210-Player Field

Jeff Raynes

National Open Champ

Jeff Raynes, a Grand Master from nearby Cary, NC came home the winner at the year-ending 32nd National Open, played in Raleigh, NC. Raynes had to win the hard way, as he went to the loser's bracket after three rounds, and fought his way to the championship with 11 consecutive wins. Life Master Peter Setian (MA) came close, but lost his last two matches to Raynes and finished 2nd. Life Master Jeff Shimp (MI) and Master Ken Patenaude (MA) finished 3-4 in this 210-player event.

A whopping 142 peggers played the Consolation, and it was old pro Bill Campbell (FL) taking home the marbles. Campbell has been a fixture at this event for many years and finally hit paydirt. Local John Morch took 2nd, followed by Master Joy Shimp (MI) and Life Master Ray Boesel (WI) in the 3-4 bracket. Ron LaPointe (FL) had the hot hand in the Q round, scoring a nice 17 GP card.

Director Catherine Perkins reported the satellite Early Bird kickoff had a rarity...Sal Scolaro (MA) scored a 29-hand IN THE CRIB! But it was Life Master Charley Finley (CT) winning the event. Larry Gould (NC) won the Saturday Special, and the Loser's Losers was copped by Grand Master Marlene Lazachek (WI). Master Lindsey Peever (FL) took the Last Roundup win, and the High Roller saw Two-Star Warren Sondericker come home the winner.

Life Master Don Flesch (WI) scored the 13th (and last) 29-hand of the 2006 season, and took home $100 from the ACC for this gem. Charley Finley, Bob McCabe, Jim Hartley, and Sal Scolaro scored 28-hands.

Director Perkins reported that several media writers were on hand reporting this event, and that she was pleased with the increased attendance from last year. This event continues to be one of the best the ACC has to offer. Mark your calendars for National Open number 33 next year.

Marty Symons Tops Portland

The event is named the Portland Summer Open, but it is played across the Columbia River in Vancouver, WA. Nevertheless, being north of the Columbia did NOT faze Master Marty Symons (OR) as he zipped to the championship in this 146-player event. The win rewarded Symons 196 MRP's and he wound down the 2006 cribbage year in style. Life Master John Furler (OR) very nearly earned an All-American award, but fell just short (1,066, needing 1,129) with a 2nd place finish. Monica Newton (OR) and Master Bud Ferrigno (OR) finished 3-4, and earned 105 MRP's each. Life Master Cres Fernandez (CA) topped the Q round with a very nice 37 16/22 +233 card.

Life Master Jeanne Hofbauer (WA) closed down the cribbage year on a hot note, winning the 106-player Consolation. One of her house guests for the weekend was Life Master Harvey Honeycutt (OR), and luck would have it, he was her last opponent in the playoffs. She proved to not be a hospitable host as she left him in 2nd place. Master Bill O'Malley (OR) and Dana Machado (OR) finished 3-4. Grand Master Jason Shumate (OR) took Q honors with a 17 8/9 +164 card.

Directors Ken and Tim Julkowski reported a full slate of satellites:

Early Bird: Willie Evans

High Roller: Bob Julian

Doubles: Jackie Wodjenski & Paul Roy

Saturday: Larry Antijunt

Last Chance: Judith Beay

All-Events: Cres Fernandez

Sadie Hawkins: Nancy Lorenz & Paul Hatcher

Team: Baird, Ornie, Toll, Stewart, Marsh

Super Q: Dennis Misenar

28's: Sue Pisha, Lori Misenar, Karen Ferraro

Erik Locke (OR), enroute to an All-American season, was spotted wearing brand new $110 shoes...and $40 matching shorts to help celebrate a grand season.

Sharon Calligan Tops Hawaii

The July edition of the Hawaiian Open saw Sharon Calligan (NV) come away the winner. She nipped local Roy Wong in the final playoff match. Mary Jane Esera (HI) won 8 of 12 to take Q honors.

Mike Burns Cops Granite City Classic

Grand Master Mike Burns may have trouble signing up players for next year's action as he directed the Granite City Classic, St. Cloud, MN...and proceeded to take the qualifying round action (37 15/22 +326) and the playoffs as well. And his co-director, Master Doug Munneke finished 2nd! Both Burns and Munneke are from St. Cloud. The win in this 58-player event rewarded Burns with 162 MRP's (aggregate), and Munneke garnered 70 for his 2nd place finish. Life Master Frank Trojan (MN) and Don Chmielewski (MN) finished 3-4 and took home 42 MRP's each.

