109 Sponsors!

George Mackie Wins Washington Title

Director Ras Rasmussen retained his title as the ACC's top promoter as he beat the bushes lining up some 109 sponsors for his Washington Championship, played in Centralia, WA in mid-January. Rasmussen reported some $13,000 in cash, merchandise and services were added to his prize fund. This largess continues to draw a crowd, and this time around some 188 players were on hand for some spirited pegging.

Grand Master George Mackie, pegging out of Seattle, had the hot hand and came home the winner, besting Life Master John Furler in the final playoff match. The win came with 196 MRP's, a 4-figure winner's check and a nifty trophy board. Furler took home 147 MRP's for 2nd and a trophy board as well. Three-Star Duane Toll (OR) continues his hot streak and added yet another 140 MRP's (aggregate) to his huge national lead this cribbage year. Ron Gustafson (WA) also finished in the 3-4 bracket and took home 105 MRP's as well. Craig Jensen (OR) took Q honors with a nifty 38 17/22 +269 (60 MRP's).

The Consolation drew a sizeable 140 peggers and it was Master Dan Marsh (OR) taking home the marbles. He nipped Alaskan Darlene Stier in the final match. Stier is also a Master pegger. The 3-4 bracket saw Grand Master Todd Anderson (OR) and last year's national runner-up Grand Master

Jim Crawford (CA) take that action. The top qualifier was Master Bruce Gentry (WA) (18 8/9 +161).

This event had a full slate of satellites. The winners:

Early Bird: Ken Slama

Doubles: Dick Ness & Sue Pisha

High Rollers: Don Wanta

Ole Olson Special: Rollic Heath

Last Chance: Dennis Misenar

Team: Toll, Colvert, Locke, Bartosh, Langley

Super Q: Duane Toll

28's: James Morrow, John Thiems, George Wilson

Rasmussen reported all events paid at least 118% paybacks, and all 28-hands were rewarded with $50. Some 18 23-hands were paid $23 each as well. Even the lowest score of the day in the Main Event received a surprise $50 bill. The host Moose Lodge provided tasty meals three-days running and the Boy Scouts received $300 for assisting in the parking and security. A raffle sported some $2,000 in prizes as well. Rasmussen reported five new members to the ACC were signed on board...and he looks forward to yet another banner event next year. Stay tuned.

Two-Star Final Palmer Vs. Schmidt

The action was hot and heavy in Virginia's longest running consecutive year event as the usual suspects assembled to get the New Year off to a fast start with only four days to recover from New Year's Day football! Friday night's Opening Skirmish saw Grand Master Larry Phifer of Raleigh, NC, top the field of forty players with a 21/19-10/183 card. In Saturday's Main qualifying event, John Noblet (VA) led the qualifiers with a 34/17-22/131, but could not hold off Two-Star Life Masters Harry Palmer and Two-Star Phyllis Schmidt who met in the finals to make it an all Massachusetts final. These two have a total of 46 lifetime tournament titles between them, and it was Harry who added a 23rd title to his resume with a hard fought 4-3 win over Phyllis. Joyce Bryant (MD) and Bill Cooper (GA) rounded out the top four in the field of seventy participants.

Grand Master Russ Perkins (NC) recorded a 19/9-10/149, losing a single game by 1 hole, to qualify first in the forty-six player Consolation qualifying event. But, at the end of the day, it was all Richmond in the finals as Ron Reece (VA) and newly crowned Master Hugh Berry (VA) met to decide the Consolation tournament champion. In a closely contested match, Berry prevailed to take the title. Bruce Sattler (MD) and Bob Moore (VA) finished in the third place position.

In the Friday night Opening Skirmish Andy Laventure (VA) recorded a twenty-eight hand. This was a preview of what was to come in the Main event as Larry Phifer (NC), Andy Hulcher (VA) and Matt Easterbrook (VA) all followed with twenty-eights in that event. Bob Moore (VA) took Saturday's Old Dominion Special and first time tournament participant Cate Campbell (NJ) finished in the money! It's always good to see new faces on the tournament trail. Bruce Satter (MD) won the High Roller event – again – with an 18/8-10/157 card. By qualifying fifth in the Main, Howard Terry (VA) attained his Master rating. Terry and Palmer teamed with Keith Widener (NC) to take first place in the Three Person Team competition with a combined game point total of 92.

