235 Play at Chinook Winds Rick Baird Tops Oregon Coast

The huge Chinook Winds Casino is a perfect place to play cribbage, especially with the wind and rain outside, and a warm and spacious playing area inside. Master Rick Baird, Roseburg, Oregon, found the playing area just fine, thank you, as he roared to the championship, besting a huge crowd of 235 peggers in the process. Two-Star Paul Hatcher (OR), in quest of his 11th sanctioned win, fell a match short and took 2nd, followed by Paul Roy (OR) and Jay McCloskey (ID) in the 3-4 bracket. Baird, in winning, garnered 196 MRP's, the winner's purse, and a nifty Bill O'Malley trophy board...and his first ACC sanctioned win to boot. Grand Master Darren Black (OR) blistered the boards in the Q round with a nice 37 17/22 +191 card to take honors. With the 55 MRP's earned in the Q round Black earned his Life Master.

Lillian McKinney (OR) zipped to the Consolation win, besting a large field of 148 peggers in the process. Her last victim was newly-crowned Grand Master Jeanne Jelke (WA). With the win McKinney earned 84 MRP's and another O'Malley trophy board. This, too, was her first ACC sanctioned win. Master Eugene Wilkerson (OR) and Mike McCammon (NV) finished 3-4...and 40 MRP's each. Master Nancy Lorenz (OR) scored a superlative 19 8/9 +144 card to easily take Q honors.

Directors Jeanne & Roy Hofbauer, and Bernie Nelson sported a full array of satellite events. The winners:

Early Bird: Rosemary Hendricks
Doubles: Margery Clark & Todd Malmgren
High Roller: Dennis Misener
Saturday: Ron Logan (Grand Slam)
Last Chance: Barrett Mace
28's: Steve Stuart, Mike Watson, George Mackie (EB)
Super Q: Rick Baird
Team: (tie) Nelson, Malmgren, R. Hofbauer, J. Hofbauer, Colvert
Oriet, Marsh, Jensen, Morse, Colvert

In oddities, George Mackie burned up the track in the Early Bird, even scoring a 28-hand in the process, but when the Main Event scores were posted, Mackie came home with a dismal 4/18 8 GP card. Such is cribbage! Don Smith, Oregon City, OR earned his Grand Master by earning 25 MRP's in the qualifying round.

The host Chinook Winds Casino, home of last September's Grand National, once again furnished a grand playing area, complete with a panoramic view of the Pacific Ocean. The casino also furnished coffee and soda three days running, plus pastries as well. 235 peggers attest to well-run events at this facility.

Del Anderst Nails St. Paul Event

Del Anderst (Lake City, MN) was hot at the recent Capital City Open (St. Paul, MN). A sizeable field of 142 peggers could not cool him down and he zipped to the win, earning 196 MRP's and the champion's laurels as well. His last match was vs. Tim Kunst (MN) and he prevailed for the win. Kunst took home 147 MRP's for his fine run. Ed Balcer (MN) and Grand Master Jim Huser (WI) finished 3-4 (105 MRP's each). The nation's front runner, Duane Toll (OR), again showed his expertise by qualifying tops with a near-record breaking 44 19/22 +348 card (see story, this issue).

Mark Breneman (MN) took home the Consolation action, nipping Rick Vee (SD) in the final playoff match. Two veteran pros finished 3-4...Life Master Bob Sommer (MN) and Two-Star Bob Julian (WI). Julian's high finish gave him yet another shot at earning All-American honors (top ten nationally). Life Master Ron Hamilton (KS) scored a nifty 19 8/9 +180 card in the Q round to easily take honors.

Director Todd Schaefer fielded a full slate of satellites. The winners:

Friday: Tony Danihel 18 7/9 +148

Saturday: Rick Vee 17 8/9 +128

All Events: Duane Toll 65 GP's

29: Marlene Lazachek

28's: Kurt Nordlund, Ray Hansen, Virgil Milbourn

Life Master Marlene Lazachek let out a whoop when a 29-hand popped up for her...the ACC's 9th this cribbage year, earning a nice $100 from the ACC for this sanctioned gem.

