2010–2011 Season Closes

Duane Toll—For the Seventh Time!

The 2010–2011 season closed with a bang on July 31, as Life Master (5★) Duane Toll (Sutherlin OR) successfully defended his national championship. Twenty-seven sanctioned tournaments were held in July—with an astounding twelve of them in the last week alone!

For most of the season, Duane seemed content to play second fiddle to Life Master (2★) Roland Hall (Napa CA). Roland led the field for six months, occasionally yielding the driver's seat to Life Master (★) Erik Locke (Portland OR), who finished the season in fifth place, or to up-and-comer Life Master (★) Willie Evans (Richland WA), who finished sixth.

Duane did rise to first place briefly in March, but for months he lagged a couple hundred MRPs behind Roland. With only eight weeks to go, he had pretty much reconciled himself to finishing second. But then the calendar flipped to July 1.

Duane spent July traveling to tournaments in the Western Region with Life Master Bob Bartosh (Sacra-

This is pretty much all that anyone saw of Duane during July, as he pulled away from the field!

My Deal

by David Aiken

People sometimes ask why they never see their name in Cribbage World. My standard answer is that they didn't pay the $50 fee!

Of course, I almost never charge a fee to print someone's name in CW. It's simply a matter of performing some cribbage feat worthy of recognition.

In case you need a reminder of the various options open to you, here's a (nearly) complete list of how to see your name in black and white:

- Join the ACC. Every month the names of new members appear in a state-by-state listing.
- Write a story about your Grass Roots club. Something memorable, unique, or strange happen in club last night? Let Grass Roots Corner columnist Dave Gerke know the details right now—before you forget 'em.
- Win a tournament. Better yet, win a major and get your picture on the cover of CW!
- Win an internet tournament. Ditto.
- Get a 29-hand or 28-hand. Big hands are recognized each month in the list of tournament results.
- Have a unique cribbage board that others might enjoy seeing? Contact Jay Fulwider to find out if it's suitable for the Cribbage Board of the Month column.
- Celebrate a milestone birthday. If your age ends in a zero, CW wants to know about your upcoming b-day.
- Run for the BOD. Every odd-numbered year BOD candidates are allotted 200 words to state their campaign platform—accompanied by a gargantuan photo of each candidate.

- Buy an ad. Commercials in keeping with the ACC's goal to promote cribbage are accepted for every issue. Rates are reasonable, and you can print your name in big, bold type.
- Become a judge. It costs a measly three bucks to take the judge's test, but you get a cool certificate—and you learn something about the rules of the game.
- Write a letter to the editor. Got a pet cribbage peeve? Did the CW editor's column really fry your grits? Let him—and the entire ACC membership—know where you stand.
- Hand me my worst loss of the month and your name appears in the box below. Observant readers will notice that there's also room to include the name of the player that I beat by the most points each month.
- Make sure you did something twenty-five years ago. To see your name in the "25 Years Ago" column, either you had

Letters to CW will be printed on a space-available basis and may be condensed or edited for clarity and length (150 words maximum). Send letters to cribbage@iserv.net or P.O. Box 313, Ada MI 49301-0313. Please include your name, city, and state.

Cribbage World Back Issues

I have just read the latest CW cover to cover. The explanation of abbreviations used in the magazine was great! Several references were made to a previous issue of CW for more info (for example, how MRPs are earned). All the references were to issues published long before I became an ACC member. Are the back issues available on the internet? If so, please direct me to them. If not, is this something that could be done?

Jeanie Sorensen (San Ramon CA)

CW response: Yes, back issues of Cribbage World are available online, but before I get to that, please note that the seasonal dates for the GRNT and GRRT were reversed in last month's issue: the GRNT is held in the spring of each year, and the GRRT in the fall. Here's how to find CW back issues:

- go to cribbage.org
- click on "Cribbage World" in the left column
- for any issue from 2009, 2010, and 2011, click on the appropriate link in the center column
- for any issue from 2008 and previous, click on "Cribbage World Archives" in the right column

Questionable Cribbage Rule

An unusual situation occurred at our Grass Roots club a couple weeks ago. The dealer dealt the cards, and each player placed two cards in the crib. The cards were cut, and the pone placed a card down to begin pegging. When the card was played, two cards that were stuck together separated.

