Large Tournaments Dominate

Despite the astronomical cost of gasoline, several large cribbage tournaments took place in the past few weeks:

tournament	attendance
Haines City Open	96
Tax Relief	96
Montana Open	105
Maine Spring Fling	108
Carter Classic	114
New England Spring Fever	122
Super Lite Classic	126
Ocean State Classic	134
Milwaukee Challenge	151
Winnemucca	169
Oregon Coast Classic	210

While the ACC continues to support and build up the smaller tournaments, the excitement of attending a large tournament makes them special.

To walk into a room of 100 or 200 or 400 cribbage players is a thrill that isn't easily matched by other activities. Tournaments provide a wonderful venue to meet old friends, make new ones, and improve your game.

A full listing of the results of recent tournaments may be found on pages 6–10 below. After you peruse this table, be sure to turn to the Tournament Trail on pages 25–32 and pick out a tournament to attend in the next month. You'll be glad you did!

New ACC Judges

The following new judges have been certified:

- William Billow (Hickory NC)
- Craig Campbell (Bellingham WA)
- Karen Dorcas (Kenai AK)
- Dave Elliott (Eau Claire WI)
- John Gwinnup (Loveland CO)
- Evelyn Osaka (Edmonton AB)

The judge's examination is an open-book test based on the ACC rule book, which is available on our website (go to www.cribbage.org and click on the "Rules of Cribbage" link in the left column) or from the Membership Secretary, Larry Hassett. To take the judge's examination, send $3 to the examiner:

My Deal

by David Aiken

The American Cribbage Congress has had its share of intelligent, far-sighted, and creative leaders over the past three decades, and many of them have been (or will be) featured in the monthly Hall of Fame sketches. Bob Julian (Franklin WI) has served the ACC for many years as both a BOD member and an executive officer. Lest any of you start to worry, no, this is not a eulogy—Bob is still very much alive and kicking.

Last fall, at the September BOD meeting in Wisconsin Rapids, Bob stepped down as our Vice President of Operations, and I want to take this occasion to recognize Bob's many contributions that have made our organization bigger and better.

But before I get to that, I offer my apologies to Bill Campbell, the author of last month's Hall of Fame sketch on Nick Pond. Bill's name appeared three times in the May issue, and twice I called him Bob. Not too many cribbage players would be happy with a .333 batting average, and so I fired my proofreader.

Now on to the interview with Bob Julian, conducted via correspondence earlier this year.

Where were you born and raised?

Born in Stoughton WI and raised in Janesville WI.

Where do you live now?

Since 1948 I have lived in Milwaukee and Franklin, a suburb of Milwaukee.

What was your career?

I went in the service and to Europe in 1944 with the 42nd Division. I was transferred to the 90th Division in the Battle of the Bulge as a .30 caliber machine gunner. In June 1945 I was transferred to the staff of the official army newspaper Stars and Stripes in Paris and later assigned to the production staff of the German edition in Pfungstadt, Germany. I helped to close down editions in Nice-Marseille, London, and Paris and then went back to Germany, where I finished as production manager of the Pfungstadt edition. I returned to the States in 1946 and was discharged in April. I was owner of a printing company from 1954 to 1961, board chairman and president of Spectracolor Inc. from 1961 through 1985. This company specialized in the manufacture of printing plates for aluminum cans for the beverage industry and was sole supplier for five Schlitz Brewing Co. can plants, which produced more than fifty billion cans between 1973 and 1985. I liquidated the company in 1985 when I retired.

Bob Julian

When did you start playing cribbage?

My father and uncle taught me, starting in 1927.

Who were your cribbage role models?

My father and uncle.

What are your non-cribbage hobbies?

Your Deal

Letters to CW will be printed on a space-available basis and may be edited for clarity and length. Send letters to cribbage@iserv.net or CW, 9545 28th Street SE, Ada MI 49301-9274. Please include your name, city, and state.

Jim Arblaster

I enjoyed the article in the April issue on Jim Arblaster. He certainly deserves credit as a tireless and enthusiastic promoter of the ACC in its very early days. Here is a copy of a note that he sent me in approximately 1979 when I joined the ACC. He also called me. Again, a very appropriate article on one of the ACC's founding fathers.

