THE GREATEST GENERATION

by Jack B. Shumate III

Nineteen-year-old Stan Wilson, a recent high school graduate in North Dakota, was playing cribbage for a dime a game with some buddies on their Great Northern Railroad job site near the Canadian border when news came over the radio that the Japanese had bombed Pearl Harbor. A week later, Stan was at the recruiting center in Fargo being sworn in to the U.S. Marine Corps.

Stan served in both the Pacific and Atlantic theaters of war, with a brief stopover in San Diego to marry his high school sweetheart, Gail, on March 2, 1943. He was serving on an antiaircraft battleship during the Normandy invasion; they ran that ship right up on the sand so that even if it was struck by the Germans, it wouldn't

by David Aiken

Play smart, play fair, play fast.

All cribbage players live in fear of it. We love it when it happens to our opponents, but we can't stand it when it happens to us. What is it? To coin a term: nonadekaphobia—the dreaded 19-hand! Being unable to pick up your back peg and record a score—because you have no score, zero points—is one of the worst feelings a player can have.

As hard as it may be to believe, the number 19 can, however, sometimes be a good thing for cribbage players. It is not always bad. Here are a few of the good 19s found in cribbagedom:

- 19 players at Grass Roots club
- 19 GRPs earned at Grass Roots club (with or without a grand slam)
- 19 game points on your consolation scorecard (ditto)
- 19 points scored while pegging against

Duane Toll (a trip, a quad, and a go, if you're wondering)

- 19 years as the age of the youngest player at a tournament
- 19 points scored before lunchtime in a weekend tournament
- 19 points scored after lunch in a weekend tournament
- 19 games won in a 22-game tourney
- 19 points total in the negative column of your scorecard
- 19 players in the playoffs (meaning that tourney attendance topped 65 players, allowing another round of MRPs to be awarded to the qualifiers)

Rather than focusing on the negative, how about embracing the nineteen-ness in you, in all of us, and looking for the good 19s out there. Embrace your inner nineteen! CW

Target practice: feel free to take aim at the CW editor whenever we play—but be careful, or your name might end up in the center column!

Frustration

I have become increasingly frustrated as I read each new volume of Cribbage World. Although I have been playing cribbage for over thirty-five years, I only recently discovered the ACC, having joined last year (2015). Upon receiving my first Cribbage World, I soon realized that whoever is writing the various articles and information simply assumes that all ACC members know the terminology and abbreviations! For instance, in the May issue, in the Tourney Tidbits section, the person writing the article states: “We all know what a grand slam is.” I know what it means for many sports, but not cribbage. What are GRPs? What are MRPs? In the Grass Roots Clubs section (pg. 24), there were numbers in the first two columns and I have no idea what they meant! Please don’t assume that all of us are longtime members who know what everything means.

Scott Lee (Glenside PA)

Editor’s Note: Entering any new society or club or group can be intimidating. Cribbage World has two main duties: education of players and dissemination of info. It cannot, of course, print all the info that every newbie needs to know in every issue—both for lack of space and for fear of boring established players. Here are some specific answers to your questions: a grand slam is winning all games in a tournament (usually nine); detailed explanations of MRPs and GRPs were printed in the July and August 2007 CWs (and admittedly needs to be reprinted); the numbers on page 24 refer to rank, GRPs, and club number (the table header was accidentally omitted from the May issue). CW will continue to try to find the right mixture of education and dissemination. In the meantime, the easiest way to find out something is to ask other players at tournaments, club members, or BOD members.

Milestones!

Tourney Tidbits

7 + 7 Two players—Life Master (★) Jeanne Jelke (Redding CA) and Melvin Chase (Rickreall OR)—had grand slams (seven games) in the Newport In-Betweeners consolation, but only one of them could be called high qualifier. In this case, it was Jeanne.

28 + 28 On April 1—and this is no joke—Life Master (7★) DeLynn Colvert (Missoula MT) held back-to-back 28s in a game against Life Master (2★) Willie Evans (Kennewick WA). For those of you keeping score at home, the odds of this happening are 225,840,784 to 1 (approximately).

23 & 2 Life Master (★) David Campbell (Parsonsfield ME) hit a hot streak of cards at the Oregon Coast Classic. He won his last six games in the main (but did not qualify), followed this up with a grand slam in the consolation (starting, no less, with a skunk—see page 4 of the May Cribbage World), and then lost only two playoff games (one each to Life Master (7★) Duane Toll and very-soon-to-be Master Tammy Gibbons) in his march to the consolation championship. In all, Dave lost only two games in a twenty-five-game stretch, for a 92% winning average!