It was then noted that the pone had five cards in his hand. The rule in this situation made the pone's hand dead, but pegging continued with only the dealer scoring points. This rule doesn't seem fair because the dealer made the mistake of dealing too many cards to the pone, and when the pone didn't notice the mistake because two cards were stuck together he was penalized. It would seem that a redeal would be more applicable in this situation.

Don Wolf (Madison WI)

CW response: Don is referring to rule 4.4d.13 (page 17 in the 2010 rulebook), which states, "The dealer's pegging points count. Any points scored by the pone during the pegging are retracted. The pone's hand is dead. The dealer's hand is counted." While this may seem harsh, the pone shares equal responsibility for counting his/her cards to make sure that there are six—and only six—of 'em. Rule 4.2b reinforces this concept: "The pone has a responsibility to observe the dealing and to call attention to any irregularities."

Cribbage on Rosh Hashanah

I have been an ACC member since 1988 and a cribbage player since 1942. I was planning on attending Grand National until I realized that the second day of Rosh Hashanah falls on the first day of Grand National. I would not expect the ACC to schedule a tournament on Good Friday or similar Christian holiday or any other major religious observance day. I think an apology is called for and any future mento CA), sleeping in his own bed only twice during the month. Starting with Susanville CA on July 1 and ending with Sunnyside WA on July 31, he played ten tournaments, making the cut in six of ten mains and in two of four consolations. He earned MRPs at eight events (missing out entirely only in Vacaville CA on July 23 and Sonoma CA on July 24). He won three main tourneys, took second in a consolation, and had two semifinal and one quarterfinal finishes. He earned qualifying MRPs in five of his six main qualifications, including high qualifier in Topaz and second high qualifier in Reno.

Region All Star team! In addition, of the 3,564 current ACC members who have earned MRPs, Duane's one-month total of 829 would rank #1,074 lifetime!

Duane's cards were running so hot in July that he racked up the most MRPs that he—or anyone—has ever earned in one month, and he even won a sixty-player poker tourney. In a sense, Duane controlled his own destiny, as three times he went head-to-head with Roland in the playoffs, and Duane prevailed all three times, which had significant bearing on the final standings.

At this time last year, Duane trailed

Life Master (6★) DeLynn Colvert (Missoula MT) by 3,244 MRPs and seven tournaments. Despite DeLynn him-

DUANE TOLL'S VERY BUSY JULY

During July alone Duane earned 829 MRPs, overtook Roland by 229 MRPs, earned his third consecutive and seventh national championship (previous championships were in 1987, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2009, and 2010), and set a new MRP record of 2,771!

To put Duane's 829 MRPs in July into perspective, consider this. During the 2010–2011 season, 1,557 ACC members earned MRPs. Duane's July total alone was higher than 1,519 of them; put another way, his 829 MRPs during July would rank #38 in the nation last season, and it would earn him a spot on the Central self having his second best year ever (1,953 MRPs), Duane made up some ground on DeLynn. As of July 31, their lifetime numbers looked like this:

	MRPs	wins
#1. DeLynn	35,740	74
#2. Duane	33,314	68
DeLynn's lead =	2,426	6

Elsewhere around the ACC, many top players used the month of July to move up in the regional standings or to solidify their rankings. Here are the significant accomplishments of the top eight in each region (top ten in the West) during July:

In other tournament news, the 38th National Open in Raleigh NC—the last major of the cribbage season—was won by Lance Browne (Portland ME), who rolled through the undefeated bracket unscathed. He then took down Life Master Bruce Sattler (Nottingham MD) in the finals to earn 226 MRPs — v e r y nearly eclipsing his previous lifetime total of 238 MRPs. Master Janet Viands (Reston VA) took third, with Master Holli Remington (Franklin MA) capturing fourth. CW

ACC CHALLENGE #4

The ACC Challenge begins this September. Add up your scores from the qualifying rounds in three tournaments to see if you win: Grand National 30, the 2012 TOC, and the 2012 ACC Open. There are two prize funds: $50 and $100, with 100% payback to 1 in 10. Contact David Aiken (cribbage@iserv.net or 616.401.8311) to sign up. Entry deadline is the start of play on Saturday morning, October 1.

Tournament Tidbits

Canadian Summer Classic Kim Israel (Edmonton AB) blasted Flo Skowronski (Edmonton AB) by a mere 83 holes—the largest defeat that CW has heard of in recent years! Dave Tomlinson (Edmonton AB), almost 90 years young, tangled with Mike Milobar (Edmonton AB), 80 years young, during the consolation semifinals. Let's just say that youth prevailed on this occasion.