Harold Buckley Tops In Canada

Grand Master Harold Buckley (AB) came away with the win at the Edmonton Easter Open on April 15. Doris Sanders (AB) finished 2nd, followed by Irene Lamoureux (AB) and David Carter (AB) in the 3-4 bracket. Lamoureux had a fine event, as she also took Q honors with a 21 9/12 +177 card.

Lorne Tanton (AB) won the Consolation, but the event was not sanctioned, being a player short (16 in the field). Dwayne Pankiw (AB) took 2nd. Terry Mandzick was the top Q player with a 11 5/7 +107 card.

Director Buckley reported nary a 28 or 29-hand showed, but he added 70 MRP's to his lifetime totals...the highest MRP total in Canada.

Tony Montooth Nails Tax Relief Open

Tony Montooth (CA) made a major push towards his Grand Master rating by winning the Tax Relief Open, played in Alamo, CA of April 15. Montooth stands at 3,800+, needing a scant 200 to earn this honor. With 102 in the field, he garnered 147 MRP's...and added more taxes, getting no tax relief for his efforts. Life Master Heidi Glashan (CA) took 2nd, followed by Barbara Stockman (CA) and Life Master Mel Ashley (CA) in the 3-4 bracket. Jay Sorenson (CA) won 12 of 16 games to take Q honors (26 12/16 +174).

Jesse Jarrell (CA) is nearing his Three-Star rating by winning the 56-player Consolation. Life Master Herschel Mack (CA) came close, and finished 2nd, followed by ex-Canadian Mary Gladish (see her poem, this issue) and Bill Johnson (CA) in the 3-4 bracket. Gladish also took Q honors with a 16 7/8 +152 card.

Director Mary Hermann reported that only Bob Bartosh (CA) could score a 28-hand...and no 29's showed.

Almost a Record! 44 19/22 +348

Three-Star Duane Toll (OR) is on a roll this cribbage year, and has made a shambles of the annual MRP race, standing at well over 2,000 MRP's with two months play remaining.

To emphasize how he is dominating play is illustrated by his near record score at the Capital City Open played at St. Paul, MN on April 28-30. In the Main Event qualifying round he won the first 12 games, with four skunks, taking a whopping 28 GP's to the lunch break. After lunch, he lost his first two, then ran off seven more wins (with two skunks), and with one game to play stood at 44 GP's. If he could win the last game by a skunk he would own the 22-game qualifying round record! But his opponent was Earl "The Fox" Fox, and Fox nailed down the last game with an 18-point win. The record is currently owned by Sharlene Medeiros (MA). She scored a 46 20/22 +501 at Green Bay, WI on February 28, 2004.

Mel Ashley Wins Chico Open

Stamp dealer Mel Ashley is a Life Master from Marina, CA...and he put his stamp on the Chico Open, played in Chico, CA on March 24-26. With 104 in the field, Ashley carted home yet another 147 MRP's to add to his 7,200+ lifetime tally. Nancy Rojas (CA) took Ashley to the wire, but settled for 2nd. John Prehn (CA) and Jim Waldvogel (CA) finished in the 3-4 bracket and earned 70 MRP's each. Grand Master Les Sumner (NV) took Q honors with a nice 36 17/22 +192 card (50 MRP's).

Marvin Brogden (CA) ran the table in the 58-player Consolation as he took Q honors (17 8/9 +74) and went on to win the playoffs as well. Life Master Boyd McDonald (CA) was the last to try to cool off Brogden, but he, too, fell to this hot streak. McDonald settled for 2nd, followed by Life Master Heidi Glashan (CA) and Betty Stewart (OR) in the 3-4 bracket.

Director Bruce Forbes reported the satellites:
Friday Doubles: Les Sumner & Mike McCammon
Saturday: Conrad Silvia
Team: Rudnick, Sumner, Crawford, Harbeson
28's: Pete Stemler, Tom DeYoung

Bruce Sattler Smokes Western New York Open

Life Master Bruce Sattler (MD) was rolling big-time at the recent Western New York Open. In the playoffs, he won 9 games in a row enroute to the win in this 53-player event. His last victim of this hot run was Cal Braun (NY). Richard Bett (NY) and Sue Cousens (ME) finished 3-4, each earning 42 MRP's. Winner Sattler took home 105 MRP's, with Braun earning 70 MRP's for 2nd.