24 + 24 John “Rooster” Cogburn (Crescent City CA) scored a 24-hand and 24-crib in game ten against Dick Merck (Portland OR) in the Lincoln City main.

92 + 97 + 93 + 64 Who were those kids playing doubles on Friday night in Lincoln City OR. Miriam “Mim” Larson (Bremerton WA), age 92, teamed up with Hazel Weichseldorfer (Dupont WA), age 97, against Stan Wilson (Lincoln City OR), age 93, and a youngster: Stan’s 64-year-old nephew Michael Ward (Stanwood WA). In what might possibly be the oldest doubles game in history (combined age = 346), Stan and Michael won by eight points.

Correction

It was Nick Vowell (Baker City OR)—not his dad, Willis Vowell—who teamed up with Herb Petty (Baker City OR) to win the doubles at the Gene Sissel Memorial in March. Nick and Herb turned in an impressive grand slam in doubles, while Willis got two 28-hands in one game in another satellite event.

sink and they could keep banging away to provide cover for the landing troops.

When the war was over, Stan returned to civilian life in North Dakota. For the next fifty years, occupied by his career with the Burroughs office machine company, raising three children, and enjoying five grandchildren, Stan put cribbage aside, and he didn't play again until he and his wife moved to Canby OR in the 1990s, where his wife's older sister lived. One day, in the American Legion hall, he found a group playing cribbage upstairs. They talked him into joining the ACC, and Stan learned to play the game all over again, joining the local Grass Roots club and playing tournaments in Oregon and Washington. (Remarkably, Stan doesn't remember when or how he first learned to play; apparently, cribbage came with the body.)

After moving to Oregon, Stan built a large house for his family in Cannon Beach. Over the years he has also enjoyed doing intarsia woodwork, creating both decorative pieces and cribbage boards. His two granddaughters have given him five great-grandchildren, some of them already in their twenties and, Stan marvels, "bigger than I am." His three grandsons all live in England (one is a London firefighter), and they all play cribbage.

Now residing in Lincoln City OR, Stan is a member of ACC Grass Roots Club 420, where he earned his Bronze Award this season and got his second 28-hand of the season on May 2. One of the very few meetings he has missed was on the evening that he and Gail celebrated their 73rd wedding anniversary. CW

SEVENTY YEARS IN THE MAKING

On April 2, Master William Jones (Hermiston OR), a Silver Award-winning member of Oregon's First Club #2, was awarded five military medals. Not for his service in Iraq or another recent conflict, but for service during World War Two. William was stationed in Europe as an ordnance worker, and when he returned to civilian life after the end of hostilities, all thoughts of medals drifted away. The 92-year-old veteran received the medals—seventy years overdue!—in a ceremony in Hermiston: Presidential Citation, Good Conduct Medal, two campaign medals, and the World War II Victory Medal. For the full story, go to eastoregonian.com and type "Hermiston WWII Veteran" in the search box.

The President's Column

by Jeanne Hofbauer

I'm sure you have all heard of "random acts of kindness." Well if you subscribe to this way of thinking (and I hope you do), we all have a great opportunity to apply it to our fellow ACC members.

Humans going through the normal

There are so very many ways to offer kindness to those around us. Simple things like just stopping to talk with someone sitting by themselves, or offering to get someone coffee or water, or helping someone with their shuffling. How about

"No act of kindness, however small, is wasted."

—Aesop

"Be kind, for everyone you meet is fighting a hard battle."

—Plato

"Kindness should become the natural way of life, not the exception."

aging process start losing their sensory skills, and those of us who have been hit by health issues may notice such losses even more keenly and rapidly. None of us can hear and see at 50 or 60 or 70 like we could in our 20s. Other consequences of aging or illness such as loss of strength, endurance, and memory can affect our performance.

Acting kindly means you have a sympathetic attitude toward others and a willingness to show considerate behavior. So, how can you execute this idea as it would apply to us in cribbage? I really don't think that I need to tell you, but I will give some suggestions anyway.

not showing impatience or intolerance? I know lots of people who could not attend cribbage if they did not have someone to take them, and wouldn't that really be a loss for all of us? And we do not want players to stop coming because they are made to feel they are not playing fast enough or good enough.

