Huge Crowds in Reno!

Central Region Cops All-Star Game
Betty Stewart Wins TOC

Cribbage Bowl: Bill O'Malley*
JPW/ACC: Roger Grandgeorge

JPW/ACC Consolation: Lloyd "Gabby" Kraft

The granddaddy of all cribbage tournaments once again drew players from throughout the United States and Canada and near-record crowds descended on the Sands Regency in Reno in early February for the annual cribbage extravaganza.

The long weekend of pegging began in earnest on Thursday evening with the 16th running of the All-Star game. This action was won by the Central squad (see story, this issue), and the pegging continued unabated until the wee hours on Sunday night.

On Friday morning some 552 players (a record) began play in the Tournament of Champions, an event by invite only, and after a grueling 16-game qualifying round David Clemmey, a One-Star player from Massachusetts, took honors with a great 28-GP card, picking up $1,400 and another $2,125 in side pools. The final four in the playoffs completed the action with matches played late Saturday afternoon. First-time TOC player Betty Stewart (Roseburg, OR) zipped to the title by nipping perennial Reno winner Grand Master Russ Nelson (AZ) 3-1 to take home the $7,000 top prize. Nelson garnered $4,000 for 2nd. Old war-horse Two-Star Bob Julian (WI) and Harvey Rasmussen (WI) each won $2,000 with a 3-4 finish. No Master Rating Points were earned in this event as it is by invitation only.

A whopping 650 players played a satellite "Cribbage Bowl" event on Friday afternoon, and after a 12-game high card match was completed, Master Bill O'Malley (OR) scored a superlative 25-GP card to take home the $2,200 grand prize. Carolyn Blackman (OR) came close with a 24-GP card and took home $1,850.

Record Crowds in Reno

On Saturday morning a near-record crowd of 1,066 peggers had the Sands buzzing in anticipation of the upcoming 22-game qualifying round. The pegging was hot and heavy, and when the pegs were laid away in the late afternoon it was Bryan Riches, pegging on his home turf (Reno) taking Q honors with one of the best Q-rounds of the year...a 42 GP gem! This great card was worth $1,480 from the Q-pool. Grand Master H. Ross Njaa (CA) posted a 41-GP card and took home $1,250!

The playoff action continued through 10 rounds, with the winner being awarded $10,000 and a whopping 385 MRP's. When the playoffs wound down on Sunday afternoon, it was a "grand" finale for Roger Grandgeorge, pegging out of State Center, Iowa, as he waltzed to the championship with a 4-1 win over James Morrow (WA) in the final match. In fact it was a "ten-grand" finale! Morrow fared quiet well and took home a whopping 315 MRP's and $6,000 with this high finish. One-Star James Langley (CA) and Grand Master Connie Staven (WI) finished 3-4 and each garnered $3,050 and 252 MRP's each.

The JPW/ACC Consolation is always the 2nd largest event of the cribbage year, and this year was no exception as a huge crowd of 780 peggers signed on for play. After a 9-game Q round, it was Dutch Gerlich (MD) zipping home with a grand-slam 21 9/9 +214 card to take honors. But when the pegs were laid away, it was two old pros battling for the top prize...and Lloyd "Gabby" Kraft, a Life Master from Seymour, WI, came away the winner, besting Grand Master Larry Loupee (IA) in the final playoff match. The win came with a $2,060 prize and 180 MRP's. Kraft also has the distinction of having won the JPW/ACC Open Main Event (in 1999). Master Dan Zeisler (CA) and Doug Jansen (OR) finished 3-4, and each carted home 112 MRP's for this high finish.

Once again, the Sands Regency, with able assistance from Barbara Rainey, rolled out the red carpet for the players, furnishing coffee and cakes three-days running. The Sands also treated the players to outstanding buffets as well. The usual TOC badges were also given to all 552 TOC players. This three-day extravaganza continues to be the "one and only of its kind" cribbage event in the entire world.

Iowans were hot in Reno. With nine players from the Hawkeye state, eight qualified for the playoffs in the JPW/ACC Open, and 6 of the 7 entrants from Iowa qualified for the playoffs in the Consolation as well.

When TOC Champion Betty Stewart reported to her job in Roseburg, Oregon on Monday morning, she was surprised with the standing ovation she received from her 40 fellow employees.

John Furler (OR) was among the very few who qualified in all three events (TOC, JPW/ACC, & Consolation).

The fashion-show champs had no competition as Sharlene and Bill Medeiros (MA) produced a variety of clothes that were the envy of the entire crowd.

Rex Paddock (MT) had all but conceded a game, being far-far back, when he strung a run of 17-17-28 hands together to stun his opponent.