Phil Lococo (ON) won the 40-player Consolation, nipping local Master Stan Bochinski in the final playoff match. Jeanne Jelke (WA) was a long way from her Pasco, WA home, but this Grand Master help pay for her trip with a 3-4 finish. Andy LaVenture (VA) also took home a 3-4 finish. Bochinski had a fine event as he also took Q honors with a 15 7/9 +76 card.

Director Nelson Wheaton reported George and Donna Lozy won the Doubles event, and the Early Bird went to Laurie Rancourt. Berta McGuire scored a 28-hand in Consolation play, but, alas, is not an ACC member, and will not receive a frameable 28-award.

Wheaton reported players came from far and wide to play in New York, as some 13 states and Canada were represented.

John Hiland Accepts Challenge, Takes Milwaukee Event

Life Master John Hiland accepted the Milwaukee Challenge, and pegging on his home turf, took home all the marbles at the recent Milwaukee Challenge. In besting 149 players, Hiland adds yet another 196 MRP's to his lifetime ledger, standing at the 7,000 mark. Matt Peterson (WI) was the last pegger to try to stop Hiland's march to the title, but he fell as well. In finishing 2nd, Peterson took home 147 MRP's. Peterson was aided in his run to the top brackets by scoring a 28-hand in the playoffs. George Stankus (WI) and Grand Master John Syftestad (WI) took home a 3-4 finish (and 105 MRP's each). Master Karen Bouffiou was also pegging on her home turf, and peg she did! She nailed down one of the ACC's best qualifying scores this cribbage year...an astounding 43 20/22 +261 card. This great card netted Bouffiou 85 MRP's!

Hall of Famer Bob Madsen (IL) ran the table in the 87-player Consolation, taking Q honors as well as winning the playoffs. This great run netted this Life Master 102 MRP's to add to his lifetime ledger. Bob Kiley (WI) finished 2nd, and was unable to sidetrack Madsen's run for the title. Master Ed Heinowski (WI) and Jeanne Wauters (WI) finished 3-4.

Director Marlene Lazachek, destined to score the ACC's 9th 29-hand this cribbage year the next weekend in St. Paul, reported the satellites:

Friday: Jeff Wussow

Friday Captains: Wayne Steinmetz

Saturday: Roger Grandgeorge

Last Chance: Ed Emmer

29: John Mauser (not ACC member)

28's: Tom Cook, John Swett, Matt Peterson

Lazachek reported some oddities: Vickie Lindner scored a 41 GP card that normally takes Q honors, but Bouffiou's outstanding card topped all comers. Max Steplyk's 39 GP card usually takes the top Q prize as well, this time only good for 3rd place. Lazachek's nephew, John Mauser, was in attendance, and is NOT an ACC member. Wrong move as his 29-hand would have earned him $100 from the ACC. Table "H" saw Mauser score a 29-hand, and Tom Cook and John Swett scored 28-hands. "H" stand for hot!

Lazachek reminds all that this event will be played, once again, at the Radisson again next year.

Jack Ledbetter Tops Regency Lakes

The 5th Regency Lakes Open, played in Coconut Creek, Florida, saw Jack Ledbetter (FL) zipped to the title, besting 34 players in the process. Fred Adolpson (FL) took home 2nd, followed by Harold Johnson (FL) and Kristy Haught (FL) in the 3-4 bracket. Johnson also took Q honors (23 10/12 + 158). Haught is the ACC's Grass Roots Statistician...and she can also pick 'em up and lay 'em down as well.

Doris Perry (FL) won the 22-player Consolation, edging Joe White (FL) in the final playoff match. Charles Barnes (FL) and Ellen Tobin (FL) finished 3-4. Barnes also took Q honors (14 7 +93) to complete an outstanding event.

Director Joe Daesch reported nary a 28 or a 29-hand showed.

Al Karr Documents Slow Play

Green Bay's Al Karr is certainly not noted for his slow play as he has attained Grand Master. But he recently decided to clock his Grass Roots club (and sanctioned events as well). He timed some 1,225 games and the average game was 11 minutes and 50 seconds. The quickest game was completed in a blazing 5 minutes and 50 seconds. The slowest game (included a judging call) was 19 minutes and 15 seconds. With the timer set at 15 minutes, only 30 games rang the bell. This is only 2.5% of the total games.