Peter Gribbin (Portland ME)

Editor's note: Six members of the Gribbin family—Peter, his wife Ann, and their four children—occupy ACC member numbers 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 18 in the great state of Maine. Thanks to Peter for sharing this tidbit of historical memorabilia with CW's readers.

Golf, bowling, pool. I have bowled with Earl Anthony, Mark Roth, Carmen Salvino, Marshall Holman, Mike Durbin, Ameletto Monacelli, Dell Ballard, Johnny Pertaglia, Walter Ray Williams, Larry Laub, Dick Weber, and many others.

When did you join the ACC?

In 1980 and became a life member in 1981. Joe Wergin was Wisconsin life member no. 1, and I was no. 2. About 1985 or 1986 I met Wisconsin Governor Anthony Earl, signed him up as an ACC member, and asked him to play in one of our tournaments. The next year when I got my ACC membership card, I was Wisconsin no. 3!

What was your first tournament?

Milwaukee in 1980. I qualified and lost in the first round to Bob Immel of Minnesota.

What was your first tournament win?

Milwaukee in 1981.

How much was the prize money?

$178.

How many tournaments do you play each year?

Since the 1993–94 season I have played in 517 tournaments (an average of 37 per year). I have made 193 flying trips (averaging 14 per year) and have totaled 16,861 MRPs (1,204 per year).

What is your favorite tournament?

Many. I have played in all 26 Green Bay tournaments, all 34 St. Croix tournaments, and all the Reno tournaments (TOC and the JPW/ACC Open).

Tournament Tidbits

- ♦ The Super Lite Classic in West Springfield MA had exactly even playoff brackets in both events: 32 players qualified in the main, and 16 in the consolation.
- ♦ Newlyweds Laura & Paul Robertson (FL) won the doubles event at the Haines City Open. Looks like their marriage is off to a good start.
- ♦ Joseph Quinn (MA) played in his first ever tournament at the New England Spring Fever—and he won the consolation! Joe plays Grass Roots with the Saugus MA club.
- ♦ On the other hand, Art Burgess (GA) played cribbage for 45 years before he won a tournament—the Atlanta Classic in April.
- ♦ Hal Lamon (WA) had a 28-hand in doubles at the Montana Open in April. This hand is hard enough to find when you are dealt six cards—but try it with only five cards!
- ♦ Stanley Bochinski (NY) and Jane Cannizzaro (NY) have helped run the Western New York Open since the late 1980s—and their many years of service were rewarded in April when Stan won the main and Jane the consolation at this year's WNYO.
- ♦ Chris McComas (WA) likes playing in the Washington State Open. He reached the Life Master level at this year's tourney, and in previous years he also reached Master and Grand Master while playing at this event.
- ♦ Wayne Steinmetz (WI), the MRP leader in the Central Region, had an absolutely dismal Saturday in the main event at the Milwaukee Challenge. How dismal, you ask? Well, put it this way: his consolation scorecard was higher than his main scorecard!
- ♦ Beware if you play at the Ocean State Classic in Pawtucket RI next year. This year both events were won by players from Ware MA.

- ♦ The Regency Lakes Open, directed by Joe Daesch, in Coconut Creek FL saw three 28-hands in the first hour of play. Unfortunately, one player became so excited that he pegged his 28-hand backward and lost the game!
- ♦ Cribbage in a grocery store? Yep! The recent Colonial Cribbage Classic, directed by Bill Whiting, was held at Ukrop's Supermarket in Williamsburg VA, in a room overlooking the produce section.
- ♦ In the High Rollers event at the Oregon Coast Classic, DeLynn Colvert (MT) realized that if he won the last game he would likely be the winner. Needing 14 points, he called on the dealer to "deal me three 5s and a Jack." Remarkably, the dealer complied. Counting first, DeLynn won the game and the event!