Susanville Summer Classic Master Patricia Gossett (Prineville OR) wiped out Grand Master Graeme Gossett in three games, then eliminated Life Master (5★) Duane Toll (Sutherlin OR) in straight sets, and captured the championship—and her first main win—by defeating Life Master (★) Ross Njaa (Salinas CA) in the finals. For those of you keeping score at home, Patti is now 2-0 against her hubby in playoffs.

St. Croix Classic What goes around, comes around! On Friday night, Master

David Aiken (Ada MI) dealt a 28-hand to Jacob Holappa (Palmer MI). So it was only fitting that on Saturday night, David dealt one to himself! Both hands were worth a cool $250. In addition, David cut into seven 24-hands on the weekend! The St. Croix Casino not only provided free coffee, juice, and soda for all players all weekend long, but it paid out nearly $10,000 in player bonuses:

24-hands	248 x $25	= $6,200
28-hands	7 x $250	= $1,750
grand slam	1 x $100	= $100
free buffet	176 x $9.95	= $1,750
total paid:		$9,800

High Qualifier = Winner of Tourney?

Reading the tournament results in Cribbage World each month, I had noticed that being high qualifier didn't have significant value in regards to winning the tourney. I went through back copies of CW to record final position versus being high qualifier. I looked at the most recent 468 main tournaments and 442 consolations and came up with these results. In the main, the high qualifier won the tournament 12% of the time, came in second or third 24% of the time, and finished fifth or worse in 64% of tournaments. Consolation matches were similar, with 13% winning, second or third 31% of the time, and fifth or worse 56% of the time. Perhaps the slightly higher returns for consolations might be the result of having to play fewer matches, giving more power to seed position, or because there is less pressure to win when the only people in the room are a few players and the tournament director.

A player recently had a terrible, no good, very bad Saturday night at the Rockford Summer Classic. Don't stare too long at this eyesore, lest you too end up with six skunks in the wrong column. That's gotta hurt!

Skunk

As an ACC member I am often asked: What is the significance of the skunk and double skunk? The rules define them this way: "to win by 31 (or 61) or more points," respectively. Is this just bragging rights? Or is there some legitimate consequence for this? In recreational cribbage, is a skunk considered a double win? This probably is an elementary question for tournament players, but I don't know the answer.

Al Shelmerdine (Olympia WA)

CW response: The skunk concept has been part of the game since Sir John Suckling's time. In some circles, a skunk is considered a double win, and if money is riding on the outcome of the game it is usually doubled. In the ACC, of course, a win is worth two points, while a skunk is worth three points. If any reader knows why 31 and 61 were chosen as the number of holes to be skunked or double skunked by, please let CW know.

ACC Awards

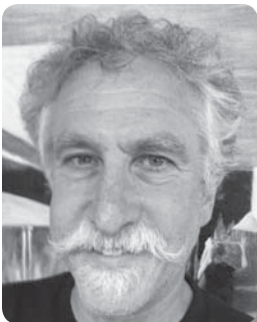

Paul Hatcher
(Salem OR)
Life Master (3★) #8

After retiring from the Oregon Department of Transportation in December 1987, Paul learned to play cribbage from some bowling buddies. After placing second in a tournament at a local bar, Paul joined the ACC in 1990. Paul's cribbage mentor is DeLynn Colvert. He started traveling to tournaments with DeLynn a couple years after joining the ACC (one such trip covered 10,287 miles in fifteen days!), and during their travels they discussed playing strategy (especially DeLynn's "26-theory"), trap plays, playing on/playing off, and many other topics. Paul's first sanctioned win was in Prineville OR in 1991, and he has since won twenty-four tourneys (twelve of each variety). Paul has been club champion several times and needs only 82 more GRPs to earn his Gold Award. His favorite tournaments are the three Reno tourneys. His toughest opponents are many, but of those he has played many games against Paul lists DeLynn, Rollie Heath (nearly 11,000 games to date!), Tom Langford, and Tom Cookman. Paul's all-time favorite cribbage moments include his induction into the ACC Hall of Fame and tying DeLynn for the national title in 2004. Other hobbies include maintaining his home and working on his small acreage, watching sporting events, and fishing.