A 15-minute game is more than ample, as Karr's statistics indicate!

Local Cribbage Player Hits the Big One

On Saturday April 15th, hubby and wife go out on the back patio for their usual two out of three cribbage games. Hubby is quite clever at beating wife the first game and really stomping hard the second with a 50 point lead.

The Skunk he thought would happen didn't as she gets around the 4th street interval. With him eight points from going out and her needing 26, he gets cute and says, "Maybe I can deal you a 24 hand." Ha!

Little does he know, he deals her three fives and the Jack of Hearts. Wife cuts the deck, hubby turns up a Five of Hearts. As they play the hand off, he notices the event unfolding before him—wife wins the game with a 29 hand.

So hubby's promise was to make a public announcement of this if it ever happened in his lifetime—to experience the 29.

At 10:55 on April 15, 2006 wife hits the big one.

Congrats to Debbie!

and I'm 54!*

This article courtesy of the Las Vegas Review Journal. Kenny Morris was the victim of this 29-hand gem. He and his wife, Debbie are regular members of the Las Vegas Grass Roots club. Cribbage World thanks Bruce Fein for the information.

Internet Cribbage Newsflash!

In late April, MS Zone will discontinue Cribbage on their site effective June 19, 2006. This was a surprise to everyone. The ACC has run their Internet Cribbage tournaments there since the inception over two years ago. MS Zone did not permit the ACC to run their tournaments on the Zone. Thanks to Lois Fosdal, our Assistant Statistician, we are able to piggyback onto Pegging Pals for our tournaments.

At this time, the ACC and Game Colony are in negotiations for the purposes of promoting cribbage by having having our ACC internet cribbage tournaments hosted by Game Colony. Though not fully finalized, I expect that there will be a signed agreement soon. Some of the benefits for the ACC and its members are listed below.

1. The ACC will continue to offer FREE tournaments on Game Colony. Registration in Game Colony is FREE.

2. Game Colony will develop the necessary co-branded pages for entrance into the ACC area. When you enter the ACC area, the pages are branded with the ACC logo and verbiage along with the Game Colony logo. I displayed to several board members the entrance pages that Game Colony developed for other game organizations and we agree that these are most professional. It will be great to see ACC highlighted.

3. Secure Site: You see only the cards that are needed for play at the time of play, the remaining cards are placed on the secure server until needed. I play frequently on a 28.8 dial-up, and there is almost no delay.

4. Manual Scoring Option - This option requires that you score your points during play and counting of your hand and crib. If you claim more than you have, you peg is placed in the correct hole and the non-offending player receives the amount of overpeg as a penalty. I expect that we we begin on Game Colony, we will begin with automatic scoring; this allows everyone to become familiar with the site before adding complexities.

5. Family Rated Site: All chat goes through a filter process; it is very tight. What you enter may get echoes back to you, but it will be trapped. Isn't it an added plus for many people to know they can bring their kids in to play, their spouse, their mother or even their pastor and not risk being embarrassed by racial slurs, sexual comments and/or profanity?

6. Contact Us - A means to request information from Game Colony. Some examples include; bug reports, questions, comments, rules, concerns, etc. Once submitted, you receive an acknowledgement within several minutes. Game Colony strives to respond to all submitted within 24 hours. I have frequently used this feature and I can attest to their responsiveness.

7. Moderated Forum - All postings are reviewed to ensure they meet Game Colony appropriateness. The postings are not immediate to ensure the appropriateness.

8. Disconnects/boots: In four years only once was I not able to return to the exact point of the game from which I was at the time of the disconnect. I have played over 7500 games on this site and only on one disconnect could I not return to the exact point (about 3 years ago).

9. Supports both Windows and Macintosh.

10. Great TDs - One of our ACC members is a Game Colony TD.

11. The Game Colony tournament internal logic performs the assignments for the start of the tournaments; byes are in the first round.

If you are curious, check out Game Colony at:

<http://www.gamecolony.com/cgi-bin/ref.plx?pal=Moojus>

This link can also be found on the Cribbage Links page of the ACC Web Site

At this time, we do not have a definite start date for play at the new site. I will keep you informed from this page. Feel free to send an email to me:

Rule of the month review – Refusal to Conform to the Rules: Any player who willfully refuses to conform to any ruling after having been informed of it by three judges is not permitted to continue playing in the event and must be removed by the tournament director.