Lady luck smiled on many players on the slots and tables. Katie Nordlund (MN) won $2,000 on a quarter machine; Ann Tork (WI) went home with $8,000 on a dollar slot; Kathy Pacocha (CO) won $1,500 on a quarter machine; Patrick Barrett took $1,500 at black jack...and many others were smiling as well. Of course, as with the smiling winners, there were a few sad-faces as well.

As for Calvin Braun (NY), he loves the 5 of clubs. The week before Reno he cut the 5 of clubs for a 29-hand. In Reno, he cut the 5 of clubs for a 28-hand.

And Bob Gromke was busy cutting 5's as well. He scored two 28-hands (Sat. & Sun.).

Sad stories were in great supply as everyone seemed to have a tale of woe (what else is new?). But the saddest of all was a player who was in the process of winning a playoff match 3-2, needing 11 to win, held a 10-hand and knew he had 2 in the crib. In his excitement, pegged both hands as one, and falsely claimed the game...and lost the match!

A filming crew was on hand making a documentary about cribbage. One of their shots was taking footage of Cribbage World editor's (DeLynn Colvert) car. This 1990 Honda CRX has logged 531,000 cribbage miles...and was covered with mud in the parking lot!

Jim Pokorney Takes Carter Classic

Jim Pokorney (WI) zipped to the Carter Classic Championship on January 15. This event played to 131 peggers in Carter, Wisconsin. Life Master Les Kvien (IL) took Pokorney to the wire, but had to settle for 2nd. Pokorney earned 196 MRP's for the win and Kvien added yet another 147 to his lofty lifetime tally (6,400+). Two-Star Warren Sondericker (WI) also added to his 16,700+ lifetime tally with a 3-4 finish. Grand Master Jim Huser (WI) also finished in this bracket. Sondericker took Q honors as well, scoring a great 40 GP card (+307), and taking home an aggregate 175 MRP's.

Master Jerome Tork (WI) won the 64-player Consolation, nipping One-Star Frank Danielski (WI) in the final playoff match. Grand Master Al Karr (WI) and Master Pat Kufahl (WI) finished 3-4. Jim Knorr (WI) took Q honors with a nifty 18 GP +186 card.

Director Dottie Culver reported the satellites:
Friday Warm-up: Larry Morse 15 7/7 +114
Friday: Syl Lulinski
Saturday: Joseph Aird
All-Events: Don Flesch 59 GP's
28's: Tim Krafford, Mario Lenzini, Larry LaGassie, Pat Kufahl

Suspension Lifted

By unanimous vote of the Ethics Committee, the suspension of Heidi Glashan (CA) has been lifted, effective February 15, 2006.

Record Doubles Score

Mike Beauvais (CA) teamed with Ira Deutsch (CA) in a doubles match at the Lake Topaz (NV) event...and triple-skunked Lee Fogelson (CA) and Daryl McCullough (CA) by a whopping 98 points!

Printing Costs Up

Our monthly printing costs of Cribbage World has taken a $150-$200 jump upwards. Paper costs have suddenly seen a huge increase.

The ACC's Board of Directors has reluctantly upped the sanctioning dues (effective August 1, 2006) from $1.50 to $2 in an effort to keep the ACC's budget solvent.

17th Annual

Dick West Cops Super Lite

The 17th Annual Super Lite Open, played at the Dante Club in West Springfield, MA on January 29 sported a field of 118 peggers. This event continues to be a popular one and this time around it was Life Master Dick West (MA) nailing down the championship. The final match was played by two heavyweights in the ACC, as another Life Master took home 2nd...Dwight Christiansen (CT). West took home 147 MRP's and Christiansen earned 105. Grand Master Earle Remington (RI) finished in the 3-4 bracket with Gene May (MA). West was also the event's top Q player, with a superlative 24 11/12 +163 card, adding another 55 MRP's to his take-home number (202 aggregate).

Master Roger Bouchard (CT) took home the bacon in the 62-player Consolation, nipping another Master peger in the final playoff match...Bob Bousquet, Jr. (MA). Louis Choiniere (MA) and Holli Umbrianna (RI) finished in the 3-4 bracket. Leo Genorow took Q honors with a 17/8 +131 card.

Director Charlie Finley reported no 28's or 29's showed in this 17th Annual.

Record Crowd

Peter Lerch Savannah King

Master Peter Lerch, pegging out of Hope Mills, NC came south to Savannah, Georgia and joined the record crowd (86) in an attempt to take home the Georgia crown, and he did just that, nipping Joe Lewis III (FL) in the final playoff match. The win came with 147 MRP's and bragging rights galore. Master Jim Lunder, another Floridian, and old pro Russell Perkins, a Grand Master from North Carolina, finished in the 3-4 bracket. Both earned 70 MRP's each. Lou Gardner (GA) took Q honors with a 33 14/22 +273 card (35 MRP's).