In Memoriam

Dwayne Brooks

Dwayne Brooks (Winston-Salem NC) passed away at the young age of 58 on April 24, of a heart attack. Dwayne truly exemplified the meaning of gamesmanship with his “take it in stride” attitude. After a losing night at the cribbage table, he would smile and simply say, “Hey, no big deal, it’s only a game.” He enjoyed the fellowship more than the game itself, and his “devil may care” demeanor always reminded us that life was too short to worry about the little things. He often arrived early at club to set up the tables and stayed late to help clean up after the event was completed. He was one of a kind and will be truly missed.

Bill McCammon

Bill McCammon (Incline Village NV) passed away this winter at the age of 97. As ACC number NV-001 he had played the World Championship Cribbage Tournament in Quincy CA before the ACC was formed. Bill played only a few local tournaments (Reno, Tahoe, Quincy) and had recently played with Grass Roots Club 222 for a couple of years. He scored three 29-hands in his long life—one when he was 12 years old, one in his 90s, and one in between. He was a kind and gentle man but also a great competitor and will be missed by family and friends.

Terry Paulson

Terry Paulson (Sun Lakes AZ) died peacefully and pain free on March 3 at age 67, of prostate cancer that metastasized throughout his body. Terry is survived by his wife, Judy, four adult children/stepchildren and their spouses, and eight grandchildren. Terry was a member of the Arizona Roadrunners Club. He loved playing cribbage and totally enjoyed the people he played with, leaving behind many friends made over the years. He will be missed by all.

Samuel Rubin

Sam Rubin (Springfield PA), a longtime loyal member of Club 115 and a devoted player, died on March 3, after a long illness. Always the first to arrive, to get in an extra game or two before our formal competition, Sam greeted everyone with a smile—and a tough game. Sam’s family gave his pegs to the club for each month’s winner to use the next month, so that he will be continually remembered—and missed all the more.

Fred Schaf

Fred Schaf (Hamburg NY), a longtime member of Club #5 in western New York passed away recently. Winner of the Bronze Award in Grass Roots play, Fred lived a full life until old age caught up with him.

Not Your Average Joe!

The following ACC members have moved past Joe Wergin’s lifetime total of 1,728 MRPs:

1863	Jerry Newhouse, WI
1744	Liz Stockdale, OR
1740	John Campanella, MA
1739	Bill McCammon, NV

VOLUNTEERS

ACC Internet Committee

WRITTEN AND EDITED BY TOM LEWIS

After being appointed chair of the ACC Rules Committee by the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors, I formed a task group composed of the following persons:

- David Campbell (ME)
- Phyllis Schmidt (MA)
- Wayne Steinmetz (WI)
- Valerie Sumner (NV)

In addition, the following will serve as advisors: Jones Hom (CA) and Roger Lueschow (WA) will interact with me at tournaments about rules problems. Martha Fingleton (WI) and Syl Lulinski (IL), members of the previous rules committee, will provide historical perspective on current rules and previous rules changes. Jeff Shimp (MI) is in charge of the judging program and will look at ideas from the perspective of judges. All of these people are judges or senior judges.

The ACC's official tournament rules (which may be found in the current rule book or online at cribbage.org) were last revised in 2004, and periodically these rules need to be examined and altered, as players and judges discover problems with the way in which rules are interpreted. The rules committee members examine any matter with the rules that they discover or is brought to their attention by the membership. At some point (perhaps in two years), a set of revisions will be brought to the BOD, and ultimately this will result in a new set of rules for players to follow and judges to enforce.

Sometimes changes are controversial. One such change was the elimination of the "peg out rule." Some players would like to see us return to that earlier rule. Perhaps some of you reading this would like to address this issue, and the rules committee will consider your ideas on this or any other change that you bring to their attention. Not every suggestion will result in a change in the rules, but all will be examined for their merits.

Occasionally the adopted language proves ambiguous and leads to interpretation. For example, rule 8.4a.(1) seems to say that merely "pegging into the game (out) hole" without sufficient points to reach that hole—regardless of whether the peg is released—constitutes false claim of game. But since rule 8.3 notes that "a correction is not permitted after the player's fingers are removed from the peg," the key point seems to be that a player still has the right to make a correction (in this case remove the peg from the game hole) if the peg has not been released. The rules committee will try to clarify issues like this at any time they are needed, even before a rule book revision.

If you know of a person or group or people who should be recognized for their volunteer work, contact Tom Lewis at tomlewis@spinn.net. This month's column was written by Herschel Mack.