Frank's parents taught him to play cribbage when he was nineteen. He and his wife, Ginny, joined the ACC in 1985 and ran the first sanctioned tournament in Appleton WI—the Polish Open. They introduced "leastski" tournaments (in which you try to lose) and also started the Polish Open Grass Roots Club, which is still active. Frank has won nineteen tournaments, beginning with a victory over Warren Sondericker at the 1996 MGM Open in Green Bay. His favorite tournament is the St. Croix Classic at Turtle Lake WI. Frank says that his toughest opponent is "the person on the other side of the board playing me for $5"; it is absolute "knee-knocking terror." Frank is still looking for his first 29-hand; on the other hand, Ginny has had five of 'em—which she reminds him of every so often so that his head does not get too swelled up!

Frank Danielski
(Little Chute WI)
Life Master (2★) #21

Cy Madrone
(Santa Barbara CA)
Life Master (★) #68

Cy learned to play cribbage at Camp Nebagamon in northwest Wisconsin at the age of eleven, making his first board out of laminated Plexiglas. He joined the ACC in its first year, and his early mentors include DeLynn Colvert and Steve Reynolds. Later influences include Jesse Jarrell, Warren Sondericker, Peter Setian, and Duane Toll, as well as lessons learned playing kitchen-table cribbage with Ira Deutsch and Roland Hall. Cy has won eighteen tournaments to date. His favorite all-time cribbage moment was losing a game in the stink hole with first count and his opponent, Nancy Forte, 29 points away! When not playing cribbage, Cy enjoys soaking in natural hot springs, riding a BMW motorcycle on serpentine canyon roads, and seeking out micro-breweries when he travels.

Bill's dad taught him cribbage the hard way—they played muggins from the first game—so it's no wonder that Bill looks to his dad as a cribbage mentor. Bill joined the ACC in 1989 and has won exactly one tourney—again proving that you can go a long way in ACC rankings by playing smart cribbage. Bill has earned his Silver Award and has been club champion at Oregon's Capital Club 46 three times. Bill's toughest opponent passed away in 1998, but right now Roy Hofbauer plays that role. Bill spends his free time making cribbage board trophies, which have been awarded to hundreds of players around the country. He also enjoys bicycling and bowling.

William P. O'Malley
(Salem OR)
Grand Master #311

Bob's father taught him to play cribbage when Bob was ten years old. He joined the ACC in the mid-1990s, and the late, great Rit Alkas was his cribbage mentor. A member of Metro-Hartford Club 26, Bob has earned his Bronze Award. Bob has won four main tournaments and counts the National Open in Raleigh NC as his favorite. Bob says everyone is tough, but Bill Shoemaker is near the top of his list. Bob enjoys singing in his church choir and is a lifelong Mason.

Robert Fitzgerald
(East Hartford CT)
Grand Master #314

Carl learned to play cribbage from a workmate, Joe Zimmitti, back in 1990. He then joined the ACC in 1992 and won his first tourney at the 1993 Yankee Classic. The late, great Harvey Glass was his mentor, and Rob Medeiros is his toughest opponent. Also a Bronze Award winner, Carl was club champion this year at the ever-tough Metro-Hartford Club 26. Carl enjoys watching UConn basketball and most other New England sports, walking, and cooking breakfast for his family—but only on noncribbage Sundays!

Carl Deyette
(East Hartford CT)
Grand Master #315

Beth's dad, Bob Woller—the reigning Turtle Lake champion—taught her how to play cribbage. She joined the ACC in 2005 and looks to Keith Widener and Dave Aiken as her cribbage mentors (she ads: "Even though I beat them"). She won her first tournament in Crystal Lake IL in 2007, when she beat her future husband in the finals. She's won six tourneys to date—but none in her home state! Beth's toughest opponent is the person who has lost their first eight games (a shout-out to Dan Taylor). Beth loves going to zoos and has visited dozens of them during her cribbage weekends. Kids and grandkids also rank high on the list of noncribbage interests.

Beth Widener
(Green Bay WI)
Grand Master #316

Cribbage Board of the Month

BY JAY FULWIDER

I obtained this cribbage board in a rather round-about way.

During a break in the action at the Washington State Cribbage Championship in Centralia WA last April, Mike Rowe (Soldotna AK) was looking at this fishing-lure cribbage board, which was part of the fund-raising raffle. He commented how good it would look hanging in his cabin on the Kenai Peninsula in Alaska. I told Mike that it would look just as good in my cabin on the Olympic Peninsula in Washington!