In the 60-player Consolation it was "Easy" Ed Craren (FL) taking home the win. Chuck Dolge (NC) finished 2nd, followed by Bob Bovill (NH) and Paula Abele (FL) in the 3-4 slot. Martha O'Donnell (CO) took Q honors with a great 16 8/9 +104 card.

Director Bill Cooper reported that Mike Elkins won the Friday night event and Gaylord Matti took home the top prize on Saturday night. The Saturday night game had two 28's show (Fred Desnoyers and Matti Bradshaw). Bradshaw's was of the difficult variety...scored in the crib! Sanctioned 28's were scored by Ray Wanke and Joy Barnes. The national drought of 29's continue as nary a 29-hand showed. Cooper also reported the record crowd came from all over the nation...only one Savannan showed.

Boyles Update

Roy Boyles (see ad this issue) has been making cribbage boards for many years with the proceeds going to the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society (in remembrance of his granddaughter, who died from Leukemia).

To date Boyles has collected and donated a whopping $47,199.75 to this Society. He reports sales of boards to Sweden, Scotland, Israel, Kenya, China, Denmark and Mexico.

Whew! That is one ton of drilling holes! Writer's cramp? Boyles must have "driller's cramp!" Ed.

Canadian Clarification

Last month's Cribbage World had charts illustrating how the ACC is divided into three regions. The division of Canadian Provinces was not made clear. The Provinces are divided as follows:

Eastern Region: Quebec, Newfoundland, and New Brunswick

Central Region: Manitoba and Ontario

Western Region: British Columbia, Yukon, Alberta, and Saskatchewan

Alaska and Hawaii are also part of the Western Region.

New Judges

Al Miller, the ACC Testing Examiner, reports two new judges:

Robert Miller, Green Bay, WI

Amy Sook, Feristell, MO

John Bakeberg, Rapid City, SD, and Karen Smith, Evansville, WY, have been removed due to failure to renew their memberships.

17 28-Hands In Reno

The year 2006 is the Chinese "Year of the Dog"...and it appears to be affecting the expected 29-hands scored by members of the American Cribbage Congress in sanctioned play. Only three have been scored in some seven months play this cribbage year, far less than the expected 12 or so (25 for the year average).

Two 29's should have been scored in Reno, according to the law of averages, but nary a one showed!

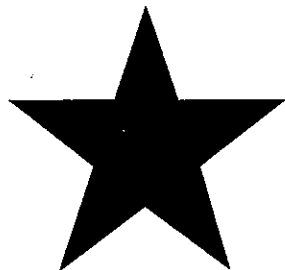

But 17 28-hands showed in JPW/ACC Open sanctioned play. They were:

Central Region Wins All-Star Game (6-5-5)

The Central Region All-Stars won the 16th Annual All-Star game in Reno on February 9 in Reno. The Central squad tattooed the boards with steady play with all 8 team members posting high marks to easily cop the match. The yearly match now stands at six wins for the East, five for the Central and West. The scores:

Central	74 54 156 (8 skunks)
Eastern	62 66 128 (4 skunks)
Western	56 72 116 (4 skunks)

For the second year in a row, Rob Medeiros, a One-Star player from Massachusetts, scored the meet's high card...a 27 12/16 +154. Grand Master Chris McComas (WA) was 2nd with a 22 11/16 card. Grand Master James Huser (WI), Master Bob Joslin (MN), Life Master Don Flesch (WI), and Two-Star Joe Bernard (IL) paced the Central Region to the win by winning 10 games each (10-6).

Duane Toll Continues Torrid Pace

Three-Star Duane Toll, Sutherlin, Oregon, continues to make shambles of the 2006 Master Rating Point Race. After seven month's play in this cribbage year's action he has posted an outstanding 1,700+MRP's, leaving his competitors far, far behind. Only One-Star Ron Morgan has cracked the century mark and has an outside chance to catch the streaking Toll.

Erik Royland Locke (OR) is a relative newcomer on the "trail" but he recently earned his Master rating and is zipping along in third place this cribbage year (840 MRP's). Another Master pegger....Bob Bartosh (CA)...is also over the 800 mark. One-Star Jim Hornbacher (WA) is over the 700 mark, and two peggers have topped 600: One-Star Larry Samet (MA) and Life Master Todd Malmgren (OR).

Eight stellar peggers are over the 500 mark: One-Star Gerald Gruber (MN); Grand Master Keith Widener (NC); One-Star Jim Langley (CA), Life Master John Furler (OR); Grand Master Jim Crawford (CA); Grand Master Tony Danihel (WI); Life Master Richard Frost (WI); and Life Master Les Kvien (IL).

Some 22 peggers have topped the 400 mark...and with but five short month's action remaining this cribbage year, the top ten honors are up for grabs!