“DOUBLE THE ACC BY YEAR 2016” SURVEY

Did you see the “ACC Membership Report Card” in the March 2007 Cribbage World? A “Double the ACC by Year 2016” Group has been formed and is growing. The group has two goals: (1) Help ACC members with membership promotion. (2) Increase ACC membership by at least ten percent each year. The plan is to learn what, where, when, how, and why membership promotion works and make that information available to ACC members.

The purpose of this survey is to collect information on experiences and ideas that can help ACC membership. In addition to knowing what has been tried, we need new ideas. You might suggest a key change or have a wild idea that the ACC needs. We would love to hear from any ACC member. We are especially anxious to hear from tournament directors, club directors, and board members.

Ideally your answers will be by e-mail or e-mail attachment. But U.S. mail will also work. Send e-mail to norm.crib@adelphia.net. Send U.S. mail to: Norman Nikodym/USOCT, 12345 Mountain Avenue, Suite N-177, Chino CA 91710. Include your name and ACC number.

Answer only the questions that apply for you. If you are not answering on this page or a copy, write the question number ahead of each answer.

1. About how many ACC open tournaments per year are held within 300 miles of your home?
2. On average, in how many ACC open tournaments do you play per year?
3. If you advertise for ACC open tournaments, is any of the advertising directed at non-ACC players? Any ideas on how to do that?
4. Do you feel your Grass Roots club is growing, dropping, or staying even? What do you feel is causing the change?
5. The nearest Grass Roots club is about how many driving hours from you?
6. If not a GR member, would you join a GR club located within an hour of your home? If not, why?
7. Does your GR club allow minors to participate? If not, why?

Advertisement Paid by Norm Nikodym

8. About what percentage of your GR club members are under 65? Does your club have a way to attract people in the 20-50 age group?
9. Does your Grass Roots club have written by-laws?
10. Important Question: Describe your membership promotion experiences. What has been successful for you?
11. Without considering the cost, what magazines would you think might be good for finding new ACC members?
12. Do you have experiences or suggestions about radio, television, or Internet?
13. What other paid or unpaid advertising options might work: newspaper, magazine, fliers, business cards, etc.?
14. What free advertising do you know about? Have you tried it?
15. Besides advertising, what changes to tournaments, GR clubs, etc. would improve ACC membership or participation?
16. Do you know if your state's laws or local laws place any restrictions on tournaments, Grass Roots clubs, casino partnerships, or participation by minors? Are you familiar with any of the legal codes?
17. What has worked for you in finding places for meetings and tournaments?
18. Why do you think people do not join the ACC or do not stay?
19. What do you know about the cribbage leagues in Great Britain?
20. Often cribbage is popular in bars. How can we attract those players?
21. Do you have experience working in advertising of any kind? Describe.
22. Would you like to join the "Double the ACC by Year 2016" Group?
23. What else would you like to add?
24. Is it okay if a member of our group contacts you to clarify an answer?

Thanks for your help.

ACC Awards

Life Master

#141. Robert Kaplan (Randolph MA)
Bob started playing ACC cribbage in 1988, and his first win came in Pawtucket RI in 1989 against Stan Forczyk, his mentor. Bob achieved his Life Master rating by finishing 5-8 at the Second New England Spring Fever Tournament on April 1. He plays Grass Roots cribbage at Club 109 in Stoughton MA, and his favorite tournaments are those run by Sharlene and Bill Mederios.

#142. Tony Danihel (Brookfield WI)
Tony learned to play cribbage as a youngster, sixty years ago. Marinette is his favorite tournament, but he achieved his Life Master rating by finishing 5-8 at the Milwaukee Challenge on April 22. He plays Grass Roots cribbage with the Milwaukee Peggers (Club 6).

Master

#670. Kathy Atwood (Kuna ID)

Reader contributions are encouraged. Items of interest to Grass Roots players should be sent to Tom at tomlewis@spinn.net or 7916 Eagle Rock Ave NE, Albuquerque NM 87122-2753.