Grass Roots clubs. Now that we are in the summer (non) season, it would be a great time to start a Grass Roots club in your area. There are currently 174 active Grass Roots clubs in the USA, Canada and Iraq. No matter where in the world you live you would be most welcome to start a new club, even if there is already an existing club in your city. All you need are 6 players! If you would like information on how to start a new club, please contact Joan Rein at accgrassroots@earthlink.net.

Please remember that even though many Grass Roots members do not play on the Tournament Trail, they would like to see their names in Cribbage World too! Please email me stories about your clubs & try to make them as grammatically correct as possible..Tom

The Silver Dollar Cribbage club in Sunnyside, WA always welcomes players from other clubs. Willie Evans of Richland WA felt right at home when he visited. He felt so comfortable he slammed the club with a 22/9+206 taking first place money of $35 and a 25% chunk of the 28-29 pot. The pot had been hit hard in the previous four weeks. Willie won a meager $31. However, Jack Moritzky and James Morrow both added $20 each in side bets. If Willie had been a member of the club instead of a Visitor, he would have accumulated half the points in one night that he earned in his home club all season. Congratulations on a perfect scorecard. Bob Brumley slammed the Silver Dollar Pegggers. On April 29th Bob Brumley turned in a 21 +200 score card in two successive weeks. It was almost two years since the club last had a grand slam. A week later James Morrow almost made it three weeks in a row. However, he then ran into Debbie the "Giant Killer" Miller and lost the last game. James wasn't feeling bad as he handed Jack Moritzky a double skunk of 61 points. It was the first week of the 2004-2005 season that Jack Moritzky had a grand slam. The next week Louis Sevigny had a grand slam & the following week it was Debbie Miller winning 8 of 9.

GETTING READY FOR THOSE FAIRS - The Chehalis-Centralia Cribbage Club will promote organized cribbage at the Southwest Washington Fair from August 15-20. There are many ways you can help. We need to raise $600 to cover costs of space rent, insurance, entry tickets, etc. Support our weekly 50/50 drawing. Half of the proceeds go to the lucky ticket drawn. The remainder has been entered in the ledger as "fair finances" and now totals $209. Of course, we can benefit from individual or business sponsors. Anybody out there who will match my donation of $50? Count on offering some time to play cribbage at the "Friendly Fair". We can utilize volunteer help to set up booths and to remove them from the premises. A schedule will be available at our weekly club sessions after mid-July. You can record your name and the dates and hours you can participate. Let us know soon what you can do to assist in this effort. Hope you can find a way to assist with the world's largest cribbage exhibit and promotion at the Puyallup Fair in September too.

Club 164 in Seal Beach, CA saw its first 29 hand in many, many years. It was scored by Al Farquharson on Tuesday, April 18. Al held three 5's and the jack of spades and held his breath as his opponent, Ron Evans, generously cut the 5 of Spades. Al went on to win the game - by 6 points! As fate would have it, he ended the night with the worst card, but went homewith the entire skunk pot in his pocket and a smile on his face.

On Wednesday April 26th, the Cribbage Gods smiled on several members of the Midtown Cribbage Club in Greenwood, WI. (Club 199)

Lewis Gurney, Barb Miller, and Tony Sterzinger each had a 28 hand during regular play. None of whom placed in the money.

Happy Birthday John from Dave! On Monday April 24, John Ruffilo (MI00746) a member of Muskegon, MI. Club 229 came to play Grass Roots Cribbage on his birthday. He received two 24 hands and a 28 hand, all in the same game against Dave Robarge (MI00873). He did not get a skunk! I'm sure Dave will be expecting some payback on his birthday!.....Tom

Robert Kaplan Cops Maine Spring Fling

Grand Master Robert Kaplan topped the recent Maine Spring Fling...and with 98 players in the field, took home 147 MRP's kicking off the spring season in fine style. His last playoff match was no easy pickings as he had Life Master Richard West as an opponent but he prevailed for the win. West took home yet another 105 MRP's for finishing 2nd. Grand Master David Campbell (ME) and John Campanella (MA) finished 3-4 (and 70 MRP's each). Campanella also picked up an additional 50 MRP's for taking Q honors with a great 23 11/12 +118 card.