Correct Odds

In case someone has not yet indicated the flaw in Jack Carter's flush claim (Jan. CW, page 3), his odds are off quite a bit.

The number he gave is the total population of all possible crib hands - ie the answer to the question "how many different ways can 13 cards be formed from a standard deck of 52". The frequency of 3 flushes (both hands and crib) can be determined by choosing 6, 6, and 1 from 13 (all cards of one suit). This can be done in 12012 ways. The odds of Carter's club flush hand is 12012 / 635013559600 or roughly 1 in 53 million - in the ballpark of the Powerball lottery. The odds of 3 flushes (of any suit) would be about 1 in 13 million.

Reno: Cribbage Town, USA

This may come as a surprise to those of you not living in Reno, but there are more Catholic churches there than casinos.

Not surprisingly, some worshippers at Sunday services will give casino chips rather than cash when the basket is passed.

Since they get chips from so many different casinos, the churches have devised a method to collect the offerings.

The churches send all their collected chips to a nearby Franciscan Monastery for sorting and then the chips are taken to the casinos of origin and cashed in.

This is done by the chip monks.

Good old Tom Lewis (NM) "got" CW on this joke. Peg on...and see you in Reno. Ed.

Goofy Game?

I met a retired sailor from the British Navy recently and the talk turned to cribbage. They play under some different rules which I found fascinating.

1) You must peg out exactly, ie, if you are one out, you must score one and only one point, such as a "go" or a one point hand with nobs. If you're 10 out and score exactly 10, you win, etc.

2) First player in the play of the hand to get a "go" gets the point, but the rest of the other player's cards are dead for pegging.

3) If the pone lead matches the starting card, he or she gets two points. However, the count doesn't change. If the starter is a four and you pair it to lead, you get two points, but the count is still four.

4) If you match the lead suit with a jack of the same suit, you get a point.

We played a couple games American style and then a couple his style. The last few holes of the game and the pegging take on a totally different aspect played this way. I think we both found our heads spinning a little bit.

Royal Mounted Police Doggedly Pursue Master Rating

Marion Buckley, Edmonton, Alberta, is a retired Royal Mounted Policewoman.

She has, nevertheless, been hot on the trail for her Master rating. She has doggedly attained some 1,870 MRP's...and her goal is in sight! She will become the first Canadian woman to earn this honor if she can garner yet another 130 MRP's!

Her spouse, Harold, is on track for his Life Master, needing some 800 MRP's. He is already the highest ranking Canadian player.

Bernie Nelson Lake Topaz Champ

Bernie Nelson, a Life Master pegging out of Neskowin, Oregon, took home the championship at the mid-week Lake Topaz Open. This event followed the huge JPW/ACC Open played some 60 miles north in Reno. With 51 players on board, Nelson took home 105 MRP's to add to his lofty lifetime total (7,700+). Two-Star Jesse Jarrell (CA) took home 2nd, followed by Life Master Sharon Hejtmanek (MT) and Master Steve Harding (CA) in the 3-4 bracket. Grand Master Jim Crawford (CA) took Q honors with a 35 GP (45 MRP's) card.

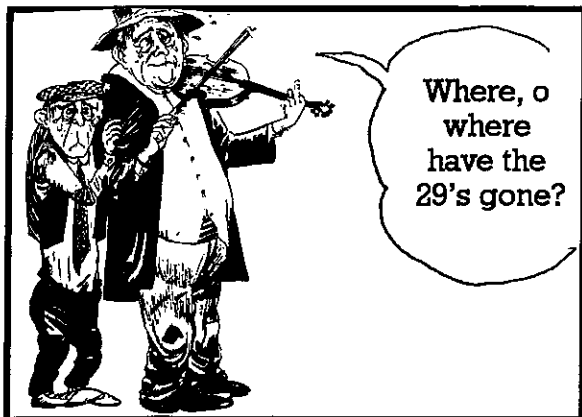

Canadian Linton Walker copped the 34-player Consolation, nipping Australian Kerry O'Connell in the final playoff match. O'Connell had a great mid-week as she also took home the marbles in the All-Events and won the Wednesday Special to boot. One-Star Ron Morgan (CA) and Four-Star DeLynn Colvert (MT) finished 3-4.

Director Les Sumner had a full array of satellites on tap. The winners:

Early Bird: Ron Morgan
 High Roller: Dan Marsh
 Doubles: Ira Deutsch & Mike Beauvais
 Wednesday: Kerry O'Connell
 Team: Hatcher, Colvert, Heath, Furler
 Super Q: Rollie Heath

The Lake Topaz Lodge sits on a bluff overlooking Lake Topaz and the playing hall had a grand view of the lake. The casino and business manager Jackie Ross rolled out the red carpet for the players, even giving every player a $9 lunch voucher.