Rule of the Month—Mixing the Crib with Other Cards: If the pone mixes the crib with the pack, the pone is penalized two points and the dealer is permitted to retrieve the crib and peg the value. If there is a disagreement on the cards, summon a judge.

Grass Roots high scorecards—the highest known scorecard for an 18-game GRRT or GRNT was a 37/16 +385 scored in the 2003 GRNT on March 25, 2003, by Willie Evans (WA). The highest scorecard for a 9-game Grass Roots tournament is a 24/9 +303 scored by Stan Hayton (NM) on January 29, 2000.

We all know that the cards turn, don't we? In Club 271's (Albuquerque NM) April 28 tournament, Sue Lyon lost her first five games and was skunked in two of them. In game 6 she played Dick Westphal and skunked him by 77 holes! Sue went on to win the rest of her games that day. Payback indeed! submitted by Dick Westphal and Tom Lewis

Maybe age does matter! At their recently concluded GRNT in Atlanta, Clubs 74, 119, and 144 combined efforts to hold one

Is the story unique or rare? How recently have we printed an article from your club? Finally, shorter is generally better.

tourney. The "old folks" showed the young whippersnappers how the game should be played. The two oldest players—octogenarian Roy Grayson, who began Grass Roots play only this year, and septuagenarian Jack Allison—reined supreme in victimizing the other 24 players. Roy won seven games and posted a 15-GP card for first place in the initial nine games. Jack blew everyone away with a grand slam (19 GPs) in the second half, to take top honors with a sizzling 30/14 +116. Terry Sloope, not yet an AARP member, posted his first ever 28-hand, which was instrumental in enabling him to finish in second place. submitted by David O'Neil

Jackson Peggars Club #332 has had another 28-hand. On April 25 Daniel Postl held three 5s and a face card, and the cut revealed the other 5. submitted by Walter Wasielewski

Club 199 (Midtown WI)—twenty-one players attended our April 25 tournament, and fifteen of them won over half of their games. The top scorecard was 13/6; second place was 12/6; third through ninth place all scored 11/5; and tenth through fifteenth scored 10/5. The top nine people received Grass Roots points. submitted by Bonnie and Daryl Halopka

Club 288 played its GRNT on April 14, with players from Clubs 323 and 344. It was a great day to play cribbage, for it rained on and off all day. During the morning half, Ben Hanson had a grand slam (20/9), and Patrick Donahue won eight games but lost his grand slam by one point. In the second half, Ron Clarke also had a grand slam (18/9). submitted by Dave Carey

When it rains, it pours! After waiting over five years for our first 29-hand, the Chippewa Valley Cribbage Club (Eau Claire WI) achieved our second 29-hand on April 4 when Marv Johnson, brother-in-law to our first recipient of the coveted accomplishment, held the magic combination just three months and a day later. Congratulations, Marv; the family reunions should go a lot smoother. submitted by Terry C. Pederson

Boise Peggers—Dick Thomas, who has been playing cribbage over forty years, drew a 28-hand on April 23 and another one on April 30. Dave Suhr dealt the first 28-hand and lost the game. Cecil Jensen dealt the second one a week later, and she also lost. Our club, organized only five years, has had only one other 28-hand. submitted by Don Kunz

Club 191 (Canby OR)—on March 20 Dave Imholt scored both a 28-hand and a grand slam. However, Stan Wilson with eight wins and three skunks knocked Dave down to second place that night. Frank Schoenborn took first place with a grand slam on April 24. For comparison only, we recalculated our first 32 weeks of the season using the new scoring system. None of our twenty-two members would have received fewer points under the new system, and eighteen would have received more points. For Dave Imholt, four weeks with 13 GPs and two weeks with 12 GPs weren't good enough under the current system. By adding in these 76 GPs, Dave would move into first place. submitted by Donald Smith

Kissimmee Kribbage Klub 341 has closed its books for the season, and what a wonderful time we had in our twenty tournaments. Phyllis Finazzo and Donna Judkins were both dealt 28-hands, and Don Reny was the proud owner of the only perfect 29-hand. Visitor Lee Bailey worked very hard for his grand slam. Ray Wanke rose to the top of the club, with Doris Hubbard a close second. An awards luncheon is planned for the fall, when our Snowbirds fly back south for the 2007–2008 season. We want to thank the ACC, Joan Rein, Cathy Perkins, Tom Lewis, and Dave O'Neil for all their support and help. What a dedicated group of people, and it is a pleasure to be a member of that team to help promote our favorite game. Keep those pegs moving! submitted by Nancy Wanke

25 Years Ago in the ACC

Most of the entire June 1982 Cribbage World was given over to a detailed description of the upcoming Inaugural Tournament and Awards Banquet, to be held in Milwaukee in September. The entry fee was a whopping $56, which included $17.50 for the Awards Banquet.