Needless to say a good time was had by all and the Richmond Cribbage Club will again host this event on January 12 – 14, 2007.

862,449,968!

My name is Kevin Kurowski, and a Paralegic due to a car accident. I have been in rehabilitation centers for a year now. It does get kinda boring and I do things to keep my mind busy. One of the things I used to do is split the deck into four piles of 13 and see how fast I could count them cribbage style. They would range from 20 something to the hundreds. I then got wondering what the entire deck would be if you counted it cribbage style. I had no idea how big the number would be until I got into it for a while. I was thinking thousands, not millions. The easiest one was the flush's. There are 13 cards of each suit and four suits so that makes 52. Then the pairs, since four of a kind is 12 points (six different ways to get a pair for 2 points) and there are 13 sets that makes 156 points. The straights are where the big number comes in. If you start out with an ace through king you have 13 points (one for each card). Then if you introduce another king it doubles, then another and it triples, and the last and it quadruples, so 13 times all four kings is 52. Then multiply 52 by four queens and you come up with 208. If you do this with all the remaining cards you just keep multiplying your total by four and bringing your number up to the 13th power which is 872,415,232. This leaves all the combinations of 15's. There is no easy calculation to find all the fifteens in the deck. I actually spread them all out on the table and did them by hand, being careful not to miss any. I ended up missing some and Roger Nelson, (you can visit his website at www.bikwitr.net) and I worked together and figured out a system of calculating all of the 15's.

Add all of these up and you get a grand total of 34,528 points in fifteens. Add this to the 156 in pairs, 52 in flush's, and 872,415,232 in Straight's and you get yourself a grand total of 872,449,968 if you were dealt the entire deck and counted it cribbage style.

Hey, Kevin, I just needed a single point to win a high roller event recently. Could I get it? No way! Ed.

Al Miller Wins Northern New England

Al Miller (NH) earned his One-Star rating last year...and he continues to pile up the MRP's by winning the recent Northern New England Championship, played at Portsmouth, NH on December 2-4.

With 82 peggers in the field, Miller took home yet another 147 MRP's to add to his lofty lifetime total. Jerry Hardy (ME) was Rookie of the Year for the 2004 season, and he, too, is still knocking out the MRP's as he finished 2nd (and earned 105 MRP's). Vickie Soule (ME) and Theresa Clark (MA) took home a 3-4 finish (and 70 MRP's each). Master John Brennan (MA) had the hot hand in the Q round, scoring 35 GP's and taking home 45 MRP's for this fine effort.

Mandell Chernoff (VT) captured the 42-player Consolation title, nipping Joan Fletcher (CT) in the final playoff match. Master Bob Fitzgerald (CT) and Stan Plachowicz (MA) finished 3-4. One-Star Bill Medeiros (MA) scored a superlative 22 GP card in the qualifying round to easily take honors.

Director David Campbell reported the satellite winners:
Friday Early Bird: David Statz
Saturday: Dottie VanDenBerghe
High Rollers: Bill Shoemaker
All-Events: Bill Shoemaker
28's: George Bryer, Brian McCoy

College Students Taught a Thing or Two

Rachelle Younger, granddaughter of ACC member Betty Nolz (OR) taught 20 of her college friends how to play cribbage at Ohio Northern University...and they will have a game or two at Denny's (Normal, Illinois) on school breaks. Meanwhile, out west, Betty is showing the northwest players a thing or two as well.

Ryan Adams Scores With 29

Anyone Know Ryan Adams? He recently scored with a "29!"

No, that is not a 29-hand in cribbage. It is an alt-country crooner recording named "29." Peg on...and put your ear muffs on! (Or turn the volume down.)

Kathy Heslop Wins Inaugural Monticello Classic

Kathy Heslop (NC) took home the win at the inaugural Monticello Classic, played at Charlottesville, VA on October 2. And the win came the hard way, as her final opponent was none other than National Open champ Rick Bryant, a Master pegger from Maryland. Robert Gilligan (NJ) and Sharon Liotta (VA) finished 3-4 in this 48-player event.