Before play started, winner Nelson was overheard saying "This is the kind of tournament I really like...a friendly intimate one!" And he proved a sage as he went on to win!

ACC Internet Cribbage

How to play like a Champ

Mark Van Dyke (loosespokes1135) has spent more atop the ratings list than anyone. One of our tournament directors, Rick LaVallee (+_Kwiz), was curious how Mark pulled this off, so he decided to sit in on Van Dyke's fourth round match against Nicholas Cheung (nicholas179) during the December 17 single elimination event to see if he could catch some of the 2004-5 Internet Champion's secrets.

The best-of-three match was tied 1-1, and Van Dyke was poned with 92 points to Cheung's 116*. Big problem, no? No! Van Dyke simply held the four 5s he was dealt, cut a 10, then pegged a single point on a go to win the game and match 121-119*. See? Just play like this, and you too can be a champion.

28 hands got a lot of attention in a relatively light month, which saw ACC Internet Cribbage "dark" over the holidays. Although we can't track every 28 hand that occurs in Internet competition, the following were reported to us in addition to Van Dyke's exploit:

December 3: William A. Schultz (floydandzep)
 December 5: Dianne Harnick (coorslight1)
 December 5: Richard Off (UneasyQuill)

John Schafer (netview85) of Battle Creek, MI tore off 180 IRPs to be our player of the month, pulling to within 9 IRPs of the lead thanks to one victory and several high finishes. As far as we know, Schafer performed this feat without drawing a single 28 hand.

Congratulations to Valerie Nozick (atlichica_3) for her first ACC Internet Cribbage victory, in the December 18 Pegging Pals Single Elimination event. As her screen name attests, Valerie is female, and pegs from Atlanta, GA. Our other first-time winner was Bill Ellis (billellis), who joins us from Culver City, CA. Bill prevailed in the December 13 Cribbage Cup, always a challenging format in which to prevail.

Come to www.cribbage.org/internet for more news, standings, full results, and information on how you can participate. We look forward to publicizing your first Internet victory here!

Jim Langley At It Again 98 Play Pacific Coast Event

One-Star Jim Langley (CA) has had a love-hate affair with cribbage the past few years. either he is hot...or cold. He is back into his hot cycle by winning the recent Pacific Coast Championship, played at Salinas, CA. This time around he had to get around Two-Star Jesse Jarrell (CA) in the final playoff match to clinch the win. With a 98-player field, Langley took home yet another 147 MRP's. Jarrell padded his lifetime account with another 105 MRP's. Wayne Scranton (CA) and Life Master Bill Wakeman (CA) finished in the 3-4 bracket...and took home 70 MRP's each. Dennis Bays (CA) took the Q action, scoring 33 GP's (22-game match).

Reno's Grand Master Bryant Gilkeson won the 64-player Consolation, nipping Diane Leal (NV) in the final playoff match. Judith Murphy (CA) and newly-crowned Life Master Cres Fernandez (CA) finished 3-4. Life Master Mel Ashley (CA) took Q honors with a 15 GP card (9 games).

Director H. Ross Njaa reported the satellite results:

Friday: Barbara Stokham

Saturday: Jim Langley

All Events: Rae Fedde

Team: Wakeman, Langley, Morgan, Bartosh

28's: Emily Hudelson, Thelma Weber

Reshuffle?

Cribbage World receives complaints from many sources and a recent complaint comes from a player that had the misfortune to play an opponent, who after losing the first game in a 3-game match, decided to re-shuffle his opponent's every deal. Needless to say, this turned a friendly match into a contentious one immediately. Despite calling for a judge, this player continued to re-shuffle (and is entitled to do just that according to the rules). This is NOT what our rule book intended!

Along these lines, I had my shuffle of three riffles, three over and under cuts (my opponent claimed only two were done), and demanded to re-shuffle. This was no problem for me, but what was a problem is the fact after the game was completed, he made the rounds of the playing hall telling players "to watch his shuffle!". This, of course, strongly suggests a manipulation of the cards...and cheating! Needless to say, I was infuriated! The moral of the story? Use the re-shuffling rule only on rare occasions...and with the utmost tact! Ed.

In Memoriam

Charles W. Baldwin

Salem, Oregon

Charlie died in late January from pneumonia at the age of 90. He was a fixture at his GR 46 club, always making coffee and cookies for his fellow players. According to club member Robin Freeburg, "Charlie is surely playing cribbage in heaven!"

Bill Palumbo

Walla Walla, Washington

"Be there, baby!" was Bill's favorite statement when calling for a cut card. He died at the age of 84, and his permanent anchor seat #2 is now vacant at GR 274. He was nick-named "Evil Bill" by his many pegging friends (in reality one of the kindest and sweetest men on earth). He will be missed by his "Sweet Onion Peggers!"