As it turned out, Willie Evans (Richland WA) won the board. He had overheard Mike and me and said he would entertain offers for the board. Mike made an offer he couldn't refuse. Mike then agreed to let me take the board so that I could photograph and write it up for this column.

Several weeks later, Mike visited the Sea-Tac Peggers Grass Roots Club in Federal Way WA, where I play. He set an identical board in front of me and said, "Keep the one that you used for the photo." It turns out that another friend of Mike's—Brittany Pierce (Springfield OR)—also overheard our conversation at the tournament. Not knowing that Mike had bought the board from Willie, she found one and gave it to him. Every board has a story.

Named "Vintage Lure Cribbage Board," this board is sold online at outsideinsidegifts.com. I know it reproduces okay in black and white for this article, but use your imagination to visualize green, yellow, and red. I know those big Kenai salmon would like it.

Jay Fulwider collects cribbage boards in picturesque Washington State. Ideas for and questions about this column may be sent to him at budandotis@msn.com (put "Cribbage Board" in the subject line). For more information on cribbage boards and collecting, visit cribbageboardsonline.com, the Cribbage Board Collectors Society website.

NOTES FROM CRIBBAGELAND

by JORDAN WIKLUND

There are three things you should know about hobos:

- They can sing and dance very well, and many are natural storytellers.
- Hoboism is increasingly recognized as an important part of 19th- and early 20th-century nation-building. This self-proclaimed migratory workforce helped build the roads and railways that form the intricate web and infrastructure of the United States' transportation routes.
- When work was scarce, they often relied on craftwork to support themselves from town to town. Some carved cribbage boards.

For a few days in August, the small town of Britt IA is host to the National Hobo Convention. I spent a few days there this year and learned quite a bit about this often maligned and misunderstood group of people.

The etymology of hobo is attributed to a few different sources; some early 'bos carried hoes, and the words hoe boy may have been shortened to hobo. Others attribute it to early foremen calling "Ho, boy!" when in need of an extra hand on the farm or railroad, hailing nomadic passersby.

Whichever the case, I met some of the most well-known hobos of the twentieth century, those who could still speak about life after the Depression on the "high iron" of the Burlington Northern railroads and other diesel and steam-driven engines.

At the National Hobo Museum on Britt's Main Avenue, I met Linda Hughes, curator and preserver of hobo memorabilia. I learned about Irving "Fishbones" Stevens and saw a hobo-style cribbage board he made years ago. The metal board is driven through with five bronze pins, while a small screw hides four copper pegs. Fishbones was known to make many wooden boards, but this is the only metal one anyone knows about.

I also met Frog, former King of the Hobos (1997), who described Fishbones as a "genteel and kind-hearted wanderer." Frog plays the game as well, and learned it from a hobo named Pinky in the late '50s, after Frog ran away from the comfortable New England life he knew. He spoke of hobo and cribbage codes of honor. Of the muggins rule, he laughed, saying he liked to cheat . . . legally: "Only after the opponent has counted his points!" CW

A writer living in St. Paul MN, Jordan is working on a book, CribbageLand: The People, Craft, and Culture of a Curious Game. Read more about it at cribbageland.com or on Facebook and Twitter @JordanWiklund.

In Memoriam

Jean M. Boyce

Jean Boyce (Hancock MI), age 68, passed away July 15 at her home following a lengthy illness. She was a valued member of Grass Roots Club 333 in Lake Linden MI. Because of health problems she was unable to play much this past season, but she will be remembered for the laughter she brought to the tables. Our sympathy goes out to husband Bob and son Rob (fellow players) and the rest of her family.

Dennis A. Braswell

Dennis Braswell (Renton WA), age 67, a member of Sea-Tac Peggys Club 148 and the Travelers' Club, passed away on July 2. He suffered from lung cancer and bladder cancer, but hid it well, and the club members were shocked at the news. He loved to play cribbage and, win or lose, he was a great competitor. Always willing to help out, Dennis often arrived early to help set up the boards and perhaps get in a game or two before the start of the weekly tournament. He played mostly Grass Roots clubs, and when he wasn't playing at his home club, he was playing at the Salem OR club, where he had a lot of friends. He was remodeling a home near Salem, where he planned to retire.