Grand Master Larry Phifer (NC) took Q honors with a nice 34 15/22 +172 card.

John Noblet (VA) won the 32-player Consolation, with Rick Allen (VA) taking home 2nd. Ron Reece (VA) and Chuck Dolge (NC) finished 3-4. Grand Master Bruce Sattler (MD) took Q honors with a superlative grand slam 21 9/9 +120 card.

Director Scott Noble reported Jeff Raynes won the Friday Early Bird, Keith Widener took the High Rollers, and the Doubles event was capped by Chuck Dolge and Zach Widener. Jeff Raynes scored the event's only 28-hand in the Consolation.

Jim Crawford Runs Table At Winter Solstice

Grand Master Jim Crawford (CA) took home a nifty 110 MRP's (aggregate) by qualifying tops (21 9/12 +193) and zipping to the win in the playoffs at the recent Winter Solstice Open (Ventura, CA). Crawford's claim to fame is winning the Grand National and JPW/ACC Open in the same cribbage year (2004-2005). Julien Pomerleau (CA) nailed down 2nd, followed by Dennis Bays (CA) and Mel Kranz (CA) in the 3-4 bracket.

Kerry O'Connel (CA) came from first street to nip Milt Goodman (CA) who was standing on top of third street in the 22-player Consolation event...and she went on to win the match. Dick Smeltz (CO) and Master Pam Pomeroy (CA) took home a 3-4 finish. Smeltz was the event's top Q player as well (15 7/8 +73).

In an oddity, director Cy Madrone reported two players had identical scores (17 8/12 +65 with +112 and -47) and they cut cards to determine seeding for the playoffs. Ira Deutsch (CA) scored the meet's only 28-hand. No 29's showed.

Tip

of the Month Giving Your Hand Away by Daniel Kotok

Daniel Kotok (FL) is a new player insofar as tournament play is concerned. He wrote Cribbage World to express his dismay over losing a game because he stalled too long on the play and feels he gave his hand away.

Kotok needed 7 to win with the deal, and his opponent needed 6 to win with first count. Kotok holds 2-4-4-9, and his opponent held 9-9-10-10, and led a 9.

Kotok stalled over the play and finally played a 4. His opponent played a 10, and later trapped Kotok's 9 for the winning three pegs. Kotok feels he gave his hand away with the delay in mulling over that first card played.

Moral of the story: Be prepared to play without stalling if at all possible. Get in the habit of stalling slightly even with a "no-brainer." At least try to disguise your play with consistent speed in pegging.

Way Up North Myron Farrell Takes Nugget

The X-mas Moose Nugget Classic, played in Anchorage, Alaska on December 12 saw Myron Farrell take home the nugget, besting the field of 30 peggers in the process. Chuck Fetters (AK) took home 2nd, followed by Cleo Burgett (AK) and Qunsar Johnson (AK) in the 3-4 bracket.

Don Hendricks (AK) took Q honors with a 28 GP card (18 games)

Afraid of Dementia? Alzheimers? Play Cribbage

A 20-year survey of 469 elderly living in the Bronx, N. Y. showed that if you regularly play card and board games, do cross-word puzzles, and keep socially active will give you a decreased risk of developing dementia or Alzheimers disease.

Not only is muscular exercise good for you, exercising your brain is also very beneficial. So peg on, ACC members! Here's to your good mental health!

4th Main Event Win This Year Duane Toll Wins Peg For Border

Three-Star Duane Toll (OR), off to a record-breaking start this cribbage year, picked up his 4th Main Event win this cribbage year at the Peg for the Border meet, played at LaMesa, CA in early January.

With 66 players in the field Toll garnered yet another 147 MRP's (plus qualifying points) to run his tally to the 1,500+ mark. His last victim was Obie Weeks (CA), director of the Fallbrook Avocado Open events. Terry Hurtgen (AZ) and Mike Hayden (CA) finished 3-4. Hurtgen was also the meet's high qualifier, scoring a nice 38 17/22 +292 card (60 MRP's).

It was Mel Ashley (CA) all the way in the 40-player Consolation as this Life Master took home the marbles. He bested Rodney Rideau (CA) in the final playoff match. GrandMaster Les Sumner (NV) and Abigail Cohen (CA) finished 3-4. Master John Holseth (NV) took Q honors with a 14 7/9 +66 card.