Locals took home the sanctioned action as well as Jason Hill won the 28-player Consolation, besting Thomas Winter (MN) in the final playoff match. Master Richard Neunsinger (MN) and Elizabeth Miller (MN) finished 3-4. Miller took the Q action as well (15 7 +160).

Director Burns reported Dennis McNurlin won the Friday night event, and Kevin Post copped the Saturday night action. And who won the All-Events? None other than Mike Burns!

However, players should not be taken too far aback by Burn's great pegging. This event paid back 100%, thanks to sponsors (Coborns, Inc.; Wapica Golf; Howies Bar; Granite City Real Estate).

Cruise Action Whale Watch: James Clark Glacier Watch: Tana Conell

The recent Alaskan cruise sported two sanctioned events...one on the outgoing segment, and the other on the return home. The Whale Watch event was won by James Clark (CA), with Life Master Boyd McDonald (CA) taking 2nd. This was Clark's first-ever sanctioned win. This 50-player event saw Master Bob Bartosh (CA) cement his hold on a top ten spot by finishing in the 3-4 bracket with Life Master Don Brown (CA). Brown also took Q honors with a 23 10/12 +174 card. Chuck Breider (NM) won the 30-player Consolation, and Grand Master Rosemary Hendricks (WA) finished 2nd and took the Q action as well.

Tana Conell (MT) also won her first sanctioned event in taking home the Glacier Watch action. Life Master Mike McDaniel (OR) took 2nd, followed by One-Star Ron Morgan (CA) and Betty Stewart (OR) in the 3-4 slot. Morgan also took the Q action with a 24 11/12 +169 card. Don Brown won the 32-player Consolation, nipping 2006 National Champion Duane Toll in the final playoff match. Kerry O'Connell (CA) and Master Thelma Weber finished 3-4. Weber was also the top Q player (13 6/7 +87). Leslie Sumner scored the only 28-hand on the entire cruise.

Sunnyside Mid-Week: Ed Weilep Sunnyside Classic: Margery Clark

For two short days Ed Weilep, Spokane, WA was leading the nation in the 2007 Master Point Race. The 2007 season began on August 1, and on Friday, August 4, Weilep came home the winner at the Sunnyside (WA) Mid-Week Classic. In besting the 38 players, Weilep took home 105 MRP's...and the national MRP lead. Master Nancy Lorenz (OR) finished 2nd, followed by Grand Master Jerry Hahn (OR) and 2006 All-American Todd Malmgren (OR) in the 3-4 slot. Lorenz also took Q honors with a 32 15/22 +188 card. Qualifying scores were very low as the field was evenly matched. Two 26-GP cards made the playoffs, and Grand Master Willie Evans (WA) scored 5 MRP's with a 27 GP card...a score earning MRP's more than likely never to be repeated.

Frank Bayne (WA) won the 36-player Consolation, with Candaian Egon Koch taking home 2nd. Grand Master George Mackie (WA) and Alaskan Arlene Carle finishing 3-4. One-Star Roy Hofbauer took Q honors with a 16 7/9 +149 card.

Director Bob Brumley reported the satellites:

Thursday: Sue Pisha

Team: Hahn, Marsh, Pomery-R.Hofbauer, Malmgren, Julian (tie)

Super Q: Nancy Lorenz

Brumley furnished the players an old-fashioned cookout at his ranch, and reported the prize fund took in $1,900...and a whopping $1,975 was paid to the players. Sponsors did that trick.

Sunnyside Summer Classic

Master Margery Clark (OR) took Ed Weilep's MRP lead away on Sunday night as she zipped to the Summer Classic win, besting 73 players, and taking home 147 MRP's (and the national lead). Life Master John Furler (OR) just missed All-American honors last year (1,066), but he is out the gate with a 2nd place finish to begin the new year (105 MRP's). Two-Star Bob Julian (WI) also narrowly missed All-American honors last year (1,076) and begins the new year on a winning note, taking home a 3-4 finish with Sue Pisha (OR). Two-Star Paul Hatcher (OR) took Q honors with a nifty 34 GP- card, scoring an aggregate 82 MRP's to begin the new season.

The Consolation played to 54 palyers and it was Tim Julkowski (OR) coming home the winner, besting Arne Andersen (BC) in the final playoff match. Ed Weilep (WA) and Life Master Mary Gladish (CA) finished 3-4. Gladish also took Q honors with a 16 8/9 +107 card.

Directors Cher and James Morrow reported the satellite winners: Early Bird: Jack Moritzky; Doubles: Nancy Lorenz & Sue Pisha; High Roller: Gerry Klein; Saturday: Phyllis Roderick. All-Events: Nancy Lorenz (57); Super Q: Bob Julian, Sue Pisha; Team: Hahn, Hatcher, Marsh, Furler. Art Whitney claims the honor of scoring the first 29-hand of the new year, a gem he plunked down in game 10 of the qualifying round.