Ray Entringer

Ray Entringer (Plano TX), age 91, passed away on April 19. Dallas Club 106 will miss him greatly. Ray was a very special member of our club. He was nicknamed "Mr. 28" because he managed six 28-hands in one year! Not an easy feat, but Ray seemed to attract them. We knew that Ray was with us in spirit at our next club meeting and smiling down from the big cribbage board in the sky, as two people scored three 28-hands. At his memorial service we told some great cribbage stories about Ray. He was a fierce competitor, a great storyteller, and a good friend. We all miss him very much.

Robert M. Gilligan

Robert Gilligan (Brigantine NJ) passed away on July 8, after a three-year illness. Originally a member of Mid-Atlantic Club 115 in Elkins Park PA, after his retirement he and his wife Barbara joined Baltimore Club 178. Bob was proud of his trophies from the Baltimore Summer Special tournaments, where he won the consolation in 1997 and the main in 2003.

Ed Hart

Ed Hart (Port Angeles WA), a charter member of PA Peggys, recently lost a short battle to lung cancer. Nicknamed "Shooter," Ed was a very good cribbage player and even more accomplished at poker and on the trap-shooting range, hence the nickname.

Ed Kasner

Ed Kasner, a member of Club 328 in Bradenton FL, passed away at age 87 in July. Ed will be remembered for being a tough opponent, his gentle ribbing, his beautiful smile, and his interesting stories. But—win or lose—Ed was always the gentleman. He will be missed by all.

Dale Kochenburg

Dale Kochenburg (San Jose CA) passed away on June 7 at age 73. Dale was very competitive, a little excitable, and always at or near the top in the quarterly races at Club 48—the Silicon Valley Sharks. Dale won the prestigious Tournament of Champions not once—but twice! He had earned both his Master and Bronze

Awards. Always very helpful in making sure that club ran smoothly, Dale made playing in club a lot of fun. We will miss him.

Thomas Mintner

Tom Mintner died suddenly on July 25 at age 70. A member of the ACC and Milwaukee Club 6 for over twenty years, he was a Master with four main wins (two at the Milwaukee Challenge) and one consolation. He also earned his Bronze Award in Grass Roots play. A great opponent, he will be missed.

Dave Stratford

Dave Stratford (Napa CA) passed away August 13 after a yearlong battle with cancer. He loved both cribbage and poker. In both he was a formidable competitor. But win or lose, he was always a good sport. He was also a great help to new players, both welcoming them and helping them. Dave was a charter member of the Napa CA Century Peggars. While playing in Club 100 he earned his Silver Award. He also won a couple of weekend tourneys and was nearing the Master level. Sadly cancer cut his life short just eleven days shy of his 55th birthday. He will be greatly missed by his fellow players.

Cribbage Quiz Answer

A 0-to-15 improvement by the cut card can happen only in the crib. The crib must contain 4-6-J plus either a 9, 10, Q, or K; all four cards must be in the same suit; and the cut card must be a 5 of the same suit. This yields three 15-2s, a run of three (4-5-6), nobs, and a five-card flush—for a total of 15 points.

COOL STUFF WE FOUND ON THE WEB

missoulian.com The August 15 Sports Illustrated cover story about Dustin Pedroia mentions his cribbage rivalry with manager Terry Francona: "Francona and Pedroia have such a close relationship that they resemble a traveling comedy team. They play cribbage every day—they get hundreds of cribbage boards, many of them handcrafted, from fans—and during games they exchange high-decibel insults. 'A screamfest,' Francona says. 'I like beating his ass,'" Pedroia says.

GAME ON

by Dan Zeisler

Youth Teaching Tip

Many youngsters learning the game of cribbage are already card players. They may know games such as poker, blackjack, and other games where the Ace can be used as either a high or low card. Since some of your students may be used to this concept, it is important in the early stages of teaching cribbage to continually remind them that the Ace can be only a low card in cribbage. In my teaching experience, I have had to correct several new players who tried to claim a run with Q-K-A, even after stressing that an Ace is low. Be on the lookout for this closely as you work with your students.

Youth News

On May 21, eighteen students in the fifth and sixth grades at Sunrise Elementary School in Puyallup WA played in their first-ever cribbage tournament. The format was a five-game tourney with no playoffs. The top finisher was Alex Hendricks, who had a grand slam 11/5 +111. Second place was Alexa Scheihe, with a grand slam 11/5 +58. Both winners were in the sixth grade. The tournament was conducted by ACC member Don Zeitschel (Puyallup WA).