Elsewhere in this issue, we learn that Ervin (the St. Paul Flash) Patrín is back on top of the leader board.

Get the Word Out!

The ACC printed thousands of marketing flyers and needs your help distributing them.

What is it?

An attractive marketing flyer that advertises the ACC and your local cribbage club.

Where do I put it?

Hang it up on bulletin boards at . . .

- restaurants, pizza parlors, delis, taverns
- bookstores

What cribbage tournaments have you directed?

Coordinator of the 1982 Grand National in Milwaukee and co-director of the 1999 Grand National in Las Vegas.

Do you play in a Grass Roots club?

Yes, in Milwaukee Club #6. I have played in some 20–25 clubs throughout the U.S., and I think that our club is one of the strongest—and certainly plays the longest: from 8 to 14 players stay and play side games until we are asked to leave at 1:00 or 2:00 a.m.

When were you elected to the BOD?

First elected in 1983. I was off the board for four years in the late 1980s and then on the BOD ever since, for a total of twenty years.

What are your greatest accomplishments as a BOD member?

While I was Director of Publicity and Promotion, the ACC membership increased from about 3,000 to over 5,000. I won the Guy Pence Award twice for bringing in new members. I was in complete charge of the Jeff Monroe case and received $30,000 restitution for the ACC. I coordinated the selection of Larry Hassett as Membership Secretary and of Bob McCabe as Treasure. I created bonding of ACC members handling large sums of money.

What could the ACC do to attract members?

If each ACC member would sign up one new member each year, our membership would double.

What were your thoughts upon being inducted into the Hall of Fame in 2005?

I thought I was being recognized for many years of serving and promoting the ACC, in spite of the intensity I may display during my play. Yet when the award was presented, I was humbled and speechless.

The list of your cribbage exploits is long: All American 7 times, National Champion 4 times, 19,635 MRPs lifetime, 23 tournament wins—is there anything you haven't accomplished that you wanted to?

To win the TOC, Grand National, JPW/ACC Open, and finally win a tournament at age 95—maybe 100! Dream on!

What cribbage exploit are you proudest of?

Winning the ACC's National Championship and the National Long Match in the same year, 1999, and winning three consecutive tournaments—each in a different region of the country—in June 2002.

If you had a cribbage wish, what would it be?

That each player at least once in a lifetime could count a 29-hand in sanctioned play.

What tournament win slipped away?

The River City (CA) tournament on March 9, 2003. I had won the tournament the previous year and was playing Richard Wardenburg in the best-of-7 final. I easily won the first three games. Richard took a short break to get spiritual assistance, came back, and won the next three games. The deciding game was close all the way, with Richard winning by one hole—a gracious and happy winner.

What was the biggest mistake you ever made playing cribbage?

A list of my mistakes would probably take up the rest of this issue of CW, but this stands out: letting an opponent peg some 23 points on the last hand of a match, when I needed only 6 points to win.

What got you hooked on cribbage?

It was a game that required very little manual dexterity, but a lot of mental exertion. I still have inlaid cribbage boards that I made in 1938.

Why did you become a student of the game?

After playing in the ACC for a number of years and many times missing qualifying by only one game, I decided it was about time to figure out why.

What fuels your passion for cribbage?

The fact that it keeps me active, traveling all over the U.S.

What has cribbage meant in your life?

It has given me an extended family of wonderful, gracious people in all walks of life, who have added immeasurably to my life. May the good Lord bless each and every one of you.

Where do you predict the ACC will be in twenty years?

Please ask me this question in 2027, at which time I could be the world's oldest living ACC member.