Sue Pisha Has Oddity

Sue Pisha (OR) was dealt three jacks in consecutive hands at the Sunnyside event. The starter card was nasty as she missed nob's both times.

Clever Sign

The Eagles Club at Sunnyside, WA has this sign prominently posted in the bar:

"Caps and hats permissible as long as they are clean!"

I quickly checked my cap...it barely passed muster. Ed.

National Open Notes

The late Nick Pond, founder of the National Open (and a Hall of Famer) had his step-son, Steve Hooker, play in the first five National Opens in the 1970's. Hooker then took a 27-year hiatus and returned to play this year. He finished a very respectable 17-24. He brought his son to play and this 10-year old celebrated his birthday at this event. Other teenagers in the field were Zach Widener and John Reister.

Following lunch, Andy Hulcher proclaimed his devotion to longtime companion, Terry, and proposed marriage and undying love before the entire group. She was shocked, but consented. A ring and bouquet of roses quickly appeared to cement the deal.

Hulcher also called forth 33 players who brought red roses and presented them to Catherine Perkins, as a tribute for the 33 years she has devoted to the National Open.

Eastern Region Starts 2007 Year With a Bang! Jerry Hardy Cops Silver City

Newly-wed Jerry Hardy (ME) is on a roll. Not only did he get married last month, but his cribbage play took a turn upward as well as he roared to the 2nd Annual Silver City Open, played in Taunton, MA on August 5. And to top that, he also earned his Master rating. With a nice crowd of 120 peggers, Hardy took home 147 MRP's and earned Master with points to burn. Life Master Charlie Rapoza (MA) gave Hardy a run for the money, but settled for 2nd (and 105 MRP's). Dottie Vandenberghe (MA) very nearly had a grand slam in the Q round, missing a single game by 2 points, but her 23 11/12 +179 easily took honors. And she finished in the 3-4 bracket in the playoffs as well. Master Jack Marani (MA) also finished in the 3-4 bracket...and earned 70 MRP's.

Lee Dillon (MA) took home the marbles in the 50-player Consolation, besting Mary Agee (MA) in the final playoff match. Bill Cormier (MA) and One-Star Henry DeLong (MA) finished 3-4. Grand Master Joe Beauregard (RI) took qualifying honors with a nice 168 +121 card.

A highlight of this event saw the first 29-hand of the season as Roger Bouchard (CT) did the trick...and earned $100 for this sanctioned gem. He beat Art Whitney's 29-hand scored in Sunnyside, WA by a scant two hours or so. In last year's action only 13 29's were scored, with the first one coming on September 10. It appears this cribbage year will make amends for the drought last year. Director Jeannine DuBois reported Tony Pachaco (MA) scored a 28-hand as well.

Cindy Veradt Cops Year-End Extra

Grand Master Cindy Veradt (MA) wound down the 2006 cribbage year in style. She nailed down the win at the 3rd Annual Year-End Extra in West Springfield, MA on July 23. With 88 players in the field, Veradt very nearly earned her Life Master, standing but a handful short. With qualifying points, she may have made her 6,000 lifetime points. National Statistician Bob McCabe will make the final determination. Floridian Ray Wanke finished 2nd, followed by the ever-present One-Star David Clemmey (MA) and Theresa Clark (MA) in the 3-4 bracket. Life Master Larry Phifer (NC) has been seen coast-to-coast lately and he solidified his position on the Eastern Region's All-Star team for action in early February 2007 by taking qualifying honors (23 10/12 +156) and earning an additional 50 MRP's.

Master Malcom Enos took home a bundle of MRP's (78 aggregate) by taking Q honors and winning the playoffs as well in the 44-player Consolation. John Campanello (MA) took home 2nd, followed by the travelling Master Robert Milk (VA) and Steve Gawryluk (NJ) in the 3-4 slot.

Director Isabel Hyndman reported the team of Rob Medeiros, Bruce Sattler, and Larry Samet winning that event, and only Terri Clark could score that elusive 28-hand. No 29's showed.

Rule of the month review –The Play: A single card that is released by the fingers is considered played, whether or not the count is announced, and may be retrieved only if it would cause the count to exceed 31.

Signing your opponent's scorecard: After you complete your game you sign off your opponent's scorecard. Signing their card means that you have verified the entry as being correct. This is very important because if the entries do not match, it causes your club statistician a lot of work to find and correct the error prior to entering the data into the Grass Roots website.

