and hands at the Redding Peggers in Redding, CA (Grass Roots Club 205). Larry William, a bronze award winner, got his first Grand Slam scorecard after 23 years of ACC action. Norm Leavell, on the same night, had the first 28 hand for the season. Larry Williams and Richard Hinrichs, on the 19th of October, both had 19 hands and Richard had a 19 crib at the same time. Did the date have something to do with it? I've never heard of both hands and crib having "0" points. What are the odds on that ever happening?

Hal Mueller who has done a great deal of work to create computer programs (HALSCRIB) that will calculate this type of result provides the following: Hal says that the odds are 1 of 11,500. DeLynn Colvert says that they are one in 10,000. RAS says in his group the frequency of those 47 28-point hands is one in 9,104 deals. So guess you could say that 0-0-0 is about 20% rarer than a 28 hand. Many thanks Hal, DeLynn and RAS for the time and effort you've put into this calculation!.....Tom

A certain player in the greater Tacoma Washington state area loves to be the spoiler when it comes to the opponent having a grand slam on their card for the evening. In the past three weeks of playing in two different clubs this person has upset the apple cart and spoiled their cards for the evening... He is currently acting as a second director of one club and the director of a newly formed club in Puyallup WA... Its just fun to spoil the flow for their grand slam's of the evening. The cards just seem to come at the right time to do this feat. Submitted by Don Zeuschel

The Jackson Peggers, Club 332 in Jackson, MI held their GRRT on Saturday October 28, 2006. There were 14 players. Jerald Adams took top honors with a 28/13/+192 scorecard. He also held a 28 hand. Another oddity was Duane and Virginia Boyer holding identical hands in their game, both held 6, 6, 5,4 and a 4 was the starter card giving a 24 hand to each!

On October 31st at Club 111's Regional Tournament, Bonnie van Bergen and Al Logan were playing. It was a rather short game because Bonnie skunked Al by 47 points. They met again for their bi-monthly meeting on November 9. On the first game Bonnie and Al were paired up. Al sat down, smiled at Bonnie and said, "pay back time". And pay back it was. Al skunked Bonnie for exactly 47 points!

News from Club 318 in Holmes, PA: by Steve Fitchett November 13th might as well have been Halloween. We had another example about how cards can change. I started the night off with a skunk and then two more wins. In the next six games I only had one more win. Mike Coyle started off losing his first four games. The first three losses were skunks. Mike then proceeded to win his next five games. Mike ended up the night in second place. The other interesting thing during the 13th was that half of the people won five games and the half won four games.

After 10 weeks Don Haller continues to lead GR Club #333 with 68 points but Don Hannula is slowly reeling him in close behind with 54 points. Mary Dutemple has hit a stretch of cold cards and is at 40 points. On 10-26-06 Bill Miller posted a nice 17 point card winning 8 of 9. He missed a grand slam by a mere 2 points in the only game he lost. At the same tournament Mary Myers held three fives and a 10 count card. She cut the case five for a fine 28 hand and half the skunk jug. Congrats Mary. Watch out when playing John Aird. He is proving to be the nastiest player as he has dished out 12 skunks to his opponents in 10 tournaments so far. He's building that skunk jug up for someone I guess. Play has been going well with upwards of 20 players. Once hunting season is over the club should grow as the mighty hunters will be looking for something to do. Visitor and guests are always welcome, 7:00PM Thursdays in Lake Linden, Michigan.

Club-161, the Stone Street Peggers, is celebrating their 16th birthday this year. Up to this date in the 2006-2007 season, the following events have helped to mark this Anniversary:

John Heald scored a 29 hand and had a Grand Slam. Pat Martin has scored two 28 hands and barely missed a third 28 when a nine was cut. Last years' Club Champion and Rookie of the Year, Paul Watson, has yet to score this season. But he's still "The Best"!!!! 1995 National Champion & Grand Master Lou Caccia scored a Grand Slam and is the club's leading point getter. Lou is the patriarch of our club and recently was feted at a local hotel on his 80th birthday. A poem was written to sum up his cribbage life.

"Ode to Big Lou"

I met Big Lou a while ago,
At Club one-sixty-one.
He takes his cribbage seriously,
but he's also lots of fun!!

He keeps coming back each week, though he threatens that he's not.
The awful hands he always gets have him tied up into knots.

The cribs he gets are always bad,
He never gets a cut.
And if you don't believe it, ask him,
his game is in a rut.

But when you check the standings,
he's always way ahead.
It's kind of hard to figure,
what more needs to be said.

So now you're turning eighty,
it's time for you to mellow.
You ought to give up playing cribbage, and take up playing the Cello

And one more thing, I warn you,
I'm going to call a cop.
the next time that you call me,
THE DIRTY END OF A MOPI!!

Richard Orff (FL-1202)
for Pat Llewellyn

Diane Waite to the Rescue

Diane Waite is our ACC Web Page Master, and this sharp-eyed St. Paul whiz came to this issue's rescue. She noticed some 10 sanctioned events were omitted in the November issue. DeLynn Colvert, editor, was completely baffled as they were printed in the October issue, and his "Tournament Trail" file is carefully guarded. Without Diane's sharp eye, Colvert would have ended his 202-issue career on a nasty note.