Connie Harmoey

Englewood, Florida

Connie died on January 30. He had played nine years at GR 29 in Englewood. His many friends and peggers will sorely miss him.

Lois Lamb

Fayetteville, North Carolina

Lois died on January 24. She was known as "Mom" by her GR 35 members. She had been in ill health for some time. Her place as "Mom" will be hard to replace.

Ginny White May Attend GN XXV

Ginny White, daughter of the Late Joseph Petrus Wergin, may attend the upcoming Grand National in Wisconsin Rapids. She recently wrote Patrick Barrett an email. Excerpts: "Thanks, also, for your kind words about my dad. He cherished the ACC and all the friends he made through playing and promoting cribbage. It's sad that dementia robbed him of his intellect during his last 10 years and he never realized what a great organization the ACC had become.

I'd be pleased to attend the Grand National Tournament and Awards Banquet in Wisconsin Rapids in September. I probably won't play, but I'd love to mingle with the competitors. I grew up helping my dad at the card tournaments he organized and I enjoy watching the action."

Rule of the month review – This month instead of reviewing a specific rule, I'd like to address some of the basics for our newer members. Some are rules and some are courtesies. (1) After the deal, pone is not allowed to cut the deck until both players have put two cards into the crib. (2) When cutting for deal or prior to the hand, the deck should be held so that neither player can see the bottom card. (3) When playing the hand, the previously played cards should be placed so that the identity of all cards are visible. (4) Pone should not reach over the board to pick up the dealers previously counted hand or crib. It is the dealer's responsibility to place their hand and crib face up and visible on pone's side of the board after each has been counted.

News from Club 271 in Albuquerque, NM. The club had built up their skunk can to about $270. Ray Kranz (NM 68) scored a 28 hand in September 2005 and took 25%. After that, the can went untouched for almost four months. In January 2006 that changed! Marge Williamson (NM 87) scored a 28 hand taking 25% and on January 28th, Ida Mae Devine (NM 71) scored a 28 hand and on the same day Herman Shipley (NM 179) scored a Grand Slam scorecard, each taking 25%. The Sandia Peggars are now in the process of building up the contents of the can. Members pay 25 cents for every skunk and the club adds $10.00 for every week the can is under $200.00. The club had two donated $20 lunch coupons that were obtained in November 2005. One was for the first person to get a 24 hand without using a 5 or an 8. That was won on January 28th by Susie Jenkins (NM 128). She had a 6-6-6-6-3. The remaining lunch coupon is still up for grabs and that will go to the player obtaining the rarest 20 hand in cribbage. 2-2-2-2-9. The top three scorecards on the 28th were 19/9/+122, 19/8/+201, and 18/8/+147. All in all, quite an exciting day!

Art Hertager (CA 1513) of the San Diego, CA. Cribbage Club scored two 28 hands within two weeks! The first came on December 26th and again two weeks later on January 10th.

Tidbit from Club 69 in Spokane, WA. On January 11, 2006 Evon Forrest scored a Grand Slam card, her fourth since joining the Grass Roots organization in the fall of 2001. One of her other Grand Slams were scored on January 11, 2003.

Strange scores at club #2 Hermiston, OR. Denny Edwards was the club leader on Jan 2. On the last game he was playing Pat Winn with the winner of that game being the winner of the weekly tournament. Pat won and had a nice 18 card and Denny ended up with a respectable 15 but got no local points because there were only 7 players. Two weeks later there were 11 members and one guest present when James Seufert got a 13 card to win first place. Denny beat out Iris Brood by two spread points for fifth place with an 11/5/-3. Ellis Morse, Larry Walton, and Ray Anderson all had 11 points with 5 wins to place 2nd through 4th. Six of the eleven members got rating points that night.

News from Edmonton Alberta, Canada. This season there are sixty Grass Roots members from the Edmonton Area; 28 from Club 261 and 32 from Club 312. Club 312 plays each Tuesday at 7:00 PM at the Continental Inn and Club 261 plays each Wednesday 7:00 PM at the Sands Motor Hotel. Attendance has been good this season for both clubs. To date after 19 weeks Club 261 has averaged nearly 23 peggars per night and Club 312 has averaged 24 peggars per night. Audrey Hatto, Director of Club 261 is assisted by Doris Sanders, with help from Gordon Armstrong, Karl Lagerman and Dwayne Pankiw. Gary Wirth, Marion Buckley and Leonard Baron have assisted Harold Buckley, Director of Club 312. Club 261 hosted the Regional Tournament, which was held at Sands Motor Hotel on 12/3/05. Club 312 will be hosting the Grass Roots National Tournament to be held at the Continental Inn on Saturday 4/1/06. Highlights to date this Season: Club 261- Shawn Smith Two Grand Slams (10/1/05 and 12/28/05) Lewis Skidmore - 29 Hand (10/26/05) John Zawaduk - 28 hand (1/4/06)

Club 312 - O.A. (Bud) Kessler - 29 hand (10/25/05) - Shirley Ruff 28 hand (12/6/05) - Kelly Ann Bugar - 28 hand (12/27/05) For those of you who play in the ACC on-line tournaments, Kelly plays there often. Her on-line name is lil_thumper!