Director Shelley Berman reported the satellites: Doubles: Aljean Simpson & Carol Maston
Saturday: DeLynn Colvert
28: Bob Bartosh, DeLynn Colvert (SatS)
Team: R. Rideau, P. Pomeroy, T. Davis, D. Brown

Director Berman rolled out the red carpet for the players, furnishing a full menu of snacks and drinks the entire weekend. This event set a new high in attendance, played in delightful LaMesa...a suburb of San Diego.

Van Dyke surges, Pope is remembered

Mark Van Dyke has spent more time than anyone atop the ratings list, and the 2004-5 Internet Champion has added yet another month to his belt, compiling 186 IRPs during November, including two victories, a Second Place and a Third Place finish to claim the top spot by a substantial margin. This resident of Grand Haven, MI, who pegs online as loosespokes1135, certainly displayed his championship form. Tied for Second Place are Van Dyke's neighbor and perpetual chaser John Schafer (netview85) of Battle Creek, MI, and John Dellarsina (ginprofessor3) of El Cajon, CA, who has come on quickly after winning his first ACC Internet event as recently as September 5.

Player of the month, though, is Saskatchewan's finest, Donald Olney (olney_1147), who hails from Carievale, on the banks of the Antler River, just 20 km from the border with North Dakota, if you're keeping track. Olney won two large tournaments, worth 63 IRPs each, finished Third in another and added three more high finishes to amass 210 IRPs on the month to enter the Top Ten in style.

As reported in December, Annie Pope died suddenly on November 15 as a result of a cerebral aneurysm. Annie was a regular tournament director for ACC Internet Cribbage on Thursday nights, a task she performed with her online nickname +Clas_syLady, a moniker she certainly lived up to. In her honor, the ACC will hold an annual online memorial tournament. The first Annie Pope memorial was held on Thursday, November 17th, and attracted 212 players. The single-elimination 4-stake match event was won by a non-member. The highest-placing member was our own Internet Cribbage Commissioner Robert Milk, who took Third Place.

The November 19 Pegging Pals single elimination event was won by Charles Barnes (Chuck_FL1445), the 2003-4 Grass Roots Division 1 Champion (your friendly ACC Internet Cribbage Editor remembers this well, as he finished Second that year!), which goes to show the caliber of player we attract online! It also proves that Charles can win outside Florida. Congrats to Charles for his first ACC Internet victory. Our other November first-timer was James H. Morrow (_29seeker), who directs the Silver Dollar Grass Roots Club in Sunnyside, WA.

Complete tournament results and standings, as well as instructions for how to play in ACC Internet Cribbage tournament, are available at www.cribbage.org/internet.

Rule of the month review – The Crib: Prior to the turn of the starter card, if only one player discards to the wrong side of the board, that player is permitted to retrieve the card(s) and reevaluate the selection.

News from Club 227 in Laguna Woods, CA: Does lightning ever strike twice? Ask Larry Irion who scored two 28 hands in just two months! Their newest member Everett Bieger has shown he can play winning cribbage. Halfway through this season he is batting .646 and is a tough competitor! Julien Pomerleau, a frequent visitor to the club has one good habit. He waits 'till the last game to claim the 24-hand pot. In December he did this three out of four meetings. Hank Kaneshige is showing his mettle. He scored two 1st places and one 2nd place finish in four meetings and he smiles all the time!

News from Club 318 in Holmes, PA. by Steve Fitchett: Thanks to the internet, club 318 the Gold Cribbage Club is back on track. Most members from last year didn't like the 9 game format and didn't sign up to play this year. We were having a hard time getting back to six. I taught a young man, Carl how to play during the summer. He picked up the game very quickly and is a very good player. Carl has been having problems with his grades and now he can't play. Lee Evans signed up to play and played for two weeks in a row when we only had 5 players. The following week his work schedule was changed and now can't play. Then two soon to be members, Dave Hill and Bill Skinner, found our club on the ACC website. They went into the local clubs section and saw our club. They contacted me. I got right back to them and now they are club members. January 2, 2006 was our second Grass Roots league night.