We all love to see acts of kindness. Who has not seen or heard of traffic stopping for a mother duck and her babies crossing a road? Committing an act of kindness makes a person feel good.

Let's all give it a try.

Jeanne

Ruling Points . . .

We have never seen rule 4.4.a(3) enforced, and many people are possibly not even aware of it. It is the second worst penalty in the rulebook: "If either player is dealt the wrong number of cards other than as specified in rule 4.4.a.(2), there shall be a redeal by the same dealer. The player with the wrong amount must allow the opponent to confirm the amount. If the player does not, such as placing the cards face down on the pack, etc., the offender is assessed a backward penalty equal to ten points or enough to put both pegs 'off the board,' whichever is less. If the applicable backward penalty is less than ten points, the opponent is awarded points equal to the difference."

This rule reminds us that the pone is as responsible for keeping track of the cards as the dealer, taking the time to count the cards, separating them, and so on. A lot of older players are regular tournament and Grass Roots competitors, and we know that handling cards gets more difficult as age creeps upon us. Hopefully most folks can still manage to handle six cards and count them when dealt. With money involved, the motivation is still there to both keep extra cards, or throw a bad hand to the deck, the player claiming they had more than six cards.

Ruling Points is written by Patrick & Michael Barrett (Wisconsin Rapids WI). The brothers have been ACC judges since the early 1990s, and Patrick has been a senior judge since 2002. If you have a question about the rulebook or a judge call, send it to them at barrettsauctions@gmail.com.

ACC Awards

A self-taught player, Haley joined the ACC in 2006. A member (and now director) of Club 3 in the northwest Chicago suburbs, she has earned her Bronze Award and has been club champion four times.

Haley Hintze
(Carpentersville IL)
Grand Master #388

In a memorable seven-month span from June 2015 to January 2016, Haley won six tourneys! Her favorite tournament is any 22-game-main tourney that isn't cut-for-deal.

When asked who her toughest opponent was, Haley listed about a dozen players, but finally fessed up: "Emilio Perez is the toughest player in Illinois." Noncribbage interests include rock collecting (particularly Lake Superior agates), fishing, golfing, going to rummage sales and flea markets, and playing poker. Haley is a well-known poker and gambling writer and editor in her day job, and she was one of the people who helped expose the cheats and thieves behind the Absolute Poker and UltimateBet online-poker scandals last decade.

Cribbage Board of the Month

BY JAY FULWIDER

My wife, Lois, and I travel to Palm Springs CA every March. Over the years I have checked the ACC website to see if there is a Grass Roots club in the area. I understand that many folks visiting the Coachella Valley are there only for the winter months and return to the northern United States and Canada for the summer. That makes it difficult to maintain a regular Grass Roots club.

This year I again looked and, to my surprise, a club was listed in La Quinta CA. I contacted Dave Sumner, director of the Brown Bag Cribbage Club, and asked about visiting and bringing a friend.

Barry Heath (Saskatoon SK) and I joined the group of nineteen cribbage players and had a great time. The Brown Bag Cribbage Club plays around noon, thus the name. It is not your standard club, but has several ACC members. They play for only an hour and a half, and they mostly play doubles. Partners rotate after each game, and we were able to get four games in.

One of the ACC folks I played with was Dennis Phillips, director of Para-Pines Peggers Club 142 in Paradise CA. (Club codirector Barbara Allen fills in when Dennis is away.) Dennis explained that most snowbirds head north beginning around the first of April. The locals continue to play through the summer.

So, thanks to Dave and the other Brown Baggers, Barry and I enjoyed a fun afternoon of cribbage and met some nice folks. We hope to be back next year.

Now for this month's board. This leather board was in the mail when I returned home. It was sent to me by ACC member Terry Coons (OR-4220), a member of the Cribbage Board Collectors Society. She is also the society's webmaster and research chair. Over the years, Terry has provided a lot of information that has helped with my CBOM column.

This handmade board is very nicely tooled. If my collection has a specialty, it would be leather boards. So, thank you, Terry, for both the board and all your help. CW

Jay Fulwider collects cribbage boards from his home in picturesque Washington State, where he also enjoys golf, fishing, and racquetball. His philosophy on the key to life: "Just keep your pegs moving." Ideas for and questions about this column may be sent to him at budandotis@msn.com (put "Cribbage Board" in the subject line).