20 pegger's from the Edmonton Area will venture to Reno in February to try their pegging skills in the World's Largest Cribbage Tournament. The Edmonton players wish them the Best of Luck.

Grass roots Club 156 Sunnyside WA. has been around since 1992. We all know that it is the club members make who make the club. This year the club has several new members and this makes for a lot of fun. We would like to welcome our new members; Gloria Alexander, Bob Van Horn, Matt Johnson, Dell Gere, KC Gere, and Bev Bosteder. On Jan 18th in grassroots play Gloria Alexander cut a five for a 28 hand. However the 28-29 pot is still in tact, as she didn't buy in for a chance at the prize money.

News from Club 214 in Topsham, ME: (by Vicki Soule) On the 25th of January, Ethan Guyaz scored a 28 hand. On February 1st once again, I showed how much I love my husband Mark. I gave him ANOTHER 29 hand. Believe me...this is not a set up or anything! In the last three weeks we have had three 28 hands and two 29 hands... and Mark Soule's (current rookie of the year) wife (me) has given him TWO!

Charlie Finley with Club 72 news! Thomas "Tossie" Shea, the veteran player in our Club #72, The Pegging Fools, lived up to that name recently as he had a 28 hand 3 weeks ago and followed it up the next week with another 28 hand to wipe out our skunk can and garner the honor of being the first in our club to accomplish such a feat! Congratulations to a well deserving pegger even though he always beats me!

GR Tournament #20 (1/26/06) in Chehalis-Centralia. Attendance is edging up towards 30 as the season progresses without the snowbirds. They did miss the 34 consecutive days of rain-fall. Twenty-eight with pegs in hand causes quite a stir. So it was for tournament 20 of 36. PENNY MC KENRICK of Centralia became the 43rd person to register with our group for the 2005-2006 season. Hope you will come to enjoy the friendship and benefits of membership in the Chehalis-Centralia Cribbage Club. A working mother (is there another kind?) needs an escape. This is a better one than most. Hope you enjoyed our company as much as we enjoyed yours. A penny for your thoughts? KEN LOUGE, first-time guest of Centralia, made an auspicious beginning. KEN seemed to have a good time and scored 13/6/53 in first night of play. Hope to see you often, partner! KEN needs transportation from Cook's Hill Manor to the Lodge and return. Hopefully there is somebody in Centralia who can do this. Let me know if you can provide a ride for KEN. Nice to get acquainted and hope you'll soon be the 44th member of the group. Several visitors pushed the numbers upward. NANCY HAWKINS of the Lacey Peggers waited in. Hadn't seen "NAN" in a long time. It's always nice to renew an old friendship. SUE WHEATON of Olympia is always most welcome. SUE has been learning a new game. That is how to understand and compensate for ataxia. No I didn't say that she paid a cab driver. Nice to see you again, SUE! GEORGE STANTON of the Lacey Peggers was again in our midst and he made a lasting impression. DUTTEROW GEORGE did it up real nice. We treat visitors like royalty. WE CROWN THEM! And GEORGE loved the coronation!

A big crowd turned out for Club 150's GR tournament #6 to kick February off. 26 players showed up February 1st for some pegging fun, and it looks like some of our "old" members from last season showed up again. The club welcomed back Glenrose Sheffel and Norm Peterson and new member Chuck Grow formerly of Club 227 in Laguna Woods, CA. New visitor, Dorothy Black, did very well with her 12 point card and it looks as though we will be welcoming her into the club the next time we play. It's not nice to irritate the club champ! Club Champ Eileen Haworth started out the evening by getting skunked royally in game no. 1. Undaunted, Eileen proceeded to kick butt the next 8 games, with 2 of her own skunks, and finished the night by taking 1st place with a nice 18 point card.

Ann Flaherty ran a distant 2nd with a decent 15-point scorecard. To Roy Cook's amazement, he held onto the "high-hand" $ can pot for 6 games with a 21 hand.....oops, one 24 showed up in the 7th game, and Ethel Williams ended up with our "Stinky Skunk" Ty toy animal and claimed the $ can. The injuries were held to a minimum that night as "Stinky" only got to fly around the room one time. On any normal night at our club, Stinky sails through the air at least 5 or 6 times changing ownership. Cheryl Selvaggio scored the only Ragged Andy of the night to cop the special hand award.