A huge thank you to ACC members Marlene Lazachek (Franklin WI) and Mel Ashley (Marina CA) for donating several beautiful trophy boards to the youth program. If you are hosting a youth tournament, prize boards are available. For more details, email me at danthefan@yahoo.com.

Teaching Manuals

Recent requests for youth teaching manuals were received from the following people. Watch for a youth boom in these areas!

The President's Column

by Jeanne Hofbauer

I remember ACC founder Joe Wergin telling me about his vision for the Grass Roots program. It was established so that people would not have to travel long distances or spend a lot of money in order to participate in ACC tournament cribbage. Bob Julian has told me that he had taken Joe on a tour of Milwaukee to different establishments that had cribbage leagues and competitions. So a great idea was born and carries on in our current Grass Roots program, which now has 4,300 members.

Grass Roots is where Roy and I played our first ACC cribbage, and we were hooked immediately. We enjoyed the competitiveness and friendliness of the people we met there. We still belong to the same club we joined in 1985, but of course many of the faces have changed, and what was once one large club has become several smaller clubs.

The Grass Roots program has now grown to include a Travelers' Club for people who either travel a lot or spend part of their year in another area of the country. This allows them to earn Grass Roots points and awards even though they are away from their home club. Joan Rein reports that sixty players belonged to the Travelers' Club in its first season, and more will join this season. With some expected changes and improvements, members will be able to log in to the members-only portion of the Grass Roots website and see their points and how they rank in the Travelers' Club.

Being a member of a Grass Roots club is like belonging to a family that has a get-together on a regular basis. You make friends for life and participate in a great game. I would highly recommend joining one!

Thanks to Joan Rein for her input on this column and for her continuing work as Grass Roots Commissioner.

INTERNET Cribbage IRPs

BY ROBERT MILK

internet director // robert_milk@alum.wpi.edu

2010–2011 Wrap-Up

Mike Fetchel (mfetch425) is the ACC internet champion for the 2010–2011 season. Mike finished more than 200 IRPs ahead of the pack, which included two former internet champs in second and third place: Tom Langford (yanknshank29) and Mark Van Dyke (loosespokes).

The top ten IRP earners this season, along with all players who reached eMaster or Grand eMaster this year, will receive awards at the awards banquet at Grand National, and the top 10% of internet players will be invited to the TOC in Reno next February.

By virtue of winning three tournaments during the month, Paul Gregson (cornellbigred1999) is the July player of the month.

Internet TDs

The internet TDs held 238 tournaments this season. Without the volunteerism of our fabulous tournament directors, there would be no ACC internet tournaments! Current directors are:

- Jerry Oxford
- John Schafer
- Alma Lace
- Timothy M. Julkowski
- Thomas West

25 Years Ago in the ACC

The cover of the September 1986 Cribbage World announced a new organizational structure for the ACC. In keeping with the grand American tradition of political speeches, ACC President Joe Wergin said, "It's either stagnation or progress; and we're not interested in the status quo from this point forth." The Reorganization Committee was to be headed by Joseph Seigle (Coventry CT).

Elsewhere in this issue we read that Bob McCabe (Brown Deer WI) won the Cornbelt Classic in Antioch IL and that Bob Michaelis (Marinette WI) won the Belle City Summer Classic in Sturtevant WI.

driving forces behind the start of the ACC internet cribbage program, Lois was on the original committee that got together in 2001 to plan and develop internet cribbage. We will miss Lois and all her contributions.

We are seeking a new assistant statistician. For the duties of this position, check out the Roles and Responsibilities link on the website. Additional requirements are a PC with MS Access and Excel. If you are willing to devote a couple of hours each week to this, please contact internet commissioner Bob Milk (robertmilk@inbox.com).

Sweet Onion Peggery 274 (Walla Walla WA)—having just completed our first tournament under the direction of John Reed, we would like to thank all who attended. We especially thank Cheri Morrow, for her wonderful computer-generated program; Maureen (Mo) Varnell and Patty Von Clasen, without whom the tournament would not have run as smoothly as it did; and Jim Morrow and Ron and Laurie Logan for cross-checking scorecards. The highlight of the tournament was our very own Helen Daniel (80+ years young) winning the consolation. Helen came to help out and had no intention of playing, but decided at the last minute to sign up. We are already making plans for next year's tournament. We had a blast! submitted by Zeke & Judee Blocklinger

Editor's note: The Grass Roots program is a great place to start tournaments, both to grow your club through media exposure and to bring new challenges to your members. In order to successfully run a tournament, the help of a club is extremely beneficial.