On January 9th Steve Fitchett scored a 28 hand in the Weekly Gold Cribbage Club event. The Holmes, PA club is pretty new. It is the second year for the club. Last year they had one 28 hand. Last year's was worth $2, this year's 28 was worth $3. So the Gold Cribbage Club seems the place to receive a 28 hand but not much money.

Club 214/Topsham, Maine news from Vicki Soule: Our club had an interesting night on January 11th. This was the first night of our second half of the season. I gave out awards and such, including a 29 award that Mark Soule (rookie of the year) got back in November. His wonderful wife (Me!) dealt it to him. There is more to this.... Louis Manter who is an old proACC member scored his first 29 hand. He had three 5s and the Jack of clubs and cut the 5 of clubs. The very next game, he had a 28 hand....with the five of clubs. The 29 was against Ethan Guyaz and the 28 was against Bob Lewis. So Bob is playing our newest member Will Willette and Will gets a 28 hand against Bob. After all this, poor Louis finished 4th. Our club only pays 3 places! Jerry Hardy 2004 rookie of the year had a 20 pt card. He won 8 out of 9 games. I was his first opponent and I beat him. Jerry had 4 skunks and that was one of our special prizes. He got 1st, the special prize that was $55 and the side pool. In conclusion, I'm sure there is something newsworthy in here and I must say I did not experience any of those hot cards!!

GOLD-GOLD-GOLD

That's what it was at club #148 in Federal Way, Wa. The heater at Twin Lakes C.C. went out and 15 of our members said that they would play. As it turned out, all 26 of them stayed. The temperature was 47F. Talk about die-hard cribbage players. Gold-Gold-Gold that's what my cards were. Won four games. Stu Kelly

Club 191 News - Canby, Oregon. Betty Nolz missed two weeks around Christmas but came back in January to increase her lead over the other club members. Sydney Murphy came as close as anyone could to a Grand Slam on January 10 when he only lost one game by one hole. We have had five "28 hands" in the first 3 months of this season. Don Rardin had the first one in week 4. Then Frank Schoenborn, Jake Taasevigen, and Robert Bigej scored "28's" in weeks 12, 15, and 16. Bill Devine scored his "28" in a special non-sanctioned tournament between Christmas and New Years. Three "28's" in December! On January 10th, Florence Krebs was presented a Plaque to commemorate her late husband Ronald Krebs and was made an honorary member of Club 191. After the presentation she played in our weekly tournament and scored an impressive 13 with 6 wins.

Haines City, FL Grass Roots Club #276 has a roster of about 68 members with an average of 44-48 players showing up to compete each week during the winter months. On January 3rd Hazel Carlson finally was able to pull off her Grand Slam after missing by one game the two previous weeks. On January 10th Ray Wanke, who has been a member since the clubs inception finally shouted out that he had a 29 hand. He was excited because it was his first perfect hand in over 54 years of play. Ray also walked off with the 24 envelope at the end of the day and nearly had a grand slam ruined by the above competitor, none other than Hazel Carlson! Ray's perfect hand is only the 2nd one recorded during the club's 6-year history. The first one was awarded to Gail

Keith three years ago. Ray Wanke is the director of the 3rd annual Haines City Tournament being held 3/31 & 4 1&2 in Kissimmee, FL. Submitted by Nancy G. Wanke (TX205L)

A cautionary tale from Club 115 in Elkins Park, PA. Last season Arlene Johnston was dealt 5h 5c 5s Jc Jd x, discarded J-x and cut the case 5. 29, right? Wrong! In her excitement Arlene held the club Jack by mistake! She should have held the diamond Jack, because the diamond 5 was the only one missing. Her 28 hand was good for half of the skunk pot, but her momentary lapse cost her the other half. Don't let this happen to you!