Cribbage tales from Hawaii! Well all hell broke loose on February 3rd in Club 110. In game 5 Kathy Tsark proudly announced that their good friend (from Maidstone Kent England), Barry Farinaro had dealt her a 28! Her husband Tsarkie vociferously let everyone know that in order to get the high hand of the night, there was something to shoot for! Well in game 6, not only did someone do Kathy one better, her lesser half (lol) Tsarkie cut himself (dealt by Jerry "Snake" Price) a 29... Two games later Buck Johnston dealt a 28 to Tommy Asari and all he'll get is a nice plaque and no money... and on the reverse side, Tsarkie's nephew, Robert Gerard had a string of pearls...

The Granite State Cribbers (club # 314) in Hudson, New Hampshire are half way through their second season and have lots of news to report. Including results of the 2005 GRRT, Life Master One-Star Al Miller sits atop the club standings in first place, Master David Statz is mere points away in second place while Jim Hatch is close behind in third place. Highlights include the club's first ever 29 hand shown by Don McGeouch on December 21, 2005. Don was holding 5c-5s-5h-Jd when the magical 5d was cut allowing him to empty the club's skunk cup! Four other Cribbers have shown 28-hand rarities as well: Al Miller, Paul Powers, Frank Clark and Paul Statz all nearly skipped an entire street with four fives and a tenth card. It should also be noted that three different club members won sanctioned ACC tournaments so far this season: Paul Gifford at the New Hampshire Open, Frank Clark at the Nutmeg Open and Al Miller at the Northern New England Cribbage Championship. And, yes: there are club members actively playing in the ACC's Internet Program, too: Jim Hatch, Dan Crete and Master, ACC BOD member and Internet Commissioner Bob Milk all won tournaments so far this season on the 'net. Club directors Dan and Sheila Crete invite anyone residing in the area or just passing by to join the Granite State Cribbers on Wednesday evenings for some great pegging!

News from Club 24 in Mesa, AZ: Laurie Logan was in the skunk pool on January 28th. She skunked a visitor to the club by 59 points. Many of the club members had mixed emotions, as they would like to be hospitable to prospective new members. Laurie was clearly counting her money from the skunk pot and with 48 players, it was a nice pot. A game or so later her elation was suddenly over as Peggy Cunningham yelled out "28, 28!" The club skunk pot has a seldom-used provision that if anyone gets a 28 or 29 hand, he or she wins the entire pot. Laurie was sad and Peggy was really stoked. The Mesa club is growing nicely and their objective is to get sixty players for a local Grass Roots session.

In the February Grass Roots Corner the story from Stu Kelly was about the cold conditions that we played in at the twin lakes c. c. but that was not the whole story. Yes, we did start with the room temperature of 47 degrees. The real point of the story was that after an hour and a half of playing cribbage the temperature went up 15 degrees attesting to either the warm friendship of cribbage players or more than likely, that cribbage players (at least in our club) are full of hot air. That rise in temperature was without the aid of the heater in the room that was not working that night. To show how dedicated crib players are, none of the 20 some people who showed up to play left because of the cold temps. The room was cold but the competition and the cards were hot.

Multiple Year Memberships

BOD votes to allow members to purchase multiple year memberships (up to 3 years).

At the BOD meeting in Reno, the ACC BOD voted to reverse their previous decision and allow multiple year memberships with a cap of three years.

For at least 15 years, ACC members have been able to purchase multiple year memberships. A year ago changes to the Membership Secretary's software allow new membership cards to be sent year of the intervening years. When this was reported to the BOD in Lincoln City, a vote was taken (13 to 11) to bar members from paying for anymore than one year at a time.

The new ACC membership application forms will be available at the ACC web site, Regional Tournament Statisticians, and the Membership Secretary.

Cribbage History

When Cribbage was first played, in the 17th century, the court cards showed figures depicted at full length. Whereas the kings and queens wore long robes completely covering their lower limbs, the knaves (not called Jacks until the 18th century) were always shown with both legs and feet visible. For an illustration of this, see my article on the ancestor of Cribbage at <http://www.davidparlett.co.uk/histocs/noddy.html>

It is my firm belief (though I cannot prove it) that the phrase "two for his heels" refers to the fact that, having turned a court card, you know immediately that it's a knave because you can see his heels. Conversely, "his nob" is 17th century slang for "his head", which is what you see at the opposite end of the card.

The phrase "his nob" is incorrect. As far as I can make out, it first appears in 20th-century American literature. I believe someone confused the phrase "his nob" with the phrase "his nibs" (or Nibs), meaning an employer, a superior, or a self-important person, which the Oxford English Dictionary dates to the 19th century but marks "origin unknown". I can absolutely confirm that "his nibs" is completely wrong and based on an ignorant misunderstanding.

I hope this helps. Don't hesitate to ask if I can be of any further assistance. Cribbage is one of my favourite games!