Stories for this column: Submittals received by email are preferred because I can just edit and copy them into them into the column. Submittals received via the postal service may or may not be included. I will try my best to print everything received by USPS but I sometimes will not have the time to retype everything that arrives by snail mail. This is especially true during September, October and May, which are my peak workload periods. If you have a story but do not have a computer, please consider asking someone who has a computer to submit your story via email.

Mary Morris (CA 4178) of Club 194 in Eureka, CA scored a Grand Slam scorecard in the 2006 GRNT. It was not listed in the July GRNT recap because I overlooked it when I did the recap. My sincerest apologies Mary.....Tom

News from Club 227 in Laguna Woods, CA: Everett Bieger's cards have been as hot as the weather. He was the 2005-2006-club champion finishing nine gamepoints ahead of Larry Irion. He has kept to his winning ways during the summer season scoring first and second places in many tournaments. Arlene Shaw has also kept up her winning ways. Our newest member Jerry Bollinger has won a prize for her first two tournaments but the prizes were the "booby" prizes for the lowest scorecard, but we're sure she will do better in the future. Steve Yellon scored the only 24 hand in a recent tournament and received a 24-hand prize that was not claimed during the previous tournament. Hank Kaneshige was welcomed back to Club 227's tournaments after being out due to illness for four months. The club is delighted to have him back. Lee Foglesong the associate director finally scored a first place scorecard. It was well deserved after the hard work of renovating his new living quarters. Ken Slama was aiming for the grand slam prize when he played Larry Irion needing only four points to win. His only low card was a five but Larry played his low cards and Ken was only able to score two "go's." Larry had a twelve hand to win the game by two points. That's cribbage for you! The club will not be holding any tournaments during the month of August in order to prepare for the new Grass Roots season. (Submitted by Paul Yellon)

A tidbit concerning "hot cards" in summer play at the Chehalis-Centralia Cribbage Club: On July 20 with 21 players present for play in the Chehalis-Centralia Cribbage Club, the cards turned as hot as the outside weather. Three 28-hands were scored during the nine games scheduled. Mary Rosenbaum of Winlock, WA scored the first 28 hand. Sue Wheaton of Olympia then showed her cards, which also totaled 28. Don Wanta of Toledo, WA did not want to see a ladies night in this regard and scored the final 28 hand of the session. Each had to find that fourth five in the deck to comprise the 28-pointer. We're told that a 28 hand is scored in each 15,000 deals approximately. How about three of them in 879 deals? The club skunk pot paid $50 for each even though scored in unofficial play. That skunk is still gasping for air after coughing up $150. We've been telling folks for a long while that this is "where the cards are hot and the tempers are not!"

Three Star Duane Toll, Sutherlin, OR had a cribbage year to remember as he rolled to his third consecutive National Championship, breaking his old record score of 2,473. He scored 2,477 in the 2006 cribbage year, upping the mark by four Master Rating Points. This is Toll's fourth title, as he won in 1987, but the last three years have been eye-popping runs for the title. He began this cribbage year on a torrid pace, and with but six month's play in the bag, his nearest competitors were far, far behind and the race from that point on was a virtual moot point.

Only Ron Morgan, a One-Star player from Loyaltown, CA stood a slim chance of catching the streaking Toll. Morgan won the July Reno event to cement a 2nd place finish (1,777 MRP's). Two-time National Champion Jim Langley, a One-Star player from Red Bluff, CA, had a steady year, complete with a strong finish to take home the third spot on the All-American Team. Master Dan Marsh, Eugene, OR played with gusto the entire year, as he raced from event to event on his trusty motorcycle and nailed down over 1,400 MRP's to complete an outstanding year of pegging. Another Master pegger...Bob Bartosh, Sacramento, CA...travelled far and wide in a dedicated drive for MRP's and it paid off with a 5th place finish (1,281). Both Marsh and Bartosh earned their first All-American Team award. Jim Crawford, Mountain View, CA, earned his Life Master during the 2006 campaign and zipped to his 3rd consecutive All-American honor. He very nearly won the National title in 2005 by winning Grand National XXIII (Atlanta) and the JPW/ACC Open in the same year. The odds of that happening again are very remote, indeed.

Master Erik Locke, Portland, OR earned his first All-American team berth by posting a great 1,173 MRP's. Locke is blessed with a very quick (and accurate) mind and can hold his own with the best. Two-Star Warren Sondericker, Milwaukee, WI nailed down his 5th All-American team honor, as this veteran pegger continues his fine play, beginning in the early 1980's. Two Life Masters round out the top ten...Todd Malmgren, Clackamas, OR and Richard Frost, Berlin, WI. Both peggers are nearing their One-Star ratings and had excellent seasons.