Calvin Libby (ME) ran the table in the 46-player Consolation, taking Q honors with a 17 7/9 +186 card, and won the playoffs as well. Life Master William Shoemaker (CT) came close, but had to settle for 2nd. Terry Cushman (ME) and Barbara Bouchard (ME) finished 3-4.

Director Susan Cousens reported David Campbell nipped George Bickford to win the High Roller event, and Phil Martin teamed with Roger Bouchard to take the Doubles action. And only Sharlene Medeiros could score that elusive 28-hand. No 29's showed.

Sharon Fly Wins Spring Break

Cribbage had its Spring Fling in Portland, Maine, and a Spring Break event was played in Westminster, CA on April 1. Out west, it was Sharon Fly taking home the marbles in this 52-player event. Master Norman Nikodym (CA) nailed down 2nd, followed by Carol Williams (CA) and Mike Duffy (CA) in the 3-4 slot. Williams also took home the Q action, scoring a very nice 22 10/12 +145 card.

Sylvia Sutton (CA) zipped to the Consolation win, besting a filed of 34 players in the process. Jerry Person (CA) took home 2nd. AlJean Simpson (CA) took the Q action (16 7/9 +122) and a 3-4 finish as well. Mel Kranz (CA) also finished in the 3-4 bracket.

Directors Gary Sumner and Andrea Witkin reported nary a 28 or 29-hand showed. Evidently, the cards have not thawed after a long winter.

Suzy Kilgo Promotes Cribbage

Atlantan Suzy Kilgo reported a nifty article about cribbage appeared in the "Zac Report." This publication is the main marketing tool for the "Zac Team," a residential real estate company in the heart of Atlanta. This publication has a mailing list of 25,000. Atlanta is a hub of ACC Grass Roots activities as three Grass Roots clubs are in action, and Suzy hopes the cribbage article will drum up a few new members.

CANADIAN, EH

By Mary Gladish

There has been a suggestion - well, more like a question as to which Canadian female claims the first Master rail.

I, too, am still a green-card carrying Canuck and have enjoyed some cribbage playing luck.

My Master award came in ninety-four - since then I have received two more.

Both Pam Pomeroy and Marion Buckley are excellent players - (perhaps like me they send Elizabeth (crib goddess) prayers.)

Be that as it may - what I want to say...

I don't claim my cribbage play is stronger,
but that perhaps I've been on the circuit longer.

Another thing I have found -

I live where many tourneys abound.

Let's play cribbage regardless who is on top.

We all know our next game can be a flop!

In Memoriam

Stephen Reynolds

Concord, California

Steve passed away on April 28. He fell and injured his knee on Easter Sunday, and died of surgical complications 12 days later. Steve was one of the ACC's star players, having attained One-Star rating. He was a mainstay in ACC operations, hosting many events as a tournament director. His 10,000+ MRP's attest to his superior skill on the boards. He was well-liked and a great competitor. The ACC has lost a great one.

William "Bill" Soloduk

Edmonton, Alberta

Bill died May 2 at the age of 82. He was a life-long cribbage buff, having scored six 29-hands in his long pegging career. He will be sorely missed by his many Canadian friends and peggers.

James H. Shea

Shalimar, Florida

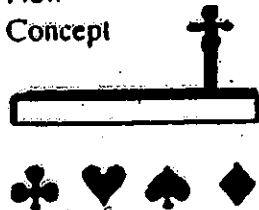

Jim died March 22 at the age of 89. He was an avid life-long pegger who played with Grass Roots 131, Okaloosa County, FL. He hated to lose, but never played a game without relish. His ACC number of FL-6 attests to his long association with the ACC.

4,000 Miles = 7 MRP's

Ron Morgan (CA) was talking with somebody, probably Rex Paddock (MT), who asked if he'd like to go to a tournament in Minnesota (probably the Capital City Open in St. Paul). Ron thought Why not?, so cranked up his car, drove 800 miles to Missoula, MT to join up with Rex and Sharon Hejtmanek (MT) for the 1200 miles to St. Paul. End result: 571.4 miles for each Master Point earned. Ron estimates that he drove 4000 miles to win 7 MRP.