Youth Teaching Tip

It is easy to teach the basics of cribbage to a young player. The real challenges come when trying to get them to understand the game beyond recognizing 15s, runs, and pairs. One key area to focus on to help a youth become a competitive player is how to make good discarding decisions into the crib. Many years ago, Russ Adams (Minneapolis MN) put together an easy-to-follow, effective grid that addresses proper discarding. He gave me permission to use it in my teaching endeavors, and it has become an essential tool to help kids understand discarding strategies. This handout is not part of my teaching manual, but is available via email. I'll be happy to shoot you a copy if you'd like to use it for teaching purposes or to perhaps become a better player yourself. Send your request to me at danthefan@yahoo.com.

Youth News

The new Youth Master Point program is off and running and generating a lot of enthusiasm among young tournament players. Master points were issued at the fifth annual Memorial Youth Cribbage Tournament in Sacramento CA on May 21. Results will follow in the July column. A special thank you to Don Howard, Larry Hassett, and Rick Allen for setting up the system.

Many thanks to Don Zeitschel (Puyallup WA) for donating twelve cribbage boards to the youth program. They will soon find good homes with some of our new young players.

Want to conduct a youth tournament in your area? I will be happy to help get it off the ground by sending official youth scorecards and suggestions on how to make it a memorable event. Contact me at danthefan@yahoo.com.

Youth Cribbage

To see sanctioned youth tournaments, go to cribbage.org and click on "Youth Program" in the left column. Sanctioned youth tournaments will be listed in the right column. Contact Don Howard (grumpydopey@sbcglobal.net) for sanctioning of youth tournaments. Contact Dan Zeisler (danthefan@yahoo.com) for nonsanctioned tournaments and funding.

Cribbage Stories from around the ACC

Remembering

BY IRA T. DEUTSCH

When I was a member of Club 43 in Fremont CA, I got to know Charlie Dunn much better than when we'd merely been opponents in the past. So, when he died in 2014, although I disdain funerals, I went to Charlie's.

The priest said something that really impacted me. To paraphrase, he said that the memories of those who had recently passed, like Charlie, can be kept alive by telling others of their lives and remembering them.

I obtained my first "Ira's Towing" cap from Clarence Van Orso, the late patriarch of an old-line Oregon cribbage family. True, I had to chase Clarence for three tournaments until I finally got him to trade it with me, but every time I wear it I think and speak of him.

Don Bush was a member of Crescent

City's Grass Roots club who has since passed on. I used to say "see one, play one" when playing a card that matched the cut card. But from Don, I learned to say "pair the board," and now I say this in his memory.

Rich Scott of Carson City NV recently passed away. Besides his playing abilities, Rich made some unique pegs out of bird bone from India. I have several and play with them whenever I can, again in his memory.

So, let's keep the memories of these past players alive. (Someday they'll be talking about you and me.) Mention their names, tell of their exploits, celebrate their accomplishments. CW

"Chronicling America" is a website that provides online access to a searchable database of US newspapers from 1836 to 1922. The project is sponsored jointly by the National Endowment for the Humanities and the Library of Congress. Go to

Advertise Your Club at a Restaurant

Have you eaten in a restaurant where the menu or placemat includes advertisements from local organizations? The ads might be for car repair services, plumbers, gardening, and so on. A cribbage ad should work well there. Ads are normally business card size or larger and generally cost $50 to $200. The ad is normally good for a year or two, and good through menu changes. Timing can be tricky as you may have to wait for a new advertising cycle to start. If you have such a restaurant nearby and are interested, contact them to be put on their waiting list.

25 Years Ago in the ACC

The cover of the June 1991 Cribbage World announced that rookie player Terry Nelson (Lebanon OR) won the Oregon Coast Classic main and Lee Chambers (then of Corvallis OR, now of Albany OR) the consolation.

Elsewhere we read that Aggie Mikulsky (Sobieski WI) won the Capital City Classic in St. Paul MN. In addition, ACC membership in California topped 1,000 for the first time, and nationwide it was 5,875.

IN MEMORY OF CRIBBAGE FRIENDS

Arnie Groskreutz

Arnie Groskreutz (Mankato and Wells MN) passed away at age 88 on July 18, 2015. He was U.S. Navy veteran, awarded the World War II Victory Medal, and discharged at the rank of Yeoman Third Class. Arnie was a public educator for twenty-nine years in Minnesota and Iowa before retiring in 1993. Arnie enjoyed cribbage and was always a gentleman on the boards. He held a 29-hand in 1999 and directed tournaments in Albert Lea MN many years ago. Due to health, he was not able to participate in tournaments in recent years.