Club 306 (El Dorado Hill CA) completed its eighth season with the following winners. Club champion for the fourth time in eight years was James Fanning, who also won the end-of-year Tournament of Weekly Winners. Most improved player this year was Paul Love. Sportsperson of the year was Dave Phillips. Summer play has been very casual and quiet until the night of July 20. In game three Kevin Conrad got his first-ever 28-hand, and in game four Dave Neifert got the third 29-hand of his cribbage career. To finish the night off, Joyce Astel got her first-ever 28-hand. It was a wild and fun evening for everyone. submitted by Carl Backers

Boise Peggery Club 202 (Boise ID)—on August 8 Sean Daniels Sr. won his first six games and finished with 16/8 +47. His only loss was a 31-point skunk to Arlene Wilkinson, who on the strength of a 17/7 +140 scorecard finished in first place. submitted by Sean Daniels Sr.

Club champions listed on next page

Len Wahlig Club 288 (Collinsville IL), Crossroad Club 323 (Wentzville MO), and Missouri Good Hands Club 344 (Washington MO) periodically compete at each other's clubs. On July 14 Jerry Rowe from Club 323 won all seven games but failed to finish first, because John Perry of Club 288 also won all seven games and had a skunk for a 15-14 winning margin! The next week, however, these two players had only five wins between them! The luck seemed to be with Sherry Wittmus of Club 323, who scored a 29-hand. Even though it is summertime, there are still happenings all the time! submitted by Jerry Rowe

MAST!

The seventh annual Michigan All Star Tournament was hosted by the Grand Rapids Square Peggers on August 6 in Grand Rapids. Eight Michigan clubs played in MAST, each represented by four club members with the highest win percentage during the Grass Roots season.

After 28 games, the Mount Pleasant Peggers took first place by a narrow one-point margin over the Jackson Peggers, whom they played in the last rotation. The winning team included Phil Whitehouse (Weidman), Doug Brackemyre (Mount Pleasant), Doug Myers (Mount Pleasant), and Owen Mayer (Weidman).

The day's high score of 40 was Nick Green (Kentwood); second and third places were taken by, respectively, Jeff Shimp (Grand Haven) and John Schafer (Battle Creek), both with 37 points.

Other Grass Roots clubs playing in MAST were the following (listed in order of finish): Jackson, Muskegon, Kalamazoo, Grand Rapids #71, Grand Rapids #91, Battle Creek, and Rochester Hills.

According to tournament director David Aiken, MAST 8 will be held in the summer of 2012, and all Michigan Grass Roots clubs are invited to play. CW

FAST!

The fourth annual Florida All Star Tournament was hosted in early July by the Space Coast Peggers (Merritt Island), which won the 2010 event. Alas, the home team could not successfully defend their title, which—along with the traveling trophy and bragging rights—was captured by Palm Beach County Club 241 (Lake Worth).

Members of the winning team included Joe Daesch (Coconut Creek)—who posted the highest individual score (34) of the day—Sal Ditommaso (Boynton Beach), Esther Rolfe (Boynton Beach), and Chuck Barnes (Boca Raton).

Other high scores were posted by Joy Barnes (Daytona Beach), with 33 points, and John Blowers (Sanford), with 29.

In the All Star format, each club plays against four players from the other clubs, for a total of twenty games. This year, six Florida clubs played FAST (listed in order of finish): Halifax Area Cribbage Club, Greater Orlando Cribbage Club, Kissimmee Cribbage Klub, Space Coast Peggers, and Peg-Along of Haines City.

Ray and Nancy Wanke started FAST in 2008 and got these six clubs hooked on it. They invite all Florida clubs to join them next year. CW

GRTOC #6

Invitations for GRTOC #6 have been posted on the Grass Roots website. If you were the 2010–2011 champion at your club—see the complete list of champions on pages 30–31—visit accgrassroots.org/GRTOC for all the details. If you were a club champion in a previous year and have not yet played on your invitation, you are also invited to play GRTOC this year. Go to the website to see a complete list of eligible players.