SLOW PLAY & FAST PLAY

By Tom Lewis

There has been much discussion on slow play. Let's look at this controversy and its' possible solutions from a realistic standpoint. There are essentially three kinds of players. Slow players, fast players and average players. In an idealistic situation, everyone finishes about the same time and moves one seat to the right. As we all know, the majority finishes at about the same time. The fast players finish early and are waiting to move. They usually have to wait a short time to start their next game. If two fast players have just played, each is waiting to move one seat to the right. The slower players on the other hand will play their match and move when they are done. The problems of slow play arise not from a single game but from a series of slow games that tend to slow down the entire table. At that point, many players are standing and waiting for the game(s) in front of them to finish. There are many reasons for slow play that have been discussed adnauseam so I won't go into them here. There is however, one very simple method of discovering that a player is playing too slow. If the games on both sides of you consistently finish before yours, then the slow player(s) should make an effort to determine what is causing their games to be slow and to correct the problem.

Cribbage

by Orval Trast

Waverly, Iowa

Many people have learned to play
This great game of cribbage every day.
Some learned when five years old,
And play this game, hot or cold.
I like a good two-handed game,
When you keep score, also your name.
Shuffle and then each cuts to see,
Who deals cards first, you or me.
Low card deals and then you mix,
Deal to both players, each gets six.
The crib gets two from players each,
That's for the dealer to later reach.
Then count score 15-two or more,
Each person trying for a higher score.
Always alternate each cut, crib, and deal,

Then it is fun, and has appeal.
The American Cribbage Congress has
the rules,

We follow and that is the tools,
To peg your points on every street.
Get 121 points and then you beat.
That wins the game we all play,
It makes us all happy every day.

Joan Hampton Cops Portland Winter

Joan Hampton (OR) came home the winner at the Portland Winter Open, played across the Columbia River in Vancouver, WA (at the Elks Lodge). In besting the field of 131 players, Hampton carted home 196MRP's, the winner's purse, and a nifty Bill O'Malley trophy board. Jim Hornbacher (WA) finished 2nd, and it was a memorable finish, as he unofficially earned the ACC's 34th One-Star rating (at 11:10 AM on Sunday after winning his 4th round match). Life Master John Furler (OR) is on a hot streak lately and he came home in a 3-4 finish with Grand Master Bruce Wridge (OR). Wridge is zeroing in on his Life Master with this high finish. Ron Boule (OR) took home the Q honors with a 34 16/22 +109 card.

Monica Newton (OR) zipped to the Consolation win, nipping Clarence Cole (OR) in the final playoff match. Master Eugene Wilkerson (OR) and Life Master Rex Paddock (MT) finished 3-4. Dennis Misenar (WA) took the Q action with a 16 7/9 +95 card.

Directors Tim and Ken Julkowski ran a bevy of satellites. The winners:

Early Bird: Duane Toll

High Rollers: Rosemary Hendricks

Doubles: Jeanne Jelke & Ken Julkowski

Saturday: Bob Brumley

Last Chance: Dot Mickow

All-Events: Bob Brumley

Team: R. Lueshow, J. Hornbacher, R.

Rasmussen, T. Malmgren, G. Mackie

Sadie Hawkins: J. Hornbacher & M. Stack

Super Q: Toll, Heath, Locke, Evans (tie)

28: Nancy Lorenz

The streaking Three-Star Duane Toll finished 5-8 and added yet another 100 MRP's to his nation-leading 1,700+.

98-Point Hand!

Robby Robinson and I were playing the other evening. We were both at the end of first street. He dealt:

Steve: 3344JK

Rob: 3344QQ.

Steve tossed the JK and Rob tossed the QQ.

Cut card was, of course, a 5.

Play: Steve: 3 Rob: 3 (for 2); Steve: 3 (for 6) Rob: 3 (for 12); Steve: 4 Rob: 4 (for 2); Steve: 4 (for 6); Rob: 4 (for 12 and last card for 1 more) Steve pegged for 12 and with the 20 hand scored 32. Rob pegged for 29, hand was 20, crib was 17 (even had the right J) for a total of 66. From 1st street to 4th street in one hand.

Can anyone top this?

Steve Yates, Anchorage, AK

No, Steve, I can't top that, but Rollie Heath (OR) may still be in shock from pegging a hand with me in Centralia, WA. I held 5-5-5-Q, he held 2-5-8-9. He led the 8, I played my Q, he played his 9 (a go) and then his 2. He now had a lonesome 5 in his hand, and I had three 5's. 5-10-15-20, and I scored a nifty 21 pegs to his 3 total. Loved it! Ed.