Raymond Schenk

Ray "Junior" Schenk (Franklin, WI) died April 22 at age 75 from heart complications/blood infections. Ray was a member of Milwaukee Club 6, had earned his Master Award, and was close to his Bronze.

Kenneth Anthony Slama

Ken Slama died on May 2 at age 92. Born on the family farm in North Dakota, he moved to California in 1952 and worked as a machinist for Douglas Aircraft and Rockwell International until his retirement in 1986. He then lived in Utah and Washington before returning to California in 2002. He loved cribbage (earning both Bronze and Master), poker, the Rams, the Dodgers, and a cold beer. Ken often said that cribbage saved his life. After moving to Washington, he endured some personal loss and was depressed. He found a cribbage group that took him in and treated him like one of the family. He became quite active and truly loved and appreciated that group. His wry sense of humor will be missed.

We realize many folks are computer-shy, but it is the best way to see up-to-date info about all your friends across the country that may not get included in the monthly magazine. 28-hands normally don't make it to this venue since they are so numerous, but notable events (like clubs or people scoring two in one night, or on a player's first night of play) rate a mention.

The GRP battles are heating up in many clubs. Central Wisconsin Cribbage Club 120 (Wisconsin Rapids WI) is seeing an epic battle at year end. With three weeks to go, GRP leader Mike Barrett has seen his brother Patrick steal the lead, scoring 59 points in the last three weeks, while Mike has been one game short of ratings points each week! Jerome Tork kept himself in this race by scoring a grand slam in the second half of the GRNT.

Greater Okaloosa Club 131 (Walton Beach FL)—Paul Hearon scored a monster 21-point grand slam card with 235 plus points on April 20. They also had the rare event of two 28-hands happen in one night, held by Steve Flemming and Annette Seda.

Truckee/North Tahoe Sharks Club 222 (Truckee CA)—Bill Fitch came back to play after healing from a broken wrist, and those who helped him shuffle and deal also helped him to a grand slam! Oddly enough, this is the second time that a player with a broken wrist has scored first place in Club 222! Daryl Mills was the other one.

Halifax Area Club 230 (Ormond Beach FL) saw its first grand slam in a long time, with Alvin Lokitz winning 9 of 9.

Edmonton Peggys Club 261 (Edmonton AB) saw a grand slam result with this incredible play: Lorne Tanton is playing Gary Wirth, and he's won his first eight games. The score is 76 (Lorne dealing) to 99 (Gary). Lorne picks up 3-3-4-4-5-K. Through insanity (or genius!), he pitches 5-K to his crib and, according to Gary “I cut him the bleeping 5!” After pegging, hand, and crib, Lorne is at 110 with first count and Gary dealing at 112. Lorne picks up a perfect 2-2-3-4 that improves to victory after a 6 cut—pulling a grand slam from the jaws of defeat!

Yuma Snowbirds Club 267 (Yuma AZ)—Jerry Blackman and Dave McGuire scored grand slams. The club also doubled up on 28-hands: Helen Crocker and Bill Link both held 5-5-5-5 and cut face card.

Yankton Club 397 (Yankton SD) welcomed new player Jim Wehrer, and on his first night playing he scored a 28-hand!

A nice story about Life Master (2★) Elmer “Ras” Rasmussen (Chehalis WA) earning his Platinum Award appears in The Chronicle (Lewis County WA). Go to chronline.com and type “cribbage” in the search box.

The Inside Track

by Rob Medeiros

Sometimes by playing a not so obvious card, we end up confusing our opponent and winning the pegging battle. You are dealer holding A-A-4-10. Your opponent leads a 7; what do you play? Almost instinctively you reach for your 10, but let's think a second. If your opponent has 7-8-9-10, he might lead a 7. If he has 7-7-8-6, he would definitely lead a 7. So play your 4 and see what happens. In those two particular hands, the 4 response works much better than the 10. It is also highly unlikely the opponent has a 4 while leading a 7. So the next time you think you have an obvious play, take an extra moment to think of all the possibilities.

Life Master (2★) Rob Medeiros (Dorchester MA) won the 2016 TOC in Reno using smart plays like this. Send questions and comments to him at mrob2199@aol.com.
